HUSKY BITES

UConn is the Basketball Capital of the World

Six-Time NCAA Champions - 1999, 2004, 2011, 2014, 2023 and 2024

UConn's 2026 March Madness run marked its sixth-straight NCAA Tournament, a program record. In the span it has amassed an 18-4 March Madness record, won the 2023 and 2024 NCAA titles and advanced to the 2026 Final Four and title game. The Huskies became the first team in over a decade to reach three Final Fours in a four-year span and first in nearly 30 years to make three finals in four years.

UConn is 73-20 in the NCAA Tournament since seeding began in 1979. Its .785 winning percentage in that span is the best mark in college basketball and its 13-2 record and .867 winning percentage in the Final Four are the best in tournament history.

Dan Hurley is in his ninth season as the 19th head coach in the history of UConn men's basketball and his 17th season overall as a Division I head coach in 2026-27. Hurley owns a collegiate coaching record of 351-180 (.661) in his 17 seasons -- two at Wagner College, six at the University of Rhode Island and nine at UConn (200-75, .727). Hurley's 20-6 start to his NCAA Tournament coaching career is tied with six others for best in history of the Big Dance and his 11-1 record in the Round of 16 or later is the best all-time.

The Huskies went 17-3 in the BIG EAST regular season in 2025-26, the fourth-most wins in a league season in conference history. Since returning to the BIG EAST ahead of 2020-21, UConn's 86-30 record is the best in the league. Hurley's .741 career winning percentages in BIG EAST conference games is the best in league history, minimum 100 games.

Silas Demary Jr. was named BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year and has received a slew of preseason All-America nods. He and Braylon Mullins received votes for the AP Preseason All-America team. Colben Landrew was named BIG EAST Preseason Freshman of the Year.

2026-27 UCONN MENS BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

DAN HURLEY QUOTABLES

0 on Junior County (true freshman)
"Some things you see early on, I'm looking at Junior and seeing how advanced the guy is in terms of, the pedigree, having played for a great high school coach, comes from a great family. He just comes in here and hit the ground running"

1 on Solo Ball (4th year at UConn)
"He loves to compete, he loves ball, and he loves his team and UConn so much so it's been tough for him, but he's getting closer."

3 on Colben Landrew (true freshman)
"Colben is talented like these early entry guys to the draft have looked like. He's talented like those guys. This is the hardest thing he's ever done in his life, it's the hardest work he's ever done in his life. as his body, and his mind, and his emotions learn to handle that, he'll unleash all of his abilities, but he's got early entry NBA ability."

4 on Nik Khamenia (1 year at Duke, 1st at UConn)
"Nik is just a perfect fit for the way that we play. Offensively, defensively, seriousness, professionalism, competitiveness, skills, abilities. I mean, you couldn't have probably drawn up a better fit for the way that we play and the way that he plays."

5 on Silas Demary Jr. (2 years at Georgia, 2nd at UConn)
"What he does on both ends of the court, on the backboard, triple-double threat, games we needed him to get 20 plus he went and got it. He's a ball hawk on defense. We're looking at him this year, like, you're going to play your way into the first round."

7 on Jaye Nash (1 year at Tulsa, 1 at Jacksonville State, 1st at UConn)
"Jaye is a guy who can give us some energy and pop as a ballhandler. He's a tough competitor and knows how to make plays."

9 on Na'jai Hines (1 year at Seton Hall, 1st at UConn)
"Na'jai is as talented as any of the centers that have been here. Can score over either shoulder, he's a massive human being that is still athletic, and he's got natural athleticism. The guy can pass, he understands sports. You could put him at shortstop or centerfield on a baseball diamond, you can throw him in at safety or quarterback and he'll do a five step drop, and like make it look like, he's a natural athlete."

13 on Jacob Ross (2nd year at UConn)
"We think he can play some positionless five-man for us."

17 on Egor Amosov (true freshman)
"He's got some physical strength to him, 235 [pounds], he's kind of a fun player. He's got really good instincts [for a] young player."

18 on Oskar Giltay (1 year at Stanford, 1st at UConn)
"We absolutely had to get Oskar in here. The tools, athletic ability, more of a movement center, rim protection, rebounding, a guy that could do a great job defensively in the ball screen game and then could get off ball screens quickly on the offensive end."

21 on Nils Machowski (2 years at UCF, 1 at Wofford, 1st at UConn)
"Nils is gonna be an impact player. He can shoot, he can put the ball on the floor, he's got some athleticism, he got on the rim... there's a lot of talent there"

23 on Jayden Ross (4th year at UConn)
"I think, he has got the confidence that he picked up last year from what he was able to do throughout the year, some of the high-impact games, some of those NCAA tournament games, making threes or his defense, his ability to just make plays on the court."

24 on Braylon Mullins (2nd year at UConn)
"He's getting more confident in his own skin, as a young man that's maturing and developing, he's got a chance to play like an All-American this year, play himself into a top 5 draft spot. The guy is going to put on some performances that will be pretty special."

29 on Elmir Dzafic (1 year at Arkansas, 1st at UConn)
"Elmir is another big physical guy, that, you know, you need big physical guys to practice against [our centers]. He's a powerful guy."

33 on Isaiah Shaw (3 years at Grand Canyon, 1 at Valparaiso, 1 at Northern Arizona, 1st at UConn)
"Isaiah comes from a great basketball family and fits our culture. He's a veteran whose experience, work ethic and basketball knowledge will be an invaluable asset for the program."

SETTING THE SCENE: The Huskies ship up to Boston on Friday night for an early-season test and a top-20 showdown in a national championship rematch with No. 16 Michigan. UConn is looking for revenge after a six-point loss in the title game exactly seven months prior to Friday's match-up.

OPENER RECAP: The Huskies improved to 94-30 all-time in season openers with an 86-46 victory over Gardner-Webb on Monday night in Hartford. The win was the 200th at UConn for head coach Dan Hurley, becoming the third skipper in program history to hit that mark. Braylon Mullins led four Huskies in double-figures with 20 points, the fourth time in his career the sophomore has hit the 20-point mark and the seventh time he has led UConn in scoring. Nik Khamenia and Na'jai Hines both tied career-highs with 14 and 12 points, respectively, in their UConn debuts while Hines also snared 12 rebounds for a double-double. Colben Landrew was the fourth in double-figures and scored 11 points with five rebounds, three assists and a steal off the bench. Silas Demary Jr. was quiet in the scoring column with five points on three shots but added eight assists, eight rebounds and three steals, while Jayden Ross scored seven points but was a team-best +41 in a team-high 29 minutes. As a team, the Huskies held the Runnin' Bulldogs to 25.5 percent shooting and posted a +18 edge on the glass.

MEETING MICHIGAN: UConn has met Michigan five times in the past, with the Wolverines holding a 3-2 lead in a series dating all the way back to December 1939. The two sides didn't square off again for nearly 70 years when they began a home and home in the 2008-09 and 2009-10 seasons, with each team winning on its home floor. The next match-up came early in the 2015-16 season, a 74-60 win for the Huskies in the 2015 Battle 4 Atlantis. They did not meet again for over a decade, when the Wolverines took a 69-63 decision in the 2026 National Championship game in Indianapolis.

LOVE THAT DIRTY WATER: Friday night will mark the fourth time in the last four seasons that the Huskies will play in the TD Garden in Boston, AKA 'Storrs North.' The recent run began with 2024 East Regional, when the Huskies throttled San Diego State, 82-52, in the Sweet 16 before toppling Illinois behind a legendary 30-0 run in the Elite Eight. UConn returned to The Hub last season for the Hall of Fame Series Boston, picking up a top-10 win over BYU and eventual-No. 1 pick A.J. Dybantsa. The Huskies also played at the now-TD Garden in 2007 and in the 1977-78 and 78-79 seasons and have an overall record of 4-4 in non-conference games in the building.

PRESEASON PREDICTORS: UConn was tabbed as the BIG EAST's preseason favorites for the second-straight season. Silas Demary Jr. was named BIG EAST Preseason Player of the Year, Colben Landrew earned Preseason Freshman of the Year, Braylon Mullins was a Preseason First Team All-BIG EAST pick and Na'jai Hines a Preseason Second Team selection.

On the national stage, Demary Jr. has been lauded as a Preseason All-American by CBS Sports and Sports Illustrated while receiving votes in the Associated Press honors. Mullins also received AP All-America votes and was named a First Team All-American by Blue Ribbon Report. Demary Jr. and Mullins were both named to the NABC Preseason Player of the Year Watch List, making UConn one of three program's nationally with multiple honorees on the 20 man list.

SELECT COMPANY: UConn's six NCAA titles tie the Huskies with North Carolina for third-most all-time. Only UCLA (11) and Kentucky (8) have more titles. In recent seasons, the Huskies have passed Indiana (5), Duke (5) and Kansas (4) in all-time titles.

DAN HURLEY

Ninth Season as the Head Coach at Connecticut

A proven program-builder and one of the great winners in modern college basketball, Dan Hurley was named the 19th head coach in UConn men's basketball history on March 22, 2018. During his first eight years in Storrs he has revitalized the program and cemented its blue blood status with the first back-to-back titles in Husky history, climbing the mountaintop in both 2023 and 2024 with a national runner up finish in 2026.

The face of college basketball, Hurley has captivated the nation during UConn's historic run with his colorful personality and fiery competitiveness. Hurley led the Huskies to a modern era NCAA Tournament-record 13-straight wins from 2023-25 and won all 12 games during the back-to-back title runs by double-figures – an NCAA record. He became the first coach in program history and the first in more than 30 years to reach three title games in four seasons after his run to the 2026 title game. His 20-6 start to an NCAA Tournament coaching career is tied with six others (Izzo, Rupp, Fisher, Krzyzewski, Pitino and Knight) for the best in the history of March Madness.

Basketball was always Hurley's destiny, born into basketball royalty on Jan. 16, 1973 in Jersey City, N.J. His father, Bob Hurley Sr., is a Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame member and the architect of one of the great high school dynasties of all-time at St. Anthony's in Jersey City. Hurley played at St. Anthony's along with his older brother Bobby – a two-time national champion at Duke widely considered the greatest point guard in NCAA history.

Hurley has been a collegiate head coach since 2010 and holds a record of 351-180 (.661) in his 17 seasons at the helm of Wagner (2010-12), Rhode Island (2012-18) and Connecticut (2018-pres.). At his three stops he has improved each program's win total by an average of seven games between year one and year two.

In nine seasons at Connecticut, Hurley has compiled a 200-75 record (.727) including an 86-30 (.741) mark in BIG EAST play. He steadily improved the team's winning percentage in each of his first five seasons until the Huskies won a program-record 37 games and went 37-3 in his sixth season in 2023-24. Hurley has led the last Huskies to the last six NCAA Tournaments, setting a new program record. Since the 2022-23 season UConn has had its most prosperous four-year run in program history, compiling a 126-28 (.818) record and making its first run of three Final Fours in four seasons. In 2025 UConn won its 13th-straight NCAA Tournament game to equal Duke's 1991-93 streak for the longest in modern tournament history.

At UConn, Hurley has mentored a total of 10 NBA players, including four lottery picks. Over eight seasons in Storrs he has developed two All-Americans, 11 First Team All-Conference picks, two Freshman of the Year winners and a Bob Cousy Award winner.

Hurley's 86-30 start to his BIG EAST head coaching career gives him the best winning percentage (.741) in the history of the conference, minimum 100 games. The Huskies won the 2024 BIG EAST Regular Season and Tournament titles, earning Hurley 2024 BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors. Hurley was the second-fastest coach in BIG EAST history to 50 wins, coming in his 70th conference game and trailing only John Thompson, Jr. (67 games) and had the second-best 100-game start (73-27) to a league coaching career behind Thompson Jr.. He is also the second coach to ever record 10 league wins in each of his first six seasons coaching the conference, joining Jamie Dixon.

Hurley was named the 2024 Naismith College Coach of the Year – the first men's coach to win the honor in UConn history. His father previously won the Naismith High School Coach of the Year, making them the first father-son duo to earn Naismith Coach of the Year laurels. He is a two-time NABC District Coach of the Year and won the 2018 Atlantic-10 Coach of the Year.

Known for innovative offense, physical and hard-nosed defense and a relentless effort level Hurley's teams are consistently among the national leaders on both ends of the floor. His defensive units have cracked the top-75 in Kenpomin 14 of his 16 seasons and have been top-30 six times, peaking at Nos. 4, 7 and 7 in the 2024 and 2023 title years and 2026 runner up team, respectively. Offensively he has not produced a unit outside of the top-85 since 2017 and has posted four-straight seasons with a top-30 offense, including the No. 1 offense in the country in 2024 and a top-five unit in 2023.

He added a new accolade to his ledger in the fall of 2025, becoming a New York Times bestseller after publishing his memoir, 'Never Stop: Life, Leadership and What it Takes To Be Great" with Ian O'Connor. 'Never Stop' was the third highest-selling new release on the Times' Oct. 19 list. It peaked as the #1 Sports book on Amazon best-sellers. It marked O'Connor's sixth-consecutive NYT Best Seller and was his first written as a collaboration.

In 2025-26, the Huskies continued to chase dynasty status and came up one game short of the ultimate goal, falling to Michigan in the national title game. The Huskies made BIG EAST history and became the first team to have three First Team All-Conference members in Alex Karaban, Silas Demary Jr. and Tarris Reed Jr. UConn went 10-1 against one of the most daunting non-conference slates in the country en route to a 34-6 record. The Huskies won for the first time ever against Kansas in December and knocked off the defending national champion Florida later in the month at the Jimmy V Classic. From Nov. 23 through Feb. 3 the Huskies reeled off an 18-game winning streak, the third-longest single-season run in program history.

UConn went 17-3 in BIG EAST conference play, winning the fourth-most league games in a BIG EAST season all-time but falling one game short of both the regular season crown and tournament title. The Huskies earned the No. 2 seed in the East Regional and trekked to Philadelphia for the first and second round. In the tournament opener against Furman, Reed Jr. recorded one of the great games in March Madness history to power UConn with 31 points and 27 rebounds. UConn took down UCLA next to roll south to Washington D.C. In the Sweet 16 the Huskies took down Michigan State in a rematch of an early season exhibition to set up a showdown with top overall seed Duke. The Blue Devils led by as many as 19 in the first half, but Hurley led a steady comeback that had the deficit down to two with 10 seconds to play. What ensued next will be remembered in NCAA Tournament lore forever, as Braylon Mullins drilled a 37-foot 3-pointer with 0.4 seconds to go to send UConn to the Final Four.

Reed Jr. was named Most Outstanding Player of the East Regional. UConn met Illinois for the third time in two seasons in the National Semifinal, going up as many as 14 in the second half of a 71-62 win in which the Huskies smothered the nation's best offense to sub-34 percent shooting. That set up a showdown with 1-seed Michigan, with the battered Huskies battling until the final whistle of a 69-63 setback. Reed Jr. and Karaban were named to the NCAA All-Tournament team following the Final Four. Karaban ended his career as UConn's all-time winningest player, also holding records for games played and started, 3-pointers made and minutes logged. He became the first active player inducted into UConn's Huskies of Honor on his Senior Day on Feb. 28.

The 2024-25 Huskies returned only one starter from the '24 title team but peaked at No. 2 in the early season polls, before a now-infamous run at Maui. UConn bounced back and picked up marquee early-season wins over top-15 foes in Baylor and Gonzaga to position themselves well heading into BIG EAST play.

Connecticut finished third in the BIG EAST after going 14-6 in conference action, including its first ever win at Creighton, and earned its fifth-straight bid to the Big Dance as an eight-seed. A first-round win over nine-seed Oklahoma set the 13-game win streak record, and the Huskies pushed eventual national champion and top seed Florida to the brink in a 77-75 heartbreaker. Alex Karaban and Solo Ball were both feted as All-BIG EAST Second Team picks follow the season, while Liam McNeeley was named 2025 BIG EAST Freshman of the Year and Tarris Reed Jr. earned the league's Sixth Man Award.

The 2023-24 Huskies were one of the best teams in the history of college basketball. UConn won a program-record 37 games, a BIG EAST-record 18 conference games and championships at the Empire Classic, BIG EAST Tournament, NCAA East Regional and NCAA Final Four. The Huskies finished a staggering 37-3 with winning streaks of 14 games (Dec. 23-Feb. 17) and 13 games (Feb. 24-end of season).

The Huskies went 18-2 in the BIG EAST to win the regular season championship by a full four games and ran through the BIG EAST Tournament as its one seed, tipping Marquette in the final in a rematch of a 2023 Semifinal. The regular season title was UConn's first outright since 1999 and the tournament was its first since 2011. A slew of Huskies earned All-League honors following the historic; Tristen Newton and Cam Spencer were First Team picks, Donovan Clinganearned an Honorable Mention nod, Stephon Castle was the unanimous Freshman of the Year and Hassan Diarra earned the Sixth Man Award.

UConn earned the No. 1 overall seed for the first time in program history and left no doubt in its run to the Final Four in Phoenix, winning its first four games of March by an average of 27.8 points per game. In the East Regional final against Illinois, UConn took a 23-23 game late in the first half and flipped it on its head with an iconic 30-0 run in the eventual 77-52 victory.

In the Final Four at State Farm Stadium, UConn took down Alabama and its high-powered offense before meeting Purdue in a clash of the top-two seeds in the field. UConn took control early in the second half and grinding the Boilermakers down, cruising to a 75-60 victory. It was Connecticut's 12th-straight win in the NCAA Tournament by double-figures, a March Madness record.

Following the success of the '23-24 season, Hurley was named BIG EAST Coach of the Year and the 2024 Naismith College Coach of the Year. He joined Bob Sr., the 2008 Naismith High School Coach of the Year, as the only father-son duo to each win a Naismith Coach of the Year. He guided Tristen Newton to a consensus First Team All-America selection and the Bob Cousy Award as the nation's top point guard. Following the season UConn saw Stephon Castle go No. 4 overall in the NBA Draft, Donovan Clingan go No. 7 and Newton and Cam Spencer both selected in the second round. It was the second time in program history the Huskies had four players selected in the same draft, joining 2006.

In 2022-23, UConn raced out to a 14-0 start to set the stage for Hurley's first title trip. In addition to marquee non-conference wins over Oklahoma State and at Florida the Huskies swept a run at the Phil Knight Invitational, notching signature wins over Oregon, Alabama and Iowa State. The Huskies ascended to No. 2 in the national polls before their first setback in early January.

After a tumultuous January that included a 2-6 stretch, the Huskies began to regain their form with a top-10 win over Marquette on Feb. 7. Connecticut closed the regular season with five-straight wins and advanced to the BIG EAST Tournament semifinals, where it dropped a two-point decision to the eventual champion Marquette. Adama Sanogo and Jordan Hawkins both earned First Team All-BIG EAST honors following the campaign.

UConn was slotted as the No. 5 seed in the West Region and drew Iona in the first round. Despite trailing at half, the Huskies exploded late for an 87-63 and then topped Saint Mary's to advance to the West Regional in Las Vegas. The Sin City was kind to the Huskies, as they roared past Arkansas 88-65 in Sweet 16 before blowing Gonzaga away, 82-54, in the Regional Final to advance to the Final Four in Houston. Hawkins was named Most Outstanding Player of the West Regional.

It was at NRG Stadium where Hurley first ascended to the mountaintop of the sport, defeating Miami, 72-59, in the National Semifinals before topping San Diego State by a score of 76-59 to claim Connecticut's fifth national title. Adama Sanogo was named the Final Four Most Outstanding Player after averaging a double-double in the big dance.

The 2021-22 season was marked by huge moments and UConn's second-straight NCAA Tournament bid. In a loaded field at the Battle 4 Atlantis, the Huskies won the game of the tournament with a 115-109 double overtime win over a top-20 foe in Auburn. UConn went on to go 13-6 in the BIG EAST that included season sweeps of Marquette and St. John's. The most seminal moment of the season and a turning point in the Hurley era came in a top-10 win over Villanova at the XL Center – one Hurley was ejected from in the first half. Both R.J. Cole and Adama Sanogo earned First Team All-BIG EAST honors.

Connecticut advanced to its second-straight BIG EAST Semifinal before succumbing to the Wildcats – a squad that would go on to win the tournament and reach the Final Four. The Huskies earned a five-seed in the NCAA Tournament but bowed out to New Mexico State in a first round upset.

UConn began its streak of five-straight tournament bids in the pandemic-shortened 2020-21 season. The Huskies went 15-8 in the stop-and-start schedule and finished 11-6 in their first season back in the BIG EAST. James Bouknight was an All-BIG EAST First Team before going on to be an NBA lottery pick. The Huskies earned a No. 7 in the 'bubble' NCAA Tournament and fell to Maryland in the first round. It was Hurley's first tournament bid at Connecticut and his third as a collegiate head coach.

In 2019-20, the Huskies posted the program's first winning season (19-12), the most overall victories, and the most conference wins in four years and, when the season was abruptly stopped by the pandemic, UConn was on a five-game winning streak to close the regular season and had major momentum heading into the American Athletic Conference Championship.

Hurley came to UConn following six years at Rhode Island, where he took a program that went 7-24 in the season before he arrived to a combined 51-18 mark and two NCAA Tournament appearances in his final two years, URI's first NCAA appearances in 18 years. In each year, Hurley guided the Rams to a first-round NCAA tourney victory.

In 2017-18, Hurley's URI team posted a 26-8 record, the most wins by a Rams team in eight years, which included a 16-game winning streak, the second-longest in school history. Rhode Island swept to the Atlantic 10 regular-season title with a 15-3 mark, and spent seven weeks ranked in the national polls, rising as high as No. 14 in the USA Today Coaches poll. Earning a No. 7 seed in the NCAA Tournament, URI defeated Oklahoma in the first round before bowing to second-seeded Duke. Hurley was named Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year, earned his second USBWA District I Coach of the Year Award and sent two of his players to NBA teams, Jared Terrell to the Timberwolves and E.C. Matthews to the Grizzlies.

The previous season, Hurley took Rhode Island to a 25-10 record, earning an automatic NCAA tourney bid by capturing the Atlantic 10 Championship. The 11th-seeded Rams upset sixth-seeded Creighton in the NCAA first round before suffering a three-point loss to No. 3 seed Oregon.

Despite a rash of injuries that decimated his 2015-16 team, Hurley still managed to post a winning 17-15 record and place his team among the national leaders in scoring defense, allowing just 64.8 points per game. That followed a banner 23-10 season in 2014-15, during which URI led the nation in three-point percentage defense (.265) and ranked ninth in overall defensive efficiency. That team put Rhody back in the national picture, earning an NIT berth and reaching the second round before losing to eventual NIT champion Stanford, bringing Hurley his first USBWA District I Coach of the Year Award.

In his six seasons in Rhode Island, Hurley's teams were a combined 113-82 (.579), but an even more impressive 91-43 (.679) with two NCAA appearances and an NIT berth during his last four years.

Before his tenure in Kingston, Hurley spent two years at his first Division I head coaching job at Wagner College in the Northeast Conference. Taking over a program that had just five wins in 2009-10, Hurley immediately upped the win total to 13 in his first season of 2010-11 and nearly doubled that total to a 25-6 mark in 2011-12. His overall record in the Northeast Conference was 24-12.

Wagner was not Hurley's first college basketball coaching experience. After graduating from Seton Hall in 1996 and spending a season as an assistant coach under his father at St. Anthony, he was hired as an assistant coach at Rutgers and remained there for four years. When Rutgers decided to change coaching staffs, Hurley opted to go back to the high school level and took over the basketball program at St. Benedict's Prep in Newark, N.J., in 2001.

It was at St. Benedict's, where he also taught history, that Hurley maintains he really learned his craft, building the program into a national prep school powerhouse. In nine seasons, Hurley compiled a sterling 223-21 record, with four Top Five finishes in the national rankings. He coached four McDonald's All-Americans as well as future NBA players J.R. Smith, Tristan Thompson, and Lance Thomas.

Born on Jan. 16, 1973 and raised in Jersey City, Hurley was an outstanding high school player at St. Anthony, leading the team to a 31-1 record and a No. 2 national ranking as a senior. At Seton Hall, he played under head coaches P.J. Carlesimo and George Blaney, amassed career totals of 1,070 points and 437 assists and helped the Pirates to three NCAA Tournament appearances and an NIT berth during his career. Following his graduation in 1996, Hurley went directly into coaching, joining his father at St. Anthony for one year before heading into the college ranks at Rutgers.

Dan and wife Andrea, who met while both were attending Seton Hall, are the parents of two sons, Danny, also a Seton Hall graduate, and Andrew, a two-time national champion member of the basketball team and the assistant general manager at UConn.
