HEAD COACH STEVE HAWKINS

14TH SEASON AT WMU
238-191 // 130-90 MAC

@Coach_Hawk_WMU

SUCCESS UNDER HAWKINS

- > 2 MAC Regular Season Titles (2004 & 2014)
- > 2 MAC Tournament Titles (2004 & 2014)
- > 2 NCAA Appearances
- > 7 of WMU's 8 MAC West Titles
- > 1 NIT, 1 CIT, 1 CBI

DEAN OF THE MAC WEST

Known to most as "Hawk" Steve Hawkins is the longest tenured coach in the Mid-American Conference and ranks fifth all-time in MAC history in coaching victories, as well as conference victories. Hawkins' took over the Bronco program in 2003-04, leading WMU to its first of two MAC Tournament, as well as MAC regular-season titles in his tenure. The second double title run was in 2014.

Western Michigan has had unprecedented success in the MAC West Division under Hawkins' tenure, finishing either first or second in 10 of his 13 years at the helm of the program. Seven of WMU's eight MAC West titles are under Hawkins.

Hawkins is the only head coach in program history to record three consecutive seasons of 20+ wins, having also done so in 2012-13, 2013-14 and 2014-15.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

The Broncos have long been well-represented on the MAC's list of academic honorees, with at least one WMU player reaching an Academic All-MAC list every year since 2004.

Of the 64 student-athletes voted as either Academic All-MAC (2004-14) or Distinguished Scholar-Athlete (2015-present), 19 of them have been Broncos, and there have been five instances where two or more Broncos were honored in the same year.

WMU had an overall GPA of 3.12 for the 2015-16 school year.

LOCKED IN

In 2014, Hawkins signed a six-year agreement with WMU to remain the head coach of the Broncos through the 2019-20 season.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

Hawkins served as assistant coach at Quincy University from 1987-1988 and 1990-1991 and at St. Andrews Presbyterian College in 1989. He was promoted to head coach at Quincy in 1992, and served there for nine seasons until joining the staff of Robert McCullum at Western Michigan in the spring of 2000, before taking the reigns at WMU for the 2003-04 season.

JOHN WOODEN CONNECTION

Hawkins is a native of Ventura, Calif. Following high school graduation, he spent time as a high school basketball coach in the Los Angeles area, during which time he worked as an assistant at UCLA basketball camps, serving as chauffeur for legendary Bruins coach John Wooden. Hawkins maintained a friendship with Wooden that carried on until Wooden's death. Hawkins forms many of his philosophies around the teachings of Wooden.

PERSONAL

Hawkins and his wife, Kelly, reside in Kalamazoo with their three children, son Trey and daughters, Emily and Alyssa.

Hawkins earned his bachelor's degree at South Alabama in 1987 and master's degree in sports science two years later at the United States Sports Academy.

GIVING BACK

Funded out of the pockets of the head coach and his wife, the "Hawk's Nest" allows unprivileged youth to attend a home WMU men's basketball game. The kids are fed a meal, given a t-shirt and are able to enjoy the game for free.

Assistant Coach
Clayton Bates

Assistant Coach
James Holland

Assistant Coach
Larry Farmer

Dir. Operations
Dan Hoff

WING MAN

Assistant coach Clayton Bates returns for his 14th season as an assistant coach with the Western Michigan basketball program. Now in his third tour of duty with the Broncos, Bates has been a key cog in the program's successes since the turn of the century, playing a direct part in seven 20-win seasons, two Mid-American Conference Tournament victories and subsequent NCAA Tournament appearances, and four other trips to the postseason for the Broncos. He works primarily with the Broncos' wing players.

Bates has spent a considerable portion of his coaching career as an assistant with the Broncos; his first stint at Western Michigan lasted nearly a decade, with Bates serving as an assistant coach to Rob McCullum and later current head coach Steve Hawkins from 2001-08. Bates left for a brief period and returned to be an assistant on the 2009-10 staff before heading off to become an assistant at Wright State.

Bates played at the University of Florida under Lon Kruger and served as an administrative assistant with him at the University of Illinois in 1997 when the Illini advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. A former guard, Bates played for the Gator team that appeared in the 1994 Final Four.

VETERAN HOLLAND

James Holland, a veteran coach with nearly 30 years of basketball experience, returns to the Western Michigan men's basketball program for his fifth season with the Broncos. A 2006 inductee into the South Carolina-Upstate (formerly known as USC-Spartanburg) Hall of Fame, Holland works with the Bronco point guards.

Holland has served as an assistant coach at a number of programs across the spectrum of college basketball, and also spent some time as a scout for the Washington Wizards. Holland began his coaching career at his alma mater, working with USC-Spartanburg from 1984-87. He would later move on to coach a season in his home state at North Carolina-Asheville before ending up at Murray State.

Holland started in all four of his seasons with the Rifles, and ranks as the USC-Upstate all-time assists leader; he is also second all-time in games played. Holland was part of the 1982 Rifles team that won the NAIA national championship, defeating Biola 51-38, and served as a three-year team captain. Holland would go on to play with the Harlem Globetrotters in the 1982-83 season, teaming with Globetrotter greats Curly Neal and Gees Ausbie.

LARRY LEGEND

Veteran coach Larry Farmer returns is entering his sixth overall season as an assistant coach with the Western Michigan men's basketball program and third in a row. He is in his second stint with the Broncos, having served as an assistant coach from 2010-12 previously. Farmer was key in developing the Broncos' first NBA player in over a decade, as two-time All-MAC center Shayne Whittington was signed to the NBA's Indiana Pacers the summer after the 2014 Mid-American Conference championship season.

Farmer played collegiately at UCLA under legendary head coach John Wooden from 1970-73 and was a member of three NCAA championship teams during a stretch in which UCLA captured seven straight national titles. In addition, Farmer has the distinguished honor of being the winningest player in NCAA history, losing only once in 90 career games. Farmer was drafted by Cleveland in the NBA and Denver of the ABA in 1973, but instead went into coaching. He first was an assistant at UCLA from 1973-81 and later was the head coach at UCLA, Weber State and Loyola-Chicago.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Dan Hoff, a veteran high school basketball coach who spent 27 years as head boys' coach at Mattawan High School, enters his fourth year as the Broncos' Director of Basketball Operations. Hoff played basketball at Eastern Michigan, serving as a team captain for the Eagles in his senior season. He was named All-MAC Honorable Mention in 1975, a year in which he averaged 8.2 points per game.

SCOUTING THE BRONCOS

Western Michigan maintains a 3-7 record, with all three wins coming at home - vs. Marygrove (90-74), Central Arkansas (80-63) and James Madison (74-67). The Broncos are 2-3 over their last three games and are coming off a 92-86 loss at Washington on Sunday.

> Junior point guard Thomas Wilder is averaging a team-best 16.1 ppg while senior Tucker Haymond is averaging 13.1 ppg, 3.9 rpg and has a team-high 39 assists. Freshman post Brandon Johnson and junior center Drake LaMont are averaging just under double figures at 9.5 ppg and 9.4 ppg, respectively. Johnson is the team's leading rebounder with 6.7 rpg and has three double-doubles this season.

> The Broncos are averaging 75.4 ppg this season and allowing 80.7 ppg defensively. WMU is shooting 43.4 percent from the field, 32.2 percent from three and 69.2 percent from the free-throw line.

LAST TIME OUT

Senior Tucker Haymond scored a career-high 28 points playing in his hometown return. The Broncos however didn't have quite enough to get past University of Washington, falling by a narrow 92-86 final.

Haymond scored WMU's first six points on three's and made a career-high seven shots from behind the arc. Haymond was a combined 3-for-18 on 3-pointers this season entering the game. Haymond scored 20 of his game-high 28 points in the first half. WMU trailed by one at the break, 49-48.

As a team the Broncos were 12-for-22 on 3-pointers, the most three's WMU has made this season. Sophomore Bryce Moore also got in on the long distance action, knocking down triples on three consecutive possessions in the second half.

WILDER DROPS 10 DIMES, DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Junior Thomas Wilder had a career-high 10 assists to go with 14 points at Washington (12/18) for his first point-assist double-double of his career. He also had a team-high seven rebounds. The 10 assists were the most for a Bronco since Connar Tava had 10 at Oakland on Nov. 19, 2014.

JONES STEPS UP VS. JMU

Freshman Reggie Jones poured in 20 second-half points to lead Western Michigan to a 74-67 victory over visiting James Madison Dec. 10 at University Arena.

>> WMU trailed James Madison by seven, 59-52, with 5:34 remaining in the contest. Jones scored 17 of WMU's final 22 points, all with under four minutes left to play. During that stretch, Jones was 3-for-3 from the floor and went 11-for-12 from the free-throw line. He also had a pair of rebounds and a critical steal. With his team leading by three with five seconds to go Jones was intentionally fouled. A technical foul to the James Madison bench followed and as a result, Jones was awarded four free throws. He stepped up to hit all four to seal the WMU victory.

WILDER CLOSING IN ON 1,000 CAREER POINTS

WMU junior point guard Thomas Wilder is the only Bronco to score in double figures in all eight games this season. Wilder is closing in on 1,000 career points, currently with 982.

DIALING IN FROM DISTANCE

Junior Thomas Wilder (17-for-36; .462) and sophomore Bryce Moore (14-for-37; .355) have combined for 31 of the team's 57 three-pointers. Senior Tucker Haymond connected on seven 3's at Washington (12/18).

WHAT WE'RE WORKING WITH

Western Michigan returns six letterwinners, one redshirt freshman and brings in seven true freshmen for 2016-17. Tucker Haymond is the lone returning senior and averaged 15.9 points and 5.8 rebounds per game last year. Point guard Thomas Wilder and center Drake LaMont are the returning juniors while the sophomore class consists of center Seth Dugan and guards Bryce Moore and Josh Davis.

Ryan Wade is a returning redshirt, unfortunately Wade will miss the season after suffering a knee injury in the preseason. The freshmen class consists of 6-4 guard Jared Printy, 5-11 guard Jarrin Randall, 5-10 guard Brandon Allen, 6-5 wingman Reggie Jones, 6-6 forward Adida Ikongshul, 6-8 forward Brandon Johnson and 6-8 center Maxwell Omili.

BRONCOS WILL HAVE FACED NO. 1 & NO. 2

Western Michigan will have faced the No. 1 and No. 2 ranked teams in the nation when it takes on No. 2 UCLA. The Bronco took on No. 1 Villanova (ranked No. 3 at the time) on Nov. 17 at the ESPN Charleston Classic. The contest was a one possession at the 6:18 mark in the second half before Villanova closed out a 76-65 victory.

>> WMU's Thomas Wilder led all scorers with 19 points, including a stretch late in the first half where he scored 10 straight of the Broncos' points. Sophomore Josh Davis, who added two monstrous dunks, finished with a career-high 14 points and added two steals.

SCOUTING UCLA

The Bruins are coached by head coach Steve Alford who enters his fourth season at UCLA and maintains a 77-40 career record at the UCLA helm.

The Bruins are off to a 12-0 start and looks to close out its non-conference schedule undefeated for the first time since 1994-95 when they face the Broncos. UCLA handed then No. 1 ranked Kentucky its only loss of the season on Dec. 3 in Lexington and the Bruins have since shot up to No. 2 in the rankings.

>> UCLA features the No. 2 highest scoring offense in the nation, averaging 96.9 ppg, while defensively allowing 74.5 ppg. Six players average in double figures, led by TJ Leaf's 17.8 ppg and Isaac Hamilton's 17.3 ppg. Leaf is also the team's leading rebounder at 9.3 rpg.

SERIES HISTORY VS. UCLA

This will be the second meeting ever between WMU and UCLA. The Broncos took the first meeting on Feb. 18, 1940 Kalamazoo, 56-43. Herbert Read was the coach for WMU and Wilbur Johns led the UCLA squad.

WILDER VOTED PRESEASON ALL-MAC, BRONCOS PICKED FIFTH

WMU junior point guard Thomas Wilder was listed as one of the top players in the Mid-American Conference and the Broncos were tabbed to finish fifth in the West Division. The preseason poll was determined by the league's 12 head coaches & a 24-member MAC News Media Panel.

LOOKING AHEAD

Western Michigan returns to Kalamazoo to finish its non-conference schedule, hosting Alabama A& M on Thursday, Dec. 29. WMU begins the Mid-American Conference schedule with back-to-back road games, facing Ohio on Jan. 3 and Akron on Jan. 6. WMU has back-to-back MAC home games against Toledo (1/10) and Kent State (1/14).

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

The Broncos are 3-1 at home this season and are outscoring their opponents 84.0 ppg to 75.2 ppg in University Arena.

Entering his junior season, point guard Thomas Wilder is considered one of the top players in the Mid-American Conference.

START TO FINISH, WILDER MAC SCORING KING

From the start of conference play last season to the finish, WMU point guard Thomas Wilder led the league in scoring during Mid-American Conference games. Wilder kicked off MAC play with 28 points at Kent State on Jan. 5. At the conclusion of the 18-game MAC schedule, Wilder's average was a 20.4 ppg, slightly higher than Toledo's Nathan Boothe at 20.3 ppg.

SECOND TEAM ALL-MAC HONORS

Thomas Wilder was a Second Team All-MAC selection in 2016. WMU has had either a First or Second Team All-MAC performer in 12 of 13 seasons under head coach Steve Hawkins.

ACCOLADES NOT NEW TO WILDER

After earning Second Team All-MAC honors last year, Thomas Wilder was tabbed as a preseason All-MAC West pick this season. As a freshman, Wilder was named to the all-tournament team.

TAKE THEM, THEY'RE FREE

As a team, Western Michigan had the second most FT attempts in the MAC during the regular season, going 563-for-789, as well as the second most during league play, 341-for-472. Eastern Michigan led the MAC in free throws during the regular season, going 588-for-816 in all games and 371-for-494 in MAC games.

> Thomas Wilder got to the free throw line more times than any other player in the Mid-American Conference in 2015-16. In all games combined, he was 188-for-238 (79.0%) at the line and was the only player to shoot 200-plus FTs during the regular season. The trend continued during MAC play, where Wilder led the league in attempts and makes, going 135-for-170 (79.4%). No other player in the conference attempted more than 113 free throws in league play.

SENIOR LEADERSHIP

Tucker Haymond is the lone senior on this year's roster and the last remaining player from the 2014 MAC Tournament and MAC regular-season championship team. Haymond was named to the MAC All-Freshman Team that season and scored 21 points in MAC Tournament championship win over Toledo (3/15).

HOW ABOUT HAYMOND

Tucker Haymond averaged 15.9 ppg in all games combined (ranking 8th in the MAC) and 14.4 ppg during conference play (ranking 13th). The Seattle, Wash., native tallied two double-doubles and scored in double figures in every game but five.

> Haymond recorded his 1,000th career point on a layup with 4:27 remaining in the first half at Eastern Michigan on Feb. 23, 2016. Haymond became the 40th player to reach the milestone in Western Michigan men's basketball history. Haymond is also WMU's current active leader in career rebounds with 463.

BRYCE GIVES MOORE IN MAC PLAY

As a freshman last year, Bryce Moore greatly stepped up his play during MAC play. Moore averaged just 3.0 ppg, 1.8 rpg and 1.0 apg during WMU's 13 non-conference games. In the 18 conference games, Moore averaged 7.1 ppg, 2.4 rpg and 1.6 apg. His minutes also increased significantly, averaging just 12.3 minutes in non-conference games and 26.5 mpg against MAC foes.

WINNING NUMBERS

In the 13 wins last season, WMU shot the ball an average of 48.8 percent from the floor and 43.4 percent from behind the arc. WMU dominated the boards in games won, averaging 8.7 rebounds more per contest than its opponents (38.9 rpg vs. 30.2 rpg). WMU outscored opponents by 11.6 points a game in wins (83.5 ppg vs. 71.9 ppg).

CLOSE LOSSES

Fourteen of WMU's 19 losses in 2015-16 were by 10 points or less, including four in overtime (Ball State, IPFW and twice to Kent State). Ten of WMU's losses were by six points or less, seven games by four points or less and two one-point losses (BGSU, 79-78; Miami 45-44).

BRONCOS HAND MAC CHAMPS

BUFFALO BIGGEST CONFERENCE LOSS

Western Michigan handed eventual MAC Tournament champion Buffalo its worst loss of the conference season, beating the Bulls by 20 (91-71) in Kalamazoo on Jan. 23, 2016. Tucker Haymond scored a career-high 27 points, one better than his 26 put up against Northeastern in an 87-86 overtime win on Dec. 7, 2015.

OVERTIME

The Broncos played a school-record six overtime games in 2015-16, which was also the most in the MAC last season. WMU went 2-4 in OT.

> Western Michigan tied the NCAA Division I record for most points in an overtime, pouring in 26 during extra play to put away rival Central Michigan on the road, 91-82. The record tied Vermont (26 points) vs. Hartford, Jan. 24, 1998.

NON-CONFERENCE PLAY

WMU went 6-7 and was 5-1 at home during non-conference play. The Broncos posted wins over San Diego, Rochester College, Liberty, Northeastern, Marygrove and Jacksonville. The lone non-conference win away from University Arena was against Liberty in Nashville at the Challenge in the Music City.

TJ CLIFFORD. MICHAEL FLOWERS SIGN FOR '17

Forward TJ Clifford (Downers Grove, Ill./Downers Grove South HS) and guard Michael Flowers (Southfield, Mich./Southfield AT&T) inked NLI's for 2017-18.

Clifford averaged 12 points and 6 rebounds per game as a junior ... plays AAU ball with the Illinois Wolves. Flowers averaged 25.1 points, 6.1 rebounds and 2.1 steals as a junior ... plays AAU for 1 Nation.

BASKETBALL BLOODLINES

Junior Drake LaMont has ties to the NBA, this time through his great-uncle Neil Johnston. Johnston is in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame after an eight-year pro career with the Philadelphia Warriors. Johnston led the NBA in scoring three straight seasons from 1952-55, was named to six NBA All-Star Games, and was a four-time All-NBA First Team selection.

LaMont's father Dave LaMont is no stranger to college sports, serving as a broadcaster for ESPN.

2016 WMU EUROPEAN TOUR

Western Michigan embarked on a 10-day European Tour this past August, playing four games over their stay, Aug. 21-31. Leading up to the tour, the young Bronco squad was also privileged to 10 days of practice.

While in Europe Western Michigan visited three countries, the Netherlands, Belgium and France. The major cities visited were Amsterdam, Ghent and Paris. The team also stopped and visited the D-Day beaches at Normandy on the trip.

This summer's tour was the fourth for the Broncos and head coach Steve Hawkins. Entering his 14th season, Hawkins has led the Bronco squad on three trips overseas and was also part of one as an assistant coach at WMU.

Over the four games, sophomore center Seth Dugan averaged 13.5 points and 9.0 rebounds per game, both of which were team highs. Junior guard Thomas Wilder averaged 12.8 points and 3.5 assists per game while senior Tucker Haymond contributed 12.5 ppg and 6.5 rpg.

During the team's European stay, Coach Hawkins surprised and awarded redshirt freshman Ryan Wade a walk-on scholarship ... while in Paris ... on top of the Eiffel Tower. The moment was recorded and posted on social media. Unfortunately, Wade, who is on the trip with WMU in Charleston, but will not be dressed, suffered a season-ending knee injury following the team's return from Europe.

HAYMOND'S INCREDIBLE JOURNEY FROM SEATTLE TO KALAMAZOO

Senior Tucker Haymond (Seattle, Wash., native) first met WMU head coach Steve Hawkins as a young boy vacationing with his family in Hawaii.

This story begins in December of the Broncos' 2005-06 season. WMU was playing in Hawaii at the Rainbow Classic. The Western Michigan team and the Haymond family were staying at the same hotel. Young Tucker followed the team around, dribbling his own basketball in the lobby, made "friends" with the WMU players and was invited to a WMU practice, which in turn, led the family to come to the Bronco games.

The end of Hawaii:

The time came for the Broncos to head back to Kalamazoo and as Hawkins' remembers what he thought would be the final goodbye to this young boy:

"It was one of those moments, he's saying goodbye and I look at him and he's got tears in his eyes as we're on the bus. Well, (the tournament) had just given us all our gifts. The gift for all the players and coaches was a watch - a Rainbow Classic watch. We were getting ready to leave, I say, 'Stop.' I get out and give my watch to (Tucker). And that was it."

Fast Forward:

After that first meeting in Honolulu, Tucker's mother, Carrie Haymond, stayed in touch with Hawkins for the next year or so.

After a while, though, they lost touch - that is, prior to Tucker's junior high school season during a chance meeting at the Peach Jam AAU tournament, in Augusta, Ga.

"This lady walks up to me and says, 'Coach, remember me?' I was with a coach at Gonzaga (Ray Giacoletti) at the time. And I'm like, 'No ... I don't have it,'" Hawkins said. "She goes, 'Carrie Haymond.' And I say, 'Oh, my gosh - Tucker's mom.' ... She walks away and the coach from Gonzaga says, 'That kid's not bad.' And I said, 'Really?' And he said, 'Yeah, he's a pretty tough kid.' I watched a half and I'm like, 'Wow.' ... That began the recruiting process."

HAYMOND'S HOMECOMING - DEC. 18, 2016

Haymond scored a career-high 28 points playing in his hometown of Seattle as the Broncos battled the University of Washington on Dec. 18, 2016.

WMU's lone senior scored nine of Western Michigan's first 11 points on 3-pointers, and finished with a career high seven 3-pointers. Haymond doubled his season 3-pointer total with his first three shots -- he was a combined 3-for-18 on 3-pointers this season entering the game.

After Washington took a double-digit lead in the first half, Haymond had another run where he scored 10-straight points for Western Michigan to help pull WMU within one at the break, 49-48.

Twenty of his 28 points came in the first half. He shot 9-for-15 (60%) from the field and was 7-for-10 (70%) from three-point range. He also added three rebounds and a steal. The 28 points are the most scored by a Bronco this season.
