2015-16 ANNUAL REPORT

UCLA's Jackie Robinson Athletics and Recreation Complex

In March 2016, UCLA added its final piece to the Jackie Robinson Athletics and Recreation Complex, thanks to the generosity of Casey Wasserman and the Wasserman Foundation. A bronze plaque honoring Jackie Robinson's legacy is placed below a 42-inch tall number 42 bronze sculpture that prominently rises from its bronze base, stationed along the south side of the John Wooden Center.

UCLA... CHAMPIONS MADE HERE

DID YOU KNOW? UCLA closed the 2015-16 school year with a nation-leading 113 NCAA team championships. The men's water polo team won the school's 113th NCAA team title in Dec. 2015, defeating crosstown rival USC in the championship match for the second consecutive year. UCLA became the first intercollegiate athletics department to capture 100 NCAA team titles in May 2007 when the women's water polo team won its third consecutive NCAA Championship.

Inside the 2015-16 Annual Report

Year-End Recap

In addition to the men's water polo team's NCAA Championship, numerous UCLA athletic squads had terrific seasons with strong postseason results in 2015-16.

UCLA in the Community

UCLA's student-athletes excel as community leaders, volunteering over 3,000 hours in community outreach events each season. The athletics department hosted over 20 events on campus.

Graduation Ceremony

The athletic department hosted its student-athlete graduation ceremony in Pauley Pavilion the night of June 9, 2016. UCLA had 116 student-athletes participate in the Class of 2016 graduation celebration.

Dear Bruins,

Our department enjoyed another year of remarkable growth and sustained excellence both on and off the field of competition in 2015-16. Not only did UCLA place sixth in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup, landing the department's fifth consecutive top 10 finish and 21st overall in the award's 23-year history, our men's water polo team captured UCLA's record 113th NCAA team championship, tops in the nation. Of even more significance, in June, 116 student-athletes earned their degree from our university and officially began the next chapter of their lives.

Throughout the course of 2015-16, student-athletes earned Director's Honor Roll accolades (3.0 GPA or higher) over 850 times. In addition, our Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and Academic Progress Report (APR) numbers remained high across the board and among the best in the nation. UCLA's overall GSR of 86% ranked second in the Pac-12, with each of our teams maintaining multi-year APR rates over .960. Moreover, three teams achieved perfect scores of 1000 – women's golf for the seventh straight year, men's water polo and men's volleyball.

One the most exciting moments of 2015-16 took place at Spieker Aquatics Center in December. For the second consecutive year, our men's water polo team won the NCAA title in its home pool. But this time, the Bruins had an undefeated season (30-0), capped by a 10-7 win over rival USC in the national title match. Our 10th men's water polo championship was a testament to the tireless work of our student-athletes, as well as head coach Adam Wright and his staff.

In all, UCLA Athletics produced seven Top 5 national finishes in 2015-16, including Top 3 podium finishes from men's water polo, beach volleyball in the sport's inaugural NCAA championship, women's golf, women's volleyball and women's water polo. In addition, both the gymnastics and men's tennis teams each won Pac-12 Championships while our women's basketball team secured its first trip to the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 since 1999 after successfully defending its home court with first and second-round wins in Pauley Pavilion.

While we always pride ourselves on team accomplishments, our department also produced some outstanding individual efforts. UCLA had three student-athletes named National Player of the Year in their respective sports – men's water polo goalkeeper Garrett Danner, men's tennis player Mackenzie McDonald and women's golfer Bronte Law. McDonald had a terrific campaign by sweeping the singles and doubles titles at the NCAA men's tennis championships, earning the doubles crown with his partner Martin Redlicki. And completing her career at UCLA in style, gymnastics' Danusia Francis won an individual NCAA Championship on balance beam.

Off the field and away from the court, our department has seen terrific progress on both the Wasserman Football Center and the Mo Ostin Basketball Center. UCLA broke ground on both buildings in August 2015, and both state-of-the-art training facilities will be completed by the end of 2017. Also in the works are plans for a new home for our soccer programs at the North Athletic Field. Construction of Wallis Annenberg Stadium was made possible by a $5 million lead gift from the Annenberg Foundation. And last but certainly not least, Easton Stadium received a new scoreboard and various other upgrades as a result of a generous two million dollar gift from Jim and Phyllis Easton.

Finally, I'd be remiss if I didn't mention the final piece of the Jackie Robinson Athletics and Recreation Complex, which was unveiled this past March. Standing tall just off Bruin Walk is an iconic "42" monument that we hope will remind people what real courage and sacrifice look like as well as what great heights we can reach when we fully commit ourselves to embracing adversity and affecting positive change.

With our past year's successes now in the books, we eagerly anticipate 2016-17 with an optimism indicative of this great university. The tradition and all-around excellence universally associated with UCLA endures, and your continued support is invaluable to our department. I look forward to seeing you at our venues in the coming year and thank you for supporting the hard work and efforts of our student-athletes and coaches.

Go Bruins!

Men's Water Polo Captures Back-to-Back NCAA Titles

Garrett Danner registered 13 saves in the championship match and Ryder Roberts was named MVP

Top-ranked UCLA won its second consecutive NCAA title with a 10-7 victory over No. 3 USC at Dirks Pool at UCLA's Spieker Aquatics Center during a late evening contest on Sunday, Dec. 6, 2015.

The Bruins concluded their season with a perfect 30-0 overall record and extended their winning streak to 33 games (the second-longest streak in program history). This marked the first undefeated season for UCLA since the 1969 team went 19-0. It was also the program's 10th title and the school's nation-leading 113th NCAA team championship.

The undefeated season for the Bruins was just the fourth all-time in NCAA men's water polo history, joining the 2008 and 2012 USC squads and the 1992 California team.

"Not too many teams have been able to go and do what these guys have done," head coach Adam Wright said after the victory. "It's something that they'll be able to look back on the rest of their lives and know that they left a special mark here at UCLA."

Eight different Bruins scored in the title game, led by juniors Ryder Roberts and Patrick Fellner, each with two goals. Junior goalkeeper Garrett Danner registered 13 saves for UCLA.

Roberts was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player and secured first-team all-tournament honors. Joining Roberts as first-team selections included Danner and seniors Daniel McClintick and Anthony Daboub. Junior Gordon Marshall secured second-team all-tournament acclaim.

Trailing 3-1 with less than two minutes to play in the opening period, Roberts scored on a hard skipshot, cutting USC's advantage to 3-2 at the 1:38 mark. He scored his second goal, tying the game 3-3, on a 6-on-

5 situation with 1:08 left in the quarter.

McClintick gave the Bruins their first lead of the game at 4-3 with a goal at the 5:22 mark in the second quarter. In a defensive-minded period, Roberts found Marshall at two meters for a power play goal (0:10) and the Bruins pitched a shutout in the second period to secure a 5-3 halftime lead.

Mac Carden cut the Bruins' lead to 5-4 with a power play goal (5:12) to open the scoring in the third period. Fellner scored his first goal of the game on a power play (3:03) to push the lead to 6-4. Bryce Hoerman scored for the Trojans to cut the lead to 6-5 (1:58) before junior Chancellor Ramirez beat the Trojans' goalkeeper with a high corner shot that pushed the lead back to two at 7-5 (0:49). The Trojans came back with a power play score from Lachlan Edwards to cut it to 7-6 with just 0:25 remaining to end the period.

Sophomore Max Irving opened the scoring in the fourth quarter, scoring with 7:32 to play as UCLA extended its margin to 8-6. Daboub gave the Bruins their largest lead of the game at 9-6 (4:20). USC's Blake Edwards cut the UCLA advantage to 9-7 with his first goal of the contest at the 3:21 mark. Fellner scored the game's final goal with one second remaining left to provide the 10-7 final margin.

The Bruins converted on 4-of-8 power plays while the Trojans were just 2-for-8. Neither team attempted a penalty shot.

Softball Rallies Past Oregon, Advances to Women's College World Series

Needing two victories in one day to advance to the Women's College World Series, the Bruins did just that, coming back to beat Oregon by identical 2-1 scores. UCLA secured its second consecutive trip to Oklahoma City.

In the team's first win, UCLA recorded its 17th comeback of the year. Selina Ta'amilo struck out seven in a career-high nine innings, surrendering just one run, four hits and one walk. Playing as the home team, down to their final two outs, Gabrielle Maurice launched a home run tie the game, 1-1. In the bottom of the ninth, Mysha Sataraka doubled and later scored on the game-winning single from Madeline Jelenicki, forcing a winner-take-all third game.

In that contest, the Bruins claimed a 2-0 lead with one run in the first inning and another in the fourth. Oregon scored in the bottom of the seventh, but Bruins' pitcher Paige McDuffee, who tossed 6 2/3 innings of relief, helped UCLA hold on for the victory. The Bruins were unable to advance in the Women's College World Series and concluded the season with a 40-16-1 record.

Gymnast Danusia Francis Captures NCAA Title

UCLA's senior gymnast wins share of NCAA balance beam title

Senior gymnast Danusia Francis secured a share of the 2016 NCAA balance beam title, scoring 9.95 to tie with Florida's Bridget Sloan. The championship marked UCLA's eighth on balance beam and second consecutive. It also increased the program's overall NCAA individual championship total to 34, second only to Georgia, who has 42.

Francis stuck her unique sideways side aerial to immediate full-twisting layout dismount to help seal the beam title.

"I have been doing it since my sophomore year now, and it is still just as scary as the first time," Francis said. "I managed to pull off a good one, so that was great and a nice way to finish off the beam rotation. It was a cherry on top of making it to the Super Six."

After winning the Pac-12 title, UCLA finished third with a score of 196.700 in the second session of NCAA semifinals to advance to the NCAA Super Six for the 19th time in meet history. UCLA finished fifth overall at NCAA Championships.

Women's Basketball Heads to Sweet 16

Bruins earn first trip to regional semifinals since 1999

The Bruins hosted first and second-round matchups in Pauley Pavilion, securing consecutive wins against Hawai'i and South Florida to advance to the Sweet 16 against Texas. UCLA's opening weekend wins helped the program earn its first trip to the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 since 1999.

Senior Nirra Fields led the Bruins with 16 points and eight rebounds in the 66-50 victory over Hawai'i. Two days later, Jordin Canada scored 17 of her 19 points in the fourth quarter to help the Bruins outlast No. 6-seed South Florida, 72-67.

In a regional semifinal matchup against Texas, Jordin Canada and Monique Billings each scored 20 points for No. 3-seed UCLA, but it wasn't enough as No. 2-seed Texas rallied for a 72-64 win at Webster Bank Arena in Bridgeport, Conn.

Imani Boyette scored 18 points and grabbed 10 rebounds to lead the Longhorns to a comeback win over UCLA, which concluded its season with a 26-9 overall record.

In that game, Billings grabbed 12 rebounds for a double-double for UCLA, which led by 10 points in the second quarter, five points at the half and 54-48 after three quarters. Texas scored the first 10 points of the fourth to take the lead for good. UCLA missed its last nine shots and was just 1-for-17 from the field in the fourth quarter.

The Longhorns won the game underneath, outscoring the Bruins 40-22 in the paint and outrebounding UCLA 46-40, despite trailing in that category by five at halftime.

UCLA had the early advantage in part because Texas' two big women, the 6-foot-7 Boyette and 6-5 Kelsey Lang each picked up two first-half fouls. The Bruins used a 9-0 scoring run to lead 17-9 early in the game and led by six points after a quarter.

McDonald, Redlicki Secure NCAA Men's Tennis Individual Titles

Mackenzie McDonald makes history with singles, doubles championships

Junior Mackenzie McDonald became the 12th NCAA singles champion in program history when he dispatched top-ranked Mikael Torpegaard of Ohio State in straight sets in the men's championship final.

Later that day, McDonald joined the ranks of history when he captured the doubles crown with partner Martin Redlicki. The duo defeated Texas A&M's Arthur Rinderknech and Jackson Withrow in straight sets in the final. This was the first time in 45 years that UCLA won both the NCAA singles and doubles titles in the same year — a feat that has only happened six times in school history, last occurring in 1971.

McDonald also made history as the first man in 15 years to win both the NCAA singles and doubles titles in the same year, a feat that has occurred 38 times since 1883.

"I'm really happy with this accomplishment," McDonald said after the victories. "This is unbelievable. I have always wanted to win something for UCLA, and to bring back two trophies for them is really cool to me. I've always been a Bruin and this means a lot to me."

The two-time Pac-12 singles Player of the Year, McDonald concluded the season with a 22-1 record at the top of the lineup. His only loss came against then No. 11-ranked Ryan Shane of Virginia in February. The Bruin posted a team-high 20-win streak during the spring season.

He also sat atop the national rankings to close out the 2015-16 season. In the final ITA Rankings, McDonald was ranked No. 1 in the nation in singles and was the top-ranked doubles team with Redlicki.

Three Student-Athletes Secure National Player of the Year Honors

Garrett Danner, Bronte Law, Mackenzie MacDonald earn prestigious national awards

Three top student-athletes from UCLA earned player of the year acclaim in their respective sports — Garrett Danner (men's water polo), Bronte Law (women's golf) and Mackenzie MacDonald (men's tennis).

A junior in 2015, Danner finished the men's water polo season helping UCLA post a perfect 30-0 record en route to the program's second straight NCAA Championship. He was named the ACWPC Player of the Year and the MPSF Player of the Year in addition to securing the Cutino Award, bestowed annually by the Olympic Club of San Francisco to the nation's top male and female collegiate water polo players.

Danner became just the second UCLA men's water polo player to win the award and the third overall winner. Previously, Sean Kern had won the award in 1998 and 1999.

Law (pictured to the right) earned the 2016 ANNIKA Award presented by 3M, given to the nation's top female collegiate golfer. In addition, Law was honored as the PING WGCA Player of the Year as well as a WGCA first-team All-America selection. She became UCLA's first player to ever secure PING WGCA Player of the Year honors. During the 2015-16 season, Law led the Bruins with a 70.6 scoring average and posted eight top-10 finishes in nine events (including a co-medalist finish at the Bryan Regional). In her four events prior to the NCAA Championship, she went T-1, second (Pac-12 Championships), first (PING/ASU) and second (Bruin Wave Invitational).

MacDonald was named the 2016 Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) National Men's Collegiate Player of the Year at the conclusion of his junior season. He became the second UCLA player in three years to earn the award, joining 2014 winner Marcos Giron. He concluded the 2016 college season as the No. 1-ranked player in the nation. In addition, he finished the year ranked No. 1 in doubles, along with partner Martin Redlicki.

BASEBALL

Overall Record:	25-31
Pac-12 Record:	12-18
Pac-12 Finish:	10th

UCLA missed the postseason for just the third time in the previous 11 seasons. Head coach John Savage collected his 400th career win at UCLA and his 500 career victory as a Division I head coach. Savage's 400th win in Westwood came in dramatic fashion as UCLA downed crosstown rival USC in 14 innings at Dodger Stadium. Right-hander Kyle Molnar earned Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America honors and outfielder Eric Filia captured All-Pac-12 Team honors. In June, five UCLA players were selected in the MLB Draft.

Men's NCAA Championship Finish:	14th

The UCLA men's cross country team made its third appearance at the NCAA Championships in the last four seasons, finishing 14th overall. The women's team was represented by freshman Carolina Johnson at the championship meet, and she placed 75th overall. Senior Lane Werley garnered USTFCCA All-America honors for the second time in his career. Werley, Johnson and Sergey Sushchikh all secured USTFCCA All-Region honors. Johnson earned Freshman of the Year acclaim and was on the All-Pac-12 team, along with Werley.

FOOTBALL

Overall Record:	8-5
Pac-12 Record:	5-4
Pac-12 South Division:	3rd

UCLA opened its 2015 campaign with four consecutive victories — over Virginia, UNLV, No. 19 BYU and No. 16 Arizona — before closing the year with an 8-5 overall mark and a 5-4 record in league play. The Bruins witnessed the emergence of freshman quarterback Josh Rosen, who set school records for a freshman with 3,668 single-season yards and 23 touchdowns. Running back Paul Perkins shouldered the load on the ground, securing second-team All-Pac-12 honors after having rushed for 1,343 net yards and 13 touchdowns. Defensive lineman Kenny Clark captured first-team All-Pac-12 acclaim, totaling 75 tackles and 11 tackles for loss.

MEN'S GOLF

Conference Finish:	8th

A pair of Bruins secured All-Pac12 Team honors, as Jonathan Garrick secured second team acclaim and Cole Madey was recognized on the All-Freshman Team. In addition, Garrick secured All-Region honors after having led the Bruins in scoring average (72.0), with 15 of his 34 rounds being under par. He had five top 10s, including a win at the Erin Hills Intercollegiate (Oct. 4-6). Madey came on strong at the end of his freshman campaign, recording a pair of top 21 finishes in his last two events.

WOMEN'S GOLF

Conference Finish:	2nd
NCAA Championships Finish:	t-3rd
Final Ranking:	No. 1

An outstanding year ended with a plethora of postseason honors for the women's golf team. Bronte Law won the ANNIE Award and earned Player of the Year honors from PING WGCA, Golfweek and the Pac-12. She was a two-time first-team All-America selection, winning three times during the season (Stanford Intercollegiate, PING/ASU Invitational, NCAA Bryan Regional). Lilia Vu secured Pac-12 Freshman of the Year acclaim and earned a pair of first-team All-America awards (WGCA, Golfweek). Newcomer Bethany Wu was named a two-time honorable mention All-American. The Bruins won four stroke-play events, including the NCAA Championships, the Bruin Wave Invitational, the PING/ASU and the Nanea Pac-12 Preview.

The Bruins advanced to the NCAA Regional Semifinals for the second straight season and posted seven victories over ranked teams. UCLA earned a Thanksgiving-eve win at top-ranked USC on Nov. 25, as the Bruins bested the Trojans in five sets. The most dramatic victory of the year came on Dec. 5 in a second round contest of the NCAA Tournament against Michigan. UCLA battled back from down two sets to none and won the match in five. Taylor Formico was named the Pac-12 Libero of the Year and secured third-team AVCA All-America acclaim. Jordan Anderson and Claire Felix were named honorable mention All-America selections.

MEN'S WATER POLO

Overall Record:	30-0
MPSF Record:	9-0
MPSF Finish:	1st
Final Ranking:	No. 1

The Bruins won their second consecutive NCAA Championship and finished with their first undefeated season since 1969 (the fourth undefeated season in NCAA men's water polo history). UCLA defeated USC in the NCAA title game, 10-7, posting a perfect 4-0 record against the Trojans. Under the leadership of seventh-year head coach Adam Wright, the Bruins captured their 10th NCAA men's water polo title and the school's 113th team championship. Junior goalkeeper Garrett Danner became the second UCLA player and the second-ever goalie in collegiate men's water polo history to win the Cutino Award. He became UCLA's first Cutino Award winner since Sean Kern, who won the award in 1998 and 1999.

WOMEN'S WATER POLO

Overall Record:	26-5
MPSF Record:	5-1
MPSF Finish:	2nd
Final Ranking:	No. 3

UCLA finished third in the NCAA Tournament after defeating Michigan, 5-4, in the third-place game. The Bruins also finished third in the MPSF Tournament after posting a second-place regular-season finish in the conference standings. Junior Mackenzie Barr secured first-team All-America honors and was also a first-team All-MPSF and All-NCAA Tournament selection. Senior India Forster and junior Alexa Tielmann captured second-team All-MPSF acclaim. Freshman Lizette Rozeboom was selected to the MPSF All-Newcomer team.

BRUINS IN THE COMMUNITY

UCLA's student-athletes volunteered over 3,000 hours in community outreach events during the 2015-16 academic year. UCLA Athletics hosted over 20 events on campus and attended several events throughout the Los Angeles area. These service opportunities allow UCLA's student-athletes the chance to mentor youth, give back to the community and serve as ambassadors for UCLA Athletics. Some student-athletes have also created, initiated and implemented service projects and activities with assistance and support from the Bruin Athletic Council.

Examples of the past year's events include:

- Dribble for the Cure
- Weekly visits to Mattel Children's Hospital
- Mattel Children's Hospital Halloween Party
- Mattel Children's Hospital Teen Adventure Program
- Mattel Children's Hospital Bruin Run/Walk
- Team Prime Time
- Prime Time Games: Championship Saturday
- 'I'm Going to College' Program
- Lab School Fit Day
- Adopt a Classroom
- Super Bowl Spirit Day at 186th Elementary School
- Bruin for a Day with Emerson Middle School
- Veterans Hospital visits
- Baseball Fantasy Camp with Veterans Hospital
- Bruin Belles at PLAY Day
- Soles for Souls
- Harper for Kids Youth Development Program
- Martin Luther King Day Parade

UCLA's Dribble for the Cure event reached an eight-year $1 million total donation mark in October 2015.

Dribble for the Cure

UCLA hosted the eighth annual Dribble for the Cure at Drake Stadium and Collins Court. Over 650 participants set a donation record with net revenue of $186,700. The men's and women's basketball teams led participants on a dribble tour as they dribbled basketballs and walked around a course through UCLA's campus. Dribble for the Cure has grown every year with a eight-year event total of more than 5,225 participants contributing over $1 million to benefit the Pediatric Research Foundation (PCRF) and the Cancer Research Program at Mattel Children's Hospital UCLA.

Mattel Children's Hospital

Throughout the year, several Bruin student-athletes visited playrooms at Mattel Children's Hospital on a weekly basis to spend time with the patients and their families. They are often asked to make special visits to patients who are not able to leave their rooms. Student-athletes also volunteered their time with Mattel's Teen Adventure Program and the annual Halloween "Trick or Treat" event for patients at the hospital.

Team Prime Time

Student-athletes volunteered their time with Team Prime Time (TPT), an after-school program for at-risk children from low-income areas of Los Angeles that combines academics, athletics, leadership training and the arts in order to prepare them for the future and allow them to reach their full potential. During past seasons, head football coach Jim Mora and the entire UCLA football team has taken time from its bowl game preparation to visit Team Prime Time at Webster Middle School in Los Angeles. Over 50 elementary and middle school students enrolled in Team Prime Time's Sports Camp spent the afternoon participating in interactive activities with members of the football team. The Bruins taught students UCLA's 8-clap cheer, handed out posters and signed autographs for the participants.

Prime Time Games: Championship Saturday

For the past seven years, student-athletes have participated in Team Prime Time's fully inclusive sports program, the Prime Time Games. The peer-mentor sports program helps economically disadvantaged and under-served middle school students from Team Prime Time's after school program ("coaches") coach and play alongside children with developmental disabilities ("athletes") in the only after-school sports program of its kind. Over 100 student-athletes volunteered at the fifth annual event on May 30, 2015, hosted on UCLA's campus. UCLA student-athletes served as honorary coaches, captains and officials for the inclusive soccer and basketball games. Participants were awarded medals and received high-fives and autographs from the Bruins.

Baseball Camp with Veterans

This year, the UCLA baseball program hosted a Fantasy Camp for residents of the West Los Angeles Veterans Home on Jackie Robinson Day. The team offered hitting and fielding instruction to military veterans and hosted a barbeque at the team's home field on April 11, four days prior to a date celebrated nationwide as Jackie Robinson Day in honor of UCLA's legendary alumnus.

186th Street Elementary School

For the ninth year, members of the UCLA football team visited 186th Elementary School to participate in their annual Super Bowl School Spirit Day to celebrate the students' commitment to academic excellence. The student-athletes visited classrooms and participated in an after-school assembly that promoted the importance of citizenship, scholarship and sportsmanship. They encouraged the students to strive for excellence, respect their teachers, do their homework and work hard to achieve their goals and dreams.

Bruin for a Day

Members of the Bruin Athletic Council (BAC) and their teammates hosted over 50 students from Emerson Middle School to experience being a "Bruin for a Day." Student-athletes coordinated a day of presentations, group discussions, interactive activities, a campus tour and lunch in the dining hall for students. The student-athletes taught them about the Pyramid of Success and gave the students tips on academic success, time management, hard work and leadership.

'I'm Going to College'

Over 47,000 students from the Los Angeles Unified School District participated in this year's "I'm Going to College" program. This unique program brings youngsters, from kindergarten through the 12th grade, to UCLA events and couples the excitement and tradition of UCLA Athletics with a message about the importance of higher education. Upon arrival at the event, students are greeted by a UCLA alumnus, current students or student-athlete volunteers and are led to the IGTC fair area. Students are immediately immersed in Bruin traditions, as they learn the spirited UCLA 8-clap and receive educational information about questions they may have regarding education and preparing for college.

Adopt a Classroom Program

The Adopt a Classroom pen pal program paired several Bruin teams with elementary and middle school classrooms across the Los Angeles Unified School District. The student-athletes exchanged letters with students throughout the year, and the classrooms were invited to attend a home event to meet their Bruin pen pals. The Adopt a Classroom program stresses the importance of both education and athletics and aims to motivate students to work toward their goals in school and in life.

Harper for Kids Program

The Harper for Kids Youth Development Program is based upon former UCLA basketball coach John Wooden's "Pyramid of Success," striving to teach youngsters how to achieve their personal best in life. UCLA's student-athletes are able to interact with youngsters and talk to them about how their athletic opportunities are vehicles to heighten personal development and how the benefits of athletic participation can greatly help one's personal growth.

WOODEN ACADEMY

The Wooden Academy is a leadership development program that educates and supports Bruin student-athletes. Named after legendary Coach John Wooden, this program teaches the principles of his Pyramid of Success. These skills assist student-athletes in their pursuit to be successful leaders and teammates at UCLA and beyond. Student-athletes have the opportunity to participate in the Wooden Academy each year by attending seminars to learn practical leadership lessons from coaches, administrators and Bruin alumni.

UCLA's featured speaker at the Wooden Academy was Jill Ellis, head coach of the U.S. women's soccer team and the former head coach of the UCLA women's soccer team. Named the eighth head coach in U.S. Women's National Team history, Ellis helped lead the United States to the championship of the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup. That team won six games, including five by shutout, while tying Sweden in group play and allowing just three total goals. She served as head coach at UCLA for 12 seasons, helping the Bruins advance to eight Final Fours, including seven in a row from 2003-09.

UCLA's SCHOLAR-ATHLETE BANQUET

Each spring, approximately 200 student-athletes with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher are invited to the Scholar-Athlete Banquet. Made possible by a donation from Rose Gilbert, the event features distinguished guests and allows UCLA to honor its most academically accomplished student-athletes. In past years, the banquet has featured notable alumni speakers return to campus, inspiring the athletic department's student-athletes to succeed in the classroom and use their education for great endeavors.

UCLA's STUDENT-ATHLETE GRADUATION

For the fifth consecutive year, UCLA's Athletic Department hosted a student-athlete graduation ceremony at the conclusion of the school year. UCLA had 116 student-athletes participate in the Class of 2016 graduation celebration. UCLA welcomed the graduates and their families to a special ceremony in Pauley Pavilion the evening of Thursday, June 9, 2016.

The list of 116 graduates included student-athletes who graduated in Fall 2015 and Winter 2016 and who were projected to graduate in Spring 2016, Summer 2016 and Fall 2016. Sean Davis of the men's cross country and track and field teams and Belden Long of the women's soccer team served as the student-athlete graduation speakers.

Academic award-winners were recognized during the ceremony. Receiving Pac-12 postgraduate scholarships were Rachel Inouye (women's volleyball and beach volleyball) and Pat Gallagher (baseball). Sean Davis (men's cross country and track and field) and Arlyn Upshaw (swimming and diving) were honored as Scholar-Athletes of the Year. Danusia Francis (gymnastics) and Daniel McClintick (men's water polo) were the 2016 Tom Hansen Pac-12 Medal Winners. This award is annually presented to the outstanding senior male and female student-athletes from each Pac-12 institution that exhibits the greatest combination of performance and achievement in scholarship, athletics and leadership.

2015-16 AWARD WINNERS

UCLA's Athletic Department had 303 student-athletes on the Athletic Director's Honor Roll in the fall 2015 quarter (3.0 or higher quarterly GPA), 310 in the winter 2016 quarter and 316 in the spring 2016 quarter. In the fall quarter, 101 student-athletes earned a 3.5 GPA or better, with seven securing a perfect 4.0. In the winter quarter, 101 student-athletes achieved a 3.5 GPA or better, with 15 earning a perfect 4.0. In the spring quarter, 150 student-athletes recorded a 3.5 GPA or higher, with 27 notching a perfect 4.0.

Construction Continues With UCLA's Wasserman Football Center, Mo Ostin Basketball Center

Construction ramped up during the 2015-16 school year on the Wasserman Football Center and Mo Ostin Basketball Center, following a groundbreaking ceremony the afternoon of Aug. 27, 2015.

UCLA hosted a topping out ceremony for the Wasserman Football Center on May 17 2016. The Bruins' state-of-the-art football facility, scheduled for completion in the fall of 2017, will be located along the west side of Spaulding Field and will boast approximately 75,000 gross square-feet of space.

Designed by award-winning architectural, planning and interior design firm ZGF Architects LLP, the Wasserman Football Center will house a locker room, athletic training area, strength and conditioning facility, coaches' offices, team meetings rooms, equipment rooms and video rooms, in addition to several elements that will feature the storied history of UCLA Football.

The comprehensive Mo Ostin Basketball Center, with approximately 35,000 gross square-feet of space, will be located near Pauley Pavilion on the south end of the Los Angeles Tennis Center. Designed by award-winning architectural design firm Kevin Daly Architects, in partnership with globally acclaimed high-performance design firm AECOM, the Mo Ostin Basketball Center will include locker rooms, athletic training areas, a strength and conditioning facility, team meeting rooms, equipment rooms and video rooms.

Both projects and their campaigns to raise private funds are part of the $4.2 billion campus-wide UCLA Centennial Campaign. The UCLA Athletic Department aims to surpass its $260 million goal by 2019, securing more than $160 million since the campaign was announced in May of 2014. The Wasserman Football Center and Mo Ostin Basketball Center directly address the Department's primary Centennial Campaign objective: to create a financially sustainable future to build upon UCLA's standing as the premier intercollegiate athletics program in the nation.

Practice Facility's Court to be Named After Westbrook

UCLA honored Russell Westbrook during a home men's basketball game against Arizona on Jan. 7, 2016. Westbrook, who starred at UCLA from 2006-08, provided a significant financial contribution toward the Mo Ostin Basketball Center – the largest such gift by a former basketball student-athlete in school history. In honor of his gift, the men's basketball practice floor inside the program's new state-of-the-art facility will be known as Russell Westbrook Court.

During the halftime ceremony of UCLA's 87-84 win over Arizona, Westbrook addressed fans in Pauley Pavilion before leading a memorable "8-Clap" cheer. Westbrook, along with his wife Nina (Earl) Westbrook – a former UCLA women's basketball student-athlete – and his parents Russell and Shannon Westbrook were sitting courtside that evening.

Easton Stadium Secures New Scoreboard

In April 2016, UCLA announced a generous commitment of $2 million from longtime university benefactors Jim and Phyllis Easton. The financial contribution was used to provide a new state-of-the-art scoreboard to Easton Stadium as well as other support improvements. In appreciation of the Eastons' generosity, the new scoreboard prominently displays the Easton name.

Jim Easton, a UCLA graduate with a degree in engineering, and his wife, Phyllis, have been generous supporters of UCLA Athletics and entities across the university for many years, including the David Geffen School of Medicine, UCLA Anderson School of Management, and the Henry Samueli School of Engineering and Applied Science.

Mack Linnea, swimming and diving

Members of the Wooden Athletic Fund, the general fund for UCLA Athletics, provide invaluable support for all 700 UCLA student-athletes. To earn how you can invest in tomorrow's champions today, please visit our website woodenathleticfund.com or call 310-206-3302.

Eight Former UCLA Standouts Inducted into UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame

Annett Buckner Davis (women's volleyball), Danny Farmer (football, men's volleyball), Billy Martin (men's tennis), Paul Nihipali (men's volleyball), Jan Palchikoff (women's rowing, swimming and diving), Janice Parks (softball), Eric Valent (baseball) and Richard Washington (men's basketball) entered the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in the Class of 2015.

Annett Buckner Davis

Women's Volleyball, 1991-94

Annett Buckner Davis was an impact player from day one for the women's volleyball team, earning Pac-10 Freshman of the Year honors and helping lead the Bruins to the 1991 NCAA Championship with a nine-kill, nine-dig performance in the title match. She earned first-team All-America honors in 1993 and 1994 and was the 1994 Pac-10 Player of the Year. In her career as a four-year starter at outside hitter, she recorded 1,630 kills, 1,047 digs and 117 service aces. Buckner Davis ranks fourth in UCLA history in kills per set, fifth in points per set, eighth in points, ninth in kills and block solos, 14th in aces and 18th in digs. Following her UCLA career, she played with the U.S. Indoor National Team then moved to the beach, where she formed a successful partnership with former UCLA teammate Jenny Johnson Jordan. The Bruin duo won 13 tournaments and was the winningest U.S. men's or women's pro beach volleyball team in 1999. Buckner Davis and Johnson Jordan placed fifth at the 2000 Olympics.

Danny Farmer

Football, Men's Volleyball 1996-99

A two-sport star, Danny Farmer excelled on both the gridiron and the volleyball court. He started his career as a walk-on on the scout team for football and finished as UCLA's all-time leader in receiving yards with 3,020. Farmer became the first freshman in school history to lead the team in receptions, and he earned honorable mention All-Pac-10 honors as a sophomore in 1997. During his junior year in 1998, he earned first-team All-Pac-10 acclaim after setting a school record with 1,274 receiving yards and averaging 106.2 yards per game. During his senior season, he was named a preseason All-American and a UCLA team captain and won the Red Sanders Award as the team's Offensive MVP. He also earned a NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and won the Pac-10 Conference Medal. Farmer was drafted in the fourth round of the 2000 NFL Draft and played three seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals. Farmer was just as prodigious in volleyball, helping lead UCLA to NCAA Championships in 1996 and 1998 and earning All-America honors in 1999. He played a big role in UCLA's 1998 NCAA semifinal victory, coming off the bench to ignite a 19-point rally that turned the match around and finishing with a season-high 26 kills and four blocks. During his senior season, he was amongst the nation's leaders in attack percentage, hitting .444. Farmer joins his father George, a 2000 inductee, in the Hall of Fame.

Billy Martin

Men's Tennis Player, 1975; Head Coach, 1994-present

Current men's tennis head coach Billy Martin has won NCAA championships as both a player and coach at UCLA. As a freshman in 1975, he won the Pac-10 and NCAA singles titles and led the Bruins to a 19-0 record and the NCAA team title. Martin turned pro after one year at UCLA and went on to win ATP Rookie of the Year honors in 1977. That year, he made it to the quarterfinals of Wimbledon. He reached a career-high ATP singles ranking of No. 32 and was inducted into the ITA Tennis Hall of Fame in 1996, the USTA Midwest Section Hall of Fame in 2010 and the Southern California Tennis Association Hall of Fame in 2011. Martin was named head coach of the Bruins in 1994 after serving as an assistant coach for 10 years, and he has guided UCLA to a 499-106 overall record during his tenure. He led UCLA to a NCAA Championship in 2005 and has four second-place finishes. A four-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year, Martin has led UCLA to 11 conference titles and coached two NCAA singles champions and one NCAA doubles champion.

Paul Nihipali

Men's Volleyball, 1994-97

Four-time All-American Paul Nihipali finished his career as UCLA volleyball's all-time kills leader with 2,096 and is still the only Bruin ever to surpass 2,000 career kills. He also holds school records for most kills in a single match (52) and in a season (650 in 1997), as well as career kills per game (5.40). Nihipali helped lead UCLA to back-to-back NCAA Championships in 1995 and 1996 and to runner-up finishes in 1994 and 1997. He was named to the All-Tournament team at the NCAA Championships from 1995-97 and earned first-team All-MPSF honors three times and first-team All-America acclaim in 1996 and 1997. Nihipali went on to play for the U.S. National Team from 1995-97 before embarking on a film career. He wrote, produced and directed a feature film, Beach Kings, and is currently producing and show running reality television.

Jan Palchikoff

Women's Rowing, 1973-75/Swimming & Diving, 1971-74

One of the true pioneers for women's athletics, Jan Palchikoff was a member of UCLA's rowing program as a club sport in 1973 and as a varsity sport in 1974 and 1975. She also competed on the UCLA swimming team from 1971-74 and competed in the AIAW Swim Nationals in 1971, 1972 and 1974. Palchikoff helped UCLA reach the U.S. Women's Rowing Association National Championships for the first time in 1974. She was a five-time member of the U.S. National Rowing Team, a national champion in double sculls in 1979 and a member of the U.S. Olympic teams in 1976 and 1980, finishing fifth at the Olympics in the double sculls in 1976. In 2014, she established a masters' hour world record for her age group in track cycling. While she had great success as a competitor, perhaps her greatest contributions came off the playing surface. One of the founding members of the Union of Women Athletes, she was a strong advocate for Title IX and served as a student representative on the Chancellor's Advisory Council on the Status of Women and on the UC Athletic Advisory Board. Since 2004, she has served as the Senior Vice President and Chief Program Officer for Special Olympics Southern California.

Janice Parks

Softball, 1986-89

The 1989 Honda Award winner for softball, Janice Parks led UCLA to NCAA championships in 1988 and 1989 and was a three-time first-team All-American. She led UCLA in RBI every year she played and was the team's leader in batting average, runs scored, hits, doubles and triples in 1989. She finished her career with a .352 batting average with 11 home runs, 136 RBI and 104 runs scored and still holds the school record for triples with 21. A four-time all-conference and three-time all-region honoree, Parks was named to the NCAA All-Decade Team for the 1980s and received the Pac-10 Conference Medal in 1989. She continued to play internationally following her graduation and represented Puerto Rico in the 1996 Olympic Games. Parks recently became the first female athlete ever to have her jersey retired at Mayfair High School.

Eric Valent

Baseball, 1996-98

Eric Valent was one of the most productive baseball players in UCLA history, finishing a three-year career as the Pac-10's career home run leader with 69, a record he still holds. He also continues to hold UCLA's career RBI record with 219, as well as the school's single-season mark with 91 in 1997. Valent helped lead UCLA to the College World Series in 1997 with a six-HR performance at the NCAA Regional, where he was named the MVP. Also that year, he hit for the cycle against USC. In 1998, he earned Pac-10 Player of the Year honors and first-team All-America acclaim from four publications after leading the team with 30 home runs and batting .336. UCLA's starting center fielder for three seasons, he was a Freshman All-American in 1996 and ranked third on the team in home runs and RBI. Valent was selected as the 42nd overall pick in the first round of the 1998 MLB Draft and played for five seasons in the big leagues. He is currently an East Coast Supervising Scout for the Philadelphia Phillies.

Richard Washington

Men's Basketball, 1974-76

The Most Outstanding Player of the 1975 NCAA Tournament, Richard Washington averaged 14.2 points and 6.7 rebounds per game as a Bruin and currently ranks No. 35 on UCLA's all-time scoring list with 1,245 career points. A two-year starter and 1976 team co-captain, he earned consensus first-team All-America and first-team All-Pac-10 honors as a junior after leading the team in scoring with a 20.1 points per game average, scoring in double figures in 30 of UCLA's 32 games and 20 points in 17 games. During UCLA's 1975 Championship season, he led the Bruins in field goal percentage, shooting at a 57.8% clip. Washington was selected as the No. 3 overall pick in the 1976 NBA Draft by the Kansas City Kings and enjoyed a seven-year NBA career, playing in 351 career games and averaging 9.8 points and 6.3 rebounds per game.

UCLA's corporate sponsorships are administered by IMG, a global leader in sports, events, media and fashion, operating in more than 25 countries. The company manages some of the world's greatest sports figures and fashion icons; stages thousands of live events and branded entertainment experiences annually; and is the world's largest independent producer and distributor of sports media.

IMG also specializes in sports training, league development and marketing, media and licensing for brands, sports organizations and collegiate institutions. In 2014, IMG was acquired by WME, the world's leading entertainment agency to form WME | IMG.

Since partnering with UCLA in 2004-05, IMG has tripled the amount of corporate support for the program. IMG helps provide greater opportunities for UCLA student-athletes by generating vital revenue to help fund the department's overall program.
