UC Irvine women's basketball heads to defending national champion and 11th-ranked UCLA for its season opener on Thursday, Nov. 5. Tip-off is set for 7 p.m. at Pauley Pavilion with the game being broadcast live on B1G+.

STARTING FIVE: STORYLINES

▸▸ The Anteaters are coming off one of their best seasons in program history. In 2025-26, UCI produced its fifth-straight 20-win campaign, claimed a share of its second Big West regular season title, and earned an automatic bid to the WBIT for its fourth national postseason appearance in five years. The 'Eaters set school records in both overall (26) and conference (17) victories. They also won a program-best 16 games in a row, shattering the previous high of nine.

▸▸ UC Irvine welcomes back eight letterwinners, including three starters from last year's squad. Senior point guard Shirel Nahum ranked second on the team in assists (3.0 apg) and third in scoring (7.3 ppg) in 2025-26. Senior forward Summah Hanson also averaged 6.6 points and 6.0 rebounds per game. Rounding out the trio is junior guard Lauryn Madsen, who ended her sophomore campaign among the Anteaters' top-five single-season leaders in 3-pointers made (3rd, 70) and steals (T-5th, 71).

▸▸ UCI lost two key members of its 2025-26 squad with the graduation of leading scorers and first-team all-conference selections Hunter Hernandez (19.8 ppg) and Jada Wynn (15.0 ppg). Hernandez, who broke the single-season school record with 655 points, was also named the Big West Player of the Year. It will take a collective team effort to fill their shoes as the 'Eaters have reloaded with four NCAA Division I transfers - Ahrray Young (Nevada), Gracie Gallegos (UC San Diego), Makiah Asidanya (UNCG), and Sarah Miller (Penn). They also have three incoming freshmen.

▸▸ UC Irvine will be facing an AP Top 25 team for the 23rd time in program history. The Anteaters are 1-21 in games vs. ranked opponents with their lone win coming against No. 14 San Diego on Feb. 22, 1985.

▸▸ The 'Eaters start the campaign on the road for just the second time in 12 years, and are set to face the defending national champion for the first time in program history. They have squared off with UCLA in the first game of the season three times (1974-75, 1980-81, 1986-87). Under 11th-year head coach Tamara Inoue, UCI is 6-4 in season openers.

SCOUTING THE BRUINS

Defending national champion and 11th-ranked UCLA (1-0) extended its win streak to 32 games after defeating Lehigh, 73-53, in its season opener on Monday, Nov. 5. The Bruins bring back five players from their championship squad. Sophomore forward Sienna Betts is the top returner as she averaged 6.0 points and 4.0 rebounds last year. After a record six Bruins were selected in the 2026 WNBA draft, UCLA has reloaded with five transfers and two international freshmen.

SERIES RECORD

UC Irvine trails in its all-time series with UCLA, 10-0. The two teams' most recent meeting came in the first round of the 2022 WNIT. The Anteaters trailed by only six heading into the fourth quarter, but the Bruins pulled away in the final 10 minutes for the 61-48 win at Pauley Pavilion.

MID-MAJOR RANKINGS

UC Irvine is ranked 22nd in the College Insider Women's Mid-Major Preseason Poll that was released on Oct. 29. Last year, the Anteaters had a streak of 12 consecutive weeks in the Top 25 (Dec. 23-March 10). On Jan. 20, 2026, the 'Eaters earned their highest mid-major ranking in program history at No. 12.

20-20 VISION

UC Irvine had two 20-win campaigns in 42 years before head coach Tamara Inoue took the helm in 2016-17. Twenty wins are now the standard with the Anteaters reaching the benchmark six times in 10 seasons, including in each of the last five. Last year, UCI recorded its 20th victory on Feb. 12 as a 16-game win streak propelled the 'Eaters to a 20-4 record, marking their fastest run to 20 in program history. They went on to close out the season at 26-7, breaking the school record of 25 wins that was also set by an Inoue squad in 2022-23.

LEAGUE OF THEIR OWN

In the last four seasons, the Anteaters have won three Big West titles, claiming the Big West Championship crown in 2023-24, and finishing atop the regular season standings in 2022-23 and 2025-26. The 'Eaters have a seven-year streak of placing among the top-two in the conference. Since 2020-21, UC Irvine has not lost more than five Big West games in a regular season, combining for a league-leading 89-22 (.802) record during that stretch.

OPENING DAY

Overall, UC Irvine is 17-35 in season openers. Under 11th-year head coach Tamara Inoue, the Anteaters are 6-4 in the first game of the year. This is only the second time they will start on the road in the Inoue era. In 2023-24, the 'Eaters fell at Pepperdine, 63-58. This will be the fourth time UCI faces UCLA in its opener, but the first since the 1986-87 campaign.

FROM THE LINE

In 2025-26, the 'Eaters made 566 free throws on 702 attempts. Their 80.6 free throw percentage was a single-season school record and ranked third in all of NCAA Division I behind only Rice (81.9%) and Illinois (81.5%). Six Anteaters finished the year shooting over 80% at the charity stripe including returners Ameerah Grant (83.6%), Lauryn Madsen (83.3%), Shirel Nahum (82.8%), and Summah Hanson (81.0%).

DEFENSIVE IDENTITY

UC Irvine has developed into one of the better defensive teams in the country, ranking among the top-15 in all of NCAA Division I in scoring defense for three-straight seasons (2022-25), before finishing the 2025-26 campaign at No. 30. UCI was also 13th in FG% defense a year ago, and fifth in 2024-25. In 2022-23, the Anteaters' school-record 53.2 points allowed per game ranked seventh in the nation. They have not given up more than 60 ppg in a season since 2021-22 (60.8 ppg).

THE GOAT

Tamara Inoue is the most decorated head coach in program history. She is the Anteaters' only two-time Big West Coach of the Year, while her teams captured both of UCI's Big West regular-season titles. In 2023-24, she also guided the 'Eaters to their first Big West Championship and NCAA tournament appearance in 29 years. Inoue is UC Irvine women's basketball's all-time winningest head coach. On Feb. 27, 2025, she earned her 159th career victory to surpass Dean Andrea (1979-1991). Inoue now owns a 187-123 career record entering her 11th season. Her .603 win percentage is the best among UCI's head coaches who were at the helm for more than 30 games. Her teams have twice broken the school record in wins with 25 in 2022-23 and 26 in 2025-26. In addition, Inoue has led the Anteaters to five of their six national postseason berths, their first victory in a national postseason tournament (2023 WNIT), and six of their eight 20-win campaigns.

ON POINT

Last season, senior Shirel Nahum took on the starting point guard role after the graduation of two-time first-team All-Big West selection and 2023-24 Big West Player of the Year Déja Lee. Nahum had an impressive campaign, averaging 7.3 points, 3.4 rebounds, 3.0 assists, and 1.1 steals per outing. She had a breakout performance in a 90-75 win over NAU as she finished with a career-high 23 points. She reached double digits in scoring 10 times, while also settling in as a primary playmaker with 3+ assists on 21 occasions. She dished out a career-best seven dimes in a win over Colgate on Nov. 29, 2025.

SHARPSHOOTER

Junior Lauryn Madsen ranked second on the squad, and third in single-season school history with 70 made threes last year. She buried five 3-pointers for a career-high 15 points on five occasions. In 55 career games played, Madsen has a triple in 42 of them, and drained multiple threes 20 times. In 2025-26, the 5-foot-11 guard averaged 7.0 points, 2.9 rebounds, 1.3 assists, and 2.2 steals per contest. Defensively, Madsen led the 'Eaters with 71 steals, which tied for fifth in single-season school history. She recorded multiple takeaways 20 times and swiped 4+ on six occasions with a career-high six at LBSU on Jan. 8.

SUMMAH TIME

Senior Summah Hanson averaged 6.6 points, 6.0 rebounds, and 1.0 blocks in 22 games played last season. The 6-foot-3 forward, who missed the first 10 contests recovering from an offseason injury, pulled down 5+ rebounds in 16 of her 22 appearances. The Brisbane, Australia, native had two double-doubles on the year with 12 points and a season-best 13 boards against UC Santa Barbara, and 13 points/11 rebounds vs. CSUN. She also notched a season-high 18 points against UC San Diego.

MORE IN STORE

Sophomore Nohe'alani Stores was named to the 2025-26 Big West All-Freshman Team after averaging 5.7 points and 3.4 rebounds in 32 games played. She led the Anteaters in field goal percentage at 55.7%. Stores reached double figures in scoring on six occasions, including in the opener against San Diego (Nov. 5, 2025), when she scored a season-high 17 points on 7-of-8 shooting. The 6-foot-2 forward, who has battled through injuries, is looking to stay healthy and build on that success in 2026-27.

KEY LOSSES

UC Irvine graduated its top two scorers, Hunter Hernandez (19.8 ppg) and Jada Wynn (15.0 ppg). Wynn also led the Anteaters in rebounding (7.2 rpg) and assists (3.8 apg). Hernandez, who was at UCI for five years, was one of the greatest to ever don the Blue & Gold. Last season, she shattered the single-season school record with 655 points. The 5-foot-9 guard also finished her career as UC Irvine's all-time leader in free throws made (402) and climbed all the way up to No. 2 in scoring (1,477). Hernandez was the first player in program history to earn a third first-team All-Big West selection, and the second to be named the Big West Player of the Year.

IMPACT TRANSFERS

Looking to help fill the gap left by Hernandez and Wynn are four NCAA Division I transfers. Senior guard Ahrray Young played last season at Nevada where she averaged 9.5 points, 4.0 rebounds, and 2.4 assists per game. Senior guard Gracie Gallegos is a familiar face after spending the last four years at Big West rival UC San Diego. Gallegos sat out the 2022-23 and 2025-26 seasons, but made an impact when she was on the court. She was a key piece in the Tritons' 2024-25 championship run, starting all 35 games and finishing with 9.3 points and 5.3 boards per outing. Gallegos was an All-Big West honorable mention selection, while she also garnered All-Freshman Team honors in 2023-24. Senior guard Makiah Asidanya is coming off her best season at UNC Greensboro where she started every game and ranked second on the team in scoring (11.2 ppg). Junior guard Sarah Miller also joins the 'Eaters after two years at Penn.

FRESHMAN TRIO

Complementing the transfers are three incoming freshmen. Point guard Delaney White comes to UC Irvine from Sierra Canyon High School where she led her team to the 2026 CIF-Southern Section Open Division title. White spent her first three years at Oak Park HS where she was a three-time CIF Player of the Year. Alleah Hanson, a 6-foot-2 forward, joins older sister, Summah, as an Anteater this year. The younger Hanson led Brisbane State High School to back-ot-back Australian School Championships. She was also a member of the U20 Queensland team that advanced to the 2025 Australian National Championship. Ellery Burke-Brown, a 5-foot-9 shooting guard, was a McDonald's All-American Game nominee and two-time all-league selection at Roosevelt High School in Seattle.

DEFEND THE BREN

Since 2017-18, UCI is 95-27 (.779) at the Bren Events Center. Last year, the Anteaters finished the regular season with a 14-1 record at the Bren. Their 14 home wins were a single-season school record.

SISTER, SISTER

For the fourth year in a row, UC Irvine women's basketball will have sisters on their roster. In 2026-27, Alleah Hanson joins older sister, Summah, as an Anteater. The Hanson duo, who hail from Brisbane, Australia, have both represented their country at the international level with Summah competing in the 2022 FIBA U17 World Championships and Alleah in the 2022 FIBA U15 Women's Oceania Championship. Alleah was also invited to the training camp for the 2025 FIBA U19 Women's World Cup.

Sisters Haley and Hunter Hernandez played together for the 'Eaters from 2023-26. Haley enters her fourth year at UCI, while Hunter completed her eligibility in 2026. Haley also has a twin sister, Maya, who is on the LMU women's basketball team.

UP NEXT

UC Irvine stays on the road next week, traveling to Northern Arizona for a 6 p.m. MT/5 p.m. PT showdown on Tuesday, Nov. 10.

HEAD COACH TAMARA INOUE

2023-24 Big West Champions // NCAA First Round

Two-Time Big West Regular Season Champions (2025-26 & 2022-23)

Two-Time Big West Coach of the Year (2025-26 & 2020-21)

Tamara Inoue is in her 11th year at the helm of the UC Irvine women's basketball program. After taking over a team that had two winning seasons in 15 years, Inoue brought a renewed energy and mindset that paid off immediately. In her first year with her own recruits (2017-18), the Anteaters had the second best turnaround in all of NCAA Division I. Since then, they have won a Big West Championship and two regular season titles, produced six 20-win campaigns, and made five national postseason tournament appearances.

Last year, Inoue led the 'Eaters to their second Big West regular season championship and fifth consecutive 20-win campaign. They finished 26-7 overall and 17-3 in conference. It was a record-breaking season as the 2025-26 squad set program bests in total wins, Big West victories, win streak (16), points scored (2,340), free throws made (566), free throw percentage (80.6%), and 3-pointers made (284). UCI earned an automatic qualifier into the Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament (WBIT), marking its fourth postseason appearance in five years. The Anteaters ranked among the top-25 in the College Insider Women's Mid-Major Poll for 12 consecutive weeks, rising to as high as No. 12. Inoue was named the Big West Coach of the Year, while she mentored her second Big West Player of the Year in Hunter Hernandez. Hernandez broke UC Irvine's single-season scoring record with 655 points.

In 2024-25, Inoue became the all-time winningest head coach in UCI women's basketball history. She eclipsed the school record with her 159th victory on Feb. 27, 2025. The 'Eaters went on to secure their fourth-straight 20-win campaign (21-10), and finished second in the Big West standings (15-5),. For the third-straight year, UC Irvine ranked among the top-15 in the nation in scoring defense, finishing 10th at 54.3 points allowed per game.

In 2023-24, Inoue's squad won UCI's second Big West Championship and first in 29 years. The Anteaters earned a No. 13 seed in the NCAA Tournament. They closed out the campaign with a 23-9 overall record (16-4 Big West), and were ranked in the final College Insider Women's Mid-Major Poll (23rd). The 'Eaters were also among the nation's best in scoring defense (14th, 55.7 ppg). Déja Lee made history as UC Irvine's first Big West Women's Basketball Player of the Year. Moulayna Johnson Sidi Baba was also named the Big West Newcomer of the Year, while Diaba Konate was tabbed the league's Best Defensive Player.

In 2022-23, UCI went 25-7 overall and 16-2 in conference play. The campaign culminated with the program's first Big West regular season championship and second-straight automatic bid to the WNIT where the Anteaters defeated San Diego State in the opening round. The historic season didn't come easy as UC Irvine, which was picked to finish sixth in the preseason poll, lost three starters to season-ending injuries in a six-week span. Under Inoue's leadership, UCI persevered, closing out the regular season with seven-straight wins to clinch the Big West title. They finished the year ranked 23rd in the College Insider Women's Mid-Major Poll. The Anteaters set a school record in scoring defense with their 53.2 points allowed per game ranking seventh in the nation.

In 2021-22, Inoue's group went 21-12 (14-4 Big West), tying the previous school record for overall wins. The 'Eaters advanced to the Big West championship game for the second year in a row and earned their first WNIT postseason berth.

In 2020-21, while playing a shortened season in the middle of a pandemic, Inoue continued to forge a path forward for the Anteaters, leading them to a 15-9 overall record and an 11-4 mark in league play. As the No. 2 seed, the 'Eaters took care of business in the first two rounds of the Big West Championship, defeating UC Santa Barbara and Cal Poly to reach the title game for the first time since 1997. Inoue was recognized for her efforts as she was named the 2020-21 Big West co-Coach of the Year, making her the second coach in program history to earn the honor.

In 2019-20, UCI tied for second in the Big West regular-season standings, while the 2018-19 Anteaters had the program's first 20-win campaign since 1984-85. They had their best start ever at 7-0, and their success did not go unnoticed as UC Irvine made its debut in the College Insider Mid-Major Poll, rising to as high as No. 15 in the nation.

In Inoue's 10 seasons at the helm, UCI has received 30 All-Big West nods with 11 first-team selections. Under her watch, the Anteaters have claimed multiple major awards including Big West Player of the Year, Freshman of the Year, Newcomer of the Year, Best Defensive Player, and Best Sixth Player. Inoue's student-athletes have seen paralleled success in the classroom with 41 Big West All-Academic picks.

Inoue came to Irvine from New Mexico State where she was an integral member of the women's basketball staff from 2011-16. She spent her last two seasons as an associate head coach and also served as the interim Senior Woman Administrator in 2015-16. During her tenure as an associate head coach, NM State made back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, while capturing the Western Athletic Conference regular-season and tournament titles both years. Inoue previously spent six years playing and coaching in Australia. In 2006-07, she was named the Victorian Basketball League (VBL) Coach of the Year with the Nunawading Spectres.

Inoue graduated from Long Beach State with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. She was a two-time All-Big West selection and led the league in assists as a senior. Inoue prepped at Laguna Hills High School where she was a USA Today All-American. She was inducted into the Hawks' Hall of Fame in 2017.
