Head Coach Jim Penders

Jim Penders
Head Coach

16

21st Season
Connecticut '94, G'98

Jim Penders enters his 21st season at the helm for the Huskies in 2024. A five-time conference Coach of the Year, Penders has overseen one of the most successful stretches in the 127-year history of UConn baseball. Penders has worked with the University of Connecticut baseball program in 32 of the last 34 years, being associated with the Huskies as a student-athlete, an assistant coach and now head coach. The Huskies have the longest tenured coaching staff in Division I baseball.

Overall in his tenure, Penders holds a 700-449-5 record. On May 16, 2019, Penders surpassed his mentor, Andy Baylock, for most wins in UConn history by securing his 557th victory in a 8-5 win at Tulane. He has led the Huskies to nine NCAA Tournament appearances, and two Super Regional appearances in 2011 & 2022. UConn has also won a regular season or conference title eight times with Penders in the dugout and hosted the 2010 Norwich Regional. Under his watch, 17 Huskies have earned All-America honors, most recently Austin Peterson and Erik Stock in 2020.

In 20 seasons as head coach for the Huskies, Penders has had a total of 72 players either drafted or signed by professional baseball clubs. During the 2015 MLB season a program-record five former Huskies played in the big leagues: Nick Ahmed ('11) of the Diamondbacks, Matt Barnes ('11) of the Red Sox, Scott Oberg ('12) of the Rockies, Mike Olt ('11) of the Cubs and George Springer ('11) of the Astros. The feat occurred again in 2018 with Ahmed, Barnes, Oberg and Springer joined by former teammate John Andreoli ('11) who was called up by the Seattle Mariners on May 23, 2018. Anthony Kay made his MLB Debut on Sept. 7, 2019 for the Toronto Blue Jays.

Penders has led his squad to 30 or more wins in 16 of his 19 years at Connecticut (2020 season shortened due to Covid-19). In 2023, the Huskies captured 44 wins to notch back-to-back 40 wins seasons for the first time since 2010 and 2011. The 94 combined wins between 2022 and 2023 are the most in back-to-back years in program history. The Huskies won their third-straight BIG EAST regular season title and earned their sixth-ever at-large bid to reach their fifth-straight NCAA Tournament.

Penders won his 700th game in the NCAA Gainesville Regional with a victory against Florida A&M on June 3, 2023. Penders earned NEIBA Coach of the Year for the fifth time in his career, leading the Huskies to the highest ranking while he has been at the helm at No. 9 in the country (D1Baseball.com). The Huskies were in the major polls for 10 weeks during the season and took home NEIBA Team of the Year, the ninth time the Huskies have earned that honor under Penders. Dominic Freeberger earned BIG EAST Player of the Year honors while seven Huskies earned All-BIG EAST accolades.

In 2022, the Huskies set a program record and New England record with 50 wins on the season. UConn won the NCAA College Park Regional and advanced to its second Super Regional. The Huskies beat No. 2 Stanford in Game 1 of the Super Regionals to grab their first-ever win in Supers. For the second-straight season, the Huskies swept the BIG EAST regular season and tournament titles. It was the fourth-straight NCAA Tournament for the Huskies and eighth under Penders. Penders earned ABCA/Rawlings Northeast Coach of the Year for the fourth time in his career and also captured NEIBA Coach of the Year honors.

In 2021, Penders led the Huskies to a BIG EAST regular season and conference tournament championship for the first time in program history, advancing to play in the 2021 NCAA South Bend Regional. Penders and his staff took home 2021 BIG EAST coaching staff of the year honors while Tyler Fedko captured BIG EAST Player of the Year accolades.

In 2019, Penders led the Huskies to its fifth at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and earned the No. 2 seed in the Oklahoma City Regional. The Huskies won three games in the tournament, most since 2011, to reach its second-straight Regional Final. The Huskies finished with 39 wins, eclipsing the 35-win mark for the sixth time in the last 10 seasons. He was named ABCA/Diamond Northeast Coach of the Year.

In 2018, Penders led UConn to its fourth at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament in program history. The Huskies earned the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Conway Regional and reached the Regional Final by defeating LIU Brooklyn and host, Coastal Carolina.

Reggie Crawford earned an invite to play for the USA Collegiate National Team in 2021, becoming the fourth Husky in the past six seasons to receive the honor. Penders has had seven players don the stars and stripes (Matt Barnes, Tim Cate, Mason Feole, Anthony Kay, L.J. Mazzilli and George Springer).

Penders led the Huskies to their first-ever American Athletic Conference crown in 2016, finishing with a 38-25 overall record en route to their fourth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last seven seasons. Four Huskies were drafted in the 2016 MLB Draft, including Kay, who went 31st overall to the New York Mets.

Penders earned NEIBA New England Coach of the Year honors in 2015 as his squad went 35-25 and reached the semifinal round of the 2015 American Baseball Championship. Seven Huskies earned All-Conference accolades following the season, including American Athletic Conference Pitcher of the Year Carson Cross. Along with Siena, the NEIBA New England Player of the Year, Cross was named an ABCA/Rawlings Third-Team All-American following the season and also received All-America laurels from Louisville Slugger. Willy Yahn became UConn's first Freshman All-American since 2009 following the season with a Louisville Slugger.

In 2014, UConn struggled with injuries and youth and finished the year with a 27-31 record. Bobby Melley was named NEIBA New England Player of the Year and was one of three All-Conference first team members.

In 2013, the Huskies claimed their final BIG EAST Championship, defeating Notre Dame, 8-1, in Clearwater, Fla. UConn advanced to play in the NCAA tournament for the third time in the past four years. The BIG EAST title was the third in UConn history joining the 1990 and '94 teams. UConn defeated No. 1 seed Virginia Tech in its first game of the 2013 NCAA Regional hosted in Blacksburg, Va., before falling to Oklahoma and the Hokies in consecutive games. The Huskies finished the season with a 35-28 record.

In 2011, Penders guided the Huskies to the program's first regular-season BIG EAST championship title and first appearance in the NCAA Super Regionals. UConn finished the season with a 22-5 mark in conference play, and ended the year with a 45-20-1 overall record. Following their program-best 22 wins in conference play in 2011, the Huskies earned a bid to the NCAA Tournament for the 17th time, including their second straight appearance. As the No. 2 seed in the Clemson Regional, UConn went 4-1 while eliminating all three opponents from NCAA Tournament play, including No. 1 seed Clemson.

During 2011, Penders coached 11 student-athletes to BIG EAST post season honors, including Pitcher of the Year Matt Barnes and Player of the Year George Springer. Three Huskies also earned All-America status under Penders that season, as Barnes and Springer were named first team All-Americans and Kevin Vance was named a second team All-American.

In the 2011 Major League Baseball Amateur Draft, a program-best 10 Huskies were selected. George Springer (11th overall), and Matt Barnes (19th overall) were first-round selections of the Houston Astros and Boston Red Sox respectively. Joining the two first-rounders were Nick Ahmed (2nd round pick of the Braves), John Andreoli (17th round pick of the Cubs), Greg Nappo (18th round pick of the Marlins), Kevin Vance (19th round pick of the White Sox), Mike Nemeth (21st round pick of the Brewers), Dave Fischer (30th round pick of the Giants), Doug Elliot (35th round pick of the Brewers), and Elliot Glynn (39th round pick of the Braves).

The 2010 season was one of the most successful seasons in program history, as Penders guided the Huskies to a program-best 48 wins. After being nationally ranked for the first time since 1979, UConn earned an NCAA Tournament berth for the first time since 1994 and hosted the Norwich Regional at Dodd Stadium in Norwich, Conn. Along with the team success, including a UConn-best 22-game win streak, Penders earned multiple coaching accolades as he was named BIG EAST, ECAC, and NEIBA Coach of the Year. He was also named the ABCA/Diamond Northeast Coach of the Year.

In 2009, Penders led the Huskies to a 36-24 overall record and an appearance in the BIG EAST Championship final against Louisville. Under Penders' guidance, George Springer became UConn's first-ever BIG EAST Rookie of the Year following the 2009 season.

During 2007, Penders and the Huskies earned a spot in the BIG EAST Championship game after battling their way through the BIG EAST Tournament by upsetting three higher-seeded teams. UConn's appearance in the title game as the eighth-seed marked the lowest seed in BIG EAST Tournament history to reach the final game.

After the 2006 season, a year in which the Huskies went 39-18-1, Penders led his program to a second place finish in the BIG EAST and earned BIG EAST Coach of the Year, and NEIBA Coach of the Year honors, while his team was named the NEIBA Team of the Year.

In July of 2003, Penders became just the fifth head coach in the program's history since 1924 joining Sumner Dole (1924-35), J.O. Christian (1936-61), Larry Panciera (1962-79) and Andy Baylock (1980-2003).

Penders was an assistant coach for the Huskies for seven years from 1997-2003 as UConn posted winning seasons in each of those campaigns. As an assistant coach, Penders coordinated the Huskies recruiting of student-athletes, served as a hitting coach and worked with the catchers and outfielders.

A standout on the baseball field for Connecticut during his undergraduate career, Penders was a four-year letter winner as a Husky. He was co-captain of the 1994 UConn squad that won the BIG EAST Conference tournament, and the Huskies advanced to the NCAA Championship in both his junior and senior years. He hit .354 with seven home runs and 46 runs batted in as a senior in 1994. He earned First Team All-Northeast, All-New England and All-BIG EAST honors in his senior year as a catcher.

During his UConn career, the Huskies played in the Championship game of the BIG EAST Tournament three times. Penders helped the Huskies to 99 wins over his four seasons, including a 30-18 record in 1994. He also excelled in the classroom as a three-time BIG EAST Academic All-Star. Penders was a four-year member of the UConn Captains' Council and served as that group's president during his senior year.

Penders graduated from UConn in 1994 with a degree in political science and added a master's degree from UConn in 1998 from the School of Education.

Penders worked in Washington, D.C., from 1994-96 as a political fundraiser for U.S. Senator Tom Harkin of Iowa. Penders returned to UConn for the 1997 season as a graduate assistant baseball coach and became a fulltime assistant coach for the 1999 season. He also founded and directs the Connecticut Baseball School. The popular camp holds sessions during the summer and winter vacation periods, along with a one-day fall session in October every year.

The connection between the Penders family and UConn athletics runs deep. Penders' father, Jim, and uncle, Tom, both graduated from UConn and played on the Huskies' 1965 College World Series team. Jim is a 1966 UConn graduate and recently retired as the baseball coach at East Catholic High School. He won 600 games in 43 seasons and coached his three sons. He was an infielder for the Huskies and had a career batting average of .279, including a .323 mark his senior year. He was a captain of the '65 squad and the only player to hit over .300 for the Huskies that season. Jim has won four Connecticut high school state championships at East Catholic and was named the national high school coach of the year in 1996. In the summer of 2008 he was inducted into the National High School Coaches Association Hall of Fame, and in June of 2009, the baseball field at East Catholic was named in his honor.

Tom, a 1967 UConn graduate, was the head men's basketball coach at Tufts (1971-74), Columbia (1974-78), Fordham (1978-86), Rhode Island (1986-88), Texas (1988-89), George Washington (1998-2000) and Houston (2004-10). Tom was a two-sport star at UConn in baseball and basketball as he played in two NCAA tournaments (1965 and 1967) and the 1965 College World Series. Penders' extended family also includes a prominent former Husky.

His former classmate, teammate, battery-mate and 1994 Lawrence R. Panciera Most Valuable Player, Aaron Quinn, is now his brother-in-law. Quinn pitched for the Huskies from 1991-94 and married Penders' sister-in-law, Courtney in 1999. Penders' younger brother Rob is the head coach of Division II St. Edward's University of Austin, Texas. His grandfather Jim was the longtime baseball coach at Stratford (Conn.) High School from 1931-68 and won four state championships, a record matched by Penders' father at East Catholic. He was also the head of the physical education department and the town's recreation director. The Stratford High School baseball and football complex is named in his honor. Penders is also actively involved with several baseball clinics around the globe as he has presented as a featured clinician in Regensburg, Germany to German baseball coaches for International Sports Group/Major League Baseball International.

A native of Vernon, Conn., Penders was an all-state performer in baseball at East Catholic High School and served as his senior class president. In 2011, he was inducted into the ECHS Hall of Fame.

A daily runner, Penders completed his first marathon in Philadelphia in November 2011. Penders resides in Old Wethersfield, Conn. with his three children - a daughter, Tess Avery, and sons, James Henry "Hank", and Charles Edward "Charlie".

Associate Head Coach Jeff Hourigan

Jeff Hourigan

29

Associate Head Coach

13th Season
Connecticut '05

Jeff Hourigan joined Jim Penders' staff prior to the 2012 season and is now entering his 13th season as an assistant coach in 2024. Hourigan, who played at UConn for two seasons, returned to Storrs after spending five years as an assistant coach and pitching coach at the University of New Haven. Hourigan is part of the longest tenured coaching staff in Division I baseball.

During Hourigan's time in Storrs, he has mentored the UConn hitters, specifically outfielders, and served as the recruiting coordinator. Since he came aboard, UConn has had 20 position players drafted or signed by MLB clubs. Hourigan has also helped mentored four All-Americans, with Erik Stock (2022), Kyler Fedko (2021), Vinny Siena (2015) and LJ Mazzilli (2013) each earning All-America honors during their time in Storrs.

In 2022, the Huskies had five players earn All-Conference status with Stock, Korey Morton and Matt Donlan taking First Team honors while Casey Dana and David Smith landed on the second team. Under Hourigan, the Huskies won both the 2022 BIG EAST regular season and tournament championships and advanced to the Super Regionals for the first time under him. UConn scored the second most runs in a single-season with 528, hit .300 as a team for the second-straight season, led the nation with 166 doubles, which set a program record, and tied the program record with 83 home runs in a single-season. All those marks helped the Huskies set a program and New England record with 50 wins in a season.

In 2021, Kyler Fedko took home BIG EAST Player of the Year honors while five position players made the BIG EAST All-Conference team (Fedko (First Team), C. Winkel (First Team, Erik Stock (First Team), Pat Winkel (Second Team) and Reggie Crawford (Second Team). En route to winning the BIG EAST regular season and tournament championships and the UConn coaching staff earning BIG EAST Coaching Staff of the Year, the UConn offense led the BIG EAST in batting average (.300), runs scored (384), hits (511), slugging (.476), on-base percentage (.386), doubles (106), home runs (62), and total bases (827).

During the 2019 season, the Huskies scored the third most runs in The American with 369. The 2019 offense set a program-record and led The American with 294 walks including Christian Fedko leading the league with 46. John Toppa and Anthony Prato both reached the 200-hit mark for their careers becoming the 20th and 21st Huskies to accomplish the feat. The Huskies scored 37 runs in the NCAA Oklahoma City Regional, the second most they've scored in a single NCAA Tournament. (2011, 50 Runs). The 7.4 average runs per game was the most UConn has produced in a single NCAA Tournament.

Anthony Prato earned First Team All-Conference status while John Toppa, Mike Woodworth and Christian Fedko landed on the second team. Prato was drafted in the 7th Round by the Minnesota Twins and Mike Woodworth was selected in the 29th Round by the Oakland Athletics

In 2018, four players hit over .300 with Zac Susi (.335), Troy Stefanski (.326), Anthony Prato (.324) and Mike Woodworth (.302) eclipsing the mark. Isaac Feldstein earned First Team All-Conference honors, Susi landed on the second team and Christian Fedko was named the American Conference Rookie Position Player of the Year. In the 2018 MLB Draft, Susi was drafted in the 12th Round by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

During the 2017 season, junior third baseman Willy Yahn became the 19th Husky to collect 200 hits for his career. The Huskies placed two position players on the All-Conference team with Yahn and Anthony Prato getting second-team All-Conference nods.

In 2016, UConn won its first American Athletic Conference crown with Hourigan leading the UConn offense to the top of the conference in multiple offensive categories. The Huskies ranked first in runs scored (388), doubles (108) and walks (261). Joe DeRoche-Duffin was selected the Conference Player of the Year, while four other position players earned All-Conference honors; Willy Yahn, Bobby Melley, Bryan Daniello and Jack Sundberg. Individually, Willy Yahn was first in The American in hits (88), doubles (20), DeRoche-Duffin's cranked a conference-leading 17 HR's and Bobby Melley and Jack Sundberg tied for the top spot in the conference with 53 runs scored.

In 2015, the UConn posted a slash line of .288/.388/.416 to aid in scoring a conference-leading 6.5 runs per game. The UConn offense sent five to All-Conference teams and Vinny Siena followed Bobby Melley in 2014 to give the Huskies back-to-back NEIBA New England Player of the Year winners. The Huskies also had three hitters (Blake Davey, Joe DeRoche-Duffin and Siena) earn ABCA All-Region honors.

While working at New Haven for head coach Raphael Cerrato (now head coach at Rhode Island), Hourigan helped guide the Chargers to an East Coast Conference regular season championship (2008), an NCAA Regional berth (2010), and led the pitching staff to an ERA of 2.90 that was the second best mark in the country during the 2010 season.

Prior to his coaching career at New Haven, Hourigan was a student assistant coach for UConn during the 2006 season, working closely with the first basemen and pitchers. He split his collegiate playing career between Clemson and Connecticut, playing for the Tigers during the 2002 and 2003 seasons and was part of the Husky lineup during the 2004 and 2005 seasons. In 2002, he competed in the College World Series as a part of a Clemson team that finished third nationally. As a senior, Hourigan was named team captain and went on to earn second team All-BIG EAST and team MVP honors. At Clemson, he earned honorable mention Freshman All-American.

Between Clemson and Connecticut, Hourigan played in 185 games and batted .303 for his career. He scored 104 runs, drove in 129 and belted 25 homeruns. At UConn alone, he hit .333 with 17 home runs in 90 games. On the mound, he recorded a 10-8 record in 21 starts for the Huskies and struck out 103 batters in 136.1 innings pitched.

13th Season
Connecticut '06
Long Island G'09

Josh MacDonald joined Jim Penders' staff in 2012 and enters his 13th season as Husky pitching coach in 2024. MacDonald is part of the longest tenured coaching staff in Division I baseball.

MacDonald has coached seven All-Americans during his time in Storrs and had an All-American in six of the last seven completed seasons (Cross ('15), Kay ('16), Russell ('17), Feole & Poulin ('18), Jacob Wallace ('19) and Austin Peterson (2022)). (*2020 season shortened due to Covid-19)

Under MacDonald the Huskies have eclipsed 500 strikeouts as a staff the past six seasons, including a program record 642 strikeouts in 2022. (*2020 season shortened due to Covid-19).

In 2022, the Huskies pitching staff ranked top-10 in the nation in ERA (6th, 3.78) and strikeouts (10th, 642). Austin Peterson and Pat Gallagher tied for the most wins in the nation with 11. While earning All-American numbers in 2022, Peterson set the UConn single-season strikeout record with 147 strikeouts, ranking third in the country. Ian Cooke also earned Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American honors for his first season in Storrs. The Huskies placed its entire weekend rotation on the BIG EAST All-Conference team with Pat Gallagher and Austin Peterson on the First Team and Enzo Stefanoni on the second team.

For his accomplishments during the 2022 season, MacDonald was named the 2022 D1Baseball.com Assistant Coach of the Year.

Three UConn pitchers were selected in the 2022 MLB Draft with Reggie Crawford (1st Round), Austin Peterson (9th Round) and Pat Gallagher (11th Round) all selected.

As part of the 2021 BIG EAST Coaching Staff of the Year, MacDonald saw three of his pitchers land on the BIG EAST All-Conference team with Caleb Wurster (First Team), Ben Casparius (Second Team) and Austin Peterson (Second Team) all taking home accolades. Casparius led the BIG EAST and posted the second most strikeouts in a single-season with 127 while Caleb Wurster led the BIG EAST with his nine saves.

Three UConn pitchers were selected in the 2021 MLB Draft with Ben Casparius (5th Round, Dodgers), Caleb Wurster (15th Round, Marlins) and Andrew Marrero (18th Round, Cardinals) all p

With a shortened season and abbreviated draft, Nick Krauth was spectacular for the Huskies in 2020, going 4-0 with a 0.36 ERA in four starts. He was headed for an All-American season before the season was cut short. Krauth signed a free agent deal with the Texas Rangers after the MLB D

Jacob Wallace was one of the top closers in the country in 2019 and became a third round pick by the Colorado Rockies in the MLB Draft, the highest draft pick for a UConn reliever in program history. Wallace received numerous All-American accolades with four First Team and one second team nod. He was one of five pitchers up for National Pitcher of the Year and was a finalist for NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award, given to the top reliever in college baseball.

Mason Feole closed out his career in 2019 by becoming the program's all-time strikeout leader with 278 strikeouts.

On Sept. 7, 2019, former MacDonald pupil, Anthony Kay, made his Major League debut with the Toronto Blue Jays.

Two Husky arms received All-American recognition in 2018 with Mason Feole and P.J. Poulin earning ABCA/Rawlings Third Team All-America status. Feole became just the second pitcher in UConn history to hit 120 strikeouts in single-season en route to nine victories and a 2.50 ERA. Poulin set the UConn single-season record with 16 saves in 2018 and ranked top-10 nationally in saves. The left hander appeared in 31 games, notched six wins and held a 3.26 ERA.

Poulin was drafted in the 11th Round of the MLB Draft by the Colorado Rockies while southpaw Tim Cate was picked 65th overall in the Second Round by the Washington Nationals. Cate set the UConn program record for strikeouts with 270 strikeouts in three seasons in Storrs (116).

For the second-straight season a Husky pitcher won Conference Rookie Pitcher of the Year, Mason Feole took home the honor in 2017. On March 4, the Huskies tied a school record with 20 strikeouts against Stetson. John Russell garnered third team ABCA/Rawlings Third Team All-American status after breaking the single-season school record with 14 saves. Three pitchers: Wills Montgomerie (6th Round), John Russell (16th) and Doug Domnarski (27th) were selected in the 2017 MLB Draft. 11 pitchers have been signed by major league clubs since the arrival of MacDonald.

MacDonald coached a pair of All-Americans in 2016, highlighted by Anthony Kay's Louisville Slugger Second Team All-America nod. Kay, who was drafted by the New York Mets with the 31st pick in the 2016 MLB Draft, was also tabbed as the American Athletic Conference Pitcher of the Year and Most Outstanding Player in The American conference tournament; pitching the UConn to its first American Athletic Conference title. Freshman LHP Tim Cate was tabbed as the league's Rookie Pitcher of the Year and earned a spot on the Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America squad. As a staff, UConn established a new single-season program record with 558 strikeouts and picked up the fourth-most wins in single-season history (38).

In 2015, MacDonald led the Husky pitching staff to its first sub-3.00 team ERA since 1977, placing 14th in the country and second in The American with a 2.94 mark. The Huskies were also 14th in the country with a 1.20 WHIP and placed eighth in the nation with 7.53 hits allowed/nine innings. Leading the way was Third Team All-American Carson Cross, who became the 11th pitcher to earn All-America honors in program history before a 14th round selection by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 2015 MLB Draft. Cross was joined by Anthony Kay to make UConn the only team in The American with two First Team All-Conference performers. Kay became the first selection to the 2015 USA Baseball Collegiate National Team during the season.

The 2014 Huskies finished 45th nationally with a 3.19 ERA, good for third best in The American Athletic Conference. MacDonald guided senior ace Anthony Marzi to a Third Team All-Conference season, helping Marzi move into the top-five in UConn history in several categories. Under MacDonald's counsel, freshman Andrew Zapata finished seventh in the nation and first in The American with a paltry 5.57 hits allowed per nine innings.

In 2013, the Husky pitching staff boasted a 3.42 earned run average, led by sophomore ace Carson Cross, who finished the year with a 9-4 record and a 2.44 earned run average. Cross was selected in the 24th round by the Pittsburgh Pirates as the 719th overall player taken and the 13th of the round. The Huskies finished the season with a combined 398 strikeouts in 574.0 innings pitched. UConn finished third in the BIG EAST in ERA and ranked 45th out of 296 teams nationally. Marzi and reliever David Mahoney were both named to the All-BIG EAST Tournament team during the Huskies championship run in Clearwater, Fla.

In 2012, the UConn pitching staff ranked fourth in the BIG EAST in earned run average, second in conference-only games, and third in batting average against. Marzi finished third in the league in ERA in conference games, while righty Scott Oberg was named to the All-BIG EAST First Team. Oberg and fellow righty David Fischer were each chosen in the MLB draft, going in the 15th and 18th rounds, respectively.

MacDonald, a UConn alum, spent two years as the pitching coach with the Bourne Braves of the Cape Cod Baseball League from 2010-11 and served as an assistant coach in the CCBL All-Star Game for the West Division in 2010. During his time with the club, the Braves won the CCBL championship during 2009 and then won the Western Division championship in 2010. As an integral part of the coaching staff, MacDonald also guided one of his players to become the 2010 CCBL Outstanding Pitcher of the Year.

Prior to his stint with the Bourne Braves, he served as a pitching coach for Long Island University from 2007-2009, where he tutored four pitchers who went on to play professionally. MacDonald finished his collegiate playing career in 2006, after helping the Huskies to a second place finish during the BIG EAST regular season and a then school record 39 wins. At the time, he was third

Assistant Coach Chris Podeszwa

Chris Podeszwa 14
Assistant Coach

21st Season
Connecticut '93
So. Connecticut G'03

Chris Podeszwa has been a member of his former UConn teammate Jim Penders' coaching staff since Penders took over as head coach in 2004. Podeszwa's focus is primarily on the instruction of infielders and hitters. Podeszwa is part of the longest tenured coaching staff in Division I baseball.

Podeszwa has helped develop major league talent working with Nick Ahmed, John Andreoli, Mike Olt and George Springer during his time with the Huskies.

Podeszwa was inducted into the Waterford Athletic Hall of Fame in 2016. On November 25, 2016 Podeszwa and seven others represented the sixth induction class.

During the 2023 season, he helped the Huskies win 44 games and win their third-straight BIG EAST Championship. UConn earned an at-large bid to its fifth-straight NCAA Tournament.

In 2022, he helped the program set a program record with 50 wins and a trip to the program's second Super Regional after capturing the 2022 NCAA College Park Regional title.

In 2019, Podeszwa helped the program earn its fifth at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament and second-straight season. The Huskies have eclipsed 30 wins in 15 of the 18 seasons under Coach Dez and eight times in the past 12 seasons have posted 35 wins or more.

Podeszwa helped the Huskies capture their first-ever American Athletic Conference crown in 2016, helping guide the program to a 38-25 overall mark and its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last seven seasons.

The 2014 Huskies finished in the top-100 nationally in on-base percentage, placing fourth in The American with a .364 mark. Podeszwa also helped three hitters (Blake Davey, Max McDowell, Bobby Melley) earn All-Conference nods, while Melley was named 2014 NEIBA New England Player of the Year.

In 2013, the Huskies finished with a .270 team batting average and an impressive .365 on-base percentage. UConn scored 318 runs in 63 games, averaging out to 5.05 runs per game. Podeszwa also guided second baseman LJ Mazzilli to an All-America season before he became a fourth round draft pick of the New York Mets.

Podeszwa was an integral part of the 2011 UConn club that won the program's first-ever BIG EAST Regular Season Championship and advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals for the first time.

In 2010, Podeszwa helped the Huskies' set new single-season records in hits, runs scored and RBI, besting the records the club set in 2009. UConn recorded 750 hits, 542 runs scored and 492 RBI in 2010.

After graduating from UConn in 1993, Podeszwa served as an envoy coach for Major League Baseball International in New York and Europe. His responsibilities included preparing the German Junior National Team for the European Championships while organizing coordinated clinics for youth players and coaches.

In 1995, Podeszwa moved to Sweden to play and coach for the Skelleftea Bears Baseball Club in Skelleftea, Sweden. His stay in Scandinavia was highlighted by both of his teams capturing the Swedish National Championship.

In 1996, Podeszwa was hired as the assistant baseball coach at Mitchell College in New London, Conn., and in 1998, he became the assistant baseball coach for the University of Connecticut's Avery Point branch under head coach Roger Bidwell. At Avery Point, Podeszwa helped lead his squads to the NJCAA Region XXI Championship in 1999 and 2000. Avery Point also captured the Northeast Region Championship in 1999 and earned a trip to the NJCAA Division II World Series.

In between summer evaluation and recruiting assignments for the Huskies, Podeszwa continues to serve as an assistant baseball coach for Yarmouth-Dennis of the Cape Cod Baseball League. He enters his 15th season with the Red Sox, who won the league championship in 2004, 2006 and 2007.

Podeszwa played at UConn from 1990-93. He was part of the 1990 BIG EAST Championship club and played every position for the Huskies except center field. He and Penders were teammates at UConn for three seasons.

Strength & Conditioning

Coach DeMarco joined the UConn staff in 2012. He currently oversees all aspects of training for the Baseball, Women's Ice Hockey, and Women's Volleyball. He has coached the baseball team to 5 BIG EAST Championships and the 2016 American Conference Championship. He has also coached 11 All-Americans and 34 MLB draft picks.

Prior to UConn, Joel served as the first full-time Strength & Conditioning Coach at Trinity College, overseeing all aspects of the program including design and implementation of training programs for all 29 varsity teams.

A native of North Adams, MA, Joel earned his Bachelor of Science in Exercise Science and Health Performance from the University of New England and his Master of Education in Exercise Science and Sports Studies from Springfield College. He was a varsity letter winner in the sport of Basketball for the University of New England.

Joel resides in Vernon, CT with his wife Kara and daughters Malia and Evelyn.

Catie Dann

Athletic Trainer

Second Season

Catie Dann is in her second season as Athletic Trainer for the baseball team. She previously worked with the UConn women's soccer team for 12 seasons.

Dann oversees the day to day care of all the student athletes associated with these teams, while working closely with the rest of the sports medicine staff. She has been a certified athletic trainer since 2005 and is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, as well as the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Prior to her tenure here at UConn, Catie was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at The George Washington University (2005-2007) and worked primarily with the women's soccer program. She graduated with a Masters degree in Exercise Physiology focusing on exercise, nutrition, and eating behavior. She earned her undergraduate degree from University of Connecticut in Athletic Training in 2005. She and her husband, Ian, live in Columbia with their sons, Conner and Liam, daughter, Mia, and dog, Bella.

2022 NEIBA All-Star. D3Baseball.com and ABCA/Rawlings Player of the Year. Fourth Team D3Baseball.com and Second Team ABCA/Rawlings All-American. Region 1 Player of the Year and First Team All-Region D3Baseball.com and ABCA/Rawlings. Studley was previously chosen the New England Women's & Men's Athletic Conference Baseball Athlete of the Year and earned a spot on the NEWMAC First Team. The senior led the conference in nine different offensive categories, including batting average (.412, 73-177), on-base percentage (.490), slugging percentage (.718), runs scored (49), doubles (19), home runs (11) and total bases (127), hits (73) and runs batted in (45) in 43 games. The Moses Brown school product ranks 25th in the nation in total bases, 21st in doubles, 38th in hits, 50th in slugging percentage and 62nd in batting average. He also placed fourth among NEWMAC players with 12 stolen bases and eighth with 24 walks. The Business major has started all 43 games he has appeared in and has reached base safely via a hit or a walk in all but five contests. A Captain for Wheaton, he made the final plate appearances of his outstanding career memorable, going 11-19 (.579) with two home runs, three doubles, eight RBI, 17 total bases, four runs scored and a stolen base in four games of the NCAA Championship Regional Tournament and was named to the All-Tournament Team. The outfielder tallied 12 total bases with two homers and a pair of doubles vs. Johnson & Wales University in the Regional to become the first player in school history to pile up that many total bases in a game twice after doing the same against Suffolk on April 13. Studley also became just the fourth player in program history to launch two homers in a game twice and only the second to do it in the same season. The Ocean State native posted 23 multiple-hit efforts, including a five-game stretch that saw him go 16-23 to hit a scorching .696 to go with nine RBI, three homers, six doubles and eight runs scored from April 10-16. He also collected five hits, including a pair of homers, in a 16-13 win over Suffolk during the stretch to become just the third player in school history to have registered at least five hits in a game on two occasions following a five-hit performance on March 20, 2021 at Emerson College. He finished the season by hitting safely in 13 straight games, hitting .517 (30-58) with 14 RBI, six doubles, three home runs, three walks and a trio of stolen bases during the stretch to end his career. His campaign is one of the greatest in school history. His batting average is the ninth-highest in school history, while his slugging percentage and on-base mark rank as the fifth and seventh-best, respectively. His total base tally stands as the third-most in school annals, while his long ball count is the fourth most. His doubles total ranks as number three and his season mark for hits and runs scored are both the fifth-most in program history.

Quigley capped a dream season after spending the better half of his career as a key factor at the plate from the shortstop position, while contributing as a pitcher. ABCA Third Team All American. Fourth Team D3Baseball All-American. Was selected as Region 1 Pitcher of the Year and First Team All-Region by both ABCA and D3Baseball.com. He was also named the NEWMAC Pitcher of the Year and a First Team All-Conference selection. The senior put together an outstanding season, leading the league in strikeouts with 73 to fall just three short of the school record, while ranking second among NEWMAC pitchers with a 2.22 earned run average and 40th in the nation. In addition, the Business major ranked 36th in all of Division III with a 6.08:1 strikeout to walk ratio and was 45th with a 1.02 walks and hits per innings pitched rate.. He also topped the conference with a 7-3 record. The right-hander recorded six outings with eight or more strikeouts, including four of his last five starts to compile 37 strikeouts in 34 frames. Quigley was extremely tough on hitters, holding opposing batters to a .215 (54-251) batting mark to rank 13th in the NEWMAC and hurled 65 innings to sit third in the league. One of the Lyons' Captains, Quigley made 11 appearances on the mound, including 10 starts and allowed two or fewer runs in eight of those outings. The right-hander was exceptionally good the final two months of the season, yielding just eight earned runs over 40 ? innings to post a 1.77 earned run average to go with 48 strikeouts and just seven bases on balls. He was tapped the NEWMAC Pitcher of the Week in the final week of the regular season Prior to the NCAA Regional, the Silver Lake High School graduate did not issue a walk in each of his last two starts and issued just two free passes in his final 21 ? innings, spanning 85 batters. Quigley also saw action as a hitter this season, going 15-61 (.246), while driving in 11 runs, scoring six times, smacking a double and stealing a base.

For his career, the Massachusetts native made 18 appearances and 13 starts and did not toe the rubber as a starter until his junior campaign after seeing the majority of his time spent at shortstop. He tossed 86 ? innings, while posting a formidable 2.08 ERA and fanning 92 batters against just 18 walks. He produced an 8-4 record and allowed just 73 hits. Quigley batted .360 (9-25) in the COVID-19 canceled 2020 season and hit .308 (28-91) last year during the team's College World Series run. All told, Quigley played in 109 games and owned a career batting average of .279 (82-294) to go with 49 runs batted in, 44 runs scored, 11 doubles, two triples and a .363 on-base percentage.

PERSONAL: Parents are Susan and Brian. Has four siblings, Ryan, Michael, Chris and Jack. His brother Michael attends UConn and is also a pitcher for the Huskies.

All-Time Coaches/Records

J.O. Christian

was presented to him in 1945 and again in 1959. He also received the "Gold Key", given by the Connecticut Sportswriters Alliance (1959) for outstanding contribution in Connecticut state sports. On April 29, 1960, the UConn Club presented "Christy" its annual outstanding contribution award. He was president of the American Association of College Baseball Coaches in 1960; and chairman of the NCAA District One Baseball Selection Committee, completing his term in 1958. He is in the ABCA Hall of Fame.

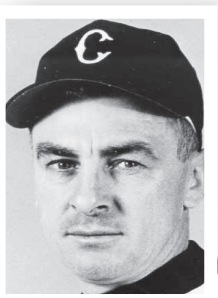

His active coaching career began in 1926 at Eveleth and included 28 years at the University of Connecticut, all as head baseball coach. A native of Roland, Iowa, he was educated in Wilmar, Minn., schools, and attended Hamline University and the University of Minnesota. Christian passed away on October 21, 1979, at the age of 81. He and his wife Corinne had three daughters, Marion, Anne, and Claire.

J.O. CHRISTIAN

J.O. Christian began coaching football and baseball at UConn in 1934 following an eight-year term as head coach of all sports at Eveleth (MN) College, where his football team compiled a fantastic record, losing only once from 1929-33.

His baseball nines were in the NCAA College World Series in 1957 and 1959; and his 1958 club lost the chance when it bowed out to Holy Cross, 2-1, in 10 innings in a game for the New England representation. The 1959 team (rated by Christian as his best ever) had a 20-1 record, being undefeated in New England competition. He won nine out of 14 Yankee Conference pennants and two New England titles. His baseball teams recorded 258 wins, 170 losses and seven ties. During his 16 years as head football coach, he led his Huskies to 66-51-4 overall record. He served as interim basketball coach for part of the 1936 season.

The Connecticut Alumni Association's Outstanding Service Award "as the man who has done the most for the University"

Larry Panciera

Larry PANCIERA

Larry Panciera was a member of the UConn athletics staff for 30 years. Panciera served as head coach of baseball at Connecticut for 18 years (1962-1979). He compiled a 297-160-5 record as head coach, was named NCAA New England Coach-of-the-Year six times and led Connecticut to the College World Series three times (1965, 1972, 1979). In 1979, his final Husky team recorded 31 wins as the Huskies won both the ECAC Division I New England Championship and the NCAA Northeast Region title to advance to the College World Series for the fifth time in school history. In his final year of coaching, Panciera was honored as the 1979 NCAA Northeast Regional Coach of the Year.

At Connecticut, Panciera was part of all five of UConn's trips to the NCAA College World Series, twice as an assistant in 1957 and 1959, and three times as head coach in 1965, 1972 and 1979. During his tenure as head coach, 40 student-athletes who played for Panciera at Connecticut went on to sign professional baseball contracts.

He spent his retirement years at his home in the Weekapaug section of Westerly, R.I., before passing away on September 8, 1998, at the age of 76. He was survived by his two sons, David and Michael.

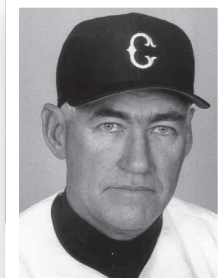

Andy BAYLOCK

Andy Baylock retired in 2003 after 24 years at the helm of the baseball program. In January of 1996, Baylock was honored with induction into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame at the national convention in Nashville, Tenn. Baylock's tenure was the winningest period in the illustrious history of Connecticut Baseball, leading the UConn program to 556 wins over his 24 seasons, averaging over 23 wins per season during his tenure.

Baylock's 24th season as the head coach of the Huskies was his 39th year of consecutive service to the Husky baseball program. Prior to the start of his head coaching career, Baylock spent 15 years as the top assistant coach to then-head coach Larry Panciera and also served as head freshman football coach. When Baylock's assistant coaching tenure is taken into account, he has been part of an overall UConn record of 812-614-11 during the past 39 seasons. The New Britain, Conn., native has personally coached 1,447 of the 2,327 games (62 percent) that have ever been played involving the University of Connecticut baseball program.

In the summers of 1985 and 1989, Baylock was the pitching coach for the U.S. Senior National Team that competed against other national teams in the United States, Cuba, Puerto Rico, Japan, Korea and Canada. He also was pitching coach for the U.S. squad that finished second in the International Harbor Tournament in Taiwan in the fall of 1988.

A graduate of Central Connecticut State University, Baylock and his late wife, Barbara, have three children, all of whom attended the University of Connecticut - Jennifer, Jeffrey and Andrea. He remains at UConn as the Director of Alumni and Community Relations for the UConn football program.

Andy Baylock
1980-2003

Jim PENDERS

Jim Penders is in his 20th season as head baseball coach after taking over for longtime Husky coach Andy Baylock in 2004. Penders, a 1994 graduate of the University of Connecticut, was a member of Baylock's most successful teams. Penders' teams qualified for three BIG EAST Tournaments (1992-94) with all three teams advancing to the BIG EAST Tournament Final. Penders captained the 1994 squad that captured the BIG EAST Tournament Championship. The 1993 and 1994 teams advanced to the NCAA Regional with the 1993 team earning only the second at-large berth in the history of the BIG EAST Conference. In Penders' four-year playing career, his teams tallied a record of 99-76-2.

After graduating, Penders moved to Washington D.C. where he was a fundraiser for Senator Tom Harkin of Iowa. Penders returned to UConn in 1997 to become an assistant coach and take over the Husky recruiting efforts. Since he took over as head coach at UConn, Penders has compiled an overall record of 700-449-5.

The UConn baseball program has had several players, as well as former head coach Andy Baylock, involved with Team USA and USA Baseball.

Most recently, first baseman/left left-handed pitcher Reggie Crawford (2021), left-handers Mason Feole (2018), Tim Cate (2016 & 2017) and Anthony Kay (2015) played for the USA Collegiate National Team. Feole threw 11 scoreless innings in three appearances and two starts and racked up 11 strikeouts and only allowed three hits.

Cate became the first Husky to pitch for the red, white and blue for multiple seasons. Cate led the team with 20 strikeouts in 12 innings of work and recorded a 0.75 ERA in international competition.. Kay appeared in four games , including making one start. Recorded a 1.93 ERA in 9.1 innings, adding 13 strikeouts.

In 2011, second baseman LJ Mazzilli served as an alternate on the USA Collegiate National Team. George Springer and Matt Barnes played for the USA Collegiate Baseball Team during the 2010 summer. Barnes was 3-0 and held an ERA of 1.42. In 19 innings of work, he allowed three earned runs, while striking out 26 batters, which was second-best on the team. Springer led Team USA with seven doubles and 18 RBI. He batted .292 in 18 games and his grand slam against Japan lifted USA to a 4-2 win to advance to the gold medal game of the V FISU World University Baseball Championship.

In the winter of 1999, former Husky and 1988 Olympic Gold Medalist Charles Nagy was named to the 15-member All-Time USA Baseball team. Among other players named to the same team were former major leaguers Nomar Garciaparra, Mark McGwire, Robin Ventura and Will Clark. Husky catcher Brian Esposito trained with the United States Baseball program, joining the squad for USA Baseball tryouts in June of 1999.

Former Husky standout Jason Grabowski made two appearances at USA Baseball Camps in 1995, joining the program for USA Baseball tryouts in June and then attending the 1995 Fall Baseball Trials in November in Homestead, Fla.

In November of 1994, Grabowski and pitcher Mike Galati joined the long line of Huskies to train or compete with the United States National Baseball program. The pair joined a select group of 72 players invited to participate in the USA Baseball National Fall Trials in Homestead, Fla., from November 2-6, 1994. Connecticut was the only school from the Northeast represented and was one of only 16 Division I schools across the nation to be represented by two or more players.

In 1993, former Husky John Kelly was a member of the USA Baseball squad that represented the U.S. in Nicaragua at the Pan-American Qualifier for the 1994 World Championships. Kelly finished his stint with the team with a record of 2-0 and a 2.81 ERA.

In 1988, Connecticut had a trio of performers for USA Baseball. Charles Nagy was a member of the USA Baseball team that traveled to the 1988 Seoul Olympics and captured the gold medal. Nagy made 19 appearances for Team USA in 1988, going 3-1 with a 1.05 ERA and a team-leading six saves. He appeared in two games in the Olympics, pitching 2.0 innings and earning a save. UConn was also well-represented on the fall 1988 USA team that finished second at the Kaohsiung International Harbor Baseball Tournament in Kaohsiung, Taiwan. Former Husky shortstop Brian Specyalski appeared in seven games, while former UConn coach Andy Baylock served as pitching coach. Baylock served three stints with Team USA as a pitching coach, in 1985, fall of 1988 and 1989.

Home of the Huskies

Elliot Ballpark

Elliot Ballpark becomes the new home of the Huskies in 2021 after the Huskies previously played at J.O. Christian Field from 1968–2019. Elliot Ballpark is named after Doug Elliot, a UConn baseball player from 1979–82 who was named Lawrence R. Panciera MVP during his playing career, and his family (wife, Sheila, and children, Doug and Jaclyn) for their support of the stadium project and the UConn baseball program.

The field's dimensions are 330' down the left field line, 400' to straight-away centerfield and 330' down the line in right field.

The entire field is covered in AstroTurfOPS and allows the Huskies to practice and play in a variety of weather conditions.

Elliot Ballpark features 1,351 seating capacity that features both seatback and bleacher seating behind home plate and along the first and third base lines. There will also be additional seating on the large berm area that extends all the way down the right field line. The Matt Barnes bullpen features three turf mounds for the Huskies and is named after 2011 UConn All-American and current Red Sox pitcher Matt Barnes. The visiting bullpen contains turf mounds and one dirt mound the Huskies can use prior to traveling to ballparks with dirt mounds. The press box features radio and TV booths, along with space for PA/Scoring and the press. Elliot Ballpark also features a video/scoreboard in right field. Lights will allow playing of night games for first time in program history.

The Huskies will also have their new player's locker room, lounge and coaches' offices in the new Rizza Family Performance Center, adjacent to Elliot Ballpark down the left field line. Five batting and pitching tunnels, an athletic training room and strength and conditioning area will also be featured in the Performance Center. There will also be a room that the team can utilize for meals and film.

Facilities

Mark R. Shenkman Training Center

Thanks to alumnus Mark R. Shenkman, the University of Connecticut joins the ranks of major universities nationwide with an indoor training facility that is utilized by all Husky teams and also by recreational services.

Shenkman's $2.5 million gift, one of the largest ever to the UConn Division of Athletics, helped to build an intercollegiate, intramural and recreational facility that serves the entire UConn community.

The 85,000 square foot Mark R. Shenkman Training Center rivals similar facilities at other large universities. Featuring a 120-yard long synthetic playing surface, an 18,000 square foot strength and conditioning area and state-of-the-art video capabilities, the indoor training center provides UConn's teams with the most technologically advanced training equipment.

The UConn baseball team uses the facility primarily to work on its defensive drills. Thanks to the luxurious spatial confines provided by the Mark R. Shenkman Training Center, the Huskies can recreate a full infield diamond and a good portion of the outfield in order to facilitate their practice needs.

The University contracted with the Hartford-based firm of Jeter, Cook and Jepson and with HOK Sport + Venue + Event, an internationally-renowned architectural firm based in Kansas City, to provide architectural and engineering services for the Mark R. Shenkman Training Center. The Mark R. Shenkman Training Center became the University's first project certified as meeting the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) standards for "green" buildings. LEED designation is a process certifying that a building project meets a wide range of environmentally friendly criteria.

The new construction marks the first college or university athletic project in the nation to earn the designation.

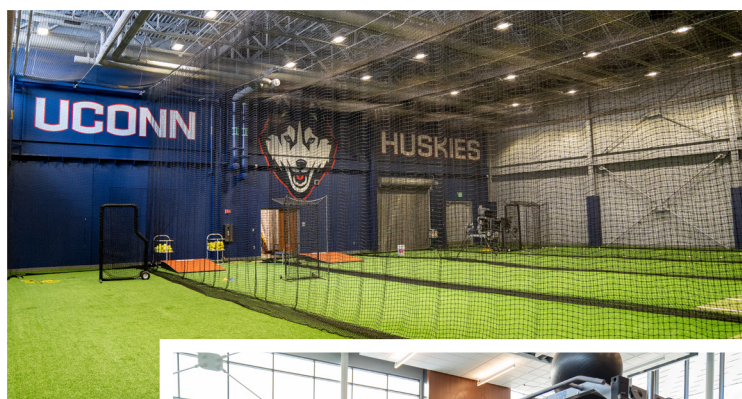

A resident of Greenwich, Conn., Shenkman graduated from the Wilbraham & Monson Academy in Wilbraham, Mass. He received a bachelor's degree in political science from UConn in 1965 followed by a master's degree in business administration from The George Washington University.

Shenkman is the founder and president of Shenkman Capital Management, Inc., a registered investment advisor with offices in New York City and Stamford, Conn. He has served on the UConn Foundation's Board of Directors for eight years and has been a member of its investment committee. Shenkman was elected to the UConn School of Business Hall of Fame in 2002 and has endowed a classroom and the e-Commerce Chair for the business school.

Groundbreaking for the Mark R. Shenkman Training Center took place in the fall of 2004, with the doors opening in the summer of 2006.

Rizza Performance Center

The University of Connecticut opened the Rizza Performance Center in January of 2021. The facility contains a five tunnel batting cage with state of the art technology for the team to use. The Huskies utilize HitTrax and many other data collecting and performance enhancing technology.

The facility also is home to the team clubhouse, coaches offices, weight room and athletic training room.

UConn Dugout Club

THE UCONN DUGOUT CLUB

The UConn Dugout Club is a group of friends of the University of Connecticut baseball team and aims to enhance the entire program with integrity while acting in the best interest of the University. The Club exists at the pleasure of the coach and the Athletic Administration. Established in 1991, as a booster club, the organization has grown from 19 founders to include over 500 active members.

The Dugout Club is UConn Baseball's "Margin of Excellence". The efforts of the membership have enabled the Husky program to benefit from a widely enhanced scholarship base, some of the best training facilities on the East Coast and first-class travel accommodations.

The UConn Dugout Club was conceived as a means (1) to enhance the UConn baseball program in achieving consistent respect as a conference competitor and (2) to provide its members opportunities to socialize at Storrs and to be kept abreast of the latest UConn baseball news.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership is open to anyone interested in supporting the efforts of UConn Baseball and the Dugout Club. Members are invited to attend the fall and winter socials, an annual golf day and meetings throughout the year. Also, in exchange for their dues, members receive gifts, several informative baseball newsletters and invitations to UConn baseball events.

Most importantly, members gain the satisfaction of adding to the "Margin of Excellence" by being an active ingredient in continuing the 100+ years of UConn Baseball's winning tradition. Good rallies always start in the DUGOUT!

To become a member of the Dugout Club, visit <http://www.uconnhuskies.com/sports/m-basebl>, find the team links tab and click on the Dugout Club Donation Form.
