Eight Tritons Honored by League, Newman Named Coach of the Year

Eight UCSD players were named to 2012 All-California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) teams, while first-year head coach Eric Newman was tabbed the league's Coach of the Year. The announcement was made Wednesday by the CCAA.

UCSD garnered four All-CCAA First Team selections, one second team pick and three honorable mentions. Newman guided the Tritons to a share of the 2012 CCAA regular season title and will lead the team into this week's league tournament as the No. 1 seed.

Center fielder Danny Susdorf, shortstop Garrett Tuck and pitchers Ryan Goodbrand and Tony York were named to the first team.

A junior from Newhall, Susdorf has put together a career season thus far. He leads the Tritons in batting average (.380), at-bats (184), runs scored (45), hits (70), doubles (15), triples (9), total bases (103), slugging (.560), on-base percentage (.452) and stolen bases (26). In the CCAA, he ranks first in triples, second in steals, third in average and hits and fourth in runs and total bases. This season, he broke UCSD's career and single season records for three-baggers. Susdorf was also an All-CCAA First Team pick in 2011.

In his second season as the Tritons' starting shortstop, Tuck ranks second on the team in batting average (.366), at-bats (183), hits (67), on-base percentage (.414) and stolen bases (13). The sophomore from Arcadia has a team-high seven sacrifice flies. Tuck is one of just two players on the roster to have started all 50 of the team's games.

Goodbrand, a junior from Rancho Santa Margarita, is in his first year with the Tritons after transferring from Irvine Valley College. The right-hander is currently 9-0 with a 3.28 ERA over 13 starts and a team-high 82.1 innings pitched. Goodbrand's nine victories rank second among all CCAA pitchers and his 58 strikeouts lead the Tritons' staff. Opponents are batting just .230 against him.

York has emerged as UCSD's primary closer this season. The senior from Escondido has amassed 10 saves, the second-most of any pitcher in the league. His save count ranks second in a single season at UCSD and fourth on the school's career list. He holds a team-low 2.25 ERA and a 2-1 record over 22 appearances.

Senior outfielder Gregg Ringold was selected to the All-CCAA Second Team for his performance this season. The Los Altos Hills native is third on the team with a .318 batting average. Ringold is second in stolen bases, tied with Tuck with 13 swipes. That total is also tied for sixth in the league. In his last game on May 5 against Grand Canyon, Ringold had three hits, two of those triples, while adding a run scored and a RBI.

After starting the 2012 campaign with a 17-15 record, Newman and the Tritons completely turned things around and have posted a 12-6 mark since. He was named UCSD's head coach in August of 2011 after serving as the pitching coach at Nebraska since 2007. Prior to mentoring the Cornhuskers' staff, Newman was the head coach at Dallas Baptist.

The 55 semi-finalists represent forty-eight different schools from across the nation. The finalists will be named May 21 with the winner announced after the Division II Championships. Chase Larsson of Cameron won the honor in 2011.

Tuma Closing In On Appearance Record

Eric Newman was named the head coach of the UCSD baseball program on August 29, 2011, becoming the team's second leader since the school moved to NCAA Division II status for the 2001 season.

Newman had been the pitching coach at Nebraska since 2007 and served as the head coach at Dallas Baptist from 2004 until 2007. A San Diego Padres draft pick, Newman played eight seasons of professional baseball.

He took over the Triton program from Dan O'Brien, who resigned in June of 2011 to take the head position at NCAA Division I Santa Clara. O'Brien, the winningest coach in school history, amassed a record of 454-283-1 (.616) over 14 seasons in La Jolla.

In 2008, his first season as pitching coach at Nebraska, Newman wasted no time making an impact as his staff played a major role in getting the Huskers to the NCAA Regionals for the ninth time in 10 years. He took a contingent that had just 14 returning wins and guided the team to 41 wins and a No. 1 regional seed. For the season, NU was tops in the Big 12 in complete games (7) and ranked among the league leaders in saves (17, second), strikeouts (491, third) and ERA (4.18, third). The ERA ranked 23rd nationally, while the 491 strikeouts were the most at NU since 2005 and the staff's 8.46 strikeouts per game set a new school record.

The 2008 Huskers featured two-time All-American Johnny Dorn, as well as All-Big 12 selections Thad Weber and Dan Jennings. Five pitchers were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including Aaron Pribanic (third round, Seattle), Jennings (ninth, Florida), Dorn (15th, Florida), Weber (16th, Detroit) and Zach Herr (38th, San Diego).

In 2010 and 2011, Newman boasted top 15-ranked recruiting classes.

Prior to arriving in Lincoln, Newman spent five years (2002-07) at NCAA Division I independent Dallas Baptist. Named the program's head coach in 2004, Newman led the Patriots to a 95-72 (.569) record and guided the program through its transition to Division I.

During Newman's years at the helm, the Patriot program turned out a Collegiate Baseball First Team All-American in Drew Holder and 14 All-Independent Team picks. Newman had three players invited to Team USA trials and 15 of his players, including eight pitchers, were drafted or signed professional free agent contracts.

In 2005, the Patriots were top 15 in the country in batting average, runs scored, doubles and slugging percentage. In 2006, the team was top 10 nationally in runs, doubles, home runs and slugging.

Newman was named the 2006 Independent Coach of the Year.

From 2002-2004, Newman was the associate head coach and pitching coach at Dallas Baptist. During his tenure, he lowered the team ERA from 5.80 to 3.28. The 3.28 in 2004 would have ranked seventh nationally had DBU not been provisional Division I status at the time.

The Patriots won their second consecutive NCCAA national championship in 2004, a season that saw five pitchers finish with ERAs under 3.00. The duo of Lance Broadway and Jeff Gilmore each recorded 10 wins. Broadway, a finalist for the Dick Howser Trophy and Roger Clemens Award in 2005, was drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the first round and made it to the Major Leagues in 2007.

Dallas Baptist also won a NCCAA title in 2003.

Patriot pitchers tossed a perfect game and three no-hitters under Newman.

While at DBU, Newman was instrumental in fundraising, helping secure over $600,000 to build a new clubhouse and renovate the indoor hitting facility in 2006. In 2005, Newman assisted in starting the Minuteman Booster/Alumni Club.

A fifth round draft pick of the San Diego Padres in 1994, Newman pitched professionally for eight seasons with four different organizations. Overall, he ended his career with a 44-44 record over 600+ innings. He averaged less than one hit per inning and nearly one strikeout per inning for his career. He saw action all the way up to the AAA level.

Newman played in the minors for the Padres (1994-98), the Chicago Cubs (1999-2000), the Arizona Diamondbacks (2001) and the Los Angeles Dodgers (2002). He was a player/coach for the Vero Beach Dodgers in the Florida State League.

As a collegiate student-athlete, Newman played two seasons at Fresno State before transferring to Texas Tech. In 1993, he won a Western Athletic Conference (WAC) championship with the Bulldogs. The next season, he was tabbed All-Southwest Conference as a member of the Texas Tech Red Raiders.

Newman earned a master's degree in higher education from Dallas Baptist in 2004. He did his undergraduate work at Texas Tech and received a bachelor's degree in family studies in 1997.
