STORYLINES

Around The Horn

0.75 - Anteater starters boasted a 0.75 ERA (2 ER in 24 IP) last week allowing 18 total hits, two walks, and led by David Vizcaino's 2-hitter over 8 shutout innings to win Big West Pitcher of the Week

8th - UC Irvine boasts the 8th-toughest non-conference schedule with an RPI of 78 and five Quadrant 1 wins coming at Oregon State and vs. UC Santa Barbara, USD, and twice vs. Grand Canyon

3 - 3 'Eaters have made their MLB debuts in 2022 starting with Andre Pallante on the St. Louis Cardinals opening day roster, and joined by Royce Lewis of the Twins and the Rays' Calvin Faucher

116 - Head Coach Ben Orloff holds a 116-63 record passing Dave Serrano for third in all-time wins over the weekend at UC Riverside. Next on the list is UCI and UCLA coaching great, Gary Adams, at 185

LEADING OFF

+ The Anteaters picked up two wins in four games, both but the losses came at a price dropping its RPI from 61 to start the week to 78. UCI remains 5-6 against Quadrant 1 teams with Tuesday vs. UCLA the final Q1 program left.

+ Starting pitching was dominant on the week led by David Vizcaino earning the team's first Big West Pitcher of the Week honor in 2022 from eight shutout two-hit innings to improve to

4-0 and didn't even allow a runner to second base. UCI's four starters allowed two runs over 24 innings for a 0.75 ERA as Nick Pinto, Cameron Wheeler, and first-time starter Andre Antone struck out 15 batters between them with just 18 hits and two walks allowed.

+ Anteater bats on the week were hot and cold busting out 27 runs on 33 hits in their two wins, but five runs in the two losses. Caden Kendle continues to shine hitting .472 for the month of May, and now leads the team hitting .320 after a week of nine hits, six runs, a home run, and .600 on-base. Nathan Church added with eight RBIs including his first career grand slam to give him 100 for his career, and notables from Luke Spillane (.500, 3 RBI), Dub Glead (5 RBI), and Woody Hadeen (.429, 7 R, first career home run).

+ The 'Eaters are among the national leaders in sacrifice bunts (9th), walks allowed per game (15th), triples (19th), hit by pitch (25th), K-to-BB ratio (32nd), and WHIP (41st) leading the Big West in sacs, triples, and HBP. National leaders start with Gordon Ingebritson who is sixth in BB per game, seventh in K-to-BB ratio, 16th in WHIP, and 18th in ERA at 2.10 that leads the Big West. Taishi Nakawake has 13 sac bunts to rank fourth nationally.

LAST WEEK

+ For a third straight week, UCI finished 2-2 on their road trip with bookend losses at LMU Tuesday and UCR Sunday.

FAUCHER MAKES MLB DEBUT WITH RAYS

On May 9th, Calvin Faucher got called up to the Tampa Bay Rays. He is the 11th Anteater to make the MLB.

+ The Anteaters won its first series in a month snapping four straight series losses and three straight in conference.

THIS WEEK VS. UCLA, CSU BAKERSFIELD

+ UCI welcomes UCLA to Anteater Ballpark. They won last year's weekend Saturday matchup here, and are coming off a Tuesday win at the Bruins, 4-2, in late April. The Bruins visit as a top-25 program, like the April UCI win. UCI is 38-36 at home against ranked opponents all-time and have 25 wins vs. ranked Pac-12 squads.

+ The final home series welcomes in CSU Bakersfield for the first time as a Big West foe, first home matchup since 2017 and first weekend series since 2015. Saturday will also mark the 2,400th game in UC Irvine baseball history

OPENING DAY

+ Keston Hiura of the Milwaukee Brewers returns for his fourth season as utility infielder and designated hitter

+ Andre Pallante made his MLB debut April 10 in St. Louis for the Cardinals as the ninth Anteater to reach the Major Leagues. Pallante is 1 of 8 players from the 2019 MLB Draft class to make a 2022 Opening Day roster. Hiura was the first player from the 2017 MLB Draft class to reach the majors.

+ Two more Anteaters got the call in May with 2017 No. 1 overall pick and UCI NLI signee Royce Lewis joining the Twins and another 2017 draft pick, Calvin Faucher, making his MLB debut with Tampa Bay Monday.

UCLA Bruins

UCLA enters the week needing to perform well to earn a postseason spot despite a 33-18 overall record. Since the April 26th meeting that UCI won, 4-2, at No. 13 UCLA, the Bruins scored a sweep of Arizona State before losing five straight at Long Beach State, Cal State Fullerton, and swept at Washington. They rebounded over the weekend sweeping Washington State at home, but still sit on the edge of the bubble with their RPI and are third in the conference standings with Oregon State awaiting them.

The Bruins and Anteaters meeting on April 26 featured the Bruins at No. 13 in the nation at the time. UCI scored in the first to lead before UCLA scrounged up a couple runs off David Vizcaino to take a 2-1 lead. Caden Kendle's home run robbery kept UCI within striking distance which they would take advantage of scoring twice on a Justin Torres single, adding a Kendle insurance HR, and Troy Taylor would earn the save with the bases loaded.

The offense is right around UCI's with just over six runs a game. They reach base well with the second-most walks in the Pac-12 and 13th-most hit by pitch in the nation for a .386 OBP. Familiar face Jake Palmer will be back this weekend as the team's leading hitter at .321 and 29 RBIs. Cody Schrier is another volatile bat (.305, 9 HR, 39 RBI), and Ethan Gourson (.289, 21 2B, 34 RBI) looks to rebound from last outing where he was held hitless.

Pitching is where UCLA makes their bread in a team ERA of 3.38, fourth nationally. The arsenal of bullpen arms make it difficult to erase any deficit with the third-lowest WHIP nationally (1.16) .vcom-

BEN ORLOFF

HEAD COACH | 4TH SEASON

Ben Orloff enters his fourth year atop the Anteater baseball program as head coach and ninth season with the program. Orloff assumed the reins of UC Irvine Baseball in July of 2018 as the ninth head coach in program history. Orloff initially joined the coaching staff in 2014 as an assistant rising to associate head coach in the five years since. In his first year in 2019, he took the team to a second-place finish in the Big West going 37-17 overall with 21 home wins.

The Anteaters returned to the postseason stage in 2021 reaching the NCAA Tournament for the first time in his coaching career, ninth time in Division I, and 14th time in program history. The team was crowned Big West champions winning an all-time conference record 32 games. UCI finished with an overall record of 43-18 reaching the Stanford Regional taking the hosts to the Regional Final. His efforts scored his first Big West Coach of the Year accolade, the fourth for the program and third since joining the Big West. Among the Anteaters superlatives were ABCA All-American status for Mike Peabody who was joined by three others on the Collegiate Baseball Newspaper All-American squad. Peabody was also named Big West co-Player of the Year, and was joined by Taishi Nakawake as the tri-Defensive Player of the Year. Peabody was among four 'Eaters from the 2021 squad to be drafted in the MLB.

Coach Orloff and the Anteaters had their season shortened like every collegiate program in 2020. After just 15 games, the 'Eaters were 8-7.

Spearheading the Anteater recruiting efforts, Orloff played at UCI from 2006-09 and became the program's first Big West Player of the Year. An accomplished shortstop, Orloff won the 2009 Brooks Wallace Award and was also the first Anteater player to win an American Baseball Coaches Association Gold Glove award. A three-time All-American, Orloff also was named to two NCAA Tournament teams and helped UCI to four post-season berths.

Recognized for his defensive talents, Orloff also evolved into a potent offensive threat, ending his collegiate career with a lifetime .320 batting average. Orloff is UCI's all-time hit leader with 281 and owns the top mark in runs scored with 178. He leads all players with 241 games played and 877 at-bats. With 62 stolen bases, he is second in the UCI career annals and also dots the single-season records in multiple categories. Orloff led the nation two consecutive years in sacrifice hits and holds the NCAA single-season mark of 34 set in 2007 and in a career with 86.

Orloff was drafted in the ninth round by the Houston Astros. He climbed to Double-A Corpus Christi, hitting .298 this season with 11 RBI on 39 hits with 20 runs scored before finishing out his professional career playing 355 games over five seasons. Orloff was also a participant in the World Baseball Classic in 2012 as a member of Team Israel. Israel was eliminated in the qualifying round with Orloff starting one of the three games/records for overall victories, non-conference wins (15), and road victories (13).
