2016-17 ANNUAL REPORT

Dear Bruins,

Our department enjoyed an exciting and memorable year both on and off the field of competition in 2016-17. Ten of our athletic teams finished among the Top 10, nationally. Of even greater significance, 126 of our student-athletes earned their degrees from this university in June and officially embarked upon the next chapter of their lives.

Throughout the 2016-17 academic year, student-athletes earned Director's Honor Roll accolades (3.0 GPA or higher) more than 980 times. In addition, our Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and Academic Progress Report (APR) numbers remained high across the board and among the best in the nation. UCLA's overall GSR of 86% stands two percentage points higher than the national average of 84%. Our football team compiled the second-highest GSR among Pac-12 schools with 88% (the national average for FBS schools is 74%).

In addition, six of our teams – men's water polo, women's basketball, women's golf, softball, women's tennis and women's volleyball – had a GSR of 100 percent. Sixteen of our 20 sports programs had a GSR of 80 percent or higher. I've said it before and I'll say it again – our student-athletes not only meet these expectations, but they almost always exceed them. It's a testament to their work ethic and to the support they receive from their academic advisors, tutors, coaches, family members and fellow teammates.

Across the board, from our fall season through the spring, we had multiple teams excelling at the highest levels. Seven teams finished among the nation's Top 5. Our women's water polo team finished second, the men's water polo team tied for a third-place finish, our gymnastics team was fourth, and four teams – beach volleyball, softball, men's tennis and women's volleyball – registered fifth-place finishes. Our women's golf, men's tennis and women's water polo teams all won conference championships.

In addition, it was a very exciting year for our men's and women's basketball teams. These two teams both advanced to the Sweet 16 and achieved simultaneous Top 10 national rankings for the first time since 1999. Pauley Pavilion most definitely had a buzz. The men's basketball team raced to a 13-0 start, ascending to as high as No. 2 in the national polls. Our women's basketball program hosted the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the second- straight year.

As a department, we always pride ourselves on team accomplishments, but it's absolutely worth noting several outstanding individual efforts by our hard-working student-athletes. Our department had five student-athletes who, going into the fall of 2016, had already won Olympic medals – gymnasts Madison Kocian and Kyla Ross, women's water polo players Rachel Fattal and Maddie Musselman, and women's soccer player Jessie Fleming (representing Canada). All five captured All-America honors by the end of their respective seasons. We watched Ross capture the NCAA balance beam championship and a share of the uneven bars title in a tie for first place. Additionally, freshman basketball standout Lonzo Ball was one of five finalists for the John R. Wooden Award, as his pass-first style helped him break the school's single-season assists record. We will certainly be keeping our eyes on Lonzo this fall as he makes his NBA debut for the hometown Los Angeles Lakers.

Off our fields and away from the courts, our department was proud to celebrate the grand opening of the Wasserman Football Center and the impending opening of the Mo Ostin Basketball Center this fall. UCLA broke ground on both training facilities in August 2015 and it looks like both state-of-the-art buildings will have been completed on schedule. These are much-needed practice facilities for our football, men's basketball and women's basketball teams, and I know that the coaches and student-athletes of these teams are incredibly grateful to be moving into these buildings.

In addition, our department has been going through a highly-anticipated transition to our record-breaking partnership with Under Armour, which officially began on July 1, 2017. This partnership launch and the subsequent rollout of our new branding initiative has been visible on our website, as well as on our social media channels – including Twitter, Facebook and Instagram. UCLA Athletics enjoyed an 18-year relationship with Adidas, which served as a tremendous, strong and productive apparel partner for our department. I'd be remiss if I did not thank our friends at Adidas for all of their efforts and first-class support of UCLA.

Moving forward, we expect the resources provided through our 15-year contract with Under Armour will allow us to "Go Beyond Great" and sustain and enhance many opportunities that we provide to our student-athletes in all aspects of the department. We're thrilled to partner with a company that shares our values and vision, and understands not only where we've been and where we are now, but also where we are going in the future.

While we are so proud of our department's 113 NCAA championships and countless academic and athletic accolades, we, like Under Armour, are "just getting started." As we look ahead to the 2017-18 school year, we're anticipating another year with the boundless optimism that's so indicative of this great university. The tradition and excellence of UCLA endures, and your continued support is invaluable to our department. I look forward to seeing you at our athletic events in the coming year and thank you for supporting the hard work and efforts of our student-athletes and coaches.

Go Bruins!

SWEET 16-BOUND BRUINS!

Men's Basketball Posts 31-5 Record

After opening the season with a 13-0 mark, the Bruins soared in the rankings and advanced to the Sweet 16 for the third time in four seasons

The dynamic freshmen duo of Lonzo Ball and TJ Leaf and the senior leadership of Bryce Alford and Isaac Hamilton helped UCLA establish one of college basketball's most high-octane offense in recent history.

The Bruins' early-season success was punctuated with a 97-92 victory at No. 1-ranked Kentucky on Dec. 3, 2016, UCLA's first-ever game at the Wildcats' Rupp Arena. That win helped UCLA secure a spot in the national spotlight as the Bruins jumped to the No. 2 slot in the top-25 rankings.

Alford established UCLA's single-season and career records for most three-pointers made, while Ball set the UCLA single-season mark (and finished No. 2 in the Pac-12 single-season record book) with 274 assists. By season's end, Ball led the nation in assists per game (7.6) and total assists.

The Bruins entered March with a flawless 7-0 February record, winning 10 consecutive games down the stretch before the Pac-12 Tournament semifinals.

Convincing wins over No. 14-seed Kent State and No. 6-seed Cincinnati during the first weekend of the NCAA Tournament propelled UCLA into a rematch with Kentucky in the Sweet 16. The Bruins came up short in their third Sweet 16 contest in the last four seasons, dropping an 86-75 decision to the Wildcats.

Aaron Holiday played a major role as the nation's most efficient "sixth man," while Thomas Welsh continued to establish his trademark 15-foot jump shot. Both Holiday and Welsh averaged in double-figure scoring.

Freshman Ike Anigbogu provided a valuable boost off the bench, particularly as a much-needed rim protector. Anigbogu finished the season with 35 blocks in 29 games, averaging 13.0 minutes per contest.

UCLA became one of just six teams to have earned its third trip to the Sweet 16 in four years (along with Arizona, Gonzaga, Kentucky, North Carolina and Wisconsin). The Bruins ended the year with a 15-4 record away from home, including key road wins at No. 1-ranked Kentucky in early December and No. 4-ranked Arizona in late February.

Women's Basketball Advances to Second Consecutive Sweet 16

The Bruins posted a perfect 16-0 home record and returned to the Sweet 16

The tandem of juniors Jordin Canada and Monique Billings along with the hot shooting of senior Kari Korver helped the Bruins earn back-to-back Sweet 16 appearances for the first time in program history. UCLA went 11-2 in non-conference play and compiled a 16-0 mark at home (the Bruins will enter 2017-18 with a 29-game home winning streak).

The Bruins' 16-0 home record set a school record, while UCLA's 29-game home winning streak is the second-longest active streak in the nation (behind Connecticut).

UCLA's biggest win of the year came at Stanford in Pac-12 play, as then-No. 15 UCLA took down No. 8 Stanford, 85-76, on Feb. 6. Canada scored 25 points, Billings had 21 points and 15 rebounds, and Korver totaled 17 points.

Strong play down the stretch, which included home wins over Oregon, Oregon State and Washington (all NCAA Tournament teams) helped the Bruins secure an NCAA Tournament berth and the right to host the first and second rounds. The Bruins opened with an 83-56 win over Boise State, following that effort with a 75-43 win over Texas A&M. UCLA led Connecticut at halftime, 41-38, in a Sweet 16 matchup before falling to the Huskies, 86-71.

Korver tied UCLA's career record for most three-pointers made (256) and was second in three-pointers attempted (691) and free throw percentage (.816). Billings set the UCLA single-season record for free throw attempts (242), tied the mark in makes (154) and set the record for blocks (66). Her 357 rebounds were second on UCLA's single-season list, just three behind Denise Curry's mark of 360 in 1980-81.

Canada became just the sixth Bruin all-time to record 100 or more assists in three straight seasons while leading the Pac-12 in assists (7.1 apg) and setting UCLA single-season records for assists (242) and assists per game. She also led the conference in assist-turnover ratio (2.66) and steals per game (2.5).

The Bruins' final ranking of No. 13 in the USA Today Coaches Poll was the highest final mark in program history.

Four Bruins Selected in NBA Draft

Four former UCLA basketball players – Lonzo Ball, TJ Leaf, Ike Anigbogu and Jonah Bolden – were selected in the 2017 NBA Draft on June 22, 2017, hosted at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Ball and Leaf, freshmen at UCLA in 2016-17, were each selected in the first round. Ball was chosen No. 2 overall by the Los Angeles Lakers, while Leaf was taken No. 18 by the Indiana Pacers. Ball became the highest selection by any UCLA player in the draft since 1979 (David Greenwood, No. 2 to the Chicago Bulls).

Bolden, who spent his first two collegiate seasons with UCLA before playing in Serbia during the 2016-

17 school year, was taken No. 36 overall by the Philadelphia 76ers in the second round.

Anigbogu, a freshman who excelled off the bench in 2016-17, rounded out the group of four Bruins as the No. 47 overall selection by the Indiana Pacers in the second round.

UCLA has produced 118 all-time NBA Draft picks, including nine selections in four seasons under head coach Steve Alford, who will enter his fifth year as UCLA's head coach in 2017-18. The Bruins have had at least one player chosen in 18 of the last 21 NBA Drafts (spanning 1997 through 2017).

Softball Earns Third Consecutive Trip to Women's College World Series

For the third straight year, UCLA's softball team had quite the memorable run in advancing to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla. The Bruins swept three consecutive games at home in the NCAA Los Angeles Regional before hosting No. 12-seed Ole Miss the following weekend at Easton Stadium.

Down to their final strike on multiple occasions in Game 1, the Bruins tied the game in the seventh and 10th innings before winning the contest, 8-7, in the 11th, thanks to Madeline Jelenicki's run-scoring walk-off single. Rachel Garcia struck out a career-high 12 batters in 11 innings after Ole Miss had overcome a 4-0 deficit with a five-run sixth inning.

Behind strong pitching performances from Selina Ta'amilo and Garcia in Game 2, the Bruins punched their ticket to Oklahoma City with a 1-0 victory.

UCLA made its 27th appearance in the Women's College World Series (33rd overall trip to the NCAA Tournament). The Bruins fell short in Game 1 in Oklahoma City, dropping a 2-1 decision to LSU. Two days later, the Bruins outlasted Texas A&M in an elimination game, 8-2. Kylee Perez and Brianna Tautalafua each had three hits, while Garcia limited the Aggies to one run through six innings in the circle. Later that day, UCLA lost to No. 6-seed Washington, 1-0, ending the team's season.

Women's Golf Program Secures Pac-12 Title

Bruins earned their first conference title since 2006.

The women's golf team captured its first Pac-12 Conference Championship since 2006, securing its sixth conference title in 2017. The Bruins entered the tournament ranked No. 3, nationally, as sophomore Lilia Vu won her unprecedented fourth tournament in a row to claim medalist honors.

UCLA concluded this year's conference tournament as the only team in red figures at 2-under (862). The Bruins were one of two teams to go on par on the final day of the three-day, 54-hole event at the Sewailo Golf Club in Tucson, Ariz., shooting a 1-under (287). UCLA was 21 shots clear of second-place Colorado, notching the program's fourth tournament victory of the season.

Vu became the first golfer to win four consecutive tournaments, defeating the field by six shots with a three-round total of 209 (-7). The sophomore was even par (72) on the tournament's final day, making three birdies (on holes five, eight and 15) and three bogeys. Vu became the fifth Bruin golfer to take home medalist honors at the conference championships. Freshman Mariel Galdiano gave the Bruins a 1-2 finish, as she was the only other player under par for the tournament at 1-under (215).

The Bruins finished eighth at the NCAA Lubbock Regional, with Vu closing as UCLA's top finisher at The Rawls Course (Lubbock, Texas). UCLA posted a final-round score of 1-over (289) to finish with a three-round total of 881 (+17). The Bruins closed their 2017 spring campaign ranked No. 5 in the country.

Five UCLA Players Chosen in 2017 NFL Draft

Takkarist McKinley was selected No. 26 overall by the Atlanta Falcons

Defensive end Takkarist McKinley headlined a group of five Bruins who were selected in the 2017 NFL Draft. The No. 26 overall pick in the first round by the Atlanta Falcons, McKinley became the fourth Bruin in the past five seasons to be chosen in the first round.

UCLA's 25 total players selected in the last five drafts is the most of any Pac-12 program during that stretch. Defensive back Fabian Moreau and defensive lineman Eddie Vanderdoes were each taken in the third round of the draft by the Washington Redskins and Oakland Raiders, respectively. Linebacker Jayon Brown was chosen in the fifth round by the Tennessee Titans, while offensive lineman Conor McDermott was taken in the sixth round by the defending NFL Champion New England Patriots.

McKinley's selection marked the fifth straight year in which UCLA had a defensive lineman taken in the draft – joining a group that includes Datone Jones (2013), Cassius Marsh (2014), Owa Odighizuwaw (2015) and Kenny Clark (2016). As a junior in 2016, McKinley earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors after having ranked 10th in the nation in tackles for loss per game. His 18 total tackles for loss in 2016 tied for No. 11 on the school's all-time single-season record list. He had a streak of eight consecutive games with at least one tackle for loss and concluded his UCLA tenure with a career-best 11-tackle effort at California.

Moreau, a senior in 2016, had captured honorable mention All-Pac-12 acclaim as both a sophomore and senior. He was part of a Bruins' secondary unit that surrendered a conference-low 12 scoring passes during the season. Vanderdoes also secured honorable mention All-Pac-12 accolades during his senior year. He concluded his UCLA career having made 33 career starts along the Bruins' defensive front.

Men's Water Polo Makes History With 57-Game Winning Streak

After having won the 2014 and 2015 NCAA Championships, the UCLA men's water polo team made history by securing its 52nd consecutive win with a 15-8 non-conference victory at UC Davis on Oct. 9, 2016. The streak continued to 57 games, snapped by an 8-7 loss in a regular-season meeting at USC on Nov. 12, 2016.

The Bruins' streak began late during the 2014 season. Following a 5-3 loss to Long Beach State in that season's MPSF Tournament, UCLA began its win streak with three straight NCAA Tournament victories to capture its first NCAA men's water polo title since 2004. UCLA kept on rolling in 2015, winning every game that season en route to the program's second consecutive NCAA title (30-0 overall record in 2015).

The Bruins' win at UC Davis in October 2016 helped UCLA rewrite the NCAA's record book, eclipsing Stanford's 51-game win streak set from 1985-87. In addition, the team's record-clinching win at UC Davis marked career victory No. 200 for Bruins' head coach Adam Wright.

Drake Stadium Continues to Undergo Renovations

UCLA honors its track and field history with Sherie and Don Morrison Plaza

UCLA's Drake Stadium underwent the third phase of its renovation project, with "Sherie and Don Morrison Plaza" being dedicated on April 29, 2017.

The latest renovation pays tribute to former track and field coach Ducky Drake, as well as the storied history of the Bruins' track and field program. The updated plaza features an entryway with a magnificent bronze statue of Coach Drake and bronze relief plaques at the entrance to the facility. The newly-installed relief plaques highlight the accomplishments of Coach Drake, Rafer Johnson and Jackie Joyner-Kersey.

"This is an unbelievable moment for me, to be standing in Drake Stadium where all around us are memories of athletes who have made this university and who have shared in some of those great moments," Johnson said at the dedication ceremony. "This means a great deal to me."

A wall of honor featuring UCLA's 40-plus Olympic gold medalists, world champions and world record-holders stands near a timeline of the legacy of UCLA Track and Field.

Drake Stadium's most recent renovations not only have brought validation and recognition to the track and field program's accomplishments, but also will impact current and future student-athletes.

"I've traveled the world, and all I can talk about is UCLA," Joyner-Kersey said at the recent dedication ceremony. "So now when people come out to Drake Stadium, they will be able to read the rich history of UCLA and what UCLA has to offer on many levels. UCLA, you have made my dreams come true by my just being a student-athlete."

The facility's first two renovation phases included the resurfacing of the track with a new, blue "Mondo" track and the installation of a new state-of-the-art video scoreboard.

Women's Water Polo Captures MPSF Titles

Bruins (24-2) won MPSF regular-season, tournament championships

The women's water polo program compiled a 24-2 overall record and a 6-0 mark in MPSF regular-season action, winning the MPSF Tournament championship for the fourth time in the last eight seasons.

UCLA dropped just one game during the regular season before cruising into the MPSF Tournament as the conference's No. 1 seed, sporting an overall record of 20-1. The Bruins overcame two second-half deficits against No. 5-seed California in a semifinal matchup, as Bronte Halligan slammed home the game-winning goal with 2:35 to play in the fourth quarter in UCLA's 9-8 victory.

Playing before a home crowd at UCLA's Speiker Aquatics Center, the Bruins defeated No. 2-seed Stanford, 6-3, after holding the visiting Cardinal scoreless in the second half of the title contest.

In the championship game, Rachel Fattal scored a team-leading three goals and six Bruins accounted for 13 steals. UCLA held Stanford scoreless over the game's final 20 minutes and 47 seconds, while goalkeeper Carlee Kapana recorded four of her six saves in the final quarter.

UCLA outscored Stanford by a 3-0 margin in the second half, after both teams entered intermission deadlocked at 3-3. Fattal's goal with 4:06 to play in the third quarter put the Bruins ahead, 4-3. Alexa Tielmann scored on a 6-on-5 advantage just shy of the quarter's final minute to give UCLA a 5-3 advantage.

The Bruins advanced to the NCAA Tournament's championship game for the 14th time in program history after victories over Wagner (first round) and California (semifinals). Stanford captured the NCAA Championship with an 8-7 win over UCLA in Indianapolis.

Olympic Gold Medalists Make History for UCLA Gymnastics

Freshman Kyla Ross won the NCAA balance beam championship and a share of the uneven bars title

UCLA freshmen Madison Kocian and Kyla Ross made history in 2017 when they became the first Olympic gold medalists ever to compete in NCAA Women's Gymnastics. Kocian, a two-time medalist in Rio in 2016 (team gold, uneven bars silver), and Ross, a medalist in London in 2012 (team gold), made their collegiate debuts in the Bruins' 2017 season opener. Kocian won the all-around and at least a share of first place on three events, and Ross tied for first place on uneven bars.

Ross made history again at the NCAA Championships when she won the NCAA balance beam title and a share of the uneven bars title. Her championships gave her the distinction of being the first female gymnast ever to win Olympic, World Championship and NCAA titles.

Ross and Kocian were part of UCLA's 10.0 brigade, as the Bruins scored 10 perfect 10s in 2017, the most in a season since 2004. Ross led all Bruins with four perfect 10s – two each on uneven bars and balance beam. Her perfect 10 on balance beam to win the Pac-12 Championship was the first-ever perfect 10 at that meet.

Christine Peng-Peng Lee scored three perfect 10s – two on uneven bars and one on balance beam. Katelyn Ohashi scored back-to-back perfect 10s on balance beam on March 5 and March 12, becoming the first Bruin ever to accomplish that feat. Kocian's perfect 10 came on Feb. 11 on the uneven bars, the event on which she was the reigning world champion.

UCLA fans came out in record numbers in 2017. The Bruins set a new school record for average home attendance with 7,568. A new single-meet attendance record was also set when 12,576 fans came to see UCLA defeat California on March 5.

BRUINS IN THE COMMUNITY

UCLA's student-athletes volunteered over 3,000 hours in community outreach events during the 2016-17 academic year. UCLA Athletics hosted over 20 events on campus and attended several events throughout the Los Angeles area. These service opportunities allow student-athletes the chance to mentor youth, give back to their community and serve as ambassadors for UCLA Athletics. Some student-athletes have also created, initiated and implemented service projects and activities with assistance and support from the Bruin Athletic Council.

Examples of the past year's events include:

- Dribble for the Cure

Dribble for the Cure

UCLA hosted the ninth annual Dribble for the Cure at Drake Stadium and Collins Court. More than 1,000 participants established a donation record with net revenue of $191,000. The men's and women's basketball teams led participants on a dribble tour as they dribbled basketballs and walked around a course through UCLA's campus. Dribble for the Cure has grown every year with a nine-year event total of more than 6,225 participants contributing over $1.25 million to benefit the Pediatric Research Foundation (PCRF) and the Cancer Research Program at Mattel Children's Hospital UCLA.

Mattel Children's Hospital

Throughout the year, several Bruin student-athletes visited playrooms at Mattel Children's Hospital on a weekly basis to spend time with the patients and their families. They are often asked to make special visits to patients who are not able to leave their rooms. Student-athletes also volunteered their time with Mattel's Teen Adventure Program and the annual Halloween "Trick or Treat" event for patients at the hospital.

Team Prime Time

Student-athletes volunteered their time with Team Prime Time (TPT), an after-school program for at-risk children from low-income areas of Los Angeles that combines academics, athletics, leadership training and the arts in order to prepare them for the future and allow them to reach their full potential. During past seasons, head football coach Jim Mora and the entire UCLA football team has taken time from its practice schedule to visit Team Prime Time at Webster Middle School in Los Angeles. Over 50 elementary and middle school students enrolled in Team Prime Time's Sports Camp spent the afternoon participating in interactive activities with members of the football team. The Bruins taught students UCLA's 8-clap cheer, handed out posters and signed autographs for the participants.

Prime Time Games: Championship Saturday

For the past eight years, student-athletes have participated in Team Prime Time's fully inclusive sports program, the Prime Time Games. The peer-mentor sports program helps economically disadvantaged and under-served middle school students from Team Prime Time's after school program ("coaches") coach and play alongside children with developmental disabilities ("athletes") in the only after-school sports program of its kind. Over 100 student-athletes volunteered at the seventh annual event June 3, 2017, hosted on UCLA's campus. UCLA student-athletes served as honorary coaches, captains and officials for the inclusive soccer and basketball games. Participants were awarded medals and received high-fives and autographs from the Bruins.

Baseball Camp with Veterans

UCLA's baseball program hosted a Fantasy Camp for residents of the West Los Angeles Veterans Home in conjunction with Jackie Robinson Day. Players offered hitting and fielding instruction to military veterans. Head baseball coach John Savage and assistant men's basketball coach David Grace (veteran of the U.S. Air Force) spoke to veterans in the stands at UCLA's home field, Jackie Robinson Stadium, on April 11, 2017, four days prior to the date celebrated nationwide as Jackie Robinson Day (honoring UCLA's legendary alumnus).

186th Street Elementary School

For the 10th year, members of the UCLA football team visited 186th Elementary School to participate in their annual Super Bowl School Spirit Day to celebrate the students' commitment to academic excellence. The student-athletes visited classrooms and participated in an after-school assembly that promoted the importance of citizenship, scholarship and sportsmanship. They encouraged the students to strive for excellence, respect their teachers, do their homework and work hard to achieve their goals and dreams.

Bruin for a Day

Members of the Bruin Athletic Council (BAC) and their teammates hosted over 50 students from Emerson Middle School to experience being a "Bruin for a Day." Student-athletes coordinated a day of presentations, group discussions, interactive activities, a campus tour and lunch in the dining hall for students. The student-athletes taught them about the Pyramid of Success and gave the students tips on academic success, time management, hard work and leadership.

'I'm Going to College'

Over 47,000 students from the Los Angeles Unified School District participated in this year's "I'm Going to College" program. This unique program brings youngsters, from kindergarten through the 12th grade, to UCLA events and couples the excitement and tradition of UCLA Athletics with a message about the importance of higher education. Upon arrival at the event, students are greeted by a UCLA alumnus, current students or student-athlete volunteers and are led to the IGTC fair area. Students are immediately immersed in Bruin traditions, as they learn the spirited UCLA 8-clap and receive educational information about questions they may have regarding education and preparing for college.

Adopt a Classroom Program

The Adopt a Classroom pen pal program paired Bruin teams with elementary and middle school classrooms across L.A. Unified School District. UCLA's student-athletes exchanged letters with students throughout the year, and the classrooms were invited to attend a home event to meet their Bruin pen pals. The Adopt a Classroom program stresses the importance of both education and athletics and aims to motivate students to work toward their goals in school and in life.

Harper for Kids Program

The Harper for Kids Youth Development Program is based upon former UCLA basketball coach John Wooden's "Pyramid of Success," striving to teach youngsters how to achieve their personal best in life. UCLA's student-athletes are able to interact with youngsters and talk to them about how their athletic opportunities are vehicles to heighten personal development and how the benefits of athletic participation can greatly help one's personal growth.

RADD – Rockers Against Drunk Driving

UCLA's student-athletes have become involved with RADD, which stands for Rockers Against Drunk Driving. An internationally-recognized non-profit organization, RADD seeks to empower celebrities and media partners to create positive attitudes about road safety. RADD was founded in 1986 and advocates the use of designated drivers, seatbelts and safe driving through control behind the wheel, making responsible behavior the norm. RADD looks to use messages that are non-judgmental, hip and positive.

WOODEN ACADEMY

The Wooden Academy is a leadership development program that educates and supports Bruin student-athletes. Named after legendary Coach John Wooden, this program teaches the principles of his Pyramid of Success. These skills assist student-athletes in their pursuit to be successful leaders and teammates at UCLA and beyond. Student-athletes have the opportunity to participate in the Wooden Academy each year by attending seminars to learn practical leadership lessons from coaches, administrators and Bruin alumni.

UCLA's featured speaker at the Wooden Academy in 2017 was Sue Enquist, who served as head coach of the Bruins' softball program for 18 seasons. Enquist was involved with the UCLA softball program for 30 years, as either a coach or a student-athlete. She took over as the program's sole head coach in 1997 (after having been co-head coach with Sharron Backus since 1989). During her tenure as a softball coach at UCLA, Enquist helped the Bruins win 10 NCAA Championships. The NCAA brought women's sports under its umbrella beginning with the 1981-82 academic year. UCLA won that inaugural NCAA softball championship and played in 17 championship games or series with Enquist involved (including titles in 1982, 1984, 1985, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1992, 1999, 2003 and 2004).

UCLA's SCHOLAR-ATHLETE BANQUET

Each spring, approximately 200 student-athletes with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher are invited to the Scholar-Athlete Banquet. Made possible by a donation from Rose Gilbert, the event features distinguished guests and allows UCLA to honor its most academically accomplished student-athletes. Such banquets have featured notable alumni speakers who return to campus, inspiring the department's student-athletes to succeed in the classroom and use their education for great endeavors.

UCLA's STUDENT-ATHLETE GRADUATION

For the sixth consecutive year, UCLA's Athletic Department hosted a student-athlete graduation ceremony at the conclusion of the school year. UCLA had 126 student-athletes participate in the Class of 2017 graduation celebration. UCLA welcomed the graduates and their families to a special ceremony in Pauley Pavilion the evening of Thursday, June 15, 2017.

The list of 126 graduates included student-athletes who graduated in Fall 2016 and Winter 2017 and who were projected to graduate in Spring 2017, Summer 2017 and Fall 2017. Annika Lenz of the women's swimming and diving teams and Matt Farmer of the men's water polo team served as the student-athlete graduation speakers.

Academic award-winners were recognized during the ceremony. Receiving Pac-12 postgraduate scholarships were Kamila Tan (beach volleyball) and Garrett Danner (men's water polo). Tan was also recognized as an Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar Award semifinalist. Kari Korver (women's basketball) and Felix Vobejda (men's soccer) were awarded the Pac-12's Tom Hansen Conference Medal, which is annually presented to each member institution's outstanding senior male and female student-athlete based on the exhibition of the greatest combination of performance and achievement in scholarship, athletics and leadership. Additionally, Nick Kern (baseball) was recognized for winning the Wilma Rudolph Award, and Lenz and Thomas Schwab (football) were honored as UCLA's Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

UCLA's Athletic Department had 341 student-athletes on the Athletic Director's Honor Roll in the fall 2016 quarter (3.0 or higher quarterly GPA), 321 in the winter 2017 quarter and 320 in the spring 2017 quarter. UCLA Unveils Wasserman Football Center, Looks Forward to Mo Ostin Basketball Center

Nearly two years after groundbreaking ceremonies for the Wasserman Football Center and Mo Ostin Basketball Center, UCLA moved significantly closer to completing both state-of-the-art training facilities. The football program moved into the Wasserman Football Center in Aug. 2017, while the men's and women's basketball programs eagerly awaited the official "opening ceremony" of its new training facility in Oct. 2017.

The Wasserman Football Center was designed by ZGF Architects LLP and constructed by PCL Construction of Los Angeles. The facility spans approximately 75,000 square feet of space that encompasses the Troy Aikman Strength and Conditioning Center, the Jim and Carol Collins Head Football Coach's Office, locker rooms, training and treatment room, nutrition center, hydrotherapy pools and meeting spaces such as the Terry and Andrea Donahue Team Auditorium. Other amenities include a barbershop, players' lounge, and recruiting lounge and terrace.

The comprehensive Mo Ostin Basketball Center, with approximately 35,000 gross square-feet of space, stands near Pauley Pavilion on the south end of the Los Angeles Tennis Center. Designed by award-winning architectural design firm Kevin Daly Architects, in partnership with globally acclaimed high-performance design firm AECOM, the Mo Ostin Basketball Center features Russell Westbrook Court, Ann Meyers Drysdale Court and The Kevin Love Strength and Conditioning Facility. The two basketball programs also have locker rooms in their new practice facility, as well as a meeting rooms, equipment rooms and a film room.

Both projects and their respective campaigns have been part of the $4.2 billion campus-wide UCLA Centennial Campaign. The athletic department aims to surpass its $260 million goal by 2019, securing more than $160 million since the campaign was announced in May of 2014. These two facilities directly address the Department's primary Centennial Campaign objective: to create a financially sustainable future to build upon UCLA's standing as the premier intercollegiate athletics program in the nation.

In Dec. 2015, the athletic department announced a significant financial contribution from Russell Westbrook toward the Mo Ostin Basketball Center. Kevin Love matched that donation in Sept. 2016 (the two largest donations by former basketball student-athletes in school history). In honor of these gifts, UCLA named the men's basketball practice floor Russell Westbrook Court. UCLA's basketball-specific strength and conditioning facility in the new building will forever be known as The Kevin Love Strength and Conditioning Center.

In addition, UCLA received a significant financial contribution in Feb. 2017 from an anonymous donor, who respectfully requested to acknowledge the legacy and leadership of Bruin great Ann Meyers Drysdale by naming the women's basketball practice floor in her honor – as such, the women's practice floor will be known as Ann Meyers Drysdale Court.

Bruins Kick Off Partnership With Under Armour

UCLA signs record-breaking 15-year performance footwear and apparel agreement

UCLA and Under Armour announced a new, 15-year performance footwear and apparel agreement on May 24, 2016. The long-term agreement between the university and the brand officially began July 1, 2017 and is the largest apparel deal in the history of the NCAA.

As part of the partnership, Under Armour now exclusively designs and supplies the footwear, apparel and equipment for training and game-day uniforms for all 25 of the university's men's and women's varsity teams. This record-breaking deal reaffirmed UCLA's status as a world-class institution and Under Armour's position as a global leader committed to collegiate athletics.

"We are excited to officially embark upon this journey with Under Armour and to introduce a cohesive new branding initiative that will unite not only our teams, but also the entire UCLA family," said UCLA Director of Athletics Dan Guerrero. "As we look toward the future, Under Armour's philosophy of innovation, its cutting-edge technology and its commitment to storytelling make it the perfect partner for UCLA. Together, we will go beyond great."

The branding initiative provides a unified, consistent look for UCLA Athletics, from the logos to the proprietary font on the uniforms and the custom color scheme. The primary logo remains a UCLA script, which has been updated by removing the black outline and the tail under the four letters.

"With 113 NCAA Championships, UCLA is the most decorated athletic program in history, the benchmark for excellence in performance," said Kevin Plank, Founder and CEO of Under Armour. "Under Armour's commitment to growth through innovation and an unwavering mission to make all athletes better aligns seamlessly with UCLA and the pioneering figures that helped build the program."

UCLA Director of Athletics Dan Guerrero (left) alongside Kevin Plank, Under Armour's Founder and CEO

Strengthening its global brand impression by aligning with UCLA's significant international student pool and impressive roster of athletes from all over the world, Under Armour will continue to expand its West Coast footprint with a commitment to open new retail locations in the greater Los Angeles area, including on LA's Westside. The brand will also offer annual internship opportunities for UCLA students.

Additionally, through this new partnership, UCLA Athletics will extend its ability to provide apparel allocations for the UCLA Spirit Squad and Bruin Marching Band while enhancing its allocations to campus recreation and club sports teams.

Fans had the chance to get their first look at UCLA's new football uniforms at the UCLA Football Bruin Viewin' exclusive event for season ticket holders at the Rose Bowl on July 15. In addition, the university began selling licensed UCLA/Under Armour gear on July 1, 2017, at the Bruin Team Shop and at the UCLA store at Ackerman Student Union.

Eight Former UCLA Standouts Inducted into UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame

Members of the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame Class of 2016 included eighth former UCLA standouts – Julie Adams (softball), Jamie Dantzscher (women's gymnastics), Baron Davis (men's basketball), Natalie Golda (women's water polo), Chris Henderson (men's soccer), Adam Krikorian (water polo), Mike Marsh (track & field) and Wendell Tyler (football).

Julie Adams

Softball, 1996-2000

Few things exemplified the heart of a champion more than Julie Adams' performance at the 1999 Women's College World Series, where she was named the Most Outstanding Player despite dislocating her left shoulder in the Bruins' opening game. Adams gutted through the injury and hit .667 in the tournament, driving in two RBI in the 3-2 championship game victory over Washington. She was a two-time All-American, four-time All-Pac-10 selection and the Pac-10 Newcomer of the Year in 1996. Adams finished her career hitting .353 with 40 home runs, 166 RBI, 31 doubles, 116 runs scored and 95 walks and ranked in the Top 10 all-time in RBI, walks and home runs. A three-year U.S. National Team member and a National Pro Fastpitch player in 2000, Adams went on to earn a Masters in Athletic Administration and is currently an assistant principal at Bellflower High School.

Jamie Dantzscher

Gymnastics, 2001-04

Olympic bronze medalist Jamie Dantzscher cemented herself in Bruin lore the very first time she chalked up for a routine, scoring a perfect 10 on uneven bars right out of the gate in her collegiate debut. She is believed to be the first NCAA gymnast ever to score a perfect 10 on her first routine, and she went on to earn a school-record 28 10.0s in her career, including a national record seven in a row on floor exercise in 2002. Dantzscher led UCLA to three NCAA team titles (2001, 2003 and 2004) and won four NCAA individual titles of her own, including the 2002 all-around, vault and floor exercise crowns, and the 2003 uneven bars title. She also won the Pac-10 bars and floor titles in 2002 and the floor title in 2001 and was the 2002 Pac-10 Gymnast of the Year and a three-time Pac-10 All-Academic honoree. The 15-time All-American and 2004 AAI Award winner was named to the Pac-12 All-Century Team in the all-around and floor exercise.

Baron Davis

Men's Basketball, 1998-99

As the No. 1 recruit in the nation at the point guard position, Baron Davis came to UCLA with much fanfare and did not disappoint. As a freshman, he played 32 games and started in 31, averaging 11.7 points and leading the team with 161 assists and 77 steals. His season was cut short due to a torn ACL during the NCAA Tournament's second round, and the Bruins lost in the Sweet 16 without him. Davis rebounded from his injury with an outstanding sophomore season, leading the Bruins in scoring with a 15.9 points per game average and earning first-team All-Pac-10 and Team MVP honors. Davis turned pro after his sophomore year and was rewarded as the No. 3 overall pick in the NBA draft by the Charlotte Hornets. He averaged 16.1 points, 7.2 assists and 3.8 rebounds during his 13-year NBA career and was a two-time All-Star. In 2004 he was an All-NBA selection and the winner of the Skills Competition at the All-Star Game. Davis has also had success in the entertainment field as an actor and producer.

Natalie (Golda) Benson

Women's Water Polo, 2001-05

Considered one of the greatest women's water polo players of all-time, two-time Olympic medalist Natalie Golda led UCLA to three NCAA titles in her four years at UCLA (2001, 2003 and 2005). Golda was a three-time All-American and NCAA All-Tournament Team selection and was dominant in her senior season in 2005, winning the Cutino Award as the best collegiate player in the nation after leading UCLA to a 33-0 season. She won MVP honors at the 2005 NCAA Tournament after scoring four goals in three tournament games. Golda finished the year with 47 goals and recorded the third-most career goals in UCLA history with 158. On the national team level, she started in two Olympic Games, winning bronze in 2004 and silver in 2008. She also led the U.S. to three FINA World Championship medals, including gold in 2003 and 2007. Golda, who was just hired to lead the newly-formed Fresno State women's water polo team, was elected into the USA Water Polo Hall of Fame in 2015 and recently named to the Pac-12 All-Century Team.

Chris Henderson

Men's Soccer, 1989-90

U.S. National Team standout Chris Henderson is the eighth men's soccer player to earn induction into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame. Henderson was selected to Soccer America's All-Freshman team in 1989, and as a sophomore in 1990, he earned first-team NSCAA All-America honors while leading the Bruins to their second NCAA title. He was one of just three collegiate players to earn a spot on the 1990 U.S. World Cup team and was the youngest player in the tournament. Henderson, who totaled 79 caps for the U.S. National Team, was also a member of the 1992 U.S. Olympic team and an alternate for the 1994 and 1998 World Cup squads. After playing professionally in Europe, Henderson played in Major League Soccer from 1996-2001 and retired as the league's all-time leader in games played with 317. He still shares the MLS single-game assist record with four, and his 80 regular-season assists rank No. 10 all-time. The two-time MLS All-Star won the 2000 MLS Cup with the Kansas City Wizards and was named the MLS W.O.R.K.S. Humanitarian of the Year in 2004. He has been the Sporting Director for the Seattle Sounders FC since 2008 and helped guide the club to four Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup titles, including three consecutive from 2009-11.

Adam Krikorian

Water Polo, 1992-95 Student-Athlete; 1999-2009 Coach

With a total of 15 national championships as a player, assistant coach and head coach, Adam Krikorian is one of the most successful Bruins in history. As a student-athlete, he earned All-America honors as a senior and helped lead the Bruins to the 1995 NCAA Championship, scoring two goals in the title game. As an assistant coach, he helped guide the men's team to a repeat championship in 1996 and the women's team to back-to-back titles in 1997 and 1998. He became co-head coach of both programs in 1999 and went on to win three more NCAA titles with the men (1999, 2000, 2004) and eight national titles with the women (2000, 2001, 2003, and a five-peat from 2005-09). Krikorian became head coach of the U.S. Women's National Team following the 2009 season, and he has been near perfect, leading Team USA to gold medals in nine of 12 major FINA Championships, including Olympic gold in 2012. Krikorian was recently named the Pac-12's Women's Water Polo Coach of the Century and was honored in 2013 as the USOC National Coach of the Year.

Mike Marsh

Track and Field, 1986-89

Sprinter Mike Marsh won three Olympic medals, including two gold, as well as two NCAA team titles, three Pac-10 team titles and five Pac-10 individual titles. Marsh still holds some of the best marks in UCLA history, with his 10.07 time in the 100m ranking second and his 20.35 time in the 200m ranking sixth. He was also a member of the 4x100m relay team that set a school record in 1988 with a time of 38.59. He won the Pac-10 100m titles in 1986 and 1988, placed third in the 100m and 4x100m relay at the 1987 NCAA Championships and was fourth in the 100m and second in the 4x100m relay at the 1988 NCAA Championships. Marsh ranked in the Top 10 in the U.S. in the 100m for 11 years in a row (1987-97) and in the 200m for six years in a row (1991-96) and won U.S. titles in the 200m in 1993 and in the 100m in 1995. He set an Olympic record in the 200m to win gold at the 1992 Olympics and ran a leg on the gold-medal winning 4x100m relay team that set a world record. He captured silver in the 4x100m relay at the 1996 Olympics and was fifth in the 100m and eighth in the 200m.

Wendell Tyler

Football, 1973-76

One of the heroes of UCLA's legendary 1976 Rose Bowl victory over top-ranked Ohio State, Wendell Tyler finished his UCLA career as the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,181 yards, and his career average of 6.04 yards per carry still ranks second all-time. He also set school records for single-season rushing yards (1,388) and yards-per-carry (6.7 average) in 1975. Tyler rushed for more than 100 yards on 12 occasions during his career, most notably in the 1976 Rose Bowl game, when he totaled 172 yards, including a 54-yard touchdown run to seal the Bruin victory. Following his UCLA career, Tyler went on to play in the NFL for 10 seasons with the Los Angeles Rams and San Francisco 49ers and helped the 49ers win the 1986 Super Bowl. He finished his pro career with over 6,300 yards rushing, over 1,800 yards receiving and a total of 66 touchdowns.
