TRITON UPDATES

FIRST THINGS FIRST

After going 1-1 against Sonoma State and Humboldt State over the weekend, the UC San Diego men's basketball team will open the second half of its California Collegiate Athletic Association slate on the road this week. UCSD will face Cal Poly Pomona on Thursday evening in Pomona, before traveling to the City by the Bay for a date with San Francisco State on Saturday. Both games will tip-off at 7:30 p.m. or immediately following the women's contests. Thursday's tilt with Pomona will be broadcast live on ESPN Radio 1700 in San Diego, with Craig Elsten calling the action from Kellogg Gym.

ON THE RECORD

UCSD heads to Pomona with an overall record of 7-10 and a 3-9 mark in CCAA play after splitting two home games last week. The Tritons held off a furious Sonoma State rally for a 63-62 win over the Seawolves on Friday, before seeing their own comeback bid fall short in a 65-64 setback to surging Humboldt State on Saturday. UCSD, which went 2-2 on a four-game home stand the last two weeks, currently sits in 10th place in the conference standings with 10 games remaining. The Tritons are currently 2.5 games behind ninth place Cal State East Bay, which enters play this week at 5-6 in CCAA play.

DEFENSE IMPROVING

After allowing a season-high 80 points in a loss to Cal State East Bay on Jan. 13, the Tritons have played much better defense since, holding their last three opponents to an average of 64.7 points on 45% shooting. UCSD limited Sonoma State to just 62 points en route to a one-point victory on Friday and then surrendered just 65 in a loss to Humboldt State the following night. For the season, UCSD is allowing an average of 67.1 points per game, which ranks sixth in the CCAA. Triton opponents are shooting just over 42% from the floor, a figure that ranks seventh.

TOO CLOSE FOR COMFORT

The Tritons have played in a lot of close games lately, with their previous four games being decided by four points or less. Three of those were decided by a single point -- including last week's decisions with Sonoma State and Humboldt State -- and UCSD went 1-2 in those contests. Overall, UCSD has been relatively successful in close games this season, going 3-3 in games decided by five points or less. If the Tritons can find a way to win all the close ones, they will be in great shape going forward.

TIME TO GET A ROADIE (OR TWO)

If the Tritons are going to get back in the hunt for a CCAA playoff berth, they are going to need to find a way to win on the road. UCSD is just 3-6 away from home this season, going 1-5 in true road games and 2-1 in neutral site contests. The Tritons defeated Academy of Art by a final margin of 80-66 on the road on Nov. 19, but haven't won away from home since, losing their last five. With six of their final 10 games coming on the road, now is a great time to get a streak going in the other direction.

Christian Hatch, Tyler McGrath, James McCann and Justin Brue have accounted for 64% of UCSD's scoring this season... After squaring off with Cal Poly Pomona and San Francisco State on the road this week, UCSD will come home for four straight beginning on Feb. 3 against Cal State L.A.

Chris Carlson embarks on his fifth season as the head coach at UC San Diego in 2011-12. The 11th coach in program history, he enters the year with an overall record of 54-57 (.486) in four seasons at the helm.

Carlson made an immediate impact upon arriving at UCSD, leading the Tritons to an overall record of 18-12 in his first season, the program's best mark since the 1998-99 campaign. After finishing sixth in the ultra-competitive California Collegiate Athletic Association standings at 11-9, Carlson's Tritons caught fire in March, defeating Cal State San Bernardino, San Francisco State and Cal Poly Pomona on the way to UCSD's first CCAA Tournament title. UCSD earned a No. 8 seed in its first NCAA Tournament appearance at the Division II level, falling to the University of Alaska-Anchorage 80-60 in the opening round of the West Regional.

The Tritons were one of the top teams in the CCAA again in 2008-09, recording an overall record of 17-11 and a 13-7 mark in league play. After earning a No. 4 seed in the CCAA Tournament, UCSD defeated No. 5 Humboldt State 79-67 in the first round before falling 76-72 to host Cal State San Bernardino in the semifinals.

UCSD finished with an overall record of 8-17 in 2009-10, missing the postseason for the first time since 2007. The Tritons went 4-2 during a six-game stretch in February to stay in contention for a conference tournament berth, but a pair of losses to Sonoma State and Humboldt State the final week of the regular season dashed the Tritons' postseason hopes.

Under Carlson's guidance, senior guard Jordan Lawley became the first Triton to win the CCAA scoring title since UCSD joined the conference in 2000-01 during the 2009-10 campaign. Lawley was named to the All-CCAA First Team and went on to earn All-West Region accolades after averaging career-highs of 20.2 points, 5.3 rebounds and 2.4 assists in his final season as a Triton.

UCSD won five of its first six games to kick off the 2010-11 campaign, marking the program's best start in 10 seasons at the D-II level. The Tritons claimed the 2010 Disney West Coast Tipoff Classic title after defeating Lewis and Dixie State to open the season and also posted early season victories over Notre Dame de Namur and Simon Fraser. Despite the torrid start, UCSD would ultimately finish with an 11-7 record and miss the postseason for the second consecutive season.

Carlson joined the Triton family after spending four seasons as the Director of Basketball Operations at UCLA under head coach Ben Howland. As the DOB, he was responsible for the day-to-day operations of the program and served as a liaison to the athletic administration and other school officials. Carlson also assisted in scheduling and recruiting and helped guide the Bruin program to back-to-back NCAA Final Four appearances in 2005-06 and 2006-07.

Before assuming his duties at UCLA, Carlson served in the same capacity for two years at the University of Pittsburgh, joining the Panther staff in the summer of 2001. Prior to that, he was a member of Howland's staff at Northern Arizona in 1998-99, where he coached a Lumberjack squad that led the country in both field goal percentage and three-point percentage for the first time in NCAA history. He remained on at NAU for two years after Howland's departure (1999-2001), where he worked with NAU's post players and oversaw recruiting and scheduling.

Prior to his stint at Northern Arizona, Carlson served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, UC Santa Barbara, from 1994-98, where he oversaw development of the team's perimeter players. He also served as an assistant coach at nearby Dos Pueblos High School in Goleta from 1991-93.

Carlson worked as a game management assistant at the National Association of Basketball Coaches All-Star game for 12 straight years from 1993-2004 and has worked four NCAA Tournament West Regionals. In addition, he was an intern in the Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams media relations department, a sports information assistant at UCSB in 1993-94 and a member of the 1994 FIFA World Cup media relations staff.

A San Diego native, Carlson is a 1993 graduate from UC Santa Barbara, where he received his bachelors degree in History. Prior to his days as a Gaucho, Carlson attended Helix High School in La Mesa, where he earned All-League honors in basketball. He and his wife Karen have two sons, Nicklas and Charlie.
