TRITONS CONTINUE SEASON-LONG ROAD STRETCH IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

UCSD resumes its season-long eight-game road stretch with a four-game series at 22nd-ranked California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) rival Sonoma State this weekend. UCSD is 11-8 overall and 6-6 in the CCAA. Sonoma State is 10-4 overall and 2-2 in league play. Both teams are coming off of series splits last week.

WEEKEND MATCH-UPS

This weekend's four-game series with Sonoma State at Seawolf Diamond in Rohnert Park begins on Friday, Mar. 8, with a 2 p.m. first pitch. Following a doubleheader on Saturday, Mar. 9, starting at 11 a.m., the set concludes on Sunday, Mar. 10, again with an 11 a.m. first pitch. Friday's opener will see Triton ace Ryan Goodbrand (5-0, 1.41 ERA) back on the mound, attempting to extend his streak of winning decisions to 10 straight starts and improve on his unblemished season (5-0) and career (16-0) marks as a Triton. The remainder of either side's probable pitching rotation was unavailable at press time. UCSD is 4-3 outside of La Jolla this season and 2-1 against ranked foes. Sonoma State has protected its home turf to the tune of an 8-2 mark. After Sunday's finale in Rohnert Park, this current road segment for UCSD closes with single games at Cal State L.A. on Mar. 14-15.

LIVE COVERAGE

All UCSD home games at Triton Ballpark this season again feature a live online video stream and live stats, both free of charge. Weekday conference home games have audio commentary, with former Triton pitcher Tim Strombel (2007-08) calling the action. Fans can access live video and live stats from the Schedule/Results tab of the baseball page at UCSDtritons.com. Road games have live stats available at minimum, with links active at that same location on the baseball team's Schedule/Results page. This weekend's games in Rohnert Park will also have live audio/video, free of charge through Ustream. Finally, starting lineups, live between-inning updates and other in-game news and notes can be found during home contests by following Triton Baseball all season long on the UCSD Athletics Twitter handle (@UCSDtritons).

SCOUTING SONOMA STATE

Sonoma State (10-4, 2-2 CCAA) split a four-game set with Cal State East Bay last weekend. The sides contested back-to-back doubleheaders in Rohnert Park Friday and in Hayward Saturday, with the Seawolves pulling out narrow 3-2 victories in the nightcap each time. East Bay roared back from a six-run deficit in the series opener, scoring nine unanswered over its final two turns at-bat to fall, 9-6. Harmen Sidhu (2-1, 0.47 ERA) has started every series opener for the Seawolves this season, and leads the team with 24 strikeouts over 19.0 innings. The senior right-hander has allowed a single run in 2013, and teams are hitting just .125 against him. Senior Devon Zenn paces the offense with a .404 batting average and 11 RBI. Senior outfielder Steven Filippi, like Zenn a left-handed hitter, has team bests of 12 runs and six stolen bases (on seven attempts). Freshman right-hander Steven Zaharias (0-1, 1.08 ERA) has notched a pair of saves over four appearances, all in relief. As a team, Sonoma State boasts the top ERA in the conference of 1.66, while hitting .271 and fielding at a .959 clip with 16 unearned runs against them off of 21 charged errors. John Goelz is in his 28th season in charge at Sonoma State with over 900 career wins.

SERIES HISTORY

UCSD leads the all-time series, 31-26. The Seawolves will be looking this weekend to avenge a 2012 season that saw the Tritons take six out of a total of seven head-to-head match-ups, all in La Jolla. After sweeping the four-game regular-season set, UCSD faced off with Sonoma State three more times at home in the CCAA Championship, and ultimately retained its tournament trophy. Over their last two trips north to Rohnert Park, the Tritons are 4-4. They won their 2011 series there, 3-1, upsetting the then-No. 16 Seawolves as the 21st-ranked team in the land. UCSD's last series defeat to SSU came in its previous visit to Seawolf Diamond, also by a 3-1 count. That set featured some remarkable pitching and great drama as all four contests were decided by a single run (2-1, 3-2, 3-2, 2-3).

TRITONS IN THE NATIONAL POLLS

UCSD is currently not ranked in any of the four Division II national polls, but is tops among several other schools receiving votes outside of the latest installment of the Collegiate Baseball Newspaper Division II poll, released each Monday.

UCSD IN THE WEST

UCSD is tied with Cal Poly Pomona for sixth in the latest National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) West Region Top 10, released on Mar. 4. The Tritons and Broncos (29 points apiece) are rated behind Chico State (60), which picked up all six first-place votes, Dixie State (54), Cal State Monterey Bay (39), Sonoma State (37) and Cal State L.A. (35). D2 Baseball News has UCSD ranked seventh in the West, with this week's opponent, Sonoma State, in sixth.

#GOODSTART #GOODYSTART

Ryan Goodbrand has picked up right where he left off in 2012. The right-handed staff ace has earned the winning decision in each of his five starts thus far. He threw 31.1 innings of shutout baseball prior to surrendering a five-run sixth to Cal Poly Pomona in a 7-6 home victory on Feb. 28. Goodbrand's senior campaign began with a workmanlike five frames against then-No. 20 Colorado Mesa at home on Feb. 1, when he allowed just three hits without a walk, retiring six Mavericks on strikes and four more on ground balls of the 15 outs he recorded before exiting on a 75-pitch limit. At Grand Canyon on Feb. 8, Goodbrand's no-hit bid was broken up on an infield single with one out in the sixth. He was replaced after that inning with just two hits and two walks against him. Back home on Feb. 15 in UCSD's conference opener, Goodbrand scattered three hits over 7.0 scoreless frames, striking out 11, believed to be his highest single-game output at any level of organized baseball. At Cal State Dominguez Hills on Feb. 21, he gave up five singles and a walk with eight strikeouts in 8.0 innings. Goodbrand is now an undefeated 16-0 in his 20 career starts in a Triton uniform, with winning decisions in nine straight appearances. He has gone a minimum of 5.0 frames in all 20 stints on the mound, with a pair of nine-inning complete games a year ago. UCSD is 18-2 when Goodbrand starts.

STEAL WHEELS

The Tritons are right back atop the CCAA in steals in 2013 with 34 so far on 45 attempts. Danny Susdorf has been successful on all 13 of his personal tries, leading the conference in thefts. Dillon Moyer is tied for third with seven on eight attempts. UCSD led the CCAA and ranked 27th nationally in the NCAA Division II with 103 stolen bases in 2012, achieving a new single-season program record. The previous mark of 101 had been set in 1985 and matched in 1988.

SUSDORF'S GOLD-GLOVE STREAK

Danny Susdorf has handled 208 defensive chances in a row without an error, spanning 86 appearances dating back to his last charged error on April 29, 2011, at Chico State. He put away all 125 opportunities without a miscue in 2012 and 48 thus far to begin the 2013 season, including an outfield assist at Grand Canyon.

GREAT WEEK FOR GOODBRAND

Ryan Goodbrand swept the four possible weekly awards for the week of Feb. 11-17, earning, in succession, Rawlings/California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA), National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) West Region, NCBWA National and D2 Baseball News National Pitcher of the Week distinction after tossing 7.0 scoreless frames and striking out a career-high 11 in a 4-0 home win over Cal State Stanislaus on Feb. 15. Goodbrand is now a three-time Rawlings/CCAA and three-time NCBWA West Region Pitcher of the Week honoree for his Triton career.

RARE SERIES LOSS

UCSD's 3-1 series loss against Cal State Dominguez Hills (Feb. 21-23) was its first in 2013 after three straight wins, and first in a set of three games or more since back-to-back 3-1 non-conference series defeats to begin the 2012 season against Western Oregon at home (Feb. 3-5) and Colorado Mesa on the road (Feb. 10-12). The Tritons went through the 2012 CCAA slate an undefeated 5-0-5 in league sets, and had not dropped a conference series since a 3-1 loss to Cal State L.A., Mar. 31-Apr. 2, 2011. They had gone 10-0-5 in CCAA weekends between that match-up and this past week.

STACKING SERIES WINS OVER TOUGH OPPOSITION

UCSD posted three straight series victories to open the 2013 season. The Tritons took three of four from California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) foe Cal State Stanislaus as both sides began their conference schedules, Feb. 15-17. The previous weekend, they traveled by bus to Phoenix, Ariz., to take a pair from former league rival Grand Canyon, a team that was receiving votes in a national poll going in. The Tritons held off late 'Lopes rallies to win each of the first two games, themselves rallying in the middle affair to turn a 4-2 deficit into an 8-4 lead through a six-run eighth. On the season's opening weekend, UCSD nabbed the rubber game from then-No. 20 Colorado Mesa, 8-4, at Triton Ballpark on Sunday, Feb. 3, to win that series.

UCSD TAKES EXTRA-INNING THRILLER OVER CITY RIVALS

UCSD posted a come-from-behind, 6-5 victory over crosstown foe Point Loma Nazarene in 11 innings on Feb. 12 at Triton Ballpark. The Tritons scored twice in the ninth and pushed across the decider in the 11th as Danny Susdorf walked to lead off, moved to second when Dillon Moyer was plunked, and sped home on a Justin Rahn sacrifice when the PLNU pitcher threw the ball away. It has marked the lone walk-off triumph for the Tritons thus far in 2013.

GOODBRAND NAMED NCBWA WEST REGION PITCHER OF THE WEEK

Ryan Goodbrand was named on Feb. 12 as the 2013 season's first National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) West Region Pitcher of the Week. The initial award encompassed the first two weekends of the season, from Feb. 1-10. During that span, Goodbrand threw 11.0 scoreless innings over two starts, both wins, allowing five hits and two walks with 11 strikeouts. It was the second weekly West Region honor of his career after Feb. 28, 2012.

TUCK'S IRONMAN STREAK OVER...

Junior infielder Garrett Tuck had made 86 straight starts and appeared in 93 consecutive games since late in the 2011 campaign, prior to sitting out the double-header nightcap against Cal State Dominguez Hills on Feb. 23. He and fourth-year junior teammate Nick La Face were the only two Tritons to both play in and start all 57 contests a year ago. Tuck, second on the team in 2012 behind Danny Susdorf (84) with 77 hits, matched his single-game career high with a four-hit effort in the rubber-game victory over Colorado Mesa on Feb. 3.

...BUT LA FACE'S CONTINUES

Junior catcher/DH Nick La Face has drawn 76 starts in a row dating back to the 2012 season opener. He has also reached base safely in 28 consecutive games, with the last nine of 2012, and each of the first 19 contests this year.

MOYER MAKING AN IMPACT

Junior Dillon Moyer, the son of long-time former Major League Baseball pitcher and 2003 MLB All-Star Jamie Moyer, has started all 19 games so far at shortstop in his first season with the Tritons. The transfer from Division I UC Irvine is hitting .333 and has both a four-hit (Feb. 10) and four-RBI (Feb. 17) game to his credit in 2013. Moyer produced his first collegiate home run, a three-run shot, versus Cal Poly Pomona on Mar. 1. He has seven steals on eight attempts and 14 runs.

THREE TRITONS ON TINO MARTINEZ AWARD WATCH LIST

Ryan Goodbrand, Danny Susdorf and Garrett Tuck were named on Feb. 11 to the 150-player watch list for the 2013 Tino Martinez Award. Given annually to the top Division II player in the nation, the honor is named after the former University of Tampa Spartan, United States Olympian, first-round draft pick and Major League Baseball All-Star, Tino Martinez. Susdorf was a semifinalist a year ago. After being narrowed down to semifinalists (May 6) and finalists (May 20), the 2013 winner will be announced on June 3, two days after the NCAA Division II championship game. Bryan Fogle of Erskine (2010), Chase Larsson of Cameron (2011) and Nathan Minnich of Shepherd (2012) were the previous recipients.

GOODBRAND PICKS UP SEASON'S FIRST WEEKLY CCAA NOD

Ryan Goodbrand was named on Feb. 4, as the season's first Rawlings/California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) Pitcher of the Week. He tossed five scoreless, three-hit innings with six strikeouts in UCSD's 6-2 win over Colorado Mesa on Opening Night on Feb. 1. It was the second weekly CCAA honor of his career.

SUSDORF'S HIT STREAK OVER

Senior All-American centerfielder Danny Susdorf had extended his career-best hitting streak to 26 games over the first two weeks of the 2013 season before going 0-for-2 in the Stanislaus nightcap on Feb. 16. He concluded his 2012 season on a 17-game run (Apr. 19-May 19). This last streak was the second of his career of double digits, following a 10-gamer late in 2011 (Apr. 30-May 14). With a league-leading nine doubles already this year, Susdorf has moved into the program's top-10 list in the category, now alone in fifth with 50 career two-baggers.

SUSDORF SPECIALS

In the seventh inning of a 6-5, 11-inning home win over Point Loma Nazarene on Feb. 12, with the score knotted at 2-2, Danny Susdorf led off the home half with an opposite-field single to right on a 1-2 pitch, stole second with one out, swiped third with two away, and sprinted home for the go-ahead run on a wild pitch. At CSUDH on Feb. 22, he singled to center on another 1-2 pitch to lead off the game, stole second, stole third and scored on a sacrifice fly by Dillon Moyer.

SINGLE SHORT OF CYCLE FOR SEIGEL

Senior first baseman Richard Seigel powered up in lifting UCSD to an 8-4 victory in the all-important rubber game of its opening series with then-No. 20-Colorado Mesa on Feb. 3. Seigel fell a single short of hitting for the cycle in smacking a double to lead off the home second, a leadoff home run in the fifth and a one-out triple in the eighth. All three hits were pulled to the gap in right center, as Seigel wound up 3-for-5 with two runs scored and one run driven in on the afternoon. He has since added three home runs to share the conference lead, one triple and six doubles. Seigel is currently slugging .672, fourth-best in the CCAA.

RAHN AIMING FOR NEW BOARD

Justin Rahn led the Triton offense during the opening weekend, as the junior hit a team-best .571 (8-for-14) with four RBI. In the middle game against Colorado Mesa on Feb. 2, he launched his first collegiate home run, a solo shot to open the bottom of the sixth and temporarily give UCSD a 2-1 edge. The home run was officially the first one hit off of the new scoreboard in right field. Ironically, Rahn had done the same thing in UCSD's exhibition opener with Concordia back on Jan. 21.

TWO-WAY TRITONS

Justin Rahn made his collegiate pitching debut in the middle game against Colorado Mesa (2/2), tossing two shutout innings with just one walk and a strikeout. Though he threw throughout the fall and saw 6.2 innings of work over two exhibition appearances in late January, Rahn had not pitched in an official game since he was at Cupertino's Monta Vista High School. He has joined the starting rotation for conference play, with his bat remaining in the lineup. With true freshman Troy Cruz, a local product out of Bonita Vista High School, at 12 starts at second base and three saves, the two are seeing significant action as two-way performers.

OPENING SUCCESS

With a 6-2 victory at home over then-No. 20 Colorado Mesa on Opening Night on Friday, Feb. 1, UCSD improved to 10-3 in season openers since the program moved up from the NCAA Division III to Division II for the 2001 campaign. With the three-games-to-one series victory over Cal State Stanislaus (Feb. 15-17), the Tritons are 7-1-5 in sets to open California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) play. The 4-0 win on Feb. 15 moved them to 6-7 in CCAA openers all-time.

GOODBRAND, SUSDORF AND TUCK EARN PRESEASON RECOGNITION

Ryan Goodbrand, Danny Susdorf and Garrett Tuck were each named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Preseason All-West Region First Team. Susdorf had also earned the distinction prior to the 2012 season.

TRIPLE THREAT

Danny Susdorf has hit a pair of triples this season, both at home, against Cal State Stanislaus (Feb. 16) and Cal Poly Pomona (Feb. 28) to extend his school-record career total to 15. He finished his junior campaign with nine triples, tied for the program's single-season mark, as well as the NCAA Division II lead.

UCSD LOADED FOR 2013 RUN

UCSD began the 2013 season as the four-time defending CCAA regular-season and tournament champion. Eric Newman, the 2012 CCAA Coach of the Year in his first year in charge, welcomed back nine of his top 10 hitters from a year ago, as well as mound ace Ryan Goodbrand. Goodbrand, who went a perfect 11-0, again takes the ball from Newman in series openers in 2013 after moving into that role on March 2, 2012, in Hayward. The Tritons were 13-2 in his 15 starts. Tops among the returning bats is All-American centerfielder Danny Susdorf, who was third in the league with his team-best .393 batting average. UCSD does need to replace 31 of 57 starts and 257 innings out of the 483 thrown a year ago, or 53 percent.

NEW ADDITION TO TRITON BALLPARK

Fans visiting Triton Ballpark during the 2013 season will notice a new addition in right field. The UCSD baseball program has a new scoreboard. The board was generously donated by the University of San Diego, which brought in a new one of its own for its brand-new Fowler Park facility. It was refurbished and repainted in UCSD colors and installed ahead of the exhibition opener on Jan. 21.

• 2012 CCAA Coach of the Year

Follow Coach Newman on Twitter @CoachEricNewman

Eric Newman was named the head coach of the UCSD baseball program on August 29, 2011, becoming the team's second leader since the school moved to NCAA Division II status for the 2001 season.

In 2012, his first campaign with the Tritons, Newman was named the California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) Coach of the Year after guiding the team to its fourth straight league regular season and tournament championships. The Tritons qualified for their sixth consecutive NCAA West Regional appearance as well.

UCSD won a slew of individual awards, led by starting pitcher Ryan Goodbrand and outfielder Danny Susdorf, who each garnered All-America honors. Six Tritons picked up all-region accolades and eight were named to All-CCAA teams. Reliever Elias Tuma showed his strength away from the diamond as well by being named a CoSIDA Academic All-American.

Prior to coming to La Jolla, Newman had been the pitching coach at Nebraska and served as the head coach at Dallas Baptist. A San Diego Padres draft pick, he played eight seasons of professional baseball.

In 2008, his first season as pitching coach at Nebraska, Newman wasted no time making an impact as his staff played a major role in getting the Huskers to the NCAA Regionals for the ninth time in 10 years. He took a contingent that had just 14 returning wins and guided the team to 41 wins and a No. 1 regional seed. For the season, NU was tops in the Big 12 in complete games (7) and ranked among the league leaders in saves (17, second), strikeouts (491, third) and ERA (4.18, third). The ERA ranked 23rd nationally, while the 491 strikeouts were the most at NU since 2005 and the staff's 8.46 strikeouts per game set a new school record.

The 2008 Huskers featured two-time All-American Johnny Dorn, as well as All-Big 12 selections Thad Weber and Dan Jennings. Five pitchers were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including Aaron Pribanic (third round, Seattle), Jennings (ninth, Florida), Dorn (15th, Florida), Weber (16th, Detroit) and Zach Herr (38th, San Diego).

In 2010 and 2011, Newman boasted top 15-ranked recruiting classes.

Prior to arriving in Lincoln, Newman spent five years (2002-07) at NCAA Division I independent Dallas Baptist. Named the program's head coach in 2004, Newman led the Patriots to a 95-72 (.569) record and guided the program through its transition to Division I.

During Newman's years at the helm, the Patriot program turned out a Collegiate Baseball First Team All-American in Drew Holder and 14 All-Independent Team picks. Newman had three players invited to Team USA trials and 15 of his players, including eight pitchers, were drafted or signed professional free agent contracts.

In 2005, the Patriots were top 15 in the country in batting average, runs scored, doubles and slugging percentage. In 2006, the team was top 10 nationally in runs, doubles, home runs and slugging.

Newman was named the 2006 Independent Coach of the Year.

From 2002-2004, Newman was the associate head coach and pitching coach at Dallas Baptist. During his tenure, he lowered the team ERA from 5.80 to 3.28. The 3.28 in 2004 would have ranked seventh nationally had DBU not been provisional Division I status at the time.

The Patriots won their second consecutive NCCAA national championship in 2004, a season that saw five pitchers finish with ERAs under 3.00. The duo of Lance Broadway and Jeff Gilmore each recorded 10 wins. Broadway, a finalist for the Dick Howser Trophy and Roger Clemens Award in 2005, was drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the first round and made it to Major League Baseball in 2007.

Dallas Baptist also won a NCCAA title in 2003.

Patriot pitchers tossed a perfect game and three no-hitters under Newman.

While at DBU, Newman was instrumental in fundraising, helping secure over $600,000 to build a new clubhouse and renovate the indoor hitting facility in 2006. In 2005, Newman assisted in starting the Minuteman Booster/Alumni Club.

A fifth round draft pick of the San Diego Padres in 1994, Newman pitched professionally for eight seasons with four different organizations. Overall, he ended his career with a 44-44 record over 600+ innings. He averaged less than one hit per inning and nearly one strikeout per inning for his career. He saw action all the way up to the AAA level.

Newman played in the minors for the Padres (1994-98), the Chicago Cubs (1999-2000), the Arizona Diamondbacks (2001) and the Los Angeles Dodgers (2002). He was a player/coach for the Vero Beach Dodgers in the Florida State League.

As a collegiate student-athlete, Newman played two seasons at Fresno State before transferring to Texas Tech. In 1993, he won a Western Athletic Conference (WAC) championship with the Bulldogs. The next season, he was tabbed All-Southwest Conference as a member of the Texas Tech Red Raiders.

Newman earned a master's degree in higher education from Dallas Baptist in 2004. He did his undergraduate work at Texas Tech and received a bachelor's degree in family studies in 1997.

Newman, 40, resides in La Jolla with his wife, Melissa, and sons EJ (5) and Jack (10 months).
