STORYLINES

- The Anteaters fell twice last week starting at home to Cal State Fullerton by two and in the Black & Blue Rivalry Series at Long Beach State Saturday by six. It's the first three-game losing streak for UCI since November of 2019, and it's the second three-game losing streak in Big West play in the last 10 years; the other in 2017 losing consecutively to Cal Poly, at UC Davis, and at LBSU.
- Collin Welp continues to climb the Anteater record books. He surpassed his coach, Alex Young, Saturday at LBSU with 20 points. He's now alone in 10th in program history with 1,344 points after beginning the year 26th in UCI history. Next on the list 40 points ahead of Welp is Will Davis II in ninth. Welp is rising up the rebound records as well now with 634. He's ascended to 13th all-time in UCI history after starting the season 23rd. He's got a little ways to the next spot with Ben McDonald 36 rebounds ahead in 12th.
- Welp added his second double-double of the season with 20 points and a season-high 11 rebounds Saturday. His other came at Santa Clara scoring 17 with 10 rebounds. Collin Welp put up 25 second-half points hitting all 10 shots en route to a 30-point night; his second 30-point career game. Welp has made 17 straight free throws after going 8-for-8 from the line. It was his 10th game with 20+ points in his career, second this season joining his 24-point effort at USC. He added a team-high eight rebounds in the game.
- The 'Eaters have had multiple players in double-figures every game this season. Collin Welp has reached double digits in 12 of 13 games. UCI has had three with double digits in six games this year including Saturday at Long Beach State, and four in double digits vs. La Verne.

- High scorers have come from six different Anteaters in their 13 games and led by Welp seven times while five different players have led the team in rebounding led by Austin Johnson five times, and eight different players leading or tied for most assists led by Justin Hohn four times.
- Nationally, the Anteater defense is among the nation's best. UCI was tops in the NCAA in scoring defense in mid-December settling in at 16th in the NCAA as the conclusion of non-conference play. Entering the week, UCI allows 60.4 points per game, 17th in the nation, which included 51 points allowed at UC Riverside and the lowest-scoring half by an opponent with 22 second half points.
- UCI also ranks high nationally in field goal defense, 10th nationally, and ninth in the NCAA in three-point defense. Elsewhere, they allow the 11th-fewest turnovers, and commit the ninth-fewest fouls in the nation.
- Austin Johnson has been a prolific shot blocker with 32 this season and ranking 31st nationally with 2.46 per game, both numbers leading the conference. He also put down 16 points at UC Riverside for his highest career total against a Division I opponent. Three of his eight career

HEAD COACH | 12TH SEASON

RUSSELL TURNER

Russell Turner, the winningest coach in UCI history, concluded his 11th season at the helm in 2020-21. Turner has guided the Anteaters to 227 wins, averaging over 20 wins a season.

Turner who enters his 12th season as head coach at UC Irvine in 2021-22, has led the 'Eaters to six postseason appearances (2013 CIT, 2014 NIT, 2015 NCAA, 2016 CIT, 2017 NIT and 2019 NCAA).

Turner became the only coach in UCI history to amass 200 wins. He has been named the Big West Coach of the Year four times in his career and has led the 'Eaters to Big West regular season titles in five of the last eight seasons.

On the national stage, Turner has been named a finalist for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year award in 2017 & 2020, and the Hugh Durham Award in 2019 & 2020. Bracketbusters.com also named him one of the Top-10 Big West Coaches of the Century.

UCI's 2020-21 team was the second youngest in the country, and Turner led the Anteaters to a Big West Tournament final for the fourth-consecutive season. He is one of only seven coaches in Big West history to reach over 200 wins and currently ranks fifth all-time on the Big West career wins list.

In 2019-20, Turner led the Anteaters to their second-straight Big West regular season outright title, marking the first time in UCI history the 'Eaters won back-to-back outright titles. UCI entered the Big West Tournament as the No. 1 seed before its cancellation.

He led UCI to a record-breaking 2018-19 season as the Anteaters broke school records in overall wins (31), longest winning streak (17 games) and tied a program best 15-1 mark in Big West play. Turner guided the Anteaters to their second Big West Conference Tournament title and second NCAA Tournament appearance. UCI won its first-ever NCAA Tournament game defeating fourth-seeded Kansas State 70-64. He also helped Jonathan Galloway become the Big West's first-ever three time Defensive Player of the Year recipient. Turner was named the Big West Coach of the Year.

In 2017-18, he guided the Anteaters to their sixth-straight winning season with an 18-17 overall record and second-straight Big West Tournament final. He upped his career win total to 157 becoming the third coach in UC Irvine records for overall victories, non-conference wins (15), and road victories (13).

In 2015, he led UCI to the program's first NCAA Division I Tournament berth as the Anteaters won the Big West Conference Tournament for the first time in school history. UCI took three-time national champion Louisville to the wire in the NCAA Second round, falling 57-55.

Turner was named 2014 Big West Conference Coach of the Year and NABC District 9 Coach of the Year after leading the Anteaters to their first league regular-season title in 12 years and a second consecutive 20-win season.

He guided the 'Eaters to a 23-12 overall record in 2013-14 and a 13-3 mark in Big West play. Five of his players received Big West postseason recognition.

Turner was named UC Irvine's head coach April 9, 2010, after serving the previous six seasons as an assistant coach for the Golden State Warriors of the National Basketball Association following positions at Stanford University and Wake Forest University.

Turner also served as a coach for the Warriors' summer-league entry in Las Vegas for five seasons. He has been an active participant in the NBA's international outreach camps, including Basketball without Borders, representing the league in Turkey, China and Lithuania. BWB is a program that uses basketball to create positive social change in education, health and wellness.

Turner was a member of Mike Montgomery's Stanford University staff from 2000-04 when the Cardinal had a combined overall record of 105-24 (.814), including 59-13 (.819) in Pac-10 play. Stanford won Pac-10 regular-season titles in 2001 and 2004, was ranked No. 1 in the polls both seasons, and advanced to the NCAA tournament each of Turner's four years, including the West Regional final in 2001.

The list of players he worked with at Stanford includes All-Americans Josh Childress, Casey Jacobsen, Jarron Collins and Jason Collins.

Prior to Stanford, Turned worked under Dave Odom as an assistant at Wake Forest University from 1994-2000.

The Demon Deacons won 161 games in those six seasons, advancing to the NCAA tournament three times, including the Midwest Regional final in 1996. Tim Duncan was a three-time All-American during Turner's tenure at Wake Forest.

Turner's first coaching position was as an assistant at his alma mater, Hampden-Sydney (Va.) College in 1993-94.

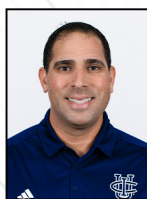

As a player at Hampden-Sydney, Turner was a two-time All-American (1991 & 1992) and set the school's career scoring record of 2,272 points. He was a member of Hampden-Sydney's first two NCAA tournament teams and was inducted into Hampden-Sydney's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002.

He graduated magna cum laude in 1992 with a B.A. in English and economics, and earned numerous academic honors including election into Phi Beta Kappa.

Turner is a native of Roanoke, Va. He and his wife, Elizabeth, a physician, have two children, Devlin and Darius.
