SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE ('08)

JOE HARASYMIAK - HEAD COACH

» Alma Mater:	Springfield College '08
» Hometown:	Waldwick, N.J.

Harasymiak, who was named the 32nd head coach in UMass football history on Dec. 4, 2024, arrived in Amherst after establishing himself as one of the nation's top defensive coaches. Before taking over the Minutemen, he spent seven seasons coaching at the FBS level, including as defensive coordinator at Rutgers and co-defensive coordinator at Minnesota, following a successful head coaching tenure at Maine that culminated with 2018 FCS National Coach of the Year honors.

Harasymiak (pronounced hare-uh-SIM-ee-ack) served as Rutgers' defensive coordinator from 2022-24 and added linebackers coaching responsibilities in 2024. A two-time Broyles Award nominee (2022, 2023), he helped lead the Scarlet Knights to back-to-back bowl appearances, including the program's first winning season since 2014 in 2023.

Before Rutgers, Harasymiak spent four seasons at Minnesota, coaching the defensive backs and safeties before being promoted to co-defensive coordinator. In 2021, the Golden Gophers ranked third nationally in total defense, finished 9-4 and earned a Guaranteed Rate Bowl victory. He also coached unanimous All-American Antoine Winfield Jr., who was selected in the second round of the 2020 NFL Draft.

Harasymiak firmly established his coaching career at Maine beginning in 2011. He ascended from defensive backs coach to head coach in 2016. He guided the Black Bears to the 2018 Colonial Athletic Association championship, a 10-4 record and the program's first Football Championship Subdivision national semifinal appearance. Following the season, he was named the American Football Coaches Association FCS National Coach of the Year.

A native of Waldwick, New Jersey, Harasymiak was a standout defensive back at Springfield College, where he set the program record with 17 career interceptions before graduating in 2008. He began his coaching career at Maine Maritime Academy before returning to Springfield as a graduate assistant from 2009-10.
