A UCF WIN WOULD

- Be better than a loss
- Be the Knights first over Florida
- Give UCF its sixth bowl win since 2005
- Be the Knights' fourth win against an FBS team in Raymond James Stadium since November 2018, two more than South Florida has in that time frame
- Mark the Knights' fourth over teams in the SEC

GOING BOWLING

This marks a program-record sixth straight bowl appearance for UCF, the ninth in the last 10 seasons and the 13th overall in 17 years.

The Knights have played in bowls in the Tampa Bay area four times before, having played in the 2009 St. Petersburg Bowl, the 2012 Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl, the 2014 Bitcoin St. Petersburg Bowl, and the 2019 Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl.

UCFACTS

• Head coach Gus Malzahn took over as head coach at UCF on Feb. 15, 2021. Malzahn previously led Auburn to the BCS National Championship Game in 2013, eight straight years of bowl game appearances with the Tigers, an SEC Championship, two SEC West Division titles, and six New Year's Day bowl selections. He was the National Coach of the Year in 2013.

• Since the start of the 2017 season, UCF has accumulated a record of 49-12. The Knights went 13-0 in 2017, 12-1 in 2018, 10-3 in 2019, 6-4 in 2020, and finished the 2021 regular season at 8-4 under Malzahn. UCF's 49 wins in its last 61 games trails only Alabama, Ohio State, Clemson, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, and Georgia nationally for the most victories in a program's last 61 contests.

• Having started the program in 1979 and only having been playing at the FBS level since 1996, UCF became the youngest program by 35 years to win a New Year's Six/BCS bowl game when the Knights defeated Baylor in the 2014 Fiesta Bowl. UCF is one of just 16 programs to have appeared in three New Year's Six/BCS bowl games between 2013-20 and one of only 13 to have won two such games in that span.

• The Knights dealt with adversity all season long, having lost nine starting caliber players for a considerable amount of time. Quarterback Dillon Gabriel missed nine games, running back R.J. Harvey missed the entire season, running back Isaiah Bowser missed five games, and Jaylon Robinson missed six games for the offense. On defense, all-conference tackle Kalia Davis missed five games, defensive tackle Ricky Barber missed two, linebacker Bryson Armstrong missed two, while cornerback Corey Thornton and linebacker Tatum Bethune missed the majority of the Louisville game and the Navy game.

• UCF still managed to finish the regular season with an 8-4 overall record, the 12th season in the program's FBS era (1996-present) of winning eight or more games in a season, the seventh time in the last 10 seasons and the fourth straight non-COVID19 shortened season of doing so. The Knights were third in the American Athletic Conference at 5-3.

• UCF had a program record five players selected in the 2021 NFL Draft (Richie Grant, 2nd Round; Aaron Robinson, 3rd Round; Jacob Harris, 4th Round; Tay Gowan, 6th Round; Tre Nixon, 7th Round). It was more than all other AAC teams, 80% of all Big-12 teams, 79% of all Big Ten teams, 79% of ACC teams, 75% of Pac-12 teams and 57% of SEC teams. The Knights have had nine top 100 picks since 2014 and had 24 former players on NFL rosters during the 2021 preseason.

UCF and Florida recently announced a future three-game regular season series, scheduled to play in Gainesville in 2024 and 2033 and in Orlando at the Bounce House in 2030.

LAST TIME OUT

With the game on the line and South Florida driving inside the 5-yard line, the UCF defense came up with its sixth sack of the game and the clock expired to give the Knights a 17-13 victory over the visiting Bulls and a 7-6 lead in the War On I-4 rivalry series.

UCF (8-4, 5-3 AAC) made it necessary for South Florida (2-10, 1-7 AAC) to go for the last second touchdown when quarterback Mikey Keene led the Knights on a 10-play, 61-yard scoring drive that lasted five minutes and 24 seconds and culminated in a 32-yard Daniel Obarski field goal that put UCF up 17-13 with less than nine minutes to play in the game.

The three points from Obarski were the only points for the Knights in the second half, as UCF built a 14-7 first-half lead on one touchdown on the ground in the first quarter and a second through the air in the second quarter.

Redshirt freshman Parker Navarro scored for the third time in the last three games to give UCF an early lead, rushing for a 3-yard touchdown to cap an 8-play, 63-yard drive that gave the Knights the early lead.

After the Bulls tied things up on the final play of the first quarter, UCF made it 14-7 when Keene found Brandon Johnson for a 7-yard touchdown pass, the senior's 11th of the season. UCF took advantage of a short field after Titus Mokiao-Atimalala recorded a career-best 39-yard punt return to get the Knights started at the South Florida 27-yard line.

UCF finished the season 8-4, recorded eight or more wins for the fourth time in the last five seasons. The Knights also completed the 2021 season undefeated at home, the fourth time in the last five seasons doing so.

OFFENSE NOTES

OFFENSIVE OUTPUT

•UCF ranked in the top eight nationally in both total offense and scoring offense in 2018, 2019, and 2020, the only team in the country to accomplish that.
• The Knights scored 30 or more points in 31 straight games from Aug. 31, 2017 to Sept. 28, 2019, which set a record for the longest streak in the Associated Press Poll era (since 1936) at the time.
• UCF has scored 30 or more points in 51 of its last 60 outings, 40 or more points in 32 of its last 60 games and has reached the 50-point plateau 16 times in the last 60 outings.
• This season, the Knights currently rank 38th in the nation in scoring offense at 32.2 points per game and 68th in total offense with 399.7 yards of total offense per game.

KEEN(E) OBSERVATIONS

• True freshman Mikey Keene was thrust into the action after all-conference quarterback Dillon Gabriel went down with a broken clavicle in the loss to Louisville (Sept. 17).
• Keene, who led Chandler High to a 10-0 record and Arizona Open Division state title in 2020, won the backup job in preseason camp and earned his first start against Navy (Oct. 2). He is the seventh Knight in the FBS era to start at quarterback as a true freshman and just the third to throw for two touchdown passes in first-career start as a true freshman.
• He earned his first win as a starter against ECU (Oct. 9), going 23-of-35 for 194 yards.
• Keene threw for over 200 yards in three of the final five regular season games, recording identical yardage totals of 229 yards in wins over Temple (Oct. 30) and Tulane (Nov. 6), and then throwing for 208 in the win over UConn (11/20).
• In the win over Temple, Keene became the first UCF freshman to throw for five touchdowns in a game and just the seventh Knight regardless of year to do so.

RECEIVERS ROLLING

• A first-team all-conference receiver a season ago, Jaylon Robinson missed six games after suffering an injury in the loss at Louisville (Sept. 17), but returned to action at SMU (11/13).
• He has managed 18 receptions for 322 yards with two touchdowns in just six games.
• Graduate transfer Brandon Johnson and junior Ryan O'Keefe have stepped up while Robinson was out. Johnson has caught 11 touchdown passes in his first 12 games with the Knights. In five seasons with Tennessee, he caught only one touchdown pass.
• Son of former Major League Baseball catcher Charles Johnson and cousin of former All-Pro NFL receiver Chad Johnson, he ranks 11th in the nation with his 11 touchdowns, scoring at least one in 10 of 12 regular season games.
• Johnson is now tied for eighth at UCF for toucdhown receptions in a single season and would move into fifth with one in the bowl game.
• O'Keefe has been the workhorse at receiver, hauling in 77 catches for 727 yards in 12 games, scoring six touchdowns through the air, while adding 12 rushes for 164 yards and a score on the ground, and three pass completions on three attempts with two touchdowns for 66 yards. His 77 catches are tied for the sixth most in a single season by a Knight and with two more he will move into UCF's top five. It marks the most receptions by a UCF player in a single season in the last 15 years.

THE BIG BOYS ARE BACK

• UCF returned its an entire offensive line from last season, which includes six different o-linemen that started games in 2020.
• Both Matthew Lee at center and Edward Collins at tackle started all 10 games a season ago, while Cole Schneider started nine times at guard, Samuel Jackson started eight times at both guard and tackle, Lokahi Pauole started eight times at guard, and Marcus Tatum started five times at tackle.
• This season it has been Jackson, Pauole, Lee, Schneider, and Tatum in all but one game, when Adrian Medley filled in at guard and Schneider moved to center due to an injury to Lee.
• The current UCF offensive linemen have now combined for 148 career starts at UCF and 159 total collegiate starts, including Tatum's 11 starts at Tennessee.
• Schneider leads the pack with 46 career starts in his time at UCF, but got his first start at center at Louisville on Sept. 17, filling in for the injured Lee.

RUNNING BACK ROOM

• The UCF rushing attack has looked a lot different in 2021, as the Knights replaced their top three running backs from a season ago in Greg McCrae, Otis Anderson and Bentavious Thompson.
• The most experienced back in the room is graduate transfer Isaiah Bowser, who totaled 334 carries for 1,300 yards and seven touchdowns with Nortwestern the previous three seasons.
• In his first game as a Knight, Bowser rushed 33 times for a career-high 172 yards and a touchdown, becoming the first UCF running back to record 30 or more rushes since Brynn Harvey in 2011.
• In week two, Bowser scored four rushing touchdowns, just the third Knight to do so. He suffered an injury in the loss at Louisville and has missed games against Navy (Oct. 2), ECU (Oct. 9), SMU (11/13), UConn (11/20), and South Florida (11/26).
• As a team, UCF ranks 38th in the nation in rushing with 188.7 rushing yards per game.
• Johnny Richardson has been the guy to fill in for Bowser when he has gone down, leading the team with 693 yards on 101 carries for a 6.9 yards per carry average that currently as the second best mark in program history. Mark-Antony Richards has scored five times in a reserve role, totaling 309 yards on 48 carries, including eight for 104 at SMU (11/13). Bowser still leads the team with seven scores and 124 carries with a total of 548 yards on the ground and 74 yards through the air.

DEFENSE NOTES

TALKING TOTAL DEFENSE

• The UCF defense has been impressive at times this season. New defensive coordinator Travis Williams has the Knights ranked 55th in total defense on the season.
• That ranking is second only to the 2019 season in the last five years for UCF.
-- 2019 (32nd), 2021 (55th), 2017 (93rd), 2018 (95th), 2020 (123rd)
• The Knights currently rank fourth in the American Athletic Conference in total defense, allowing 368.8 yards per game.
• UCF has given up less than 300 yards of total offense in five games this season, five of its eight wins. The last time the Knights have done so in five games during a season was 2014, allowing less than 300 yards six times.
-- Sept. 2 vs. Boise State (283), Sept. 11 vs. Bethune-Cookman (279), Oct. 22 vs. Memphis (292), Oct. 30 at Temple (297), Nov. 6 vs. Tulane (279)
• Allowing less than 300 yards in each of its first two games, UCF did so in consecutive outings for the first time since the 2014 season, and then did it three straight games, again the first time doing so since 2014.

POINTS AT A PREMIUM

• After giving up 33.2 points per game last season, the Knights have improved in 2021, allowing only 25.2 points and ranking 55th in the country, after ranking 92nd in scoring defense a year ago.
• The Knights gave up a total of 24 points in three consecutive games, holding Memphis (Oct. 22) and Temple (Oct. 30) to just seven points each, and allowing 10 to Tulane (Nov. 6). The average of 8.0 points per game given up in that span - as well as the 10 points or less - is the best scoring defense outing for UCF since 2014 (14 total points Nov. 14-28).
• UCF went five consecutive quarters without allowing a point against Memphis and Temple and then held Tulane off the board in three out of four quarters.

TURNOVER TOWN

• The Knights have had a knack for getting takeaways the last couple of seasons, ranking sixth in the nation last season and currently ranking 33rd with 20 takeaways in 2021.
• UCF has been especially impressive at forcing and recovering fumbles, leading the nation a year ago with 13 fumble recoveries and ranking 22nd this year with nine through 12 games.
• Defensive tackle Cam Goode ranks 11th in the nation in forced fumbles with four, while safety Quadric Bullard ranks third in the nation with three fumble recoveries. Defensive end Josh Celiscar also ranks 21st in the country with two fumble recoveries.
• UCF is 5-0 when having fewer turnovers than its opponent this season and 4-0 when recording three or more takeaways.

NO FLY ZONE

• The UCF defense ranks 41st in the nation in pass defense, allowing only 213.3 passing yards per game.
• Only one team has put forth a 300-yard passer against the Knights this season (SMU, 11/13).
• Five times this season, UCF has allowed less than 200 yards passing in a game, including four of the last seven outings of the regular season.
• UCF had just two team sacks through its first four games, but has averaged 4.0 sacks per game over the last eight games and 4.5 per game over the last six contests of the regular season.
• The Knights rank 28th in the nation with 2.83 sacks per game on the season and 18th with 7.0 tackles for loss per game.
• The Knights' six sacks against Memphis were the most since the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl against Auburn and then they did it again in the regular season finale against South Florida.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

OH OH IT'S OSTEEN

• Andrew Osteen continues to climb the UCF charts, now ranking fourth with 163 career punts and fourth with 6,875 career punt yards.
• A member of the Ray Guy Award preseason watch list, Osteen's career average of 42.2 yards per punt is the second best in UCF history, and the best of anyone with more than 100 career punts.

KICKIN' IT

• Daniel Obarski started as a kickoff specialist as a freshman and then went 12-of-17 on field goals and scored 82 points as a sophomore for the Knights in 2020.
• This season he has hit 51 of his 52 extra point attempts and has connected on five of his 10 field goal attempts, including a career-long 40-yarder against ECU on Oct. 9.
• His 51 extra points are the fifth most in a single season at UCF.

SNAP BACK

• Alex Ward was named a finalist for the Patrick Mannelly Award for the best snapper in the nation on Nov. 29. He recovered a fumble in the win over Memphis (Oct. 22) and had a tackle in the win over South Florida (11/26).

Gus Malzahn's first season as UCF head football coach in 2021 featured five wins in the Knights' final six regular-season games, an overall 8-4 mark good for a postseason bowl invitation (10th straight for teams coached by Malzahn and sixth straight for UCF), a perfect 7-0 home record—and an eye-opening response to a parade of injuries to key personnel.

Malzahn's Knights began the season by recording the largest comeback victory in UCF history in a 36-31 weather-delayed triumph over Boise State. His first team in Orlando prospered by pulling out three other wins by four-point margins and playing six games overall decided by a touchdown or less—with two UCF defeats coming by a combined 11 points.

The Knights had to survive the early-season loss of their starting quarterback (Dillon Gabriel—he missed the last nine games) as well as lengthy sideline stints for their best defensive player (tackle Kalia Davis—he missed the last seven games), their top running back (Isaiah Bowser—he missed five games) and their most dangerous receiver (Jaylon Robinson—he also missed five games).

Malzahn, who led Auburn to the Bowl Championship Series National Championship Game following the 2013 season in the first of eight straight years his Tigers qualified for bowl games, was named the ninth head football coach at UCF on Feb. 15, 2021.

In eight years as head football coach at Auburn, Malzahn also led the Tigers to a Southeastern Conference Championship, two SEC West Division titles and six New Year's Day bowl selections among those eight postseason appearances.

Malzahn, now 85-42 (.669) in 10 seasons overall as a head coach, has helped teams to seven conference championship game appearances in his 16 seasons as a collegiate coach, including winning a pair of SEC Championships at Auburn (2010, 2013) and a Sun Belt Championship at Arkansas State in 2012. In the final Associated Press rankings his Auburn teams finished second (2013), 10th (2017), 22nd (2014) and 24th (2016).

The 2013 Bear Bryant, Bobby Bowden, Eddie Robinson, Home Depot, Sporting News, SB Nation, Liberty Mutual and Associated Press National Coach of the Year, Malzahn earned SEC Coach-of the-Year honors that season after guiding Auburn to the biggest turnaround in SEC history. He led the Tigers to a 12-2 record and one of the most memorable seasons in school history in 2013, with historic wins over Georgia and top-ranked Alabama and a record-setting SEC Championship Game win over fifth-ranked Missouri. He became just the third coach in SEC history to win an SEC title in his first year at a school, joining LSU's Bernie Moore in 1935 and Ole Miss' John Vaught in 1947.

The 34-28 victory over top-rated Alabama in 2013 came on a memorable 100-yard return of a Tide missed field goal on the final play of the game. Malzahn's Tiger squads also defeated seventh-ranked Texas A&M in 2013, seventh-rated Ole Miss in 2014, second-ranked Georgia and top-rated Alabama in 2017 and fifth-ranked Alabama in 2019.

After his eight seasons at Auburn, Malzahn qualified as the second-longest tenured head coach at one school in the SEC. He is one of only 10 active FBS head coaches to take a team to a national championship game. During his time with the Tigers, Auburn was one of only three SEC schools to play in multiple SEC Championships games and play for a national championship.

Malzahn has produced 15 1,000-yard rushers in 16 seasons as a college coach, including Heisman Trophy finalist Tre Mason (1,816) and Nick Marshall (1,068) in 2013 and Cameron-Artis Payne (1,608) in 2014. Kamryn Pettway ran for 1,123 yards in 2016 (despite missing significant time with injuries) and Kerryon Johnson led the SEC with 1,320 yards in 2017.

On three occasions, Malzahn has had two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season: 2013 and 2010 (both Auburn) and 2006 (Arkansas). Malzahn has also coached five 1,000-yard receivers and three 3,000-yard passers. His 2007 Tulsa team had three 1,000-yard receivers.

During Malzahn's eight years at Auburn, the Tigers had the top rushing offense in the SEC, averaging 228.6 yards per game. In 2013, Auburn led the nation in rushing at 328.3 yards per game, the first SEC team to do so. Three of the top six team rushing totals in SEC history (2010, 2013, 2016) came under Malzahn's leadership. Auburn became just the second team in SEC history to gain more than 7,000 yards of total offense in a season in 2013, finishing the year with 7,018 yards (also Texas A&M in 2012).

The Tigers set a school record with 48 rushing TDs in 2013 and set a school record against SEC opponents with 677 yards of total offense versus Missouri in the SEC Championship Game. The Tigers set SEC Championship Game team records with 26 rushing first downs, 74 rushing attempts, 545 rushing yards and seven rushing TDs.

Mason, the 2013 SEC Player of the Year, ranked third in the nation with 23 TDs, was fifth nationally with 1,816 yards rushing, sixth with 10.7 points per game, sixth with 169.57 all-purpose yards per game and eighth with 129.7 rushing yards per game. He set the Auburn single-season record with 1,816 rushing yards and 2,374 all-purpose yards and was second with 317 rushing attempts. His 46 rushing attempts and 304 rushing yards versus fifth-rated Missouri set SEC Championship Game records and fell three yards shy of the Auburn record.

In Malzahn's eight seasons at Auburn 32 players were selected in the National Football League Draft, highlighted by four first-round picks--including Derrick Brown (No. 7) and Noah Igbinoghene (No. 30) in 2020. Malzahn's other first-round picks were Greg Robinson (No. 2 overall) and Dee Ford (No. 23) in 2014. In the last two drafts combined (2020 and 2021), 12 Auburn players were drafted, most for the Tigers in a two-year span in the common draft era.

Malzahn coached 14 All-Americans as head coach at Auburn, including consensus selections center Reese Dismukes (2014) and defensive lineman Derrick Brown (2019). Brown won the Lott IMPACT Trophy in 2019, while Dismukes was named the 2014 Rimington Award winner as the nation's top center.

The Tigers faced the nation's most difficult schedule collectively during Malzahn's eight years at Auburn, facing 38 ranked opponents, including 21 in the top 10. Auburn was the nation's only program in 2016 to face both the No. 1- and No. 2-ranked programs and in 2017 it faced three of the four College Football Playoff semifinalists a total of four times, earning two wins.

Malzahn and his coaching proved highly successful on the recruiting trail, recording five consecutive top-10 nationally ranked recruiting classes, a first in Auburn history. Six of his eight recruiting classes rated in the top 11 nationally.

Malzahn, who won the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach in 2010 while helping the Tigers to the national title, returned to Auburn after serving as the head coach at Arkansas State in 2012 when he led the program to a 9-3 regular-season mark and the Sun Belt Conference title. In that role he worked hand in hand with current UCF vice president and director of athletics Terry Mohajir who was named the Red Wolves' vice chancellor and director of athletics in the middle of that 2012 season and remained in that role until coming to UCF in early 2021.

As offensive coordinator, Malzahn made an immediate impact during his tenure at Auburn, highlighted by a record-setting offense in 2010 when the Tigers finished 14-0 and claimed the school's first national title since 1957. Malzahn's arrival in 2009 and style of offense marked a drastic turnaround from the 2008 season when Auburn struggled offensively. In a two-year period, the Tigers improved from a tie for 110th to seventh in the nation in scoring offense (from 17.3 to 41.2) and from 104th to seventh in total offense.

The 2010 Auburn offense set nine school records, while leading the SEC and finished in the top 10 nationally in six statistical categories. He coached Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton, who had one of the best single-season performances at the position in college football history. Newton threw for 2,908 yards and 30 TDs, while rushing for 1,586 yards and 20 TDs. Newton, the No. 1 overall draft pick in the 2011 NFL Draft, also won the Davey O'Brien, Manning and Maxwell Award.

During two seasons (2007-08) as assistant head coach and co-offensive coordinator at Tulsa, Malzahn's offenses were among the nation's finest, ranking first nationally in total offense. Tulsa's offense in 2007 established nine team and 12 individual school records. The 2008 Tulsa offense averaged 569.9 yards per game and was second nationally, averaging 47.2 points per games. Malzahn in 2006 spent one season at Arkansas as offensive coordinator, coaching Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden and helping the SEC West champion Razorbacks finish fourth nationally in rushing.

Malzahn's coaching career began in his home state of Arkansas at the high school level. In 14 seasons as a high school head coach, Malzahn led seven teams to the state championship game and won three titles. In July 2013, he was inducted into the Arkansas High School Sports Hall of Fame. After one year as defensive coordinator in 1991 he spent four years (1992-95) as head coach at Hughes (Arkansas) High School, five years in 1996-2000 as head coach at Shiloh (Arkansas) High School and five years (2001-05) as head coach at Springdale (Arkansas) High School.

Born in Irving, Texas, Malzahn graduated from high school in Fort Smith, Arkansas, and played football at Arkansas (wide receiver in 1984-85) and Henderson State (receiver and punter in 1988-89), earning his bachelor's degree from Henderson State in 1990. As a player he helped the Razorbacks to the 1984 Liberty Bowl and the 1985 Holiday Bowl (a win over Arizona State).

Malzahn and his wife Kristi (Otwell) are parents of two daughters, Kylie (Collin) Peek and Kenzie (Charl) Stander.

PRODUCTIVE OFFENSES

Gus Malzahn was responsible for two of the four most productive offenses in SEC history: Auburn in 2013 (7,018 yards of total offense and Auburn in 2010 (6,989 yards of total offense).

50-POINT GAMES

Since the year 2000, in the eight years Malzahn was at Auburn, the Tigers posted 25 50-point games. In the 10 seasons without Malzahn, Auburn recorded just seven 50-point games. The Tigers recorded three 50-point games in a season four times with Malzahn as head coach (2013, 2016, 2018, 2019)

MALZAHN AT HOME

Malzahn now holds a record of 57-12 (.826) at home as a collegiate head coach. He was 5-1 in 2012 at Arkansas State, at Auburn went 8-0 in 2013, 6-1 in 2014, 3-4 in 2015, 6-2 in 2016, 7-0 in 2017, 5-2 in 2018, 6-1 in 2019 and 4-1 in 2020, and then finished 2021 with UCF 7-0. He started his tenure at Auburn with 13 consecutive home victories.

NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Gus Malzahn earned multiple national coach of the year awards in 2013, including the Eddie Robinson Award, the Bobby Bowden Award, and the Bear Bryant Award, as well as national coach of the year honors from Home Depot, the Associated Press, Liberty Mutual, Sporting News, SB Nation, and USSA Amos Alonzo Stagg.

BRIANBLACKMON TIGHT ENDS/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR | FIRST SEASON

Brian Blackmon's initial season as UCF's tight end coach and special teams coordinator in 2021 was highlighted by the emergence of former Knights walk-on tight end Alec Holler.

Holler moved into the starting lineup at midseason and caught 17 passes overall for 178 yards, including touchdowns receptions versus Temple (two) and Boise State. Those 17 receptions marked the most by a UCF tight end since Michael Colubiale's 21 in 2018.

On the special teams side, punter Andrew Osteen (he averaged 41.08 yards per kick) had 29 of his 66 attempts end with fair catches and another 17 downed inside the 20—while Daniel Obarski produced touchbacks on 37 of 68 kickoffs. In addition, long snapper Alex Ward became a finalist for the Patrick Mannelly Award as the top senior snapper in the nation.

Blackmon, a former member of Gus Malzahn's Auburn football staff and one of the most successful and respected high school coaches in the state of Alabama, rejoined Malzahn at UCF on Feb. 21, 2021.

Blackmon in 2020 concluded his third season on the Troy football staff. He added the role of special teams coordinator prior to the 2019 season after coaching Troy's tight ends and S-backs in 2018. Blackmon also coached the Trojan running backs in 2019 and then in 2020 worked exclusively with special teams. He joined the Troy staff following one season as an offensive analyst under Malzahn at Auburn after a 21-year career at Opelika (Alabama) High School.

In 2020, Troy finished 19th in punt-return defense (2.91 yards each), led the Sun Belt Conference (ranking 28th nationally) in net punting at 40.63 and blocked three kicks. Punter Jack Martin was a first-team All-Sun Belt pick as he led the country with his 45.8 net punting average while his 46.1 per-punt average was sixth nationally. Martin allowed just four returns on his punts for a total of seven yards, while having no touchbacks and 52 percent fair catches.

In one season coaching the running backs in 2019 Blackmon was dealt one of the most difficult hands in the country as Troy lost Sun Belt Conference Preseason Offensive Player of the Year B.J. Smith and two other running backs in week two to injury. He mentored Smith's replacement, DK Billingsley, toward a season where he rushed for 901 yards and 10 TDs.

Troy was once again one of the top special teams units in the country in 2019, ranking 17th in opponent kickoff return yards while limiting returns to just a 17.85-yard average. Troy was successful in all phases in which Blackmon had a hand in during his initial season with the Trojans. He played a vital role in Troy's special teams units, and the Trojans finished the season ranked number one in the country according to ESPN's special teams efficiency rating.

Blackmon also assisted with the Trojan special teams in 2018 as Troy finished fourth nationally in net punting. Tyler Sumpter set the school record by averaging 45.1 yards per punt (11th nationally), and the Trojans were ninth in the country averaging 25.0 yards per kickoff return. Sumpter finished one field goal shy of setting the school record with 18 makes on the year, and the Trojans were one of just 24 teams nationally to not allow a blocked kick.

Blackmon's first season at Troy in 2018 resulted in a 10-3 overall record, a victory at Nebraska and the Trojans' third straight bowl victory (42-32 over Buffalo in the Dollar General Bowl in Mobile). Smith turned in the fourth-best rushing season in school history with 1,186 yards (second in the Sun Belt) behind the blocking of Troy's tight ends and S-backs.

In Blackmon's lone season with the Tigers and Malzahn, Auburn's offense ranked in the top 30 nationally in total offense, rushing, pass efficiency and scoring as the Tigers won the Southeastern Conference West Division and played in the SEC Championship Game. Running back Kerryon Johnson was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year and Auburn finished the season with a Peach Bowl appearance against UCF after knocking off a pair of No. 1 teams--Georgia and Alabama--over the regular season's final three weeks.

Blackmon served as head coach of the Opelika High School football program in his final eight seasons (2009-16) at the school, while also serving as the athletics director during the same time period before leaving for Auburn in February 2017.

Opelika advanced to a pair of Alabama 6A state championship games (2012 and 2016), and the Bulldogs compiled a 69-25 record during Blackmon's tenure. He was honored as 6A Coach of the Year in 2012 by the Alabama Sports Writers Association, the Alabama Football Coaches Association, the Opelika-Auburn News, Columbus SportsVision and AL.com.

The Bulldogs won three consecutive region championships and advanced to the playoffs in seven of his eight seasons as head coach. Blackmon left Opelika as the third-winningest coach in the then-99-year history of the high school.

He has served as president of the Alabama High School Athletic Directors and Coaches Association and on the advisory, Hall of Fame, reclassification and all-star selection committees of the Alabama High School Athletic Association. Additionally, he served on the high school task force of USA Football and as a district board member of the Alabama Football Coaches Association.

Blackmon spent his first 13 years at Opelika as the offensive coordinator under legendary head coach Spence McCracken. He also served as assistant athletics director from 2001-08 and coached the soccer, wrestling and golf teams during his career at Opelika. He was named the Alabama Assistant Coach of the Year following the 2004 season and was a consistent figure on the coaching staffs of the Alabama-Mississippi and North-South all-star games.

A graduate of Robert E. Lee High School in Montgomery, Alabama, Blackmon was part of the 1991 state champion football team and was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2017. Blackmon played one season at North Alabama before transferring to Troy to complete his studies.

Blackmon earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from Troy in 1996 and a master's degree in business education from Auburn in 1998.

He and his wife Kellie have two children--Cade, a quarterback at Samford, and Carlyle.

DAVIDGIBBS CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SECONDARY | FIRST SEASON

UCF co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach David Gibbs played a major role in the Knights' second-half defensive surge in 2021—as his youthful secondary developed into one of the most productive in the country.

As the Knights won five of their final six games to finish the regular season, the UCF defense permitted just 10.8 points per game in those five victories. The Knights averaged 9.4 tackles for loss and 5.2 sacks in those five games—and finished the regular season ranked 12th nationally in pass efficiency defense (113.67) and 16th in tackles for loss (7.0 per game).

Winning postseason honors for 2021 among UCF defensive backs were safety Quadric Bullard (second-team All-American Athletic Conference by Pro Football Focus), safety Divaad Wilson (second-team All-AAC by vote of league coaches and third team by PFF) and cornerbacks Davonte Brown and Corey Thornton (both third-team All-AAC by PFF). Bullard and Wilson ranked second and fourth, respectively, in tackles for the Knights in 2021.

Gibbs, a 28-year veteran of the coaching industry, including 12 seasons as a defensive coordinator in the college ranks and nine seasons as a defensive backs coach for three different National Football League teams, was named co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach on Gus Malzahn's UCF football coaching staff on Feb. 18, 2021.

Gibbs was the secondary coach at Missouri the previous two years (2019-20) after spending four seasons as defensive coordinator (2015-18) at Texas Tech, where his defenses became known as some of the top turnover-creating units in the country.

Mizzou's defense in 2019 allowed the fewest first downs (195) of any Football Bowl Subdivision program while also ranking sixth nationally in pass defense (179.3 yards per game) under Gibbs. The Tigers were ninth in pass efficiency defense, 14th in total defense (312.0) and 16th in scoring defense (19.4).

In 2017, Texas Tech led the Big 12 Conference and ranked sixth nationally with 29 forced turnovers, including four defensive scores, most by a Texas Tech defense since 2001. From 2013-17, Gibbs' defenses at Tech and Houston forced a combined 140 turnovers, tied for most in the nation among any defensive coordinator during that five-year span. Gibbs previously served as defensive coordinator at Minnesota (1997-2000), Auburn (2005) and Houston (2013-14) and also took over as interim head coach for the Cougars' appearance in the 2015 Armed Forces Bowl. In that game, Gibbs' team posted the biggest fourth-quarter comeback win in bowl game history, overcoming a 31-6 deficit with just 11 minutes remaining to notch a thrilling 35-34 victory over Pittsburgh.

In his first season at the helm of the Red Raider defense, Gibbs preached the importance of forcing turnovers and the effects showed as Tech went from a minus-13 turnover margin in 2014 to plus-two in 2015. The Red Raiders picked off 15 passes and recovered 10 fumbles in 2015, a year after forcing just 15 turnovers altogether.

Gibbs quickly changed the defensive culture at Houston shortly after his arrival prior to the 2013 season. The Cougars ranked as the third-most improved scoring defense nationally and ranked 20th in the country after allowing 21.8 points per game, a significant improvement from the 36 points per game Houston surrendered in 2012.

The 2013 Houston defense led the nation with 43 turnovers forced to help lead the Cougars to a nation's best plus-25 turnover margin. Trevon Stewart led the nation and set a Houston record with six fumble recoveries, while Adrian McDonald led the AAC with six interceptions.

The dramatic defensive overhaul under Gibbs continued in 2014 as Houston finished the regular season ranked 11th nationally in scoring defense at 19.5 points per game and 19th nationally in total defense at 334.6 yards per game. The Houston defense was fifth nationally with 30 takeaways, including 19 interceptions (sixth nationally).

Prior to Houston, Gibbs' last collegiate coaching stop was in 2005 when he served as defensive coordinator at Auburn. The Tiger defense ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense, allowing just 15.5 points per game that season, while ranking 11th in sacks (39) and 16th in third-down defense.

On the professional level, Gibbs spent a combined nine seasons in Denver, Kansas City and Houston as a defensive backs coach. Teams sporting Gibbs on staff finished in the top 12 of total defense five times and advanced to the NFL Playoffs on three occasions. Three players under Gibbs earned NFL Pro Bowl selections--Champ Bailey, John Lynch and Deltha O'Neal.

Prior to joining the professional ranks, Gibbs became the youngest coordinator on the FBS level at the time as the then-29-year-old took over as defensive coordinator at Minnesota in 1997. Gibbs improved a Minnesota defense that had ranked last in the Big Ten in 1996 to one ranked eighth in the nation in pass efficiency defense and scoring defense by 1999.

Under Gibbs' tutelage, Tyrone Carter won the 1999 Jim Thorpe Award and back-to-back All-America honors in 1998 and 1999. Defensive end Lamanzer Williams earned All-America honors in 1997 as Gibbs' defense produced an All-American in three straight seasons for the first time at Minnesota since 1961-63.

Gibbs earned his first full-time coaching position in 1995 at Kansas, where he coached the program's defensive backs. The Jayhawks advanced to just their eighth bowl game in program history in Gibbs' first year when they defeated UCLA in the Aloha Bowl. Gibbs earned his first coaching opportunity with back-to-back two-year stints as a graduate assistant at both Colorado and Oklahoma.

The Auburn, Alabama, native was a four-year letterman at Colorado from 1987-90. He started at defensive back for the 1990 national title-winning Buffalo team and the 11-1 1989 team that finished fourth nationally in the final polls. Gibbs graduated from Colorado in 1990, earning Academic All-Big Eight honors as a senior.

Gibbs and his wife, Debbie, are the parents of two children--a son, Hudson, and a daughter, Charlie Grace.

HERBHAND OFFENSIVE LINE | FIRST SEASON

Herb Hand again proved in 2021 why he qualifies as one of the top offensive line coaches in the nation--as all five of his Knight starters earned some sort of postseason honors.

Pro Football Focus named guard Cole Schneider to its second team of All-American Athletic Conference performers--center Matt Lee and guard Lokahi Pauole made the third team, while tackles Sam Jackson and Marcus Tatum both merited honorable mention notice. On the All-AAC squad selected by league coaches, Pauole made the second team, while Schneider and Tatum were honorable mention picks. UCF was the only AAC team to have all five starters recognized by PFF.

With the Knights claiming victories in five of their final six games to close the regular season, Hand's charges played key roles in leading a UCF offense that was forced to play major portions of the season without quarterback starter Dillon Gabriel, running back Isaiah Bowser and receiver Jaylon Robinson.

Hand worked with Gus Malzahn at Tulsa in 2007-08 when they produced the number-one offense in the country and also coached the Auburn offensive line that helped the Tigers rank as one of three finalists for the 2017 Joe Moore Award as the top offensive line in the nation. Hand joined Malzahn's UCF football staff on Feb. 18, 2021.

Hand had most recently spent three seasons as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Texas, and enjoyed great success in stints at Auburn, Penn State, Vanderbilt, West Virginia and Tulsa. He has coached in offenses that produced all-time leading rushers at West Virginia, Tulsa and Vanderbilt.

In both 2020 and 2019, both Texas center Zach Shackelford and left tackle Samuel Cosmi earned All-Big 12 honors. Cosmi was a unanimous first-team all-league pick in 2020 and went on to earn third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press. In his three years at Texas, Hand saw nine offensive linemen earn All-Big 12 recognition.

After Hand's unit paved the way for Texas to rush for 231 yards against 11th-ranked Utah in the 2019 Valero Alamo Bowl, the Longhorns' offensive line received All-Bowl recognition from Sports Illustrated. Cosmi was recognized individually by the Associated Press and ESPN as an All-Bowl performer for his Alamo Bowl showing.

In 2018, all five starting offensive lineman garnered All-Big 12 honors, led by center Shackelford's first-team recognition (AP) and second-team honors (coaches). Calvin Anderson, Elijah Rodriguez and Patrick Vahe were honorable mention picks, while Cosmi received votes as the Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year and was a Freshman All-American.

Hand has worked with programs that produced six conference championships in addition to three division championships. Offenses Hand has coached on have produced all-time leading rushers at three different schools including West Virginia, Tulsa and Vanderbilt.

A three-time finalist for Offensive Line Coach of the Year by Football Scoop (2008, 2016-17), Hand was also co-coordinator for an offense that led the nation in total offense for two consecutive years (2007-08) at Tulsa, one of which is the only offense to feature a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000 yard receivers (2007). He has also coached five Freshman All-Americans.

Hand came to Austin from Auburn, where he served for two seasons as offensive line coach under Malzahn, whom he was previously co-coordinator with at Tulsa. While at Auburn, Hand's offensive line was named one of three finalists for the Joe Moore Award (nation's top offensive line) in 2017, and the unit was a semifinalist for the award in 2016. During that time, along with his time at Vanderbilt, he coached players who earned 11 Southeastern Conference Offensive Lineman of the Week Awards.

In 2017, Auburn ranked in the top 30 in the nation in total offense (26th/451.6 yards per game), scoring offense (27th/33.9) and rushing offense (26th/218.3), while ranking sixth in completion percentage (.668) and 15th in third-down conversion percentage (.455). The Tigers' balanced offense was one of only five nationally to average at least 230 yards passing and 215 yards rushing per game (along with Louisville, Oklahoma, Ohio State and South Florida). Auburn's eight 40-point games during the season set a school single-season record.

Under Hand, right guard Braden Smith earned All-America honors from all NCAA-recognized outlets, including a first-team nod from Associated Press and second-team selection from all others (WCFF, FWAA, AFCA and Sporting News). Smith also earned the SEC's Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the top blocker in the conference, along with being named first-team All-SEC by both the league's coaches and the Associated Press. Along with Smith, left tackle Austin Golson was tabbed third-team All-SEC by Phil Steele. The line paved the way for running back Kerryon Johnson to rank 15th nationally in rushing yards per game (115.9) and ninth in rushing TDs (18), while being named SEC Offensive Player of the Year and second-team All-America.

In 2016, Auburn led the SEC and was sixth nationally in rushing with 271.3 yards per game. Both the scoring offense and total offense ranked in the top 50 in the nation. Two offensive linemen in Smith and left guard Alex Kozan garnered second-team All-America honors and both were first-team All-SEC selections. Right tackle Robert Leff also took home All-SEC recognition. The offensive line was a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, and Hand was a finalist for Football Scoop's Offensive Line Coach of the Year award. The line cleared the way for running back Kamryn Pettway to lead the SEC and rank 11th in the nation in rushing yards per game (122.4 yards per game). Auburn finished 2016 with an 8-5 record and an appearance in the Allstate Sugar Bowl.

Hand went to Auburn after two seasons at Penn State as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach. In 2015, the unit blocked for Big Ten Freshman of the Year Saquon Barkley as he set Penn State's freshman rushing record with 1,076 yards. In 2014, Hand's young offensive line steadily improved and produced second-round NFL Draft pick Donovan Smith, who was chosen by Tampa Bay.

Hand coached the offensive line at Vanderbilt from 2010-13, adding run game coordinator duties in 2013. In 2013, Vanderbilt's offensive line blocked for 34 rushing touchdowns, including a school-record 14 by running back Jerron Seymour. Hand helped Wesley Johnson earn All-SEC honors in 2012 and 2013 and then end up selected in the fifth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Hand's 2011-12 offensive lines were instrumental in Zac Stacy breaking the Vanderbilt season and career (3,143 yards) rushing records at that time.

Prior to Vanderbilt, Hand worked three years at Tulsa, serving as assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. Hand helped guide Tulsa to consecutive GMAC Bowl appearances behind one of the NCAA's most explosive spread offenses, while mentoring four Freshman All-Americans. As Tulsa's co-offensive coordinator with Malzahn, Hand coached an offensive line that paved the way for the nation's top-ranked offense in 2007 and 2008. He was a finalist for national offensive line coach of the year in 2008.

In 2007, the offense became the only one in NCAA history to feature a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers. Quarterback Paul Smith passed for 5,065 yards, while running back Tarrion Adams rushed for 1,225 yards, and the trio of Brennan Marion (1,244), Trae Johnson (1,088) and Charles Clay (1,024) each topped 1,000 receiving yards. As a whole, the offense led the nation with 543.9 total yards per game, was third with 371.0 passing yards per game and sixth with 41.1 points per game. A year later, the offense averaged 569.9 total yards per game, while ranking in the top 10 in both rushing (fifth/268.0 yards per game) and passing (ninth/301.9) offense. The scoring offense ranked second with 47.2 points per game.

Hand spent six successful years at West Virginia, serving as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. He helped the Mountaineers win three Big East Conference titles and go to five straight bowl games during the span, including a 38-35 victory over SEC champion Georgia in the 2006 Sugar Bowl. In 2006, West Virginia finished with an 11-2 record and had an offense that ranked second nationally in rushing, third in scoring and fourth in total offense.

Prior to West Virginia, Hand served as an offensive graduate assistant at Clemson for two seasons (1999-2000), as the Tigers participated in the 1999 Peach Bowl and 2001 Gator Bowl. Before that, he served as defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator at Concord College in West Virginia. He also was defensive coordinator at another WVIAC program, Glenville State, where he helped the Pioneers win three WVIAC Championships.

Hand earned his bachelor's degree in history from Hamilton College in 1990, where he was a three-year starter on the offensive line for the Continentals, serving as team captain and earning All-NESCAC honors in 1989. He earned a master's degree in business administration in 1993 from West Virginia Wesleyan while serving as a graduate assistant.

A native of Westmoreland, New York, Hand and his wife, Debbie, have three children—sons Trey and Cade and a daughter, Bailey.

TIM HARRIS JR. CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/RUNNING BACKS | FIRST SEASON

UCF co-offensive coordinator and running back coach Tim Harris Jr. helped pave the way for a late-season surge that produced five wins in the final six outings as the Knights survived major injuries that prompted personnel challenges at quarterback, running back and wide receiver.

Harris' running back corps began 2021 with a bang, as veteran Isaiah Bowser ran for 172 yards and the game-winning touchdown in the opening comeback win over Boise State and then accounted for four first-half rushing TDs a week later versus Bethune-Cookman. But injuries kept him off the field in five later games—providing more opportunities for Johnny Richardson and Marc-Antony Richards late in the year.

Richardson ended up leading the Knights in rushing with 693 yards, ranking sixth in the AAC in all-purpose yardage at 99.25 per game. Auburn transfer Richards contributed another 309 yards and scored the game-winning TD in the final minute to help defeat East Carolina.

Harris, an integral part of Florida International's football success the previous half-dozen years (2015-20) as running back coach and eventually offensive coordinator and play-caller, was named co-offensive coordinator and running back coach on Gus Malzahn's new football coaching staff at UCF on Feb. 21, 2021.

In 2020 Harris tutored a Florida International running attack led by Phil Steele third-team all-league selection D'vonte Price, the league leader in rush yards per carry (6.84). Price also ranked 11th in the nation for rush yards per game after averaging 116.2 yards per contest. He also finished over the century mark for rushing in all but one game in 2020, earning a career-high 178 yards against Florida Atlantic.

Harris oversaw a balanced rushing attack in 2019 that produced a pair of NFL rookie free agents in Anthony Jones and Napoleon Maxwell. The duo's highlight of the season came in the win over Charlotte, as Jones (117) and Maxwell (114) rushed over the century mark. It was just the seventh game in Florida International history that the Panthers had at least two players go over 100 yards rushing in the same game. Harris oversaw five of Florida International's seven games in program history with two or more running backs over the century mark. Jones continued his success over the course of the season as he strung together a streak of three games over 100 yards rushing, becoming just the second Panther to achieve that feat.

During the 2018 season, Harris developed his unit into one of the most productive ground attacks in Conference USA and one of the most successful in program history. Florida International broke the school's single season record for rushing TDs (27) and rush yards per carry (4.8), while also logging the second-most rushing yards (2,286) in program history and the second-highest rush-yards-per-game average (175.8).

In 2018 Florida International finished third in Conference USA in rushing yards, rush yards per game and rushing TDs, while also averaging the second-highest rush yards per carry in the conference. Under Harris, running backs Anthony Jones and Napoleon Maxwell finished first and third on the team with eight and seven TDs, respectively. Harris developed Jones into a 2018 All-Conference USA honorable mention selection despite only having him available for six games. Harris implemented a balanced ground attack that helped running backs Maxwell, Price and Shawndarrius Phillips all finish with top 20 rankings in Conference USA rushing yards. Maxwell and Price also finished third and fourth on the team, respectively, with 771 and 743 all-purpose yards.

The 2017 season was a banner year for the Panther offense, with Florida International amassing 5,100 total yards to come 37 yards shy of setting a program record. Florida International scored 333 points in 2017, second in program history for a single season. The Panthers were masters at moving the chains as well, with Florida International setting a school record for first downs (269) in a season. Florida International also ranked first in the NCAA for red-zone offense after scoring on 40 of 41 attempts (97.6%).

On the ground, the Panthers earned the second-most rushing TDs (20), yards (2,069) and yards per game (159.2) in school history. Overall, Florida International finished with four games over 200 yards on the ground, while the 379 yards against Massachusetts rank as the third-most for a single-game in school history. Under Harris's guidance, three players gained over 450 yards rushing in 2017 with Alex Gardner leading the running back stable with 719 ground yards.

Harris came to Florida International after one year as the head coach of Booker T. Washington (Florida) High School in 2014. In his first season as head coach, the Florida

Class 4A Coach of the Year (and son of longtime legendary Washington coach and 2012 and 2013 Florida Dairy Farmers Coach of the Year Tim "Ice" Harris) led the Tornadoes to their second-straight 14-0 record, their third-straight Florida 4A state title and a No. 2 final national ranking (USA Today). The Tornadoes capped the title run with a 54-35 state championship win over Jacksonville Bolles.

Harris Jr. was named the 2014 Florida Dairy Farmers Football Coach of the Year, the 2014 Miami Dolphins George Smith South Florida High School Football Coach of the Year, the 2014 NIKE Football State Coach of the Year and a finalist for the 2014 U.S. Army All-American National Coach of the Year.

Prior to taking over the reins in 2014, Harris was the offensive coordinator for the Tornadoes for five seasons. During that time he also coached wide receivers and quarterbacks. In 2013, Harris helped Booker T. Washington win the 2013 national championship, averaging 41.9 points per game.

He also served as the Tornadoes' head track and field coach from 2010-2014. During that time, Washington won the 2014 Florida 2A Boys Track & Field State Championships and was the state runner-up in 2013. Harris was awarded the Miami-Dade County Boys Track & Field Coach of the Year honor in 2013.

Harris was a four-time NCAA All-American and Atlantic Coast Conference champion for the University of Miami track and field team.

He earned a degree in English and creative writing from Miami in 2008.

KENNYINGRAM DEFENSIVE ENDS/RUSH | FIRST SEASON

Kenny Ingram, UCF's first-year defensive ends coach, helped the Knights complete a late-season defensive push to close out the 2021 regular season with five wins in the last six games.

Integral to that improvement was one of Ingram's charges, veteran end and captain Big Kat Bryant, who claimed first-team All-American Athletic Conference honors in 2021. Bryant ended up the Knights' leader in sacks, tackles for losses and quarterback hurries—finishing third in the AAC in sacks per game.

In addition end Tre'mon Morris-Brash claimed honorable mention All-AAC notice from Pro Football Focus.

That group helped UCF average 9.4 tackles for loss and 5.2 sacks over their last five victories—and finish the regular season ranked 12th nationally in pass efficiency defense (113.67) and 16th in tackles for loss (7.0 per game).

Ingram, a veteran defensive coach and former member of Gus Malzahn's Auburn football staff, joined Malzahn's UCF coaching staff on Feb. 24, 2021.

He previously coached at Arkansas State under Malzahn, helping the Red Wolves win the 2012 Sun Belt Conference title as the team's defensive line coach. Ingram assisted the Arkansas State defensive interior line during the 2020 campaign after coaching defensive tackles at Arkansas in 2019.

Ingram also served as director of player relations at Auburn under Malzahn in 2017-18 in his second stint with the Tigers. He held that same position in 2013-14 at Auburn.

Ingram's years at Auburn featured postseason bowl appearances every season—including the Bowl Championship Series national title game after the 2013 campaign. In between stops at Auburn, he coached the defensive tackles at Cincinnati in 2015 and 2016 under Tommy Tuberville—with the Bearcats advancing to the Hawai'i Bowl in 2015.

Ingram began his collegiate career at Tennessee State in 2005 as the Tigers' defensive line coach. He quickly moved back to his hometown of Memphis in 2006, taking over the linebackers for the University of Memphis before being named defensive coordinator in 2009. While at Memphis, he helped the Tigers to the 2007 New Orleans Bowl and 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl.

Prior to his collegiate coaching career, Ingram was the head coach at Melrose High School in Memphis from 2002-04. He led the Golden Wildcats to a 37-4 overall record after serving as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. He was a three-time regional coach of the year and the Memphis Commercial Appeal's 2004 Coach of the Year for Metro Memphis. He led the school to one appearance in the state finals and a pair of appearances in the state semifinals.

He was selected to serve as the Liberty Bowl All-Star Game defensive coordinator in 2003 and was a member of the Tennessee East-West Shrine All-Star Game coaching staff that same season. He was an assistant coach for the Tennessee-Kentucky All-Star Game in 2004. Ingram taught and coached at Corry Middle School in Memphis and worked in the Youth Habilitation Center prior to moving to Melrose.

Ingram starred in football at Whitehaven High School in Memphis, then was a four-year letterman at Arkansas State, serving as team co-captain in 1992. At Arkansas State, Ingram played for head coach Steve Caldwell. He received his bachelor's degree in political science in 1999 from Arkansas State.

He and his wife, Carla, are parents of five children--Kendrien, Taylor, Kameron and twins Kennedy and Karleigh.

G.J. KINNE CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS | FIRST SEASON

First-year UCF co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach G.J. Kinne experienced a challenging year based on injuries to key personnel—but he helped the Knights rebound to win eight games overall and five of their last six and qualify for a sixth straight postseason appearance.

Kinne originally expected to be building the UCF attack around quarterback Dillon Gabriel, running back Isaiah Bowser and receiver Jaylon Robinson. But Gabriel missed the final nine games with a collarbone fracture, while both Bowser and Robinson sat out nearly half the campaign—as Kinne and the Knights tweaked their offense to take advantage of the skills of freshman quarterback Mikey Keene.

Keene ended up throwing for 1,586 yards and 16 touchdowns (against only six interceptions--none in his final four starts). He completed 63.6% of his throws and achieved a 133.21 passer rating—as his numbers compared favorably to those of other UCF true freshman quarterbacks Daunte Culpepper and McKenzie Milton in their rookie years.

Kinne's 2021 UCF offense also featured second-team All-American Athletic Conference selections (by vote of league coaches) Ryan O'Keefe at receiver and Lokahi Pauole at guard. Pro Football Focus named veteran guard Cole Schneider a second-team All-AAC choice--while selecting center Matt Lee and Pauole to the third team.

Kinne, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Hawai'i in 2020 and a former professional quarterback with stints in the National Football League and Canadian Football League, joined the UCF football staff under head coach Gus Malzahn on Feb. 21, 2021.

Kinne previously spent one season each with the Philadelphia Eagles handling offensive special projects in 2019, at Arkansas as an offensive analyst 2018 and at SMU as a graduate assistant coach in 2017. He has worked and played for an impressive list of top offensive play-callers including Doug Pederson, Mike Norvell, Chad Morris, Chip Kelly, Ryan Day and Press Taylor.

Working under head coach Todd Graham at Hawai'i in 2020, he tutored sophomore quarterback Chevan Cordeiro who threw for 231.4 yards per game and 14 TDs. Cordeiro also rushed for 483 yards and seven TDs, becoming the first Hawai'i quarterback to lead the team in rushing since 1991.

Hawai'i had three games in 2020 in which it gained at least 500 yards in total offense and scored at least 34 points. The Rainbow Warriors finished 5-4 after defeating Houston 28-14 in the New Mexico Bowl behind Cordeiro's three TD passes.

In his one season with the Philadelphia Eagles, he assisted the offensive staff with game-planning for a squad that won the NFC East Division title with a 9-7 mark. The Eagles fell to Seattle in a wild-card playoff game.

He served as an offensive analyst at Arkansas under Morris, who was offensive coordinator in 2020 under Malzahn at Auburn. Kinne earned his first collegiate coaching job at SMU under Morris, helping guide the Mustang offensive line as a graduate assistant. Kinne was elevated to SMU's offensive coordinator for the team's match-up with Louisiana Tech in the 2017 Frisco Bowl.

Kinne threw for 9,472 yards and 81 TDs as a three-year starter at quarterback at Tulsa in 2009-11. He was named the 2010 Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year and was a second-team All-Conference USA selection in 2011. In that 2010 season he threw for 3,650 yards and 31 TDs—throwing for 406 yards and four TDs versus Southern Miss and rushing for 190 yards against Houston—with Morris as Tulsa's assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterback coach that season.

Kinne originally signed with Texas and then transferred to Tulsa. He sat out the 2008 season at Tulsa, while working with then-Golden Hurricane assistant head coach and co-offensive coordinator Malzahn.

He led Tulsa to a victory over Hawai'i in the 2010 Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl and a final No. 24 national ranking.

MVP of the inaugural 2012 NFLPA Collegiate Bowl, he signed as a free agent with the NFL New York Jets in 2012. He later signed with the Philadelphia Eagles (2013 and 2014) and the New York Giants (2015) and worked with those teams' practice squads (also working at receiver with the Eagles in 2015). He signed with the Saskatchewan Roughriders and later with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League in 2016.

Originally from Mesquite, Texas, Kinne earned his degree in exercise sports science from Tulsa in 2011. His father Gary Joe was a linebacker at Baylor, a longtime Texas high school football coach and also spent time on the Baylor staff.

Kinne and his wife, Summer, are parents of a son, Lincoln.

KENNYMARTIN DEFENSIVE TACKLES | FIRST SEASON

Orlando native Kenny Martin, UCF's defensive tackle coach, figured prominently in the Knights' late-season defensive turnaround in 2021.

As UCF won five of its final six games to close the regular season, the Knight defense permitted only 10.8 points per game in those five combined victories. UCF averaged 9.4 tackles for loss and 5.2 sacks in those five games—and finished the regular season ranked 12th nationally in pass efficiency defense (113.67) and 16th in tackles for loss (7.0 per game).

Among Martin's charges at tackle in 2021 are Western Kentucky transfer and sophomore Ricky Barber (28 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss), veteran Anthony Montalvo (32 tackles) and sophomore Keenan Hester (23 tackles).

Martin previously was defensive tackle coach from 2018-20 for Western Kentucky defenses that ranked among the most productive in the country. He joined Gus Malzahn's UCF football staff on Feb. 23, 2021.

A former defensive lineman for the Hilltoppers, Martin first returned to his alma mater in 2016 and worked with the defensive tackle position group for five seasons.

In 2020 Martin helped the Western Kentucky defense rank eighth in the nation in passing yards allowed (177.3), 28th in total yards allowed (348.7) and 41st in points allowed (25.3) per game. Among the defensive tackle group, redshirt freshman Barber was named a Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-American. His 58 total tackles tied for fifth among all Football Bowl Subdivision defensive linemen regardless of class. Phil Steele tabbed Barber as an All-Conference USA second-teamer and Jeremy Darvin, the other starting tackle, as a third-teamer.

In 2019 Martin helped mentor his group into one of the most solid positions on the field. Darvin and Jaylon George earned All-Conference USA honorable mention recognition, while Barber was named to the Conference USA All-Freshman Team. Western Kentucky allowed only 20.1 total points per game, the lowest mark for the program since 2004, to rank 22nd nationally. The Hilltoppers held opponents to a 29.7% rate (51-of-172) on third down (sixth in the FBS) and ranked third in the FBS with only 82 missed tackles. Western Kentucky was 24th in total defense at 335.5 yards allowed per game.

In 2018 Martin's work developed George into one of the top defensive tackles in Conference USA as an all-conference selection by Pro Football Focus. In 2017, senior Chris Johnson earned All-Conference USA honorable mention accolades after leading all defenders in quarterback hurries from his tackle position.

In 2016, Martin helped senior Keith Brown set a single-season record for total tackles with 131 en route to earning All-Conference USA first-team honors along with Pro Football Focus second-team All-America recognition. The Hilltoppers finished the campaign with the second-ranked rushing defense, surrendering just 97.2 yards per game. Western Kentucky also led the conference in scoring defense as it won a second consecutive league championship (under head coach Jeff Brohm, now at Purdue) and third consecutive bowl game.

A four-year letterman for Western Kentucky, Martin started 42 games from 2009-12 and was a member of the Hilltoppers' first FBS bowl team in the 2012 Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl.

As a coach, Martin helped Western Kentucky participate in the 2016 Boca Raton Bowl (won 51-31 over Memphis), 2017 Cure Bowl, 2019 First Responder Bowl (won 23-20 over Western Michigan) and 2020 LendingTree Bowl.

Prior to returning to Western Kentucky, Martin was the defensive line coach at the University of Virginia-Wise in 2015. Martin also served as the defensive coordinator at Warren Central High School in Bowling Green, Kentucky, in 2014. He got his start in coaching as the co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at his former high school, Ocoee High School, in Orlando in 2013.

Martin is a 2012 Western Kentucky graduate.

He and his wife, the former Tasha Babb, have a daughter, Khloe, and son, Tre.

ADDISONWILLIAMS CORNERBACKS | FIRST SEASON

Addison Williams, in his first season as UCF cornerbacks coach, helped the Knights turn their youthful secondary into one of the most improved units on the roster as the 2021 campaign progressed.

UCF ranked 12th nationally in pass efficiency defense (113.67) to finish the regular season, as the Knights closed the campaign with five victories in their final six regular-season assignments.

A pair of Williams' corners received 2021 postseason honors—as sophomores Davonte Brown and Corey Thornton both were named third-team All-American Athletic Conference by Pro Football Focus. Williams also played a major role enabling true freshman Brandon Adams to start games six late-season games for the Knights.

A former member of Gus Malzahn's football staff at Auburn and the Coastal Carolina safeties coach in 2020, Williams rejoined Malzahn and his UCF coaching staff on Feb. 22, 2021.

Williams helped the Chanticleers to an unbeaten and record-setting 2020 regular season, an overall 11-1 record and final rankings of 14th in both the Associated Press and coaches' polls (highest in Sun Belt Conference history).

The Chants finished 8-0 in winning the Sun Belt title in 2020. Coastal posted the only undefeated regular season by a football team in Sun Belt history, which included two wins over Football Bowl Subdivision top-25 nationally ranked opponents (No. 8 BYU and No. 21 Louisiana), the first two in program history, and four wins over top-50 opponents.

Williams helped Coastal Carolina rank third nationally in 2020 with 16 interceptions (plus second in overall turnovers gained with 25) and 16th in team pass efficiency defense.

Williams came to Coastal Carolina after one season as an analyst and assistant to Malzahn for Auburn football in 2019. He ventured to Auburn from Furman, where he had been promoted to defensive coordinator in the spring of 2019. At Furman, Williams served as cornerbacks coach for the 2017 and 2018 seasons, helping the Paladins win a share of the 2018 Southern Conference title.

From 2013-16, Williams was the defensive backs coach (2013-16) and defensive coordinator (2016) at Tusculum College, where he mentored South Atlantic Conference (SAC) 2016 Defensive Freshman of the Year and All-American Jay Boyd and All-American Cameron Thomas, who led the league in interceptions (five) and passes defended (15) in 2015.

Williams played three seasons for South Carolina from 2007-09, appearing in 26 games before an injury ended his career. He was a three-time member of the Southeastern Conference academic honor roll and received the 2009 Harold White GPA Award.

He served as a student assistant coach for the 2010 Gamecocks who won the SEC East title and was a defensive graduate assistant at South Carolina during the 2011-12 seasons, helping the Gamecocks to a 22-4 overall record and wins in both the Capital One and Outback bowls. While at South Carolina, he worked with All-SEC defensive backs Antonio Allen, D.J. Swearinger and Stephon Gilmore.

A native of Atlanta, Georgia, where he earned all-state and all-conference football honors at Westlake High School, Williams earned a bachelor's degree in sports and entertainment management from South Carolina in 2010.

TRAVISWILLIAMS DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | FIRST SEASON

The UCF defense came on strong down the stretch in 2021 under first-year defensive coordinator and linebacker coach Travis Williams—who was the Knights' nominee for the Frank Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country.

UCF won five of its final six games to close the regular season—with Williams' defense permitting only 10.8 points per game in those five combined victories. The Knights averaged 9.4 tackles for loss and 5.2 sacks in those five games—and finished the regular season ranked 12th nationally in pass efficiency defense (113.67) and 16th in tackles for loss (7.0 per game).

Among Williams' most successful pupils is junior linebacker Tatum Bethune, who paced the Knights in tackles with 101 (his 9.2 average per game ranked second in the conference and 21st nationally) and earned second-team All-American Athletic Conference honors from Pro Football Focus.

Other UCF defenders meriting All-AAC postseason recognition by vote of the league's coaches were end Big Kat Bryant (first team), safety Divaad Wilson (second team) and Bethune (honorable mention). PFF also saluted safety Quadric Bullard (second team), cornerbacks Davonte Brown and Corey Thornton and Wilson (all third team)—plus end Tre'mon Morris-Brash.

The former Auburn co-defensive coordinator, linebacker coach and recruiting coordinator was named UCF's defensive coordinator by Knight head coach Gus Malzahn on Feb. 17, 2021.

Auburn finished in the top 17 in the nation in scoring defense under Williams in four of his last five seasons (2016-20) with the Tigers. Williams also mentored All-Southeastern Conference linebackers in three consecutive seasons.

During Williams' five seasons as linebacker coach under Malzahn, the Tigers ranked fifth nationally in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision, allowing only 54 rushing TDs (eight in 2016, nine in 2018).

In 2020, Tiger linebacker Zakoby McClain led the SEC in tackles with 113. In 2019, Auburn's defense ranked eighth nationally in both red-zone and third-down defense, allowing only 19.5 points per game against a schedule that featured six 11-win opponents.

The 2018 Auburn defense ranked 14th nationally in scoring defense (19.2) and allowed only those nine rushing touchdowns. The Tigers ranked in the top 20 nationally in sacks (38) and tackles for loss (96) and were ninth nationally with three interception returns for touchdowns.

In 2017, SEC West champion Auburn ranked 14th in the country in total defense (319.4) and 12th in scoring defense (18.5), allowing just 4.67 yards per play, eighth-best nationally. Senior linebacker Tre' Williams earned second-team All-SEC honors.

In 2016, the Tigers ranked 11th in red-zone defense and 28th in total defense (361.9), an improvement of 43 spots over the previous season, and held eight consecutive oppo¬nents without a rushing TD, the longest season streak at Auburn since 1957.

Williams signed with Auburn in 2001 and earned All-SEC honors in 2004 and 2005 (first-team selection in 2004). He led Auburn in tackles (80) during the 2004 undefeated season; he was second in tackles in 2005 (68) and third in 2003 (67). He won the Pat Dye Leadership Award on defense in 2004 and 2005.

Williams played for the NFL Atlanta Falcons during the 2006 and 2007 seasons, before beginning his coaching career.

He was promoted to linebacker coach at his alma mater prior to the 2016 season, after holding various roles on the Tigers' football support staff. While continuing to coach linebackers, he became co-defensive coordinator in 2019 and added the role of recruiting coordinator in 2020.

DARRELL WYATT WIDE RECEIVERS | FOURTH SEASON

UCF receiver coach Darrell Wyatt, the lone holdover from the previous staff when Gus Malzahn took over as Knights head coach for the 2021 campaign, made certain his pass-catchers again figured prominently in the UCF offensive success this season.

While talented all-conference junior Jaylon Robinson missed a significant portion of the fall with injury, Wyatt turned to speedster Ryan O'Keefe and Tennessee transfer Brandon Johnson to play larger roles.

O'Keefe responded by making 77 receptions (for 727 yards and six touchdowns), the most catches in a single season by a Knight player since 2006. Johnson had 11 TD receptions (tops in the American Athletic Conference and ninth nationally) among his 38 grabs for 565 more yards. O'Keefe's work earned him second-team All-AAC recognition from the league's coaches.

Wyatt, also UCF receiver coach from 2018-20 on one of the most productive offenses in college football and mentor of recent UCF All-Americans Gabriel Davis and Marlon Williams, remained in that role on Malzahn's new Knight football coaching staff for 2021, as announced Feb. 23, 2021.

A veteran of more than three decades coaching receivers at the college and professional levels, Wyatt and his pass-catchers played hugely prominent roles in the ultra-successful Knight offense and passing game that ranked among the most potent in the country over those three seasons:

--UCF was the only team in the country to rank among the top five in the nation in total offense each of the those three years (2018-19-20).

--The Knights joined Alabama and USC as the only three teams to average at least 316.7 passing yards per game in 2019 and 2020.

--UCF joined Alabama, Clemson and Oklahoma as the only four teams to rank among the top eight in scoring each of those three years.

Wyatt's crew was an integral part of one of the most productive aerial attacks in the nation in 2020—with the Knights averaging 357.4 passing yards per game (fourth nationally). Senior and Pro Football Focus third-team All-American Williams led the way for that unit with his 71 receptions for 1,039 yards and 10 TDs—with those numbers and his 129.3 receiving-yards-per-game average all ranking among the top nine nationally. Williams was a 2020 Biletnikoff Award semifinalist for the top receiver in the country.

Sophomore speedster Robinson added 55 receptions for 979 yards and six scores in 2020, while Jacob Harris had eight TD catches among his 30 catches for 539 yards—all helping UCF and quarterback Dillon Gabriel average 42.2 points per game (eighth nationally). The Knights' big-play capabilities allowed UCF to rank 17th nationally at 14.35 yards per completion for an attack that ranked second nationally in total offense (568.1 yards per game). That level of production earned first-team All-AAC honors in 2020 for both Williams and Robinson.

Wyatt's first season at UCF in 2018 featured a host of weapons on the perimeter, as the Knights went 12-0 in the regular season, repeated as AAC champions, earned a berth to the 2019 Fiesta Bowl and rose as high as seventh in both the Associated Press top 25 and the Amway poll of coaches.

Led by the receiving trio of Davis, Dredrick Snelson and Tre Nixon, the UCF wideouts totaled 2,312 yards and 17 TDs in 2018. The receiving corps was the catalyst for explosive plays with more than 40 of those for 20 or more yards. The Knights ranked ninth in the nation with 14.94 yards per completion and totaled 522.7 yards of total offense per game (fifth nationally). Davis, under the leadership of Wyatt, led the team with 815 yards on 53 catches, scoring seven TDs to earn second-team all-conference honors.

Then, in 2019, Davis excelled once again, adding another 72 catches for a UCF single-season record 1,241 yards to go with a dozen TD receptions. A first-team all-league selection in 2019, he led the conference in receiving yards per game (eighth nationally) and was 12th in the nation in TD catches—good for third-team All-America honors from Pro Football Focus and honorable mention All-America accolades from Phil Steele. The Knights ranked eighth nationally in yards per pass completion (15.19 each).

Meanwhile, Nixon contributed 49 more catches (830 yards and seven TDs) and Williams 51 (717 yards and six TDs). The UCF receiving corps combined with Gabriel to enable the Knights to rank fifth nationally in scoring (43.4 points), second in total offense (540.5 yards per game, then the UCF record) and 316.7 passing yards per contest (eighth in the country).

Wyatt was originally named to the UCF football staff in December 2017 as wide receivers coach. He came to Orlando after a stint on the staff at Arkansas State, serving as an offensive assistant in 2017. The Red Wolves produced a top-five passing offense and a top-20 total offense during his season with the squad. Prior to his time with the Red Wolves, Wyatt worked at Houston, serving as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator in 2016. The Cougars featured the No. 17 passing offense in the nation that year.

Wyatt has taken part in numerous New Year's Six bowl games throughout his career, and he has multiple years of experience as an offensive coordinator as well. He was an offensive analyst at Oklahoma State in 2015 when the Cowboys went to the Allstate Sugar Bowl and ranked No. 7 in the nation in passing yards and No. 14 in scoring offense.

Wyatt was on the coaching staff at Texas from 2011 through 2013. He was co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Longhorns in 2013, while serving as co-recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach in 2011 and 2012. During his time at Texas, Wyatt's wide receivers earned five All-Big 12 Conference accolades. With Wyatt's help as co-recruiting coordinator, the 2012 Texas signing class was ranked No. 2 in the nation.

In 2008-09, Wyatt was the associate head coach/offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach at Southern Mississippi. The Golden Eagles were No. 18 in the nation in scoring offense and No. 31 in total offense in 2009. In 2008, Southern Miss broke 36 offensive school records en route to the No. 20 total offensive output in the country.

Wyatt also has coaching experience with Kansas, Arizona, NFL Minnesota Vikings, Oklahoma, Baylor, Wyoming, Sam Houston State and Trinity Valley (Texas) Community College.

Wyatt is a graduate of Kansas State University, where he played for two seasons after transferring from Trinity Valley Community College in Athens, Texas. He's originally from Killeen, Texas.

GAME 1 // UCF 36, BOISE STATE 31 // SEPTEMBER 2, 2021

BOISE STATE (0-1)..... 31
UCF (1-0)..... 36

September 2, 2021 | Orlando, Fla. | Bounce House
Time: 7 p.m. | Attendance: 43,928

ORLANDO - The UCF football team opened the Gus Malzahn era with a 36-31 defeat of visiting Boise State Thursday night in a delayed start at the Bounce House. Junior quarterback Dillon Gabriel threw for 318 yards and four touchdowns, as the Knights won their season opener for the sixth straight season.

The Knights (1-0) overcame a 21-0 first-half deficit - matching a program record - and scored 23 consecutive points to earn the victory. The UCF defense held the Broncos (0-1) offense to no points and negative seven yards of total offense in the third quarter to take control of the game.

Newcomer Isaiah Bowser led the rushing attack with 33 carries for 172 yards and a score on the ground, while four different Knights scored through the air; Jaylon Robinson (6 for 140), Brandon Johnson (5 for 47), Titus Mokiao-Atimalala (3 for 19) and Alec Holler (2 for 29).

Originally scheduled for a 7:05 p.m. kickoff, the game ultimately started at 9:45 p.m. due to lightning in the area.

THE COMEBACK

• Boise State scored just over five minutes into the game on a 100-yard interception return - the longest against UCF in program history - and then made it 14-0 just over six minutes later. The Broncos extended their lead to 21-0 early in the second quarter on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Hank Bachmeier to Kahlil Shakir.
• The Knights fought back with a 23-yard touchdown pass from Gabriel to Holler with 11:23 left in the half, the first catch of the tight end's career. UCF then allowed a field goal to the Broncos, falling behind 24-7.
• UCF used a late-second quarter touchdown - this time Gabriel finding Mokiao-Atimalala for an eight-yard score - to get some momentum heading into the break. The Knights then scored less than four minutes into the third quarter when Gabriel hit Johnson on an 11-yard strike to make it just 24-21 in favor of the Broncos.
• The Knights ultimately took their first lead of the game with less than a minute to play in the third when Gabriel threw his fourth touchdown of the game, connecting with Robinson for a 21-yard score, making it 28-24. A safety on a bad snap made it 30-24 in favor of UCF.

CLOSING IT OUT

• Boise State battled back in the fourth, taking advantage of Gabriel's second interception to score a 7-yard touchdown from Bachmeier to Shakir and regain the lead, at 31-30.
• Gabriel then led a 10-play, 75-yard game-winning drive that was capped by a 8-yard touchdown by Bowser on a 3rd-and-goal from the eight yard line.
• As the Broncos charged back down the field, the Knights all but clinched the game when Dyllon Lester picked off Bachmeier at the Knights' seven yard line with just over two minutes to play.

GABRIEL GUTS IT OUT

• Gabriel didn't throw multiple interceptions in a single game last season, although he did it three times as a true freshman in 2019. The Knights didn't win any of those three games two seasons ago. This time his teammates rallied around him to earn the victory despite the two hiccups.
• His four touchdown passes give him 65 in his career and it marked the seventh game of his career having four or more touchdown passes.
• Gabriel threw for over 300 yards for the 12th time in his career, tying McKenzie Milton for third all-time at UCF in the category. It was also the 24th straight game he has thrown a touchdown, which is also tied with Milton for second all-time.

COACH MALZAHN

"I think the whole college football world saw it. That's tough to do. You go down by 21-0 at home against a really good team and to fight back, keep believing, making plays and answering the bell again. They just kept doing it and you could feel it on the sidelines. There wasn't any panic. I'm really proud of our staff too. Our staff did a really good job. Overall, it was a really, really quality victory that will help us moving forward."

KALIA DAVIS

"It felt great (to be back on the field). I feel like I had to get my feet in the dirt, get back acclimated. I feel like I picked it up towards the end. We never thought that we were down 21. We always thought that it was a 0-0 ball game. We just had to make a play – the next play, we need to win it. I feel like we attacked it with a great attitude and you (saw) what happened."

ORLANDO - The UCF football team raced out to 42-7 lead over visiting Bethune-Cookman and never looked back Saturday night at the Bounce House, defeating the Wildcats 63-14 to improve to 2-0 on the season. It was the most points the Knights have scored since putting up 63 against Temple on Oct. 26, 2019.

UCF (2-0) chose to receive and scored on its first drive as senior running back Isaiah Bowser scored his first of four first-half touchdowns from 17 yards out to give the Knights the early lead. Bethune-Cookman (0-2) countered with a score of their own on the ensuring drive to tie the game at 7-7 midway through the first quarter.

The Knights then scored five consecutive touchdowns to take a commanding 42-7 lead into halftime and put the game away. Junior quarterback Dillon Gabriel found senior receiver Brandon Johnson for a 22-yard touchdown late in the first quarter before Bowser put three away with a pair of 1-yard scores and a 9-yard touchdown run to match the UCF record for rushing touchdowns in a game.

Gabriel rushed for a touchdown of his own early in the third period - the longest rush of his career, a 44-yard jaunt that included running from the left sideline to the right sideline before finding the end zone - and then found Trillion Coles in the end zone for a score before giving way to backups in the rout of the Wildcats.

Coles also rushed in a score from four yards out in his first action since 2019 and freshman quarterback Mikey Keene found sophomore receiver Kaedin Robinson in the end zone for the first touchdown for both new Knights.

Sophomore Quadric Bullard led the UCF defense with seven tackles, while junior Tatum Bethune recorded his second-career interception in the victory.

GABRIEL CLIMBING THE CHARTS

- Gabriel continues to climb the all-time charts at UCF, now having thrown a touchdown pass in 25 consecutive games, passing McKenzie Milton for the second longest streak in UCF history.
- He also passed Blake Bortles for fifth in touchdowns responsible for with 74 in his career and passed Bortles again, this time in career passing yards, now totaling 7,853 in his three-year career.
- Gabriel finished with 312 passing yards in the game, the 13th time he has thrown for 300 or more yards, moving him into sole possession of third place at UCF, again passing Milton.
- The junior was 23-of-36 and did not turn the ball over on Saturday.

BOWSER BLOWS BY BETHUNE

- In just his second game as a Knight, Bowser did something only three other UCF players can claim to have done, scored four rushing touchdowns in a single game.
- Alex Haynes was the first to do it on Sept. 22, 2001, Kevin Smith did it twice during his historic 2007 season - on Nov. 10, 2007 and Dec. 1, 2007 - and Darriel Mack Jr. did in the 2018 AAC Championship Game on Dec. 1, 2018.
- It marked the third time Bowser has scored a touchdown in back-to-back games and the third time he has scored multiple touchdowns in a game.
- Bowser finished with 12 rushes for 59 yards and the four scores before sitting the second half.

DEFENSE DIGS DOWN

- The UCF defense allowed only 279 yards of total offense to the Wildcats, marking the second consecutive game of holding its opponent under 300 yards.
- It is the first time a UCF defense has allowed less than 300 yards of total offense to its opponents in back-to-back games since doing so to SMU and South Florida on Nov. 22 and Nov. 28, 2014.
- Tatum Bethune recorded his second-career pick and the second for UCF this season.
- The Knights had eight pass breakups, led by Dyllon Lester with a career-high three in the win.

COACH MALZAHN

"I think our guys handled themselves like champions. There were really good adjustments. I think our coaching staff is communicating well with our players and the players are communicating well with the staff. We are learning each other as we go and in just the first two weeks we have had great communication."

RYAN O'KEEFE

"I tried to take advantage of every target I had. At the end of the day, it's all about performance in this sport. My teammates they're always pushing me to be the best. It was a fun game. I enjoyed it."

LOUISVILLE - The UCF football team dropped a wild, 42-35, back-and-forth affair Friday night at Cardinal Stadium, falling to 2-1 on the season.

With 1:21 to play in the fourth quarter, junior quarterback Dillon Gabriel rushed in for a 6-yard touchdown to tie the game at 35-35 and give the Knights (2-1) a chance to send it to overtime.

On the ensuing possession, as the Cardinals (2-1) were driving in UCF territory, defensive end Tre'mon Morris-Brash intercepted Louisville quarterback Malik Cunningham to give the Knights an opportunity to win the game with less than 30 seconds to play.

On the next play, Gabriel was picked off by Jaylin Alderman, who returned it for a 66-yard touchdown and seal the victory for the Cardinals.

Gabriel threw for three touchdowns in the loss, rushed for the late-game touchdown, and recorded the first receiving touchdown of his career, catching a 20-yard touchdown pass from Ryan O'Keefe in the third quarter.

O'Keefe also caught a touchdown from Gabriel, as did Jaylon Robinson and Brandon Johnson, who has caught a touchdown pass in each of his first three games as a Knight.

Cunningham led Louisville with 265 passing yards and a score through the air, in addition to 99 rushing yards and two touchdowns on the ground.

Gabriel was injured on the final desperation play of the game, fracturing his clavicle.

GABRIEL'S GAME

- Gabriel threw for a touchdown pass in his 26th consecutive game, which is two shy of Ryan Schneider's UCF record. He has thrown a touchdown in every game played in his career.
- It marked Gabriel's 22nd game with multiple touchdown passes.
- Gabriel threw for three touchdowns, rushed for one, and caught a touchdown reception, the first receiving touchdown of his career.
- His 188 passing yards marked his lowest total since the first game of his career as a true freshman in 2019.

COACH MALZAHN

"Obviously it was an extremely tough loss. There were a lot of things that happened during the game. We lost a lot of guys. A lot of guys went down. (It was) a next-man-up mentality. Our guys kept fighting until the end. There were a lot of time it didn't look good, (but) they kept fighting and competing. It was dissapointed locker room, obviously. I really believe this will be one of the defining moments of this year's team. I think we have a lot of winners in the locker room. Louisville's a good team. They've got good players and good coaches. They deserve a lot of credit."

SAMUEL JACKSON

"I felt like we shot ourselves in the foot a lot, and that's why we came out on the wrong end. It's never good, but we talked as a team that this is going to be something that brings us closer as a team. It's not going to divide us. We're going to learn form our mistakes and move on."

ANNAPOLIS, Md. - The UCF football team had a 13-point second-half lead, but ultimately came up short on the road at Navy Saturday afternoon, falling 34-30 to the Midshipmen in the Knights' first American Athletic Conference game of the 2021 season.

UCF (2-2, 0-1 AAC) led 30-17 early in the third quarter when Joey Gatewood scored his first touchdown as a Knight on a 10-yard rush, but Navy (1-3, 1-1 AAC) scored the final 17 points of the game on a trio of scoring drives that all lasted three minutes or longer to defeat the Knights for the Midshipmen's first victory of the season.

Without all-conference quarterback Dillon Gabriel - as well as five other regular starters on both offense and defense - true freshman Mikey Keene earned his first-career start, and proved to be effect for the Knights.

Keene went 16-of-26 for 178 yards and had two touchdown passes. His only turnover was an interception on a final effort to the end zone in the final moments of the game.

The Knight defense struggled to get off the field against Navy's triple option, as the Midshipmen held the ball for nearly 40 minutes to UCF's 21. The UCF defense was able to manage multiple turnovers for the first time, as Cam Goode forced a pair of fumbles recovered by the Knights.

Both times UCF scored on the ensuing play, one being Gatewood's third quarter rushing touchdown and the other one of two touchdowns from Keene to Brandon Johnson. Amari Johnson scored the other UCF touchdown rushing in from 16 yards in the first quarter.

Navy finished with 348 rushing yards in the game, blocked a UCF extra point, and blocked a Knights punt, recovering it for a touchdown in the victory.

BRYSON BRINGS IT

- Bryson Armstrong recorded a career-high 22 tackles in the defeat, which marked the second most in a single-game in UCF history.
- Only Bill Giovanetti (1979) and Tito Rodriguez (2001) totaled more in a game as a Knight, each recording 23.
- Armstrong was also just two off the American Athletic Conference record.
- Tyler Matakevich of Temple (2013) and Obi Melifonwu of UConn (2016) each tallied 24 tackles in a game.

FIRST START FOR FRESHMAN

- Keene earned the first start of his career against the Midshipmen, becoming the seventh true freshman in UCF's FBS history to start at quarterback.
- He went 16-for-26 for 178 yards with two touchdown passes and had one interception
- He became the third UCF true freshman in the FBS era to throw two touchdown passes in his first-career starting, joining Dillon Gabriel and McKenzie Milton.
- His 178 passing yards were the third most among UCF true freshmen in their first start, trailing Milton (260) and Gabriel (245).

COACH MALZAHN

"Give Navy credit. They did the things that it took to win. We did the things that really hurt us and had a lot to do with us losing. We had some momentum, then we had the punt blocked for the touchdown. That was a tough deal. In the fourth quarter we had a short punt after a three-and-out. They had the ball for 40 minutes. We had the ball for 20 minutes. They hurt us on the perimeter. We didn't really have an answer on the perimeter. Offensively, we had trouble running the football in the second half."

BRYSON ARMSTRONG

"I don't have any good excuses. They earned everything they got today. They may have played harder than us, but that was a good team. Despite their record, they're a solid bunch."

GAME 5 // UCF 20, EAST CAROLINA 16 // OCTOBER 9, 2021

ORLANDO - Mark-Antony Richards pushed ahead for one yard with 23 seconds left in the game. It was the one yard he needed to lift the UCF football team (3-2, 1-1 AAC) to a 20-16 home victory over visiting East Carolina (3-3, 1-1 AAC) Saturday evening at the Bounce House.

Richards, who had only four rushes on the season heading into Saturday's contest, rushed four consecutive times for 27 yards on the Knights' final drive of the game, including the final one-yard score to give UCF its first American Athletic Conference victory of the season.

He also came up big on a 4th-and-8 play just two snaps before the four rushes, catching a pass from quarterback Mikey Keene that went 12 yards to gain the clutch first down and keep the drive alive.

Richards finished with six rushes for 58 yards and the score, while Keene went 23-of-35 for 194 yards through the air - all career highs - and led the Knights on the game-winning drive in just his second-career start.

The Knights defense kept the team in it most of the way, holding ECU to just three first-half points and securing three turnovers on the night.

JOHNNY BE GOOD

- Although Richards scored the game-winner, Johnny Richardson had an even more impressive day in his first-career start at running back. Richardson rushed 16 times for 104 yards and a touchdown, all marks that either set or matched his career high.
- Richardson also caught two passes for 51 yards, including a career-long 49 yard reception.
- His 38 yard rush was also a career long for the sophomore.
- Richardson finished with 155 yards rushing and receiving to help lead the UCF offense.

DEFENSE DID IT

- UCF held ECU to just three points at halftime, the lowest point total in a half for a UCF opponent since Nov. 14, 2020 against Temple.
- The Knights got two fumble recoveries, one for Josh Celiscar and one for Quadric Bullard.
- Anthony Montalvo and Cam Goode forced the fumbles, the third in the last two games for Goode.
- Jeremiah Jean-Baptiste recorded his first-career interception.
- The Knights got multiple sacks for the first time this season (Celiscar, Big Kat Bryant, Keenan Hester, Kalia Davis).

COACH MALZAHN

"I'm really proud of the guys. It's a big win for us and much needed. You get to a point where the guys refuse to lose. We had two tough, close losses and now we found a way to win. That will really help us moving forward."

MARK-ANTONY RICHARDS

"This boosts our confidence. Coach preaches outlasting adversity and overcoming adversity and that's what we did. It's huge for our confidence."

CINCINNATI - The UCF football team, after having lost another starter to a season-ending injury last weekend in defensive tackle Kalia Davis, wasn't able to keep pace with the 3rd-ranked team in the nation Saturday, as Cincinnati won 56-21 in front of a crowd of 37,978 at Nippert Stadium.

The Bearcats (6-0, 2-0 AAC) defense forced UCF (3-3, 1-2 AAC) into a three-and-out on its first possession and took advantage of a short punt to take an early 7-0 lead on one of four rushing touchdowns by Jerome Ford.

Cincinnati didn't look back from there, sprinting out to a 35-0 lead, before the Knights got on the board late in the second quarter with a touchdown pass from Mikey Keene to Brandon Johnson.

UCF was only outscored 21-14 in the second half, getting rushing touchdowns from Isaiah Bowser and Mark-Antony Richards, but couldn't make up enough ground and fell to the 3rd-rated Bearcats 56-21 Saturday.

The Knights return to action next weekend, hosting Memphis Friday night in the annual #UCFinSpace game.

OFFENSIVE OUTPUT

- It marked the first time UCF failed to score 30 or more points in back-to-back games since Nov. 12 and 19 of the 2016 season.
- It was the least amount of yards in a game by the Knights since recording just 290 against Temple on Nov. 19 , 2020.
- Ryan O'Keefe led the way with seven catches for 60 yards and one rush for 51 yards.

DEFENSIVE DOWNER

- It was the most points give up by UCF since allowing 59 points to Houston on Oct. 24, 2015.
- The 35-point margin of defeat was the most for the Knights since losing 51-14 at Michigan on Sept. 10, 2016.
- Cincinnati's Jerome Ford became the first player to rush for four touchdowns against UCF since Walter Reyes of Syracuse on Sept. 20, 2003.
- Tatum Bethune did record double-digit tackles for a second-straight game, finishing with 10.

COACH MALZAHN

"Congratulations to Cincinnati on the win. They're as good as advertised, but we didn't play well. For us to have had a chance, we had to play really well. Offensively, in the first half, we didn't run the football and get anything going. Defensively, in the first half, I thought we did some solid things. We came out with a little bit of spark in the second half, but we've got to have big plays. They beat us handedly. We've got to take it like men. We're halfway through the season and we've got to get better."

SAMUEL JACKSON

"This game didn't go the way we expected. You don't prepare for a game to lose by 35 points. We came in and had a plan, but at the end of the day we got beat in all phases. Losses are better teachers than wins. We're just going to move on and get ready for Memphis."

GAME 7 // UCF 24, MEMPHIS 7 // OCTOBER 22, 2021

ORLANDO - The UCF football team scored 14 points in the first quarter and had its best defensive performance in nearly two years to defeat visiting Memphis 24-7 Friday night at the Bounce House.

The Knights (4-3, 2-2 AAC) remained perfect at home, at 4-0, and stayed undefeated in the annual Space Game, winning for the fifth time since starting the out-of-this-world tradition during the 2017 season.

UCF scored on its first possession for the fourth time in seven games, as Mikey Keene found Brandon Johnson in the end zone for an 11-yard score, and then took a two-touchdown lead when Joey Gatewood hit Ryan O'Keefe with a shovel pass that went 13 yards for the score late in the first quarter.

Memphis (4-4, 1-3 AAC), which like UCF was playing without its starting quarterback, cut into the lead before halftime with a nine-yard touchdown run by Brandon Thomas.

O'Keefe scored on the ground in the third quarter to make it 21-7, scampering in from 31 yards out, and kicker Daniel Obarski added three to the lead with a 24-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to virtually put the game away.

IMPRESSIVE DEFENSE

- The seven points for Memphis marked the least amount of points for a UCF opponent since South Florida scored just seven points against the Knights Nov. 29, 2019.
- UCF forced four turnovers, which were the most this season and most since forcing four against ECU Sept. 26, 2020.
- It was also the first time UCF has had three interceptions in a game since doing so Sept. 21, 2018 against Florida Atlantic.
- The Knights' six sacks were the most they have had since Jan. 1, 2018 against Auburn in the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

COACH MALZAHN

"I'm really proud of our team. It was a hard-fought win against a good Memphis team. Our crowd was phenomenal, and our players really fed off our crowd. It was an unbelievable home field advantage."

BIG KAT BRYANT

"We are getting better as a team. We know what we can and cannot do. The lows made us stronger, and we can build off of it. It's a big confidence booster."

PHILADELPHIA - The UCF football team put together its best overall performance on Saturday, improving to 5-3 on the season with a 49-7 victory over Temple at Lincoln Financial Field.

The Knights (5-3, 3-2 AAC) sprinted out to a 21-0 halftime lead, and poured it on in the second half, before allowing the lone Owls (3-5, 1-3 AAC) touchdown in the final minute of the game to give up the shutout.

UCF freshman Mikey Keene threw five touchdown passes and a career-high 229 yards through the air to lead the Knights offense, hitting tight end Alec Holler and Ryan O'Keefe for a pair of touchdowns each and Brandon Johnson for one.

Isaiah Bowser led the running attack behind UCF's offensive line, rushing 19 times for 89 yards and his seventh score of the season.

The Knights got three turnovers on a trio of fumble recoveries, improving to 4-0 on the year when recording fewer turnovers than their opponent.

Quadric Bullard, Tatum Bethune, and Johnny Richardson each forced one fumble, the last coming immediately after an interception by the Owls. Bullard also recovered a fumble, along with Keenan Hester and Brandon Johnson.

Bullard came into the game ranked fourth in the nation with two fumble recoveries, picking up his third on Saturday.

D-BLOCK

- It marked the first time UCF shut its opponent out in the first half since doing so to South Florida Nov. 29, 2019.
- Holding Memphis scoreless in the third and fourth quarters on Oct. 22 and then Temple scoreless in the first three quarters in this game, it marked the first time holding an opponent scoreless for five consecutive quarters since shutting out Florida A&M (Aug. 29) and keeping FAU (Sept. 7) out of the end zone in the first quarter in 2019.
- It marked the fourth time this season that the Knights have held their opponent to less than 300 yards of total offense, all four wins.

MIKEY'S MOMENT

- Mikey Keene threw five touchdown passes in the game, matching his career total in his previous five games.
- He is the seventh Knight to throw for five or more touchdowns in a single game, joining Dillon Gabriel, McKenzie Milton, Ryan Schneider, Daunte Culpepper, Darin Hinshaw and Darin Slack.
- Keene threw for a career-high 229 yards on 15-of-21 passing.

COACH MALZAHN

"I'm just really excited for our team. I think we played a complete game. We may have played our best game of the season. We've been talking to our guys about the second part of the season. We've had trouble on the road. Our guys came out and played very good defensively. It was maybe our best defensive effort and maybe our best complete game offensively."

MIKEY KEENE

"It was a fun game, playing out there. We executed our game plan perfectly. There were a few things we could take back. For one, we were very fortunate after I threw that pick, Brandon Johnson made a great play, got on the ball, so that was very fortunate. We came out, executed our game plan, the result was the result, and it was a lot of fun coming out here and getting the W."

GAME 9 // UCF 14, TULANE 10 // NOVEMBER 6, 2021

ORLANDO - With Saturday's 14-10 home win over Tulane, the UCF football team improved to 3-0 in the second half of the 2021 season and remained perfect at the Bounce House, at 5-0.

In wins over Memphis (24-7), Temple (49-7), and now Tulane (14-10), it has been the UCF (6-3, 4-2) defense that has been the difference maker, allowing just 24 points in those game. It's the least amount of points given up by the Knights in three consecutive games since allowing just 14 in three games late in the 2014 season.

On Saturday, the UCF defense did it with no takeaways, holding Tulane (1-8, 0-5) to under 300 yards of total offense, totaling nine tackles for loss, seven breakups and five quarterback hurries.

Down 10-7 in the fourth quarter, Andrew Osteen punted 40 yards from the Tulane 41 and the Knights downed it at the one yard line to pin the Green Wave deep in their own zone.

The UCF defense stopped Tulane yet again and got the ball back at the Tulane 38 yard line. Freshman quarterback Mikey Keene led the Knight offense to the game-winning drive that ended with a 23-yard touchdown pass from Keene to Brandon Johnson.

RYAN REELS IN 11

- Ryan O'Keefe caught a career-high 11 passes in the win, finishing with 94 yards and a score.
- O'Keefe went over 1,000 receiving yards in his career during the game.
- His touchdown was his fifth receiving score of the season and the eighth of his career.

COACH MALZAHN

"Our defense played outstanding. I am really proud of them. They are taking on Travis's personality. He was a dynamic player himself. Him and his staff are doing a super job and our defense is growing each week and starting to settle in. They are tackling well and putting pressure on the quarterback."

BRYSON ARMSTRONG

"We play hard; we play fast; we play for each other. We rally around each other. You saw we were getting excited out there when we see one of our buddies make a play. I get more excited for those guys than when I make a play. We really just play together. I don't know what our identity is, but the culture of this team in general is something special."

GAME 10 // SMU 55, UCF 28 // NOVEMBER 13, 2021

DALLAS - The UCF football team gave up 17 points in the second quarter and couldn't recover as SMU prevailed 55-28 in American Athletic Conference action Saturday at Gerald Ford Stadium.

The Knights (6-4, 4-3 AAC) scored first, on a 18-yard pass from freshman Mikey Keene to junior Ryan O'Keefe, and then took a 14-7 lead on a 6-yard touchdown run by redshirt freshman Parker Navarro, but it wasn't enough.

The Mustangs (8-2, 4-2 AAC) tied the game at 14-14 on a 56-yard touchdown run by Ulysses Bentley and took a lead they did not relinquish when Tre Stiggers found the end zone from 10 yards out to make it 21-14 late in the first quarter.

SMU got a 29-yard field goal, a 16-yard touchdown run from Siggers, and an 8-yard touchdown pass from Tanner Mordecai to Rashee Rice in the second quarter to extend its lead and the Mustangs never looked back.

The Knights gave up 631 yards of total offense, the most they have given up this season, and only put up 333 yards of their own offensively.

Mark-Antony Richards scored twice on the ground, the first multi-score of his career, including a 58-yard scamper in the third quarter that was the longest play of the season for UCF.

COACH MALZAHN

"They played really well in all three phases. We couldn't stop them. For a couple weeks, we had been doing a good job of stopping the run. When you don't stop the run, it opens up everything. Overall, it was a real disappointing loss. We've got to learn from it, we've got to grow from it, we need to heal up a little bit, and we've got to finish this thing, the next two games, at home."

GAME 11 // UCF 49, UCONN 17 // NOVEMBER 20, 2021

UCONN (1-10)..... 17
UCF (7-4)..... 49

November 20, 2021 | Orlando, Fla. | Bounce House
Time: 4 p.m. | Attendance: 37,454

ORLANDO - The UCF football team scored three touchdowns in the first nine minutes and 10 seconds of the game and took care of visiting UConn 49-17 Saturday at the Bounce House.

The Knights remained perfect at home this season with the victory, improving to 6-0, and have one home game remaining on the schedule, a Black Friday War On I-4 battle with South Florida.

The aforementioned trio of touchdowns in the first quarter were all rushing scores by different Knights. Johnny Richardson was first, running in from nine yards out. Then it was Mikey Keene, who scored on a 30-yard scamper. And finally, it was Mark-Antony Richards on a 8-yard run to make give UCF (7-4) a 21-0 lead heading into the second quarter.

The Knights defense got one interception in the first quarter and then two more in the second to keep the Huskies (1-10) at bay. Justin Hodges and Cam Goode each got their first-career picks, while Divaad Wilson snagged his second of the season.

Each team scored twice in the second quarter to make it 35-14 at the break.

Keene found Richardson for a 17-yard touchdown pass to cap off a 98-yard drive, UCF's longest of the season, and Ryan O'Keefe hit Brandon Johnson for a 49-yard touchdown score. It was O'Keefe's second touchdown pass of the season on just his second attempt, while Johnson became the first American Athletic Conference player to haul in 10 touchdown passes this season.

After a scoreless third quarter, UCF found the end zone twice more in the fourth to extend the lead to 49-14, before UConn tacked on a final field goal.

Backup quarterback Parker Navarro scored on a 5-yard rush, his second score in the last two games, and Amari Johnson caught a 3-yard pass from Keene to round out the UCF scoring.

RICHARDSON AND JOHNSON CAREER DAYS

- Johnny Richardson finished with 14 rushes for a career-high 147 yards on the ground. His previous high was 104 rushing yards against ECU earlier this season.
- He also caught one pass for 17 yards and a score, marking his first-career multi-score game.
- Brandon Johnson matched his career-best with seven catches for a career-high 125 yards receiving. His previous high was 123 yards against UMass as a member of the Tennessee football team on Sept. 23, 2017.
- Johnson came into the weekend ranked eighth in the nation with nine touchdown receptions.

SIX WITH SACKS

- A total of six Knights had at least a half a sack in the win Saturday.
- The five total sacks matched the second most in a game this season for UCF.
- Jon Powell, Justin Hodges, Tre'mon Morris-Brash, and Cam Goode all had solo sacks, while Tatum Bethune and Big Kat Bryant each shared a sack.
- It was the first-career sack for Powell, who also had a career-high two tackles for loss in his second-career start.

COACH MALZAHN

"I'm extremely proud of our team. We won the game handedly. Really what stood out to me is how we got off to a fast start, I think 21-0, before they made a first down. (I was) real happy to get some breathing room. Defensively, we were down some linebackers. Jon Powell and Quade Mosier stepped in. I thought they did a solid job in that first half before we got Jeremiah (Jean-Baptiste) back in the second half. Overall, we were balanced on offense. I thought Travis did a super job mixing things up with the pressures that he brought, especially when we were kind of thin at linebacker. I think it was a good, quality win."

TATUM BETHUNE

"The whole game we just played our standard of football. We can't let down. Regardless of what the score is, we just got to keep going. It can be difficult sometimes with different guys coming in that don't really have any experience, but the standard doesn't go down, we got to keep it up there and reach it every time... every time."

GAME 12 // UCF 17, SOUTH FLORIDA 13 // NOVEMBER 26, 2021

ORLANDO - With the game on the line and South Florida driving inside the 5-yard line, the UCF defense came up with its sixth sack of the game and the clock expired to give the Knights a 17-13 victory over the visiting Bulls and a 7-6 lead in the War On I-4 rivalry series.

UCF (8-4, 5-3 AAC) made it necessary for South Florida (2-10, 1-7 AAC) to go for the last second touchdown when quarterback Mikey Keene led the Knights on a 10-play, 61-yard scoring drive that lasted five minutes and 24 seconds and culminated in a 32-yard Daniel Obarski field goal that put UCF up 17-13 with less than nine minutes to play in the game.

The three points from Obarski were the only points for the Knights in the second half, as UCF built a 14-7 first-half lead on one touchdown on the ground in the first quarter and a second through the air in the second quarter.

Redshirt freshman Parker Navarro scored for the third time in the last three games to give UCF an early lead, rushing for a 3-yard touchdown to cap an 8-play, 63-yard drive that gave the Knights the early lead.

After the Bulls tied things up on the final play of the first quarter, UCF made it 14-7 when Keene found Brandon Johnson for a 7-yard touchdown pass, the senior's 11th of the season. UCF took advantage of a short field after Titus Mokiao-Atimalala recorded a career-best 39-yard punt return to get the Knights started at the South Florida 27-yard line.

UCF finished the season 8-4, recorded eight or more wins for the fourth time in the last five seasons. The Knights also completed the 2021 season undefeated at home, the fourth time in the last five seasons doing so.

SIX SACKS AGAIN

- For the second time this season, the UCF defense recorded six sacks in a game, also having done so in the win over Memphis on Oct. 22.
- Over the last six games, the Knights have averaged 4.5 sacks per game.
- Six different Knight got in on the action, led by Ricky Barber with 1.5 sacks in the game.
- Divaad Wilson, Tre'mon Morris-Brash, Big Kat Bryant, and William Wells each had one sack, while Davonte Brown had half a sack.

COACH MALZAHN

"First of all, I'm just so proud of our team. Eight win. Nothing's been easy this year. A lot of times, it's how you win. They responded. Give South Florida credit. They played really good on defense. We're 7-0 at home. I'm real proud of that. Our home-field advantage is one of the best in the country. I'm really proud of that."

SAMUEL JACKSON

"I know why people call us Cardiac Knights now. That was a stressful situation. I don't think there are words to describe my emotions. I'm elated. I'm happy for everyone. I'm happy for all of our seniors. Everyone put so much work into the game, and we came up on the right side of it."

2005 SHERATON HAWAII BOWL

NEVADA 49
UCF 48

December 24, 2005 | Honolulu, Hawaii | Aloha Stadium

HONOLULU - UCF dropped a 49-48 overtime decision to Nevada in the 2005 Sheraton Hawaii Bowl, the first bowl game in school history. The Knights finished the season with an 8-5 record, just one year after going 0-11. The turnaround of seven games from 2004 placed UCF tied with seven other schools for the fourth-best single-season turnaround in Football Bowl Subdivision history.

UCF kicker Matt Prater, who had three field goals during the game, missed the game-tying extra point wide right, giving the Wolf Pack the win.

B.J. Mitchell ran for 178 yards and two touchdowns, and Robert Hubbard had 126 yards rushing and three touchdowns for the Wolf Pack (9-3), who finished with their best season since 1996 and spoiled UCF's bowl debut.

UCF's Brandon Marshall caught a 16-yard pass for a touchdown that tied the game at 42 with 55 seconds left. The score capped a four-play, 48-yard drive that took just 37 seconds.

Prater booted a 46-yard field goal with 1:32 left to draw UCF to 42-35, and the Knights recovered the onside kick with no time-outs left, setting up Marshall's dramatic catch that sent the game into overtime.

Trailing 32-28, the Wolf Pack took the lead on Hubbard's 5-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter. Nevada scored again on Rowe's 7-yard scoring pass to Travis Branzell for a 42-32 lead with 3:18 remaining.

Kevin Smith, Conference USA's Freshman of the Year, scored on a 78-yard run, the second longest run from scrimmage in UCF history, to give the Knights a 14-0 lead in the first quarter. The run was the longest in school history by a freshman and in UCF's 10-year Football Bowl Subdivision history. The longest run from scrimmage in UCF history was Elgin Davis' 79-yard scoring run vs. Samford (Nov. 15, 1986).

The 78-yard touchdown run by Smith was the second-longest run by a true freshman in the NCAA during the year. It also marked the longest run in Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl history.

Brandon Marshall was named UCF's MVP of the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl after posting 11 receptions for 210 yards and three touchdowns vs. Nevada.

2007 AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL

UCF 3
MISSISSIPPI STATE 10

December 29, 2007 | Memphis, Tenn. | Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - UCF's memorable season came to a close in a 10-3 loss to Mississippi State in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Playing at the site of Paul "Bear" Bryant's final game, the Bulldogs used power running and a dominant defense to top the Knights.

Anthony Dixon powered in from the one for the winning touchdown with 1:54 to go and most valuable player Derek Pegues picked off two passes in a game featuring anemic offenses and 17 punts.

The Bulldogs (8-5) kept the Knights (10-4) out of the end zone and Kevin Smith from breaking the single-season rushing record. The junior finished with 119 yards, leaving him 61 shy of Barry Sanders' mark of 2,628 yards set for Oklahoma State in 1988.

"I was trying to find the holes, but they were playing faster than us," said Smith.

Dixon finished with 86 yards and became the seventh Bulldogs runner to go over 1,000 yards (1,066). But like the rest of the Bulldogs, he was ineffective much of the game.

The teams were tied 3-3 at halftime, mostly due to conservative play-calling.

Neither team converted a third down in the first half (0 for 16) as Mississippi State was held to 84 total yards and UCF to 79.

Kyle Israel had 12 yards passing and two interceptions by halftime and Mississippi State's Wes Carroll had 15 yards and an interception. UCF also didn't get much help from kicker Michael Torres, who gave the Knights a 3-0 lead in the second quarter with a 45-yard field goal, but missed from 32 and 37 in the second half.

"I think those missed field goals were big momentum breakers," UCF coach George O'Leary said. "Give Mississippi State credit. They fought hard and didn't turn the ball over. That usually means you're going to come up with a close win like that."

Mississippi State finished with 199 total yards and Blake McAdams tied the Liberty Bowl record with 11 punts. But the Bulldogs came up with just enough big plays after Keith Fitzhugh picked off Israel's pass at the Mississippi State 41 with 5:47 left.

Carroll, pulled the series before, returned and responded with two rushes for 17 yards and two completions for 15 yards. All went for first downs and spurred a 10-play, 59-yard drive that consumed 3:53 and finally led to a touchdown.

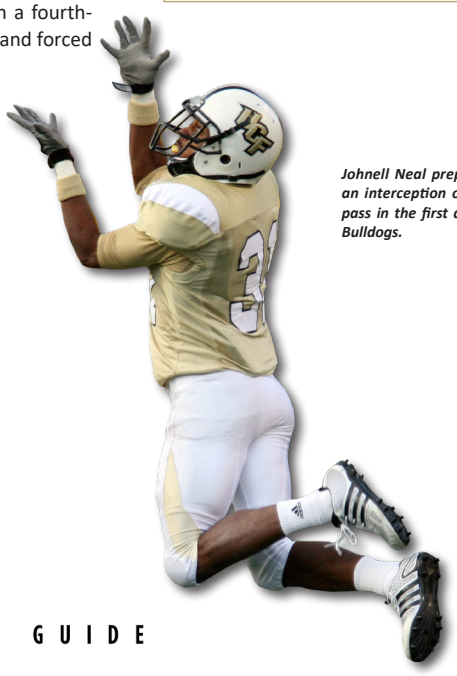

Derek Pegues, fittingly, made the final key defensive play, knocking down a fourth-down pass on UCF's final drive. The Bulldogs held the Knights to 219 yards and forced four turnovers.

2009 ST. PETERSBURG BOWL

UCF	24
RUTGERS	45

December 19, 2009 | St. Petersburg, Fla. | Tropicana Field

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The St. Petersburg Bowl presented what seemed to be a perfect storm for UCF on Saturday night with 20,000 of its fans packed inside Tropicana Field and a hot football team positioned for the first bowl victory in school history.

But an avalanche of errors combined with speedy, physical opponent in Rutgers ruined what could have been a dreamy, feel-good night for UCF's program and its hopeful fanbase.

Down four points late in the second quarter, UCF allowed an interception return to sap its momentum and the Knights could never mount much of a comeback in a disappointing 45-24 loss to Rutgers in the second St. Petersburg Bowl presented by Beef `O' Brady's.

``As I told the players, I'm embarrassed for the football team that we didn't go out and do a better job for the fanbase and for the football program,'' UCF coach George O'Leary said.

``I thought we beat ourselves a lot in a lot of situations out there,'' a frustrated O'Leary continued. ``Right now, Rutgers defense was just a lot better than our offense and that was the difference in the game.''

UCF (8-5) had hoped that the momentum of a strong finish to the regular season, one in which it won the final six conference games and knocked off Marshall, Houston and UAB down the stretch, would carry over to the bowl game. But problems on both sides of the ball sabotaged the Knights' chances of pulling off the upset in this game.

Playing before roughly 20,000 Knights fans among the Tropicana Field crowd of 29,763, UCF netted just 35 yards on the ground, 33 of them coming in the fourth quarter when the outcome of the game was already decided. And in the passing game, two Brett Hodges' interceptions led to 14 points for Rutgers, bowl winners for a fourth consecutive season. And UCF's defense yielded 380 yards and eight third-down conversions.

``The offense put up 14 points and a field goal early and defensively we played our butts off. We didn't want to go out like this, and this is so disappointing,'' senior defensive tackle Travis Timmons said. ``It's just such a big letdown. We're 0-14 now against Big East teams and 0-3 in bowl games. Torrell (Troup), Bruce (Miller) and myself along the defensive line wanted to change all of that, but unfortunately things didn't go the way we wanted them to.''

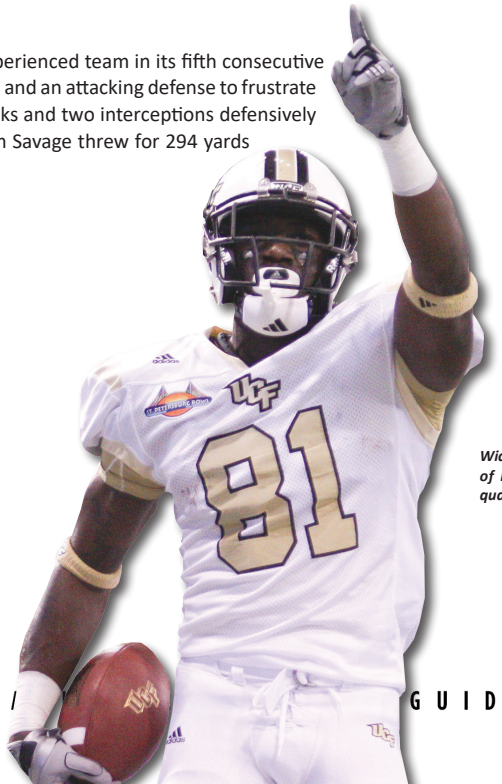

Rutgers (9-4) played like an experienced team in its fifth consecutive bowl, using big plays on offense and an attacking defense to frustrate the Knights. Rutgers got six sacks and two interceptions defensively and freshman quarterback Tom Savage threw for 294 yards and two TDs.

2010 AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL

GEORGIA	6
UCF	10

December 31, 2010 | Memphis, Tenn. | Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - A UCF football program clearly on the rise as a powerhouse to be reckoned with nationally registered a landmark victory in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, beating Southeastern Conference power Georgia while registering the school's first-ever bowl victory.

When UCF sophomore safety Kemal Ishmael batted down a Hail Mary pass that seemed to hang in the air forever, it preserved No. 24 UCF's 10-6 defeat of Georgia and set off a wild celebration among the 8,000 Knights' fans who roared with noise inside the Liberty Bowl.

Doing something for a first time is never easy, and this first-ever bowl victory for UCF went down to the final seconds. Georgia quarterback Aaron Murray heaved a pass into the end zone for 6-foot-4 superstar wide out A.J. Green, but Ishmael was there to make the game-saving play that is sure to live in the history of the program for years to come.

Sophomore tailback Latavius Murray, the game's Outstanding Offensive Player and the MVP, scored on a 10-yard run with 9:01 to play to put the Knights ahead 10-6. And a defense that was dominant a couple of weeks ago in the Conference USA title game made it stand up. They held a Georgia offense that came in averaging 34.3 points a game to just two field goals and no touchdowns.

Freshman quarterback Jeff Godfrey capped a stellar first season on campus, helping the program win a C-USA title and the school's first bowl game. Let the comparisons to UCF legend Daunte Culpepper begin after he joined the school's lore. He completed 16 of 29 passes for 117 yards.

Georgia drove 61 yards on the first drive of the second half, but again had to settle for a Blair Walsh 42-yard field goal when the Knights got crucial pass break-ups from Ishmael and senior cornerback Justin Boddie. That 6-3 Georgia lead would be its final advantage of the game because they couldn't score against UCF's gritty defense.

UCF appeared to have scored first for the 13th time in 14 games when Quincy McDuffie took the opening kickoff back 98 yards. McDuffie, one of only nine players in the nation to return two kicks for touchdowns, hit a seam and sprinted for an apparent touchdown. However, the return was negated by a holding penalty on UCF special teams ace Ronnie Weaver.

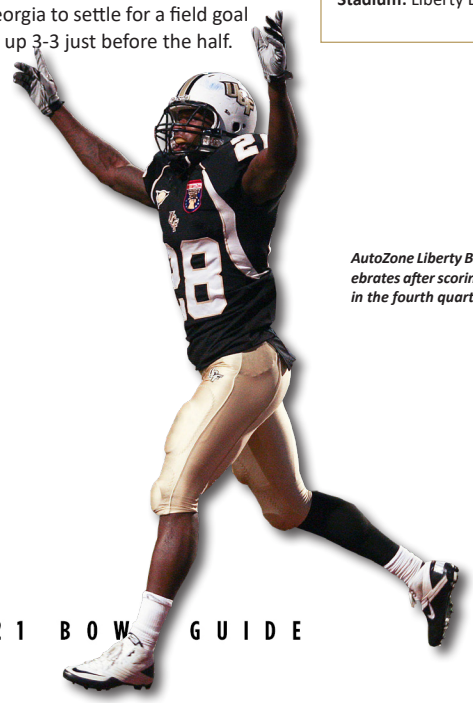

Georgia's first drive started at the 2-yard line following a 56-yard boot by UCF senior punter Blake Clingan, but the Bulldogs proceeded to march 95 yards in the next 15 plays. But the Knights stiffened up near the goal line, forcing Georgia to settle for a field goal that put the `Dogs up 3-0, and the Knights tied the game up 3-3 just before the half.

2012 BEEF O'BRADY'S BOWL

BALL STATE	17
UCF	38

December 21, 2012 | St. Petersburg, Fla. | Tropicana Field

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The slogan of UCF for 2012 was "Finish." And the Knights did just that with an exclamation point in the 2012 Beef `O' Brady's Bowl. UCF earned its second bowl victory in program history with a 38-17 win over Ball State.

Led by the all-time winningest senior class in school history, UCF clinched its 10th victory of the season behind an impressive effort by the duo of senior running back Latavius Murray and sophomore signal-caller Blake Bortles. Bortles capped his first full season in style, earning MVP honors while finishing 22-of-33 for 271 yards and three passing touchdowns. He also led the team with a career-high 80 yards on the ground and another score.

Murray was just as impressive, cashing in for three touchdowns (all in the first half) and 104 total yards, with 71 on the ground and 33 through the air on a team-high six catches.

The defense also did its part in the drubbing of the Cardinals. Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year Kemal Ishmael finished his career with 367 tackles after recording seven in the contest. He also forced his sixth career fumble and two pass break-ups. Fellow senior defensive end Troy Davis also went out in style with 1.5 sacks to crack the UCF top 10 with 18-career QB take downs.

After winning the toss and receiving the ball to start the game, UCF matriculated down the field, mixing the run and pass well on a 13-play, 78-yard drive that was capped off by a Bortles-to-Murray touchdown connection. The drive ate 7:33 off the clock and was aided by the sophomore QB's ability to evade the pass rush, while also connecting with rookie Breshad Perriman three times for 21 yards and a pair of first downs.

With the defense forcing a quick three-and-out, UCF's offense continued its impressive start with a seven-play 58-yard drive that saw Murray reach pay-dirt on a short 2-yard burst. The Knights closed out the first quarter outgaining the Cardinals, 160-15.

Ball State would settle in, however, with an 82-yard drive for seven points that saw Keith Wenning hit Willie Snead from seven-yards out to make it a 13-7 contest in the second quarter.

UCF responded with Bortles completely taking over on the ensuing drive. The Oviedo native became a dual threat on the drive, rushing three times for 32 yards, including a 6-yard scramble up the middle that saw him bulldoze a pair of Cardinal defenders on his way to the end zone. He capped the scoring drive with UCF's first two-point conversion since Sept. 5, 2009, hitting senior H-back Dontravius Floyd in the back of the end zone.

Ball State drove right back into UCF territory, reaching the Knights' 10-yard line prior to freshman DL Thomas Niles sacking Wenning for an 11-yard loss. The third-down tackle for loss resulted in a much longer field-goal attempt, which sailed well left of the uprights.

Starting on its own 32-yard line with just 55 seconds left in the half, Bortles hit junior Jeff Godfrey and Murray for 12 and 10 yards before launching a 45-yard beauty to a streaking Perriman, who finished with a career-best 90 yards on five catches, on the far side line. The career-long reception led to Bortles hitting Murray for the second time in the half, this time from five yards out with just five ticks left on the first-half clock.

After a 45-yard field goal by Schott to make it 28-10 with 7:54 left in the third quarter, the Cardinals attempted an onside kick that redshirt sophomore running back Cedric Thompson grabbed out of the air safely to set up the Knights at the BSU 49-yard line.

Bortles continued to shred the Ball State defense with the prime field position. He racked up 41 of the next 49 yards through the air, tying his career record and a Beef `O' Brady's Bowl mark with touchdown pass No. 3 from seven yards out to fellow sophomore J.J. Worton.

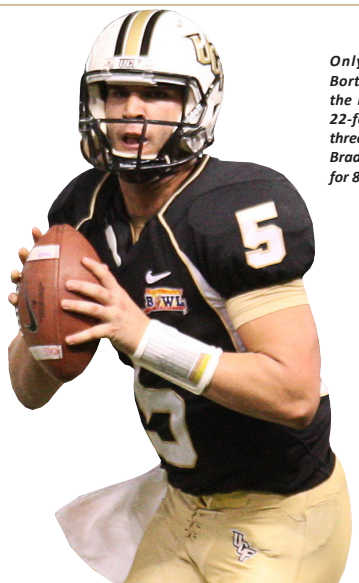

Sophomore Shawn Moffitt would cap the Knights' scoring on the year with a 25-yard field goal to make it 38-10. The Cardinals tacked on a late touchdown to account for the final tally of 38-17. On the season, UCF finished with 496 total points, second all-time in program history.

2014 TOSTITOS FIESTA BOWL

UCF 52
BAYLOR 42

January 1, 2014 | Glendale, Ariz. | University of Phoenix Stadium

GLENDALE, Ariz. - The most memorable season in UCF football history ended with the most memorable win in program history. In thrilling fashion, the Knights took a 52-42 triumph over No. 6 Baylor in the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The No. 15 Knights (12-1) won their third-consecutive bowl game and set a school record with their 12th victory of the season. UCF came into the season with just one victory over a ranked opponent and ended the historic effort with their second over a ranked squad in 2013 alone. To make the accomplishment even more impressive, both wins over ranked teams came against Top 10 opponents.

Junior quarterback Blake Bortles was named the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl Offensive Player of the Game after racking up 301 passing yards and three touchdowns to go along with a career-high 93 yards rushing and a touchdown.

UCF's offense matched Baylor's high-powered attack every step of the way. The Bears came into the contest leading the NCAA in scoring offense and total offense, but it was the Knights who racked up 52 points and 558 total yards for the victory. The points and yardage were the largest totals ever by UCF in a bowl game and against a ranked opponent.

Much was said before the game about how the Knights' defense would stack up against Baylor's up-tempo offense. UCF, however, came into the game with the 13th-ranked scoring defense in the nation. The Knights forced seven Baylor punts and two turnovers, while holding the Bears 11 points and 75 yards beneath their season averages.

The Knights began to put the wild back-and-forth affair on ice when Storm Johnson ripped off a 40-yard touchdown run to give UCF a 49-35 advantage with 10:26 remaining. Johnson set a new career high with 124 rushing yards and matched his season-high mark with three rushing touchdowns. The Knights accounted for the winning total with a 36-yard field goal from Shawn Moffitt with less than five minutes remaining.

UCF got off to a roaring start. After receiving the opening kickoff, the Knights churned out 76 yards in six rush attempts, capped off by an 11-yard touchdown burst by Johnson. This marked the first touchdown drive of the season for the Knights that came without a single pass attempt.

After forcing a three-and-out, the Black and Gold again marched down the field, primarily on the strength of its rushing attack. After Bortles found Breshad Perriman streaking down the left sideline for a 34-yard gain, UCF returned to its ground control attack with four consecutive running plays. Johnson's 2-yard touchdown plunge gave the Knights a 14-0 advantage just eight minutes into the contest.

Junior Rannell Hall proved once again that his nickname, "Speedy" is appropriate as he took two short, second-quarter passes to the house. Both catches were made near the line of scrimmage and featured Hall out-running the Baylor secondary, with help from some terrific blocking from fellow wideouts Josh Reese, J.J. Worton and Taylor Oldham.

While Bortles brought home Offensive Player of the Game honors, Terrance Plummer was named Defensive Player of the Game. The junior linebacker racked up a game-high 14 tackles, including half a sack. Sean Maag (12 tackles) and Clayton Geathers (10 tackles) both recorded double-digit stops as well.

2014 BITCOIN ST. PETERSBURG BOWL

NC STATE	34
UCF	27

December 26, 2014 | St. Petersburg, Fla. | Tropicana Field

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - The UCF Knights fell just short of another stirring comeback at Tropicana Field in the Bitcoin St. Petersburg Bowl. UCF trailed North Carolina State 34-13 in the fourth quarter, and mounted a rally before falling, 34-27.

A Niklas Sade field goal put the Wolfpack on top by 21 points with 12:37 remaining in the contest. But senior captain Josh Reese, who scored all three of the UCF (9-4) touchdowns, hauled in a 14-yard strike from quarterback Justin Holman less than three minutes later, bringing a huge, partisan UCF crowd back into the game.

When the UCF defense got a three-and-out, the Knights' faithful really began believing. However, a Holman interception slowed the Knights' momentum mid-way through the fourth quarter.

NC State (8-5) had two empty possessions, punting and missing a field goal, but a great deal of time ran off the clock.

The Knights started moving the ball again when they took over with 2:56 remaining. Just 1:12 later, Reese found the end zone a third time on a 2-yard pass from Holman. That score pulled UCF within seven points, 34-27.

With 1:44 remaining and no timeouts, the Knights needed to recover an onside kick to have a chance. NC State secured the kick and was able to run out the clock.

Meanwhile, thousands of Knight fans chanted "UCF! UCF! UCF!" and saluted their team as they left the field. An estimated 20,000-plus UCF fans made the short trip and were a part of a near-sellout of 26,675.

The Knights opened the scoring on the first possession of the game. A 40-yard Shawn Moffitt field goal put the Knights on top 3-0. But NC State answered on its first possession with an 18-yard halfback pass to Jaylen Samuels to go on top 7-3. The Knights regained the lead 10-7 early in the second quarter. Holman rifled a pass to Reese at the goal line from six yards out.

But it was all Wolfpack for the next two-plus quarters, as NC State outscored the Knights 27-3 to go on top by 21 points. Wolfpack quarterback Jacoby Brissett found a wide open Johnathan Alston for a 37-yard score to make it 14-10. An NC State field goal with 3:16 remaining in the first half pushed the score to 17-10 at halftime. Matt Dayes ran up the middle for a 19-yard score on the opening drive of the second half, putting the Wolfpack on top 24-10.

The Knights got three points back after Wolfpack turnover, with Moffitt hitting from 36 yards out to make it 24-13. NC State answered with another Dayes score, as he went untouched up the middle late in the third, making it 31-13.

For the game, the Wolfpack out-gained the Knights 487-373. Brissett was named the game's MVP after passing for 262 yards and rushing for 31 more. Holman threw for 291 yards on 23-of-53 with three scores to pace the UCF offense. Breshad Perriman had nine receptions for 138 yards. Defensively, UCF was led by senior captain Clayton Geathers, who racked up 14 tackles.

2016 AUTONATION CURE BOWL

ARKANSAS STATE	31
UCF	13

December 17, 2016 | Orlando, Fla. | Camping World Stadium

ORLANDO – The UCF football team couldn't overcome a number of miscues in Saturday night's Cure Bowl, falling to Arkansas State 31-13.

Despite the outcome, UCF head coach Scott Frost expressed the amount of pride he has in what the Knights accomplished this season. He had a message of gratitude for the seniors, who played their final game in the Black & Gold.

"What this team has accomplished, I'm proud of them, happy for them. I'm hungry to accomplish more," Frost said. "I had a simple message for our team. I thanked the seniors. Everything we say about our seniors we mean from the bottom of our heart. These guys could have gone a lot of different directions. They didn't have to sacrifice and put in the effort and be leaders for our team and totally take a new direction in a new way of doing things that our coaching staff was asking them to do. They all did; they all led us. I'm proud to be their coach."

The Red Wolves scored 14 points off turnovers and added a touchdown on a blocked punt, which opened the scoring. Those 17 points were a huge difference in a contest where the two defenses were dominant. Arkansas State rushed for just 29 yards, while the Knights only managed 12. UCF passed for 211 yards, while the Red Wolves threw it for 205. Neither squad managed more than 234 yards. Combined, the two teams were 6-for-35 on third down.

"I think when either team's defense is on the field it was the superior unit on the field and we kind of knew that going in," Frost said.

A nightmare first quarter for UCF left Arkansas State with a 17-0 lead after 15 minutes of play. A blocked punt was recovered in the end zone for the Red Wolves. A long Arkansas State pass play led to a field goal to make it 10-0. On the ensuing kickoff, a fumble set the Red Wolves up with a short field that was converted into a touchdown to account for the 17 points.

The Knights found some offense in the second quarter. Tre'Quan Smith made another of his patented circus catches. The 34-yard completion set up an 11-yard scoring strike from McKenzie Milton to a wide-open Taylor Oldham. Following an Arkansas State fumble, Matthew Wright converted a 45-yard field goal to pull the Knights within seven, 17-10 at the intermission.

But a 75-yard touchdown pass less than a minute into the third quarter swung the momentum back to Arkansas State. Wright's second field goal of the game late in the third quarter got the Knights back within 11, 24-13. The Red Wolves took over deep in UCF territory late in the third quarter on a fumbled UCF punt and turned it into a touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter, accounting for the final tally.

2018 CHICK-FIL-A PEACH BOWL

UCF	34
AUBURN	27

January 1, 2018 | Atlanta, Ga. | Mercedes-Benz Stadium

ATLANTA, Ga. (UCFKnights.com) – Behind 21 unanswered points in the second half, the UCF football team capped a perfect 13-0 season with a 34-27 win over No. 7 Auburn in the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl on New Year's Day.

Down seven late in the third quarter, the No. 12 Knights stormed back into the game. Quarterback McKenzie Milton hit Otis Anderson on a screen pass that the freshman took to the end zone to tie the game with 1:30 to play in the third. Following a Tigers punt, the Knights offense drove back into Auburn territory. Milton danced around a few would-be tacklers, stepped up in the pocket and found a cutting Dredrick Snelson from eight yards out to give the Knights a 27-20 lead.

Auburn took over at their own 20-yard line with 6:58 left to play and a chance to even the score. Tigers quarterback Jarrett Stidham threw a pass that was intended for a cutting receiver for a short gain, but senior Chequan Burkett stepped in front to intercept the pass. The native of Montgomery, Ala., had no one in front of him and sprinted 45 yards to the end zone for the game-winning score.

Burkett, along with Shaquem Griffin and the UCF defense, gave the Tigers all they could handle. UCF racked up a season-high six sacks and 11 tackles for loss. UCF recorded a pair of takeaways. In addition to Burkett's pick-six, A.J. Wooten set up the Knights' first touchdown in the second quarter. The redshirt junior jarred the ball loose from Stidham, and it bounced into the hands of Tre Neal, which later led to an 18-yard scoring run for Milton.

MCKENZIE FRENZY

• Milton was 16-of-35 for 242 and a pair of passing touchdowns and added a score on the ground, earning Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl Offensive MVP honors.

• After slow start in the first half, Milton was nearly unstoppable in the second half. He completed 13 of 18 passes for 212 yards.

• The sophomore led the team in rushing with a career-high 116 yards for 8.9 yards per carry. Milton now holds the UCF record for single-season rushing yards by a quarterback. The previous record was 566, set by Jeff Godfrey in 2010. Milton finished the season with 613.

2019 PLAYSTATION FIESTA BOWL

UCF 32

January 1, 2019 | Glendale, Ariz. | State Farm Stadium

GLENDALE, Ariz. (UCFKnights.com) – Senior defensive lineman Titus Davis took a knee on the 35-yard-line, his silence only interrupted by teammates who approached to extend their hand or a hug.

Senior linebacker Pat Jasinski hugged quarterback McKenzie Milton and told him he loved him like a brother.

Senior punter Mac Loudermilk thanked a slew of teammates one by one before taking a moment for himself to stand near the end zone and soak up the scene before him as memories of the past five years brought tears to his eyes.

The No. 7 UCF football team didn't get the ride-off-into-the-sunset ending it was hoping for in its 40-32 loss to No. 11 LSU at Tuesday's PlayStation Fiesta Bowl.

But this journey was something they'll never forget.

"I wouldn't trade this for anything in the world. Do I wish this game would have come out a little bit differently? Yeah. It's bittersweet," Loudermilk said. "What I want is for people to know this team pushes through any adversity there is, no matter what it is. I hope we stir the pot for expansion. I hope we've opened some people's eyes that we play real ball, and we can play with anybody. There is no limit to this team. Orlando has a hometown team and I think the school is only going to skyrocket from here."

The Streak that Knight Nation will Always Remember
The Knights' spectacular win streak came to an end after 25 games and a span of 745 days, dating to Aug. 31, 2017. The accomplishment will be listed in the NCAA record book among the longest win streaks ever recorded and marks the fourth-longest win streak this millennium (Miami, 34 – 2000-03; Florida State, 29 – 2012-14; Alabama, 26 – 2015-16).

During the last two years, the Knights won two War On I-4 rivalry matchups against USF. They bested four different nationally ranked opponents. They set an American Athletic Conference record for all-conference honorees in a single season. They welcomed ESPN's iconic show College GameDay to campus for the first time. They won two conference championships. They won the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and celebrated a national championship season.

And despite all that, those accomplishments will always fall second to the brotherhood and family they gained.

"I told the team in the locker room, 'You wipe y'all tears,'" linebacker Nate Evans said. "I know it's hard for some of these seniors, it's their last game. But football doesn't last forever. It's just a game. It's going to end. The memories that we have together as this UCF football team (are) going to last forever."

Greg McCrae gave the Knights their first touchdown of the 2019 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl, one of his 10 rushing scores on the season. As a sophomore, McCrae rushed for 1,182 yards on the ground.

2019 BAD BOY MOWERS GASPARILLA BOWL

UCF	48
MARSHALL	25

December 23, 2019 | Tampa, Fla. | Raymond James Stadium

TAMPA – After nearly a month off from playing, the UCF football team got things started quickly on Monday afternoon, scoring 21 points in the first eight minutes on the way to 48-25 victory over Marshall at the 2019 Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl at Raymond James Stadium.

Two of the Knights' (10-3) first three scores came from the defense, as Richie Grant snagged his first pick of the season and returned it 39 yards for a touchdown on the third play from scrimmage.

After punts from both teams, freshman Dillon Gabriel led a 6-play, 65-yard drive that culminated with a 26-yard Greg McCrae touchdown to put the Knights up 14-0 less than six minutes into the game.

Marshall (8-5) then began a drive at its own 21-yard line and advanced it to UCF's 40-yard line, before the Knights defense struck again. Tre'Mon Morris-Brash knocked down a backwards pass and picked it up to record the first forced fumble and the first fumble recovery of his career. Better than that, he then ran 55 yards to the end zone to give his team a 21-0 advantage it never looked back from.

A penalty-riddled, defensive-minded second quarter came and went with the Knights going into the locker room with a 24-7 lead.

The offense took its turn after the break, as the two teams totaled 39 combined points in the third quarter. Following the hour-long period, UCF found itself leading 45-25.

Gabriel, who was named the game's Most Valuable Player after the win, hit Otis Anderson on a 4th-and-7 screen pass that went 35 yards to paydirt to get things started in the quarter. Gabriel also rushed for a score and connected with Marlon Williams on a 75-yard score down the sideline to give the Knights a 45-25 lead heading into the final frame.

The Knights' offense controlled the clock and the defense kept the Herd at bay in the fourth quarter. Dylan Barnas's second field goal of the game, at the 9:01 mark, was the lone score of the period, and UCF left Tampa with the 48-25 victory over its former rival.

The Knights' 586 yards of total offense and 310 yards rushing both marked program records in a bowl game, while the 48 points were just four points shy of the 52 scored against Baylor in the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

The defense totaled five turnovers on the day, another UCF bowl-game record.

The game's MVP, Gabriel finished the day 14-of-24 for 260 yards passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions. The true freshman also added a scored on the ground.

UCF finished the 2019 season at 10-3, the program's third straight 10-win season, a first for UCF.
