"BY THE PLAYERS" UNIFORMS

The University of Wisconsin, in partnership with Under Armour, will debut new men's basketball alternate "By the Players" uniforms to be worn during the 2025-26 campaign.

This marks the sixth edition of the UW men's basketball team's "By the Players" uniforms. The "By the Players" collection allows players on the team to work in collaboration with Under Armour to contribute to the design process.

Juniors John Blackwell and Nolan Winter worked with Under Armour staff on the design process for this year's look.

The Badgers debuted this season's alternate uniforms at the Kohl Center for their I-94 rivalry game against Marquette on Saturday, Dec. 6.

- Greg Gard on Wisconsin All-Access

■ TWO-TIME BIG TEN COACH OF THE YEAR

A coaching veteran of more than 30 years, Greg Gard heads into his 11th season leading the Wisconsin men's basketball program in 2025-26 and has proven himself to be one of the best head coaches in the Big Ten. A finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 2022, Gard has guided the Badgers to Big Ten regular season championships in two of the last six seasons. Gard was named Big Ten Coach of the Year in each of those title-winning campaigns (2020 and 2022).

Wisconsin's postseason success hasn't wavered on Gard's watch either, qualifying for the NCAA tournament in seven of his nine seasons (Big Ten automatic qualifier status in canceled 2020 Big Dance, due to COVID pandemic). His postseason ledger includes Sweet 16 appearances his first two seasons at the helm.

In his first nine seasons as head coach, Gard has amassed a record of 213-117 (.645), owning the third-highest win percentage in school history behind only Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame members Bo Ryan (.737) and Walter Meanwell (.712). Gard has led the Badgers to six of the top-20 winningest seasons in program history.

Gard entered the 2025-26 season with a conference record of 117-77. During the 2023-24 season, he became the sixth-fastest coach to reach 100 Big Ten wins in the last 50 years trailing only Bob Knight, Bo Ryan, Thad Matta, Tom Izzo and Gene Keady.

Gard had arguably his most impressive coaching job in 2021-22. Picked to finish pre-season 10th in the Big Ten, UW went 25-8 overall and 15-5 in league play, claiming a share of the Big Ten regular season title for the second time in the past three seasons. Gard was named

Big Ten Coach of the Year for the second time in his career. Sophomore guard Johnny Davis garnered consensus first-team All-America honors and won Lute Olson National Player of the Year, the Jerry West Award and Big Ten Player of the Year.

Gard's leadership during the 2019-20 season is among his best. After opening 5-5 in the Big Ten, Wisconsin won nine of its last 10 games, including its final eight games of the season to win a share of the 2020 conference championship and claim the No. 1 seed for the later canceled Big Ten tournament.

In his inaugural season as head coach, Gard led the Badgers to the 2016 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16, becoming just the second-ever first-year coach to win the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award. He followed that up by leading UW to the fifth-highest single-season win total in school history (27-10) and making a second-consecutive visit to the Sweet 16.

Long considered one of the top assistant coaches in the game, Gard served as an assistant at Wisconsin for 14-plus seasons. During that time he helped guide the Badgers to back-to-back Final Fours in 2014 and 2015, and in 2015 UW reached its first national championship game since 1941.

Prior to coming to Wisconsin in 2001, Gard spent two seasons as Bo Ryan's assistant at UW-Milwaukee (2000-01) and six seasons as an assistant to Ryan at UW-Platteville (1993-99). During Gard's years on the Pioneer staff, UW-Platteville went 161-13 (.925) and won three NCAA Division III national titles.

Gard and his wife, Michelle, have two daughters, Mackenzie and Peyton, and their son, Isaac, is a senior on the UW men's basketball team.

GET TO KNOW JACK

A product of Lakeville, Minnesota, Jack Robison begins his true sophomore campaign after appearing in 13 games during the 2024-25 season. He's the fourth player out of Lakeville North High School to play for Wisconsin and Coach Gard, following in the path of a growing pipeline that includes current Badger Nolan Winter (high school teammates), and former UW forwards Tyler Wahl and Nate Reuvers. A versatile player at 6-foot-6, Robison grew over an inch in the offseason, adding 15 pounds to boot. He's best known for his shooting ability, but uses his athleticism and length to make plays on both ends of the floor. This skillset saw Coach Gard and co. use Robison in the 2-4 positions last season.
