2024-25 REWIND

UC San Diego is coming off an historic season in which the Tritons won 30 games, a Big West regular season and tournament title, and took 14th-ranked Michigan to the wire in the NCAA Tournament – all in the program's first season with Division I post-season eligibility. In fact, UC San Diego became the first program in NCAA history to send its men's and women's teams to March Madness in its first season eligible to do so.

LAST TIME OUT: TRITONS 75, IDAHO 67

UC San Diego rallied from a 13-point first half deficit to remain unbeaten with a 75-67 victory over Idaho at LionTree Arena. Leo Beath and Tom Beattie each scored 15 to pace the Tritons, who matched their best-ever start in Division I with a 4-0 record. Junior Aidan Burke added 13 in the win. After dropping a 2023 meeting in overtime in Seattle, UC San Diego has now beaten the Vandals in each of the last two seasons.

THE BIG WEST HONORS BEATH

UC San Diego junior Leo Beath has been named The Big West Men's Basketball Player of the Week (Nov. 17). The honor is the first for Beath and the first for a Triton over the young season's two weeks. Beath averaged 18.5 points and 6.5 rebounds leading the Tritons to a pair of wins last week. He shot 58.3% (14-24) and knocked down six of 13 three-point tries. His five three-pointers in a win at Fresno State (Nov. 12) set a career high. His 17 points per game average is sixth in the conference.

CAREER-BEST EFFORTS

First year Triton Leo Beath drained a career high five three-pointers in a win at Fresno State (Nov. 12).

First year Triton Tom Beattie scored a career high 18 points in a Homecoming win over HCU (Nov. 3). Beattie was 7-for-12 from the floor, knocking down a pair of three-pointers in the win.

GOING STREAKING

Dating back to January, UC San Diego has won 15 consecutive regular season games. Including the postseason, the Tritons are 22-3 in 2025.

LONG ROAD AHEAD

UC San Diego is in the midst of a 34-day stretch between home games – the longest such stretch for the Tritons in their Division I or II era (2000-present). This year's squad will travel 6,042 miles between their Nov. 15 home game vs. Idaho and Dec. 19 home game vs. USD. The last time UC San Diego was away from La Jolla for more than 30 days was a 31-day stint in 2007-08.

BATTLING THE UNKNOWN

UC San Diego has only played one game all-time against any of the opponents in this year's Terry's Chocolate ESPN Events Invitational. The Tritons lost to Liberty, 92-90, in 1977 when UC San Diego competed in the NAIA and Liberty was known as Liberty Baptist College.

TRAVELING EAST

Dating back to 2022, the Tritons have won their last five regular season games played in the Eastern Time Zone. UC San Diego beat La Salle, James Madison and Toledo to win the Boardwalk Battle last year in Daytona Beach. The Tritons also downed George Washington and Eastern Michigan in 2022.

TRIPLE DIGITS

UC San Diego scored 105 points in its season-opening win over La Verne (Nov. 3). The Tritons reached the century mark three times last season.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

UC San Diego has turned LionTree Arena into a true home court advantage, boasting a 30-4 record in La Jolla over the past two-plus seasons.

GOT THE FIRST ONE

When the Tritons beat La Verne in the season opener (Nov. 3), that marked the first victory in the head coaching career of Clint Allard.

AWARD-WINNERS

After posting an 18-2 conference record on the way to its first regular season men's basketball title last season, UC San Diego earned five of The Big West's seven major awards. Senior guard/forward Aniwaniwa Tait-Jones was The Big West Player of the Year, Triton head coach Eric Olen was Coach of the Year for the second straight season, senior point guard Hayden Gray captured Best Defensive player, junior Chris Howell was named the Best Hustle Player, and junior Justin Rochelin garnered the conference's Best Sixth Player award.

In addition, Tait-Jones and senior Tyler McGhie were named All-Big West First Team and Gray garnered All-Big West Second Team accolades. For the second season in a row, the Tritons were the only Big West program to win multiple major awards.

ABOUT UC SAN DIEGO

Campus

Founded as an experiment in 1960, UC San Diego scholars aren't afraid to challenge convention if it means we can accelerate answers to our society's most pressing issues. As one of the top 20 research universities in the world, we are driving change far beyond our walls to advance society and propel economic growth. And the world has taken notice.

UC San Diego's main campus is located near the Pacific Ocean on approximately 1,200 acres of coastal woodland in La Jolla, California. The campus sits on the ancestral homelands of the Kumeyaay Nation. Kumeyaay people continue to have an important and thriving presence in the region. UC San Diego's rich academic portfolio includes eleven academic, professional and graduate schools and eight undergraduate residential colleges. UC San Diego is also home to the prestigious Scripps Institution of Oceanography and the UC San Diego Health System.

Rankings

UC San Diego is making waves in the rankings. Globally and nationally, our campus is recognized for improving social mobility, offering a high-quality education at an affordable price, producing powerful research, advancing health care and more.

National Acclaim

UC San Diego is ranked third among the nation's top public colleges, according to the Forbes 2026 list of America's Top Colleges. UC San Diego is No. 20 out of the complete list of 500 four-year private and public colleges in the country.

A World Leader

U.S. News and World Report listed UC San Diego as 21st in its 2025-2026 Best Global Universities rankings, which are evaluated based on 13 indicators that measure academic research performance and global and regional reputations.

Value for Students

5-Star Rating

UC San Diego earned 5 stars—the highest rating available—in Money's Best Colleges in America 2025 list. The outlet annually recognizes colleges that combine quality and affordability.

- UC San Diego placed sixth among the nation's top public colleges for students seeking an outstanding education at an affordable price, according to The Princeton Review's Best Value Colleges for 2025.

ROAD WARRIORS

The Tritons were second nationally in wins away from home (road + neutral) last season. UC San Diego was 17-3 in games outside of LionTree Arena: 12-2 on the road and 5-1 at neutral sites.

NEW-LOOK TRITONS

Head coach Clint Allard has added ten newcomers who have join the Tritons' roster for the 2025-26 season: eight transfers and two first-year scholar-athletes. Leo Beath (Lynn), Tom Beattie (Hawai'i), Alex Chaikin (Lafayette), Bol Dengdit (Portland), Tyson Dunn (Buffalo), Trap Johnson (Montana State), Emanuel Prospere II (Missouri-St. Louis), and Dimitrije Vukicevic (Washington State) transferred to UC San Diego. Hudson Mayes (Redondo Beach, Calif.) and Jaden Vance (Phoenix, Ariz.) joined the roster as freshmen.

TRITONS IN THE PROS

Three Tritons from last year's Big West Championship team are playing professionally this year. Tyler McGhie is playing for Gipuzkoa Basket in Spain, Aniwaniwa Tait-Jones is competing with Valmiera Glass in Latvia, and Hayden Gray is playing in the NBA G League for the Maine Celtics (Boston).

WHY THE TRITONS?

The Triton is described as the offspring of Poseidon and Amphitrite, a demigod of the sea with a lower part of the body like that of a fish. It is known as a mighty and fierce sea warrior. Given UC San Diego's close proximity to the Pacific Ocean and its connections with the world-famous Scripps Institution of Oceanography, the Triton became our mascot in 1964.

UC SAN DIEGO TO THE WCC

On September 3, UC San Diego announced that it has accepted an invitation to join the West Coast Conference beginning in 2027-28. Triton men's hoops will face a pair of WCC foes this season: at LMU (Dec. 16) and home vs. USD (Dec. 19).

2025-26 UC San Diego Men's Basketball

CLINT ALLARD • Head Coach 1st Season

On March 30, 2025, Clint Allard was named the new head men's basketball coach of the UC San Diego Tritons. Allard became the 13th head coach in program history, and the second at the Division I level.

"I have the distinct privilege to announce Clint Allard as our next head men's basketball coach," said then-UC San Diego Director of Athletics Earl W. Edwards. "As an alumnus of our program, he knows what it means to be a Triton. His successes as our associate head coach were put on full display as we transitioned to Division I, won the Big West regular season and tournament titles, and competed on the national stage. His ability to recruit elite scholar-athletes, his coaching acumen, and his vision for continued success in this competitive climate make him the ideal candidate to lead our program into the future. I'm excited for the Coach Allard era to begin!"

"I am truly honored and excited to step into the role of UC San Diego Men's Basketball Head Coach," said Allard. "UC San Diego is a remarkable institution that I have been fortunate to be a part of for many years, and the opportunity to lead this program is a dream come true."

"Clint Allard, a distinguished alumnus and renowned coach, is the perfect fit to lead our storied men's basketball program into a new era of excellence," said Chancellor Pradeep K. Khosla. "With his exceptional coaching acumen and deep understanding of our university's values, Coach Allard is poised to deliver a transformative experience for our scholar-athletes, balancing academic rigor and athletic distinction. As we build upon the momentum of our recent Division I successes, including our Big West Championship, Coach Allard's visionary leadership will solidify UC San Diego's position as a national powerhouse in college basketball."

Allard just completed his 11th season as the program's Associate Head Coach, a role in which he served since April 2014. He is the architect of the team's vaunted defense, which led The Big West and ranked sixth nationally, allowing just 61.8 points per game in 2024-25. This season, the Tritons also led the nation in turnover margin (+7.2) and steals (345) and were third nationally with 9.9 steals per game.

Allard replaces two-time Big West Coach of the Year Eric Olen, who was named the head coach at New Mexico. "I couldn't be happier for Clint and for the program," Olen said. "There is no better person to lead the program into this next iteration of Triton basketball. I know that he is going to only build on what we've done to this point, and truly the future could not be brighter."

Olen appointed Allard to the Associate Head Coach role at UC San Diego in 2014 after Allard spent two seasons on the bench as an assistant coach at fellow CCAA member Cal Poly Pomona. Prior to his stint at Cal Poly Pomona, Allard served as an assistant coach at UC San Diego for four seasons, first joining the staff for its 2008-09 campaign.

A four-year starter and three-time team captain at UC San Diego, Allard posted career averages of 10.3 points, 3.5 rebounds, 3.7 assists and 1.2 steals in 112 games as a Triton.

One of the most prolific players the program has seen, Allard's name can be found all over UC San Diego's record books. The former Archbishop Mitty High School product ranks fifth in all-time career assists (414). His 1,150 career points still ranks in the top-15 in school history. In terms of UC San Diego's Division II-era (2000-01 through 2019-20) career records, Allard ranks first in steals (130) and can be found in the top 10 for points (1,150), field goals made (364), three-point field goals made (123), three-point field goal percentage (.384), rebounds (387), and assists (414).

As a senior in 2007-08, Allard was named to the All-CCAA Second Team after averaging 9.8 points and career-highs in rebounds (3.9), assists (4.6) and steals (1.2). He also earned All-CCAA Tournament Team honors that season after leading the Tritons to their first conference tourney championship.

Allard graduated from UC San Diego in 2008 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Management Science. In 2010, he earned a master's degree in Coaching and Athletic Administration in Exercise and Sports Science from Concordia in Irvine.

Allard and his wife Sara (Robinson), a former UC San Diego softball standout, have two children: Everly and Reid.
