AZUSA PACIFIC REWIND

UCSD opened its home season last week with a resounding 79-48 blowout of Azusa Pacific on the first day of action at the Thanksgiving Classic in La Jolla. Emily Osga totaled a game-high 21 points and was perfect from the floor, nailing all seven of her shot attempts, three of those being three-pointers. She also didn't miss from the free throw line, going 4-for-4. Daisy Feder recorded 19 points and hit four treys, while Erin Daturemont finished with 13 points on 6-for-9 shooting. The Tritons, who led 43-21 at the half, made 50.9 percent of their shots in the game. They out-rebounded the Cougars 39-27 and held the opposition to 37.7 percent shooting.

TAMPA REWIND

The final game of the Thanksgiving Classic at RIMAC Arena last week turned out to be a thriller as UCSD fell to Tampa, 74-66, in double overtime. After regulation, the score was tied 54-54. Both squads put up another seven points in the first overtime, but the Spartans pulled it out by out-scoring the Tritons 13-5 in the second extra period. Daisy Feder led all players with 21 points while Erin Daturemont recorded UCSD's first double-double of the season with 20 points and 10 rebounds.

ON YOUR MARKS

Daisy Feder has kept herself busy so far this season by setting career marks. Just six days after she established a new career-best with 28 points against Grand Canyon, Feder upped that by one, pouring in 29 in a win over Seattle Pacific. Her nine field goals made and seven three-pointers drained in that game were also career-highs. The senior entered the season with 966 career points and eclipsed 1,000 on Nov. 10 vs. Grand Canyon in Anaheim.

THE WIZARD OF OSGA

Senior guard Emily Osga is quickly approaching the 1,000 point mark for her career. The San Diego native entered the season with 835 points and has added 101 more so far, giving her a total of 936. Osga leads the Tritons and ranks second in the CCAA in field goal percentage (58.5%), so it shouldn't take her long to drain the remaining 64 points.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE LA JOLLA

Last week's Thanksgiving Classic kicked off a six game home stand for UCSD, which will be its longest of the regular season. The stretch began against Azusa Pacific on Nov. 23 and will conclude on Dec. 30 when Cal State San Bernardino visits RIMAC Arena. The Tritons were due for an extended period at home as they played their first five games on the road. UCSD went 16-2 in La Jolla last season and won all 11 CCAA games that were contested at RIMAC.

TAKING ON THE RANKED

Three of UCSD's first five opponents of the season were ranked among the nation's top 25 - Grand Canyon at No. 13, Western Washington at No. 14 and Gannon at No. 15. Two of those squads have since moved up in the rankings as Western Washington is eighth and Gannon is 11th in the most recent WBCA poll, which was released this past Tuesday. Grand Canyon is still ranked, but has slipped to No. 18.

HEAD COACH HEIDI VANDERVEER

First Season College of Charleston '86

Heidi VanDerveer, the former head coach Occidental College, was named the head coach of the UC San Diego women's basketball program on May 25, 2012.

VanDerveer becomes the sixth coach in program history, taking over a Tritons squad that set a school record with 30 wins in 2011-12 and advanced to the NCAA Division II West Regional Championship game.

"We are extremely pleased to have a coach of Heidi VanDerveer's caliber joining the Triton family," said UCSD Director of Athletics Earl W. Edwards said. "She has had a great deal of success at several different levels of the sport and has consistently been able to recruit student-athletes with high academic standards at Occidental. We look forward to building on the recent success of the program and we feel that Heidi is the right person to continue that path."

VanDerveer, who led the Tigers to four Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCIAC) Championships in four seasons at Occidental, compiled an overall record of 84-25 (.771). She coached the Tigers to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances -- including the program's first-ever NCAA berth in her first season in 2008-09. VanDerveer went 49-7 (.875) in SCIAC play, amassing the highest conference winning percentage of any coach in league history.

She coached three all-conference selections in 2011-12, including SCIAC Player of the Year Makenzie Brandon, who led the league in scoring at 18.1 points per game.

A former WNBA coach, Olympic team scout and assistant for the legendary Pat Summitt, VanDerveer has over two decades of experience at both the collegiate and professional levels. She began her coaching career as a graduate assistant under Summit at the University of Tennessee in 1986 and helped guide the Lady Volunteers to the 1987 NCAA National Championship and another Final Four appearance in 1988.

She then spent six seasons as an assistant at the University of South Carolina from 1988-94, where she helped lead the Gamecocks to three NCAA Tournament appearances. VanDerveer served as the head women's basketball coach at Eastern Washington University for three seasons from 1994-97, where her tenure was highlighted by back-to-back Big Sky Conference Tournament appearances in 1995 and 1996.

VanDerveer spent 12 years working in the WNBA, beginning with an assistant coaching position with the Sacramento Monarchs in 1997. She was later promoted to head coach before the 1998-99 season and went on to work with the Minnesota Lynx as both an assistant (1999-2002) and head coach (2002). She was a WNBA scout from 2003-05 and served as an assistant with the Seattle Storm in 2006 and 2007.

VanDerveer moved back to the collegiate ranks as an assistant at the University of San Francisco in 2004-05. She also served as the video coordinator for two seasons under her Hall of Fame big sister in Tara VanDerveer at Stanford and was the associate head coach at San Diego State under longtime Aztecs coach Beth Burns for one season prior to taking the job at Occidental.

In addition to her collegiate and professional experience, VanDerveer worked with USA Basketball as a scout for the 2006 World Championship team and the 2008 World Qualifying Tournament. Most recently, she served as a scout for the 2008 Olympic Team that won a Gold medal in Beijing.

During her career, VanDerveer has coached the likes of Sue Bird, Candace Parker, Lisa Leslie, Diana Taurasi and several other women's basketball superstars.

VanDerveer graduated from the College of Charleston with a Bachelor's Degree in political science in 1986 and went on to earn her Master's in physical education and sports psychology from the University of Tennessee in 1988. She was a four-year letterwinner on the basketball team at Charleston and served as a team captain as a junior and a senior.
