2017-18
UCLA ATHLETICS
ANNUAL REPORT

Dear Bruins,

Our department enjoyed an exceptional year both on and off the field of competition in 2017-18. We celebrated three NCAA Team Championships – men’s water polo, gymnastics and beach volleyball, and 11 of our athletic teams produced Top 5 NCAA finishes, a key indicator of the broad-based excellence we strive to achieve. Of even greater importance, we had 143 student-athletes earn their degrees from this university in June and officially embark upon the next chapter of their lives. Some of those graduates were athletes who had left UCLA to pursue their dreams of playing professionally, and returned to campus later in life, once their playing careers were behind them.

“Student” comes first in student-athlete, and success in the classroom is a top priority. Throughout the 2017-18 academic year, our student-athletes earned Director’s Honor Roll accolades (3.0 GPA or higher) more than 950 times. In addition, our Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and Academic Progress Report (APR) numbers remained high across the board and among the best in the nation. UCLA’s overall GSR of 86% matched the national average for Division I schools. Our football team compiled a GSR of 83%, which was tied for the second-highest GSR among Pac-12 Conference schools (the national average for FBS schools is 76%).

In addition, five of our teams – men’s water polo, women’s basketball, women’s golf, softball and women’s tennis – recorded a GSR of 100 percent. Our department had 17 of 20 sports programs with a GSR of 80 percent or higher. In fact, 11 of those 20 programs were at 90 percent or better. It’s impressive that so many of our student-athletes not only meet these high expectations, but they almost always exceed them. This is a true testament to their work ethic and to the support they receive from their academic advisors, coaches, family members and fellow teammates.

In competition, from our fall season through the spring, we had multiple teams excel at the highest level. In addition to our trio of NCAA Team Championships, we saw 12 teams finish among the nation’s Top 10, while eight of those programs recorded Top 3 finishes. The men’s water polo team captured its third NCAA title in four years with a 7-5 victory at USC. The gymnastics program completed a comeback for the ages, landing its seventh NCAA championship. Our beach volleyball team secured its first-ever NCAA title since the sport was officially recognized at the NCAA level in 2016, outlasting Florida State after maneuvering through the tournament’s “contenders’ bracket.”

In addition, it was an extremely exciting year for our women’s soccer and men’s volleyball teams. Both programs finished as the national runner-up at their respective NCAA Tournaments. Our men’s tennis, women’s water polo and softball teams all advanced to the national semifinals. The women’s basketball team had a strong postseason run, securing an Elite Eight appearance for the first time since 1999. Four teams won their conference’s regular-season title, including the gymnastics, women’s golf, beach volleyball and men’s tennis teams.

While team championships are among the most celebrated accomplishments, it’s surely worth noting several terrific individual efforts. Our gymnastics program had a pair of NCAA individual champions, as Christine Peng-Peng Lee captured the balance beam title and Katelyn Ohashi secured the floor exercise title. Those individual championships were the first for each gymnast. On the tennis court, our men’s doubles duo of Martin Redlicki and Evan Zhu claimed the 13th NCAA doubles title in program history with a victory over a doubles pair representing Ohio State. Both Lee and Redlicki were named recipients of the Pac-12 Tom Hansen Medal in 2017-18, an award annually presented to each member institution’s outstanding senior male and female student-athletes.

These accomplishments and standout performances all helped contribute to our second-place finish in the Learfield Directors’ Cup, the collegiate athletics industry standard measure of broad-based excellence. Out of 351 NCAA Division I programs, UCLA Athletics finished second for the eighth time in Directors’ Cup history. Our highest-ever points total of 1326 was an incredible improvement of 319 points over last year. It’s certainly worth noting that 21 of our 25 teams earned points in the Directors’ Cup in 2017-18.

Away from the courts and off our fields, we began the school year having launched an unprecedented partnership with Under Armour on July 1, 2017. As with our department’s multi-media relationship with IMG, one of the main reasons we chose to partner with Under Armour is because we feel strongly that this partnership gives our student-athletes the tools needed to perform at the highest level. We continue to look forward to working together to make the next 14 years with Under Armour even better.

In August 2017, we opened the Wasserman Football Center. Two months later, we celebrated the opening of the Mo Ostin Basketball Center. These are two state-of-the-art facilities that provide much-needed resources for three of our programs. In addition, these two premier facilities free up space in other buildings that benefits a number of our other programs and student-athletes.

As we look toward the 2018-19 school year, we reflect on the historical significance that this athletic year will mark the 100th season for a few of our sports programs. A grand milestone of that nature deserves a true celebration, and we’ll be saving that celebration for next year (2019-20), which will coincide with the University’s Centennial celebration. I look forward to seeing you at our athletic events in the coming year and thank you for supporting the hard work of our student-athletes and coaches.

Go Bruins!

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS!

The men's water polo, gymnastics and beach volleyball teams each captured NCAA team titles during the 2017-18 school year.

Men's Water Polo Outlasts USC, 7-5

UCLA earned its third NCAA Championship in the last four seasons

Senior Alex Roelse and Matt Farmer each scored a game-high two goals to lead the men's water polo team past USC, 7-5, to win the NCAA title on Sunday, Dec. 3, at USC's Uytensu Aquatics Center. The victory helped land the 11th national title for the men's water polo program (and NCAA title No. 114 for the athletic department).

Sophomore Alex Wolf played the entire game in the cage for the Bruins, recording 10 saves and limiting the Trojans to just five goals (two on power plays).

With the contest tied, 5-5, early in the fourth quarter, Farmer scored the tie-breaking goal with 6:05 to play. The Bruins led USC throughout the final quarter by a 6-5 margin. Both teams made several defensive stops down the stretch, but none proved more important than UCLA's stop in the final seconds during a power play by USC. With time winding down in the final minute, Wolf collected the ball from a teammate and noticed that USC goalkeeper McQuin Baron was out of the cage at the other end. Wolf scored on a long-range heave with just two seconds remaining in the game, putting the Bruins ahead 7-5.

USC led the match 3-2 at halftime and had claimed a 2-1 cushion after the first quarter. The Bruins trailed twice in the opening two quarters by two goals – 2-0 in the first quarter and 3-1 in the second frame. Consecutive scores midway through the match by Roelse (0:21, second quarter) and Farmer (3:33, third) tied the game, 3-3.

Max Irving, Roelse and Wolf earned first-team All-NCAA Tournament acclaim, while Wolf was recognized as the tournament's MVP. Farmer and freshman Nicolas Saveljic secured second-team All-Tournament honors.

Gymnastics Wins NCAA Title in Dramatic Fashion

Peng-Peng Lee scored two perfect 10s to help UCLA secure the win

Trailing two-time defending champion Oklahoma by .175 heading into the final rotation of the night, UCLA turned in a performance for the ages at the NCAA Women's Gymnastics Championships on Saturday, April 21.

Behind an NCAA Championship record score of 49.750 on balance beam, the Bruins rallied to win the NCAA title, their seventh team championship, with an overall score of 198.075, just 0.0375 ahead of the Sooners. The championship was decided on the event's final routine, where senior Christine Peng-Peng Lee needed to score at least a 9.975 to give UCLA the title. She scored a perfect 10 to secure the win. Prior to Lee's performance, Kyla Ross kept UCLA in it with an impressive 9.9875.

Competing in her final collegiate meet, Lee tallied two perfect 10s that evening, also scoring one on the uneven bars, the second time during the season that she scored two 10s in one meet. UCLA's major comeback was keyed in rotation five by a season-high 49.6375 performance on uneven bars. UCLA counted four scores of 9.9 or better – a 9.9 from JaNay Honest, a season-high 9.9375 from Madison Kocian, a 9.95 from Ross and a 10.0 from Lee. The big scores brought the Bruins just .175 behind the first-place Sooners going into the final event.

Redshirt freshman Grace Glenn led off the final rotation with a monster score of 9.9375 on beam. A fall by the Bruins' second competitor put some pressure on, but UCLA thrived under that pressure. Brielle Nguyen scored 9.875, and Katelyn Ohashi scored 9.950. Although Oklahoma finished up on uneven bars with a 49.5375, big scores in the final two routines would put UCLA ahead. Ross turned in a 9.9875, receiving four perfect 10s, setting the stage for Lee's 10.0 heroics.

Beach Volleyball Downs Florida State for NCAA Championship

Top-seeded UCLA captured its first-ever NCAA Championship in beach volleyball on Sunday, May 6, defeating fourth-seeded Florida State, 3-1, in the title contest. The Bruins avenged an earlier loss to the Seminoles that had put UCLA in the elimination bracket.

Following the loss to Florida State in the double-elimination tournament, the Bruins won their next four matches in two days to capture the athletic department's 116th NCAA team title.

Returning to the flight format used throughout the regular season, pairs 4 and 5 took to the sand first. The Seminoles got off to a hot start, claiming each first set. The Bruins would not go quietly, however, as each tandem recovered to force a first-to-15 third set. UCLA's No. 5 pair of Izzy Carey and Megan Muret posted a dramatic 24-22 second-set victory and rode its newfound momentum to a 17-21, 24-22, 15-8 win over Madison Fitzpatrick and Francesca Goncalves to get the Bruins on the board first. The Florida State duo of Molly McBain and Brooke Kuhlman would soon tie the dual up at 1-1 with a 21-15, 19-21, 15-12 defeat of Elise Zappia and Mac May on court four.

UCLA's top three courts came out determined in the second flight, sweeping the first sets to put the Bruins on the brink of history. UCLA's Court 3 duo of Zana Muno and Savvy Simo grabbed their opportunity with a convincing win over Macy Jerger and Sara Putt, 21-19, 21-9, to put the Bruins up 2-1 in the dual.

With both Courts 1 and 2 on match point, the duo of Sarah Sponcil and Lily Justine played the part of hero. The second-court pair knocked off Katie Horton/Hailey Luke of the Seminoles, 21-18, 21-19, setting off a storming of the court in celebration.

UCLA won 35 of its final 36 matches, completing a historic season with a 40-4 overall record. The Bruins' 40 wins set a new NCAA single-season record, eclipsing the mark of 38 established by USC in 2017.

Women's Soccer, Men's Volleyball Conclude Seasons With NCAA Runner-Up Finishes

WOMEN'S SOCCER

UCLA notched four straight postseason wins against San Diego State, Northwestern, Virginia and Princeton to advance to the Women's College Cup for the 10th time in program history. The Bruins edged Duke in the semifinal round with a 4-3 advantage in penalty kicks after playing to a scoreless draw. UCLA received two penalty kick goals in the shootout from players who had not played the entire game (Julia Hernandez gave UCLA a 2-1 advantage, before Zoey Goralski made the Bruins' first penalty kick attempt). UCLA dropped a 3-2 decision to Stanford in the title game.

Hailie Mace

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL

The Bruins won seven of their final eight regular-season matches, picking up momentum as they cruised into the MPSF Tournament. After a second-place finish against BYU in the conference tournament, UCLA rolled past Harvard in Pauley Pavilion on Tuesday, May 1, in the NCAA Tournament's first round. The Bruins avenged their loss to BYU with a thrilling four-set victory in the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament on May 3. Christian Hessenauer logged a team-high 14 kills against BYU. Long Beach State edged UCLA in a five-set match in the NCAA championship contest on May 5.

Women's Basketball Cruises Into Elite Eight

Bruins advanced to Elite Eight for first time since 1999.

Jordin Canada

For the third consecutive season, the UCLA women's basketball team advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. But for the first time since 1999, the Bruins punched their ticket to the tournament's Elite Eight with an 84-75 win over Texas.

Jordin Canada scored a game-high 22 points and dished eight assists against the Longhorns, while Monique Billings tallied 17 points and a team-leading eight rebounds. Kennedy Burke rounded out UCLA's list of double-figure scorers versus Texas, totaling 15 points on 7-of-11 shooting from the field. The Bruins led Texas by a 19-11 margin after the first quarter and claimed a 39-31 cushion at halftime.

Texas chipped away at UCLA's lead in the third quarter. A three-pointer by Ariel Atkins followed by three consecutive baskets by the Longhorns put Texas ahead, 40-39, with just over eight minutes to play in the quarter. The Bruins responded with a 17-4 scoring run and had built a 59-49 lead heading into the fourth period.

UCLA's first and second-round victories in the NCAA Tournament came against America and Creighton in Pauley Pavilion on March 17 and 19. The Bruins had previously reached the tournament's Sweet 16 in 1999, 2016 and 2017. Both Canada and Billings were honored as WBCA Division I All-Region selections at season's end, while seventh-year head coach Cori Close was named the United States Marine Corps/WBCA Division I Region 5 Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons (she had previously earned that award in 2016).

Josh Rosen, Kolton Miller Headline UCLA's Draft Selections

Rosen became UCLA's first quarterback to be selected among the top 10 in the draft since Troy Aikman went No. 1 to the Dallas Cowboys in 1989.

UCLA's pipeline to the professional ranks remained strong in 2017-18, as football standouts Josh Rosen and Kolton Miller were both selected within the first 15 picks of the 2018 NFL Draft.

Rosen, a 6-foot-4 quarterback from Manhattan Beach, Calif., was taken No. 10 by the Arizona Cardinals. Miller, a 6-foot-8 offensive lineman from Roseville, Calif., was selected No. 15 by the Oakland Raiders. Rosen became UCLA's first quarterback to be selected in the first round since Cade McNown in 1999 (No. 12, Chicago Bears). He also became the highest-drafted quarterback at UCLA since 1989, when Troy Aikman was the No. 1 overall pick by the Dallas Cowboys.

Linebacker Kenny Young was selected in the fourth round by the Baltimore Ravens. Scott Quessenberry (Los Angeles Chargers) and Jordan Lasley (Baltimore Ravens) rounded out the Bruins' list of five draft picks, going in the fifth round.

Men's basketball standout and first-team All-Pac-12 selection Aaron Holiday highlighted the Bruins' program at the 2018 NBA Draft in Brooklyn, N.Y., the night of Thursday, June 21. Holiday, a 6-foot-1 guard from Chatsworth, Calif., was taken No. 23 by the Indiana Pacers, joining a talented roster that already features two of his former college teammates (TJ Leaf, Ike Anigbogu) and recent UCLA graduate Darren Collison. Senior center Thomas Welsh was selected No. 58 overall (second round) by the Denver Nuggets.

Women's basketball seniors Jordin Canada and Monique Billings were both chosen within the first 15 picks of the 2018 WNBA Draft on Thursday, April 12. Canada was the No. 5 selection (first round) by the Seattle Storm. Billings was taken No. 15 overall (second round) by the Atlanta Dream.

Softball Advances to Women's College World Series for Fourth Straight Season

The Bruins' softball program secured its fourth consecutive trip to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City, Okla. After battling out of the elimination bracket during NCAA Regionals at Easton Stadium, the Bruins won back-to-back games at home versus Arizona (May 24-25) to punch their ticket to Oklahoma City.

Sophomore Rachel Garcia struck out 10 hitters in a complete-game four-hit effort versus Arizona in the second game of the NCAA Super Regionals, as the Bruins tallied a 3-2 win over the 14th-ranked

Rachel Garcia

Wildcats. Garcia, who was the Honda Sport Award winner for softball and secured NFCA Player of the Year accolades, finished the year with a 1.31 earned run average, a 29-4 record and 315 strikeouts in 208 innings.

BRUINS IN THE COMMUNITY

UCLA's student-athletes volunteered over 3,000 hours in community outreach events during the 2017-18 school year. UCLA Athletics hosted over 20 events on campus and attended several community-related outings throughout the Los Angeles area. These service opportunities have allowed UCLA's student-athletes the chance to mentor youth, give back to their community and serve as ambassadors for UCLA Athletics. Some student-athletes have also created, initiated and implemented service projects and activities with assistance and support from the Bruin Athletic Council.

Examples of the past year's events include:

Dribble for the Cure

UCLA hosted the 10th annual Dribble for the Cure at Drake Stadium and Collins Court. More than 1,000 participants established a donation record with net revenue of $209,000. The men's and women's basketball teams led participants on a dribble tour as they dribbled basketballs and walked around a course through UCLA's campus. Dribble for the Cure has grown every year with a 10-year event total of more than 7,425 participants contributing over $1.46 million to benefit the Pediatric Research Foundation (PCRF) and the Cancer Research Program at Mattel Children's Hospital UCLA.

Mattel Children's Hospital

Throughout the year, several Bruin student-athletes visited playrooms at Mattel Children's Hospital to spend time with the patients and their families. They are often asked to make special visits to patients who are not able to leave their rooms. Student-athletes also volunteered their time with Mattel's Teen Adventure Program and the annual Halloween "Trick or Treat" event for patients at the hospital.

Mattel Children's Hospital Bruin Express

The "Bruin Express" was in full motion during the 2017-18 school year, thanks to the efforts of Tanya and Kayla Alford. Tanya, the wife of UCLA head men's basketball coach Steve Alford, and their daughter, Kayla, came up with the idea to push an activity cart around to patients who were unable to get out of bed or leave their rooms. Student-athletes volunteered each month to push the "Bruin Express" around the hospital. The cart is filled with games and other fun things in which patients and student-athletes can engage. The Bruins Express took place on the third Wednesday of each month.

Team Prime Time

Student-athletes volunteered their time with Team Prime Time (TPT), an after-school program for at-risk children from low-income areas of Los Angeles that combines academics, athletics, leadership training and the arts in order to prepare them for the future and allow them to reach their full potential. During past seasons, the UCLA football team has taken time from its practice schedule to visit Team Prime Time at Webster Middle School in Los Angeles. Over 50 elementary and middle school students enrolled in Team Prime Time's Sports Camp spent the afternoon participating in interactive activities with members of the football team. The Bruins taught students UCLA's eight-clap cheer, handed out posters and signed autographs for the participants.

RISE Fan Engagement

RISE (Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality) partnered with UCLA, USC and the Los Angeles Dodgers to bring the message of unity, understanding and respect to fans at the Dodger Stadium College Baseball Classic. Building on an existing partnership with both institutions, the "It Takes All Colors" fan engagement experience at Dodger Stadium had the support of SAAC groups from UCLA and USC. The "It Takes All Colors" engagement is a digital photo experience that provides an opportunity for RISE partners and their fans to show a commitment to equality. The fan engagement platform embodies RISE's mission of using the unifying power of sports to improve racial relations and to drive social progress. Fans sign a pledge to end discrimination or harassment of any kind and couple their commitment with a branded photo or GIF that can be immediately shared on social media platforms.

Prime Time Games: Championship Saturday

For the past nine years, student-athletes have participated in Team Prime Time's fully inclusive sports program, the Prime Time Games. The peer-mentor sports program helps economically disadvantaged and under-served middle school students from Team Prime Time's after school program ("coaches") coach and play alongside children with developmental disabilities ("athletes") in the only after-school sports program of its kind. Over 100 student-athletes volunteered at the seventh annual event June 2, 2018, hosted on UCLA's campus. UCLA student-athletes served as honorary coaches, captains and officials for the inclusive soccer and basketball games. Participants were awarded medals and received high-fives and autographs from the Bruins.

Baseball Camp with Veterans

UCLA's baseball program hosted a Fantasy Camp for residents of the West Los Angeles Veterans Home in conjunction with Jackie Robinson Day. Players offered hitting and fielding instruction to military veterans. Head baseball coach John Savage spoke to veterans in the stands at UCLA's home field, Jackie Robinson Stadium, on April 9, 2018, six days prior to the date celebrated nationwide as Jackie Robinson Day (honoring UCLA's legendary alumnus). The event at Jackie Robinson Stadium was free for all veterans and included a free barbecue dinner sponsored by the Gary Sinise Foundation.

Elementary School Visits

For the 11th year, members of the UCLA football team a local elementary school to celebrate the students' commitment to academic excellence. UCLA's football players visited Cleveland Elementary School on Feb. 7, returning to an elementary school once attended by former UCLA standout Jackie Robinson. The Rose Bowl has recently adopted Cleveland Elementary School, establishing a readership program named "Readers and Leaders." Dymond Lee, Rahyme Johnson, Ryan Parks and Josh Wariboko volunteered their time to read some of these newly donated books to children.

Bruin for a Day

Members of the Bruin Athletic Council (BAC) and their teammates hosted over 50 students from Emerson Middle School to experience being a "Bruin for a Day." Student-athletes coordinated a day of presentations, group discussions, interactive activities, a campus tour and lunch in the dining hall for students. The student-athletes taught them about the Pyramid of Success and gave the students tips on academic success, time management, hard work and leadership.

'I'm Going to College'

Over 47,000 students from the Los Angeles Unified School District participated in this year's "I'm Going to College" program. This unique program brings youngsters, from kindergarten through the 12th grade, to UCLA events and couples the excitement and tradition of UCLA Athletics with a message about the importance of higher education. Upon arrival at the event, students are greeted by a UCLA alumnus, current students or student-athlete volunteers and are led to the IGTC fair area. Students are immediately immersed in Bruin traditions, as they learn the spirited UCLA eight-clap and receive educational information about questions they may have regarding education and preparing for college.

UCLA's Food Closet Dodgeball Tournament

The Bruin Athletic Council (BAC) hosted the first annual student-athlete dodgeball tournament on May 19, aimed to support the UCLA Food Closet. The Food Closet is a small, unmarked storage closet in the Student Activities Center, where as many as 40-50 students per day will come and find one of life's most basic needs, food. The food closet serves as an on-campus food bank that is maintained, in particular, for students who are facing severe financial difficulties and may not be able to afford even the most basic food items. Twelve teams made up of student-athletes from the football, gymnastics, soccer, volleyball, swimming and diving, water polo, beach volleyball and track and field programs battled on the dodgeball court while collecting food and toiletries for the UCLA Food Closet.

Adopt a Classroom Program

The Adopt a Classroom pen pal program paired Bruin teams with elementary and middle school classrooms across L.A. Unified School District. UCLA's student-athletes exchanged letters with students throughout the year, and the classrooms were invited to attend a home event to meet their Bruin pen pals. The Adopt a Classroom program stresses the importance of both education and athletics and aims to motivate students to work toward their goals in school and in life.

Harper for Kids Program

The Harper for Kids Youth Development Program is based upon former UCLA basketball coach John Wooden's "Pyramid of Success," striving to teach youngsters how to achieve their personal best in life. UCLA's student-athletes are able to interact with youngsters and talk to them about how their athletic opportunities are vehicles to heighten personal development and how the benefits of athletic participation can greatly help one's personal growth.

RADD – Rockers Against Drunk Driving

UCLA's student-athletes have become involved with RADD, which stands for Rockers Against Drunk Driving. An internationally-recognized non-profit organization, RADD seeks to empower celebrities and media partners to create positive attitudes about road safety. RADD was founded in 1986 and advocates the use of designated drivers, seatbelts and safe driving through control behind the wheel, making responsible behavior the norm. RADD looks to use messages that are non-judgmental, hip and positive.

WOODEN ACADEMY

The Wooden Academy is a leadership development program that educates and supports Bruin student-athletes. Named after legendary Coach John Wooden, this program teaches the principles of his Pyramid of Success. These skills assist student-athletes in their pursuit to be successful leaders and teammates at UCLA and beyond. Student-athletes have the opportunity to participate in the Wooden Academy each year by attending seminars to learn practical leadership lessons from coaches, administrators and Bruin alumni.

UCLA hosted a Wooden Academy Speaker Symposium on Jan. 9, 2018, with five recent UCLA student-athlete graduates returning to their alma mater to speak with current student-athletes on how to maximize their college experience and prepare them for life after college. The five former student-athletes who spoke included Noelle Quinn (women's basketball, Class of 2007), Dustin Quist (baseball, Class of 2009), Donovan Carter (football, Class of 2012), Kelsey Preciado (women's water polo, Class of 2011) and Michelle Selesky Guida (gymnastics, Class of 2007). The Bruin alumni shared their memories of being a student-athlete at UCLA and how that has helped them become successful in their careers. Current student-athletes had the opportunity to ask questions, and many wanted to chat even longer during one-on-one time after the presentation had concluded.

UCLA's SCHOLAR-ATHLETE BANQUET

Each spring, approximately 200 student-athletes with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher are invited to the Scholar-Athlete Banquet. Made possible by a donation from Rose Gilbert, the event features distinguished guests and allows UCLA to honor its most academically accomplished student-athletes. Such banquets have featured notable alumni speakers who return to campus, inspiring the department's student-athletes to succeed in the classroom and use their education for great endeavors.

UCLA's STUDENT-ATHLETE GRADUATION

For the seventh consecutive year, UCLA's Athletic Department hosted a student-athlete graduation ceremony at the conclusion of the school year. UCLA had 143 student-athletes participate in the Class of 2019 graduation celebration. UCLA welcomed the graduates and their families to a special ceremony in Pauley Pavilion the evening of Thursday, June 14, 2018.

The list of 143 graduates included student-athletes who graduated in Fall 2017 and Winter 2018 and who were projected to graduate in Spring 2018, Summer 2018 and Fall 2018. UCLA Athletics Surpasses Centennial Campaign Goal

Department's goal of raising over $260 million has been surpassed

With more than a year and a half remaining in the University's $4.2 billion Centennial Campaign, UCLA Athletics has officially surpassed its initial goal of raising $260 million and has now set its sights on securing $300 million in private funds by the end of 2019, UCLA's 100th anniversary year. As we embark upon our second century, these funds will ultimately help shape the future of UCLA's intercollegiate athletics program.

The Centennial Campaign for UCLA, which began in 2013, includes UCLA Athletics' newly-established $300 million goal, the most ambitious fundraising effort in the history of its intercollegiate athletics program. Athletics' primary objective during the Campaign is to lay the foundation for a financially-sustainable future, to build upon its standing as the premier intercollegiate athletics program in the nation.

"Surpassing our ambitious Centennial fundraising goal is a true testament to the incredible support of the Bruin family, and it's extremely difficult to adequately express our appreciation to all who have donated," said Director of Athletics Dan Guerrero. "Nevertheless, while we have achieved a tremendous goal, the need is not finite. Costs, to competitively fund program excellence, continue to rise.

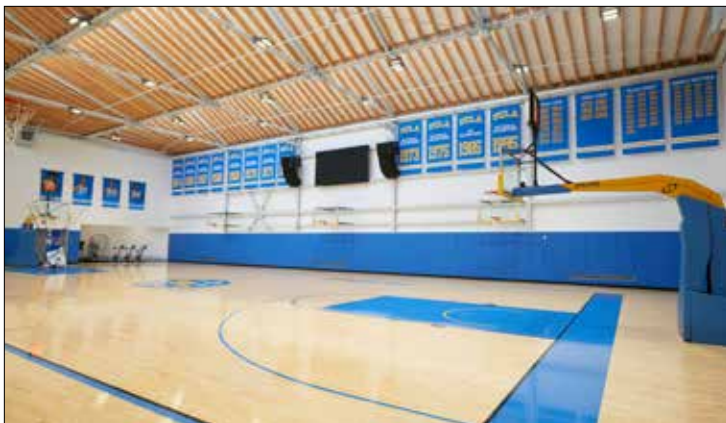

The Wasserman Football Center, which opened in August 2017.

In 2018, athletic department expenses are projected to reach more than $115 million. Nearly 20 percent of our overall department budget is funded by private donations, so it is vital to the future success of UCLA Athletics that we continue to generate substantial revenue in this manner."

Dedicated to providing the student-athlete with an unparalleled experience both academically and athletically, UCLA Athletics is impacted by the Centennial Campaign in three distinct ways: capital gifts that lead to state-of-the-art facilities, student-athlete support through endowments, and the further enhancement of operational support that provides resources for the development of nearly 700 UCLA student-athletes.

Alumni, fans and friends of UCLA Athletics have stepped up to support Bruin student-athletes throughout the Campaign. For more information on the Centennial Campaign or to support UCLA student-athletes, contact the UCLA Athletic Development Office at 310-206-3302 or visit www.woodenathleticfund.com.

The Mo Ostin Basketball Center, which opened in October 2017.

Record giving from nearly 16,000 individuals over the past few years has already translated into impactful, tangible results in these three areas:

Capital Gifts

- The addition of the Wasserman Football Center and the Mo Ostin Basketball Center, facilities supporting UCLA football and men's and women's basketball student-athletes, respectively
- Capital renovations and upgrades to Elvin "Ducky" Drake Stadium, Easton Stadium, Jackie Robinson Stadium, Acosta Athletic Center and Edwin W. Pauley Pavilion.
- The renovation of Yates Gym, the home of UCLA gymnastics, including the addition of the Don Shepherd UCLA Gymnastics Suite.
- The planned addition of Mapes Beach, a facility that will support the Bruins' beach volleyball student-athletes.
- The addition of Wallis Annenberg Stadium, a facility that serves as the primary competition venue for the UCLA men's and women's soccer teams.

Endowments

- The establishment of 96 new Four Deep Scholarship Endowments, which provide support for student-athlete financial aid.
- Expansion of athletic scholarships to include full cost of attendance.

Operational/Student-Athlete Development Support

- Expansion of academic and student support services provided to student-athletes to ensure their academic success.
- Enhanced comprehensive mental health support system for student-athletes.
- Expansion of the Student-Athlete Development Program, which focuses on personal growth, leadership, professional development and community service.
- Further development of the performance nutrition program to promote optimal fueling and recovery and UCLA's student-athletes.

Soccer Programs Receive Upgrade With Wallis Annenberg Stadium

University's Centennial Campaign helps pave way for primary soccer competition venue

The UCLA Athletic Department continued to raise money toward renovating the North Athletic Field into Wallis Annenberg Stadium, a planned transformation that has provided a new home for the UCLA men's and women's soccer teams as well as UCLA's Club Sports programs. In honor of a commitment of $5 million from the Annenberg Foundation, UCLA chose to proudly name the new campus venue Wallis Annenberg Stadium.

Under the direction of Director of Athletics Dan Guerrero and propelled by the Annenberg Foundation's lead gift, UCLA embarked on the One Goal Campaign in 2016 to raise private funds for the planned state-of-the-art stadium.

"Not only is soccer the most popular sport around the globe, with nearly four percent of the world's population actively participating, but its legacy and storied history here at UCLA has been well-documented through the years," said Guerrero. "For the Annenberg Foundation to take this type of initiative and make this level of commitment, while remarkable, is not surprising given how deeply it has philanthropically touched all aspects of the greater Los Angeles community. Because of the generosity of the Annenberg Foundation, and more specifically Wallis Annenberg, UCLA soccer and the men and women who comprise it, will now play on a stage that will undoubtedly be second to none."

The opening of the new facility in the fall of 2018 signals the first phase of Wallis Annenberg Stadium. Key features of the project's initial phase include grandstand seating and a press box on the west side, a Daktronics LED video board and Musco Sports lighting. Future phases of the stadium project may include expanded stadium seating, a training room, student-athlete locker room, coaches' locker rooms, meeting spaces, ticketing spaces and a new press box.

The view looking toward the East at UCLA's Wallis Annenberg Stadium.

"It's been said that adversity causes some people to break, and others to break records. I'm delighted to play my part in creating a state-of-the-art new stadium for UCLA soccer, because nothing does more to build a sense of character, a culture of achievement and a strong fabric of community than an extraordinary sports program," said Wallis Annenberg, Chairman of the Board, President and CEO of the Annenberg Foundation. "With its rich history and its remarkable successes in recent years — on both the men's and women's teams — I can't think of a worthy investment than UCLA soccer. And I look forward to sharing in the excitement and the glory when the new stadium is built."

The Annenberg Foundation is a family foundation that provides funding and support to nonprofit organizations in the United States and globally. The Foundation and its Board of Directors are also directly involved in the community with innovative projects that further its mission of advancing a better tomorrow through visionary leadership today. The Foundation encourages the development of effective ways to communicate by sharing ideas and knowledge. Chairman of the Board, President and CEO Wallis Annenberg, since assuming chairmanship of the Foundation in 2009, has overseen the distribution of more than $386 million to more than 1,640 organizations.

Several naming opportunities within Wallis Annenberg Stadium are still available. For more information or to become involved with the stadium project, call UCLA Athletics Development at 310-206-3302.

... FROM UCLA'S HEAD COACHES

"Without the generosity of the Annenberg Foundation and their vision for what a stadium means to soccer on the campus of UCLA, this project wouldn't be happening. Wallis Annenberg deserves a lot of praise for seeing the passion behind the project and wanting to be a part of it. The completion of Wallis Annenberg Stadium will ensure that generations of future Bruins will be playing in a first-class, intimate venue that will be a perfect home for UCLA Soccer."

— Amanda Cromwell
UCLA women's soccer head coach

"On behalf of UCLA Men's Soccer and every alum who has represented our program, I would like to extend our gratitude and appreciation to the Annenberg Family and Foundation. Their generous gift will forever change the landscape of soccer at UCLA. In the near future, we will be able to provide a game-day experience for families and the surrounding community that will be impactful and meaningful. For years the Annenberg Foundation has positively influenced each group they have touched, and for UCLA Soccer to receive this gift makes us incredibly blessed."

— Jorge Salcedo
UCLA men's soccer head coach

Nine Former UCLA Standouts Inducted into UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame

Members of the Hall of Fame Class of 2017 included Toby Bailey (men's basketball), Robin Beauregard (women's water polo), Monique Henderson (track & field), Maurice Jones-Drew (football), Bob Larsen (track & field/cross country coach), Kristen Maloney (gymnastics), Brandon Taliaferro (men's volleyball), and Gina Vecchione (softball). Additionally, Bobby Field was inducted for his extraordinary service to the athletic department.

Toby Bailey

Men's Basketball, 1995-98

As a freshman in 1995, Toby Bailey led UCLA to its 11th NCAA Men's Basketball Championship with a 26-point, nine-rebound performance in the title game. A four-year letterman, he finished his career as the No. 5 all-time scorer at UCLA with 1,846 points, averaging 14.3 points, 5.2 rebounds and 3.6 assists in 129 career games. He ranks ninth at UCLA with 458 career assists and eighth with 171 three-point field goals made. Bailey earned first-team All-Pac-10 honors from 1996-98 and was UCLA's Co-MVP in 1996 and 1998. He was a second-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Lakers and played for two seasons with the Phoenix Suns before completing his career in Europe.

Robin Beauregard

Women's Water Polo, 1998-2003

Robin Beauregard won three national championships as a Bruin, in 1998 as a true freshman, in 2001 after redshirting two seasons to train for the Olympics, and again as a senior in 2003. A four-time All-American, Beauregard was a two-time nominee for the Peter J. Cutino Award, honoring the top collegiate player, and in 2003, she was named the Most Outstanding Player at the 2003 NCAA Championship. She competed for Team USA at the 2000 and 2004 Olympic Games, winning silver in 2000 and bronze in 2004, and she also captured gold at the 2003 World Championships. Beauregard was inducted into the USA Water Polo Hall of Fame in 2011.

Monique Henderson

Women's Track and Field, 2002-05

Monique Henderson had a storied career at UCLA, winning three NCAA titles (2004 outdoor team and 400m, 2002 indoor DMR), seven Pac-12 titles and 10 All-America awards, not to mention an Olympic gold medal in the 4x400m relay following her junior season. Henderson went on to capture Olympic gold again in 2008. In 2004, she scored 11.25 of UCLA's 69 points to help the Bruins capture the NCAA Outdoor Championship. Still UCLA's record-holder in five events (400m outdoor, 4x400m relay indoor and outdoor, 200m indoor, DMR), Henderson is also the Pac-12 record-holder in the 400m, clocking in a time of 49.96 in 2005. She was the Pac-12 Track Athlete of the Year in 2005 and the Newcomer of the Year in 2002 and was recently named to the Pac-12 All-Century Team.

Maurice Jones-Drew

Football, 2003-05

Running back Maurice Jones-Drew electrified Bruin fans with record-breaking performances on the gridiron. By the end of his playing career at UCLA, he had set school records in career and single-season all-purpose yards, touchdowns in a game, single-game rushing yards, and single-season punt returns for touchdowns. He also set a NCAA record that still stands with a punt return average of 28.5 yards in 2005 and went on to earn first-team All-America honors as an all-purpose back/kick returner. Jones-Drew was selected in the second round of the 2006 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars and was a three-time Pro Bowler and three-time 1,000-yard rusher (2009-11), leading the league in rushing in 2011 with 1,606 yards. After retiring from the NFL in 2015, he became an analyst with the NFL Network and is currently on the radio broadcast team for the L.A. Rams.

Bob Larsen

M. Track & Field Coach, 1985-99; M. & W. Cross Country Coach, 1980-99

Distance guru Bob Larsen led the UCLA men's track and field teams to two NCAA Championships, nine Pac-12 titles and four national dual meet titles during his nearly 20 years as head coach. He had an incredible dual meet record of 118-3-1 that included an unbeaten 15-year dual mark versus rival USC. In cross country, he led UCLA to two conference crowns and six NCAA appearances. The four-time NCAA Coach of the Year guided 13 athletes to a total of 25 national championships. Larsen was inducted into the National Track & Field Hall of Fame in 2013, and in 2014, he coached his star runner Meb Keflezighi, also a UCLA Athletics Hall of Famer, to the Boston Marathon Championship.

Kristen Maloney

Women's Gymnastics, 2001-05

Kristen Maloney's legacy with UCLA Gymnastics can be summed up in the team award that was named after her – the Kristen Maloney Heart of a Champion Award. The 2000 Olympic bronze medalist fought through multiple surgeries and a nearly career-ending bone infection to become a five-time NCAA champion and nine-time All-American. Maloney helped lead UCLA to the 2001 NCAA title as a freshman but was forced to sit out both the 2002 and 2003 seasons due to complications from the surgeries. She returned in 2004 to help the Bruins win another NCAA team title in record-breaking fashion, and in 2005 she was the Honda Award winner, as well as the National, West Region and Pac-12 Gymnast of the Year. She won three events and the all-around at the 2005 Pac-12 Championships and finished her career by winning the vault and beam titles at the NCAA Championships.

Brandon Taliaferro

Men's Volleyball, 1997-2000

One of the best setters in collegiate volleyball history, Brandon Taliaferro led UCLA to NCAA Championships in 1998 and 2000 and finished his career as the Bruins' all-time leader in set assists with 6,840. Taliaferro also owns school records for single-season (1,848 in 1998) and single-match (110 in 1998) set assists and ranks No. 3 in career aces (176), No. 3 in career digs (831) and No. 10 in total blocks (396). He began his Bruin career by winning MPSF Freshman of the Year honors in 1997 and finished it as a three-time first-team All-American and All-MPSF honoree and the 2000 NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Player. Taliaferro went on to play for the U.S. National Team from 2000-03 and 2006-08 and was recently named to the Pac-12 Men's Volleyball All-Century Team.

Gina Vecchione

Softball, 1980-82

A member of UCLA's first NCAA softball championship team, Gina Vecchione excelled at UCLA as a player and assistant coach. During her playing career, she earned All-Pacific Region honors three times and was a second-team All-American in 1982, as well as a member of the 1982 All-Women's College World Series team. Vecchione, who had her #2 jersey retired in 2007, led UCLA in doubles and tied for the team lead in triples and RBI in 1981. She was later named to the Pac-12 All-Century Team. Vecchione went on to play 12 years professionally with the Raybestos Brakettes, winning eight ASA titles and three World titles. She was a seven-time ASA All-American and became the first UCLA player ever to be inducted into the ASA Hall of Fame in 1997. Vecchione coached at UCLA from 2000-12, helping guide the Bruins to three additional NCAA titles (2003, 2004, 2010). She is currently an associate head coach at Cal Poly.

Bobby Field

Extraordinary Service (football coach, 1978-79, 1981-2000; administrator, 2001-13)

Bobby Field spent 35 years impacting UCLA student-athlete lives as either a coach or administrator. He coached football for 22 years from 1978-79 and 1981-2000, serving as defensive coordinator for 16 years and assistant head coach for five years. He helped coach UCLA to seven conference championships (the most all-time for a UCLA coach) and five Rose Bowl appearances. He was also part of an NCAA-record eight consecutive bowl wins, which included three Rose Bowls, a Fiesta Bowl and a Cotton Bowl. During his tenure, UCLA played in 15 bowl games and posted a winning record against every conference opponent, including a 12-9-1 mark against USC. He moved into an administrative role in 2001 and served as the sport supervisor for football, rowing, track and field and golf, in addition to overseeing housing, parking, training table and video services for all sports. In 2001, he instituted the UCLA Coaches Development program, which continues to provide professional growth opportunities for UCLA coaches. He also oversaw the transition of women's rowing from a club sport to a varsity sport, giving a large number of women the opportunity for athletics scholarship and to compete in a NCAA sport at the highest level. Field and his wife Valorie Kondos Field (2010 inductee) became the first-ever married couple to be inducted into UCLA's Athletics Hall of Fame.
