TRITON UPDATES

FIRST THINGS FIRST

After going 1-2 in three games on the road last week, the UC San Diego men's basketball team will return to La Jolla, looking to take advantage of four straight games at home. The Tritons will have their work cut out for them this weekend, however, as two of the California Collegiate Athletic Association's top three teams are scheduled to visit RIMAC Arena. UCSD will take on third place Cal State L.A. on Thursday at 7:30 p.m., before entertaining league-leading Cal State Dominguez at the same time on Saturday.

FOR THE RECORD

UCSD enters Thursday's matchup with Cal State L.A. with an overall record of 8-6 and a 3-5 mark in the CCAA after losing a pair of close games with Chico State and Cal State Stanislaus last weekend. The Tritons had won three of four heading into the weekend, but dropped a 68-55 decision to the Wildcats following a late run by the home team on Friday and then suffered a narrow 57-55 defeat at the hands of the Warriors on Saturday. Despite the back-to-back losses, UCSD is still sitting in seventh place in the conference standings after eight league games. The Tritons are 3-1 at home so far this season.

WHERE DID THE 0 GO?

After scoring 73 points on 45% shooting in a home win over Sonoma State on December 30, UCSD's offense hit a rough patch last week as the Tritons averaged just 58 points and shot a combined 37% from the field against Cal State East Bay, Chico State and Cal State Stanislaus. UCSD was able to get by East Bay despite shooting 39% from the field, but the offense was clearly an issue in the setbacks to Chico and Stanislaus. The Tritons finished with just 55 points and shot below 39% in both of those games, including a season-low 33% effort in the loss to the Warriors on Saturday. Head coach Chris Carlson's squad had shot better than 40% from the field in six straight games before last week.

SCOUTING THE GOLDEN EAGLES AND TOROS

• Cal State L.A. comes to town with an overall record of 10-2 and a 6-2 mark in the CCAA after picking up wins at Cal State Monterey Bay and San Francisco State over the weekend. The Golden Eagles defeated the Otters, 69-62, on Friday to begin the week and then took down the Gators, 85-80, in overtime the following night. CSULA is currently one game behind Cal State Dominguez Hills and Humboldt State for the top spot in the conference standings. Senior guard Franklin Session leads for players averaging double figures at 15.3 points per game, while also hauling down 7.0 rebounds and dishing out a team-high 2.7 assists per night. Senior forward David Norris has been a handful on the block, averaging 11.5 points and grabbing a team-high 9.7 rebounds per game. The Golden Eagles currently rank sixth in the CCAA offensively, averaging 67.2 points per game, while the defense has been excellent, allowing just 58.5, which ranks second.

• Things won't get any easier on Saturday, as league-leading Cal State Dominguez Hills is set to invade RIMAC. The Toros begin the week with an impressive overall record of 11-1, which is the best start in the program's history. CSUDH is 7-1 against CCAA foes, with the lone defeat coming against Cal State San Bernardino on December 4. The Toros, who are currently ranked seventh in this week's NABC Division II Coaches Poll, dispatched San Francisco State (73-55) and Cal State Monterey Bay (79-70) last week to push their winning streak to five and maintain a share of first place in the conference standings. Senior forward Michael Cox is the team's leading scorer and rebounder at 14.8 points and 7.4 boards per game, while also shooting a team-high 58% from the field. Fellow senior Marcquintice Davis is averaging 12.3 points and leads the team dishing out 4.5 assists per night. Dominguez Hills hangs its hat on defense and it shows, as the Toros are currently allowing a league-leading 57.5 points per game. Offensively, CSUDH ranks sixth, putting up 67.2. The Toros will travel to Cal State East Bay on Thursday before squaring off with UCSD on Saturday.

HEAD COACH CHRIS CARLSON

Chris Carlson embarks on his fourth season as the head coach at UC San Diego in 2010-11. The 11th coach in program history, he enters the year with an overall record of 43-40 (.518) in three seasons at the helm.

Carlson made an immediate impact at UCSD, leading the Tritons to an overall record of 18-12 in his first season, which was the school's best mark since the 1998-1999 campaign. After finishing sixth in the ultra-competitive California Collegiate Athletic Association standings at 11-9, Carlson's Tritons caught fire in March, defeating Cal State San Bernardino, San Francisco State and Cal Poly Pomona on the way to UCSD's first CCAA Tournament title. UCSD earned a No. 8 seed in its first NCAA Tournament appearance at the D-II level, falling to the University of Alaska-Anchorage, 80-60 in the opening round of the West Regional.

The Tritons were one of the top teams in the CCAA again in 2008-09, recording an overall record of 17-11 and a 13-7 mark in league play. After earning a No. 4 seed in the CCAA Tournament, UCSD defeated No. 5 Humboldt State 79-67 in the first round before falling 76-72 to host Cal State San Bernardino in the semifinals.

UCSD finished with an overall record of 8-17 last year, missing the postseason for the first time since 2007. The Tritons went 4-2 during a six-game stretch in February to stay in contention for a conference tournament berth, but a pair of losses to Sonoma State and Humboldt State the final week of the regular season dashed the Tritons' postseason hopes. Under Carlson's guidance, senior guard Jordan Lawley became the first Triton to win the CCAA scoring title since UCSD joined the conference in 2000-01. Lawley was named to the All-CCAA First Team and went on to earn all-region accolades after averaging career-highs of 20.2 points, 5.3 rebounds and 2.4 assists in his final season as a Triton.

Carlson joined the Triton family after spending four seasons as the Director of Basketball Operations at UCLA under head coach Ben Howland. As the DOB, he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the program and served as a liaison to the athletic administration and other school officials. Carlson also assisted in scheduling and recruiting and helped guide the Bruin program to back-to-back NCAA Final Four appearances in 2005-06 and 2006-07.

Before assuming his duties at UCLA, Carlson served in the same capacity for two years at the University of Pittsburgh, joining the Panther staff in the summer of 2001. Prior to that, he was a member of Howland's staff at Northern Arizona in 1998-99, where he coached a Lumberjack squad that led the country in both field goal percentage and three-point percentage for the first time in NCAA history. He remained on at NAU for two years after Howland's departure (1999-2001), where he worked with NAU's post players and oversaw recruiting and scheduling.

Prior to his stint at Northern Arizona, Carlson served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, UC Santa Barbara, from 1994-98, where he oversaw development of the team's perimeter players. He also served as an assistant coach at nearby Dos Pueblos High School in Goleta, Calif. from 1991-93.

A San Diego native, Carlson is a 1993 graduate from UCSB, where he received his bachelors degree in History. Prior to his days as a Gaucho, Carlson attended Helix High School in La Mesa, where he earned All-League honors in basketball. He and his wife Karen have two sons, Nicklas and Charlie.
