UConn AND THE NFL

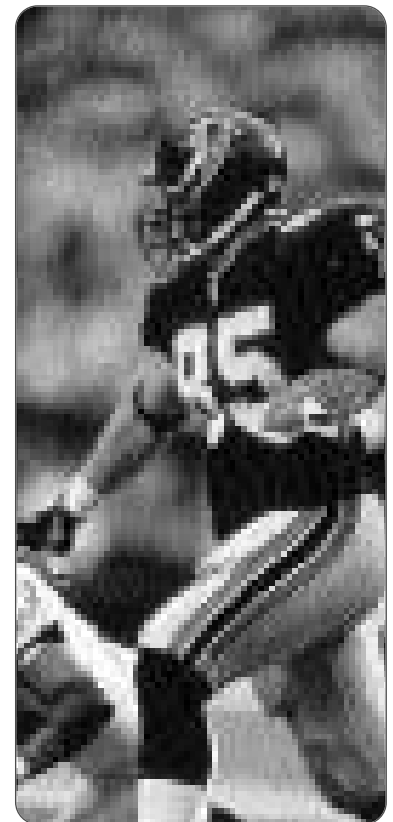

A number of former University of Connecticut football players have gone on to be drafted or signed free agent contracts with National Football League teams.

On these pages is a listing of UConn players that have either been drafted by NFL teams, made an active regular season roster or have signed free agent contracts with teams in the NFL.

BRIAN KOZLOWSKI BECOMES SECOND HUSKY TO PLAY IN THE SUPER BOWL

Former Husky Brian Kozlowski became the second UConn alumnus to play in the Super Bowl in January 1999. Kozlowski was the starting fullback for the NFC Champion Atlanta Falcons, who lost to the Denver Broncos. Kozlowski played at UConn from 1989-1992 and was a two-time All-Yankee Conference selection. In 1998, he was one of 44 players selected to the UConn 100th Anniversary All-Time Football Team.

UConn AND THE CFL

Former UConn standout Brian Herosian enjoyed an outstanding career in the Canadian Football League. After playing in the NFL for one season in 1973 for Baltimore, Herosian travelled north and played for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers for four seasons from 1975-78. He was an East Division all-star in 1975 and '76 and a CFL all-star in '76.

Herosian had five interceptions in both 1975 and '76, three in '77 and four more in '78. At UConn, he was selected to play in the North-South All-Star Shrine Game in Miami following his senior year.

UConn's CFL tradition continued in the Summer of 2004. Scarborough, Ontario's O'Neil Wilson was the second wide receiver taken in the CFL draft by Montreal and was a starter on Opening Day for the Alouettes.

ALL-TIME TEAM

In celebration of 100 seasons of collegiate football at the University of Connecticut, during the 1998 season the Division of Athletics was proud to honor the selection of the 100th Anniversary All-Time Football Team. The team consists of 44 members, including 23 All-America selections, seven Yankee Conference Player of the Year honorees and 80 total All-Yankee and All-Atlantic 10 Conference all-star award winners.

The 100th Anniversary All-Time Team was selected in two specific ways. In 1969, UConn selected an all-time team in conjunction with the 100th anniversary of NCAA college football. The 11 members of that team also are members of this team.

The remaining 33 members of the all-time team were selected in a ballot of their peers and fans. Eligibility for the ballot was determined as follows: competed for the University of Connecticut between the years of 1970 and 1997 and were not listed on the 1969 ballot; holder of UConn career or single season individual statistical record; earned All-Yankee, All-Atlantic 10 or All-American recognition. A total of 107 players were listed on the ballot and, including write-in votes, over 150 different players received votes in the final balloting.

More than 700 ballots were sent to UConn football letterwinners, coaches and fans during the summer of 1998. Any player receiving votes from 25 percent of the respondents and finishing in the top five at their respective position was named to the team.

The team includes two representatives from the 1940's, three from the 1950's, six from the 1960's, five from the 1970's, 18 from the 1980's and 10 players from the decade of the 1990's. The team includes 10 offensive linemen, five running backs, four quarterbacks, four wide receivers, four tight ends, five defensive backs, five defensive linemen, four linebackers and three kickers. The team selected in 1969 was listed by offensive position only.
