UCLA ON THE AIR

For the first time in 19 years, UCLA football will be broadcast on a new radio station, appearing exclusively on 790 KABC for the 2025 season. The UCLA Department of Athletics announced the new multi-year agreement on Aug. 21, 2025.

KABC-AM 790 becomes the new official radio broadcast home for the UCLA football program, serving all of Southern California with its powerful 6,600-watt signal. With the move to KABC-AM 790, the Bruins will be the primary sports team on the radio station, signaling a departure from sharing the airwaves with other major professional teams in the Los Angeles region.

All games will be produced by JMI Sports, UCLA's corporate and media rights holder. KABC-AM 790 serves as the flagship station of UCLA Bruins Audio Network. Broadcasts are also available on Sirius XM and through the TuneIn App which can be downloaded from the App Store.

Josh Lewin returns as the voice of the Bruins for his 10th season. Former Bruin quarterback Matt Stevens (1983-86) is set to begin his 29th year on the broadcast team and his 23rd as the analyst in the booth after being welcomed into the SoCal Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2019. Another Bruin signal caller, Wayne Cook (1991-94) is in his 24th season as the sideline reporter.

THE MATCHUP

Fresh off a bye week, the UCLA football team hosts Nebraska on Saturday, Nov. 8 in a Big Ten Conference showdown at the Rose Bowl. Kickoff in Pasadena between the Bruins (3-5, 3-2) and Huskers (6-3, 3-3) is scheduled for 6:10 p.m. (PT) on FOX. Fans in the greater Los Angeles region can listen live on AM 790, the new home of the UCLA Bruins Audio Network.

UCLA WINNING STREAK HALTED AT INDIANA

The Bruins' three-game winning streak came to an end at Indiana on Saturday, Oct. 25, falling to the Hoosiers, 56-6. Indiana out-gained UCLA 475-201 with the Hoosiers rushing for 262 yards and four touchdowns. UCLA quarterback Nico Iamaleava completed 13-of-27 passes for 113 yards with two interceptions in the loss. Linebacker JonJon Vaughns led the Bruins defense with 13 tackles (5-8-13), marking the fifth double-digit tackle performance of his career, all coming this season.

KEY NOTES ON UCLA

- According to Big Ten Network Research, UCLA is just the third Big Ten team all-time to lose its first four games and then win its next three, joining 1963 Indiana and 2001 Penn State. The only power conference teams to do so in the BCS/CFP era are 2001 Penn State, 2021 Florida State, and 2025 UCLA.
- UCLA won three straight games against No. 7 Penn State (Oct. 4), Michigan State (Oct. 11) and Maryland (Oct. 18) under interim head coach Tim Skipper. Across those three games, UCLA scored 100 points with 12 touchdowns and averaged 422.3 yards of total offense (233.3 rushing, 189.0 passing).
- UCLA, led by an interim head coach and new offensive and defensive play-callers, defeated No. 7 Penn State, 42-37, at the Rose Bowl for its first win over an AP top-10 opponent since Sept. 24, 2010.
- UCLA's defense has seen an uptick in production over its past five games since Skipper and senior defensive analyst Kevin Coyle (play-caller) took over responsibilities. The Bruins are allowing an average of 83.8 fewer yards on defense (347.2 yards per game) over their past five games. UCLA has also tripled its tackle-for-loss per game output; UCLA recorded 5.0 TFLs in games 1-3 and 21.0 TFLs in games 4-8. Additionally, the Bruins have recorded six turnovers with three interceptions and three fumble recoveries over this five-game stretch.
- The Bruins lead the Big Ten Conference and rank sixth in the FBS in redzone efficiency with 23 scores on 24 trips for a 95.8 success rate (9 passing TDs, 5 rushing TDs and 9 FGs). UCLA failed to score on its first redzone trip of the season at Michigan State (missed FG).
- Quarterback Nico Iamaleava has averaged 183.5 passing yards per game on 148-of-234 passing (63.2%), including 10 touchdowns, over the first eight starts of his UCLA career. He also leads the team in rushing touchdowns (4) and rushing yards (388) through eight games. Iamaleava recorded the longest of his career in the third quarter versus Penn State with a 52-yard carry.
- N. Iamaleava accounted for all of UCLA's five touchdowns (three rushing, two passing) and recorded 296 yards of total offense (166 passing, 128 rushing) in its 42-37 upset victory over Penn State. Iamaleava's three rushing touchdowns tied a UCLA QB single-game record; the last time a Bruins quarterback ran for three touchdowns was Rick Bashore against Washington State on Oct. 14, 1978. Former All-American QBs Gary Beban and John Sciarra (twice) also accomplished the feat.
- Running back Anthony Frias II recorded a career-high 97 rushing yards on four carries (24.3 yards per carry), including his first career touchdown, in UCLA's 20-17 win over Maryland. Frias' score came on a 55-yard rush in the second quarter, which was good for UCLA's longest scoring play of the season. The Turlock, Calif. native also recorded a 35-yard rush during the Bruins' final drive of the game to put UCLA at the Maryland 5-yard line and set up the game-winning field goal.
- Wide receiver Titus Mokiao-Atimalala logged the first 100-yard receiving game of his career versus Maryland with 102 yards on six catches. Mokiao-Atimalala leads UCLA with three touchdowns this season, with two of those scores coming in UCLA's past four games against No. 7 Penn State and Michigan State.
- Wide receiver Kwazi Gilmer has recorded a catch in 18 straight games. Gilmer leads the Bruins' receiving corps with 382 yards and 31 catches (12.3 yards per catch). Gilmer scored UCLA's first points against Penn State on an 11-yard pass on the first drive of the game. Gilmer also made the second-longest reception of his career against the Nittany Lions with a 43-yard play in the second quarter to set up a UCLA score.
- Running back Jalen Berger recorded a career-high-tying three touchdowns (two receiving, one rushing) and 89 rushing yards on 12 carries in his return to Michigan State. In doing so, Berger became the first UCLA running back with multiple receiving TDs since Demetric Felton did so against USC in 2020. Berger also became the first UCLA non-QB with three total TDs since Carson Steele versus USC in 2023.
- Linebacker JonJon Vaughns leads the Big Ten and ranks ninth in FBS with 9.9 tackles per game this season. Vaughns has recorded the first five double-digit tackle performances of his career in his final campaign in Westwood. Last time out at Indiana (Oct. 25), Vaughns recorded a game-high 13 tackles (5-8-13).

MOST RECENT MEETING

UCLA 27, Nebraska 20
Nov. 2, 2024- Memorial Stadium (Lincoln, Neb.)

UCLA picked up its second consecutive Big Ten road win with a 27-20 triumph over Nebraska at Memorial Stadium on Nov. 2, 2024.

Ethan Garbers threw for 219 yards and a pair of touchdowns as the Bruins built a 27-7 lead midway through the third quarter.

Nebraska's offense got into more of a rhythm in the second half, but key interceptions from Kain Medrano and Kaylin Moore at the beginning and end of the second half helped UCLA hold off the Huskers.

Medrano started the second stanza in the best way possible for UCLA, picking off a pass from Nebraska's Dylan Raiola and taking it 38 yards to the house for a pick-six.

After the Huskers scored 13 in a row to get within seven in the fourth quarter, Moore was able to intercept a pass that deflected off a Nebraska receiver's knee with under a minute remaining to seal the result.

RB Jalen Berger caught his second touchdown in as many games for the Bruins, and WR Kwazi Gilmer tallied a career-high 88 receiving yards while hauling in his first-career touchdown catch. Carson Schwesinger paced the defensive corps with 13 tackles, his sixth-consecutive game with double-digit stops.

UNDER CENTER

- Redshirt sophomore Nico lamaleava has averaged 183.5 passing yards per game on 148-of-234 passing (63.2%), including 10 touchdowns, over the first eight starts of his UCLA career. He also leads the team in rushing touchdowns (4) and rushing yards (388) through eight games.
- N. lamaleava went without a touchdown pass for the first time this season in UCLA's 56-6 loss at Indiana (Oct. 25). lamaleava finished the game completing 13-of-27 attempts for 113 passing yards with two interceptions.
- N. lamaleava steered two scoring drives in the fourth quarter to lead UCLA to a Homecoming victory over Maryland (Oct. 18). With 5:39 remaining, lamaleava led an eight-play, 2:06 drive capped by a 14-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mikey Matthews to give the Bruins a 14-10 lead. After a game-tying touchdown by Maryland, lamaleava completed back-to-back passes to wide receiver Titus Mokiiao-Atimalala for 33 yards to help put the Bruins in field goal territory. lamaleava completed 9-for-15 passes for 122 yards in the fourth quarter.
- N. lamaleava threw for a season-high three touchdowns and 180 yards on 16-of-24 passing in UCLA's 38-13 road win at Michigan State (Oct. 11). lamaleava connected with running back Jalen Berger (twice) and Mokiiao-Atimalala on his touchdown passes. lamaleava also had a game-long 37-yard reception to Matthews.
- N. lamaleava accounted for all of UCLA's five touchdowns (three rushing, two passing) and recorded 296 yards of total offense (166 passing, 128 rushing) in the Bruins' 42-37 upset victory over Penn State (Oct. 4). lamaleava was responsible for all six of the UCLA offense's 20-plus-yard plays. He recorded UCLA's longest rush of the season and the longest of his career in the third quarter with a 52-yard carry.
- N. lamaleava's 128 rushing yards against Penn State bested his previous career high of 65 yards set against Northwestern just one week earlier (Sept. 27). The 128 rushing yards are the most by a UCLA QB since Brett Hundley rushed for 131 yards versus Arizona on Nov. 1, 2014. lamaleava also recorded the longest rush of his career in the third quarter versus Penn State with a 52-yard carry to help set up a Bruins score.
- N. lamaleava's three rushing touchdowns versus Penn State matched a career high and tied a UCLA QB single-game record. The last time a Bruins quarterback ran for three TDs previously was Rick Bashore against Washington State on Oct. 14, 1978. Former All-American QBs Gary Beban and John Sciarra (twice also accomplished the feat).
- N. lamaleava completed 17-of-24 passes for 166 yards and two touchdowns against Penn State. He completed a season-long 43-yard pass to wide receiver Kwazi Gilmer in the second quarter to set up a scoring drive.
- N. lamaleava earned numerous honors for his career performance versus Penn State: AP National Player of the Week, Maxwell Award Player of the Week, Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week, Davey O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week and Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week.
- N. lamaleava accounted for 314 yards of total offense (255 passing, 59 rushing) and two touchdowns in UCLA's loss at UNLV (Sept. 6). The performance marked lamaleava's third career game, and first at UCLA, with 300-plus yards of total offense. With 8:50 remaining in the fourth quarter, lamaleava rushed for a 30-yard touchdown – the second longest scoring run of his career – to cut UNLV's lead to 30-20.
- N. lamaleava completed 19-of-27 passes for 180 yards and a touchdown in UCLA's 17-14 setback at Northwestern. lamaleava led UCLA in rushing with 65 yards. lamaleava also tied his career-long rush with a 32-yard tote in the third quarter to set up a Bruins' field goal. lamaleava also completed his longest TD pass of the season with a 29-yard strike to Kwazi Gilmer midway through the fourth quarter.
- N. lamaleava completed 22-of-34 passes for 217 yards and one touchdown and one interception in UCLA's 35-10 loss to New Mexico (Sept. 12). lamaleava connected with wide receiver Mikey Matthews on a 32-yard strike in the second quarter, which set up a touchdown drive.
- N. lamaleava completed 11-of-22 passes for 136 yards with one touchdown and one interception in his UCLA debut versus Utah (Aug. 30). lamaleava's first score as a Bruin came in the second quarter when he connected with running back Anthony Woods for a 19-yard touchdown pass. lamaleava also totaled a team-high 47 rushing yards.
- Redshirt sophomore Luke Duncan made his collegiate debut in the fourth quarter to seal a victory against Michigan State.
- N. lamaleava officially signed with UCLA out of the transfer portal on April 20 after spending the previous two seasons at Tennessee. The Long Beach, Calif. native returns home after leading the Volunteers to an 11-3 record as the starting quarterback and a College Football Playoff (CFP) appearance in 2024.
- N. lamaleava was named to five 2025 preseason watch lists in anticipation of his first game in a Bruins uniform: Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year, Davey O'Brien Quarterback of the Year, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Polynesian Player of the Year.
- N. lamaleava finished last season completing 213-of-334 passes (63.8%) for 2,616 yards (201.2 yards per game) and 19 touchdowns with five interceptions. He totaled 299-plus yards of total offense in three contests against UT-Chattanooga (320), Kentucky (306) and Vanderbilt (299).
- Of Samoan descent, N. lamaleava was tabbed as a 2024 Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Finalist during his breakout redshirt freshman season. Also on the awards circuit, lamaleava hauled in four SEC Freshman of the Week awards.
- N. lamaleava became the first Tennessee freshman to lead the program to 10 regular season wins and the first Tennessee quarterback, regardless of class, to win 10 games since Casey Clausen in 2003.
- N. lamaleava ranked second in the Southeastern Conference with six 50-plus-yard completions last season. He posted a career-long completion of 86 yards in the final week of the 2024 season at Vanderbilt.
- N. lamaleava accounted for a career-high 314 yards through the air on 22-of-28 passing with three touchdowns – all coming in the first half – in Tennessee's 2024 season opener versus UT-Chattanooga. His 314 yards broke the program record for passing yards in a half and marked the fourth total 300-yard performance by a Volunteers quarterback.
- N. lamaleava tossed a career-high four passing touchdowns on two occasions last season in Weeks 11 (UTEP) and 12 (Vanderbilt). He threw for multiple touchdowns in five games in his Tennessee career, all of which came in 2024.
- N. lamaleava entered 2025 having totaled 2,930 passing yards and 21 touchdowns on 241-of-379 passing (64.0%) over his 18 games at Tennessee.

• N. lamaleava was thrust into his first career start as a true freshman versus Iowa in the Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 2024, leading Tennessee to a 35-0 shutout victory in which he was named MVP. He accounted for 178 yards of total offense and four touchdowns (three rushing, one passing) against Iowa's staunch defense.

• N. lamaleava, a graduate of Warren High School in Downey, Calif., was listed as the No. 1 overall player in the Class of 2023 by On3 and No. 2 overall by Rivals and 247Sports. He was honored as the 2022 Polynesian High School Player of the Year after leading Warren to a 9-2 record and CIF-SS Division II playoff appearance in the final season of his prep career.

• Nico shares the QB room with his younger brother, Madden lamaleava, who joined the Bruins out of the transfer portal as a true freshman from Arkansas.

• Redshirt senior Ethan Garbers started 11 of 12 games last season as UCLA's primary quarterback. Garbers totaled 2,727 passing yards on 235-of-363 attempts (64.7%) and 16 touchdowns with 11 interceptions in his final college campaign. He averaged 247.9 yards per game over his 11 contests (missed Week 5 at Penn State) and finished the season ranked 21st in the FBS with 21.36 completions per game, which was good for third in the Big Ten.

BRUIN BALL CARRIERS

• Redshirt senior Anthony Frias II recorded a career-high 97 rushing yards on four carries (24.3 yards per carry), including his first career touchdown, in UCLA's 20-17 win over Maryland (Oct. 18). Frias' score came on a 55-yard rush in the second quarter, which was good for UCLA's longest play, of any kind, this season. The Turlock, Calif. native also recorded a 35-yard rush during the Bruins' final drive of the game to put UCLA at the Maryland 5-yard line and set up the game-winning field goal.

• Frias' 55-yard run was UCLA's longest scoring rush since a 62-yard score by T.J. Harden against NC Central on Sept. 16, 2023. For Frias, that one run alone eclipsed his previous career high for single-game rushing yards of 43 set against Fresno State last season on Nov. 30. Overall, Frias finished with a career-high 130 yards of total offense (97 rushing, 31 kickoff return and 2 receiving).

• Frias led UCLA in rushing for the second time in as many games with 31 yards on six carries at Indiana (Oct. 25).

• UCLA has averaged 197.0 yards rushing and 5.1 yards per carry (788 rushing yards, 156 carries) with six rushing touchdowns since assistant head coach Jerry Neuheisel took over offensive play calling duties (last four games). Four different players have rushed for a touchdown in that span: Jalen Berger, Anthony Frias II, Nico lamaleava (3) and Jaivian Thomas.

• Redshirt senior Jalen Berger recorded a career-high-tying three touchdowns (two receiving, one rushing) and 89 rushing yards on 12 carries in his return to Michigan State (Oct. 11). Berger's 89 rushing yards were the most by a UCLA running back this season and smashed his previous high as a Bruin (38). It also marked the second time this season somebody besides Nico lamaleava led the team in rushing.

• Against Michigan State, Berger became the first UCLA running back with multiple receiving TDs since Demetric Felton did so against USC in 2020. Berger also became the first UCLA non-QB with three total TDs since Carson Steele versus USC in 2023. Berger is now up to 11 rushing TDs and three receiving TDs (all as a Bruin) in his career.

• Junior Jaivian Thomas logged his first rushing touchdown as a Bruin on a 1-yard rush in the second half at Michigan State, marking the ninth total TD of his three-year college career. Berger and Thomas' rushing touchdowns at Michigan State marked the first non-Nico lamaleava rushing TDs of the season for UCLA.

• Redshirt junior Anthony Woods (63 yards, 14 carries), Thomas (60 yards, 16 carries) and Berger (29 yards, six carries) helped UCLA rush for 269 rushing yards in its 42-37 upset victory over No. 7 Penn State (Oct. 4). The 269 rushing yards marked a season high and were UCLA's most in a game since gaining 280 yards versus Boise State in the 2023 LA Bowl at SoFi Stadium.

• UCLA topped 200-plus rushing yards for the second time in as many games with 238 at Michigan State and 269 versus Penn State. The Bruins had most recently rushed for 200 or more yards in back-to-back games during the 2023 seasons (three straight games against Oregon State, Stanford and Colorado).

• UCLA's 269 rushing yards versus Penn State were the most allowed by the Nittany Lions since Michigan rushed for 418 yards on Oct. 15, 2022. That marks the only two times Penn State has allowed 269-plus rushing yards since the start of the 2020 season.

• Four different Bruins logged 20-plus-yard rushes during UCLA's 30-23 setback at UNLV (Sept. 6), marking the first time UCLA had accomplished that feat since Week 3 of the 2023 season in a 59-7 win over NC Central. That group included quarterback Nico lamaleava (30-yard TD run) and running backs Thomas (32), A. Woods (20) and Berger (20).

• A. Woods led UCLA in rushing for the first time this season with 64 yards on 10 carries (6.4 yards per carry) in the Bruins' 35-10 loss to New Mexico (Sept. 12). Woods recorded his longest run of the season on a 33-yard tote to end the first half.

• Thomas led UCLA's running backs with 43 yards in UCLA's 30-23 loss at UNLV (Sept. 6). Thomas recorded his longest run of the season in that contest with a 32-yard dash on the Bruins' first drive.

• A. Woods scored UCLA's first touchdown of the season on a 19-yard reception in the second quarter versus Utah during his Bruins debut (Aug. 30). The score marked the second receiving touchdown of Woods' career and first since 2023 as a sophomore at Idaho. Woods finished the game with a team-high and career-high 48 receiving yards.

• Berger and Frias are UCLA's only returning rushers who tallied a carry from the 2024 season.

• Berger and Thomas were both named to the 2025 Doak Walker Award Watch List, which is given annually to the top running back in the nation.

• A. Woods starred at Idaho (FCS) for two seasons (2022-23) prior to redshirting 2024 at Utah due to injury. Woods earned All-Big Sky Conference honors both seasons at Idaho, totaling 2,027 rushing yards and 19 touchdowns over his 24 games as a Vandal.

• A. Woods was named All-Big Sky First Team in his most recent season of competition (2023). He finished his sophomore campaign with 1,155 rushing yards on 206 carries and 16 touchdowns. He posted six 100-yard rushing performances.

• A. Woods leads all student-athletes on UCLA's 2025 roster with eight career 100-yard performances (all at Idaho).

• Thomas, also known as "Jet", was California's leading rusher in 2024 with 626 yards and seven touchdowns on 100 carries (6.3 yards per carry), despite starting only three games.

- Thomas posted his first career 100-yard rushing performance versus San Diego State in 2024 with 169 yards on 17 attempts. Additionally, Thomas has recorded one multi-TD performance, coming against N.C. State last season.
- Berger appeared in eight games as a reserve in his debut season at UCLA, totaling 178 yards on 48 carries (3.7 yards per carry). The Newark, N.J. native found the endzone twice as a receiver at Rutgers (Oct. 19) and Nebraska (Nov. 2), marking the second time in his career he had posted a score in back-to-back games. Berger's receiving touchdown in his home state of New Jersey marked his first score in a Bruins uniform and the first TD reception of his career.
- Berger has broken the 100-yard rushing mark three times, including a season-opening 16-carry, 120-yard performance against Western Michigan (Sept. 2) for Michigan State in 2022. He started 11 games for the Spartans that year.
- Berger entered the 2025 season with 1,343 rushing yards on 305 carries, including 10 touchdowns, over 32 career games at UCLA, Michigan State (2022-23) and Wisconsin (2020-21).
- Frias saw his most playing time as a Bruin in the 2024 season finale versus Fresno State (Nov. 30), rushing 13 times for 43 yards while catching two passes for 18 yards. He spent the previous two seasons as a reserve running back at Kansas State where he totaled 42 rushing yards on 13 carries.
- Running back T.J. Harden led UCLA with 536 rushing yards on 124 attempts (4.1 yards per carry) in 2024. Secondary backs Keegan Jones and Jalen Berger posted near-identical numbers with 188 yards on 47 attempts and 178 yards on 48 attempts, respectively. Quarterback Ethan Garbers ranked second on the team with 368 yards on the ground.

WIDEOUTS

- Redshirt senior Titus Mokiao-Atimalala logged the first 100-yard receiving game of his career with 102 yards on six catches versus Maryland (Oct. 18). He caught back-to-back passes for 33 yards on UCLA's final drive to help set up a game-winning field goal in the final seconds. Mokiao-Atimalala finished the game with three separate 20-plus-yard plays (two catches, one kickoff return), which was the most by someone other than Nico lamaleava this season. The six catches also tied his career high which was set in Week 11 of last season versus USC on Nov. 23.
- Mokiao-Atimalala leads UCLA with three touchdowns this season, with two of those scores coming in UCLA's past four games against No. 7 Penn State (Oct. 4) and Michigan State (Oct. 11). He ranks second on the team with 240 receiving yards on 18 catches (13.3 yards per catch).
- Mokiao-Atimalala caught his second TD pass in as many weeks on a 12-yard pass from quarterback Nico lamaleava in the second quarter at Michigan State. It marked the sixth TD catch of his career.
- Junior Mikey Matthews recorded his first touchdown as a Bruin and the second of his career on a 14-yard pass in the fourth quarter versus Maryland. Matthews' clutch catch in man coverage gave UCLA a 14-10 lead with 3:33 remaining in the game.
- Matthews made his longest catch of the season with a 37-yard grab in the second quarter at Michigan State.
- Sophomore Kwazi Gilmer has recorded a catch in 18 straight games. Gilmer leads the Bruins' receiving corps with 382 yards and 31 catches (12.3 yards per catch). He has two touchdown catches this season.
- Gilmer scored UCLA's first points against Penn State on an 11-yard pass on the first drive of the game. Gilmer also made the second-longest reception of his career against the Nittany Lions with a 43-yard play in the second quarter to set up a UCLA score.
- Mokiao-Atimalala caught a touchdown against Penn State on a six-yard pass in the second quarter. He finished the game with 41 receiving yards.
- Gilmer tallied his first touchdown grab of the season on a 29-yard connection with N. lamaleava in the fourth quarter of UCLA's 17-14 loss at Northwestern (Sept. 27). He finished with a team-high 51 receiving yards.
- Redshirt sophomore Rico Flores Jr. recorded a team-high four catches for 43 yards at Northwestern after missing 11 straight dating back to last season due to injury.
- Flores led UCLA in receiving yards for the first time this season at Indiana (Oct. 25), taking four catches for 50 yards.
- Gilmer hauled in a career-high eight receptions for 87 yards in UCLA's loss at UNLV (Sept. 6). His 87 yards were one shy of his career high set at Nebraska last season (88). Two of those catches came on UCLA's final drive to help put the team at UNLV's 24-yard line and set up a scoring opportunity.
- Mokiao-Atimalala recorded his first touchdown of the season in the second quarter versus New Mexico (Sept. 12). The score marked his first touchdown grab since Week 9 of the 2024 season versus Iowa on Nov. 8.
- Matthews led UCLA in receiving yards for the first time this season with 67 yards on three catches (22.3 yards per catch) versus New Mexico.
- Redshirt senior Ezavier Staples caught his first two passes of the season for 18 yards on back-to-back plays during UCLA's final drive at UNLV. The two receptions marked his first in 17 games played (previously recorded a catch at Stanford in 2023).
- UCLA has five returning wide receivers that saw game action during the 2024 season: sophomore Kwazi Gilmer, redshirt sophomores Rico Flores Jr. and Carter Shaw and redshirt seniors Titus Mokiao-Atimalala and Ezavier Staples.
- Gilmer led his position group with 31 receptions as a true freshman last season and ranked second among all UCLA wideouts with 345 receiving yards (trailed redshirt senior Logan Loya's 348 yards). Gilmer's two receiving touchdowns in 2024 are tied with running back Jalen Berger for the most among the Bruins' returners.
- Gilmer was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week after his most impactful game of last season at Nebraska (Nov. 2). The Sierra Canyon School product posted a season-high 88 receiving yards while reeling in his first career TD reception on a 48-yard grab.
- Gilmer recorded a catch in 10 straight games to close the 2024 season, marking the longest streak for a UCLA wide receiver that year.
- Mokiao-Atimalala entered his fifth season as a collegian with 675 career receiving yards on 55 catches (12.3 yards per catch), including three touchdowns.
- Mokiao-Atimalala set a career high in receptions (six) last season against USC on Nov. 23, 2024.
- Flores Jr. made three 20-plus-yard receptions over four games last season before his year was cut short due to injury. He caught two passes that went for 39 yards or more at Hawai'i (Aug. 31). His 39-yarder went for a touchdown.

- Matthews transferred to UCLA this past offseason from California where he posted 32 receptions, 272 receiving yards and one touchdown in 2024. While at Cal, Matthews was coached by new UCLA passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach Burl Toler III.
- Matthews, who played in all 12 games as a true freshman at Utah in 2022, enters his third college season with 533 career receiving yards on 61 receptions, including one touchdown.

Y-LIFE

- Redshirt senior Hudson Habermehl has started in seven of UCLA's eight games this season after missing the entirety of last year due to injury. Habermehl caught his lone target in the Bruins' season opener versus Utah for nine yards (Aug. 30).
- Habermehl recorded a season-high 35 receiving yards on three catches, including a season-long 26-yard reception, in UCLA's 38-13 win at Michigan State (Oct. 11).
- True freshman Noah Fox-Flores recorded the first catch and touchdown of his career on a four-yard pass from Nico lamaleava at the 7:48 mark in the third quarter at UNLV (Sept. 6). Fox-Flores is the first UCLA true freshman tight end to record a touchdown since Thomas Duarte in 2013.
- Habermehl recorded a career-high four catches for 20 yards in UCLA's 35-10 loss to New Mexico (Sept. 12)
- Redshirt junior Jack Pedersen matched his career high in catches with three for 20 yards as a reserve TE at UNLV.
- Pedersen returns after making his first four career starts and playing in all 12 games last season. Pedersen hauled in 12 passes for 126 yards (10.5 yards per catch) and recorded the first touchdown of his career on a 20-yard strike at LSU (Sept. 21).
- Pedersen turned in season highs in receptions (3) and receiving yards (37) in UCLA's loss at Washington last season (Nov. 15).
- Habermehl enters his seventh year at UCLA after missing all of 2024 due to injury. He played in 30 contests and made six starts in his three previous seasons of competition.
- Habermehl's five career touchdown receptions lead all Bruins on the 2025 roster. His last TD reception came in UCLA's 2023 LA Bowl victory over Boise State.
- Senior tight end Moliki Mataavao was UCLA's leading receiver in 2024 with 506 yards and 41 catches (12.3 YPC). Mataavao was one of two Bruins to have two games with 100-plus yards receiving (104 at Rutgers; 120 vs. Fresno State).
- Mataavao was UCLA's lone offensive selection in the 2025 NFL Draft, being picked in the seventh round, 248th overall by the New Orleans Saints. His is the fifth UCLA tight end to be drafted in the past 10 years (since 2016).

OBSERVING THE O-LINE

- UCLA's offensive line unit of Ford-Brooks-Yoon-DiGiorgio-Unije helped UCLA average 233.3 yards rushing and 5.3 yards per carry (700 rushing yards, 131 carries) with six rushing touchdowns over its three-game winning streak against Penn State (269 yards), Michigan State (238) and Maryland (193).
- UCLA saw its regular O-Line configuration broken up at Indiana (Oct. 25). Redshirt senior Yutaka Mahe made his first start of the season and the third of his career at left guard in place of Eugene Brooks.
- The Bruins topped 200-plus rushing yards in back-to-back games with 269 versus Penn State (Oct. 4) and 238 at Michigan State (Oct. 11). The Bruins had most recently rushed for 200 or more yards in back-to-back games during the 2023 seasons (three straight games against Oregon State, Stanford and Colorado).
- UCLA's offensive line helped the Bruins rush for a season-high 269 yards in its 42-37 upset victory of No. 7 Penn State. The 269 rushing yards marked a season high and were UCLA's most in a game since gaining 280 yards versus Boise State in the 2023 LA Bowl at SoFi Stadium.
- UCLA's 269 rushing yards versus Penn State were the most allowed by the Nittany Lions since Michigan rushed for 418 yards on Oct. 15, 2022. That marks the only two times Penn State has allowed 269-plus rushing yards since the start of the 2020 season.
- Offensive linemen Courtland Ford (LT), Eugene Brooks (LG) and Julian Armella (RG) made their UCLA debuts in the Bruins' 43-10 loss to Utah (Aug. 30). Both Brooks and Armella were making just their second career starts in the contest.
- Redshirt senior Garrett DiGiorgio has made his first starts at left tackle (New Mexico) and right guard (Northwestern, Penn State, Michigan State, Maryland, Indiana) this season. All of his previous 40 starts came at right tackle, as he was a three-year start at the position from 2022-24. DiGiorgio has started 19 straight games dating back to Week 2 of 2024 after missing last year's season opener at Hawai'i due to injury.
- DiGiorgio made his first appearance of the season at LT against UNLV (Sept. 6), switching over after starting the game at RT.
- Redshirt junior Sam Yoon, the Bruins' other returning starter, has started 16 straight games at center dating back to Week 5 of 2024 at Penn State.
- Redshirt senior Reuben Unije has made six straight starts at right tackle (since Game 3 vs. New Mexico) after seeing action as a reserve right tackle against UNLV.
- New offensive line coach Andy Kwon joins the Bruins from Arkansas State, where he spent four seasons guiding the Red Wolves' offensive line (2022-24) and tight ends (2021).
- Redshirt seniors Tautai Li'o Marks (26), Reuben Unije (23, four as a Bruin) and Courtland Ford (14) have also made double-digit starts as collegians entering the 2025 season.
- The 2024 UCLA offense saw an uptick in its offensive numbers from Games 5-12. In their first four contests, the Bruins averaged 57.0 rushing yards per game and 262.0 total yards per game. Over its final eight outings, the unit put up 101.4 yards per game on the ground and 362.1 yards of total offense. Yoon started at center in the final eight games.
- Redshirt senior Jaylan Jeffers made his first career start at Washington on Nov. 15, 2024. Redshirt senior Yutaka Mahe logged his first two career starts against USC (Nov. 23, 2024) and Fresno State (Nov. 30, 2024) to close out the season. Each started at left tackle.
- The UCLA rushing attack totaled 211 yards on 39 carries (5.4 yards per rush) in the Bruins' Nov. 8, 2024 home win against Iowa. The Hawkeyes entered the contest surrendering just 106.3 rushing yards per game, good for 18th nationally. UCLA's offensive line did not allow a sack.
- The average height and weight of the Bruins' nine newcomers on the offensive line are 6-foot-5 and 312 pounds.

D-LINE DATA

- Redshirt senior Jalen Hargrove made the initial start of his career at Indiana (Oct. 25). He assisted on one tackle — his first as a Bruin.
- Redshirt senior Kechaun Bennett made one tackle for loss (three yards) in the Bruins' 20-17 home win against Maryland (Oct. 18). Bennett and a fellow edge rusher, redshirt senior Jake Busic, lead UCLA's defensive linemen with three TFLs each. The team totaled five TFLs in Games 1-3 this season and has piled up 21 in Games 4-8. The Bruins tallied a season-high seven TFLs in their loss at Northwestern (Sept. 27). The 2024 squad recorded seven-plus TFLs four times.
- Redshirt senior Devin Aupiu and redshirt junior Siale Taupaki collaborated on a pair of firsts in the second quarter of UCLA's 38-13 victory at Michigan State (Oct. 11). Aupiu sacked Aidan Chiles for a 10-yard loss, picking up his first career forced fumble in the process. Taupaki, who also had a TFL in the game, then hopped on the loose ball for the initial fumble recovery of his time as a Bruin.
- The UCLA defensive front helped contain the Michigan State rushing offense, holding the Spartans to just 87 rushing yards. That stands as a season-best performance by the Bruin defense.
- Busic played a starring role in the Bruins' 42-37 win against No. 7 Penn State (Oct. 4), with both of his tackles going for negative yardage. His first stop came in a fourth-and-two sack of Drew Allar, driving the Nittany Lions back 11 yards and ultimately setting up a Mateen Bhaghani field goal. Busic has two career sacks in a UCLA uniform. The Bruins had six TFLs in all versus the Nittany Lions.
- Redshirt senior Gary Smith III set a new career high with seven total tackles (2-5-7), including a sack and 1.5 tackles for loss, at Northwestern.
- Redshirt sophomore A.J. Fuimaono more than doubled his previous career high in tackles with five (1-4-5) at Northwestern. Fuimaono also recorded his first career sack and tackle for loss in the contest.
- Redshirt senior Keanu Williams set a new career high in tackles with six (3-3-6) versus New Mexico (Sept. 12).
- Redshirt junior Anthony Jones recorded a three-yard sack in the first quarter at UNLV (Sept. 6). It was UCLA's first QB sack of the season, and marked the third of Jones' career. Jones also finished with a career-high 1.5 tackles for loss against the Rebels.
- Bennett made his first career start against UNLV, lining up at defensive end. Bennett finished with a career-high five tackles (2-3-5) and recorded the first sack of his career.
- Gary Smith III and Keanu Williams started Week 1 versus Utah after returning from their respective season-ending injuries (Aug. 30). Smith made his first start versus Utah since 2022 after missing the entirety of 2024 due to injury. Williams' 2024 campaign was cut short after sustaining an injury in Week 3 versus Indiana.
- Jones made his UCLA debut versus Utah on the edge. Jones, making his first start since 2023 while at Indiana, matched his career high in tackles with five against the Utes.
- New defensive line coach Jethro Franklin brings 33 years of defensive-line coaching experience to Westwood in 2025. He got his start in the profession at his alma mater, Fresno State, where he also spent the past three seasons with current UCLA interim head coach Tim Skipper. Franklin was also UCLA's interior defensive line coach in 1999.
- Aupiu and Taupaki are UCLA's two returning starters on the defensive side of the ball. Aupiu started eight games coming off the edge, while Taupaki started seven on the interior line in 2024.
- Aupiu notched two tackles for loss, the Oxnard, Calif. native's first career multi-TFL outing, in the Bruins' win at Nebraska on Nov. 2, 2024.
- UCLA had a pair of defensive linemen selected in the 2025 NFL draft. Oluwafemi Oladejo, who moved from linebacker to edge in the Bruins' third 2024 contest, was picked in the second round (No. 52 overall) by Tennessee. Defensive tackle Jay Toia, was drafted by Dallas in the seventh round (No. 217). Edge rusher Laiatu Latu, tabbed UCLA's first ever winner of the Lombardi Award (lineman of the year) and the Ted Hendricks Award (most outstanding defensive end) in 2023, was a first-round selection of Indianapolis (No. 15) in 2024.
- UCLA's rushing defense ranked sixth nationally with 96.2 yards allowed on the ground per game in 2024. The Bruins finished second in the nation in rushing defense, giving up 80.8 rushing yards per game to opponents in 2023.
- Gary Smith III, who entered 2025 having not seen game action since being injured Nov. 11, 2023, has been selected to the 2026 Senior Bowl Top 300 list and is also part of the 2025 College Football Comeback Player of the Year Pre-Season Watch List. In four seasons with UCLA (2022-24) and Duke (2020, 2021), Smith has put up 72 total tackles (30-42-72), eight TFLs and three sacks across 38 games (13 starts).
- Also returning from injury in 2025 is Keanu Williams, who exited the Bruins' Sept. 14, 2024 contest against Indiana. Williams has posted 20 total tackles (9-11-20), 1.5 TFL and 1.5 sacks across 26 games (12 starts) in his four seasons with UCLA (2023, 2024) and Oregon (2021, 2022).

LOOKING AT THE LINEBACKERS

- Redshirt senior JonJon Vaughns (9.9) and redshirt sophomore Isaiah Chisom (8.1) rank ninth and 46th in the FBS in total tackles per game, respectively. The pair also ranks 1-7 in the Big Ten in total tackles per game.
- Vaughns has recorded the first five double-digit tackles performances of his career this season (15 vs. Utah, 10 at UNLV, 10 vs. New Mexico, 12 at Northwestern, 13 at Indiana).
- Vaughns led UCLA with 13 tackles (5-8-13) at Indiana, 12 (5-7-12) at Northwestern, 10 (4-6-10) at UNLV and eight (5-3-8) versus Maryland.
- The Bruins held MSU to just 87 rushing yards and 253 yards of total offense (Oct. 11). Those are both season-best marks for the UCLA defense.
- Redshirt freshman Donavyn Pellot, who missed the 2024 season in its entirety due to injury, has totaled 11 tackles (8-3-11) in the Bruins' past five games after being kept off the stat sheet in the first three. He matched his career high with three total stops (1-2-3) at Michigan State.

UCLA UPSETS NO. 7 PENN STATE, 42-37

- UCLA, led by an interim head coach and new offensive and defensive play-callers, defeated No. 7-ranked Penn State, 42-37, at the Rose Bowl on Saturday, Oct. 4 for its first win of the 2025 season.
- The upset victory marked the Bruins' first win over a top-10 opponent since beating then-No. 7 Texas, 34-12, at Darrel K. Royal Stadium on Sept. 25, 2010. It also snapped the Bruins' 16-game losing skid over top-10 teams.
- The victory also marked the fifth time in college football history, and first time since 1985, that an 0-4 or worse team defeated a top-10 opponent. UTEP topped No. 7 BYU in that 1985 contest; UCLA also beat BYU in that season.
- Assistant head coach Jerry Neuheisel, who took over play-calling duties on Tuesday, Sept. 30, helped UCLA score a season-high 42 points in his first game on the headset. The Bruins had totaled just 57 points across its previous five games.
- The 42 points were the most allowed by a Penn State team in a regular-season contest since Ohio State scored 44 on Oct. 29, 2022 (Oregon scored 45 points vs. PSU in the 2024 Big Ten Championship). Penn State's defense held opponents to 11.8 points over its previous four games.
- UCLA rushed for a season-high 269 yards, which were the most allowed by a Penn State defense since Michigan rushed for 418 yards on Oct. 15, 2022.
- Tim Skipper earned his first-ever win over a top-25 opponent in just his second game as UCLA's interim head coach.
- UCLA's defensive play caller Kevin Coyle joined the staff during the week of Sept. 22 as a senior defensive analyst.
- QB Nico Iamaleava accounted for a career-high five touchdowns (three rushing, two passing) in the win.
- Iamaleava's three rushing touchdowns tied a UCLA quarterback single-game record, marking just the fifth time in program history a Bruins QB rushed for three scores. It had been most recently accomplished by Rick Bashore in 1978.
- UCLA did not trail Penn State at any point in the contest, leading wire-to-wire for 55:26 minutes after its first drive and score of the game. UCLA had not held a lead at any point of its previous four games.

- Chisom and freshman Scott Taylor registered two of UCLA's three forced fumbles in the Bruins' upset win against Penn State (Oct. 4). It marked the first time a UCLA team had forced three fumbles in a game since Nov. 18, 2023 at USC. Taylor also set a career high with three total tackles (2-1-3), which he later matched against Maryland (Oct. 18), versus the Nittany Lions. The Bruins have forced at least one fumble in five of their eight games played this season.
- Redshirt junior Jalen Woods logged a career-high eight total tackles (6-2-8) in the Bruins' 42-37 win against No. 7 Penn State. He was tied for the team lead alongside Chisom and defensive back Key Lawrence.
- Chisom paced the Bruins' defense with 11 stops (7-4-11) against New Mexico (Sept. 12).
- Chisom (5-12-17) and Vaughns (6-9-15) finished with double-digit tackles in UCLA's season-opening loss to Utah (Aug. 30). UCLA had multiple double-digit tacklers in one game in 2024 (Carson Schwesinger, 15; Oluwafemi Oladejo, 10 at Penn State). Chisom and Vaughns each recorded 1.0 tackle for loss against Utah.
- Chisom's team-high 17 tackles in his UCLA debut against Utah bested his previous career high by six. The 17 tackles are tied with Carson Schwesinger (Washington, 2024) and Jayon Brown (Colorado, 2016) for the most by a Bruin over the past 10 seasons.
- Vaughns' 15-tackle performance against Utah more than doubled his previous career high of seven set against Colorado in 2022.
- Woods earned his second career start against Utah after starting the Bruins' 2024 matchup versus USC. He finished both games with a then-career-high six stops.
- New associate head coach and inside linebackers coach Scott White is no stranger to UCLA, as he spent seven seasons in Westwood (2011-17) before returning as a defensive analyst last year. He was a quality control coach before being elevated to linebackers coach and special teams coach during his first stint with the Bruins and guided a decorated linebacker room in 2024.
- The 2024 group included Carson Schwesinger, a former walk-on, who had a breakout season as one of the most dominant and instinctive defensive players in the country, leading the FBS in solo tackles (90) and Big Ten Conference in total tackles (136). He finished the season with 8.5 tackles for loss, four sacks and a team-high-tying two interceptions.
- Schwesinger was named a finalist for the Butkus Award and semifinalist for the Burlsworth Trophy in addition to earning Associated Press First Team All-America honors. Schwesinger was UCLA's first Butkus Award finalist since Eric Kendricks (2014), who White also helped mentor.
- Schwesinger eclipsed 100 tackles for the season at Washington, becoming the first Bruin to accomplish that feat since safety Adarius Pickett in 2018 (123) and first UCLA linebacker since Kenny Young in 2017 (110). Schwesinger saw his streak of six straight double-digit tackle performances come to an end against Iowa (Nov. 8). That streak is good for the longest by a Bruin defender since Eric Kendricks in 2014. Schwesinger led UCLA in tackles in 10 of 12 games in 2024.
- Schwesinger's 136 total tackles are tied for ninth-most in UCLA single-season history.
- Kain Medrano finished second on the team with 72 total tackles (50-22-72) and 11 TFLs.
- Schwesinger (second round, pick 33 to Cleveland) and Medrano (sixth round, pick 205 to Washington) were both selected in the 2025 NFL draft. Linebacker Darius Musau was a sixth-round pick of the New York Giants (No. 183) in 2024.
- Vaughns played in four games last year before sitting out the balance and utilizing a redshirt year. He has played in 48 career games and started 12 of them. Vaughns entered the 2025 season with 113 total tackles (64-49-113), 6.5 TFLs, one sack and a pair of interceptions.
- This season is Vaughns' first exclusively as a football player. He previously played 158 games for the baseball team, making 117 starts in the outfield and on the mound. He had a .225 batting average, .386 on-base percentage, .417 slugging percentage, 72 runs batted in, 72 runs scored, 19 home runs, 17 doubles and one triple. On the rubber, Vaughns was 2-1 with a 3.10 earned run average and 16 strikeouts across 20.1 innings.
- Transfers Ben Perry (23 career starts entering 2025) and Isaiah Chisom (11) registered starts at Louisville and Oregon State, respectively.
- Chisom made The Athletic's Freshman All-America Team in 2024 after leading the Beavers with 75 total tackles (30-45-75) as a redshirt freshman. He also had five tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

SCOUTING THE SECONDARY

- UCLA defensive backs accounted for each of the Bruins' season-high two interceptions at Indiana (Oct. 25). Junior Scooter Jackson recorded the second of his season in the opening quarter and redshirt senior Key Lawrence added his first as a Bruin in the fourth.
- Redshirt sophomore Rodrick Pleasant (4-3-7) and redshirt freshman Jamir Benjamin (3-0-3) logged new career highs for total tackles at Indiana.
- The Bruins piled up 12 pass breakups — the most by a UCLA team since 2017 — in their 20-17 home win against Maryland (Oct. 18). Pleasant (three), Jackson (two) and junior Andre Jordan Jr. (two) led the charge from the defensive backfield. Jordan added three more at Indiana.
- Jackson recorded UCLA's first interception of 2025 to help the Bruins outlast Maryland. The fourth-quarter pick came at came with 3:01 remaining and the Terrapins trailing 14-10.
- UCLA held back-to-back quarterback rooms to completion percentages under 50% in October. Against Michigan State (Oct. 11), a pair of Spartan signal callers combined to go 16-of-35 (45.7%), while Maryland's Malik Washington finished 23-of-48 (47.9%).
- Cole Martin had a standout performance in the Bruins' 38-13 win at Michigan State (Oct. 11). The redshirt sophomore made six total tackles (3-3-6), including a TFL on a fourth-and-one play in the third quarter. For good measure, Martin took a fake punt 20 yards for a first down early in the second. The Bruins capitalized on the play, extending their lead to 17-7 with a touchdown.
- Jackson led UCLA with seven total tackles in the team's 38-13 win at Michigan State.
- Jackson picked up a critical TFL in the Bruins' 42-37 win against No. 7 Penn State (Oct. 4). With 40 seconds remaining and the Nittany Lions facing a fourth-and-two scenario on the UCLA 9-yard line, PSU quarterback Drew Allar was thrown for a three-yard loss by Jackson to effectively end the visitors' best chance to pull level (UCLA led 42-35 at the time).

- Lawrence and Pleasant collaborated on a Penn State turnover early in the second half of the Bruins' upset win. Lawrence punched the ball out of Nittany Lion TE Luke Reynolds' grip and Pleasant quickly completed the takeaway. The forced fumble was Lawrence's eighth overall and second as a Bruin. The fumble recovery was a career first for Pleasant, who also had a pass breakup.
- Jordan made the first start of his UCLA career in the Bruins' 42-37 upset of No. 7 Penn State (Oct. 4) and finished with a season-best three total tackles (1-2-3).
- Pleasant had a standout performance at Northwestern (Sept. 27), setting a then-career high in total tackles (five), matching his previous high in tackles for loss (0.5) and notching his first kick block. Pleasant's block came on a field goal attempt in the fourth quarter. The Bruins scored a touchdown on the ensuing possession to cut the deficit to 17-14. Pleasant's block was UCLA's first since Nov. 4, 2023 when Kain Medrano blocked a kick at Arizona.
- For a third time this season, Martin set a new career high in tackles with nine (3-6-9) at Northwestern. He tallied eight stops (2-6-8) against New Mexico and six (3-3-6) versus Utah.
- Lawrence forced a fumble and matched his career high in tackles with nine (5-4-9) versus New Mexico (Sept. 12). He previously recorded nine tackles versus UCF while attending Oklahoma in 2023.
- Lawrence led the Bruins' secondary with five tackles (2-3-5) against UNLV (Sept. 6).
- Redshirt freshman Kanye Clark recorded a career-high four tackles (2-2-4) in UCLA's Week 2 loss at UNLV (Sept. 6).
- Nine defensive backs made their UCLA debuts in Week 1 versus Utah (Aug. 30): Scooter Jackson, Andre Jordan Jr., Key Lawrence, Cole Martin, Rodrick Pleasant, Robert Stafford III, Bryon Threats and Aaron Williams.
- Jackson forced the first fumble of his three-year career in the second quarter versus Utah, which was recovered by the Utes.
- The Bruins feature a new-look secondary in 2025, with no returning starters and just one player who saw in action in more than two games last year: Croix Stewart (10 games played, 12 tackles).
- Newcomers Key Lawrence (50), Bryon Threats (41), Jamier Johnson (33), Andre Jordan Jr. (18), Cole Martin (16), Scooter Jackson (16), Robert Stafford III (12), Rodrick Pleasant (11) have all started double-digit games at their previous stops.
- Lawrence accrued 158 tackles and 11 TFLs over stops at Ole Miss (2024), Oklahoma (2021-23) and Tennessee (2020). He was an All-Big-12 honorable mention performer in 2021 after recording three forced fumbles and 47 tackles.
- Safety Bryon Threats totaled 130 tackles and four interceptions over four years at Cincinnati (2021-23) and UCF (2024).
- Former walk-on Clark earned a scholarship during 2024 spring practice. In five games as a true freshman in 2023, Clark made three tackles – including a pair in the Bruins' Starco Brands LA Bowl Hosted By Gronk win versus Boise State (Dec. 16).
- Demetrick Martin returns to UCLA as passing game coordinator/secondary coach after previously serving on the Bruins' staff from 2012-17. Martin has amassed 26 years of coaching experience, including 18 on the FBS level, in defensive backfields. He spent the 2024 season as cornerbacks coach at Michigan State, where he guided a unit that placed in the top half of the Big Ten Conference in passing yards allowed (206.9 per game). Martin spent two seasons each at Oregon (2022, 2023), Colorado (2020, 2021) and Arizona (2018, 2019) before joining the Spartans.
- Gabe Lynn is in his first season as UCLA's safeties coach. Lynn, a former standout defensive back at Oklahoma, joined the Bruin from Colorado, where he spent the previous two seasons on staff as a defensive analyst and the assistant player personnel director. In 2024, Lynn was a quality control analyst on defense with the Buffaloes. He primarily coached the team's safeties, helping the team to a 9-4 overall record and a berth in the Alamo Bowl against BYU. As a team, Colorado allowed just 200.5 passing yards per game and totaled 12 interceptions on defense during the regular season, both ranking top-50 nationally.

SPECIAL TEAMERS

- Junior punter Will Karoll was added to the Ray Guy Award watch list on Oct. 27. The Tulane transfer has recorded 27 punts for 1,180 yards (43.7 yards per kick) and his net punting average sits at 40.3 yards per attempt. Eight of Karoll's punts have been placed inside the 20-yard line, while three have been pinned inside the 10. He has registered five punts of more than 50 yards, including a season-best 63-yarder at Indiana (Oct. 25), this season.
- Junior placekicker Mateen Bhaghani converted both of his field-goal attempts, from 44 and 30 yards, at Indiana. The transfer from California holds an all-time field-goal mark of 42-for-50 (84%) and is 34-for-41 (82.9%) with UCLA.
- Bhaghani earned his second career Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week award for his role in the Bruins' 20-17 win against Maryland (Oct. 18). The junior made 2-of-3 field-goal attempts (made from 42 and 23 yards, missed from 56 yards) and both his extra-point tries. Bhaghani's second field-goal make, the 23-yarder, came with two seconds remaining in the game and proved the difference. It was his second career game winner (also Aug. 31, 2024 at Hawai'i).
- Karoll averaged 48.1 yards across seven punts in the Bruins' home win against Maryland. He planted a pair inside the 10-yard line and later booted a 61-yarder.
- UCLA's kickoff-return defense ranks fifth nationally and third in the Big Ten Conference, as opponents are averaging just 13.9 yards per return.
- Bhaghani went 1-for-2 on his field-goal tries in the Bruins' 38-13 victory at Michigan State (Oct. 11). He converted from 47 yards before missing from 34.
- Redshirt senior Cash Peterman made his UCLA debut at Michigan State, holding for Bhaghani.
- Bhaghani went 2-for-3 on his field-goal attempts in the Bruins' 42-37 win against No. 7 Penn State (Oct. 4). The miss, from 56 yards, was his first in 14 tries. Bhaghani converted from 24 and 54 yards. Six of his seven kickoffs also went for touchbacks in the conference showdown, with the one outlier a surprise onside kick recovered by the Bruins in the first quarter.
- Bhaghani is 5-for-9 in his career from 50-plus yards and 13-for-19 from 40-plus yards.
- Bhaghani converted on all three of his field goal attempts, from 33, 35 and 33 yards out at UNLV (Sept. 6). Bhaghani has made three or more field goals in a single game on two other occasions; he last accomplished the feat in his first game as a Bruin in Week 1 of 2024 when he went 3-for-3 at Hawai'i, which included a game-winner.
- Bhaghani made two field goals from 28 yards and 25 yards out against Northwestern (Sept. 27).

UCLA TRADITIONS

Bruin Walk

For all home games, the UCLA football team will be greeted upon arrival at the Rose Bowl Stadium by cheering fans and walk through the UCLA Football Fan Zone (located in Parking Lot Area H) prior to entering the venue.

Great Day to Be a Bruin!

Following every UCLA victory, assistant coach Jerry Neuheisel leads a chant postgame in the winning locker room: "It's a great day to be alive and be a Bruin!" A celebratory water shower commences once the chant finishes.

The Eight-Clap

The UCLA fanbase's touchdown and postgame victory celebration. The boisterous cheer begins with eight claps, followed by a spell-out of U-C-L-A and three yells of "Fight! Fight! Fight!" What was originally called the "eight-clap yell" was introduced by a UCLA student in 1948 to show off Bruin spirit.

The Victory Bell

The winner of the UCLA-USC rivalry football game, also known as the "Battle for Los Angeles", is awarded the Victory Bell. The 295-pound bell originally hung atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to the UCLA Alumni Association in 1939 and in 1941, it was stolen by a group of USC students. A year later, in 1942, the student body presidents of both schools signed an agreement that the winner of the football game would keep possession for the next year. It has become tradition by each university to paint the Victory Bell the school's colors after reclaiming the trophy.

- Bhaghani was successful on his lone field goal attempt versus New Mexico, kicking from 51 yards out (Sept. 12).
- Bhaghani returns for his second season as UCLA's starting placekicker in 2025. He was one of 30 kickers named to the preseason Lou Groza Award Watch List, becoming the first Bruin to appear on that preseason list since JJ Molson in 2018.
- In 2024, Bhaghani went 20-for-24 (83.3%) on field goal attempts and 20-for-20 (100%) on PAT attempts.
- Bhaghani led the Big Ten and ranked 10th nationally with a 1.67 field goals per game ratio in 2024.
- Bhaghani was the recipient of the Tommy Prothro Award as special teams player of the year at the program's 2024 postseason banquet.
- Bhaghani connected on a 57-yard field goal against Iowa on Nov. 7, 2024. That was the longest conversion by a B1G kicker in 2024, and ranked second all-time in UCLA history (trailing only Ka'imi Fairbairn's 60-yarder vs. California in 2015).
- Bhaghani led UCLA in scoring in 2024 (80 points).
- Bhaghani had eight games with multiple field goals in 2024, including each of the final five contests of the year.
- Bhaghani drilled three field goals, including one that stood as the game winner, at Hawai'i (Aug. 31) in 2024. A UCLA kicker had most recently checked both of those boxes when Nicholas Barr-Mira made four, including the decider, against South Alabama on Sept. 17, 2022. Bhaghani's performance earned him Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week.
- Peterman, who spent the past four seasons at Arizona (2023-24) and BYU (2021-22), is the other kicker on the UCLA roster.
- The Bruins welcome two new punters for the 2025 season in Will Karoll and Lennox Miller. Karoll, a junior, started the past two seasons at Tulane, averaging 43.3 yards per punt. Miller, a true freshman out of Oaks Christian School, was the No. 9 ranked punter by Chris Sailer Kicking. Both Karoll (Mosman) and Miller (Sydney) are natives of Australia.
- Salem Abdul-Wahab, UCLA's primary long snapper in 2024, returns for the 2025 season.
- In 2024, Abdul-Wahab went without a mis-handled snap all year.
- New members of the long snapping corps include redshirt freshman Morrow Evans (Ohio State transfer) and true freshman Halakilangi Muagututi'a (Kahuku High & Intermediate HS).
- UCLA had 43 punts in 2024, second-fewest in the Big Ten and 24th fewest in FBS. The Bruins' total of 27 punts in 2022 was the second-lowest mark by any team in the nation and the fewest in school history.

THE STORY OF NO. 36

The UCLA football program awarded redshirt sophomore linebacker Wyatt Mosier the No. 36 in honor of Nick Pasquale, who wore the number for the Bruins in 2012 and 2013 before his tragic death in a car accident.

Pasquale was a 5-7, 172-pound redshirt freshman walk-on receiver for the Bruins who had seen his first game action a week before his death in September 2013. He was known for his passion for the game, his limitless determination and his high qualities as a teammate. Current UCLA tight ends coach Jerry Neuheisel was a teammate of Pasquale.

Mosier has played in 13 games over two seasons at UCLA, all on special teams. He has been a frequent recipient of academic honors during his time in Westwood, making the Big Ten Conference Academic Honor Roll in Fall 2024 and making the UCLA Athletic Director's Honor Roll three times. A product of Yorba Linda High School, Mosier made a school-record 365 tackles over four seasons for the Mustangs.

Recent Bruins to have worn No. 36 included defensive back Joshua Swift (2024), defensive back Alex Johnson (2022-23), and wide receiver/running back Ethan Fernea (2019-21).

COACH DONAHUE HONORED WITH STATUE AT ROSE BOWL

The winningest coach in UCLA football and Pac-12 Conference history, Terry Donahue, was celebrated with a statue at Rose Bowl Stadium in 2023. The unveiling and dedication took place Oct. 28, during Homecoming Weekend.

The statue of Coach Donahue is surrounded by 151 bronze roses of varying shapes and sizes to honor the conference- and school-record win total achieved during his career. As a gift by over 100 donors to the Rose Bowl Legacy Foundation, the non-profit that supports the preservation, protection and enhancement of the Stadium's future, each rose has been supported by an individual or family.

Coach Donahue's statue is the fourth on Rose Bowl property to represent key moments and people in the venue's history, joining Jackie Robinson (dedicated in 2017), the 1999 Team USA FIFA Women's World Cup Champions (dedicated 2019) and iconic broadcaster Keith Jackson (dedicated 2019). It is the first statue located inside the Stadium's gates with the other three located outside the venue's fence line near the Stadium's main entrance at Gate A. The statue's location is adjacent to the Charles E. Young Locker Room and UCLA players and coaches pass by the iconic coach before each home game.

Donahue won more games than any other coach in the school's and the Pac-12 Conference's history. He ended his career with a winning record against each of the conference's teams, including the Bruins' crosstown rival, the University of Southern California Trojans. Overall, he won 151 games, and 98 of those victories were in the Pac-10. He was the first person to appear in the Rose Bowl Game® as a player, an assistant coach and a coach.

KNACK FOR THE COMEBACK

UCLA has notched two of the three largest comebacks in FBS football history since 1917, overcoming a 34-point deficit to defeat Texas A&M in 2017 and erasing a 32-point lead before prevailing at Washington State in 2019. Each turnaround came in the second half. Since 1980, UCLA teams have won nine times after trailing by 18 or more points.

Interim Head Coach Tim Skipper

Fresno State '01
Overall Record: 10-9 (1st season at UCLA in 2025)

Tim Skipper was named interim head coach for the UCLA football program on Sept. 14, 2025. This season marks his 25th year in the collegiate coaching ranks.

Skipper previously served as a special assistant to the head coach under DeShaun Foster earlier this season.

Last season, Skipper became Fresno State's interim head coach in July of 2024 and guided the Bulldogs to a 6-7 record and a bowl appearance. Skipper was also the acting head coach for Fresno State at the 2023 New Mexico Bowl, which the Bulldogs won over New Mexico State, 37-10. His career head coaching record is 7-7. Skipper's previous coaching experience includes stints as defensive coordinator, most recently at UNLV from 2018-19, and assistant head coach responsibilities at Colorado State, Central Michigan and Fresno State. He also coached running backs at Florida from 2015-16 and linebackers from 2017-18.

Fresno State had 11 All-Mountain West Conference selections in 2024, its most in a season since the 2022 Mountain West Championship season. Skipper was named the head coach of the week on three occasions by 247Sports, the most honors by any coach in the Mountain West in 2024.

His linebackers corps was one of the more consistent groups on the defense in 2023 behind veterans Levelle Bailey and Malachi Langley. Bailey was an All-Mountain West Second Team selection in final season and is currently on the Denver Broncos 56-man roster.

Skipper rejoined Fresno State in 2022 as the linebackers coach and assistant head coach. That year, Fresno State became the first program in FBS history to start the season 1-4 and finish with 10 wins. Fresno State ended the year on a nine-game winning streak and won the 2022 Mountain West Championship and the Jimmy Kimmel LA Bowl.

Fresno State's defense was among the best in the conference in 2022, ranking No. 2 in scoring defense (19.4 points allowed per game) and No. 4 in total defense (338.9 yards allowed per game). A bulk of the defensive efforts came out of the linebackers room as Fresno State's leading tackler in 2022 was Bailey with 88 tackles. Bailey and Malachi Langley were both All-Mountain West honorable mention linebackers.

Skipper joined the Bulldog staff for his second stint as a Bulldogs' coach in transition from Central Michigan where he coached the linebackers from 2020-21. At Central Michigan, he was elevated to the assistant head coach role in 2021 along with coaching the linebackers. In 2020, Skipper led a linebacking unit that included standout Troy Brown, a first team All-Mid-American Conference honoree.

During his first six seasons at Fresno State, he coached running backs, linebackers and served as the defensive run coordinator.

The Bulldogs advanced to four bowl games during Skipper's first stint in Fresno, largely due to his development of all-conference linebackers Ben Jacobs and Travis Brown, and explosive running backs Ryan Mathews, Dwayne Wright, Lonyae Miller and Clifton Smith.

In 2008, Skipper's final season as the Bulldogs' running backs coach, three of his players turned 150-plus-yard performances, including Mathews, who ranked 10th in the country at the time of his October injury. In 2007, Skipper's players averaged 4.7 yards per carry, and with 204.67 rushing yards per game, ranked No. 16 in the nation, helping the Bulldogs advance to the Humanitarian Bowl.

Skipper was a four-year starting middle linebacker at Fresno State from 1997-2000. He earned an appearance on both the 1999 and 2000 watch lists of the Butkus Award, presented annually to the nation's top linebacker. A two-year defensive captain and three-time All-WAC selection, he ranks second in school history with 418 career tackles, including 117 in his first campaign, when he earned freshman All-America recognition.

Skipper comes from a family of coaches. His father, Jim, coached for four decades before his retirement in 2019. Tim's brother, Kelly, has been in the profession since 1989 and currently coaches running backs for the Buffalo Bills.

Skipper graduated from Fresno State with a bachelor's degree in communications in 2001.

SPIEKER FIELD AT THE ROSE BOWL HOME OF BRUINS FOOTBALL

The nation's most famous college football stadium – the Rose Bowl – will be in its 44th season as the home of the UCLA Bruins football team in 2025. The stadium is recognized as both a United States National Historic Landmark and a California Historic Civil Engineering landmark. Thanks to a generous donation in 2017 from prominent UCLA alum Tod Spieker and his family, the playing surface is called Spieker Field at the Rose Bowl.

The Rose Bowl was built specifically for football, but has been utilized as a venue for portions of the 1932 Olympic Games' cycling events and was the soccer site for the 1984 Olympics. The Rose Bowl has also played host to five NFL Super Bowls – XI in 1977, XIV in 1980, XVII in 1983, XXI in 1987 and XXVII in 1993. It was a venue for the 1994 World Cup and the 1999 Women's World Cup soccer tournaments, including the championship games. The USA women's soccer team victory over China in the 1999 event drew over 90,000 fans. In addition, the 1983 Army-Navy game was played in the Rose Bowl.

On Jan. 1, 2018 and Jan. 1, 2015, the Rose Bowl served as the site of one of the College Football Playoff semifinal games. In 2014, the Rose Bowl hosted the final BCS Championship contest. It had also played host to the BCS Championship game in 2002, 2006 and 2010.

Considered an ideal concert venue, the Rose Bowl has hosted shows by such groups and artists as Taylor Swift, Beyonce, Jay-Z, Kenny Chesney, Jason Aldean, One Direction, U2, 'N Sync, Eagles, Rolling Stones, Pink Floyd, Michael Jackson, Metallica, Guns and Roses, Depeche Mode and Journey.

The iconic stadium has put the final touches on a $181 million dollar renovation, and now features a new video board, improved exiting, wider aisles in the end zones and the Terry Donahue Pavilion. The Pavilion area houses the press boxes, broadcast booths, premium seating, boxes and suites. In December of 2015, the radio and TV booths were renamed "The Keith Jackson Broadcast Center". Jackson, the former sportscaster, coined the phrase "The Granddaddy of Them All" for the Rose Bowl Game. Also added are field level entrances and exits, and additional concession stands and restroom facilities.

Since 2007, UCLA and its opponents have dressed in new locker rooms located underneath the south concourse of the stadium. The locker area features all of the latest amenities to benefit the players, coaches, sports medicine and equipment staffs. In addition, a new media interview room and working press area were included in the upgrades. In 1998, new individual chairs were installed in the seating areas between the end zones. Also, improved seating areas for the physically challenged were installed, as well as a new sound system.

Completed in 1922 at a cost of $272,198, the Rose Bowl was first used for the USC-California football game that year which was won by the Golden Bears 12-0. The stadium was originally horseshoe shaped and seated 57,000 people when it hosted the 1923 Rose Bowl Game. The south end zone was enclosed prior to the 1929 game to increase seating capacity to 76,000. Further enlargements took place in 1932 (83,677) and 1949 (100,807). A record crowd of 106,869 fans witnessed the 1973 Ohio State-USC Rose Bowl contest.

The Rose Bowl has many firsts in its vast history. On Jan. 1, 1927, radio stations across the nation were linked together for the first time in a coast-to-coast broadcast. On Jan. 1, 1954, The UCLA-Michigan State Rose Bowl Game was the first west-to-east color telecast on a nationwide connection.

The Rose Bowl has 77 rows of seats. It measures 880 feet from the north to south rims and 695 feet from east to west. Its circumference around the rim is 2,430 feet, compared to 1,350 feet at field level. It took 28 miles of lumber to provide the original seats. The square footage of the grass on the floor of the stadium is 79,156.

THIS IS UCLA

The University

In a dynamic, global city, on one of the nation's most beautiful campuses, doors are opened, and anything is possible. UCLA is one of the world's great universities, offering unmatched breadth and depth of scholarship to more than 32,000 undergraduates and nearly 14,000 graduate students. As the No. 1 public university in the nation, it's UCLA's mission to move knowledge into action. For over 100 years, the university's efforts have positively impacted not just those in our communities, but people around the world.

Bruins are a reflection of the university's commitment to excellence, diversity and equal opportunity. According to U.S. News & World Report, UCLA enrolls one of the largest percentages of low-income students among other elite universities.

The UCLA faculty are among the most recognized and decorated in just about every field. UCLA boasts eight faculty Nobel Prize laureates, 15 MacArthur fellows, 11 National Medal of Science winners and three Pulitzer Prize winners, along with hundreds of recipients of Guggenheim fellowships, Fulbright awards and other academic distinctions. Bruin alumni are Oscar, Grammy, Tony and Emmy winners; philanthropists and public servants; Olympians, professional athletes and coaches; and educators, engineers, bankers, entrepreneurs and astronauts. Founded in 1934, the UCLA Alumni Association serves more than 600,000 living alumni, with a comprehensive array of services, programs and activities.

With hundreds of service programs, UCLA is integral to the Los Angeles community. UCLA Health is among the world's most comprehensive academic health systems, with a mission to provide state-of-the-art patient care, support pioneering research and train top medical professionals. The arts are also a central part of our lives and essential to the UCLA experience. UCLA Extension offers over 4,000 courses and more than 100 professional certificate programs.

UCLA ON THE AIR

Bruins on the Radio

For the first time in 19 years, UCLA football will be broadcast on a new radio station, appearing exclusively on 790 KABC for the 2025 season. The UCLA Department of Athletics announced the new multi-year agreement on Aug. 21, 2025.

KABC-AM 790 becomes the new official radio broadcast home for the UCLA football program, serving all of Southern California with its powerful 6,600-watt signal. With the move to KABC-AM 790, the Bruins will be the primary sports team on the radio station, signaling a departure from sharing the airwaves with other major professional teams in the Los Angeles region.

All games will be produced by JMI Sports, UCLA's corporate and media rights holder. KABC-AM 790 serves as the flagship station of UCLA Bruins Audio Network. Broadcasts are also available on Sirius XM and through the TuneIn App which can be downloaded from the App Store.

Josh Lewin returns as the voice of the Bruins for his 10th season. Former Bruin quarterback Matt Stevens (1983-86) is set to begin his 29th year on the broadcast team and his 23rd as the analyst in the booth after being welcomed into the SoCal Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2019. Another Bruin signal caller, Wayne Cook (1991-94) is in his 24th season as the sideline reporter.

Bruins on Television

All of UCLA football's home games and/or Big Ten games will be aired on a variety of the conference's television partners (Big Ten Network, FOX Sports, NBC Sports and CBS Sports). Those channels include Big Ten Network (BTN), FOX, FS1, NBC, Peacock and CBS.

BTN will air conference games and ancillary programming which feature football coach and player interviews during the season, including special features.

The UCLA-Oregon State game in 2009 is the last game not to be aired live (it was on delayed television).

Game No. 1 – Aug. 30, 2025
Rose Bowl Stadium (Pasadena, Calif.)
Utah 43, UCLA 10

The UCLA football team fell to Utah, 43-10, in its home opener at the Rose Bowl.

Redshirt sophomore Nico Iamaleava started to find his footing in his debut with the Bruins. The quarterback wrapped the night completing 11 of 22 pass attempts for 136 passing yards and one touchdown. The Long Beach, Calif. native also led UCLA's rushing efforts with 47 yards on the ground in 13 attempts.

Redshirt junior Anthony Woods was the Bruin quarterback's top target, finishing with 48 receiving yards and UCLA's lone touchdown. The running back added 13 yards on three rushes for the evening.

The Bruins totaled 210 yards of offense against Utah (1-0), as the Utes finished the contest with 492 total yards (286 rushing, 206 passing) and scored on seven drives.

Redshirt sophomore Isaiah Chisom anchored the Bruin defense with a team-leading 17 tackles. Redshirt sophomore JonJon Vaughns added 15 tackles, including a team-best six solo tackles.

Utah quarterback Devon Dampier totaled a game-high 293 yards of total offense, accounting for two touchdowns through the air and one on the ground.

Game No. 2 – Sept. 6, 2025
Allegiant Stadium (Las Vegas, Nev.)
UNLV 30, UCLA 23

UCLA's second half surge came up short at Allegiant Stadium, falling to UNLV, 30-23, despite a strong push in the final 30 minutes.

Nico Iamaleava threw for 255 yards and accounted for two touchdowns. Including his team-high 59 rushing yards, Iamaleava recorded 314 yards of total offense, marking the third time in his career he has crossed over the 300-yard mark.

The Bruins outgained the Rebels in total yardage by a margin of 428-351 on the night. UCLA accrued 318 yards in the second half alone, compared to UNLV's 101.

UCLA found itself down 23-0 near the end of the first half, but got itself back into the game by scoring on five consecutive drives, starting with a Mateen Bhaghani field goal to get the Bruins on the board just before halftime.

After the break, the Bruins found the end zone on a 4-yard pass to freshman tight end Noah Fox-Flores to get within two scores, and later cut the deficit to 10 with a 30-yard touchdown run from Iamaleava. Another FG from Bhaghani on the ensuing possession made it a one-score game.

UCLA got a chance to tie it on its next possession, taking over on its own 19 with 2:19 left and driving to the UNLV 24 before the game effectively ended when an Iamaleava pass over the middle was tipped and intercepted.

Game No. 3 – Sept. 12, 2025
Rose Bowl Stadium (Pasadena, Calif.)
New Mexico 35, UCLA 10

The UCLA football team lost to New Mexico, 35-10, in a non-conference game at the Rose Bowl.

Bruins' quarterback Nico Iamaleava completed 22 of 34 passes for 217 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Anthony Woods finished as UCLA's leading rusher, totaling 64 yards on 10 carries.

New Mexico quarterback Jack Layne finished the game having completed 12 of 16 passes for 152 yards. The visiting Lobos (2-1) totaled 298 rushing yards, as two players registered at least 80-plus yards on the ground - led by Damon Bankston's 154 rushing yards. D.J. McKinney had a team-leading 21 carries for 89 yards.

Friday's game marked the Bruins' third and final non-conference contest of the regular-season schedule before Big Ten play starts with a game at Northwestern on Saturday, Sept. 27.

The Bruins (0-3) pulled to within 14-10 of New Mexico after having trailed, 14-0, early in the second quarter. Mateen Bhaghani's 51-yard field goal at the 3:34 mark in the third quarter reduced UNM's margin to 14-10.

New Mexico pushed ahead, 28-10, with touchdowns on its next two offensive series. The Lobos, leading 14-10, used a 13-play, 75-yard drive to score a touchdown and lead by 11 points. Bankston used a 2-yard touchdown carry to put New Mexico on top, 21-10, with 10:42 left in regulation.

Game No. 4 – Sept. 27, 2025
Martin Stadium (Evanston, Ill.)
Northwestern 17, UCLA 14

The UCLA football team dropped its Big Ten opener, falling 17-14 on the road at Northwestern.

The Bruins trailed 17-0 midway through the second quarter, cut the deficit to 17-3 at halftime, and pulled to within 17-14 midway through the final quarter. In an even distribution of total yards, Northwestern outgained the Bruins in yardage, 314 to 311.

UCLA had rallied back from a 17-0 deficit but was unable to pull into field goal position, down 17-14, on its final two offensive drives late in the fourth quarter. The Bruins finished the game with 180 total passing yards and 131 yards on the ground.

Down 17-6, the Bruins cut Northwestern's cushion to 17-14 with a touchdown, capping a four-play and 80-yard drive at the 6:19 mark in the fourth quarter. Bruins' quarterback Nico Iamaleava connected on a 29-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kwazi Gilmer, before UCLA scored on a two-point conversion.

Bruins' kicker Mateen Bhaghani knocked through a pair of field goals earlier in the contest to reduce Northwestern's advantage from 17-0 to 17-6. Bhaghani hit a 28-yarder as time expired at the conclusion of the second quarter. He also nailed a 25-yard field goal attempt with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

Northwestern's Preston Stone completed 12 of 18 passes for 115 yards and one touchdown. The Wildcats' primary running back, Caleb Komolafe, registered 119 yards on the ground on a game-high 27 carries.

Game No. 5 – Oct. 4, 2025
Rose Bowl Stadium (Pasadena, Calif.)
UCLA 42, Penn State 37

The UCLA football team defeated No. 7 Penn State, 42-37, on Oct. 4 at the Rose Bowl. The Bruins secured their first win over an AP top-10 opponent since Sept. 24, 2010, when UCLA defeated No. 7. Texas on the road.

With UCLA clinging to a 42-35 lead in the final minute and Penn State threatening deep in the Bruins' territory, Scooter Jackson came up with a stop, bursting into the backfield for a clutch tackle-for-loss that sealed the upset victory on Saturday.

UCLA quarterback Nico Iamaleava completed 16 of 24 passes for 166 yards and two touchdowns. The Bruins' signal-caller was also the team's leading rusher, racking up 128 yards and three scores on 16 carries. Iamaleava's three rushing touchdowns are at least tied for the most-ever by a UCLA quarterback.

Iamaleava was responsible for all five of UCLA's touchdowns on Saturday afternoon.

UCLA assistant head coach Jerry Neuheisel, who has coached the Bruins' tight ends and wide receivers the previous four and a half seasons, made his debut as the Bruins' offensive play-caller.

Penn State quarterback Drew Allar completed 19 of his 26 pass attempts for 200 yards and two touchdowns. Allar also rushed for 78 yards on 11 carries.

Game No. 6 – Oct. 11, 2025
Spartan Stadium (East Lansing, Mich.)
UCLA 38, Michigan State 13

UCLA proved it was much more than a one-hit wonder. After last week's historic upset win over No. 7 Penn State, the Bruins produced another platinum hit with a 38-13 road victory over Michigan State.

The Bruins scored 38 straight points after the scored on their opening drive. Fourth down conversions played a big role in the decisive victory, as UCLA was perfect on fourth down conversions, converting all three on the offensive end and stopping all four on the defensive side.

UCLA's 38 straight points were its most against an FBS opponent since shutting out Oregon State, 41-0, on Nov. 7, 2015.

UCLA running back Jalen Berger returned to his former school and scored a career-high-tying three touchdowns - one rushing and two receiving. Berger became the first Bruin running backing with multiple receiving TDs since Demetric Felton did so in 2020. He finished with 83 yards rushing and 24 yards receiving.

Quarterback Nico Iamaleava was 16-for-24 for 180 yards with three touchdown passes.

Mateen Bhaghani drilled a game-winning 24-yard field goal to lift the UCLA football team to a 20-17 Homecoming win over Maryland at the Rose Bowl.

UCLA took over on the 27-yard line with just 40 seconds remaining and quarterback Nico Iamaleava immediately went to work, connecting with Titus Mokiiao-Atimallala for back-to-back completions amounting to 33 yards. Anthony Frias II then did the rest on the ground, scampering 35 yards to the Maryland 5-yard line to set up Bhaghani's second career game-winning kick.

Iamaleava completed 21 of 35 passes for 211 yards and a touchdown. On the ground, Frias II led the Bruins with 97 rushing yards and a touchdown on just four carries. Jalen Berger also registered 65 rushing yards on his 19 touches.

Maryland quarterback Malik Washington compiled 210 yards through the air, completing 23 of his 48 pass attempts for one touchdown and one interception. Washington was also the leading rusher for the Terrapins, posting 67 rushing yards on six attempts.

Mokiiao-Atimallala was UCLA's leading receiver, hauling in six catches for 102 yards. Kwazi Gilmer also recorded 56 receiving yards on four receptions.

Game No. 8 – Oct. 25, 2025
Memorial Stadium (Bloomington, Ind.)
Indiana 56, UCLA 6

UCLA saw its three-game winning streak come to an end with a 56-6 road loss to No. 2 Indiana on Oct. 25.

UCLA quarterback Nico Iamaleava completed 13 of 27 passes for 113 yards. Anthony Frias II was the Bruins' leading rusher, racking up 31 yards on six carries. UCLA's leading receiver was Rico Flores Jr., who tallied 50 yards on four receptions.

Mateen Bhaghani was perfect on the day, drilling field goals from 44 and 30 yards. The Bruins' place kicker is now 14-for-17 on the season.

Scooter Jackson and Key Lawrence each tallied an interception in the contest for UCLA.

Indiana opened the scoring with a pick-six inside the first minute of the game, and never relinquished the lead. QB Fernando Mendoza delivered four total touchdowns, throwing for three scores and rushing for another. He finished 15-of-22 for 168 yards through the air.

The hosts ultimately built a 35-3 lead by the halftime break, and then went on to out-score the Bruins by a margin of 21-3 in the second half.

BRUINS ... DID YOU KNOW?

17 Bruins in National Football Foundation Hall of Fame

In December 2024, Paul Cameron will become the 14th UCLA player, joining three Bruin coaches and 13 previous players, including 2014 inductee John Sciarra, 2012 inductee Jonathan Ogden, 2010 inductee Randy Cross and 2008 inductee Troy Aikman in the National Football Foundation (College Football) Hall of Fame.

6 Bruins in NFL Hall of Fame

Six Bruins have been voted into the NFL Hall of Fame, including Class of 2017 inductee DB Kenny Easley. Other Bruins in the Hall: OL Jonathan Ogden - 2013; QB Troy Aikman - 2006; DB Jimmy Johnson - 1994; WR/coach Tom Fears - 1970; QB/P/PK/DB Bob Waterfield - 1965.

35 First-Round Bruins

The selection of Laiatu Latu (Indianapolis) in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft marked the 35th time a UCLA player has been taken in Round 1.

7 NCAA Championship Head Coaches on Staff

The following Bruin head coaches have won NCAA championships - Margueritte Aozasa (women's soccer), Kelly Inouye-Perez (softball), Billy Martin (men's tennis), Stella Sampras Webster (women's tennis), John Savage (baseball), John Speraw (men's volleyball) and Adam Wright (men's and women's water polo).

25 Bruins on CoSIDA Academic All-America Teams

Twenty-five Bruins have been selected to College Sports Communicators (CSC [formerly CoSIDA]) Academic All-America football teams a total of 31 times over the years. Offensive lineman Chris Joseph (2006, 2007) and receiver Cormac Carney (1981, 1982) were two-time first-team selections. Wide receiver Jake Bobo is the last Bruin to earn a first-team nod (2022). Linebacker Carson Schwesinger is the most recent Academic All-America honoree, being named to the second team in 2024.

6 Bruin QBs on Super Bowl Teams

UCLA has produced six quarterbacks - Troy Aikman, Steve Bono, Billy Kilmer, Tommy Maddox, Tom Ramsey and Jay Schroeder - to have played that position on a Super Bowl team.

21 Times Bruins Have Finished in Heisman Top 10

Gary Beban won the 1967 Heisman Trophy. When quarterback Drew Olson finished eighth in the 2005 balloting it marked the 21st time that a Bruin player has finished in the top 10 of the Heisman voting.

38 of Past 44 Super Bowls Have Featured a Bruin

UCLA has had at least one player on the teams which participated in the Super Bowl game in 38 of the past 44 contests. Kansas City Chiefs fullback Carson Steele (2023) was the latest Bruin to suit up in Super Bowl LIX.

3-Time Consensus All-Americans

The only three-time consensus All-Americans in Pac-12 Conference history are Bruins (LB Jerry Robinson, 1976-78 and S Kenny Easley, 1978-80).

Finalists for National Awards Since 2000
