* 2010 CCAA TOURNAMENT CHAMPION

^ QUALIFIED FOR CCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

• "Foe" the Familiar Falcon

Seattle Pacific is a familiar foe for UCSD, as the Tritons have met the Falcons exclusively in NCAA Tournament matches in their short postseason rivalry. SPU eliminated UCSD on its national title run in 2008 in the tournament's second round, 3-1. In 2006, the Tritons took down the Falcons, 3-0, to take the Far West Region championship. UCSD's win in '06 avenged a 2-0 loss to SPU in the 2005 Far West Region final.

• Bird Watching

The Falcons come into Thursday's match equipped with a nine-match winning streak dating back to Oct. 9. SPU has outscored opponents 27-6 during that span. 2010 GNAC Defensive Player of the Year Maddie Dickinson has logged 343:07 career scoreless postseason minutes in goal, including 108 minutes against West Florida in the 2008 NCAA title game. The Falcons are a perfect 8-0 in road games this season and have not lost a match in which they have scored first (15-0), led at halftime (11-0) or scored more than one goal (15-0). Forward Megan Lindsay leads the SPU attack, scoring six times in her final four games of the regular season to push her goal-total to 11 on the year. The Falcons have scored two or more goals in 15 of 19 matches in 2010.

• Wilson Makes Sure Timing is Right

Ellen Wilson scored consecutive game-winning goals in the first and second rounds of the NCAA Championships against San Francisco State and BYU-Hawaii. She broke a 1-1 tie in the 66th minute against SFSU on Nov. 11, slotting home a goal off a Triton corner kick. Two days later, Wilson would net the only goal of the match in the 15th minute, as the Tritons took down the Seaside, 1-0. All three of Wilson's goals in 2010 have been game-winners and she currently leads the team with 1,960 total minutes played.

The Brian McManus File

Brian McManus is in his 24th season as head coach of the UC San Diego women's soccer team in 2010. Widely regarded as one of the best women's soccer coaches at any collegiate level, McManus has racked up the sixth-highest win percentage in NCAA women's soccer history, winning 84.4 percent of his games through Nov. 16. McManus has an all-time record of 401-60-34 in his 24 years on the La Jolla campus.

In a sign of what's to come in 2010, the 2009 Tritons advanced to the West Region championship for the first time since 2006 and finished with a 15-5-2 record. Through the 2009 campaign, the Tritons played freshmen and sophomores at 10 of the 11 starting spots. Although UCSD ultimately fell to in penalty kicks to Cal State Dominguez Hills, the Tritons were able to host the first, second, third and quarterfinal rounds of the NCAA postseason.

After consecutive national titles in UCSD's first two years at the NCAA Division II level, McManus led his squad to a third-straight conference crown, and an appearance in the Division II Far West Region Final in 2002.

Through 10 years of Division II and CCAA competition, McManus' Tritons have won the CCAA South Division nine times and the CCAA Championship on six occasions. His squads have qualified for the NCAA Far West Region nine times and the NCAA Championship game twice, winning both times. Triton Soccer Stadium played host to the CCAA Championship and each round of the NCAA Tournament in 2001, with standing-room-only stadium record crowds for the National Semifinals and National Championship.

McManus has led the Tritons to a total of five NCAA Division III National Championships, including a title in 1999, their final season at the Division III level. Under his direction in Division III, UCSD was the only team in the nation to participate in every NCAA Tournament since 1986. In all, the Tritons were crowned NCAA Regional Champions nine times and National Champions five times.

• The More the Merrier

Members of the UC San Diego women's soccer team have been hit with a litany of postseason awards in 2010, the most recent being senior defender Lisa Bradley and junior forward Sarah McTigue's placement on the Daktronics Women's Soccer All-West Region Team. Bradley was named to the First Team while McTigue was named to the Second Team. A total of seven Tritons were named to All-CCAA squads, highlighted by Annette Ilg who was named the CCAA's Newcomer of the Year. Junior goalkeeper Kristin Armstrong, junior midfielder Anne Wethe and Bradley were all named All-CCAA First Team for the second consecutive season. Junior midfielder Shelby Wong and McTigue were selected to the All-CCAA Second Team, marking the second year in a row each has made that particular All-CCAA squad. Hayley Johnson took home honorable mention honors.

• Sign of the Times

UCSD enters Thursday's match unbeaten in 15 of its last 16 contests, shutting-out 10 teams and outscoring opponents 27-6 within that span. Triton goalkeeper Kristin Armstrong tallied five shutouts over the final five regular season matches while leading a UCSD defense that allows a mere .55 goals per game, second-best in the CCAA.

• He's the McMan

UC San Diego head women's soccer coach Brian McManus was named the coach of the Division III Women's Soccer 25th Anniversary Team, it was announced by the NCAA on Nov. 2. McManus compiled a 230-28-19 record in 13 years at the Division III level while winning five national championships and nine regional titles. Former Triton standouts Carrie Peer (1992-95) and Eleanor "Ele" Johnson (1993-96) were also named to the team, earning spots on the 11-member player roster.
