Bruins in the Conference

Men's soccer is in its 14th year as a Pac-12 (formerly Pac-10) Conference sanctioned sport. Six teams comprise the Pac-12 Men's Soccer Conference - UCLA, California, Oregon State, Stanford, Washington and 2005 addition San Diego State.

The Pac-12 branched out of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) after the 1999 season to form its own conference. Since 2000, the conference has had at least two teams advance to the NCAA Tournament in every season but one, and in 2002

UCLA and Stanford faced each other in the Championship match, marking the first time two schools from the same conference have battled for the NCAA men's soccer title.

Over the years, the Pac-12 has upheld its tradition as the "Conference of Champions." Pac-12 members have claimed an incredible 127 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including eight in 2012-13, averaging nearly nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive is the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led the nation in NCAA Championships in 47 of the last 53 years and finished second four times.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, league teams have captured 459 NCAA titles (309 men's, 150 women's), outdistancing the next closest conference by nearly 200.
