MARGUERITTE AOZASA

Head Coach
Fourth Season
Santa Clara '12

In just three years as head coach at UCLA, Margueritte Aozasa has won a national championship and two conference titles. In her first season in 2022, she made history by becoming the first rookie head coach and first woman of color ever to win the NCAA Division I Women's Soccer championship.

As UCLA's head coach, Aozasa owns a 55-8-5 overall record and 27-3-3 conference record. She earned her 50th career victory in just her 60th game on Oct. 13, 2024.

Aozasa was hired in December 2021 as the sixth head coach in UCLA women's soccer history and promptly guided her team to the program's second NCAA Championship and a school record-tying 22 victories while leading the United Soccer Coaches National Staff of the Year. The first-year head coach led UCLA to a No. 1 national ranking for the final nine weeks of the season, with the Bruins ascending to the top after a road sweep of No. 2 Duke and No. 1 North Carolina on Labor Day weekend. The Bruins began the year by winning their first 13 games, setting a new school record for best start to a season. After UCLA finished the regular season with a 17-2 record, Aozasa was voted the Pac-12 Coach of the Year, becoming the first rookie head coach ever to win the honor. Aozasa coached the 2022 Pac-12 Defender of the Year Lilly Reale, who went on to become UCLA's third Honda Sport Award winner.

In 2023, Aozasa won her first conference team title and second consecutive Pac-12 Coach of the Year award, as the Bruins finished the season with a 16-2-1 record. During UCLA's inaugural season in the Big Ten Conference in 2024, Aozasa's Bruins ran through the conference tournament with three shutout victories, culminating in a 5-0 win over Rutgers in the championship final. The five runs scored were a Big Ten championship game record.

Producing professional players has also been a strong suit for Aozasa. A total of 20 Bruins coached by Aozasa are currently playing professionally, including 10 players from the 2024 squad.

Aozasa has also coached at the U.S. Youth National Team level. Following the 2022 collegiate season, she joined the coaching staff of the U.S. Under-23 National Team as an assistant coach for a training camp in France in February 2023, and as the head coach of the U-23s at the Thorns Preseason Tournament in March 2023. In the June of 2024, she was an assistant coach for the U.S. U-20 team at the Concacaf Championships, as they qualified for the FIFA Under-20 World Cup.

As an assistant coach at Stanford from 2015-21, Aozasa coached the Cardinal to great success, including NCAA Championships in 2017 and 2019 and Pac-12 titles from 2015-19. The 2018 team also reached the College Cup. Stanford's record during Aozasa's time on the Farm was 125-19-8, with the Cardinal posting a +318 goal differential (412 goals for, 94 goals against).

Two of her Stanford athletes won the Hermann Trophy in three consecutive years from 2017-2019 - Andi Sullivan (2017) and Catarina Macario (2018, 2019) - and four Cardinal players were selected as the No. 1 pick in the NWSL Draft - Sullivan in 2018, Tierna Davidson in 2019, Sophia Smith in 2020 and Naomi Girma in 2022.

As a recruiter, Aozasa brought in multiple Top 5 recruiting classes, include the No. 2-ranked class of 2022. She coached six U.S. Women's National Team players through their collegiate careers on the Farm - Sullivan, Macario, Davidson, Smith, Alana Cook and Jane Campbell. Additionally, Aozasa coached three players who played on Women's Champion League teams - Macario (Olympique Lyonnais), Cook (PSG) and Kyra Carusa (HB Koge).

Aozasa and the Stanford coaching staff were honored as the 2016 NSCAA Pacific Region Staff of the Year, and Aozasa was selected to the United Soccer Coaches' 30 Under 30 Class in 2018-19.

In addition to coaching at Stanford, Aozasa was the ECNL Head Coach for 10 years at MVLA Soccer Club, which is ranked by Top Drawer Soccer as the No. 6-ranked youth club in the country. Her 02 and 03 MVLA ECNL squads were Champions League teams with a combined 35 players on NCAA Division I rosters.

Aozasa was a four-year starter under head coach Jerry Smith at Santa Clara University from 2008-11, playing at midfield and center back and serving as team captain from 2010-11. A WCC All-Academic team member, she graduated from Santa Clara in 2012 with a major in psychology and minors in public health and Spanish. In 2020, she earned a Masters in Coaching and Athletic Administration from Concordia University, Irvine and received her U.S. Soccer "A" Coaching License.

She is one of just four Asian American women currently serving as a head coach for a NCAA women's soccer team.

Aozasa is married to Mykell Bates, who is an assistant coach for Angel City FC. They have a one year-old girl, Akari.

Associate Head Coach
Fourth Season
UCSB '13

Gof Boyoko begins his fourth year on the UCLA women's soccer coaching staff and second as associate head coach. He helped lead UCLA to its second NCAA title in 2022, a Pac-12 Conference title in 2023 and a Big Ten Tournament title in 2024.

The Bruins in 2022 tied a school record for single-season victories with 22, and their 13-0 start to the season set a new program record. Boyoko and the Bruin staff earned National and Pacific Region Staff of the Year honors by the United Soccer Coaches. In 2023, the Bruins went 16-2-1 and won the Pac-12 Championship, and in 2024, UCLA swept through the Big Ten Conference Tournament with three shutout victories and a conference record five goals in the championship match.

Boyoko came to UCLA from UC Santa Barbara, where he served as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator of the women's team from 2017-2021. He helped guide the Gauchos to Big West Tournament appearances in 2017, 2018 and 2021, along with an appearance in the 2018 Big West final. Boyoko also served as associate head coach at Santa Barbara City College from 2014-16, leading the Lady Vaqueros to their first Final Four appearance in 2016 and to the Western State North Conference championship in 2014. His SBCC teams went 39-16-12 in his three seasons.

As head coach of the Santa Barbara Soccer Club from 2012-22, Boyoko has helped multiple athletes move on to collegiate soccer. The club won the Surf Cup championships in 2018 and 2019 and was the Coast Soccer Premier League Champion in 2017.

Boyoko has extensive experience in player development and analytics, as well as recruiting both nationally and internationally.

A former team captain for the UCSB men, Boyoko led the Gauchos in scoring in 2013 with eight goals, including five game-winners, and 19 points. He received All-Big West honors and led the team to a NCAA Tournament appearance. He previously played at Auburn Montgomery and earned NAIA first-team All-America honors as a sophomore in 2011 after scoring 17 goals across 19 games. Boyoko was a member of the INF Clairefontaine Academy in France and has additional playing experience with Paris SG, Lille OSC, Real Mallorca and the French Youth National Team.

The Paris, France native graduated from UCSB in 2013 with a degree in Global & International Studies.

MOLLY
POLETTO

Assistant Coach
Fourth Season
Utah '15

Molly Poletto begins her fourth season in 2024 as an assistant coach for UCLA, working with the Bruin goalkeepers and team. In her first three seasons at UCLA, she helped guide UCLA to the program's second national title in 2022, to a Pac-12 Conference title in 2023 and to UCLA's first-ever Big Ten Tournament title in 2024.

The Bruins' 13-0 start to the 2022 season set a new program record, and they went on to tie a school record with 22 victories. Poletto and the Bruin staff earned National and Pacific Region Staff of the Year honors by the United Soccer Coaches. In 2023, the Bruins won the Pac-12 Championship with a 10-0-1 league record. During UCLA's inaugural season in the Big Ten Conference in 2024, the Bruins won the conference tournament with three shutout victories and a Big Ten record five goals in the championship match.

Poletto served as the goalkeeper coach at Missouri (2019-21) and at Boston University (2017-18). In 2021, she helped lead Missouri to a fifth-place finish in the SEC, an improvement of nine spots from the previous year. At BU, the Terriers won the Patriot League in 2018, finishing with an 11-7-4 record and an unbeaten 7-0-2 mark in league play. Poletto was instrumental in guiding the goalkeeping unit to a combined 11 shutouts in 2018. In her first season at BU, her goalkeepers posted a then-record 10 shutouts as the Terriers finished with a 10-8-3 record and reached the Patriot League Tournament semifinals. Under Poletto's tutelage, BU surrendered just 0.86 goals per game and the goalkeepers combined for a .798 save percentage.

After injuries cut her playing career short, Poletto turned to coaching, serving for three seasons as an undergraduate assistant coach at the University of Utah and then a volunteer assistant coach in 2016, when she improved her unit's goals against average from 1.21 to 0.65 with 10 shutouts and a .860 save percentage.

A native of Englewood, Colo., Poletto holds a USSF "B" license and served as an instructor for the USSF "E" licenses. She graduated cum laude from Utah in 2015 with a degree in communications and a minor in psychology and completed her Master's degree in sports psychology in the spring of 2017. She and her wife Dawn Malone reside in Redondo Beach.

MOLLY FEIGHAN

Assistant Coach
Second Season
Virginia Tech '21 / St. John's '22

Molly Feighan enters her second year as a full-time assistant coach after spending the 2023 season as a graduate manager while completing her graduate certificate in marketing with UCLA Extension.

In her first season on the coaching staff in 2024, she helped lead UCLA to the Big Ten Tournament Championship and a 17-4-3 overall record. The Bruins rolled through the conference tournament with three shutout victories and scored a conference record five goals in the championship match in a 5-0 win over Rutgers.

Feighan played collegiately at Virginia Tech from 2018-21, totaling 16 points while appearing in 56 games with 28 starts in three seasons. She earned her undergraduate degree in public relations, with a minor in psychology. In 2022, she transferred to St. John's to pursue a graduate degree in sports management. She totaled 95 career games in her five-year career. Feighan, who hails from Pleasant Valley, N.Y., was the 2017-18 Gatorade Girls Soccer New York State Player of the Year.

Feighan's coaching experience includes coaching youth teams at LA Bulls since July 2023. She was also the head coach at FC Westchester and FC Somers in Westchester, N.Y. in 2023. Feighan holds a U.S. Soccer National "C" coaching license.

The No. 1-seeded UCLA women's soccer team earned the second National Championship in program history, and No. 120 in UCLA school history, after ousting No. 2-seeded North Carolina in a historic 3-2 double overtime comeback victory on December 5, 2022 at WakeMed Soccer Park in Cary, N.C.

The Bruins, who finished the season with a school record-tying 22 victories and a 22-2-1 record, trailed 2-0 through 80 minutes of regulation but scored twice in the final 10 minutes to force overtime. Graduate midfielder Maricarmen Reyes then scored the go-ahead, and ultimately game-winning, goal in the 107th minute off a rebound of an Ally Cook shot.

With the result, UCLA became the first team in College Cup history to come back from two goals down to record a win in the title game. UCLA's Margueritte Aozasa became the first coach in NCAA women's soccer history to win a National Championship in their first year as a head coach and also became just the fourth female head coach and second Asian American head coach to win a title.

"That was incredible, I can't say enough about the belief this team has and the care they have for each other," said Aozasa. "The rollercoaster of emotion I think we all felt, I cried many times during that game – happy and sad. We've said from the beginning of these playoffs that our care and love for each other and love for this program was going to be what was going to carry us through, and you saw that tonight. To be down 2-0 with 10 minutes left, to be down a goal with less than a minute left, and to come back and then not even go to PKs but win in overtime, is something incredibly special and it speaks to the character of the entire team."

The score from Reyes capped off a furious comeback for UCLA, which dominated the final 30 minutes of the contest.

The goal-scoring sequence was initiated with a long period of possession in the offensive third and kicked into high gear when sophomore left back Quincy McMahon whipped in a cross from the left side for Cook. With her back to goal, Cook was able to turn and put in a right-footed shot. UNC keeper Emmie Allen dove and got her left hand on the shot, but it trickled towards the right post where Reyes sprinted and put away the sharp-angle rebound.

UCLA made Reyes's overtime heroics possible with a pair of gritty set piece goals in the final 10 minutes of the game.

Sophomore forward Lexi Wright was the first to find the back of the net, getting the Bruins on the board in the 80th. That play got started with a long free kick into the box, which was initially headed out by a UNC defender but came to senior forward Sunshine Fontes above the box. Fontes drilled a first-time shot off the loose ball from the penalty arc, and she put enough on it that Allen wasn't able to close her mitts on it, allowing Wright to volley in the rebound before it hit the ground.

Reilyn Turner and Lexi Wright celebrate after Turner's game-tying goal with 16 seconds remaining in regulation

The Bruins went on to score with just 16 seconds remaining to send the game into overtime. That play came off a corner, with freshman midfielder Ally Lemos finding junior forward Reilyn Turner at the back post for her 11th goal of the year.

Avery Patterson scored two goals in the second half for North Carolina (20-5-1), both off far-post headers. She opened the game's scoring in the 59th minute, meeting an Emily Moxley cross at the top of the six and re-directing it inside the far post. She doubled the Tar Heels' lead in the 75th minute, receiving a cross at the far post but looping a header back across goal and into the side netting.

The Bruins had several dangerous scoring chances that didn't result in goals, in both the second half and overtime periods. Most notably, Turner had a header cleared off the line about 60 seconds before Reyes's goal. The shot required a VAR review.

Wright also had a pair of great looks in the latter part of the game. In the 65th, she had a loose ball come to her inside the 18 off a corner, but she couldn't corral the bouncing ball in time to get a shot off. She also had UCLA's best chance of the first overtime session, putting in a low shot from about 25 yards out that was pushed just wide by Allen.

Graduate goalkeeper Lauren Brzykcy made five saves for UCLA. Arguably her best save came in the 73rd, as she had to stop a diving left-footed shot from UNC's Talia Dellaperuta.

UCLA had four players selected to the All-Tournament Team, the most of any team in the country. Among those four, Turner was selected the Most Outstanding Offensive Player and sophomore defender Lilly Reale was tabbed the Most Outstanding Defensive Player, while Wright and Lemos each garnered All-Tournament Best XI honors as well.

The Bruins' championship run was not a surprise given their start to the season. The team set a new school record by winning its first 13 games, including a foreshadowing Labor Day weekend sweep in North Carolina over No. 2 Duke (2-1) and No. 1 North Carolina (2-1). The Bruins came from behind in the Sept. 4 North Carolina contest, with Wright and Turner scoring both second half goals, a feat they would replicate in December in the championship match.

Fontes led UCLA in scoring in 2022 with 30 points. She and Turner tied for the team lead in goals scored with 11, and Lemos led the squad and tied for the Pac-12 lead in assists with nine. A total of nine players scored in double figures, the most by a Bruin team since 2018.

The 2022 NCAA Champions

Their goal, their motivator, their mantra all season was 110. The number of NCAA Championships UCLA would have if they won their first. The women's soccer team was one of the few teams on campus that had yet win a championship, their place in the famed trophy room in the Hall of Fame non-existent.

That would change in 2013 when the Bruins, despite a difficult playoff path that saw them face three No. 1 seeds and the last two NCAA champions, won their first-ever title, 1-0 in overtime against Florida State.

UCLA breezed through the regular season with a 17-1-2 record, winning the Pac-12 title and taking a No. 2 national ranking and a 15-game unbeaten streak into the postseason, their only loss coming in game five of the season, 1-0, to North Carolina.

The Bruins, however, were denied a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and had to face Pac-12 rival Stanford, the 2011 NCAA Champion, in the Round of 16 before traveling to Chapel Hill for a quarterfinal matchup with 2012 NCAA Champion North Carolina. UCLA posted its third-straight NCAA shutout by beating Stanford, 2-0, turning the tables on a Cardinal team that had eliminated the Bruins in three of the last four tournaments.

With one of the last two NCAA champions taken out, the Bruins set their sights on the most recent one, the No. 1-seed Tar Heels. Unlike the first meeting earlier in the year, where UCLA goalkeeper Katelyn Rowland was making heroic save after heroic save as the Tar Heels outshot the Bruins, 23-6, this quarterfinal match was more evenly-played, with each team taking 11 shots. The Bruins had eight of their 11 shots on goal, forcing UNC goalkeeper Anna Sieloff into a career-high seven saves, while UNC tallied four shots on goal, all of which were saved by Rowland. Taylor Smith broke the scoreless tie early in the second overtime, scoring a minute and a half in. Sarah Killion sent a great through ball to Smith, whose shot was initially saved by Sieloff. Smith, however, followed through on the rebound, scoring far post to end the match and give UCLA its first-ever win over North Carolina.

At the College Cup for the ninth time in school history, the Bruins had another No. 1 seed to face in the semifinals - No 1 overall seed Virginia. The Cavaliers took a 1-0 lead in the 73rd minute after a rare defensive miscue by the Bruins led to an empty net goal by Makenzy Doniak. UCLA fought back, however, to tie on an Ally Courttnall goal with less than five minutes remaining in regulation, and forced overtime, where the Bruins hit the post twice but failed to score, sending the game to a penalty kick shootout. Rowland came up big in the shootout, stopping the Cavaliers' third and fourth kicks. With the Bruins holding a 3-2 advantage after successful makes by Sam Mewis, Sarah Killion and Lauren Kaskie, Rosie White stepped up for the potential winner. The 2012 New Zealand Olympian calmly stepped up and put the shot into the back of the net to send the Bruins to the championship game.

In the final, it was UCLA against yet another No. 1 seed, Florida State. The Bruins controlled the majority of possession in the first half, but were unable to generate any chances in the early going. Smith had the first serious chance of the match for either side in the 30th minute, controlling a free kick from Killion in the box before wheeling around and putting a shot on frame. The ball beat Florida State keeper Kelsey Wys but clanged off the crossbar and out of play, keeping the match scoreless.

Then right before the half, UCLA almost went ahead again when Caprice Dydasco took a long shot that forced Wys to make a diving save. Smith gathered the rebound and put a shot towards the far post, but once again the ball bounced off the post and away from danger, sending the teams into the locker room tied at 0-0.

The Bruins continued to keep the ball in their third of the field at the start of the second half, and created another good scoring opportunity in the 59th minute. Darian Jenkins did well to keep the ball on the left side of the Seminole box and was able to cross the ball back to the top of the box to Jenna Richmond.

Richmond one-timed a shot on goal, but once again Wys was there to make the save. Kodi Lavrusky had another shot at putting the Bruins on top in the 66th minute, when a cross from White trickled to the front of the goal to Lavrusky. She could not get a foot on it though, and Wys eventually gathered the ball for Florida State.

UCLA continued to push forward, consistently keeping the possession. In the 87th minute however, the Seminoles nearly took the lead when Kristin Grubka headed a long throw-in on net. Defender Megan Oyster came up big for the Bruins though, heading the ball off the line to prevent the goal. From there, neither side could find the back of the net before regulation ended and the match went to overtime.

In the first overtime, Killion had a chance to end the game for the Bruins in the 96th minute when she controlled a corner and took a shot towards an open net after Wys came out. Her shot was cleared off the line by the Seminoles, however, and the match stayed scoreless. Then in the 97th minute, Lavrusky finally handed the Bruins the title when she took a terrific through ball in the box from Oyster and finished far post for her seventh goal of the year.

UCLA head coach Amanda Cromwell became just the second women's soccer coach ever to win the NCAA title in her first season with a team, as well as only the second female coach to win the title, joining Becky Burleigh, who led Florida to victory in 1998.

Courttnall, who scored the game-tying goal in the semifinal, was named the College Cup's Most Outstanding Defensive Player and selected to the all-tournament team along with Killion, Oyster and Rowland.

The Bruins continued to enjoy the fruits of victory when they returned home to Los Angeles, making an appearance on the Tonight Show with Jay Leno and being honored at the State Capitol and City Hall. Defender Abby Dahlkemper won the Honda Award for soccer, becoming the first Bruin ever to take the honor, and she was also named the NSCAA Scholar All-American Player of the Year and a finalist for the MAC Hermann Trophy. Head coach Amanda Cromwell was awarded Soccer America's National Coach of the Year.

SOCCER FACILITIES

The UCLA soccer teams will begin their seventh year of play at Wallis Annenberg Stadium, which officially opened its doors on Aug. 17, 2018 with a thrilling 1-0 victory by the UCLA women over Long Beach State.

The stadium, which seats 2,145, is located at the previously-named North Athletic Field, where the Bruins practiced and played selected home games from 1993-99. The new stadium was made possible thanks to a $5 million lead gift from the Annenberg Foundation. The grand opening completed the first phase of the stadium project and included grandstand seating and press box on the west side, scoreboard and stadium lighting. Expected upgrades in future phases include a spectator amenity building to house restrooms and concessions; a day-of-game locker room building that includes two team locker rooms and two auxiliary locker rooms; and a shared team meeting room and equipment storage.

The grass infield, named Marshall Field, houses a regulation 75-yard by 120-yard soccer field.

Drake Stadium, which was the Bruins' home stadium from 2000-17, now serves as the teams' alternate practice facility. Prior to moving to Drake Stadium, the Bruins played home games on North Athletic Field, Spaulding Field and Murdock Stadium at El Camino College. UCLA's all-time home record is 279-38-21.

UCLA soccer set a new attendance record on Nov. 3, 2017 when a NCAA regular season record 11,925 fans packed Drake Stadium to see the Bruins win the crosstown showdown over USC, 3-2 in overtime.

Martin Jarmond

Director of Athletics
6th Year at UCLA
UNC-Wilmington '01

Martin Jarmond, a nationally recognized leader in college athletics, has built an impressive track record of competitive excellence, innovative strategy and student athlete success.

A two-time recipient of Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 Award with over 20 years in sports administration spanning three conferences, Jarmond has guided UCLA to new heights through his culture of an E.L.I.T.E. mindset – Energy, Leadership, Integrity, Toughness and Excellence.

His results-driven strategies combined with a relentless work ethic to elevate UCLA Athletics have helped to create an exceptional experience for student-athletes and fans alike. Over Jarmond's first five seasons in Westwood, UCLA has won six NCAA championships in the sports of men's water polo (2020, 2024), women's soccer (2022), men's volleyball (2023, 2024) and women's water polo (2024). UCLA teams have also totaled 27 conference championships under his watch, including 10 combined Big Ten and MPSF titles in 2024-25, the most amongst all Big Ten schools.

Jarmond worked closely with campus leadership while playing a critical role in UCLA Athletics applying and being accepted for future membership in the Big Ten Conference in June of 2022. The Bruins began their historic first season in the Big Ten Conference on August 2, 2024. He also negotiated a new multimedia rights deal with JMI Sports that will run through 2035.

UCLA's first year in the Big Ten Conference in 2024-25 was a huge success, as the Bruins captured seven Big Ten titles, tied for second-most in the conference. Bruin teams won Big Ten Tournament titles in women's soccer, women's basketball, gymnastics, men's tennis, and men's golf and regular season crowns in gymnastics and baseball. Buoyed by a NCAA Championship by the men's water polo team and runner-up finishes by gymnastics and men's volleyball, UCLA finished in fifth place in the 2024-25 Learfield Director's Cup standings, its highest finish since 2018. UCLA was also the only school in the nation to advance both baseball and softball teams to the College World Series, as well as the only school with both men's and women's teams playing in the World Series and March Madness.

The 2024-25 season built off the success of the previous year, when UCLA finished in the Top 10 of the Learfield Director's Cup for the first time since 2018-19. The 2023-24 Bruins had five teams competing on the final day for an NCAA Championship. In an eight-day span in May 2024, the Bruins achieved victories in both men's volleyball and women's water polo.

Jarmond was hired on May 19, 2020 as UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics, becoming the ninth athletic director in school history. He made an immediate impact on the Bruins, jumpstarting the Voting Matters Initiative, the first of its kind in the country which assisted student-athletes in discovering the tools needed to exact meaningful change through civic duty. Jarmond engineered a partnership between UCLA and Nike/Jordan Brand, becoming only the fifth Jordan brand school in the nation and the first partnership with Nike in UCLA history. The six-year agreement between UCLA and Nike provides for 22 of the 25 UCLA varsity sports with Nike apparel, while football, men's basketball and women's basketball don Jordan Brand. Jarmond exhibits a strong commitment to mental health awareness, and his emphasis on diversity and inclusion was recognized in a 2021 SBJ award for being a national leader in diversity and inclusive hiring. He was the Pac-12 Conference representative to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for 2021-22 and serves on the Geffen Academy and McLendon Foundation Boards.

Through Jarmond's instrumental leadership, UCLA Athletics has positioned itself at the forefront of a rapidly-changing collegiate athletics landscape. In the burgeoning area of Name, Image and Likeness (NIL), Jarmond and UCLA Athletics launched "Westwood Ascent," a comprehensive NIL program that supports UCLA's student-athletes, helping them build their personal brands and maximize their NIL opportunities. In addition, the "Westwood Exchange" was established as a free business registry designed for companies, donors, fans and alumni that want to connect directly with UCLA's student-athletes interested in capitalizing on their NIL. In the Fall of 2024, UCLA Athletics' official NIL collective was restructured under the Champion of Westwood umbrella to streamline NIL opportunities for UCLA student-athletes.

Extensive work by Jarmond and his staff throughout the COVID-19 pandemic ensured that all Bruin teams could compete safely during the 2020-21 academic year. Jarmond's first at UCLA. Bruin teams won four conference titles that year and the men's water polo program won its 12th national championship in the spring of 2021. The men's basketball team embarked on a remarkable journey, advancing from the First Four to the 2021 NCAA Final Four, UCLA's first national semifinal appearance since 2008. These athletic achievements were balanced by record numbers of student-athletes earning spots on the conference all-academic squads, with 49 individuals earning a perfect 4.0 GPA for the Winter Quarter, and 131 student-athletes earning their UCLA degrees. For the first time ever, the Bruins produced multiple winners of the NCAA Elite 90 Award. Four student-athletes were recognized by CoSIDA as Academic All-Americans.

Jarmond came to UCLA from Boston College, where he served as the school's Director of Athletics for three years. During his time there, he orchestrated the Eagles' first-ever strategic plan, a comprehensive five-year goal to advance the program by fostering student-athlete formation, strengthening competitive excellence, increasing external engagement and enhancing facilities. The strategic plan was supported by BC's first-ever athletics-only capital campaign, at the time, the largest campaign of any Atlantic Coast Conference institution at $150 million. Jarmond hired high-impact coaches in football, women's basketball, softball, volleyball, swimming & diving, men's soccer, women's soccer and fencing. Jarmond served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Oversight Committee and on the John McLendon Minority Scholarship Foundation Board of Directors.

Prior to joining Boston College in 2017 and becoming the youngest athletic director of any Power Five institution at age 37, Jarmond previously served as deputy director of athletics at Ohio State, moving up the ranks after arriving as an associate athletic director for development in 2009. During his time at Ohio State, he was the lead administrator for a variety of sports, including football and men's basketball, and directed external and internal relations and day-to-day operations. He also had responsibility for football scheduling, served on the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Committee, and was a member of the inaugural College Football Playoff National Championship Advisory Group and the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee. As Ohio State Athletics' chief advancement officer, Jarmond helped raise more than $120 million between 2010-2012.

Jarmond was also an assistant athletic director for development for seven years at Michigan State, where he served on the athletic director's executive leadership team. He was a key member of the $1.2 billion "Campaign for MSU" development team and a liaison between Michigan State's university development and alumni association leadership. Jarmond led the efforts to implement Scholarship Seating in football and Courtside seating in men's basketball.

A native of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Jarmond, 45, earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. A two-year captain of the men's basketball team, he led his team to the program's first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 2000 and earned Colonial Athletic Association All-Academic honors in 2001. He holds both a M.B.A. and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University. Jarmond is married to Dr. Jessica Jarmond, a dentist. They have three daughters: Scarlett, Savannah and Serena.

Erin Adkins

Executive Sr. Asso. Athletic Director
8th Year at UCLA
Arizona '06

Erin Adkins begins her fifth full-time season as sport administrator for women's soccer.

Adkins, who has worked at UCLA Athletics since 2018, serves as the Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director, NIL Strategy. She has oversight of NIL operations, governance and student-athlete development and is the sport administrator for football, women's soccer and baseball.

From 2015-2018 Adkins worked at Vanderbilt University as the assistant athletic director of compliance. In that role, she was responsible for handling oversight of all compliance related to NCAA and SEC regulations. Adkins also served as sport administrator for the women's swimming and dive team.

Prior to Vanderbilt, Adkins began her career at The University of San Diego, where she served as compliance and academic administrator from 2009-2015.

Adkins graduated from the University of Arizona with a bachelor of arts in 2006 with a major in political science and a minor in business administration. She earned her juris doctorate degree from California Western School of Law and was accepted into the California State Bar in 2010. A native of Los Angeles, CA., Adkins grew up spending a great amount of time at the Rose Bowl and Pauley Pavilion.

Adkins is currently a member of the National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators and Women's Leaders in Sports.

Dr. Julio Frenk

Chancellor
1st Year at UCLA
Michigan '81

Dr. Julio Frenk became the seventh chancellor of UCLA on January 1, 2025. Frenk is an accomplished university administrator and leading global health researcher who has held positions in government and academia both in the U.S. and in Mexico.

Prior to UCLA, Frenk served as president of the University of Miami from 2015 to 2024, where he also held academic appointments in public health sciences, health sector management and policy, sociology and health studies. Before that, he served for almost seven years as dean of the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health and the T & G Angelopoulos Professor of Public Health and International Development.

Frenk was appointed secretary of health of Mexico in 2000, a position he held until 2006. In that role, he pursued an ambitious agenda to reform the nation's health system and introduced a program of comprehensive universal coverage called Seguro Popular, which expanded access to health care for more than 55 million previously uninsured persons. Frenk was also the founding director-general of the National Institute of Public Health in Mexico, one of the leading institutions of its kind in the developing world.

Frenk's research has centered on health systems, a field where he has made both theoretical and empirical contributions. He has examined the public policy implications of large, long-term shifts in the dominant patterns of health and disease as well as carried out work on health professions education and the medical labor market. Frenk holds a medical degree from the National University of Mexico, as well as a Master of Public Health and a joint Ph.D. in medical care organization and sociology from the University of Michigan.

UCLA'S NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

A CLOSER LOOK AT UCLA'S TITLES

UCLA's collegiate sports championship history stands out as one of the most impressive of any university in the nation. UCLA has proudly totaled 124 NCAA team championships (heading into the 2025-26 school year), an accomplishment that speaks to the Bruins' commitment to excellence. UCLA's student-athletes have consistently performed at an elite level in their sports, studies and public service. This well-rounded approach has helped to create champions on the field and in the community.

UCLA won a school-record five NCAA team titles during the 1981-82 school year, with softball, men's swimming & diving, men's tennis, men's volleyball and women's outdoor track & field. The Bruins' athletic programs have captured four NCAA team championships in eight school years and have totaled three titles eight times.

The athletics department has seen 17 of its teams win the NCAA title after having posted an undefeated record. Those sports include men's tennis (five times), men's basketball (four), men's volleyball (three), women's water polo (three) and men's water polo (two). Most recently, the UCLA women's water polo team compiled a perfect record of 26-0 in the spring of 2024.
