LAST TIME OUT: TRITONS 87, TOWSON 73

UC San Diego knocked down a season-best 16 three-pointers and got 16 points from junior Leo Beath as the Tritons defeated Towson, 87-73, to win the Adventure Bracket at the Terry's Chocolate ESPN Events Invitational at Walt Disney World. Nine different Tritons buried a three-pointer in the win, tying an NCAA Division I single game record.

The Tritons shot 64% from distance and 60.4% overall Wednesday afternoon to claim the tournament title. Beath led the way with 16 points and was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player. Aidan Burke added 14 points on 4-of-5 from deep, Emanuel Prospere II scored 11, Tom Beattie scored ten with six assists and Hudson Mayes was 4-for-4 from the field, contributing ten points. Wednesday was UC San Diego's second game of the season with five players scoring 10 or more points.

LAST TIME VS. NEVADA: WOLF PACK 64, TRITONS 56

Two Tritons scored in double figures, but host Nevada fought off a hard-charging UC San Diego squad for a 64-56 victory in front of 6,693 inside Lawlor Events Center. Neither team led by more than six points all night until a pair of Wolf Pack free throws in the game's final seconds.

Bryce Pope scored 14 and Francis Nwaokorie scored a season-high 13 for the Tritons (4-6). The Wolf Pack remained unbeaten at home (5-0) while improving to 9-3 overall.

MICKEY'S MOST VALUABLE

First year Triton Leo Beath was named Most Valuable Player at the Terry's Chocolate ESPN Events Invitational, leading UC San Diego to three wins in three days at Walt Disney World. Beath averaged 23.7 points per game, shooting 61.9% over three games. He drained 9-of-13 three-point attempts (69.2%) and averaged four rebounds and 1.7 steals per game in the victories over Temple, Bradley, and Towson.

DRAINING 'EM FROM DISTANCE

UC San Diego tied an NCAA Division I single game record when nine Tritons sank three-pointers in a win over Towson at Walt Disney World (Nov. 26). Over the three-day tournament, UC San Diego shot 51.9% from beyond the arc – hitting 40 of 77 attempts. The Tritons lead The Big West in three-point field goal percentage (42.3%) and threes per game (11.0).

THE BIG WEST HONORS BEATH

UC San Diego junior Leo Beath was named The Big West Men's Basketball Player of the Week (Nov. 17). The honor is the first for Beath and the first for a Triton over the young season's two weeks. Beath averaged 18.5 points and 6.5 rebounds leading the Tritons to a pair of wins that week. He shot 58.3% (14-24) and knocked down six of 13 three-point tries. His five three-pointers in a win at Fresno State (Nov. 12) set a career high.

CAREER-BEST EFFORTS

First year Triton Leo Beath drained a career high five three-pointers in a win at Fresno State (Nov. 12).

First year Triton Tom Beattie scored a career high 18 points in a Homecoming win over HCU (Nov. 3). Beattie was 7-for-12 from the floor, knocking down a pair of three-pointers in the win.

GOING STREAKING

Dating back to January, UC San Diego has won 20 consecutive regular season games – the longest active streak in the country. Including the postseason, the Tritons are 25-3 in 2025.

TAKING THE LONG ROAD

UC San Diego is in the midst of a 34-day stretch between home games – the longest such stretch for the Tritons in their Division I or II era (2000-present). This year's squad will travel 6,042 miles between their Nov. 15 home game vs. Idaho and Dec. 19 home game vs. USD. The last time UC San Diego was away from La Jolla for more than 30 days was a 31-day stint in 2007-08.

EAST COAST TRITONS

The Tritons have won their last eight regular season games played in the Eastern Time Zone after winning the Terry's Chocolate ESPN Events Invitational in November. Last season in Daytona Beach, UC San Diego beat La Salle, James Madison and Toledo to win the Boardwalk Battle. The Tritons also won at George Washington and Eastern Michigan in 2022.

TRIPLE DIGITS

UC San Diego scored 105 points in its season-opening win over La Verne (Nov. 3). The Tritons reached the century mark three times last season.

WHY THE TRITONS?

The Triton is described as the offspring of Poseidon and Amphitrite, a demigod of the sea with a lower part of the body like that of a fish. It is known as a mighty and fierce sea warrior. Given UC San Diego's close proximity to the Pacific Ocean and its connections with the world-famous Scripps Institution of Oceanography, the Triton became our mascot in 1964.

CLINT ALLARD • Head Coach 1st Season

On March 30, 2025, Clint Allard was named the new head men's basketball coach of the UC San Diego Tritons. Allard became the 13th head coach in program history, and the second at the Division I level.

"I have the distinct privilege to announce Clint Allard as our next head men's basketball coach," said then-UC San Diego Director of Athletics Earl W. Edwards. "As an alumnus of our program, he knows what it means to be a Triton. His successes as our associate head coach were put on full display as we transitioned to Division I, won the Big West regular season and tournament titles, and competed on the national stage. His ability to recruit elite scholar-athletes, his coaching acumen, and his vision for continued success in this competitive climate make him the ideal candidate to lead our program into the future. I'm excited for the Coach Allard era to begin!"

"I am truly honored and excited to step into the role of UC San Diego Men's Basketball Head Coach," said Allard. "UC San Diego is a remarkable institution that I have been fortunate to be a part of for many years, and the opportunity to lead this program is a dream come true."

"Clint Allard, a distinguished alumnus and renowned coach, is the perfect fit to lead our storied men's basketball program into a new era of excellence," said Chancellor Pradeep K. Khosla. "With his exceptional coaching acumen and deep understanding of our university's values, Coach Allard is poised to deliver a transformative experience for our scholar-athletes, balancing academic rigor and athletic distinction. As we build upon the momentum of our recent Division I successes, including our Big West Championship, Coach Allard's visionary leadership will solidify UC San Diego's position as a national powerhouse in college basketball."

Allard just completed his 11th season as the program's Associate Head Coach, a role in which he served since April 2014. He is the architect of the team's vaunted defense, which led The Big West and ranked sixth nationally, allowing just 61.8 points per game in 2024-25. This season, the Tritons also led the nation in turnover margin (+7.2) and steals (345) and were third nationally with 9.9 steals per game.

Allard replaces two-time Big West Coach of the Year Eric Olen, who was named the head coach at New Mexico. "I couldn't be happier for Clint and for the program," Olen said. "There is no better person to lead the program into this next iteration of Triton basketball. I know that he is going to only build on what we've done to this point, and truly the future could not be brighter."

Olen appointed Allard to the Associate Head Coach role at UC San Diego in 2014 after Allard spent two seasons on the bench as an assistant coach at fellow CCAA member Cal Poly Pomona. Prior to his stint at Cal Poly Pomona, Allard served as an assistant coach at UC San Diego for four seasons, first joining the staff for its 2008-09 campaign.

Prior to his stint at Cal Poly Pomona, Allard served as an assistant coach at UC San Diego for four seasons, first joining the staff for its 2008-09 campaign.

A four-year starter and three-time team captain at UC San Diego, Allard posted career averages of 10.3 points, 3.5 rebounds, 3.7 assists and 1.2 steals in 112 games as a Triton.

One of the most prolific players the program has seen, Allard's name can be found all over UC San Diego's record books. The former Archbishop Mitty High School product ranks fifth in all-time career assists (414). His 1,150 career points still ranks in the top-15 in school history. In terms of UC San Diego's Division II-era (2000-01 through 2019-20) career records, Allard ranks first in steals (130) and can be found in the top 10 for points (1,150), field goals made (364), three-point field goals made (123), three-point field goal percentage (.384), rebounds (387), and assists (414).

As a senior in 2007-08, Allard was named to the All-CCAA Second Team after averaging 9.8 points and career-highs in rebounds (3.9), assists (4.6) and steals (1.2). He also earned All-CCAA Tournament Team honors that season after leading the Tritons to their first conference tourney championship.

Allard graduated from UC San Diego in 2008 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Management Science. In 2010, he earned a master's degree in Coaching and Athletic Administration in Exercise and Sports Science from Concordia in Irvine.

Allard and his wife Sara (Robinson), a former UC San Diego softball standout, have two children: Everly and Reid.
