TRITON UPDATES

FIRST THINGS FIRST

After picking up a pair of victories at the 4th Annual Notre Dame de Namur Thanksgiving Classic over the weekend, the UC San Diego men's basketball team will look to keep rolling when they begin California Collegiate Athletic Association play on the road this week. The Tritons will travel to Seaside to take on Cal State Monterey Bay on Friday night, before squaring off with the Gators at San Francisco State on Saturday. Both contests will tipoff at approximately 7:30 p.m.

FOR THE RECORD

UCSD wrapped up its 2010-11 nonconference slate with an overall record of 5-1 after knocking off host Notre Dame de Namur and Simon Fraser at the NDNU Thanksgiving Classic in Belmont last week. The Tritons have won three straight since losing to Alaska Anchorage on November 14, posting an average margin of victory of 16.3 points per game in those contests. Head coach Chris Carlson's squad is 1-0 in true road games this season after defeating the Argonauts, 53-42, on their home floor on Friday.

DEFENSE GETS IT DONE IN BELMONT

The Tritons were excellent defensively last weekend, holding both Notre Dame de Namur and Simon Fraser to under 35% shooting in their two wins. UCSD limited NDNU to just 28% (11-39) from the field -- the lowest mark by a Triton opponent this season -- while SFU finished at a 33% (21-64) clip the following night. UCSD was also plus-4 and plus-14 in the rebounding department, respectively, while forcing the Argonauts and Clan into a total of 28 turnovers. For the season, the Tritons are holding their opponents to just 37% shooting from the field, a figure that ranks fourth in the CCAA. UCSD is 5-0 when finishing with more rebounds than the opposition.

SCOUTING THE OTTERS AND GATORS

• Cal State Monterey Bay enters Friday's matchup with an overall record of 1-1 and a 0-1 conference mark after losing a 78-75 decision to San Francisco State in both team's CCAA opener on November 21. The Otters defeated Division I foe Cal Poly, 50-47, in San Luis Obispo to open the season on November 18. Sophomore guard Davion Berry is the team's leading scorer through two games at 18.0 points, while also averaging 5.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists. Senior forward Ian Hosford has also had a nice start to the year, averaging 12.5 points and 7.5 points against the Mustangs and Gators. He is shooting 52% from the floor. The Otters, who were picked to finish 10th in the CCAA standings this season, are shooting just 39% in their first two games.

• San Francisco State begins play this week at 3-1 overall and 1-0 in the CCAA following the win over Cal State Monterey Bay. The Gators also took part in the Notre Dame de Namur Thanksgiving Classic this weekend, defeating Simon Fraser 95-50 on Friday and then downing the host Argonauts by a margin of 76-59 on Saturday. Sophomore guard Nefi Perdomo is averaging a team-high 15.3 points on 51% shooting so far this season, while senior guard Phoenix O'Rourke is turning in 11.3 points, 2.5 rebounds and 3.5 assists. SFSU, which was picked eighth in the league's coaches poll, will take on Cal State East Bay on Friday, before welcoming UCSD to town on Saturday.

HEAD-TO-HEAD WITH CSUMB, SFSU

UCSD has won six of the 13 previous meetings with Cal State Monterey and holds a 12-9 advantage in the all-time series with San Francisco State. The Tritons split the season series with the Otters in 2009-10, dropping a 66-62 decision at home on January 14 and then recording a 78-74 triumph in Seaside on February 20. UCSD also went 1-1 against the Gators last season, posting a 91-86 double-overtime win over SFSU at RIMAC on January 16, before suffering a 61-50 setback in San Francisco on February 19.

HEAD COACH CHRIS CARLSON

Chris Carlson embarks on his fourth season as the head coach at UC San Diego in 2010-11. The 11th coach in program history, he enters the year with an overall record of 43-40 (.518) in three seasons at the helm.

Carlson made an immediate impact at UCSD, leading the Tritons to an overall record of 18-12 in his first season, which was the school's best mark since the 1998-1999 campaign. After finishing sixth in the ultra-competitive California Collegiate Athletic Association standings at 11-9, Carlson's Tritons caught fire in March, defeating Cal State San Bernardino, San Francisco State and Cal Poly Pomona on the way to UCSD's first CCAA Tournament title. UCSD earned a No. 8 seed in its first NCAA Tournament appearance at the D-II level, falling to the University of Alaska-Anchorage, 80-60 in the opening round of the West Regional.

The Tritons were one of the top teams in the CCAA again in 2008-09, recording an overall record of 17-11 and a 13-7 mark in league play. After earning a No. 4 seed in the CCAA Tournament, UCSD defeated No. 5 Humboldt State 79-67 in the first round before falling 76-72 to host Cal State San Bernardino in the semifinals.

UCSD finished with an overall record of 8-17 last year, missing the postseason for the first time since 2007. The Tritons went 4-2 during a six-game stretch in February to stay in contention for a conference tournament berth, but a pair of losses to Sonoma State and Humboldt State the final week of the regular season dashed the Tritons' postseason hopes. Under Carlson's guidance, senior guard Jordan Lawley became the first Triton to win the CCAA scoring title since UCSD joined the conference in 2000-01. Lawley was named to the All-CCAA First Team and went on to earn all-region accolades after averaging career-highs of 20.2 points, 5.3 rebounds and 2.4 assists in his final season as a Triton.

Carlson joined the Triton family after spending four seasons as the Director of Basketball Operations at UCLA under head coach Ben Howland. As the DOB, he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the program and served as a liaison to the athletic administration and other school officials. Carlson also assisted in scheduling and recruiting and helped guide the Bruin program to back-to-back NCAA Final Four appearances in 2005-06 and 2006-07.

Before assuming his duties at UCLA, Carlson served in the same capacity for two years at the University of Pittsburgh, joining the Panther staff in the summer of 2001. Prior to that, he was a member of Howland's staff at Northern Arizona in 1998-99, where he coached a Lumberjack squad that led the country in both field goal percentage and three-point percentage for the first time in NCAA history. He remained on at NAU for two years after Howland's departure (1999-2001), where he worked with NAU's post players and oversaw recruiting and scheduling.

Prior to his stint at Northern Arizona, Carlson served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, UC Santa Barbara, from 1994-98, where he oversaw development of the team's perimeter players. He also served as an assistant coach at nearby Dos Pueblos High School in Goleta, Calif. from 1991-93.

A San Diego native, Carlson is a 1993 graduate from UCSB, where he received his bachelors degree in History. Prior to his days as a Gaucho, Carlson attended Helix High School in La Mesa, where he earned All-League honors in basketball. He and his wife Karen have two sons, Nicklas and Charlie.
