ACADEMIC ADVANTAGE

HELPING STUDENT-ATHLETES ACHIEVE MORE

WEEKLY MEETINGS
Academic coordinators hold weekly meetings with the student-athletes to assess how they are performing their course work and to emphasize time management, study skills, organization, and goal setting as well as provide an opportunity to communicate athletic/ or personal issues.

ACADEMIC MONITORING
Academic coordinators closely monitor the academic progress of student-athletes. In addition to freshmen midterm grades reported by the University, progress reports are issued to professors to ensure that attendance, effort and progress are monitored.

STUDY HALL
Study Hall is a structured, monitored, and quiet environment in which student-athletes have the opportunity to develop consistent and appropriate study skills. Computers and wireless access are available as well as the opportunity to meet with tutors. Coaches are notified on a regular basis regarding study hall attendance and behavior.

THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

2014 NCAA ELITE EIGHT

THE University of Dayton Flyers were the team everyone was talking about in March of '14, when UD reached the NCAA Elite 8 by knocking off Ohio State, Syracuse (in Buffalo) and Stanford before losing to then-No. 1-ranked Florida. Dayton finished 2013-14 ranked 18th in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. UD's 26 wins were the third-most in school history. Flyer coach Archie Miller and older brother Sean (Arizona) were the first two sets of brothers to coach their teams in the same NCAA tournament in 2014.

2015 NCAA TOURNAMENT

For the second time in as many years, the University of Dayton Flyers shocked the basketball world as they advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament. With a depleted roster that featured just six players who were recruited to UD and no active player taller than 6-foot-6, Dayton finished the 2014-15 season with a 27-9 record and had wins over Boise State and Providence in the national tournament.

THE FLYER FAITHFUL

THE IMPACT

WHAT THE COLLEGE BASKETBALL WORLD SAYS ABOUT THE FLYER FAITHFUL

- "There's no better basketball town in this country than Dayton, Ohio."
  – Mike Tirico, ESPN
- "...the great traditions are not just at top ten schools. Just...walk into the University of Dayton Arena..."
  – Dan Wetzel, Basketball Times
- "What an atmosphere. If you're a college hoops fan, get out a map and figure out how you're going to get to Dayton."
  – Dave Simms, ESPN

THIS PLACE IS LOUD

With every big play and thunderous dunk the Flyer Faithful roar with excitement. Backed by a rabid student section dubbed the "Red Scare", game day becomes a remarkable experience for fans, alumni and opponents alike.

In fact, the fans have such an impact on the game that The Sporting News dubbed them "The Best Fans In The Country."

"THE BEST PART OF PLAYING AT UD ARENA IS THE SELL OUT CROWD WE HAVE ALMOST EVERY HOME GAME. WE HAVE THE BEST FANS IN THE NATION." - DEVIN OLIVER

THE SPOTLIGHT

NATIONAL EXPOSURE

The University of Dayton Men's Basketball program enjoys a significant presence on national, regional and local television. For the second straight year, the University of Dayton men's basketball team will play record number of nationally-televised games in the 2014-15 regular season.

The Flyers will play a school-record 21 contests on national television in 2014-15.

In 2010, The University of Dayton and FOX Sports Ohio have entered into a television rights agreement for Flyer men's basketball to expand coverage regionally. FOX Sports Ohio reaches over five million households in Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, western Pennsylvania, western New York, and West Virginia.

Thanks to a conference-wide television agreement, Flyer Basketball games will be carried nationally as well as regionally. This season Dayton will play eight games on the ESPN family of networks, seven on CBS Sports Network, four on NBC Sports Network and two on SNY. In addition, every game of the A-10 Men's Basketball Championship that will be played in the Barclays Center in Brooklyn will also be nationally televised. The championship game will be televised by CBS for the sixth consecutive year.

The Dayton community also benefits from a tremendous partnership with WHIO-TV, which has originated UD games (both home and road) for more than 50 years. All of Dayton's games are broadcast on Newstalk 1290 WHIO Radio and over the internet at www.DaytonFlyers.com.

In addition, the Archie Miller Show appears on both WHIO-TV and WHIO Radio throughout the season. Coach Miller's TV show, hosted by WHIO-TV's Mike Hartsock, airs Sunday mornings at 10:30 a.m. ET. The radio show airs live on Newstalk 1290 WHIO from a local Buffalo Wild Wings on Monday evenings from 8-9 p.m. ET, hosted by the "Voice of the Flyers" Larry Hansgen.

IN THE COMMUNITY

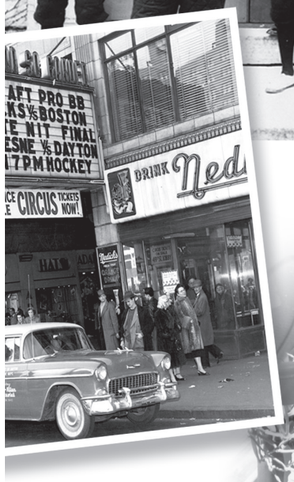

THE BOND RUNS DEEP

The bond between the Flyers and the Dayton metropolitan area is very special. Every fall, Dayton student-athletes and coaches pack into cars to help serve food to the community during the holidays.

UD LEGENDS

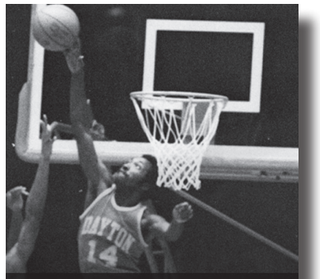

Where it all began. The University's first basketball team in 1903-04.

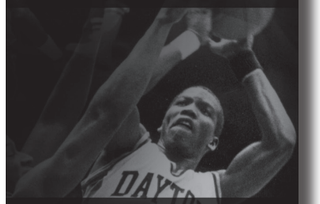

The marquee outside of the old Madison Square Garden advertises the 1955 NIT Championship game between Dayton and Duquesne.

One of UD's most prolific rebounders, Ryan Perryman led the nation in rebounding as a senior in 1998.

Johnny Davis jumped from UD to the NBA, winning a championship with Portland his first season. Following his playing career, he was Philadelphia's head coach during Allen Iverson's rookie season and is now an assistant coach for the Memphis Grizzlies.

With 2,233 career points, Roosevelt Chapman is the Flyers' all-time leading scorer. He led the Flyers on a remarkable NCAA run his senior season, scoring 105 points in UD's four-game run to the Elite Eight.

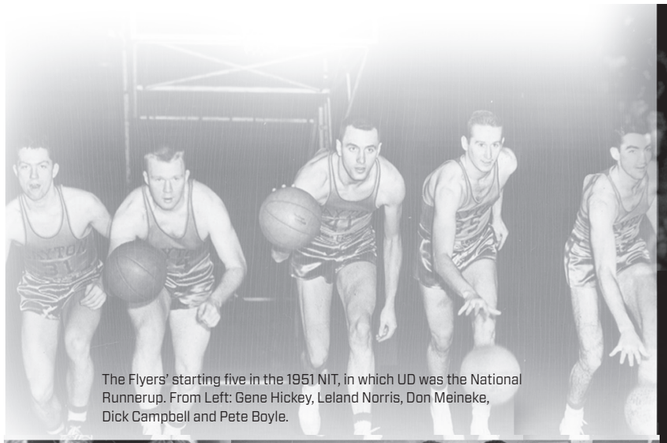

After playing for UD, Bucky Bockhorn teamed with Oscar Robertson in the Cincinnati Royals backcourt. He has since provided color commentary for UD basketball on the radio for nearly 30 years.

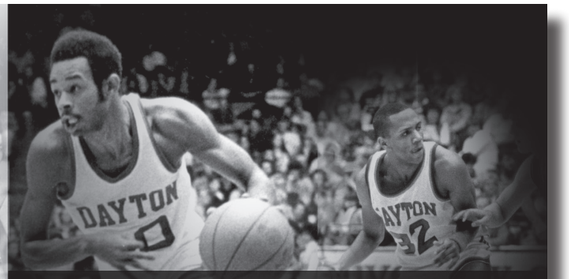

UD's three-time All-Atlantic 10 performer, Brian Roberts was a finalist for the Wooden, Naismith, Cousy, and Lowes Senior CLASS Awards. He ended his career fourth on the UD All-Time Scoring List with 1,962 points.

Mike Kanieski was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-America and stands as UD's 12th-leading scorer with 1,642 points.

The Flyers' starting five in the 1951 NIT, in which UD was the National Runnerup. From Left: Gene Hickey, Leland Norris, Don Meineke, Dick Campbell and Pete Boyle.

Donald Smith's 52 points against Loyola-Chicago in 1973 is a UD record. Many still consider it one of the greatest collegiate performances in the history of Chicago Stadium.

Negele Knight set marks for assists in a career, season and game during his magical senior season.

UD's all-time winningest coach, Don Donoher led the Flyers to 437 wins between 1964 and 1989. He took UD to eight NCAA Tournaments, including three Sweet 16's and one Final Four. His 1968 squad won the NIT Championship.

NIT Champs. Tom Blackburn's Flyers beat St. John's in front of 16,037 at the Garden to win the 1962 title. From left, Bill Chmielewski, Garry Roggenburk, Blackburn, Tom Hatton, Harold Schoen, Gordie Hatton.

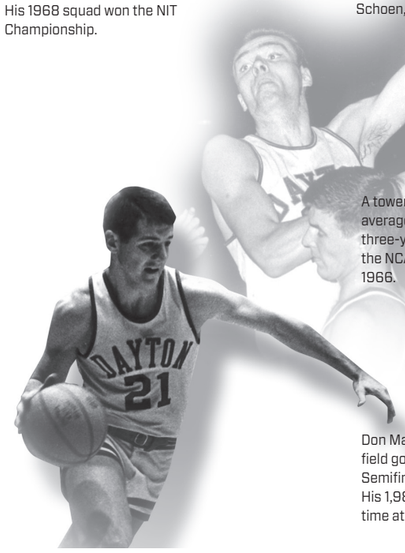

Not only was Don Meineke the first Flyer to score 1,000 points, he was the first Flyer drafted in the NBA and the NBA's first-ever Rookie of the Year.

Mike Sylvester won a gold medal while playing with Italy in the 1980 Olympics in Moscow.

UD's 1968 NIT Championship team won 14-straight games to end the season. The Flyers' beat West Virginia, Fordham, Notre Dame and Kansas to win the title.

A towering 7-footer, Hank Finkel averaged 23.7 points during his three-year career and led UD to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1965 and 1966.

Don May made 13-straight field goals in UD's 1967 NCAA Semifinal win over North Carolina. His 1,980 points is second all-time at UD.

The Flyer Faithful storm the court after the Flyers' 2003 Atlantic 10 Championship win at UD Arena.

FIRST CLASS FACILITIES

THE CRONIN ATHLETICS CENTER

In the summer of 2011, the University of Dayton made another major investment in its facilities and its student-athletes.

Renovations began on May 10, 2011 to create new offices, meeting spaces, film rooms and technology suites for UD's most prominent programs – men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball.

In the last ten years, UD has invested $35 million in its athletics facilities ($29 million coming from private donations and corporate support). The on-campus home for every Flyer varsity team has been either newly constructed or renovated in that time.

The Cronin Athletics Center is named for Tom and Mike Cronin, whose generosity allowed the University of Dayton Division of Athletics move forward with the project. Tom is the President and CEO of Dayton Freight, a company he founded in 1981. Mike is the Executive Vice-President of Dayton Freight. The Cronins and Dayton Freight are long-time supporters of UD Athletics.

THE DONOHER CENTER

The Donoher Basketball Center, named for UD's winningest basketball coach Don Donoher, is a state-of-the-art structure that elevates both the University of Dayton's men's and women's basketball programs to the next level.

Technology is at the very core of the Center's distinctiveness. An ESPN-style, six-screen theater wall just inside the entrance make it crystal clear from the initial impression that UD understands the necessity of bringing current technology to bear on competitive performance.

One of UD's most prominent alumni, high-tech entrepreneur John McHale and his wife Christine Mattsson, contributed more than a third of the Center's $4.3 million cost. The name is a nod to the past; the Center itself is clear evidence of the University's intention to stake out a leadership position at the intersection of college basketball and technology to propel the Flyers to a championship performance.

THE SETTING

A BEAUTIFUL PLACE

UD is a beautiful place, according to the American Society of Landscape Architects that tapped UD as one of the most significant campus sites in the country. Just 22 campuses made the final list. Other Centennial Medal winners included the U.S. Capitol grounds, New York's Central Park, and San Francisco's Ghiradelli Square.

UD also was named one of the top "schools with the most beautiful campus in an urban setting" in the 2004 edition of The Unofficial, Unbiased Guide to the 328 Most Interesting Colleges from Kaplan Publishing.

FIRST-RATE ACADEMICS

- The University of Dayton is ranked as a top-tier national university and one of the best Catholic universities in the nation, according to U.S. News & World Report's "America's Best Colleges" issue.
- The University of Dayton is ranked at 115 in a five-way tie. The magazine also listed the University of Dayton among its "A+ Schools for B Students." This is the third year in a row the University of Dayton made this list of schools that the magazine says deserve a closer look.
- In other recent rankings, The Princeton Review's 2013 edition of The Best 377 Colleges lists the University of Dayton as one of the top institutions for undergraduate education in the country, noting that UD takes the Marianist values of "intense education, strong community and deep faithfulness and wraps (them) into a fun place to be." The University of Dayton ranked 10th in the nation in the category, "Their Students Love These Colleges, and in the top 20 (16th) for "Happiest Students."
- The University of Dayton also is recognized nationally for its innovative programs for student entrepreneurs. The Princeton Review and Entrepreneur magazine have ranked the entrepreneurship program as one of the top-20 programs in the nation the past seven years.
- Earlier this year, U.S. News & World Report's ranking of legal writing programs listed the University of Dayton School of Law 21st in the nation.

FIFTH SEASON
NC STATE '02

The University of Dayton selected one of the top young assistant coaches in the country to be its new men's basketball coach, naming Ryan "Archie" Miller in April 2011.

Miller, 37, came to UD from the University of Arizona where as Associate Head Coach he helped the Wildcats to a 30-8 season in 2010-11 that ended with an Elite Eight berth.

Miller now has another Elite Eight run under his belt: This time as Head Coach at the University of Dayton as he guided the Flyers to the Regional Finals in 2014. Miller has led Dayton to back-to-back NCAA appearances, an NCAA Elite Eight and has five NCAA tournament wins in his first four years as the Flyers' Head Coach.

The Beaver Falls, Pa. native was at Arizona from 2009-11, where his brother Sean is head coach. After going 16-15 in 2009-10, the Wildcats had the biggest turnaround of any top program in the country, improving by 14 wins to 30-8 in 2010-11.

In just eleven years in the coaching profession, Miller has been able to coach in the ACC, the Big Ten and the Pac 10 while working in some of the nation's most fertile recruiting grounds in the East, Midwest and West. His wide range of responsibilities at all of his coaching stops has allowed him to learn from three of the most-respected coaches in the country while developing contacts from coast-to-coast. Every one of these experiences has prepared him to be a Division I head coach.

"Archie Miller is the right guy for this time at the University of Dayton," said former UD Vice-President and Director of Athletics Tim Wabler. "He is someone who embraces building on what has come before and getting us annually in the NCAA Tournament. He has a tremendous basketball pedigree and is well-respected at the highest levels of the game.

"He is a great fit for the University of Dayton, and it became clear as our search progressed that he was our man."

Miller knows all about Dayton basketball.

"I have always had great respect for the Dayton Flyer basketball program, the University of Dayton, and the Dayton community, and even more respect for how they are so intertwined," Miller said. "It is so special."

"I don't take lightly for one second the opportunity or responsibility in front of me," he added. "Our program is one of the rare programs that stacks up with any in terms of the total package of athletics, academics and community support."

Miller is regarded as a top recruiter – Arizona's 2011 recruits were a Top 10 class – and game strategist – he was the architect of Arizona's upset of eighth-ranked Texas to get them to the Sweet 16.

That really shouldn't be a surprise. Basketball is the family business. Archie and Sean both played high school basketball for their father John at Blackhawk High School. John was one of the country's top high school coaches when he retired in 2005, with 657 wins in a 35-year coaching career. Archie, Sean and their sister Lisa all played Division I college basketball.

Archie and Sean Miller are one of just four Division I head coaching brother combinations. Bill Herrion (New Hampshire) and Tom Herrion (Marshall), Joe Jones (Boston) and James Jones (Yale), Dave Wojcik (San Jose State) and Doug Wojcik (Charleston), Scott Drew (Baylor) and Bryce Drew (Valpariaso) are the other Division I head coaching brother combinations. Archie and Sean Miller are the first brothers to coach different teams in the NCAA Tournament in the same season (2014).

Archie was a four-year letterwinner at North Carolina State (1998-2002). A point guard with an excellent shooting touch, he is second at NC State in career FT% (.846, 165-195) and career 3-pt. FG% (.429, 218-509), and is third in career threes (218). As a senior, he helped lead the Wolfpack to the finals of the ACC championship game and was named to the all-tournament team. That season was coach Herb Sendek's first NCAA team at NC State. When his playing days were over, Miller began his coaching career at North Carolina State, serving as a coaching intern under Sendek in 2002-03. Miller then went to Western Kentucky as a full-time member of Darrin Horn's staff for one season.
He returned to NC State, first as Director of Basketball Operations (2004-05), and then as a full-time assistant coach (2005-06). When Sendek went to Arizona State in 2006-07, Miller remained on his coaching staff before joining Thad Matta at Ohio State for two seasons (2007-09).

As a coach, he has been part of 20-plus win and NCAA seasons at NC State (2005-06), Ohio State (2008-09), Arizona (2010-11), and Dayton (2013-14).

Miller earned his bachelor's degree in Parks, Recreation and Tourism from NC State in 2002. He and his wife Morgan have a 10-year-old daughter, Leah.

The 19th coach in Dayton history, Miller is just the sixth Flyer coach in the last 68 years.

ASSISTANT COACH

FIFTH SEASON AT UD
NOTRE DAME '96

KEVIN KUWIK

ASSISTANT COACH | NOTRE DAME '96

Kevin Kuwik joined the Dayton Flyer basketball staff as an assistant coach after being hired in April 2011.

"I am so excited to add Kevin to our staff here at the University of Dayton," Miller said. "He brings tremendous character, and knowledge of what it takes to be successful to our program. The winning environments he has been in, the coaches he's worked for, and the players he's impacted will help us create that culture of excellence we are after."

Kuwik comes to Dayton from Ohio State, where he served as the team's video coordinator. Kuwik, 40, brings 18 years of collegiate coaching and administrative experience to the Dayton basketball program. Prior to being part of Thad Matta's staff at OSU, he was Director of Basketball Operations at Butler under Brad Stevens for one season.

"This is an amazing opportunity for me, both to work for coach Miller and to be at a place that has such great passion for its basketball team," Kuwik said. "I look forward to helping coach Miller recruit great people and players, to developing them on and off the court, and of course, to prepare our team to win."

Before Butler, Kuwik was a full-time assistant at Ohio University from 2001-08, taking an 18-month leave of absence during 2004-05 to serve with the 113th Engineer Battalion of the Indiana National Guard in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. He used leave time to return to the Bobcat bench and help OU win the 2005 Mid-American Conference tournament championship and reach the NCAA's. During his time in Athens, the Bobcats were 120-95 with two post-season appearances.

Kuwik began his coaching career in 1998 at Christian Brothers University in Memphis, Tenn. In his two seasons there, the Buccaneers improved from 3-22 to 12-14. He then went to Saint Michael's College just outside Burlington, Vermont. He helped the Purple Knights to the best season in school history, finishing with a 27-4 record and the No. 3 ranking in the year's final NCAA Division II poll.

A native of Lackawanna, New York, Kuwik attended the University of Notre Dame, where he served as a student assistant under former NBA coach John MacLeod for three seasons. Kuwik graduated summa cum laude from Notre Dame with a Mechanical Engineering degree in 1996. In his final year in South Bend he was Senior Class President.

Kuwik was also a Distinguished Military Graduate in Notre Dame's Army ROTC program. He was able to serve 10 years in the military as he began his coaching career. While serving in Iraq, he earned a Bronze Star for meritorious service (the Army's highest merit award). He received an honorable discharge from the military in 2006.

ASSISTANT COACH

FIFTH SEASON AT UD
SYRACUSE '01

ALLEN GRIFFIN

ASSISTANT COACH | SYRACUSE '01

Allen Griffin enters his fifth season on the University of Dayton men's basketball staff. Griffin has 15 years experience in Division I basketball, including four seasons as a standout point guard at Syracuse University.

"Allen is extremely talented, not only as a coach, but as a role model," UD Head Coach Archie Miller said. "He really fits into our basketball program's mission of the total development of our players, as well as the mentoring of young people as it relates to the University of Dayton as a whole. We are extremely excited to add him to our staff and look forward to his making an impact immediately."

Griffin captained the Orangemen as a senior in 2000-01, when he averaged 10.8 points and 6.5 assists, ranking seventh all-time in school history for assists in a season. He had 409 assists in his career. Griffin played 133 games for the Orangemen and was a part of four NCAA Tournament teams. His Orange teams combined for a 98-36 record in that span (a .731 winning percentage).

After graduating from Syracuse in 2001, Griffin played professionally in Slovenia for a year, and worked as a teacher and girls basketball coach at Christian Brothers Academy for one season. In 2003, he returned to Syracuse to work on Jim Boeheim's staff as an administrative assistant. After two years in that position, he took an assistant coaching position at St. Francis (NY) for the 2005-06 campaign.

Following his first year at St. Francis, Griffin coached at Providence for two seasons before returning to St. Francis for another two years. Last year, he coached at Hofstra under former Flyer assistant coach Mo Cassara, helping the Dutchmen to a 21-12 record and a return to the post season.

His responsibilities at his coaching stops have included recruiting, on-court coaching, travel planning, scheduling, game preparation and assisting in monitoring academics.

"I feel very fortunate and honored to be a part of coach Miller's staff here at the University of Dayton and I'll work my hardest to continue to add to our great basketball tradition," Griffin said. "I played in the Arena during the NCAA tournament and it was an unbelievable atmosphere. Everyone I've talked to about coming here has had nothing but great things to say about Dayton basketball and I'm excited to be a part of it."

A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., Griffin attended Paul Robeson High School, where he earned high school All-America honors as a senior in 1996-97.

ASSISTANT COACH

FIFTH SEASON AT UD
MINNESOTA '97

In 2011, Tom Ostrom joined the Flyer staff as an assistant coach after serving as an assistant coach at the University of Arkansas.

"We are really excited and fortunate to have Tom become a part of our program," Miller said. "There are very few people in this business who combine his level of experience, talent as a recruiter, and unmatched work ethic. Tom is going to add tremendous value to our program. He is someone our players will relate to and he will be invaluable in their total development."

"I'm honored to be able work here at the University of Dayton, a place known across the country for its great tradition, fan base, and support," Ostrom said. "I'm very grateful for the opportunity to join coach Miller and be a part of such a talented and energetic staff."

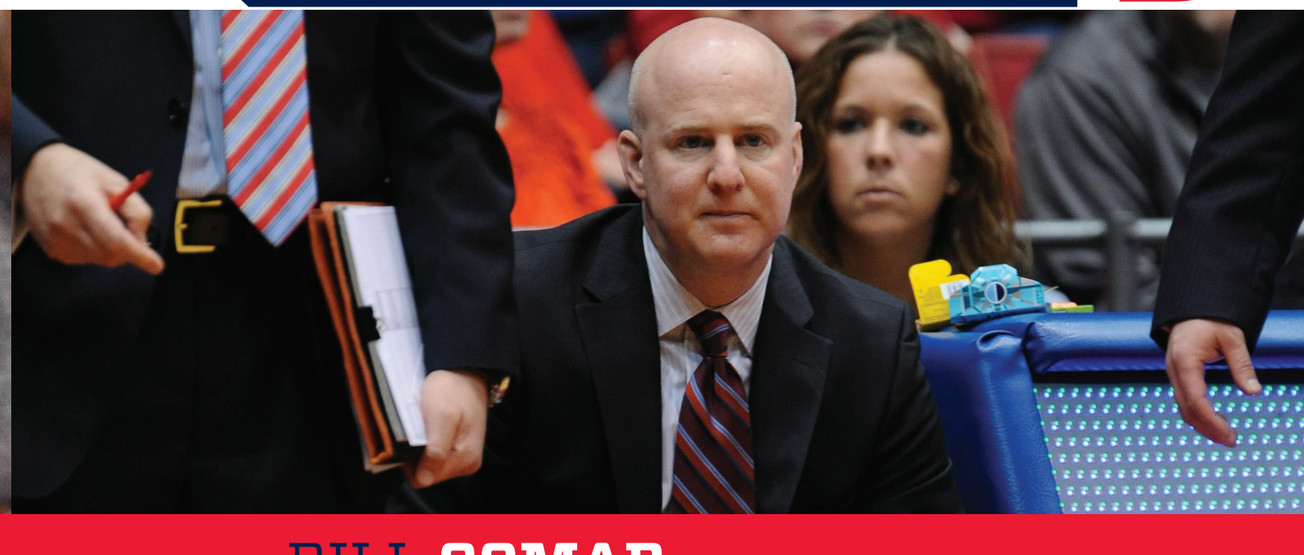

Ostrom spent four seasons at Arkansas on John Pelphrey's staff. The Razorbacks were 69-59 in those years with one NCAA appearance. Ostrom played a key role in recruiting the seventh-rated class in the country to Fayetteville this season.

Ostrom also was Pelphrey's right-hand man in the three seasons before coaching at Arkansas. Ostrom was with Pelphrey at South Alabama from 2004-2007. USA played in the NCAA and NIT after enjoying the largest turnaround in college basketball in 2006, going from 10 wins in 2004-05 to 24 wins and the Sun Belt title in 2005-06.

Prior to joining Pelphrey's staff at USA, Ostrom spent seven seasons under Billy Donovan at Florida, the first five as administrative assistant/video coordinator (1998-2002) and the final two as an assistant coach (2003-04). While he was at Florida, the Gators played in the NCAA Tournament the last six years, advanced to the Sweet 16 twice and reached the NCAA championship game in 2000.

A 1997 University of Minnesota graduate with a degree in Sports Management and Human Development, Ostrom worked in the Golden Gopher men's basketball program as an undergrad while Clem Haskins was there. He prepped at Bethlehem Academy in Faribault, Minn.

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPS

BILL COMAR

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS | KENYON '93

FIFTH SEASON AT UD
KENYON '93

Bill Comar, a former assistant coach at Loyola University, was one of the first hires by coach Archie Miller to be the director of basketball operations when Miller was named coach at the University of Dayton.

Comar is returning to the Hilltop for the second time. He worked on Oliver Purnell's staff at UD from 1997-2001, two years as an assistant and two as director of operations.

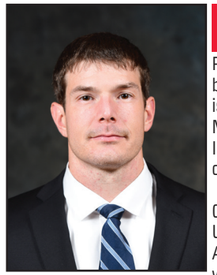

He then was director of operations for seven years at Xavier under Thad Matta and Sean Miller, Archie's older brother.

Comar worked one season in 2008-09 at Loyola before becoming the director of strategic development for Pro Camps Worldwide, an international event management company which assists professional athletes with the development of their personal sports camps and related events. Prior to his first stint at Dayton, the Wilmette, Ill. native was on staff at Miami (Oh.) for four years as basketball administrative assistant and academic advisor.

In 18 years at the college level, Comar's teams have reached the postseason 14 times.

Before attending Kenyon College, he played on the New Trier High School team that advanced to the Elite Eight in the Illinois State tournament. He played three seasons at Kenyon and graduated magna cum laude in 1993 with a B.A. in Psychology and a minor in Sociology. He received his M.S. in Sport Studies from Miami in 1995.

SUPPORT STAFF

PATRICK O'NEAL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Patrick O'Neal is in his first season with Dayton and brings many things to the table for the Flyers, as he is certified by U.S.A. Weightlifting and is a Functional Movement Systems Specialist. Patrick is also part of the International Sports Science Association where he is certified as a Sports Nutrition Specialist.

O'Neal comes to the University of Dayton from the University of Tennessee where he served as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach. Before working for the Vols, he was the Director of Strength and Conditioning at Union College. He worked for the University of Cincinnati as a Strength and Conditioning Graduate Assistant, before working for Union College. Patrick started his collegiate strength and conditioning career at the University of Tennessee where he was a Strength and Conditioning Intern.

O'Neal played three years of football and tennis at Union College where he won the 2006 and 2007 Mid-South Conference Championships in tennis. After Graduating he played football overseas in Berlin where his team won the 2009 German National Championship and the 2010 Euro Bowl Championship.

MIKE MULCAHEY ATHLETIC TRAINER

Mike Mulcahey is in his third year as a member of the University of Dayton's Sports Medicine staff. He comes to UD from Xavier University, where he was a Clinical Coordinator and faculty member in the school's athletic training degree program for the last three years.

Prior to that Mulcahey was an assistant athletic trainer at Xavier from 1999 to 2010, serving as the primary trainer for the men's basketball program. He is an examiner for the NATABOC exam, American Red Cross First Aid and CPR Instructor, and Disaster Response Services Volunteer.

He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, Ohio Athletics Trainers' Association, the Great Lakes Athletic Trainers' Association, the College Athletic Trainers' Society and is the current President of the Greater Cincinnati Athletic Trainers' Association.
Mulcahey earned his bachelor's in athletic training from Xavier in 1996, and his master's in athletic training from Western Michigan University in 1998.

Mulcahey and his wife, Emily have two sons – Patrick and Ryan – and reside in Cincinnati.

BETH FLACH ACADEMIC COORDINATOR

Beth Flach was added to the University of Dayton staff as an Athletic Academic Coordinator on July 19, 2006. Flach came to Dayton from Indiana State University where she served as the Assistant Athletics Academic Coordinator for five years.

Flach serves as the Academic Coordinator for the Flyers men's and women's basketball teams while assisting with the academic needs of all UD student-athletes.

Flach has been a member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics since 2001 and was a committee chair for two years beginning in 2004. She has also been active with Big Brothers/Big Sisters for the past five years.

At Indiana State, Flach monitored the academic progress of over 300 student athletes from 15 athletic teams. She was also responsible for coordinating a mentoring program for freshman, transfers and academically at-risk student-athletes as well as organizing all aspects of the school's academic enrichment program. Prior to this role, Flach also served as an Academic Advising Intern where she taught a first year experience course and mentored student athletes from various athletic teams.

Flach also spent time at Central Michigan University from 1999-2000 where she worked in the Athletic Academic Center and as a Graduate Student Administrative Assistant.

Flach graduated in 1998 with a Bachelor of Arts in Criminology from Capital University where she also played volleyball for three seasons. The Crusaders were Ohio Athletic Conference Champions during her junior season and she was a team captain as a senior.

DOUG HAUSCHILD DIRECTOR OF MEDIA RELATIONS

Although Doug Hauschild was the head coach for fast-pitch softball at the University of Dayton from 1981 to 1983 and still holds the school record for career winning percentage, Doug has made his mark by recording history instead of making it. As the Director of Media Relations for the Division of Athletics, he serves as the primary sports contact for the football and men's basketball programs, as well as the coordinator for the UD Athletics Hall of Fame.

He has worked on the CoSIDA Academic All-America Committee since June 1993, but has truly made his mark as a gameday host. Hauschild has served the Media Coordinator for 72 NCAA Men's and Women's Basketball Tournament games at UD Arena since taking over as SID in 1982. Hauschild is also a part of the NCAA media advisory committee.

Hauschild was part of a tournament hosting team at Dayton that made NCAA men's basketball history in March 2001 by hosting 10 postseason games in eight days at UD Arena, a feat never-before done in college basketball. Other venues have hosted NCAA and NIT in the same year, but no venue or school had ever done so simultaneously. UD was host to nine NCAA teams between the Opening, First and Second Rounds as well as games of the National Invitational Tournament.

Hauschild was honored at the 2009 CoSIDA Convention by being named that year's Bob Kenworthy Award winner for his service in the community. In 2012, Hauschild was honored with the Atlantic 10's Bob Vetrone Award for outstanding media service in a vote conducted by the league's sports information directors. He is the second UD media member to ever receive the award (Bucky Bockhorn, 2010).

In 2013, Hauschild was also part of the NCAA Tournament hosting team at UD Arena that became the first site ever to host 10 NCAA Tournament games in any year (four First Four games, six Second and Third Round Games).

More than 40 former student workers in the Dayton Athletics Communication Office have gone on to careers in the sport industry at the college or professional levels.

BIOGRAPHY

2014-15
Played in all 36 games during his freshman season, scoring 172 points (4.8 ppg) in 673 minutes (18.7 mpg). Led the Atlantic 10 in three-point shooting. Shot 45.2% from beyond the arc, converting 47-of-104 three-pointers.

Scored a career-high 19 points versus Boston on 6-of-7 shooting from the field and a perfect 5-of-5 from beyond the arc. Recorded 15 points on 5-of-7 shooting from beyond the three-point line against Oklahoma in the NCAA Tournament Third Round.

Earned the teams' Thomas M. Luppe Award, which is awarded to the first-year player on the team who best demonstrates the courage, desire and integrity of former Flyer freshman Tom Luppe. In games in which Davis made at least two 3-pointers, the Flyers went 10-2 as a team.

Darrell Davis is a 6-4, 168 lbs. combo-guard from Frederick Douglass High School in Detroit, MI. Davis was the Flyers' first commitment for the class of 2014 for UD head coach Archie Miller when Davis committed after making his official visit to UD. He is ranked 112 overall for the class of 2014 by Rivals.com and is ranked as the 24th best shooting guard and 5th best player in Michigan for his class by ESPN.com.

Scouts describe Davis as an athletic and aggressive combo-guard that can score and get his teammates involved with his ability to penetrate and his excellent court vision. He competes on both ends of the floor and attacks the rim and finishes well through contact for a guard his size.

Davis is coming off of a senior season where he was named the AP Class B Player of the Year, Class B All-State, and finished 5th in Mr. Basketball for Michigan as he led Detroit Douglass to their first regional title since 2010. He is Detroit Douglass' all-time leading scorer with over 1,400 points. As a senior, Davis averaged 24.7 points, 6.7 rebounds, and 4.2 assists per game.

As a junior, Davis averaged 20.2 points and 5.5 assists. He was also named to the AP Class B All-Michigan team as a junior as he led Detroit Douglass to the Regional Finals. Davis fielded recruiting offers from teams in the Big Ten, Big East, ACC and Big 12.

Davis not only excels on the court but in the classroom as well. He was his high school's class valedictorian while sporting a 4.0 GPA. Davis earned the 2013-14 Detroit Public School League Proud Strong Learner of the Year award. He collected three Proud Strong Learner of the Week honors in his high school career.

BIOGRAPHY

Kyle Davis is one of three co-captains for the 2015-16 season after establishing himself as one of the top defenders in the country. When Davis would check into a game he was often assigned to defend the other team's top perimeter scorer. He has been matched-up against players such as '14-15 Big East Player of the Year from Providence Kris Dunn, Boston College's Olivier Hanlan, Ole Miss' Marshall Henderson, Saint Louis' Jordair Jett, Cal's Justin Cobb, and Saint Joseph's' Langston Galloway.

Davis has been named the UD Best Defender Award in each of his two seasons in the Flyer uniform.

The Flyers will be counting on Davis' relentless defense and an improving perimeter game during his junior campaign if the Flyers are to have a successful 2015-16 season.

2014-15
Davis started all 36 games for the Flyers during the 2014-15 season, earning the team's Best Defender Award for the second consecutive season. Ranked second on the Flyers in both steals (53) and blocks (17) while scoring a total of 255 points (7.1 ppg) and dishing out 88 assists (2.4 apg).

He forced the Big East's Player of the Year, Kris Dunn, of Providence into 4-of-13 shooting and seven turnovers in the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. Held Boston College Wooden Award nominee Olivier Hanlan to 10 points (0-9 from three) in the Puerto Rico Tip-Off, Ole Miss marksman Stefan Moody to 2-for-11 from the field and six points, and Richmond's Kendall Anthony to just nine points, half his scoring average in league play.

2013-14
Kyle Davis played in 35 games during his freshman season with totals of 239 minutes played (6.8 mpg), 70 points (2.0 ppg), 20 assists (0.6 apg) and 17 steals (0.5 spg). Davis was the team's best defensive player as he earned the Team's Best Defender Award.

Davis found himself on SportsCenter's Top 10 plays twice this season as he found Jordan Sibert for the game-winner against IPFW in his collegiate debut and he had a highlight reel dunk against Cal.

Against St. Francis (Pa), Davis scored four points on a perfect 2-of-2 from the field and had two steals. At Georgia Tech, he tallied three points and had one steal.

Versus Cal in the Maui Invitational Third Place game, Davis scored a career-high 12 points on 4-of-6 shooting from the field and swiped two steals. At home vs. Murray State, he recorded six points on 3-of-5 shooting and had one steal.

Against Winthrop, Davis tallied four points and hauled in two rebounds. At George Mason he scored five points and dished out two assists. At Saint Joseph's Davis netted five points and snagged two rebounds.

At No. 17 Saint Louis, Davis tallied four points and hauled in two rebounds. Against Stanford in the Sweet 16, he netted three points and dished out two assists. Davis tallied three points vs. Florida in the Elite Eight.

HIGH SCHOOL
Kyle Davis became the first recruit in the class of 2013 for UD head coach Archie Miller when Davis committed in August of 2012. The 6-foot-2 left-handed combo guard averaged 21 points, six rebounds, five assists and three steals as a senior at Morgan Park. He transferred to Morgan Park for his senior season after playing at Hyde Park Academy.

Davis earned All-City First Team, Southtown Star First Team, All-Area, All-State and Team MVP honors as a senior at Morgan Park.

Davis led Morgan Park to the 3A State Title in Illinois with a 63-48 victory over Cahokia. Davis scored 10 points, grabbed 7 rebounds and dished out three assists in the championship game. It was Morgan Park's first state championship since 1976.

Morgan Park Coach, Nick Irvin, stated that "as soon as Kyle walked in the door we were going to be state champions." Irvin is referencing Davis' transfer to Morgan Park prior to his senior year, and said that Davis "was a catalyst in the title run."

The City/Suburban Hoops Report describes Davis as a "blur in the open court, explosive in transition and a big-time finisher for his size. A consistent perimeter jumper is all that's missing for the tough-minded Davis."

PRIOR TO UD

Charles Cooke sat out the 2014-15 season due to NCAA transfer rules. He comes to Dayton by the way of James Madison.

At James Madison, Cooke played 62 games, logging 1,781 minutes while starting 40 of those games. He scored 15 points in JMU's First Four victory over LIU-Brooklyn last year in Dayton, Ohio. He followed that up with a then-career high of 18 in the second round against Indiana University.

He played a pivotal role in JMU's offense, especially in the first half of the season while sophomore guard Andre Nation served his 15-game suspension. At times, Cooke was the only person who could consistently score. He averaged 14.3 points per game this season, accruing a career high on Dec. 14 when he netted 25 at High Point University.

Cooke finished his two years with 613 points (9.9 per game). He was named to the Third Team All-Colonial Athletic Association in Baltimore prior to this year's tournament.

HIGH SCHOOL

Steve McElvene is a 6-11, 260 lbs. true center from New Haven High School in New Haven, IN. McElvene practiced during the 2014-15 season, but was not able to play after being ruled as a partial qualifier by the NCAA, he will begin his four years of eligibility at the start of the 2015-16 season.

McElvene is originally from Indiana but had lived in Alabama for several years before moving back to the Hoosier State and enrolling in New Haven High School. ESPN.com rates McElvene as the 40th best center and the ninth best player in the state of Indiana for the class of 2014.

McElvene's stock rose during the summer of 2013 after played on a talented Spiece Indy Heat AAU team that featured two top 25 prospects. He chose Dayton over offers from teams in the ACC and Big 12.

McElvene is a true big that has great hands around the rim, rebounds well, and is an excellent defender in the post. He won't venture far from the post, but he does not have to. He can alter the game on both sides of the ball with his length, his ability to alter shots on the defensive end, and his scoring touch around the basket.

As a senior, McElvene averaged 17 points, 10 rebounds and four blocks per game as he helped New Haven High win their second consecutive Northeast Hoosier Conference Championship. McElvene was First-Team All-Conference and was Honorable Mention All-State as a senior.

As a junior at New Haven, McElvene averaged 10 points and eight rebounds, but erupted in the post-season to lead New Haven to its first sectional championship since 1996. After winning the sectional, McElvene had 39 points, 33 rebounds, and 10 blocked shots in two regional games.

BIOGRAPHY

Scoochie Smith returns for the Flyers for his junior campaign in 2015-16. After proving that he has the ability to find open teammates and take care of the basketball, Smith showed he could fill up the stat sheet with points as well, averaging just under ten points per game (9.8) and shooting 41% from the field and 38% from beyond the arc.

Smith pushes the offensive tempo and represents the way the Flyers want to play basketball: Fast and Fearless. Dayton will be relying on Smith to continue to lead the offense during the 2015-16 campaign.

2014-15
Smith started all 36 games for the Flyers during the 2014-15 campaign, Averaging 9.2 points per game, good enough for the fourth best mark on the team.

Led the team in assists (138, 3.8 apg) and maintained a 1.9:1 assist-to-turnover ratio. Ranked second on the team in free-throw percentage at 75.5% and shot 38% from beyond the arc (41-of-108). Averaged 12.7 points in the NCAA Tournament as he tallied 11 points against both Boise State and Providence and recorded 16 points vs. Oklahoma.

Played 117 of a possible 120 minutes in the NCAA Tournament.

Smith was the winner of the Dr. George Rau Spirit Award, which is given annually to the player who displays true team spirit, on and off the court, and also received the Uhl Family Endowed Scholarship, given to the player who best exemplifies the qualities of good sportsmanship and character, and follows the University's creed of "Learn, Lead and Serve" on and off the court.

2013-14
Scoochie Smith saw action in all 37 of UD's games during the 2013-14 season. Smith totaled 641 minutes (17.3 mpg) and scored 132 points (3.6 ppg) and was second on the team in assists with 73 (2.0 apg). He had an assist to turnover ratio of 1.8:1 (73 assists to 41 turnovers). Smith's assist to turnover ratio was tops on the team. He also ranked third on the team in steals with 27.

Smith scored five points, dished out three assists and swiped two steals versus St. Francis (NY). In the following game at Georgia Tech, Smith swiped a career-high four steals and dished out five assists to go along with three points.

He scored nine points on 3-of-4 shooting and corralled three rebounds at Illinois State. Versus Iona, Smith tallied nine points and dished out three assists. At Ole Miss, Smith scored a career-high 11 points on 4-of-9 shooting and added four rebounds and two assists.

He tallied five points and dished out three assists at Rhode Island. At home versus Rhode Island, Smith netted nine points on a perfect 4-of-4 from the field and hauled in two rebounds. At Saint Louis, he recorded six points, three assist, two rebounds and one block.

In the NCAA Tournament, Smith tallied five points and three assists against both Syracuse and Stanford. In the Elite Eight versus Florida, he netted five points and dished out two assists.

HIGH SCHOOL
The second member of Archie Miller's 2013 recruiting class to be ranked in the top 125 nationally is 6-foot-2 point guard Dayshon "Scoochie" Smith. A native of the Bronx, Smith is ranked the 106th prospect in the nation by Rivals. ESPN ranks Smith as the fifth best player out of the state of New York for the class of 2013. He transferred to Putnam Science Academy in Putnam, Ct. after his high school in New York City closed.

Smith was invited to play in the Jordan Brand Regional All-Star game after his senior season at Putnam Science Academy, which was held at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, New York. Smith tallied a double-double of 11 points, 11 assists and six rebounds, but his team fell 114-102. Smith is the first UD recruit to play in a Jordan Brand All-Star game since Chris Wright did it in 2007.

Smith led his PSA squad to a 22-8 record during his senior season while averaging 18.8 points, 3.6 rebounds and 7.3 assists per game. He shot 51% from the field and 40% from beyond the three-point line. Smith was named to the All-Northeast Connecticut First Team. PSA won the Northeast Prep Championship where Smith was named the MVP of the tournament.
Smith averaged 17.2 points and 6.1 assists as a junior for PSA, while shooting better than 40% from three-point range.

Smith is the first player ever for PSA to top 1,000 points in a high school career. He is the school's all-time assist leader (345) and steals (205) leader in just two years at the school. Smith also holds the single-game record for steals in a game with seven, which he accomplished five times.

Smith was named the No.1 recruit out of the state of Connecticut for 2013 by the New England Recruiting Report. ESPN recruiting analyst Adam Finkelstein says that Smith is "a high-major talent. He's got an instinctive feel for the game and is very, very smooth. With his ability to create off the dribble and shoot the ball, he's very versatile."

The signings of Davis and Smith give the Flyers their first two Top 125 recruits in the same class in school history.

#22 | BOBBY WEHRLI

6-6 | 198 | SENIOR | FORWARD

BIOGRAPHY

Bobby Wehrli enters his senior season with the Flyers.

Wehrli began his Dayton career as a walk-on, but earned significant time in the 2014-15 season and was rewarded a scholarship in the second semester of the year.

2014-15
Played in 29 games for the Flyers in his third season as a walk-on for the Flyers. Wehrli averaged 2.3 points and 2.1 rebounds per game, while also totaling nine blocks on the season and shooting 50% (12-for-24) from beyond the arc.

Recorded a career-high nine points against St. Bonaventure and played in three NCAA Tournament games, averaging 12.0 minutes per game.

2013-14
Wehrli appeared in three games during the 2013-14 season. He played one minute against Central Michigan and recorded a block. Versus Winthrop he played two minutes. Wehrli played one minute against Florida in the Elite Eight

2012-13
Bobby Wehrli joined the team mid-season during his freshman campaign as a walk-on. He did not see action during the 2012-13 season.

High School
Bobby Wehrli is a 6'6" forward who averaged 8.6 points, 7.1 rebounds and 2.7 assists a game during his senior year at Benet Academy. He was selected to both the Voyager Media and East Suburban Catholic Conference Senior All-Star games.

The Red Wings went 53-8 during his two-year stint on varsity. He played an instrumental role on Benet's 32-1 team that held the No. 1 ranking in Illinois for much of the 2010-11 season. That roster had two current Big Ten players, Wisconsin's Frank Kaminsky and Northwestern's Dave Sobolewski.

Wehrli's finest athletic accomplishment's happened off the basketball court. The high flyer was an All-State volleyball player, turning down scholarships to take his talents to basketball.

6-6 | 210 | JUNIOR | FORWARD

BIOGRAPHY

Kendall Pollard has established himself as a fearless leader for the Flyers in his two years in Dayton, and was named one of three co-captains for the 2015-16 season. Pollard has a high motor that never stops running. He attacks the rim with authority and can finish strong around the basket. Pollard also plays tough defense and recorded several highlight reel blocks in his freshman campaign.

Pollard made the jump into a larger role for UD in his sophomore season, seeing a major increase in his points, rebounds and minutes per game. At a 12.7 ppg average he is the top returning scorer for Dayton and will look to continue continue to improve now that he is an upperclassman.

2014-15
Pollard had a great sophomore season in which he earned the Atlantic 10 and team's Chris Daniels Most Improved Player Award for the season.

As a sophomore he started 27 of the 35 games he played in during the season, totaled 444 points and 116 rebounds in 1020 minutes of play, ranked third on the team in scoring (12.7 ppg), second in rebounding (5.3 rpg), first in field-goal percentage (.552) and ranked second in the A-10 in FG% in league play (.600, 87-145).

Improved his free throw percentage 30 points and led the A-10 in free throw rate. while he also tallied five games of 20 or more points and 24 games of scoring in double-figures, including a stretch from Jan. 17, 2015 to Mar. 3, 2015 where he scored in double-figures in 14-of-15 games.

Led the Flyers with 17 points in the NCAA Tournament First Four victory against Boise State.

One of three co-captains for the 2015-16 season.

2013-14
Kendall Pollard played in all 37 games as a freshman during the 2013-14 season. He totaled 316 minutes played (8.5 mpg) while scoring 83 points (2.2 ppg) and hauled in 47 rebounds (1.3 rpg). Pollard also ranked tied for fourth on the team in blocks with 11 and also swiped 11 steals. He shot 34-of-62 (.548) from the field, which ranked second in field goal percentage on the team.

Pollard scored his first points of the season in breakout fashion as he scored nine points on a perfect 4-of-4 shooting in a victory over No. 11 Gonzaga in the opener of the Maui Invitational. In the next game against Baylor, he scored four points, swatted away two shots, and swiped two steals.

Pollard netted six points and hauled in a career-high four rebounds verses Delaware State. He scored four points and had one steal at Illinois State. Versus USC, Pollard tallied seven points on 3-of-4 shooting and hauled in three rebounds.

Pollard scored five points, hauled in three rebounds and swiped two steals each in back-to-back games on the road versus Fordham and Richmond. At No. 17 Saint Louis, he netted nine points on 4-of-5 shooting and had a steal.

Pollard saved his best performance of the season for the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 match-up versus Stanford as Pollard scored a career-high 12 points on 5-of-6 shooting and hauled in two rebounds.

High School
Kendall Pollard is a 6-foot-5 forward who was a member of the 2011, 2012 and 2013 Illinois 4A State Championship teams at Simeon Career Academy and a teammate of Jabari Parker, the nation's No.2 ranked player. He scored 10 points and grabbed 9 rebounds in the Championship game as Simeon defeated Stevenson 58-40. Pollard helped Simeon to a 30-3 record during the 2012-13 season.

Pollard has a nearly 7-foot wingspan, and one recruiting service called him "a workhorse who is highly active around the basket. He has good instincts on the glass and a nice shooting touch in the paint area, which explains why he shoots at a high percentage. In addition, he gets out on the break well and is a hard-nosed defender who doesn't take plays off."

Pollard is also known as a shut down defender who will do whatever it takes for his team to win. He was often matched-up with the opposing teams' top player. Jabari Parker has said that Pollard is the toughest defender that he's ever faced.

The City/Suburban Hoops Report describes Pollard as "a player who steadily improved and climbed the rankings as he was given a bigger role and opportunity. Underrated athletically and for all that he brings to the table. A junk-yard dog who will guard and defend anyone, play physical, take a charge and finish around the basket. Teams win with players like Kendall Pollard."

Kendall Pollard is a three-star recruit who ESPN.com rates as the 43rd-best small forward in the country and the ninth best player out of the state of Illinois for the class of 2013.

ALABAMA A&M	52
DAYTON	76

GAME #1 - 11/14/14 - UD ARENA

The University of Dayton Flyers opened their 107th season of basketball by defeating the Alabama A&M Bulldogs 76-52 behind a balanced scoring attack. The home team had six players score nine or more points.

Darrell Davis and Dyshawn Pierre led the way with 17 and 16 points respectively. Pierre was six of six from the floor. Kyle Davis added 13.

This was the tenth consecutive win for the Flyers in season openers. Coach Archie Miller improves his career record in season openers to 4-0.

Despite having a significant height disadvantage inside, the Flyers were able to out-rebound the Bulldogs 40-27. Starting center Devon Scott just missed having a double-double with nine points and a career-high 12 rebounds. Pierre was a rebound away from his own double-double.

A few possessions later, Scott threw a full-court pass to Sibert for a two-hand slam. The Bulldogs tried to rally at the end, but Dayton would cruise the rest of the way to a 76-52 victory.

Alabama A&M 52 • 0-1

GAME #2 - 11/20/14 - COLISEO ROBERTO CLEMENTE

Devon Scott's tip in with 1.2 seconds left in regulation lifted the Dayton Flyers to a thrilling 55-53 victory over the Texas A&M Aggies.

Dyshawn Pierre led Dayton with 14 points. Kyle Davis added 10 for the Flyers (2-0), who were out-rebounded 48-25 for the game by the Aggies, including 24-4 on offense. Texas A&M didn't help itself, committing 21 turnovers that led to 20 Dayton points.

Davis, who had four steals in the first half, said he thinks the Flyers deep run in the NCAA tournament last season will help them today.

Alex Caruso led the Aggies with 17 points. Kourtney Roberson had 12 points and 15 rebounds.

Neither team built more than a six-point advantage in the second half and Dayton's Jordan Sibert connected on a pair of free throws to tie the game with less than a minute to play.

Play was sloppy on both sides during the first half, and neither team shot above 36 percent from the field.

The Aggies enjoyed a 28-10 rebounding edge at half and were up 8 at one point. But the Flyers were able to stay in the game thanks to 15 Texas A&M turnovers.

The Flyers improved to 2-0 on the season.

Dayton has now won nine of the last 11 against the SEC. The opening round win also improves Dayton's record to 8-2 all-time in exempt tournaments under coach Archie Miller.

UCONN	75
DAYTON	64

GAME #3 - 11/21/14 - COLISEO ROBERTO CLEMENTE

The Dayton men's basketball team came up just short in its bid for a trip to the Puerto Rico Tip-Off Championship with a 75-64 loss to No. 17 Connecticut Friday.

Through the first 20 minutes, there were five lead changes, five ties, and plenty of fast-paced action. The Flyers shot 53.8% from the floor while holding UConn to 43.8%. Jordan Sibert led the way for Dayton with 13 points on 4-of-7 shooting while Kendall Pollard provided 12 points, five rebounds, and a spark off the bench.

The second half was just as back-and-forth as the first half with both teams taking the lead only to have the other team counter. The Flyers led by as much as five at the 14:00 mark, but the nationally ranked Huskies battled back and took the lead with nine minutes remaining in the game. Dayton then found itself attempting a comeback and fought down to the wire.

In the end, No. 17 UConn held off the Flyer rally to advance to the title game.

Sibert had a team-high 18 points to go with four rebounds. Pollard added 15 points and seven boards while Pierre contributed a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds of his own. The Flyers shot 40.7% from the floor compared to UConn's 45.5%. Dayton managed to out-rebound the Huskies on both ends of the court with 14 offensive rebounds and 24 defensive rebounds.

GAME #4 - 11/23/14 - COLISEO ROBERTO CLEMENTE

Jordan Sibert had 20 points and Dyshawn Pierre added 16 as Dayton held off Boston College 65-53 in the third-place game at the Puerto Rico Tip-Off on Sunday.

Dayton (3-1) led for all but 50 seconds of the game, but had to scrap to hold onto their lead in the closing minutes.

The Flyers shot just 36 percent from the field in the second half, but forced 17 Boston College turnovers for the game. They also held the Eagles to just six field goals and 0 for 11 beyond the arc in the final 20 minutes.

Dayton coach Archie Miller said his team was "a work in progress" on offense, and it showed in a game in which the Flyers shot just 43 percent for the night.

Eddie Odio led Boston College with 11 points. Olivier Hanlan added 10.

In addition to their turnovers, the Eagles (2-3) struggled shooting the ball throughout the game, finishing at just 34 percent.

The Eagles tied it up for the final time at 47-47 with less than 10 minutes to play.

Dayton had eight assists on 12 field goals in the first half and led 34-27 at the break.

Sibert scored from several spots on the court and had 12 points in the half.

Boston College had 10 turnovers, but stayed close, scoring 18 points in the paint.

Dayton 65 • 3-1

CHICAGO	41
DAYTON	75

GAME #5 - 11/29/14 - UD ARENA

The University of Dayton men's basketball team took down the UIC Flames in an easy 75-41 victory.

Jordan Sibert led the Flyers with 22 points and was four-of six from three-point range. Devon Scott led in the rebound department for Dayton with an impressive 10 for the game. Scott had his first career double-double with 13 points and 10 boards.

UD took the lead for good on a Jorden Sibert three-pointer with 7:30 remaining in the first half. That ignited a 17-4 Flyer run closed out the half with Dayton having a 27-16 lead.

In the first 12 minutes of the half the Flyers extended their lead by going on a 26-8 run, including three straight threes by Sibert, Scoochie Smith and Kendall Pollard. UD led by as much as 38 at the 6:10 mark in the second half.

This game held milestone moments for a couple of other Dayton's players. Junior walk-on Bobby Wehrli had his first career points, knocking down a pair of free throws and scoring UD's last field goal of the game. Likewise, Ryan Bass scored his first points in a Dayton uniform (he played three seasons at and graduated from Oakland University) shortly after he entered the game in the first half. Bass had been sidelined due to injury for the first four games of the year.

UD lived up to its "True Team" moniker by having nine players score at least four points in the game, six players have at least three rebounds and five have at least three assists.

Dayton shot 50% from three-point range in the game (8-16). The Flyers made all nine of their second-half free throws to shoot 72.2% from the line (13-18) in the game.

It was the fewest points UD has given up in a game since December 17th, 2011 against Florida International when they scored only 40 against the Flyers.

GAME #6 - 12/3/14 - OXFORD, OHIO

Kendall Pollard matched his career-high with 15 points as the Dayton Flyers earned a hard-fought 66-62 road victory over the Miami RedHawks.

Devon Scott recorded his second straight double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds as Dayton won its third straight and improved to 5-1 overall.

Jordan Sibert added 11 points as the Flyers shot 43 percent from the field.

Once again UD's defense continued to excel forcing 17 turnovers. Dayton has not lost a game this year when allowing an opponent to score 70 or fewer points.

Dayton has now won seven of the last eight in the series with Miami that dates back to 1909.

GAME #9 - 12/13/14 - FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.

Jordan Sibert scored 18 points, but the Dayton Flyers dropped a 69-55 road decision to the Arkansas Razorbacks.

Kyle Davis added seven points and four assists, while Devon Scott added six points and eight rebounds. The Flyers fall to 7-2 overall and the loss snaps UD's five-game winning streak.

Dayton's offense could not get on track against the tough Razorback defense. UD shot 40 percent from the floor and committed 15 turnovers. Arkansas also shot 49 percent from the field and out-rebounded the Flyers 36-27.

Dayton is now 26-10 over the last eight seasons against the major five conferences.

GAME #10 - 12/20/14 - UD ARENA

Kendall Pollard and Darrell Davis paced the Flyers with career-highs of 19 points each as the University of Dayton men's basketball team defeated the Boston Terriers 78-62.

Pollard shot 7-of-13 from the field while Davis was 6-of-7 from the field including a perfect 5-of-5 from beyond the arc. Jordan Sibert and Scoochie Smith were the other Flyer in double-figures with 11 and 10 points respectively as Dayton improves to 8-2 on the season.

In addition to Pollard and Davis' career-highs in points, Smith set a career high with eight assists to go along with zero turnovers, and Bobby Wehrli set a career-high with four points in 21 minutes of action. Coming into the game, Wehrli had played just 16 minutes all season.

With just three players coming off the bench, Dayton dominated bench points 31-9. UD also forced the Terriers into 18 turnovers. Boston came into the game turning the ball over on average just 11.3 times per game.

The Flyers converted 11-of-23 (47.8%) shots from beyond the arc and 26-of-50 (52.0%) from the field. The 11 made threes for UD is a season-high. Dayton held Boston to 7-of-19 (36.8%) from the three.

The Dayton defense clamped down and held the Terriers scoreless for the next six minutes of the game. UD forced Boston into four missed field goals and two turnovers during that stretch as Dayton went on a 14-3 run to close the game.

GEORGIA TECH 61
DAYTON 75

GAME #11 - 12/23/14 - UD ARENA

A career-high 24 points from Jordan Sibert propelled the University of Dayton Flyers to a 75-61 victory over the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets Tuesday night at UD Arena. Dayton improved to 9-2 with the victory as Georgia Tech fell to 8-3.

Dayton used a strong outside shooting performance (10-of-18 from the three, 56%) while forcing Georgia Tech into just 4-of-20 (20%) from beyond the arc.

Dyshawn Pierre scored a season-high 19 points on 4-of-4 shooting from beyond the arc to join Sibert as the two Flyers in double-digits. Pierre also added six rebounds, three assists and three steals.

Kyle Davis scored nine points and dished out a career-high six assists. Darrell Davis added eight points on 2-of-2 shooting from the three.

UD went into the locker room with a 39-33 lead after shooting a blistering 7-of-10 (70%) from the three. Sibert paced the Flyers with 15 first-half points.

Despite being outrebounded 39-27 and giving up 15 offensive rebounds, Dayton was able to limit Georgia Tech into just six second-chance points. The Flyers also shot 21-of-46 (46%) from the field and 23-of-31 (74%) from the foul line. Dayton coughed the ball up just six times while forcing the Yellow Jackets into 14 turnovers.

Brian Gregory became the first former Flyer coach to return to UD Arena to play the Flyers. Gregory coached on the Dayton sidelines for eight seasons.

Dayton has also now won eight straight games over ACC opponents.

OLE MISS 74
DAYTON 78

GAME #12 - 12/30/14 - UD ARENA

Four Flyers scored in double-figures to lead the University of Dayton over the Ole Miss Rebels 78-74 Tuesday night at UD Arena.

With the victory, Dayton improves to 10-2 while Ole Miss drops to 8-4.

Dayton finished the non-conference portion of their schedule with at least 10 wins for the ninth consecutive season.

Jordan Sibert led UD with 20 points while Dyshawn Pierre added 16 points and six rebounds. Kendall Pollard tallied 12 points and corralled six rebounds. Kyle Davis scored 11 points on 4-of-6 shooting from the field, including 2-of-3 from beyond the arc. Davis also hauled in a career-high seven rebounds.

Ole Miss finished the half on a 12-5 run as the Flyers led 41-32 at the break.

The Rebels would come no closer than seven points in the second half until the score was 56-50 after a three-pointer by Jarvis Summers with 9:12 left in the game.

The Flyers have now won 12 straight at home. In addition, UD has won nine of its last 11 games against SEC opponents dating back to 2010.

DUQUESNE 55
DAYTON 81

GAME #13 - 1/3/15 - UD ARENA

Five Flyers scored in double-figures to lead the University of Dayton over the Duquesne Dukes 81-55 in both team's Atlantic 10 conference opener.

UD won its 13th straight home game and improved 11-2 overall (1-0 Atlantic 10) on the season. With the loss, Duquesne drops to 5-7 (0-1 Atlantic 10).

For the first time this season, and the first time since Dec. 8, 2012 vs. Miami (OH), Dayton had all five starters score in double-figures.

The Flyers, who played with a seven-man rotation, were led in scoring by Kyle Davis with a career-high with 17 points on 6-of-11 shooting from the field. Scoochie Smith also registered career-highs of 16 points and eight assists (with just one turnover). In his last four games, Smith has 22 assists with just two turnovers.

GAME-BY-GAME RECAPS

Jordan Sibert shot 5-of-8 from beyond the arc en route to 16 points to go along with a career-high eight rebounds. Dyshawn Pierre also chipped in 16 points on 7-of-10 shooting from the field and eight rebounds. Kendall Pollard tallied 13 points on 4-of-6 shooting from the field.

Overall, Dayton shot 56.6% (30-of-53) from the field while holding the Dukes to 34.4% (21-of-61) from the field. UD shot 38.5% (10-of-26) from the three while holding Duquesne to 20.8% (5-of-24) from beyond the arc. Dayton's 80 points and 56.6% from the field were season highs. UD had 21 assists on 30 buckets.

The Dukes' starting backcourt of Derrick Colter and Micah Mason came into the game first and 25th nationally in three-point field goal percentage, but UD's perimeter defense held them to a combined 1-for-11 from beyond the arc.

ST. BONAVENTURE 61
DAYTON 78

GAME #14 - 1/8/15 - OLEAN, N.Y.

Four players scored in double figures as the Dayton Flyers continued its red-hot, team-oriented play with a 78-61 road victory over the St. Bonaventure Bonnies.

Jordan Sibert led Dayton with 22 points. He has scored in double figures in 12 consecutive contests. Dyshawn Pierre tallied 15 points and seven rebounds, Scoochie Smith tallied 14 points and Darrell Davis poured in 11.

Dayton has now won five straight and improved to 12-2 overall and 2-0 in Atlantic 10 action.

One of the biggest surprises of the night came from Bobby Wehrli who scored a career-high nine points after hitting three shots from beyond the arc. Wehrli came into the game 1-of-5 from 3-point range.

The story in the game was Dayton's electric three-point shooting. The Flyers knocked down 14-of-24 shots from beyond the arc. The 14 shots converted from three-point range were a season-high.

On the defensive end, St. Bonaventure was just 3-of-14 from beyond the arc and had only six fast break points.

Dayton led 39-31 at the half thanks to the Flyers shooting 54 percent from the floor with 11 assists on 14 field goals.

SAINT LOUIS	45
DAYTON	61

GAME #17 - 1/17/14 - UD ARENA

The University of Dayton Flyers won their eighth straight game with a 61-45 victory over the Saint Louis Billikens. Kendall Pollard led UD with a career high 20 points.

Jordan Sibert added 18 points while Dyshawn Pierre recorded his second straight double-double, finishing with 10 point and a team high 12 rebounds.

The win moves UD to 15-2 (5-0 A-10) on the season. The 5-0 conference start is the best since the 2003-04 season.

The Flyers have now won 15 straight home games. Saint Louis had won the previous three games at UD Arena.

The Flyers shot 43 percent from the field on the day, and only 22 percent from three, but made up for that by outrebounding Saint Louis 36-31 and out-scoring them in the paint 26-18.

DAVIDSON	77
DAYTON	60

GAME #18 - 1/20/15 - DAVIDSON, N.C.

Kendall Pollard recorded a career-high 23 points and Jordan Sibert added 23 for No. 22 Dayton in a 77-60 loss to the Davidson Wildcats.

The loss snapped Dayton's eight-game winning streak and dropped the Flyers to 15-3 overall and 5-1 in the Atlantic 10.

For Pollard, it was his second consecutive game with 20 plus points. After scoring five in the first half, Pollard tallied 18 in the second half. Meanwhile, Sibert scored 18 of his 23 points in the first half.

The 77 points allowed by Dayton were a season-high. Davidson shot 12-of-23 from three-point range and finished shooting 52 percent from the floor.

Turnovers also hurt the Flyers with UD committing 16 miscues. That lead to 18 Davidson points off of turnovers.

GAME #19 - 1/24/15 - UD ARENA

The No. 22 University of Dayton Flyers defeated the Richmond Spiders 63-60 Saturday in front of a sellout crowd of 13,455 at UD Arena. This is the 16th straight win at home for the Flyers. Dayton has also won 16 out of its last 18 regular season Atlantic 10 games.

Dyshawn Pierre led all scorers with 21 points. Kendall Pollard and Scoochie Smith were also in double figures with 14 and 10 points respectively. Kyle Davis finished with eight points and five rebounds and made perhaps the biggest basket of the game on a reverse baseline layup with 19 seconds left.

But it was the defensive effort he produced in holding Richmond's leading scorer, Kendall Anthony, to nine points that cannot be overlooked. Anthony came in averaging 18.4 points a game in conference play and had reached double figures in eight straight games.

The home team was able to win the game despite shooting just 27 percent in the second half. UD shot 48 percent for the game thanks to a torrid 68% from the field in the first half. Richmond shot 46 percent from the floor for the game (56% in the second half).

With the win, Dayton improves to 16-3 overall and 6-1 in Atlantic 10 play. UD has now won nine of its last 10 games. Richmond is now 10-9, and 3-3 in the A-10.

GAME #20 - 1/29/15 - AMHERST, MASS.

Jordan Sibert scored 19 points and Dyshawn Pierre added seven points, 12 rebounds and a career-high seven assists, but it was not enough in a 66-64 loss to the Massachusetts Minutemen.

Kendall Pollard added 12 points, four rebounds and four assists as Dayton dropped to 16-4 overall and 6-2 in the Atlantic 10.

The Flyers shot 45 percent from the floor, but hit 7-of-14 free throws. Meanwhile, UMass had 12 offensive rebounds and shot 73 percent at the charity stripe.

Dayton trailed 60-50 with 6:22 to go before going on a 6-0 run. UD cut the deficit to 62-59 with 22 seconds to go, but a UD turnover allowed the Minutemen get the ball back and push the lead back to five.

Kyle Davis and Scoochie Smith each scored nine points and Darrell Davis added eight for Dayton.

GAME #21 - 2/1/15 - UD ARENA

The Dayton Flyers rang in the month of February in a big way Sunday, placing all five starters in double figures and reaching the century mark for the first time in 14 years as Dayton beat the Fordham Rams 101-77. The Flyers rewarded the Super Bowl Sunday crowd of 13,106 with 62% shooting from the field and 82% from the line.

UD has now won 17 straight home games. This was the first time since a 105-79 win against Coastal Carolina on December 11, 1999 that the Flyers scored more than 100 points.

Jordan Sibert and Kendall Pollard led the way with 29 and 22 points respectively. Dyshawn Pierre added 20 points, while Kyle Davis and Scoochie Smith scored 16 and 11 points. Davis also recorded a career-high seven assists (with no turnovers).

The home team maintained its lead in the second half, leading by no less than 15 points for the remainder of the game. Kendall Pollard scored 16 points in the second half, which included two highlight reel dunks. He also made a tremendous block on a fast break that resulted in a jump ball when the ball was trapped between the rim and backboard.

Dyshawn Pierre scored 14 of his 20 points in the second half and finished a perfect 7-7 from the free throw line.

Dayton scored 54 points in the second half, with Kyle Davis making two free throws with 43 seconds left to put the home team at 101 points.

The perimeter defensive effort by the Flyers was also very impressive, as they held Fordham to 3-18 (17%) shooting beyond the arc throughout the game.

With the win, Dayton improves to 17-4 overall and 7-2 in the Atlantic 10.

GAME #25 - 2/19/15 - UD ARENA

The University of Dayton Flyers won their 19th straight home game and reached the 20-win plateau for the seventh time in the last eight seasons Thursday in Dayton, edging the upset-minded Saint Joseph's Hawks 68-64.

Sophomore Kendall Pollard led the Flyers with 22 points on seven-of-eight shooting on the day.

Dayton moves to 20-5 on the season, and are in a three-way tie for first place in the Atlantic-10 with a 10-3 conference record.

Junior Dyshawn Pierre finished with his fifth double-double of the year, scoring 15 points and adding 10 rebounds.

Pierre became the 44th Flyer (and first Canadian) to reach the 1,000 career point milestone. He finished the day with 1,007 career points, good for 43rd on the all-time list.

The other Flyers in double digits were sophomore Kyle Davis and senior Jordan Sibert with 11 points each.

Saint Joseph's was led by Isaiah Miles and DeAndre Bembry, who both scored 23 points each. SJU falls to 11-14 on the season and 5-8 in the A10.

Bembry put his team on his back, scoring 16 points in the second half. Dayton countered by committing just two second-half turnovers and making 13 second-half free throws.

Saint Joseph's 64 • 11-14 (5-8 A-10)

GAME #26 - 2/21/15 - PITTSBURGH, PA.

Dyshawn Pierre registered his third straight double-double with a career-high 27 points and 12 rebounds, but it wasn't enough in the 83-73 loss to the Duquesne Dukes.

Four Flyers scored in double figures. Scoochie Smith scored 14, Jordan Sibert tallied 12 and Kendall Pollard finished with 10.

With the loss, Dayton drops to 20-6 overall and 10-4 in the Atlantic 10.

UD shot 39 percent from the field and relied heavily on the three-ball. Dayton was 11-of-33 from beyond the arc.

Meanwhile, Duquesne took advantage of Dayton playing its second game in a 42-hour span. The Dukes shot 53 percent from the floor and out-rebounded the Flyers 40-34.

GAME #27 - 2/25/15 - UD ARENA

While the University of Dayton Flyers celebrated having two 1,000 point scorers on the team at the same time, it was a defensive effort in the paint that keyed UD's 76-63 win over George Mason Wednesday night at the University of Dayton Arena.

Dayton improved to 21-6 on the season, and won its 20th straight home game in the process.

Shortly after junior Dyshawn Pierre was awarded a game ball before the start of the game for scoring his 1,000th career point last week, senior Jordan Sibert scored his 1,000th collegiate point (123 at Ohio State, 977 and counting at Dayton). Sibert entered the game needing eight points but tripled that and led all scorers in the game with 24 points. Sibert shot 7-of-10 from the field and 5-of-6 from the three-point line.

Dayton's Kendall Pollard added 16 points and eight rebounds. Sophomore guard Kyle Davis was very aggressive on the offensive end, drawing fouls and shooting 12 free throws en route to 13 points on the night. Pierre finished with nine rebounds and five assists.

Thanks to shooting .684 (13-19) from the floor in the second half, Dayton shot .556 for the game. UD also shot .529 (9-17) from beyond the arc in the game.

GAME #28 - 2/28/15 - RICHMOND, VA.

Jordan Sibert scored 19 points as Dayton held off a second-half comeback from No. 22 Virginia Commonwealth to win 59-55 at the Siegel Center on Saturday afternoon.

Down by two in the last minute, VCU (21-8, 11-5 Atlantic 10) had two chances to take the lead when Sibert missed a contested runner. Treveon Graham missed a long 3-pointer and Mo Alie-Cox grabbed the rebound, but couldn't convert the putback, and Sibert made two free throws with 2.5 seconds remaining to seal the victory.

Kendall Pollard had 16 points for Dayton (22-6, 12-4). Dyshawn Pierre had 13 points and seven rebounds.

It is Dayton's first win over a ranked opponent this year and the first on the road since defeating No. 17 Saint Louis last year.

UD's defense was tremendous on the road limiting VCU to 34 percent shooting from the floor and 24 percent from three-point range.

The Flyers also won the turnover battle (9-8) against the top team in the Atlantic 10 at forcing miscues. In fact, it was the fewest number of turnovers forced by VCU this season.

GAME #29 - 3/3/15 - UD ARENA

The University of Dayton's lone senior, Jordan Sibert, led the Flyers with 21 points on the way to a 75-59 win over Rhode Island Tuesday night. Sibert had a perfect shooting night -- 6-for-6 FG, 1-for-1 3-pt. and 8-for-8 from line -- on his Senior Night.

The victory guarantees Dayton a first round bye in the 2015 Atlantic 10 Men's Basketball Championship.

The Flyers (23-6, 13-4 A-10) finished the season a perfect 16-0 at home. Dayton extended its home win streak to 21 games dating back to last season. UD is tied with Villanova for the seventh-longest homecourt winning streak in the nation.

Joining Sibert in double figures were Dyshawn Pierre, Kendall Pollard and Kyle Davis. Pierre had 19 points (17 in the second half) and 11 rebounds. Pollard had 18 points and three blocks, while Davis had 10 points and four steals.

Rhode Island led the Flyers early, but Dayton closed the first half on a 16-8 run to give them a 36-28 lead heading into the locker room.

Behind Pierre's second-half surge the Flyers extended their lead to as much as 20 points. Dayton maintained a double-digit advantage over the last eight minutes of the game.

The Flyer offense proved to be too much for the Rams. Dayton's 16-point victory over Rhode Island matches the Rams' worst loss of the season. URI lost to Kansas 76-60 in late November.

UD's 75 points are the most Rhode Island has given up in A-10 play this season. The Rams led the Atlantic 10 in scoring defense giving up just 58.5 ppg coming into tonight's game.

GAME #30 - 3/7/14 - PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Senior Jordan Sibert scored 17 points, but it wasn't enough as the Dayton Flyers fell 55-53 to the La Salle Explorers in the regular season finale.

Dayton will enter the 2015 Atlantic 10 Men's Basketball Championship as the No. 2 seed. The Flyers will play on Friday, March 13 at 6:30 p.m. ET in Brooklyn.

Kendall Pollard added 11 points, Scoochie Smith registered 10 points, while Dyshawn Pierre tallied five points and nine rebounds.

Dayton got buried on the boards with La Salle out-rebounding UD 40-27. The Explorers also had 14 offensive rebounds and shot 46 percent from beyond the arc.

UD also had an uncharacteristic game offensively with only six assists and 14 turnovers.

Dayton used a 10-point second-half run, started by Sibert's 3-pointer, to lead 32-28 with 12 minutes to go. But La Salle responded with the next seven points and led by seven with 3:44 left.

The Flyers drew to within two with 55 seconds left on a pair of Kyle Davis free throws, but Jerrell Wright dunked at the other end and Jordan Price made seven of eight free throws to seal it.

GAME #33 - 3/15/15 - BROOKLYN, N.Y. - ATLANTIC 10 CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Four Flyers scored in double figures, but it wasn't enough in a 71-65 loss to the VCU Rams in the Atlantic 10 Championship game.

Scoochie Smith led the way with matching a career-high 16 points, Dyshawn Pierre recorded a double-double with 14 points and 11 rebounds. Jordan Sibert scored in double figures in his 10th straight game with 14 points, while Kendall Pollard added 13 points and five rebounds.

Sibert and Pollard were named to the A-10 All-Tournament team.

Sibert would sink three free throws to pull Dayton within two, 67-65, with 10.6 seconds to go, but that would be the closest UD would get. The Rams also hit all eight free throw attempts in the final two minutes to hang on.

Dayton fell to 25-8 overall.

It was Dayton's fourth appearance in the A-10 title game. The Flyers won the conference tournament once in 2003.

BOISE STATE	55
DAYTON	56

GAME #34 - 3/18/15 - UD ARENA
NCAA TOURNAMENT FIRST ROUND

Kendall Pollard scored 17 points, and Dayton used every bit of its home-court advantage on Wednesday night, rallying for a 56-55 win over Boise State in the First Four.

The Flyers (26-8) will play sixth-seeded Providence on Friday in Columbus, Ohio.

It was the first time since 1987 that a school has played an NCAA Tournament game on its home court, an anomaly resulting from Dayton hosting the opening games. The Flyers went 16-0 at home during the regular season and have won 22 straight at UD Arena, seventh-longest active streak in Division I.

The Flyers trailed by as many as 12 points in the first half and by seven with 3:43 to go. With the crowd of 12,592 behind them -- the biggest attendance for a First Four game -- Dayton closed with a 10-2 run.

Derrick Marks' leaning 3-pointer at the buzzer was far off the mark, finishing it off. Marks had 23 points on 10-of-21 shooting.

The Broncos had already snapped San Diego State's 29-game home-court streak this season, and came up just short of another big road win. The Broncos missed seven of their last eight shots.

Jordan Sibert's two free throws tied it at 53-53 with 1:02 left, and his long 3-pointer gave the Flyers a 56-55 lead with 34 seconds to go.

After Montigo Alford missed a driving bank shot, and Pollard got the rebound, was fouled and missed both free throws with 14 seconds left, giving the Broncos a final shot. Marks leaned into Kyle Davis on the final attempt, which missed everything.

Dayton is 18-17 overall, including 1-1 at UD Arena. The Flyers also lost a tournament game to Villanova at UD Arena in 1985.

PROVIDENCE	53
DAYTON	66

GAME #35 - 3/20/15 - COLUMBUS, OHIO
NCAA TOURNAMENT THIRD ROUND

Dyshawn Pierre scored 20 points and Dayton rode a loud home-state advantage to another NCAA Tournament victory, beating Providence 66-53 Friday night.

The 11th-seeded Flyers (27-8) will face Oklahoma on Sunday night, with a chance to reach the round of 16 for the second straight season.

Sixth-seeded Providence (22-12) could not overcome early foul trouble on Big East player of the year Kris Dunn or a Dayton team buoyed by a legion of fans that made the 80-mile trip to Columbus. Dunn finished with 11 points before fouling out. LaDontae Henton had 18.

Dayton was playing its fifth game in eight days after reaching the final of the Atlantic 10 Tournament on Sunday in New York, then winning a First Four game against Boise State on its home court Wednesday.

Jordan Sibert, who made the key late 3 that helped Dayton rally to beat Boise State, scored 15 points.

Flyer fans decked out in red packed Nationwide Arena and had "Let's Go Flyers!" ringing through the rafters.

Providence coach Ed Cooley said on Thursday he didn't mind playing a virtual road game, and that's what he got. Providence shot seven free throws. Dayton shot 30.

Pierre put it away with 1:59 left, spinning free inside, getting fouled and letting out a scream before completing the three-point play to make it 56-42.

OKLAHOMA	72
DAYTON	66

GAME #36 - 3/22/15 - COLUMBUS, OHIO
NCAA TOURNAMENT REGIONAL SEMIFINAL

Four Flyers scored in double figures, but Dayton's storybook season came to a close with a 72-66 loss to the third-seeded Oklahoma Sooners in the NCAA Third Round.

Dayton was led by Scoochie Smith's 16 points, five rebounds and four assists. Darrell Davis scored 15 points on five 3-pointers, Kendall Pollard poured in 13 and Dyshawn Pierre added 10.

The Flyers (27-9) came up a victory short of their second straight trip to the Sweet Sixteen as an 11th seed.

UD finishes the season 27-9 overall.

The Sooners (24-10) trailed 56-49 at the 10:23 mark and scored the next 13 points. A turnover by Dayton freshman Darrell Davis led to a layup by Buddy Hield at the 5:56 mark. Oklahoma took a 57-56 lead and never trailed again.

Oklahoma made 12 of 14 free throws in the final three minutes, stifling Dayton's comeback hopes.

Jordan Woodard led Oklahoma with 16 points. Hield added 15.

The Flyers overcame a torrid start by the Sooners, who led 9-0 on three 3-pointers in the first 3:09. The Sooners made 8 of 13 3-pointers in the first half, but Dayton responded by making 6 of 12. The Flyers trailed 34-32 at halftime.

Dayton caught fire itself early in the second half. It took a 49-40 lead at the 13:13 mark on a 3-pointer by Pierre. That was the third 3-pointer by the Flyers in a two-minute stretch.

Dayton looked on its way to a date in Syracuse, N.Y., with No. 7 seed Michigan State, but the run and the fun of a season to remember ended there.

"I felt the start of the game, the wind, the legs, they kind of shocked us a bit," coach Archie Miller said. "But once we sort of get our feet on the ground a little bit, we became ourselves and quite frankly we were right there. But we just had a couple of plays not go our way. And give them credit for making them. But it won't take away from the season."

UD ARENA & THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

There are many reasons why the NCAA Tournament Committee has called on the University of Dayton Arena to be a host for so many NCAA Tournament games:

• The University had constructed a new (and large) arena in 1969, making it one of the most attractive venues in the country.

• The hometown Flyers had been so good for so long that the college basketball fans in the Miami Valley were among the most knowledgeable and supportive in the country.

• Dayton's Director of Athletics Thomas J. Frericks was an influential member of the tournament committee and a visionary regarding how to host a tournament.

• After hosting so many times, the NCAA often sent those chosen to host to Dayton, to witness the model of how to host the tournament.

Pick whatever reason you want, but there is certainly no argument that the UD Arena has been the site of more memorable NCAA Tournament moments than any facility in history. Among the Arena memories...

Notre Dame's Austin Carr scored 35 points against Ohio University -- in the first half. He added 26 more after intermission and holds the single-game mark to this day.

Adolph Rupp's Kentucky Wildcats fell to Florida State in 1972, ending his amazing career that resulted in 875 victories.

Kentucky handed Bobby Knight's Hoosiers their only loss in a two-year, 64-game span in what was called college basketball's greatest game until Christian Laettner eliminated UK in Philadelphia in 1992.

The world was introduced to a magical freshman from Michigan State in 1978. But the Spartans title would wait a year as soon-to-be champ Kentucky knocked out Magic Johnson, handing him his only NCAA Tourney loss.

Mark Aguirre's agony as he gripped the ball after it had gone through the net to beat his top-ranked DePaul Blue Demons in his final collegiate game -- a loss to Saint Joseph's.

Indiana trouncing the Maryland Terrapins en route to winning the 1981 NCAA Title with sophomore Isiah Thomas leading the way in his final collegiate season.

In a simple 1984 play-in game, referee Mickey Crowley, former Supervisor of Atlantic 10 Men's Basketball Officials, ran to the ESPN announcing position to watch a replay to determine whom to send to the foul line.

One amazing day in 1985: Fairleigh Dickinson nearly beat powerful Michigan, Villanova started its dream run to the NCAA Championship (against the Dayton Flyers no less), Len Bias and Maryland stole one from Ron Harper and the Miami Redskins and David Robinson jumped into the nation's conscious as Navy decimated LSU.

One year later, another amazing freshman took to the floor in Kansas' Danny Manning while Michigan State's Scott Skiles fought and clawed his way to the regional while making a remarkable around-the-body pass on a breakaway.

Ohio State, led by Jimmy Jackson and hometown hero Mark Baker (a Dunbar High School grad), knocked out Georgia Tech and then Jackson announced that Kenny Anderson was going pro.

After going 0-3 in NCAA Tournament Games at the UD Arena, the 1995 Miami Redskins shocked the Arizona Wildcats behind the dreadlocked Devin Davis.

The North Carolina State women knocking off the top two seeds in the East -- UConn and Old Dominion -- to advance to the 1998 Final Four.

When the NCAA tournament field was expanded to 65 teams in 2000, UD Arena hosted the first-ever Opening Round Game.

George Mason became everyone's favorite underdog by knocking off two recent national champions -- Michigan State (2000) and North Carolina (2005) -- in Dayton on the way to the 2006 Final Four.

In 2006, UD Arena became just the fourth venue to host 70 Men's NCAA Tournament Games -- joining Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium, Salt Lake City's Huntsman Center, and New York's Madison Square Garden.

In such a short time, the Opening Round Game has become one of the most exciting and entertaining games of the NCAA Tournament. In 2002, Prosper Karangwa of Siena scored 31 points to lead his Siena Saints to an 81-77 win over Alcorn State and legendary coach Davey L. Whitney. The 2003 NCAA Tournament was known for its close games and exciting finishes, and the Opening Round set the tone as UNC Asheville and Texas Southern found themselves knotted at 75-75 at the end of regulation. UNC Asheville, making its first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance, came away with a 92-84 win in overtime.

In 2003, the Women's NCAA Tournament returned to Dayton for the East Regional. Not only did the four teams who visited UD Arena feature the defending National Champion Connecticut Huskies, but also the four previous National Champions: Connecticut, who also won the title in 2000, 2001 Champion Notre Dame, and Purdue, who won it all in 1999. Connecticut survived the bracket of champions and went on to take the 2003 National Championship.

In the 2011 Women's NCAA Tournament Regional at UD Arena, Notre Dame defeated Oklahoma and Tennessee to reach the Final Four. Notre Dame ended up as the NCAA Tournament Runners-up after losing to Texas A&M in the championship game.

Also in 2011, the Men's NCAA tournament field expanded to 68 teams with UD Arena hosting the inaugural First Four. The opening round was eliminated and replaced with two games between the last four automatic bids and two games between the last four at-large bids. UNC-Asheville defeated Arkansas Little Rock 81-77 in overtime in an exciting first game between two 16 seeds. The nightcap featured 12 seeds Clemson vs UAB with Clemson winning 70-52. Clemson eventually lost to West Virginia in the next round. The next day's games between 16 seeds, UT-San Antonio vs. Alabama State, and 11 seeds, VCU vs. USC, marked an historic day for the winners. In the first game, UT-San Antonio won its first ever NCAA game with a 70-61 victory. VCU's 59-46 victory over USC began one the most improbable Final Four runs ever.

VCU went on to defeat Georgetown, Purdue, Florida State, and 2008 champion and No. 1 seed Kansas before being ousted by Butler 70-62 in the Final Four. The last two double-digit seeds (No. 11 seed VCU in 2011 and No. 10 seed George Mason in 2006) to reach the Final Four have started their journeys in Dayton.

By hosting the 2011 First Four games, UD Arena has become the most used tournament venue in NCAA history. UD Arena has hosted Men's NCAA tournament events in 27 of the 44 years since opening its doors for the 1969-70 season.

The 2012 NCAA First Four was historic for two reasons: First, President Barack Obama and British Prime Minister David Cameron were in attendance in the game between 16 seeds, Western Kentucky and Mississippi Valley State. President Obama became the first sitting president to ever attend a game at UD Arena and also the first to ever attend an NCAA championship event. The game turned out to be just as excting as Western Kentucky rallied from 16 points down in the final five minutes to win the game 59-58.

Second, the nightcap between 14 seeds, BYU and Iona, featured the largest comeback in NCAA tournament history as BYU rallied from a 25- point second half deficit to defeat Iona 78-72.

In 2013, UD Arena became the first site ever to host 10 NCAA Tournament games in any year (four First Four games, six Second and Third Round Games).

In 2015 Dayton became the first team to play on their home court in an NCAA Tournament game since 1987.

Dayton will serve as the host for the First Four until at least 2015, but UD has offered to host this event for the next 10 years.

President Barack Obama and British Prime Minister David Cameron became the first heads of state to attend a game at UD Arena and also the first ever to attend an NCAA Championship event when they watched Western Kentucky & Mississippi Valley State play in 2012.

The Flyer Faithful is a contingent that can be compared with the Green Bay Packer fans. The fans know that to acquire lower-Arena season tickets, they need to be in for the long haul -- maybe a quarter-century or so.

The Arena was opened in 1969 to accommodate a demand for seats that the 5,808-seat UD Fieldhouse could not supply. And Flyer tickets have remained hard to come by ever since. Since the doors opened at the Arena, the worst national attendance ranking for the Flyers has been 35th.

Atlantic 10 Television's Mike Gorman and John Griffin liken the Flyer fanatics to the Duke maniacs in Durham, N.C., calling the UD Arena "the Cameron Indoor of the Atlantic 10."

Not only has Dayton led the Atlantic 10 in attendance each year since joining the conference, but UD Arena has become a frightening stop for the opposition. 159 A-10 teams have entered UD Arena, and 119 have left with a loss, including nine conference opponents who were ranked.

"As a player, you feel like a little kid in a candy store," says former Flyer Edwin Young. "You get that excited when you hear 13,000 people screaming. They got us energized. We fed off them. Whenever I got down, I thought about our fans. You want to bottle their enthusiasm and unleash it...They're such a part of the team, it's like they're one of the family."

Of course, this is not a new phenomenon at UD. Since the Arena doors opened in 1969, the Flyers have played 762 home games and crowds of at least 10,000 have shown up for 95 percent of the contests. 102 of those games have been official sellouts. UD finished in the Top 30 in men's basketball attendance for the 17th straight season in 2013-14, according to a report by the NCAA.

The City of Dayton supports basketball like no other city of its size (and better than most larger cities). The Arena has been the site of 28 full Men's NCAA Basketball Tournament sessions and all have been sold out -- always well in advance.

The five sessions that weren't sellouts were the play-in rounds of 1983 and 1984 and the Opening Rounds from 2001-2005. The play-in rounds predated the 64-team field and featured four of the tournament's lowest-seeded teams, and the Opening Round featured the two lowest-rated teams in the 65-team field.

Of the 2001 Opening Round, ESPN's Andy Katz wrote, "Instead of an empty arena, the NCAA guessed right in placing this game in Dayton. These fans are hoops junkies, even if the Flyers aren't on the floor."

The NCAA tournament program rationalized the decision to place the Opening Round in Dayton by saying UD Arena is "the NCAA's Disneyland when it comes to ideal destinations for men's NCAA Tournament games."

In 1998 the Arena hosted the NCAA Women's Tournament for the first time and drew more than 7,000 in each session, making it one of the best regional draws ever at a location where the host wasn't participating. The 2003 Women's East Regional was the highest attended NCAA tournament site, aside from the Final Four, where a home team was not in action.

The crowds have been so good for so long, that The Sporting News' college basketball analyst Mike DeCourcy wrote, "Dayton fans are the most loyal in America, showing up to fill their arena even when the Flyers were scraping the bottom...." The Sporting News also proclaimed that the Flyer Faithful are the best fans in all of college basketball in a fall 2000 issue.

Not even a blizzard could stop the Flyer Faithful. In February of 2003, with much of the surrounding counties in a state of emergency due to snowfall, many questioned how many people would show up for a game versus No. 25 Saint Joseph's. The game was a sellout with less than 500 no shows. "I'm not surprised," said then-UD head coach Oliver Purnell, "These people would get here in snowmobiles if they had to."

The affection the Dayton community has for the home team runs both ways. After UD defeated Duquesne 74-61 on March 7, 2009 to put the wraps on a perfect 18-0 2008-09 season at UD Arena, the team met at midcourt and then scattered to all corners of the Arena to personally thank the Flyer Faithful for their support throughout the perfect season.

And when things are going well for the Flyers, no place rocks like the UD Arena. In 1997-1998, when the Flyers advanced to the National Invitation Tournament's second round, the Penn State Nittany Lions came to Dayton and the game left the travel party shaking their heads. Penn State won a tough-fought 77-74 decision, but the crowd was a topic of conversation following the game.

"This is the best place I've played at since I've been in college," said Nittany Lion Jarrett Stephens. "This beats any place in the Big Ten." As one Pennsylvania writer left courtside following the game she remarked to another writer, "Maybe these people will finally shut up."

With the Flyer Faithful, never count on that.

A sold-out UD Arena crowd of 13,435 watches the tipoff of the Dayton-Xavier game on Jan. 21, 2012. Although the Arena opened its doors 40 years ago, more than one-third of UD's 102 sellouts have come in the last 10 years.

The tip-off between Dayton and Stanford in the NCAA Regional Semifinal at FedEx Forum in Memphis, TN in 2014. The Flyers played before crowds of 19,260, 19,420, 14,991 and 15,443 en route to the program's first Regional Final appearance since 1984.

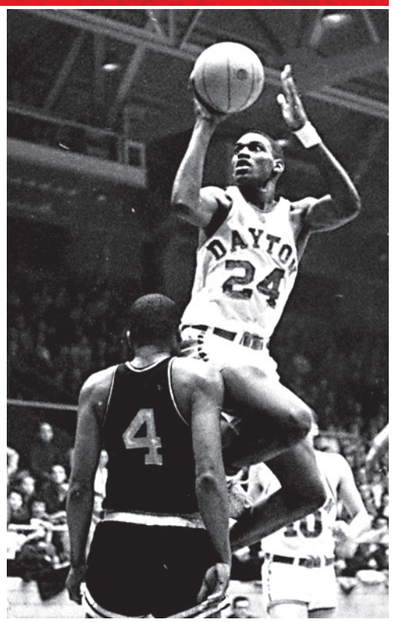

FLYERS IN THE ABA & NBA

BUCKY BOCKHORN was one of 20 Flyer all-time greats named to UD's All-Century Team in 2004. He went on to a seven-year NBA career before a knee injury cut it short.

 DENOTES CURRENT TEAM

ROGER BROWN never played a varsity game for the Flyers, but his impact on the program is not forgotten. In 1960-61, the Flyer freshman team caught the attention of the entire UD community by regularly pounding the opposition. Brown didn't play varsity at UD and was banned by the NBA for having 'associated' with New York City gamblers, but no illegal act was ever charged. The ABA ended the injustice in 1967, allowing Brown to play for the Indiana Pacers. Many claim that if Brown had played and Bill Chmielewski had stayed in school, UD would have won two national titles.

JOHNNY DAVIS declared hardship after his junior season at UD and the next season claimed an NBA World Championship with the Portland Trail Blazers. That was a good thing for the Flyer opposition. In his final home game he scored 35 against Florida State. After scoring 16 in the first half, then-Seminole Coach Hugh Durham went to work. "We made some halftime adjustments on him," said Durham. "And held him to 19 in the second half." After his playing career, Davis began coaching and was even the head coach for the Philadelphia 76ers in Allen Iverson's rookie season. He was also the head coach of the Orlando Magic.

JIM PAXSON had a great professional career with Portland and Boston. The former General Manager and Vice President of Basketball Operations for the Cleveland Cavaliers, he was the first Portland Trail Blazer to score 10,000 career points and was recently inducted into the Oregon Sports Hall of Fame. The Blazers had made him the 14th pick of the 1979 NBA Draft.

ALL-AMERICAN FLYERS

ALPHONSE SCHUMACHER - 1912, 1913

The Helms Foundation brought life to the early age of basketball in 1957, when they commissioned a panel to reward All-Americans dating back to 1905. Schumacher led the Flyers to a 24-0 mark in the span of 1911-13 and was named to the ten-player squads in each season.

DON MEINEKE - 1951, 1952

Meineke was among the nation's standouts as the game took a dramatic rise in popularity in the early 1950s. In his senior campaign, Meineke averaged 21.1 points and 11.8 rebounds while shooting 44 percent from the field and 79 percent from the line and was picked second-team All-America by Helms, Look Magazine and the Associated Press. As a junior Monk was picked third-team All-America by Helms and Converse.

JOHN HORAN - 1955

The Vertical Hyphen was third-team All-America by Converse and the United Press International as a senior after averaging 18.4 points and 13.3 boards for the 25-4 Flyers, which wound up losing the NIT title game to Duquesne. Horan remains UD's all-time top rebounder and graduated as the number-two scorer behind only Meineke. He is now tenth on that list.

BILL UHL - 1956

The Greenfield Goliath came up huge during his entire career. The 7-footer averaged 18.4 points and 14.7 boards in 1956 as the Flyers soared to #2 in the nation, behind only San Francisco and the amazing Bill Russell. Uhl was picked to Look Magazine's first team while joining the second teams of AP, UPI, Collier's, INS and NEA.

BILL CHMIELEWSKI - 1962

In his only season of college ball, Chmielewski led the Flyers to their first National Invitation Tournament title and was picked as the Most Valuable Player of the tournament. With averages of 15.4 points and 11.4 rebounds, he was named second-team All-America by Converse.

GARRY ROGGENBURK - 1962

One of the truly great athletes in Flyer history, Roggenburk was a consistent scorer and a prolific rebounder as well as being the best baseball pitcher in school history. After UD gave Tom Blackburn his long awaited NIT Trophy in 1962, Roggenburk was honored with third-team All-America status by the Helms Foundation.

HENRY FINKEL - 1966

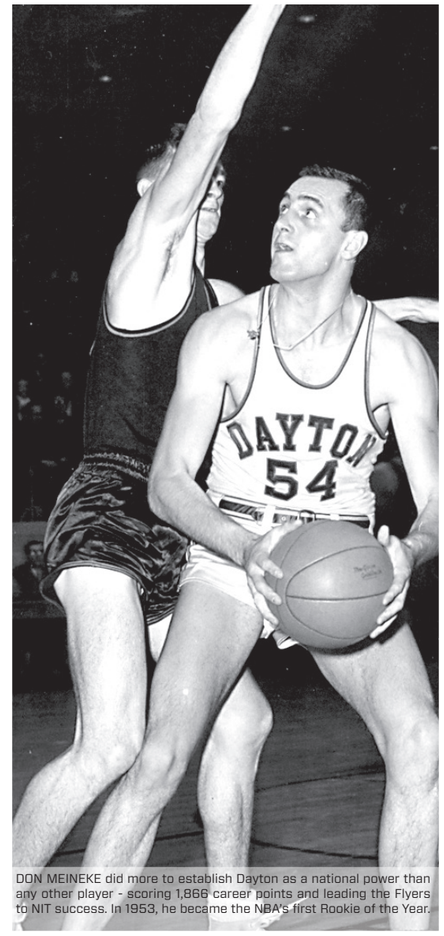

Ten years after Uhl graduated, the Flyers had another 7-foot All-American. Henry Finkel had led the Flyers to the NCAA Tournament as both a junior and a senior, but both times UD lost to the nation's top ranked team. As a junior, Cazzie Russell's Michigan Wolverines downed the Flyers. As a senior, Finkel's Flyers lost to #1 Kentucky, which would lose a historic game to Texas Western (now UTEP). With sophomore Don May sharing the workload in 1966, Finkel's numbers (22.7 points, 12.1 rebounds) were actually career lows, but the Helms Foundation understood his impact.

DON MAY - 1967, 1968

Don May led the Flyers to a rarity -- the championship games of both major college tournaments. The two-time All-American (USBWA in 1967, NABC in 1968) nearly singlehandedly landed UD in the NCAA title game by making 13 straight field goals in the national semifinal against N.C.. UD lost to UCLA in the title game. The next year, the Flyers won the National Invitation Tournament as May averaged 23.4 points and 15.0 rebounds.

JIM PAXSON - 1979

A late-season shoulder injury which cost him the better part of five games stopped Jim Paxson from being UD's all-time leading scorer, but his senior year averages of 23.2 points, 5.7 assists and 52.6 field-goal percentage made the USBWA name him an All-American. Paxson, a marketing major, also made First-Team Academic All-America, as voted by CoSIDA.

DON MEINEKE did more to establish Dayton as a national power than any other player - scoring 1,866 career points and leading the Flyers to NIT success. In 1953, he became the NBA's first Rookie of the Year.

MIKE KANIESKI was a two-time first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American. The marketing major averaged 16.9 points in 1981 and 18.4 the following year.

INTERNATIONAL FLYERS

JIM PAXSON, SR.

1955 PAN AMERICA GAMES IN MEXICO CITY

Paxson played in all five games as the USA entry won the gold medal at the Pan Am Games, the championship of the Americas. While a standout player and a future NBAer himself, Paxson may be better remembered for being the father of two NBA greats -- former all-pro Jim (a UD grad himself) and multiple-world champion John.

JOHNNY DAVIS

1975 PAN AMERICA GAMES IN MEXICO CITY

Davis was one of five players to average double figures in scoring as the USA entry won the Gold medal. A sure bet to become the first 2,000-point Flyer, Davis opted for the NBA after his junior season and left Don May's record for Roosevelt Chapman. Quite a consolation, Davis claimed an NBA World Championship with the Portland Trail Blazers in what would have been his senior year.

MIKE SYLVESTER

1980 OLYMPIC GAMES IN MOSCOW

Sylvester was the lone American to win a medal in the boycotted Games as he represented Italy, which won a silver medal. Sylvester, who had attended Moeller High School in Cincinnati, held dual citizenship in the United States and Italy. Playing professionally in Italy at the time, he actually supported the boycott. "As a U.S. citizen, my duty was to boycott. As an Italian citizen, my duty was to play. So what was the answer? I was for the boycott. I was with old Jimmy (Carter) morally, but if I didn't play, they might never have allowed me to play here (Italy) again."

DON DONOHER

1984 OLYMPIC GAMES IN LOS ANGELES

In 1986, Donoher was the head coach of the gold medal-winning U.S. team at the R. Williams Jones Cup in Taiwan. That team was paced by Duke's Danny Ferry and Cal's Kevin Johnson. It wasn't Mick's first international experience. In 1984 he was an assistant coach to Bobby Knight as the United States won the gold medal at the Los Angeles Olympics. That team, led by Michael Jordan, Patrick Ewing and Chris Mullin, went 8-0 and won by an average margin of 32 points. The assistant coaches along with Donoher were George Raveling and C.M. Newton.

ED YOUNG

1986 JONES CUP IN TAIWAN

Young won the gold playing for Coach Donoher at the Jones Cup in 1986. "I imagine when his playing days are over," Donoher said in the 1986-87 UD media guide. "Ed will look back upon the Jones Cup as one of his best basketball-related experiences. He had a chance to represent his country, got a glimpse of life in the Far East, got to play with some fine young guys from other universities and he also won a gold medal."

OLIVER PURNELL

1999 WORLD UNIVERSITY GAMES IN PALMA DE MALLORCA, SPAIN
2001 GOODWILL GAMES IN BRISBANE, AUSTRALIA
2004 OLYMPIC GAMES IN ATHENS, GREECE

Purnell is the most experienced Flyer in international ball. Over the summer of 1999 he took USA Basketball to the World University Games and brought home the gold with the likes of Kenyon Martin and Michael Redd. He was an assistant on the 1996 gold medal-winning Men's 22 and Under World Championship Qualifying Team in San Juan, Puerto Rico. In 1995 Purnell was an assistant on the gold-medal winning World University Games team in Fukuoka, Japan. In 2001, he was the assistant to Flip Saunders at the Goodwill Games in Brisbane, Australia, striking gold yet again. In the 2004 Olympics in Athens, Greece, he earned a bronze medal with USA Basketball as an assistant to Larry Brown.

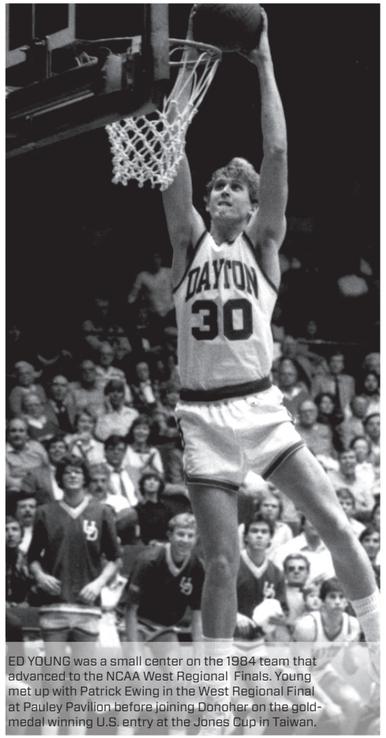

ARCHIE MILLER

2014 FIBA U19 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS IN HERAKLION, GREECE

Miller served as an assistant coach and helped the United States win its second-straight FIBA U19 World Championship gold medal with a 79-71 win over Croatia. Archie was added to the staff when when former Florida head coach Billy Donovan was named the head coach of the Oklahoma City Thunder.

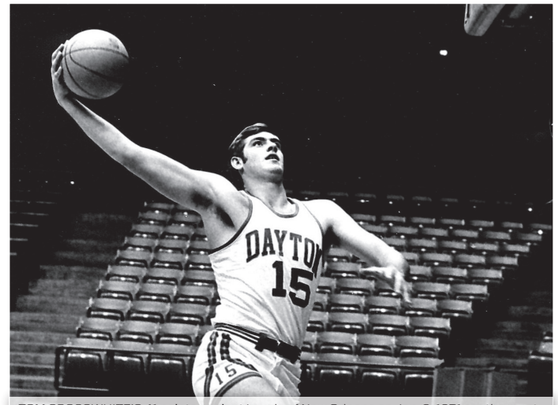

MIKE SYLVESTER, who scored 36 points as UD nearly upset UCLA in the 1974 NCAA Tournament, is the only Flyer to win an Olympic Medal as a player...and he didn't do it with Team U.S.A.

ED YOUNG was a small center on the 1984 team that advanced to the NCAA West Regional Finals. Young met up with Patrick Ewing in the West Regional Final at Pauley Pavilion before joining Donoher on the gold-medal winning U.S. entry at the Jones Cup in Taiwan.

ANTHONY GRANT played in two NCAA Tournaments and one NIT with the Flyers in the mid-1980s, but that wasn't enough for him. He became a coach and in 2000 with Florida, as an assistant under Billy Donovan, found himself on the sidelines for the National Championship against Michigan State. Opposite Grant was an assistant coach for the Spartans by the name of Brian Gregory.

Thomas J. Frericks, who became a member of the UD Athletics Hall of Fame in 1976, left an indelible impression on the Flyer Athletics program. No mention of University of Dayton tournament appearances would be complete without acknowledging the contributions of Mr. Frericks, who served as UD's director of athletics from 1964 to 1992.

Not only should he be considered for the University's involvement in tournaments, but for his contributions to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship.

Mr. Frericks was an innovator who helped guide UD Athletics from a time when collegiate athletic departments were low-budget operations to the multi-million dollar budgets of the 1990s. Through all the changes, one thing remained constant, because of Frericks' dedication, UD became known for integrity and credibility.

Highlights of his tenure included UD's second-place finish in the 1967 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship, and the construction in 1969 of the $4.5 million University of Dayton Arena, which has now hosted 120 NCAA Tournament Games (105 men, 15 women).

As a member of the Men's Basketball Committee, Frericks was an integral part of developing the tournament to the great American sporting event, "March Madness," it is today. He was on the five-member team from the Basketball Committee that negotiated the seven-year, $1 billion television contract with CBS Sports. Mr. Frericks was slated to be the Chair of the Basketball Committee starting in 1992, but he lost his battle with cancer on Jan. 31, 1992, before presiding over any championship.

Fifteen days prior to his passing, the University had rededicated the University of Dayton Fieldhouse as the Thomas J. Frericks Athletic and Convocation Center. It serves as a constant reminder, fittingly, in a building where he attended classes, practiced and played as a young man and transformed UD athletic fortunes as athletic director.

He also is a two-time winner of the Shorty Sharpenter Memorial Rebounding Award.

DAYTON'S ALL-CENTURY TEAM

The University of Dayton celebrated its 100th anniversary season of men's basketball in 2003-04, and the focal point of the season-long celebration was February 4 - the 100th anniversary date of UD's first varsity game. On February 4, 1904, UD, then known as St. Mary's Institute, defeated the Dayton Intermediates 14-2. One hundred years to the day, the Flyers hosted the Richmond Spiders and in conjunction with that game, the University unveiled its All-Century Team. The 20-man team spans more than 100 years of Dayton Basketball.

ARLEN "BUCKY" BOCKHORN
A 6-4 swingman from Campbell Hill, Illinois, Bockhorn played from 1955-58 on Flyer teams that were a combined 69-17, won the 1955 University of Kentucky Invitational Tournament and played in three NIT's. As a senior, he was co-captain on a 25-4 team that reached the NIT finals. A versatile player, Bockhorn scored 941 points, grabbed 708 rebounds and always drew the toughest defensive assignment, regardless of whether that player was a forward or guard. Bockhorn, who averaged double figures all three seasons at UD, went on to a successful NBA career.

ROOSEVELT CHAPMAN
UD's all-time leading scorer with 2,233 points, Chapman utilized amazing body control and incredible hang time to score most of his points inside, even though he was listed at 6-4. The Brooklyn native appears near the top of nearly every statistical category including most rebounds (8th, 956), assists (15th, 338) and blocked shots (3rd, 124). He capped his career by leading UD in a remarkable NCAA run, scoring a 1984 tournament-best 105 points in four games, including 41 vs. Wayman Tisdale and his seventh-ranked Oklahoma Sooners in the second round.

BILL CHMIELEWSKI
Chmielewski was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1962 National Invitational Tournament, as the Flyers gave head coach Tom Blackburn his first NIT title in six trips to the championship game. The 6-10 Detroit native averaged 15.4 points and 9.3 rebounds during UD's 24-6 season in 1961-62. He was a Second Team All-America pick by Converse. Chmielewski left school after that season, and after pursuing a pro basketball career settled in the Dayton area. He still plays basketball in Master's division events.

ANTHONY CORBITT
One of the most consistently productive scorers in UD history, Anthony Corbitt's 1,760 points stand ninth on the UD All-Time Scoring List. Despite standing 6-6, Corbitt was a deadly effective low-post scorer, shooting over 50% and averaging in double figures in all four of his seasons at Dayton. In addition to his ninth-place standing in career scoring for the Flyers, Corbitt is 13th in rebounding (814), and seventh in FG% (.534, 725-1358). Corbitt closed his career in the place every player wants to be – the NCAA tournament. In 1989-90, UD won the MCC championship and advanced to the NCAA second round where they lost to Arkansas by two.

JOHNNY DAVIS
Davis had the greatest impact any Flyer freshman has ever had, joining a team whose nucleus had gone 13-13 the two seasons before, and helping propel the Flyers to a 20-9 record, a berth in the 1974 NCAA tournament, and eventually a toe-to-toe triple overtime loss to defending national champion UCLA. And linking Davis and "propulsion" is appropriate, as Davis was a unique combination of quickness and jumping ability. UD's MVP as a sophomore and junior, Davis scored 1,562 career points, good enough for 16th at UD. His 19.3 point scoring average is fifth at Dayton. He joined the NBA after his junior season and was a member of the Portland Trailblazers world championship team. He most recently was an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Lakers.

HENRY FINKEL
The third-leading scorer in UD history with 1,968 points, Finkel's teams were 60-23 in his three seasons, and reached the NCAA Sweet Sixteen twice. He was named MVP or co-MVP in all three of his years for the Flyers. The 6-11 center from Union City, New Jersey still holds the UD records for most points scored in a season (733 in 1964-65) and highest scoring average in a season (25.3 in 1964-65) and career (23.7). His career field goal percentage of .619 (772-1248) is the third-best for the Flyers, and the best for any player with more than 500 field goals made.

BOBBY JOE HOOPER
A 6-0 guard from Lees Creek, Ohio, Hooper was a starter from his first varsity game, and was a leader on teams that reached the NCAA Sweet Sixteen his sophomore season, the NCAA championship game his junior season, and the 1968 NIT championship his senior year. Hooper scored 1,059 career points, which is currently 38th on UD's all-time scoring list. One of the best shooters in Dayton basketball, Hooper established school records (since surpassed) in consecutive free throws (34) and career free throw percentage (.835, 223-267). He was named to the 1967 NCAA All-Mideast Regional Team, and the 1968 All-NIT team.

JOHN HORAN
A four-year starter and four-year double-figure scorer, Horan was a key player in the years UD cemented itself as a nationally-recognized team in the years between 1951 and 1955. The 6-8 center/forward from Rochester, Minnesota is Dayton's career record holder in rebounding with 1,341. He also scored 1,757 points (10th at UD). Teams he played for were a combined 94-29. He played in the NCAA once and the NIT three times.

NEGELE KNIGHT
Of all the great players in Flyer basketball history, Negele Knight is known for his work at the end of games as much as anyone. Over his career, Knight won or tied the game on UD's last possession an amazing 12 times. He began his career as a starting point guard in 1985-86, missed the next season due to injuries and then overcame more injuries to average double figures the next two seasons. As a senior, Knight averaged 22.8 points and 6.8 assists for the season, and 29.3 points and 7.9 assists during an 11-game, season-ending winning streak. All in all, Knight holds six school records, has UD's second-or-third-best mark in nine more categories. The Detroit native is #1 in career assists (663) and eighth in career scoring (1,806 points).

DON MAY
A Dayton native who grew up just a morning newspaper's throw from UD's campus, (he delivered newspapers as a youngster to UD's dorms) May has the distinction of being a hometown hero who stayed in his hometown. One of the best high school players the Dayton area has ever produced, May stayed in his hometown to play for the Flyers. A two-time USBWA All-American, May practically put UD in the 1967 NCAA championship game when he made a record 13-straight field goals in UD's semifinal win over N.C.. Not just a deadeye shooter, the 6-4 May was also a fabulous rebounder. He averaged 23.4 points and 16.7 rebounds as a junior, and 22.7 and 15.0 as a senior. He is second in both Flyer career scoring (1,980) and rebounding (1,301).

DON "MONK" MEINEKE
It's no coincidence that the University of Dayton's first 20-win season (in 1949-50), it's first NIT appearance and the school's only season with appearances in both the NIT and NCAA tournaments came with Meineke in the pivot. Meineke is UD's first 1,000 point scorer, and still the sixth-leading scorer in school history (1,866). The 6-7 Dayton native led the nation in FG% (.512, 240-469) as a junior, and was named Third-Team All-America by the Helms Foundation and Converse. As a senior, he was named Second Team All-America by the Helms Foundation, Look Magazine and the Associated Press.

JIM PAXSON
A three-time White-Allen MVP, Paxson's senior numbers of 23.2 points, 5.7 assists and 4.2 rebounds earned him First Team All-America honors from the USBWA. And the Kettering native's 3.40 GPA translated into his being named a CoSIDA Academic All-American as well. The former Vice-President and General Manager of the Cleveland Cavaliers, Paxson has been a finalist for the CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame class. A four-year starter, Paxson is fifth on UD's all-time scoring list (1,945 points). Even though he was the focal point of UD's scoring during his career, he is also fourth in both career assists (515) steals (168).

RYAN PERRYMAN
Perryman led the nation in rebounding (12.5), and more importantly, he led the University of Dayton back into the post season as a senior in 1997-98. Perryman took the Flyers to the 1998 NIT, breaking an eight-year post-season drought on the Hilltop. That was the longest drought in the modern era (post-1950) of Dayton basketball. The 6-7 Oak Park, Michigan native is currently 18th in career scoring (1,524) at UD, fourth in rebounding (1,156) and fifth in FG% (.546, 534-978). He is the Atlantic 10 career rebounding average record holder (10.7). Only Jim Paxson Jr., Roosevelt Chapman, Brian Roberts and Perryman are three-time outright White-Allen MVP winners.

GARRY ROGGENBURK
A 6-6 forward from Cleveland, Roggenburk still holds UD's single-game rebounding mark, with 32 against Miami in just his third college game. Fast-forward to the end of his college career, when he was the leading scorer (16.0) and second-leading rebounder (9.3) on UD's first NIT championship team in 1962. He is one of seven Flyers to score 1,000 points and grab 1,000 rebounds in his career. His 1,398 career points are currently 24th all-time at UD and his 1,027 rebounds are seventh.

JACK SALLEE
A mainstay on UD's nationally-ranked teams from 1951-55, Sallee's 1,610 career points put him 14th in Flyer career scoring. When he graduated, he was second behind Monk Meineke. The 6-2 guard from Springfield, Ohio led UD in scoring (19.0) as a sophomore, but adjusted his game upon the arrival of seven-foot center Bill Uhl, and averaged 15.2 as a junior and 15.0 as a senior. He played in 122 games for the Flyers, a record that stood for 47 years.

DONALD SMITH
The greatest long-range shooter in UD history, Smith scored 1,655 points, mostly from three-point range, for UD. Only problem was, there was no three-point line when he played from 1971-74. But if you think this claim is hype, consider this: when he practiced free throws, he practiced them from the top of the circle (where today's three point line is). It must have worked. Smith is the career FT% leader at Dayton (.886, 281-317). His .910 (111-122) mark as a junior led the nation. The 6-0 guard from Dayton also holds UD's single-game scoring record of 52 points at Loyola during his junior season, but his coach, Don Donoher, rates that as his second-most impressive effort, citing a 44-point, 20-25 FG game at Xavier earlier that year.

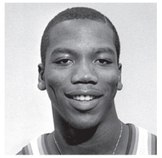

TONY STANLEY
An athletic jump shooter from Philadelphia, Stanley ended his career with 1,835 points, the seventh-best total at Dayton. He also stands second in career three-pointers (291), and third in career steals. Stanley averaged 13.1 points a game as a freshman, 15.0 as a sophomore, 14.7 points as a junior and 15.9 points as a senior. He is the youngest member of the All-Century Team.

MIKE SYLVESTER
Sylvester was the star of what would have been one of the biggest upsets in NCAA tournament history when he scored 36 points in UD's triple-overtime loss in the 1974 NCAA tournament to defending champion UCLA. Sylvester scored 1,248 career points in his Dayton career, capped by a senior season that saw him average 17.1 points, 6.7 rebounds and shoot .502 (203-404) from the field and .833 (90-108) from the line. The Cincinnati native is also the only Flyer to earn a medal playing in the Olympics. He was part of Italy's bronze-medal-winning team at the 1980 Games (Former UD coach Don Donoher was an assistant coach for the United States' 1984 gold-medal-winning team).

BILL UHL
A First Team All-America selection by Look Magazine as a senior, Uhl dominated the paint from 1953-56, and lifted UD to its highest-ever national ranking. UD was ranked second in the nation for 11 weeks during the 1955-56 season, behind only the Bill Russell-led San Francisco Dons. Uhl, a seven-footer from Greenfield, Ohio, was one of the most consistently excellent players to ever wear the Red and Blue. He averaged 18.4, 18.6 and 18.4 points in his three seasons at UD. His teams were a combined 75-15, with one appearance in the NIT quarterfinals, and two trips to the NIT finals.

ED YOUNG
As the shooter of "The Shot"–the buzzer-beater against third-ranked DePaul on February 18, 1984–Ed Young's place in UD basketball history will always be secure. But while one moment in time may have placed him in UD basketball history, his productive career has now put him on the UD All-Century Team. Young was part of UD's 1984 team that advanced to the NCAA West Regional finals, but the Flyers didn't take off that season until coach Don Donoher moved Young, a starter at forward, to center. Giving away inches and pounds to just about every opponent, Young averaged 13.4 points and 6.6 rebounds that season, as the Flyers finished 21-11. Injuries followed him the rest of his career (he missed the entire 1984-85 season), but he was effective enough to finish his career with 1,253 points. The Upper Sandusky, Ohio native is now 27th in career scoring for the Flyers.

When DONALD SMITH walked off the court at Chicago Stadium after scoring 52 points, the public address announcer said, "Ladies and gentlemen, you have just witnessed the greatest effort in the history of Chicago Stadium." But Don Donoher contends that it wasn't Smith's best, citing his 44-point 20-of-25 game at Xavier a month earlier.

CHRIS DANIELS was making 69 percent of his shots in 1995-96 when he tragically died of cardiac arrhythmia in his sleep. With his huge smile, Chris will long be remembered as a beloved person more than as an athlete. Both the Dayton and Atlantic 10 Most Improved Player Awards are named in his honor.

SINGLE-GAME TEAM MARKS

DON MAY has one of the top three single game performances in both scoring and rebounding. He dropped in 45 points at Xavier on Jan 3, 1966, which is good for third on the single-game high list. He grabbed 28 rebounds versus Northern Michigan on Dec 2, 1967 which put him third on that chart. Five weeks later, he collected 28 rebounds again, against Saint Louis on Jan 11, 1968.

THE FRERICKS CENTER served as the home for UD men's basketball from 1950 to 1969. The 5,800 seat facility was originally named the Fieldhouse, but was later named the Fricks Center to honor longtime Athletic Director, Tom Frericks. Since 1969, UD Arena has been the home for Flyer basketball.

TOM BLACKBURN took over the Flyer basketball team in 1947 following two post-war seasons with a combined 7-30 record. Blackburn, a stern disciplinarian, quickly took UD to new heights and established Dayton as a national power. With the success of the Flyers, Blackburn oversaw the building of the UD Fieldhouse (now Frericks Center). In his Hall of Fame career, Blackburn engineered two victories over the nation's #1 teams, six trips to the NIT Final (finally winning in 1962) and a #2 ranking for much of the 1955-56 season. In 1964, he lost his battle with cancer at the age of 58, but his legacy had been long established.

DON "MONK" MEINEKE was the first member of UD's 1,000-point club and remains the sixth-leading scorer in school history with 1,866 career points. The 6-7 local product (Dayton's Wilbur Wright High School) led the nation in field goal percentage as a junior and was named Third-Team All-America by the Helms Foundation and Converse. As a senior, he averaged 21.1 points a game and was named Second Team All-America by the Helms Foundation, Look Magazine, and the Associated Press.

THE BOCKHORN BROTHERS were the only trio of brothers to play on the same team from 1957-58 until 2011-12. The Plumlee brothers from Duke in the 2011-12 season featured three brothers on the same team. BUCKY (center), TERRY (right) and HAROLD (left) helped the Flyers to a 25-4 record and an NIT Runnerup in the 1957-58 season.

GARRY ROGGENBURK led Dayton to the NIT title in 1962. The Cleveland, Ohio native scored 1,398 points and hauled in 1,027 rebounds in just three years at UD. Roggenburk also played baseball at UD and was drafted into the NBA and MLB. He chose to play in the MLB and spent five seasons playing for the Minnesota Twins, Boston Red Sox and the Seattle Pilots. After his MLB playing career was over, Roggenburk became a pitching coach in the minor leagues for the Red Sox and later the general manager for the Winter Haven Red Sox in Boston's farm system.

DON DONOHER took over the Flyer program near the end of the 1963-64 season as Tom Blackburn succumbed to cancer. Mr. Blackburn's final game on the Flyer bench was Feb. 26, 1964, when the Flyers fell to the Miami Redskins. "We knew he was a tough old bird from the beginning," said former player Chuck Grigsby. "But the man was tougher than any of us ever realized in keeping on his feet as long as he did." Donoher handled the team for the last three games, but those games were credited to Mr. Blackburn's record. He passed on March 6, 1964, 26 hours before the season finale and Coach Donoher became the Flyers' 15th different head coach.

HENRY FINKEL played nine seasons in the NBA after finishing his career at UD. He holds the record for most points scored in a season at UD (733 in 1964-65) and the highest scoring average (25.3 in 1964-65). Finkel's career field goal percentage of .619 (772-of-1248) is the third-best mark in school history, and the best for any player with more than 500 field goal attempts. He led Dayton to the Sweet 16 in back-to-back seasons in 1965-65 and 1965-66.

DON MAY'S remarkable performance against N.C. in the 1967 NCAA National Semifinal Game will always be remembered for a certain number: 13. Thirteen is how many consecutive field goals he made against the No. 4 Tar Heels as the Flyers advanced to the National Championship against UCLA. The Flyers, in their lone National Championship appearance, fell to Lew Alcindor and his fellow Bruins, as UCLA won its first of seven consecutive National Championships.

BOOBY JOE HOOPER played an heroic game in the 1968 NIT Championship as he scored 16 points with a broken hand as UD defeated Kansas 61-48 at Madison Square Garden. He scored 1,059 points in his Flyer career and shot an outstanding .471 from the field and .835 from the foul line. Hooper's three year career at UD included a Sweet 16 appearance, an NCAA Runner-up, and an NIT Championship. Hooper's UD teams had a combined record of 69-21.

DAN OBRAVAC wins the tip against UCLA's Lew Alcindor (now known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar) in the 1967 NCAA Championship game. It is thought to be the only time that Alcindor lost the opening tip in a UCLA uniform.

KEVIN CONRAD dished out 498 career assists during his Flyer career. His average of 4.70 assists per game ranks fifth in school history. During the 1981-82 season he averaged 6.30 assists per game, which is the second best mark for an individual season.

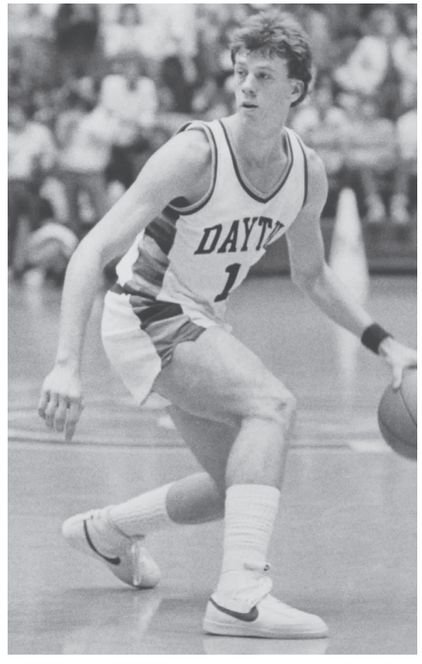

ROOSEVELT CHAPMAN remains the only Flyer to score 2,000 career points and he did it in a demanding way. The relatively slight 6-foot-4 Chapman did his work in the paint before defenses were extended by the three-point line. He was a master of going around and sometimes over bigger players. Chapman also was a tremendous rebounder, grabbing nearly 1,000 in his career. He appears in the top 10 on nearly every all-time career stat list for the Flyers. And he finished his career with incredible style, leading UD to an amazing run in the NCAA Tournament. "Velvet" opened the tourney with a 29-point performance against LSU and then netted 41 points as the Flyers shocked No. 7 Oklahoma. He then netted 21 more against Washington before the Flyers were finally stopped by eventual champion Georgetown. Chapman led the NCAA Tournament with 105 points in four games.

LARRY SCHELLENBERG ranks eight all-time in Flyer history with 465 career assists. He was a master of dishing the ball while limiting his turnovers. His assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.36 is the best mark in school history. During his senior year of 1984-85 he had an assist-to-turnover ratio of 3.04. He is the only Flyer ever to have an assist-to-turnover ratio better than 3.00 in a season.

"THE SHOT"
On Feb. 18, 1984, No. 3-ranked DePaul entered UD Arena for a game nationally-televised on NBC. After trailing almost the entire game, the Flyers had one last chance for the lead. Larry Schellenberg rebounded a missed free throw, brought the ball up the floor and hit Roosevelt Chapman with a cross-court pass. Chapman fed Ed Young with four seconds to go, and Young banked the game-winning bucket off the glass and through the net as time expired to give UD a thrilling 72-71 win. The win propelled the Flyers into the NCAA Tournament, where they advanced to the Regional Finals before falling to eventual champ Georgetown.

In nine years at Dayton, OLIVER PURNELL coached the Flyers to 11 wins over teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 25. The normally calm, cool and collected coach never batted an eyelash when a national power visited UD Arena. The Flyers defeated eight of the last 12 ranked teams at home under Purnell. Inheriting a 6-21 squad, Purnell turned the program around in three seasons and guided UD to two NCAA berths and three NIT bids in a span of five seasons.

March 18, 2004 was the final game for the Flyers for seniors KEITH WALESKOWSKI (below), RAMOD MARSHALL (above) and SEAN FINN. Each of the trio hit 1,000 points in their career. The March 18th NCAA Tournament loss to DePaul -- in which those three seniors combined for 49 of UD's 69 points -- was only the sixth time three players with 1,000 career points played together for UD. Marshall and Waleskowski were part of multiple trios; as the two and Brooks Hall pulled the feat in 2003.

BRIAN GREGORY coached eight years at UD and is third in school history with 172 victories. Gregory came to Dayton after being on Tom Izzo's staff at Michigan State where he won a National Championship in 2000. Gregory took the Flyers to two NCAA Tournament appearances, including the program's first NCAA Tournament victory since 1990 in the 2009 tournament over West Virginia, and three NIT appearances, including the 2010 NIT Championship. Gregory graduated every senior that played for him at Dayton.

BRIAN ROBERTS had one of the greatest careers ever in a Flyer uniform. The Toledo, Ohio native finished fourth in school history with 1,962 points and first in most three pointers made in a career (293) and three point percentage (.441). The sharpshooter also connected on .848 percent of his free throws. During Roberts' senior season in 2007-08, he was named ESPN's Player of the Week twice after scoring 28 points in a win at No. 11 Louisville (above) and then three weeks later he scored 31 points in a blowout victory over No. 6 Pittsburgh at UD Arena. Roberts currently plays for the Charlotte Hornets in the NBA.

CHRIS JOHNSON was named the National Invitation Tournament's Most Valuable Player after the Flyers captured the 2009-10 NIT Championship at Madison Square Garden. Johnson is the only college basketball player in the last 20 years to have 1,400 points, 800 rebounds, 300 offensive rebounds and 200 three-pointers while shooting at least 80 percent from the line. He received his chance to play in the NBA with the Memphis Grizzlies during the 2012-13 season. Johnson currently plays for the Utah Jazz.

CHRIS WRIGHT helped the Flyers to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2009 after Dayton beat West Virginia, 68-60 in the first round action at the Metrodome in Minneapolis, Minn. Wright was the Flyers best above-the-rim player ever as he is the school record holder for blocks (162) and dunks (177). He currently plays for Maccabi Rishon LeZion in Israel.

ARCHIE MILLER became the 19th Dayton basketball coach in school history, and just the sixth in the last 64 years, in 2011 as he took over for Brian Gregory. Miller came from Arizona where he was the Associate Head Coach for his brother, Sean Miller. He helped guide the 2010-11 Arizona Wildcats to an Elite Eight appearance and a 30-8 overall record. Miller returned to the Elite Eight in 2014: This time as the Head Coach at Dayton as he led the Flyers to a 26-11 overall record.

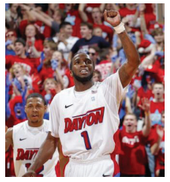

DEVIN OLIVER, was the unquestioned leader of the 2013-14 Dayton Flyers squad that reached the NCAA Regional Final. Oliver's commitment to become a better player earned him the team's Chris Daniels Memorial Most Improved Player Award twice and is the only player in UD history to earn both the most improved award and team MVP in the same season. He averaged 11.2 points and 7.4 rebounds per game while he named to the All-Atlantic 10 Third Team as a senior.

KEVIN DILLARD, Dave Colbert (another two-year transfer) and Henry Finkel are the only players to be named MVP in every season they played at UD. Dillard totaled five MVP Awards in two years in a Dayton uniform (2011 Old Spice MVP, 2011-12 team MVP, 2012-13 team MVP, and a two-time Blackburn/McCafferty MVP in wins over Xavier).

VEE SANFORD, with "A Kiss to be Remembered in Dayton" as long-time CBS analyst, Bill Rafferty, called it. Sanford's game-winning floater with 3.8 seconds remaining helped 11 seeded Dayton defeat Ohio State in the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. The win propelled the Flyers to the Elite Eight for the first time since 1984 with wins over OSU, Syracuse and Stanford before losing to overall No. 1 seed Florida in the Regional Final.

JORDAN SIBERT became one of just three Flyers to transfer to Dayton and score 1,000 points in his two-year career. He joined Dave Colbert and Kevin Dillard in the exclusive club with a scoring average of 14.1 points per game over his two seasons. The Flyers saw unparalleled success in that time, winning 53 regular season games as well as five games in the NCAA tournament, reaching the Elite 8 in 2013-14 and winning two more games in 2014-15.

DON MAY and the Flyers followed up 1966's NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 run with a trip to the National Championship Game in 1967. The unranked Flyers beat three top 10 teams on their way to the Final Four: No. 6 Western Kentucky, No. 8 Tennessee, and No. 4 N.C. before falling to No. 1 UCLA.

BROOKS HALL bookended his career with two NCAA appearances, making a trip to "The Dance" in 2000 and 2003. Hall never missed the postseason, as the Flyers earned bids to the NIT in 2001 and 2002.

The Flyers have one of the highest win totals at Madison Square Garden in the long storied history of the venue.

Dayton has won 40 games at The Garden, including 26 National Invitation Tournament games. Dayton made the NIT Final five times in the 1950s (including the 1955 Championship versus Duquesne, left) before finally winning the tournament in 1962 (right, Tom Blackburn and his team after the Flyers first NIT crown.)
