

JIM MORA
Head Coach
5th Season
Washington '84

On December 10, 2011, former Atlanta Falcons and Seattle Seahawks head coach Jim Mora was named UCLA's 17th head coach in school history.

The 2015 season saw Coach Mora equal Terry Donahue's school-best four-year win mark of 37 contests, extend the school's win streak in games away from the Rose Bowl to a school record total of 12 and participate in a fourth straight bowl game. Eight Bruins, including first-round selection Kenny Clark and second-round pick Myles Jack, were chosen in the 2016 NFL Draft, the most by the program since 1988. The total of eight players selected in the draft was the most of any Pac-12 school and the most UCLA has ever had picked in the seven round draft format.

In addition, the Bruins achieved numerous individual school marks in 2015, including kicker Ka'imi Fairbairn, the program's second Lou Groza Award winner, becoming the conference's all-time leading scorer; Jordan Payton emerging as the school's all-time leading receiver; running back Paul Perkins producing a second-straight 1,000-yard season; freshman quarterback Josh Rosen establishing multiple school milestones. The team set a school mark for the most 500-yard total offense games in a season (6) and recorded its first road shutout since 1987, while keeping as many as three opponents out of the end zone for the first time since the 1988 season.

In 2014, Coach Mora guided the Bruins to the ninth 10-win season in school history, matching the school record for wins in a season. It marked the third straight year in which Mora's Bruins had produced at least nine wins, a first in program history, and included a third consecutive win over USC. His 29 total wins are the most-ever by a UCLA coach in his initial three seasons on the job.

Following the victory in the 2015 Valero Alamo Bowl, UCLA had captured wins in 10 straight games away from the Rose Bowl to match that school record, including a school-best 7-0 slate in 2014. That bowl win was also the team's third victory of the season over an AP Top-15 ranked opponent, which was the most by the program since it defeated four such teams in 1952. The Bruins capped off the year ranked No. 10 in the final AP poll, the highest for the program since 1998.

Linebacker Eric Kendricks, who became the school's all-time leading tackler during the season, went on to be UCLA's first recipient of the Butkus Award and the program's second-straight winner of the Lott IMPACT Trophy. Quarterback Brett Hundley set numerous school career records, including bests for most touchdown passes and total offense. Kendricks, Hundley and defensive lineman Owa Odighizuwa were selected in the 2015 NFL Draft. Perkins led the Pac-12 in rushing, the first time for a Bruin since 2001, and produced the second-highest rushing yardage total in school history.

In 2013, Mora led the Bruins to the eighth 10-win season in school history, tying the school mark for most wins in a season. His total of 19 wins during his first two seasons at the helm is the most ever by a UCLA head coach in that time period. The team captured its 10th win by besting Virginia Tech in the Sun Bowl. UCLA remained in the AP rankings throughout the full season for the first time since 1998. Linebacker Anthony Barr was selected as a first-team All-America and as the school's first winner of the Lott IMPACT Trophy. A school record 18 true freshmen saw action during the season and seven true freshmen position players started in a game to match that school record. Five Bruins, the most by the program since 2002, were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft, headed by Barr's pick at No. 9 overall by the Vikings.

In his first year, Mora guided the Bruins to the 2012 South Division Championship of the Pac-12 Conference and matched the school-record for wins by a first-year coach, with nine. The Bruins, who played in the Holiday Bowl, set numerous offensive records during the course of the season, including establishing a new school rushing leader, in Johnathan Franklin, and several passing marks achieved by Hundley. On defense, Barr emerged as one of the most dynamic performers in the country in his first season as a linebacker and led the nation in sacks for a good portion of the year. Kendricks topped the conference in tackles, ranking 11th in the country. Four players were selected in the 2013 NFL Draft, including defensive lineman Datone Jones in the first round by the Green Bay Packers.

Mora, a former NFC Coach of the Year, came to UCLA after spending part of 2010 and most of 2011 as an analyst and contributor for the NFL Network and the NFL on FOX. He brought 25 years of NFL coaching acumen with him to UCLA, including four years of NFL head coaching experience while at the helm of the Atlanta Falcons (2004-06) and the Seattle Seahawks (2009).

Mora took over for Mike Holmgren as head coach of the Seahawks in 2009. He had served as assistant head coach and defensive backs coach for Seattle in the 2007 and 2008 campaigns. The Seahawks went 10-6 and finished first in the NFC West in 2007 and won the Wild Card game in the playoffs.

In his initial season as the head coach of Atlanta in 2004, Mora directed the team to an 11-5 record, becoming just the eighth rookie head coach in NFL history to win 11 games and the 11th to bring home a Division title. The Falcons captured the NFC South title and earned an appearance in the NFC Championship Game for only the second time in franchise history. Mora was selected as the NFC Coach of the Year.

The Falcon's defense improved from a league ranking of 32nd in 2003 to No. 14 overall the next season, fueled by a league-leading and franchise record 48 quarterback sacks. Atlanta topped the NFL in rushing in all three of Mora's seasons as head coach. In 2006, Michael Vick became the first quarterback in NFL history to rush for at least 1,000 yards in a season.

Mora had joined the Falcons following a seven-season stint with the San Francisco 49ers (1997-2003). He spent his last five seasons in San Francisco as the defensive coordinator. In his first year, the 49ers finished No. 1 in the NFL in total defense, No. 2 in pass defense (25 interceptions), takeaways (41) and run defense, as well as finishing No. 3 in the League in sacks (54). The 1998 squad tied for No. 1 in the NFC, and No. 4 in the NFL in interceptions, with 21. In the 2002 and 2003 seasons with San Francisco, the defense finished no lower than fourth in the NFL versus the run and in 2003, produced 42 sacks, to tie for second in the conference. The 1997 team advanced to the NFC Championship Game and had three defensive players voted to the Pro Bowl, while the 1998 and 2002 squads captured Wild Card Game wins.

From 1992-1996, Mora worked on the staff of his dad, Jim E. Mora, as the secondary coach with the New Orleans Saints. His defensive expertise began to take shape and the Saints boasted the No. 1 pass defense in the NFL during his first two years.

In 1985, Mora broke into the NFL coaching ranks with the San Diego Chargers, under head coach Don Coryell. He spent seven seasons with the Chargers, advancing from the league's first quality control coaching position to defensive backs coach, while working for head coaches Coryell, Al Saunders and Dan Henning.

NFL Pro Bowlers who have played under coach Mora over the years include -- Julian Peterson, LB-Seattle and San Francisco; Marcus Trufant, DB-Seattle; Allen Rossum, DB-Atlanta; Patrick Kerney, DL-Atlanta; Roderick Coleman, DL-Atlanta; Keith Brooking, LB-Atlanta; DeAngelo Hall, DB-Atlanta; Michael Vick, QB-Atlanta; Alge Crumpler, TE-Atlanta; Warrick Dunn, RB-Atlanta; Bryant Young, DL-San Francisco; Lance Schulters, DB-San Francisco; Merton Hanks, DB-San Francisco; Eric Allen, DB-New Orleans; Tyrone Hughes, DB-New Orleans; Gill Byrd, DB-San Diego.

Mora began his coaching career, in 1984, at the University of Washington. He joined the staff of head coach Don James, in the role of defensive assistant, following a four-year playing career as a defensive back for the Huskies. While at UW, Mora had the opportunity to be a part of two Rose Bowl teams as a player (1981-loss to Michigan; 1982-win over Iowa), and helped the Huskies land a berth in the 1985 Orange Bowl (win over Oklahoma) as a graduate assistant coach. During his five seasons in the Husky program, Washington compiled a 48-12 record, ranked among the nation's Top 10 teams on three occasions, and did not finish lower than second in the Pac-10 standings.

TOM BRADLEY
Defensive Coordinator
2nd Season
Penn State '79

Tom Bradley, who comes to Westwood with over 35 years of coaching experience, is widely regarded as one of the top defensive minds in college football.

"To bring a coach of Tom Bradley's caliber to UCLA is very exciting," said Mora at the time of his hiring. "His knowledge of the game, extensive experience, level of intensity and attention to detail all make him one of the best defensive teachers in college football. Combine that with the fact that he has strong national recruiting ties and is one of the most well respected coaches in the game - it all adds up to Tom being a tremendous addition to our staff."

Bradley came to UCLA after spending the 2014 season as West Virginia's senior associate head coach. Prior to his time in Morgantown, Bradley spent more than 30 years on the sidelines at Penn State, serving as the Nittany Lion's defensive coordinator from 2000-2011 and as interim head coach in 2011.

In his first season at UCLA in 2015, coach Bradley's defense surrendered just 5.0 yards per play, second-lowest mark in the Pac-12 Conference. The Bruins secondary led the conference in fewest yards passing allowed per game (203.2), in team pass defense efficiency (113.4) and in fewest yards allowed passing per attempt (5.8). For the first time since the 1988 season, the UCLA defense kept as many as three opponents out of the end zone in a game and recorded a shutout at Oregon State, its first on the road since 1987.

Three Bruin defenders were selected in the 2016 NFL Draft. Defensive lineman Kenny Clark was a first-round pick of the Green Bay Packers. Linebacker Myles Jack was a second-round choice of the Jacksonville Jaguars. Linebacker Aaron Wallace was tabbed by the Tennessee Titans in the seventh round.

Under Bradley, Penn State's defenses were regularly atop the national rankings. In his time as defensive coordinator, Bradley guided the Nittany Lions to six consecutive top 15 finishes in both total and scoring defense (2004-09). From 2004-2011, Penn State held 53 of its 88 opponents to 17 points or fewer, including a run of 10 games during the 2009 season. During that same eight season span, Bradley's defenses ranked in the top 10 nationally in points allowed seven times and in the top 20 nationally in total defense seven times. In particular, the 2008 unit was one of only four defenses nationally to rank in the top 10 in rushing, total and scoring defense and led the Big Ten in both rushing and total defense.

Over the course of his time at Penn State, Bradley helped the Nittany Lions to 13 double-figure win seasons, 20 seasons with at least nine wins, 27 bowl appearances and the 1982 and 1996 national championships.

Recognized as Rivals Defensive Coordinator of the Year in 2008, Bradley was also named the Associated Press Defensive Coordinator of the Year in 2005 and selected as one of the nation's top 10 recruiters by Sports Illustrated.com that same year.

In all, Bradley coached 18 All-Americans, 43 All-Conference players and helped 51 student-athletes reach the National Football League while at Penn State. The All-Americans included: LaVar Arrington (LB/1998-99); Navarro Bowman (LB/2009); James Boyd (S/2000); Courtney Brown (DE/1999); Shane Conlon (LB/1985-86); Dan Connor (LB/2006-07); Tamba Hali (DE/2005); Kim Herring (S/1996); David Macklin (CB/1998); O.J. McDuffie (WR/1992); Paul Posluszny (LB/2005-06); Brandon Short (LB/1999); Alan Zemaitis (DB/2005); Michael Zordich (S/1985).

Bradley was a member of the Penn State football team from 1975-78, earning letters his final two seasons (helping the Nittany Lions to a 22-2 record), highlighted by a berth in the 1978 National Championship game vs. Alabama. He helped the Nittany Lions earn spots in the 1975 and '79 Sugar Bowls, the 1976 Gator Bowl and the 1977 Fiesta Bowl.

A native of Johnstown, Pa., Bradley earned his degree in business in 1979 and a Master's in sports administration from Penn State in 1986. He was a graduate assistant in 1979 and became a full-time staff member in 1980, initially serving as special teams coach. Bradley is a graduate of Bishop McCort High School in Johnstown and is an inductee in the Cambria County Sports Hall of Fame for his accomplishments in football, basketball and track and field as a prep student-athlete. He was inducted into the Western Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in May of 2014.

ADRIAN KLEMM
Associate Head Coach/Run Game
Coordinator/Offensive Line
5th Season
Hawai'i/Excelsior College '08

Former NFL offensive lineman and three-time Super Bowl winner Adrian Klemm joined the Bruin staff in December 2011 after coaching four seasons at SMU, and has quickly established himself as one of the top coaches and recruiters in the nation. In February of 2014, he was elevated to Associate Head Coach. In addition, the top two single-season individual rushing totals in school history have come behind his offensive lines (Johnathan Franklin-2012; Paul Perkins-2014).

In just a few short weeks in Westwood, Klemm helped the Bruins bring in one of the nation's top classes for 2012 and was named the Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year by 24/7 Sports. He followed it up by bringing in one of the nation's top O-line groups in 2013 and was tabbed by Rivals.com as one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters. His offensive line recruiting group for 2015 was ranked as high as number one in the nation.

Klemm's offensive line ranked first in the Pac-12 in fewest quarterback sacks allowed in 2015 (1.15), a mark which ranked 15th in the nation. The season total of 14 sacks was the second-lowest in school history. Perkins became the first Bruin running back to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark in back-to-back seasons at UCLA since DeShaun Foster in 2000-01 and moved up to third on the all-time school rushing list. Center Jake Brendel, who became the first Bruin to start at least 50 games, and tackle Conor McDermott each earned second-team all-conference honors. Brendel, a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete and finalist for the Campbell Trophy, earned first-team Academic all-conference honors for the fourth straight season and was chosen a CoSIDA District 8 Academic All-America selection. Caleb Benenoch, Alex Redmond and Redmond each headed into NFL Camps during the summer of 2016.

In 2014, his O-line helped produce the leading rusher in the Pac-12 Conference, who totaled the second-highest rushing yard total in school history (1,575 yards). Perkins also became the 13th Bruin back to reach the 1,000-yard milestone. Brendel earned second-team all-conference and first-team academic all-conference honors. Benenoch, Redmond and Scott Quessenberry were each named honorable mention all-conference selections. McDermott developed into a player to watch at tackle.

In each of his first two seasons, one of his Bruin linemen was chosen in the NFL Draft. Xavier Su'a-Filo's selection with the first pick in the second round in 2014 is the highest for a UCLA offensive lineman since the Baltimore Ravens tabbed Hall of Famer Jonathan Ogden with the No. 4 overall pick in 1996.

In 2013, Su'a-Filo earned the Morris Trophy, after a vote of the Pac-12 defensive linemen, as the top offensive lineman in the league. Brendel earned honorable mention all-conference recognition and Redmond was tabbed for Freshman All-America post-season honors.

In his first season on the field with the Bruins in 2012, his offensive linemen helped pave the way for record-setting running back Johnathan Franklin. New school rushing records were established for most rushing yards by a back in a season, most rushing yards by a back in a career, most all-purpose yards in a season, most all-purpose yards in a career and most 100-yard rushing games in a season. Senior guard Jeff Baca was selected in the 2013 NFL Draft. Su'a-Filo earned first-team all-conference honors and All-America acclaim from several publications. In addition, center Brendel, tackle Torian White and tackle Simon Goines were recognized on Freshman All-America teams.

A four-year starter as a player at the University of Hawai'i, Klemm began volunteering with the SMU program in 2008 after spending seven seasons in the NFL and winning Super Bowls (XXXVI, XXXVII, XXXIX) as a member of the New England Patriots. He made an immediate impact at SMU, quickly emerging as one of the nation's top recruiters and helping Coach June Jones produce his first 1,000-yard rusher.

In 2011, SMU featured the nation's seventh-leading rusher in Zach Line (122.4 yards per game). Two Mustang offensive linemen went on to be selected in the 2012 NFL Draft - Josh LeRibeux in the third round by the Redskins; Kelvin Beachum, in the seventh round by the Steelers.

On the field in 2010, Klemm tutored a young SMU line and guided Beachum to first-team All-Conference USA honors. He also led J.T. Brooks and Blake McJunkin to honorable mention all-conference accolades. His line helped the SMU offense set school records in total offense, passing yards, passing touchdowns and first downs among others. Line finished the season with 1,494 rushing yards, the second-best single-season total in school history, trailing only Eric Dickerson's 1982 effort.

Following the 2010 season, Klemm was named the top non-BCS AQ Recruiter in the nation by Rivals.com, and was further recognized by the outlet as one of the Top 25 recruiters in the country. Other services took note as well, as FoxSports/Scout.com named him the Conference USA Recruiter of the Year. Following this success, Klemm was named SMU's Recruiting Coordinator in the summer of 2011.

In 2009, Klemm helped Beachum earn second-team all-conference honors. The line blocked for an offense that passed for a then-school record total of 3,666 yards and

In 2009, Klemm helped Beachum earn second-team all-conference honors. The offense passed for a then-school record total of 3,666 yards and produced the first collegiate 1,000-yard rusher under coach Jones.

After a standout playing career at Hawai'i, Klemm was the 46th overall selection in the 2000 NFL Draft by New England. He played under Jones during his senior season (1999), and was a part of the biggest turnaround in NCAA history, as Hawai'i improved from 0-12 to 9-4 and won a bowl game that season. Klemm was selected as a starting left tackle at the Senior Bowl and also received invitations to the Hula Bowl and the East-West Shrine Game. He attended Saint Monica HS in Santa Monica, CA.

PERSONAL — Education: Attended the University of Hawai'i and earned his Bachelor's Degree in Liberal Arts from Excelsior College; ('08); At UCLA: Fifth year (joined the staff in December of 2011); Born: May 21, 1977 in Los Angeles, CA.

DEMETRICE MARTIN

Asst. Head Coach Defense/Secondary

5th Season

Michigan State/Excelsior College '06

Demetrice Martin was named to Coach Mora's staff in December of 2011. He left a position as the secondary/cornerbacks coach at the University of Washington to join the Bruins and soon had a large impact in the area of recruiting, as well as, on the field. He was promoted to Assistant Head Coach in February of 2014 and then to Assistant Head Coach Defense/Secondary in February of 2015.

In 2015, the Bruins secondary led the Pac-12 in pass defense, allowing the fewest average yards per game (203.2) and the lowest average yards per pass attempt (5.8) of any school. UCLA also topped the Pac-12 in pass defense efficiency (113.4) while producing three players who received all-conference recognition - Randall Goforth (second team), Jaleel Wadood (second team) and Marcus Rios (honorable mention).

In 2014, four of his defensive backs were honored with All-Pac-12 accolades (Ishmael Adams-1st team; Fabian Moreau and Anthony Jefferson-2nd team; Jaleel Wadood honorable mention). The unit ranked third in the Pac-12 conference in pass defense. Jefferson, who led the secondary with 72 tackles and was invited to the Senior Bowl, joined Moreau in a tie for the team lead with eight passes defended.

Martin helped to prepare a secondary which featured three new starters, in 2013. Adams, who came on to lead the team in interceptions, and Moreau were first-time starters at the corners. Jefferson ranked third on the team in tackles (89) in his initial season as a starter. Goforth, the veteran of the group in his sophomore season, was fourth on the squad in tackles (78) and second with three interceptions.

Martin mentored a veteran group in his first season on the field with the Bruins. Senior cornerback Sheldon Price, who moved on to the NFL, matched a school record with three interceptions in the Houston win. Andrew Abbott, along with Price, ranked among the Pac-12 leaders with four interceptions in 2012. Tevin McDonald was listed with the conference leaders in passes defended.

Martin had been on the University of Washington staff for three seasons prior to coming to UCLA. The 2010 Husky secondary finished second in the Pac-10 in pass defense.

In 2006 and 2007, he was a defensive graduate assistant at USC, working with the Trojan secondary. Prior to joining the USC staff, Martin spent three seasons (2003-05) as the pass defense coordinator and secondary coach at Mt. San Antonio College (Mt. SAC) in Walnut, CA. The Mounties played in the National Bowl in 2003 and 2004. He was also the secondary coach at Pasadena City College in 2001 and 2002. The Lancers went 18-4 during that period, winning the Mission Conference title both seasons and appearing in two bowl games. He began his career in coaching at Monrovia (Calif.) High (1999-2000).

A product of Pasadena (Calif.) Muir High School, Martin went to Michigan State, where he played wide receiver and cornerback from 1992 to 1995, earning first-team All-Big Ten honors in 1994 when he led the conference with seven interceptions. He had 10 interceptions in his career and the Spartans went on to play in the Liberty (1993) and Independence (1995) bowl games.

Martin played professionally as a cornerback for the Scottish Claymores in NFL Europe (1997) and for the Houston Thunderbears (1998-99) in the Arena Football League. He signed as a free agent with the St. Louis Rams in the NFL and spent time on the practice squad.

PERSONAL — Education: Attended Michigan State and earned his Bachelor's degree in Liberal Arts from Excelsior College, 2006; At UCLA: Fifth year (named to staff in December 2011); Born: February 23, 1973; Family: Wife, Tiffany; son, Cole and daughter, Kori.

ANGUS McCLURE

Recruiting Coordinator/Defensive Line
10th Season (5th w/defensive line)
Sacramento State '93

Angus McClure has over 20 years of coaching experience and is entering his ninth season as a member of the Bruin staff. In 2012, he began coaching the defensive line, having previously worked with tight ends, offensive line and special teams since arriving in Westwood in 2007. Angus continues in his role as the Recruiting Coordinator. Over the past eight years, McClure has also led the recruiting effort which has resulted in Bruin classes being ranked among the nation's top 20 in each year. In 2013-14, he was named among the Top 25 Recruiters in College Football by Rivals. In addition, UCLA has had a defensive lineman selected in seven of the past nine NFL drafts.

First-team All-Pac-12 performer Kenny Clark, a first-round selection by the Green Bay Packers in the 2016 NFL Draft, led a Bruin defense which surrendered just 5.0 yards per play, second-lowest mark in the Pac-12 Conference during the 2015 campaign. Clark was named a third-team AP All-America and was a first-team All-Conference selection. UCLA rated fifth in total defense in the league in 2015 and allowed the second-fewest rushing touchdowns of any program during the regular season.

In 2014, McClure's defensive line keyed the defense which ranked third in the Pac-12. Owa Odighizuwa, who was invited to the Senior Bowl, and Clark each earned second-team All-Pac-12 honors. Eddie Vanderdoes was named honorable mention. Ellis McCarthy was invited to participate in the NFL Combine.

In 2013, Cassius Marsh, who earned an East-West All-Star game and NFL combine invite, and Keenan Graham each enjoyed career seasons. Marsh was a fourth-round selection by the Seattle Seahawks. McClure also helped tutor a group of impressive young linemen. McCarthy was named one of the team's most improved players at the annual banquet. Vanderdoes, a freshman All-America pick, and Clark, Most Valuable Lineman at the Sun Bowl, caused opponents problems all season long. UCLA became the only school to have five defensive linemen participate in College All Star Games in the previous two years.

Several of McClure's defensive linemen enjoyed career seasons in 2012 and helped the Bruins rank among the nation's best in sacks while advancing to the Conference Championship game for a second straight season. Senior Datone Jones finished with 62 tackles, 19.0 tackles for loss, 6.5 sacks and went on to be a first-round selection in the NFL Draft. Marsh registered 50 tackles, 10.5 tackles for loss and 8.0 sacks. Odighizuwa totaled 44 tackles, 6.0 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks. In 2011 with McClure coaching the Offensive Line, UCLA led the South Division of the Pac-12 in rushing and played in the inaugural Pac-12 Championship Game.

Over his time as a Bruin coach, McClure has tutored a number of current NFL players: Clark (Packers), Marsh (Seahawks), Jones (Packers), Kevin McDermott (49ers/Ravens/Vikings), Logan Paulsen (Redskins), Matthew Slater (Patriots), Mike Harris (Chargers/Vikings), Nate Chandler (Panthers/Bears), Jeff Baca (Vikings/Chargers), Jeff Locke (Vikings), Cory Harkey (Rams), Kai Forbath (Redskins/Saints) and Christian Yount (Browns/Patriots).

McClure came to UCLA after serving as the offensive line/run game coordinator on Turner Gill's staff at the University of Buffalo in 2006. Buffalo scored more points (201) in conference games than any other team in the Mid-American Conference East Division. Running back James Starks (current player and starter for the 2011 Packers' Super Bowl Championship team) earned second-team All-MAC honors and was an honorable mention Freshman All-American. Offensive lineman Jamie Richard was drafted and became a starter for the Indianapolis Colts.

McClure spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons as an assistant on Bill Callahan's staff at Nebraska. He assisted with the offensive line, coaching tackles, as well as working with the special teams. The Cornhuskers defeated Michigan in the 2005 Alamo Bowl. McClure pupil Matt Slauson was named Freshman All American. As a Husker coach, McClure tutored a number of NFL bound players: Matt Slauson (Jets), Lydon Murtha (Dolphins), Chris Patrick (Giants) and Sam Koch (Ravens).

Prior to his stint at Nebraska, McClure was an assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Sacramento State University (1997-2003) where he played a major role in record-breaking offenses. During his tenure, the Hornets set 52 NCAA Division I-AA, Big Sky Conference, or school records. He coached 20 All-Big Sky conference honorees and had six of his players sign NFL contracts. One of McClure's pupils, Lonie Paxton of the Patriots (also Broncos), went on to collect three Super Bowl rings. Another McClure pupil, Marco Cavka was drafted by the Jets. In addition, five Sacramento State players earned All-American honors and four were chosen to participate in college all-star games. In his seven seasons at Sac State, the Hornets led the Big Sky in rushing four times (1998, 1999, 2000, 2002).

In 1996, McClure coached tight ends at the University of Nevada. He helped the Wolf Pack to the Big West title, a 9-3 record, and the Las Vegas Bowl championship. His tight ends produced a school record 13 touchdowns during the season. Nevada led Division I-A with 527.3 yard per game of total offense and topped the Big West Conference in both rushing and passing. Angus has served as a guest coach in several NFL camps over the years, including the Dallas Cowboys (2013), Buffalo Bills (2007, 2006), San Francisco 49ers (2002, 2000, 1999, 1998, 1997, 1996), Seattle Seahawks (1998) and San Diego Chargers (2011, 2012, 1997).

A graduate of Sacramento State, McClure played football there from 1987-91 and later served as a member of the faculty from 1997-2004. He was on the 1988 Hornet team that advanced to the NCAA Division II championship semifinals with an offense which averaged 486.0 yards per game. He began his coaching career at McClatchy High School in Sacramento as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 1992-95 while also coaching the offensive line and tight ends.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Liberal Studies from Sacramento State, 1995; At UCLA: 10th year overall on staff (first joined staff in June 2007 as tight ends coach); Born: December 9, 1968 in San Francisco, CA; Family: Angus and his wife Erin have two sons, Hamish and Malcolm.

KENNEDY POLAMALU

Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs
3rd Season (1st as offensive coordinator)
USC '87

Kennedy Polamalu was elevated to Offensive Coordinator in January of 2016 after serving as the UCLA running backs coach the previous two seasons. He was hired as running backs coach in December 2013 and coached during the Sun Bowl. A long-time collegiate and NFL coach, Polamalu returned to Westwood where he previously served as a graduate assistant coach for the Bruins during the 1992 and 1993 seasons.

"We are thrilled to have a man and coach of Kennedy's stature in the Bruin Family," said Mora at the time of his hiring. "Kennedy is widely regarded as one of the finest football coaches in America, and our student athletes will benefit not only from his coaching but also his mentorship."

In 2015, Paul Perkins became the first Bruin back to record back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons since DeShaun Foster in 2000-01. He also became the first Bruin back to catch at least 70 passes in a career. Perkins, selected by the NY Giants in the 2016 NFL Draft, was named second-team all-conference and ranked among the nation's top 25 in rushing yards (1,343) and rushing touchdowns (14). In addition, three other Bruin backs gained at least 190 yards during the season.

In the 2014 season, Polamalu's unit produced the leading rusher in the Pac-12 Conference who totaled the second-highest rushing yardage total in school history (1,575 yards). Perkins also became the 13th back in school history to reach the 1,000-yard rushing milestone.

A four-year letterman (1982-85) as both fullback and linebacker at USC, most recently Polamalu was the Trojans offensive coordinator and running backs coach from 2010-12 in his second stint with the team. During his first tenure as an assistant coach at his alma mater from 2000-03, he served as running backs coach (2000), special teams coordinator (2001) and running backs coach & special teams coordinator (2002, 2003).

From 2004-09, Polamalu worked in the NFL ranks as Tennessee Titans running backs coach following the 2009 season, Jacksonville Jaguars running backs coach (2005-09) and Cleveland Browns running backs coach (2004-05). While in Jacksonville, both Fred Taylor (2007) and former UCLA great Maurice Jones-Drew (2009) earned Pro Bowl honors as the Jaguars offense totaled the third-most rushing yards in the NFL over that time, including four Top 10 rushing finishes. In 2009, Jones-Drew finished fourth in the NFL in rushing (1,391 yards), fourth in scrimmage yards (1,765) and second in total touchdowns scored (16). In 2008, Greg Jones became the highest paid fullback in NFL history.

Polamalu also previously served as an assistant coach at San Diego State (1999, 1994-96) and Colorado (1997-98). While with the Bruins as a graduate assistant coach (1992-93), he worked with the secondary and special teams and helped the 1993 team to a Rose Bowl berth.

Beginning his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Crespi High in Encino (Calif.) for three seasons (1986-88) and then at Westlake High in Westlake Village (Calif.) for three more seasons (1989-91), Polamalu helped lead his team at Crespi to the 1986 CIF Division I championship.

Polamalu, who earned his bachelor's degree in History from USC in 1987, attended Mater Dei High in Santa Ana, Calif. and was a prep All-American in football, member of the basketball and track teams and also served as the student body president.

Polamalu's family football tree is extensive. His nephew, Troy Polamalu, was a long-time star in the NFL with the Pittsburgh Steelers; his brother, Ao Polamalu, played football at Penn State (1985-87); his nephew Nicky Sualua played running back in the NFL with Dallas and Cincinnati after attending Ohio State; and three other nephews played college football (Leie Sualua - Oregon, Joe Polamalu - Oregon State and Kaio Aumua - UTEP).

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in History from the University of Southern California, 1987; At UCLA: Third year (joined the staff in December of 2013); Born: Nov. 22, 1963 in Pago Pago, American Samoa; Family: wife-Diane; children-K.C., Matthew Aoatoa, Kendra and Raymond Trey.

RIP SCHERER

Sr. Assoc. Head Coach/Tight Ends
1st Season
William & Mary '74

Rip Scherer, a past collegiate head coach, enters his first season as Senior Associate Head Coach and will be in charge of UCLA's tight ends. He has been working in the UCLA athletic administration since June of 2013, with oversight of the football program as one of his primary duties.

Scherer came to UCLA in the summer of 2013 after serving two seasons as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at the University of Colorado. In all, he has 33 years of full-time coaching experience (27 in college and six in the pros).

In his first CU season, he worked with a young quarterback group and helped develop Tyler Hansen into a free agent signing with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Scherer worked the 2009-10 seasons for the NFL's Carolina Panthers, where he was the quarterbacks coach after spending the previous four campaigns (2005-08) with the Cleveland Browns. Prior to that, he had logged time at 11 different schools, from coast-to-coast, in just over three decades in the collegiate ranks.

At Carolina (under head coach John Fox), Scherer was integral in the development of former Bruin quarterback Matt Moore, who led the Panthers to a 4-1 record while starting the last five games of the 2009 season and generating a 104.9 quarterback rating after veteran Jake Delhomme sustained an injury. With injuries taking their toll on the 2010 stable of quarterbacks, Scherer and the Panthers used four different quarterbacks under center throughout the season.

In Cleveland, (under head coach Romeo Crennel) he served as the quarterbacks coach all four seasons from 2005-08, the final two adding assistant head coaching duties to his responsibilities. In his time there, he helped develop Derek Anderson, who was selected to the 2007 Pro Bowl after throwing for 3,787 yards and 29 touchdowns as the Browns boasted the eighth-best offense in the NFL in terms of scoring and passing yards per game.

He entered the professional ranks after he had coaching stints in the ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-10 and SEC, including two stops as a collegiate head coach at James Madison and Memphis. Prior to joining the Browns, he was an assistant coach at Southern Mississippi (under head coach Jeff Bower) in 2003-04 where he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He held the same title at Kansas (under head coach Terry Allen) for the 2001 season.

He went to Kansas from Memphis, where he served as head coach from 1995-2000, compiling a 22-44 record. He coached the Tigers to the school's first-ever win over Tennessee, 21-17, with the Volunteers ranked No. 6 at the time in 1996 and quarterbacked by Peyton Manning, a victory that was tabbed the "Upset of the Year" in college football by several news organizations (Memphis had been 0-15 against the Vols in its history). Prior to coaching at Memphis, he was the head coach at James Madison University in Harrisonburg, VA from 1991-94, during a time when the Dukes set or tied over 140 school records and helped them to a 10-3 record in 1994 and 29-19 record in four years.

He was also the offensive coordinator at Arizona (Dick Tomey), Alabama (Bill Curry) and Georgia Tech (Bill Curry). He was in Tucson from 1988-90, the first season as the director of football operations and then the offensive coordinator the final two years. Prior to that, he was the offensive coordinator at Alabama in 1987 and Georgia Tech in 1986, where he was on staff from 1980-86, first as the quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator in 1980-81 and running backs coach and run game coordinator from 1982-84. He was also an assistant athletic director at Georgia Tech in 1985 before returning to the field the next season.

He started his coaching career at Penn State under legendary coach Joe Paterno as a graduate assistant in 1974-75 and then moved to North Carolina State (Bo Rein), where he was the quarterbacks coach in 1976 before moving on to Hawai'i as the running backs coach in 1977-78 (Dick Tomey). He coached the quarterbacks at Virginia in 1979 (Dick Bestwick) before going to Georgia Tech. Scherer earned his bachelor's degree in Physical Education from William & Mary in 1974, where he lettered three times at QB under coach Lou Holtz from 1971-73.

PERSONAL — He was born August 3, 1952 in Pittsburgh, Pa., and graduated from Toms River (N.J.) South High School, where he lettered in football. He is married to the former Michele Ragone, and the couple has three children, Scott (who played quarterback under his dad at Memphis), Melanie and Ryan (who played wide receiver at Penn State). His father, Rip Sr., was a long time high school football coach in Pittsburgh.

MARQUES TUIASOSOPO

Quarterbacks/Passing Game
Coordinator
1st Season
Washington '01

Marques Tuiasosopo, who played quarterback at the University of Washington and in the NFL, returns for the 2016 season to Westwood to serve as the UCLA quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator.

Tuiasosopo comes across town after serving two seasons (2014-15) at USC as the associate head coach offense and tight ends coach. He joined the USC staff in December of 2013. In 2015, he was named Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com. Tight end Randall Telfer was a sixth round NFL draft pick. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

Before that, Tuiasosopo was the tight ends coach at UCLA in 2012 after having served as an intern in the Bruins' football office in 2011. He was elevated to UCLA's full time quarterbacks coach for the 2011 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. UCLA played in the 2012 Holiday Bowl.

He was an assistant strength coach at Washington in 2009 and 2010. The Huskies played in the 2010 Holiday Bowl.

Tuiasosopo, 36, was the 2000 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year and 2001 Rose Bowl MVP as a quarterback at Washington, where he lettered 4 seasons (1997-2000). He set UW's career total offense record as he passed for 5,879 yards and 33 touchdowns while rushing for 1,495 yards with 21 TDs. In a victory over Stanford in 1999, he became the first NCAA Division I player to pass for 300 yards and rush for 200 yards in a game (he threw for 302 and ran for 207). In the 1997 Oregon game, he became the first true freshman to start at quarterback for Washington. He was the Huskies' team captain in 1999 and 2000. Washington also played in the 1997 Aloha Bowl, 1998 Oahu Bowl and 1999 Holiday Bowl.

Tuiasosopo earned his bachelor's degree in business from Washington in 2001.

A second round NFL draft pick by the Oakland Raiders in 2001, he played quarterback for the Raiders for seven seasons (2001-06, 2008) and the New York Jets in 2007.

He starred in football and baseball at Woodinville (Wash.) High. He was drafted by the Minnesota Twins out of high school, but chose to play collegiate football.

Three of Tuiasosopo's four siblings were varsity athletes at Washington. His sister, Leslie, was an All-Pac-10 volleyball player at Washington (1995-98) and is now the Huskies' associate head coach. His brother, Zach, played fullback and linebacker at UW (2001-04), while his sister, Ashley, played softball at UW (2008-11). Another brother, Matt, signed a letter of intent to play quarterback for UW, but instead signed a professional baseball contract out of high school and has played in the majors with the Seattle Mariners (2008-10), Detroit Tigers (2013) and Atlanta Braves (2016).

He has football running throughout his immediate and extended family. His father, Manu, played defensive line at UCLA (1975-78) and then in the NFL with the Seattle Seahawks (1979-83) and San Francisco 49ers (1984-86). Cousin John Tautolo played at UCLA (1977-80) and then with the New York Giants (1982-83) and Los Angeles Raiders (1987) as a guard, while cousin Terry Tautolo played at UCLA (1974-75) and with the Philadelphia Eagles (1976-79), San Francisco 49ers (1980-81), Detroit Lions (1981-82, 1984) and Miami Dolphins (1983) as a linebacker. His second cousins are former USC offensive guard Titus Tuiasosopo (1990-92), Navy Tuiasosopo, who played at Utah State (1983-86) and then with the Los Angeles Rams (1987), and Mike Tuiasosopo, who played at Pacific Lutheran, then was an assistant coach at Pacific (1991), Utah State (1996-99), Nevada (2000-02), Utah (2003), Arizona (2004-10), Colorado (2011-12) and now at UCLA.

He was born on March 22, 1979. He and his wife Lisa, a former volleyball player at North Carolina, have two sons, Brayden, 6, and Bryce, 4, and a daughter, Kylie, 2.

SCOTT WHITE

Linebackers/Special Teams

2nd Season

Washington '06

Scott White was named Linebackers/Special Teams coach in February of 2015. He had served on the UCLA staff for the past four seasons, most recently in the capacity of defensive quality control. He was named the 2016 Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com. In 2015, the Bruins defense limited opponents to just 5.0 yards per play, on average, the second-lowest mark in the Pac-12. Linebacker Jayon Brown topped the team in tackles and ranked among the top 10 in the conference in tackles average per game (7.8). Brown's 18 tackles in the win over Colorado were the most by an individual Pac-12 player during 2015. Linebackers Deon Hollins and Aaron Wallace each earned All-Pac-12 recognition while providing constant pressure on the opposing quarterback. Wallace, selected by Tennessee in the 2016 NFL Draft, tied for third in the Pac-12 in sacks per game (0.58) and was tied for seventh in the league in tackles for loss per game (1.0).

In addition, linebacker Myles Jack, who was limited to just three games due to injury, was a second-round selection in the 2016 Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. It marked the third straight NFL Draft in which at least one Bruin linebacker has been selected. Placekicker Ka'imi Fairbairn, who became the leading scorer in conference history, was invited to camp with the Houston Texans.

White originally came to UCLA from Palomar College in San Marcos, Calif. where he coached the linebackers. Before his stint at Palomar, he was an assistant football coach at Central Washington University in Ellensburg, Wash.

White attended the University of Washington and was a multiple-season starter at outside linebacker. He played in 45 career games, from 2003-06, for coaches Keith Gilbertson and Tyrone Willingham. White totaled 278 tackles, 38 for loss, with 11 sacks for his career. He also picked off five passes, forced five fumbles and recovered five fumbles.

The San Diego native was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week after recording 10 tackles, three for losses, and two sacks in Washington's 21-10 over Arizona on Oct. 4, 2006, when the Huskies held the Wildcats to minus-seven yards rushing. He earned Sporting News Pac-10 All-Freshman honors in 2003.

White was named San Diego CIF Defensive Player of the Year and San Diego Union-Tribune Defensive Player of the Year in 2001 after compiling 167 total tackles, 11 sacks, four fumble recoveries, two blocked punts and an interception. He also rushed for nearly 1,000 yards and 20 touchdowns on the offensive side of the ball. White helped lead Mission Bay High School to back-to-back CIF-San Diego Section Division II championships in 2000 and 2001.

ERIC YARBER

Receivers

5th Season

Idaho '95

Eric Yarber joined the Bruins staff as receivers coach in Jan. of 2012, after two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and five seasons in the NFL overall. Three of his Bruin receivers were selected in the 2016 NFL Draft.

Jordan Payton, chosen by Cleveland in the 2016 NFL Draft, became UCLA's all-time receptions leader during the 2015 campaign and became the first Bruin to ever catch 200 career passes. He also moved up to third on the all-time receiving yards list and ranked among the nation's top 25 in receiving yards per game (85.1) and receiving yards (1,106 yards) while becoming the eighth 1,000-yard receiver in UCLA history. Thomas Duarte, a Miami Dolphins draft selection, earned second-team all-conference honors after registering 10 touchdown catches which ranks fourth on the all-time school single-season list and was 17th in the NCAA. Devin Fuller, drafted by the Atlanta Falcons, moved up to the top six in career receptions.

In 2014, Coach Yarber saw two of his Bruin receivers produce top-10 all-time reception totals - Payton's 67 catches ranked sixth on the UCLA single-season list and Fuller's 59 catches ranked 10th. Payton's total of 954 receiving yards rated ninth on that all-time school list. In addition, Duarte was 15th in the NCAA in yards per reception (19.29 yards per catch).

In year two at UCLA, Yarber helped senior Shaq Evans, a fourth-round selection in the 2014 NFL Draft, finish up his career ranked tied for 10th on the school's all-time reception list. Evans earned an invite to the Senior Bowl and the NFL combine after catching nine scoring passes in 2013, tied for ninth on the all-time school list. Fuller, Payton and Devin Lucien (drafted by New England in 2016) each nearly doubled their first-year production.

In his first season with the Bruins, Yarber's direction helped wide receivers Evans and Jerry Johnson record breakout years in 2012. Evans' 60 catches led the team and were the eighth-most receptions by a Bruin in a single-season. His total of 877 receiving yards ranked 11th-best on that single-season school list. Johnson caught a career-best 31 balls for 428 yards.

In 2011, Yarber worked as Tampa Bay's wide receivers coach for a promising young unit that included the development of second-round pick Arrelious Benn and fourth-round pick Mike Williams. Williams turned in one of the top seasons by a receiver in Buccaneers history, recording 65 receptions for 964 yards and 11 touchdowns. He led all rookie receivers in each of these categories, earning The Sporting News and PFV/PFWA All-Rookie Team selection while finishing second in voting for the Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award. Yarber also oversaw the emergence of Benn, who was becoming an important part of the Tampa Bay offense prior to a season-ending knee injury in Week 13.

Yarber came to Tampa Bay after spending three seasons (2007-09) on the collegiate level as the wide receivers coach at Arizona State. While at ASU in 2009, Yarber coached two standout wide receivers in Kyle Williams and Chris McGaha. Williams finished the 2009 campaign with 815 receiving yards on 57 catches and eight scores before being a sixth-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers in the 2010 NFL Draft. McGaha racked up 56 catches for 673 yards and four touchdowns on his way to second-team All-Pac 10 honors.

Prior to his work with the Sun Devils, Yarber coached wide receivers for two seasons (2005-06) under Tyrone Willingham at the University of Washington. With Yarber's assistance, two receivers, Sonny Shackleford and Anthony Russo, turned in strong performances, with Russo finishing third in the Pacific-10 Conference with a 17.3 yards-per-catch average and Shackleford finishing fourth in touchdown catches (seven) and eighth in receptions (50) and receiving yards (666).

During the 2003-04 seasons, Yarber coached the San Francisco 49ers' wide receivers, and in his first year guided Pro Bowler Terrell Owens to a 1,000-yard season. During this time, Yarber was also instrumental in the development of wide receivers Cedrick Wilson and Brandon Lloyd, as the duo ranked first and second among 49ers' receivers in yards after the catch with a 13.6 and 13.1 average (min. 10 receptions) respectively in 2004.

From 1999-2002, Yarber coached at Oregon State, where he worked with running backs for one season (1999) before switching to wide receivers (2000-2002). His work with receivers Chad Johnson and T.J. Houshmandzadeh led to the two being selected in the second and seventh rounds, respectively, by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2001 NFL Draft.

Yarber coached his first year in the NFL in 1998, working as an offensive quality control coach with the Seattle Seahawks, after spending the 1997 season coaching receivers at UNLV. His coaching career began in 1996 when he took a secondary coaching position at his alma mater, Idaho.

Washington squad that defeated the Denver Broncos to win Super Bowl XXII in 1988, leading that team with 37 punt returns. At Idaho, Yarber was a Kodak All-American and the Big Sky Conference's Most Valuable Player during his senior year; catching 75 passes for 1,103 yards. As a junior, he finished 10th in the nation in punt returns and third in the conference with 817 receiving yards on 54 catches. He attended Crenshaw High School in Los Angeles.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in General Studies from the University of Idaho, 1995; At UCLA: Fifth year (joined the staff in January of 2012); Born: September 22, 1963, in Chicago, IL. Family: Wife, Estevanica; sons Kameryon and Robert.

SAL ALOSI

Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

5th Season

Hofstra '01

Sal Alosi, who has both collegiate and NFL experience, was hired on Jan. 10, 2012 to be UCLA's strength and conditioning coordinator for football. He came to the Bruins after serving as the head strength and conditioning coach at Bryant University (Rhode Island) in 2011, where he worked with all 22 of the Bulldogs' varsity programs. Alosi's skill and knowledge in the weight room played a vital role in the development of the Bryant athletic department in its final year of transition to full Division I status.

Prior to working at Bryant, Alosi spent nine years in the NFL, where he served as the head strength and conditioning coach for both the New York Jets and the Atlanta Falcons.

A four-year letterwinner and linebacker at Hofstra University, Alosi led the Pride to back-to-back Division I-AA (now FCS) quarterfinal playoff appearances in 1999 and 2000 and topped the team in tackles as a senior.

Following his playing career, he joined the coaching staff at his alma mater, becoming an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Hofstra in 2001, when the Pride won its first Atlantic 10 Conference title in football, advancing to the Division I-AA playoffs for the third-straight year.

Alosi went on to join the NFL's New York Jets a season later and stayed there until the 2006 campaign, when he was hired by the Atlanta Falcons to direct the team's strength and conditioning program under head coach Jim Mora. After one season with the Falcons, though, Alosi returned to New York on Feb. 21, 2007 as the Jets' head strength and conditioning coach.

A native of Massapequa, N.Y., Alosi graduated from Hofstra University with a degree in exercise science.

PERSONAL — Education: Bachelor's in Exercise Science, Hofstra, 2001; At UCLA: Fifth year (joined staff in January, 2012); Born: May 11, 1977; Family: Alosi is married with two children.
