CCAA honors 297 student-athletes for academics Conference office names 2005-06 All-Academic award recipients

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. — The California Collegiate Athletic Association proudly announces the recipients of the CCAA All-Academic Award for 2005-06. This past academic year 297 student-athletes were eligible to receive the award.

Among the recipients are 2005-06 CCAA Scholar Athletes of the Year Matt Davey of UC SAN DIEGO and Katrina Holmberg of CAL POLY POMONA, as well as CCAA Male Athlete of the Year Vince Inglema of SONOMA STATE.

UC San Diego led all schools with 66 award winners, followed by Sonoma State with 37 and CAL STATE STANISLAUS with 35.

To be eligible for the award, student-athletes must be a varsity letterwinner who competed in one of 13 CCAA-sponsored sports during the 2005-06 academic year. Student-athletes must also have a grade point average of 3.40 or higher in a minimum of 24 semester or 36 quarter units completed at the certifying institution.

Following is a complete list of award winners, listed by institution with sport, full name and grade point average:
