LAST TIME OUT: HAWAI'I 72, TRITONS 67

UC San Diego erased a 12-point deficit, but host Hawai'i was red hot down the stretch in a 72-67 Rainbow Warriors' victory over the Tritons Saturday night at Bankoh Arena at Stan Sheriff Center. Making his third career start, Triton freshman Hudson Mayes posted a double-double – his third – with 12 points and ten rebounds. Tom Beattie finished with 14 points, and Bol Dengdit and Alex Chaikin each added 11 for UC San Diego (16-9 overall, 6-7 Big West).

Hawai'i improved to 14-1 at home with the win. The Rainbow Warriors (17-5, 9-3) moved into a first-place tie atop the conference standings.

LAST TIME VS. UC DAVIS: TRITONS 80, AGGIES 74 (Jan. 22)

UC San Diego freshman Hudson Mayes scored a career-high 19 points and posted his second double-double, adding 12 rebounds in an 80-74 win over UC Davis at UCU Center. Sophomore guard Alex Chaikin also scored 19 points for UC San Diego, hitting five three-point baskets in ten tries. The Tritons shot 55% in the second half, improving to 15-5 overall and 5-3 in Big West action.

Emanuel Prosperie II scored 14 points with six rebounds and seven assists in the win. All 14 of his points came in the second half. UC San Diego scored 55 points after halftime to secure the road triumph.

Niko Rocak scored 11 and pulled down 11 boards for UC Davis.

BACK ON TRACK

UC San Diego's win over Long Beach (Feb. 5) snapped a three-game losing streak – the Tritons' longest in Big West action since Feb. 2-15, 2023 (four straight). Bol Dengdit had a career-high seven offensive rebounds – six more than the entire Beach roster – in the win. The victory was UC San Diego's first this season when its opponent posted a higher field goal percentage.

CALLING HIS NUMBER

Triton freshman Jaden Vance had a career night in the win over Long Beach (Feb. 5). The Phoenix native scored 17 points on 6-of-10 shooting – all three numbers are personal bests – over a career-high 20 minutes played.

THE COMFORTS OF HOME

UC San Diego plays five of its seven games in February inside LionTree Arena. The only road tests will take place against the top two teams in the standings: last Saturday at Hawai'i and Feb. 21 at UC Irvine.

WHAT'S CHAIKIN?

UC San Diego adjusted its starting lineup for the first time this season when sophomore Alex Chaikin was inserted into the first five vs. CSUN (Jan. 15). Chaikin responded with a season high 22 points and six three-pointers in the game. Against Big West opponents, Chaikin is second in The Big West, shooting 45.1% from beyond the arc. His 2.8 threes per game ranks third.

MAKING HIS MARK

Freshman Hudson Mayes matched set a new career high with 19 points, pulling down a personal best 12 rebounds in a career-high 29 minutes off the bench at UC Davis (Jan. 22) – marking his second career double-double. Mayes leads the team in field goal percentage, connecting on 53.7% of his attempts. In Big West play, Mayes is third in the conference from the free throw line, hitting 88.4% of his shots. Mayes made his first career start vs. UCSB (Jan. 29).

ON THE REBOUND

UC San Diego handed Hawai'i its first conference loss, 83-73 (Jan. 3). The Tritons outrebounded the Rainbow Warriors, 33-29, despite UH holding a league-best +11.2 rebound margin coming in.

PACKING 'EM IN

UC San Diego played in front of a sellout crowd vs. UC Irvine on Jan. 24. The Tritons are second in The Big West in home attendance during conference play, averaging 2,772 per home game.

A NEW FLOOR

UC San Diego scored a season-low 48 points in a loss to UC Santa Barbara (Jan. 29). The Tritons' 22 first half points vs. the Gauchos is UC San Diego's lowest scoring half this season.

U.S. News and World Report listed UC San Diego as 21st in its 2025-2026 Best Global Universities rankings, which are evaluated based on 13 indicators that measure academic research performance and global and regional reputations.

Value for Students

- UC San Diego placed sixth among the nation's top public colleges for students seeking an outstanding education at an affordable price, according to The Princeton Review's Best Value Colleges for 2025.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

First-year Triton Bol Dengdit posted a double-double in back-to-back games: 10 points, 10 rebounds vs. Stanton (Dec. 28) and 12 points, 12 rebounds at Cal Poly (Jan. 1). He blocked three shots in back-to-back games (Dec. 19 vs. USD, Dec. 28 vs. Stanton).

DRAINING 'EM FROM DISTANCE

UC San Diego tied an NCAA Division I single game record when nine Tritons sank three-pointers in a win over Towson at Walt Disney World (Nov. 26). Over the three-day tournament, UC San Diego shot 51.9% from beyond the arc – hitting 40 of 77 attempts.

A YEAR TO REMEMBER

Including the postseason, the Tritons were 29-5 in 2025.

KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY

With a 26-point victory over Tulane in the Jack Jones Classic (Dec. 13), UC San Diego has won all three games it's played three games at Lee's Family Forum in Henderson, Nevada. The Tritons also downed UC Santa Barbara in the 2025 Big West semifinal and UC Irvine in the 2025 Big West Championship. The conference's postseason tournament will be held at that venue again in 2026.

LISTEN UP!

UC San Diego and Audacy have partnered to bring Tritons basketball to 97.3 The Fan – home of the San Diego Padres – in a multi-year deal. All remaining Big West road games this season – plus postseason games – will air live on 97.3 The Fan and stream on the Audacy app.

MICKEY'S MOST VALUABLE

First year Triton Leo Beath was named Most Valuable Player at the Terry's Chocolate ESPN Events Invitational, leading UC San Diego to three wins in three days at Walt Disney World (Nov. 24-26). Beath averaged 23.7 points per game, shooting 61.9% over three games. He drained 9-of-13 three-point attempts (69.2%) and averaged four rebounds and 1.7 steals per game in the victories over Temple, Bradley, and Towson.

RACKING UP THE AWARDS

After being named tournament MVP at the Terry's Chocolate ESPN Events Invitational, Leo Beath piled up the awards. The following week, he was selected Oscar Robertson National Player of the Week by the USBWA, named the Lou Henson Award-winner as mid-major's top performer, voted Big West Player of the Week, and garnered UCU Athlete of the Week honors on campus. The Big West honor was Beath's second of the season (also Nov. 17). Beath was named to the Lou Henson Award watch list on Dec. 18.

TRITONS IN THE PROS

Three Tritons from last year's Big West Championship team are playing professionally this year. Tyler McGhie is playing for Gipuzkoa Basket in Spain, Aniwanika Tait-Jones is competing with Valmiera Glass in Latvia, and Hayden Gray is playing in the NBA G League for the Maine Celtics (Boston).

WHY THE TRITONS?

The Triton is described as the offspring of Poseidon and Amphitrite, a demigod of the sea with a lower part of the body like that of a fish. It is known as a mighty and fierce sea warrior. Given UC San Diego's close proximity to the Pacific Ocean and its connections with the world-famous Scripps Institution of Oceanography, the Triton became our mascot in 1964.

UC SAN DIEGO TO THE WCC

On September 3, UC San Diego announced that it has accepted an invitation to join the West Coast Conference beginning in 2027-28. Triton men's hoops faced a pair of WCC foes this season: at LMU (Dec. 16) and home vs. USD (Dec. 19).

CLINT ALLARD • Head Coach 1st Season

On March 30, 2025, Clint Allard was named the new head men's basketball coach of the UC San Diego Tritons. Allard became the 13th head coach in program history, and the second at the Division I level.

"I have the distinct privilege to announce Clint Allard as our next head men's basketball coach," said then-UC San Diego Director of Athletics Earl W. Edwards. "As an alumnus of our program, he knows what it means to be a Triton. His successes as our associate head coach were put on full display as we transitioned to Division I, won the Big West regular season and tournament titles, and competed on the national stage. His ability to recruit elite scholar-athletes, his coaching acumen, and his vision for continued success in this competitive climate make him the ideal candidate to lead our program into the future. I'm excited for the Coach Allard era to begin!"

On March 30, 2025, Clint Allard was named the new head men's basketball coach of the UC San Diego Tritons. Allard became the 13th head coach in program history, and the second at the Division I level.

"I am truly honored and excited to step into the role of UC San Diego Men's Basketball Head Coach," said Allard. "UC San Diego is a remarkable institution that I have been fortunate to be a part of for many years, and the opportunity to lead this program is a dream come true."

"Clint Allard, a distinguished alumnus and renowned coach, is the perfect fit to lead our storied men's basketball program into a new era of excellence," said Chancellor Pradeep K. Khosla. "With his exceptional coaching acumen and deep understanding of our university's values, Coach Allard is poised to deliver a transformative experience for our scholar-athletes, balancing academic rigor and athletic distinction. As we build upon the momentum of our recent Division I successes, including our Big West Championship, Coach Allard's visionary leadership will solidify UC San Diego's position as a national powerhouse in college basketball."

Allard just completed his 11th season as the program's Associate Head Coach, a role in which he served since April 2014. He is the architect of the team's vaunted defense, which led The Big West and ranked sixth nationally, allowing just 61.8 points per game in 2024-25. This season, the Tritons also led the nation in turnover margin (+7.2) and steals (345) and were third nationally with 9.9 steals per game.

Allard replaces two-time Big West Coach of the Year Eric Olen, who was named the head coach at New Mexico. "I couldn't be happier for Clint and for the program," Olen said. "There is no better person to lead the program into this next iteration of Triton basketball. I know that he is going to only build on what we've done to this point, and truly the future could not be brighter."

Olen appointed Allard to the Associate Head Coach role at UC San Diego in 2014 after Allard spent two seasons on the bench as an assistant coach at fellow CCAA member Cal Poly Pomona. Prior to his stint at Cal Poly Pomona, Allard served as an assistant coach at UC San Diego for four seasons, first joining the staff for its 2008-09 campaign.

A four-year starter and three-time team captain at UC San Diego, Allard posted career averages of 10.3 points, 3.5 rebounds, 3.7 assists and 1.2 steals in 112 games as a Triton.

One of the most prolific players the program has seen, Allard's name can be found all over UC San Diego's record books. The former Archbishop Mitty High School product ranks fifth in all-time career assists (414). His 1,150 career points still ranks in the top-15 in school history. In terms of UC San Diego's Division II-era (2000-01 through 2019-20) career records, Allard ranks first in steals (130) and can be found in the top 10 for points (1,150), field goals made (364), three-point field goals made (123), three-point field goal percentage (.384), rebounds (387), and assists (414).

As a senior in 2007-08, Allard was named to the All-CCAA Second Team after averaging 9.8 points and career-highs in rebounds (3.9), assists (4.6) and steals (1.2). He also earned All-CCAA Tournament Team honors that season after leading the Tritons to their first conference tourney championship.

Allard graduated from UC San Diego in 2008 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Management Science. In 2010, he earned a master's degree in Coaching and Athletic Administration in Exercise and Sports Science from Concordia in Irvine.

Allard and his wife Sara (Robinson), a former UC San Diego softball standout, have two children: Everly and Reid.
