WE'LL TAKE THE FREE ONES

As a team, the Flyers shot 76.4 percent from the free throw line in 2013-14, the BEST team free throw percentage in Dayton history. The 76.4 percent ranked second in the Atlantic 10 and 14th nationally. Then-junior Andrea Hoover led the Flyers from the line with a 93.6 free throw percentage (1st A-10, 3rd NCAA).

1. .764(519-679) - 2013-14

YOU'RE INVITED TO A BLOCK PARTY

The team's blocks leader for the past two seasons is at it again ... junior Jodie Cornélie-Sigmundová is averaging 2.7 blocks per game this season which ranks first in the Atlantic 10 and 21st nationally. Cornélie-Sigmundová has 153 career blocks and she ranks third in program history - 67 blocks behind the all-time leader Michele Kruty (220; 1984-88).

BACK IN THE SADDLE AGAIN

Over 23 games this season Dayton has had some players stuck on the bench due to injury. For UD's game at Davidson on Jan. 7, all 12 players were cleared for game action, including sophomore Andrijana Cvitkovic, who saw her first playing time of the season against the Wildcats, and senior Tiffany Johnson, who has missed several games this season with a foot injury. Sophomore Celeste Edwards also played against Davidson, her first game since Dec. 7. Edwards and Johnson have gone back on the injured reserve list but Dayton now enjoys greater depth in both front-court and back-court positions.

FLYERS IN LEAGUE PLAY

Dayton has won 49 of its last 55 regular season Atlantic 10 games (.891), a streak that dates back to a 97-46 win over Rhode Island on Jan. 7, 2012, including posting a perfect 14-0 mark in conference play during the 2012-13 season. Of its six A-10 losses over the last four seasons, Dayton has taken three L's at home and three on the road.

FIRST HALF SUCCESS = SECOND HALF VICTORY

Dayton is 16-2 this season when leading at halftime, including a perfect 9-0 in Atlantic 10 play. The Flyers are 2-3 when either trailing at the half or tied at halftime.

97 WINS OVER FOUR YEARS

Since moving up to Division I for the 1984-85 season, the winningest four-year period of Dayton basketball was 2009-13 with 97 wins. With 18 wins this season, the senior duo of Andrea Hoover and Ally Malott (Tiffany Johnson did not play her first two seasons at Dayton) are ranked tied for third on the all-time class wins list.

SHE DROPPED 30

Behind a 13-for-16 night from the floor, senior forward Ally Malott scored a career-high 30 points in UD's 87-72 win over Saint Louis on Jan. 31. It was the first time a Flyer had scored 30 points in a game since former Flyer Justine Raterman scored 32 at Duquesne on Feb. 25, 2012. Malott's hard work paid off with an Atlantic 10 Player of the Week nod on Feb. 2.

WE'VE GOT TWO CLASSY SENIORS

Seniors Andrea Hoover and Ally Malott were selected as candidates for the Senior CLASS Award - Dayton was the only program with TWO players among the final 30 in the running for the award. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award honors the attributes of NCAA Division I senior student-athletes in four areas: community, classroom, character and competition.

WELCOME TO THE TEAM

Dayton signed three to National Letters of Intent during the early signing period: Lauren Cannatelli (Cincinnati, Ohio/Lakota West), Madeleine Dennis (Perth, Western Australia/Mount Lawley) and Ashleigh Parkinson (Newark, Ohio/Newark Catholic). The trio will be joining the team in the fall of 2015.

FOLLOW THE FLYERS ON SOCIAL MEDIA

Fans can follow the official Dayton women's basketball social media outlets by liking Facebook.com/DaytonWBB, on Twitter by following @DaytonWBB and DaytonWeAreOne on Instagram. Hashtags for Flyer women's basketball include #UDWBB, #GRIT and #GoFlyers.

ATLANTIC 10 PRESEASON POLL

Dayton was unanimously picked to win the 2014-15 Atlantic 10 Conference title. The Flyers earned all 14 first-place votes among picks from the conference's head coaches. Four Dayton players were also recognized on Preseason All-Conference Teams, including seniors Andrea Hoover and Ally Malott who were named to the First Team. Junior Amber Deane earned mention on the Second Team while sophomore Celeste Edwards was named to both the Third and All-Defensive Teams.

ATLANTIC 10 FORMAT

Despite its name, the Atlantic 10 conference consists of 14 member schools competing under one division in women's basketball. Each team will play a 16-game conference slate this coming season, including three home-and-away series. Dayton will play two games against George Washington, Richmond and Saint Louis and one against the remaining field during league action. The conference most recently welcomed Davidson.

PERFECT GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE (GSR)

Dayton women's basketball has posted a perfect Graduation Success Rate (GSR) for nine consecutive seasons, every year the rate has been published except for one. The Flyers are one of only eight programs to post a perfect score and reach the NCAA Tournament for the past five seasons: Dayton, DePaul, Duke, Iowa State, Notre Dame, St. John's, Tennessee and Vanderbilt. Additionally, Dayton was the only school to have both its men's and women's basketball programs post perfect GSR scores and make appearances in the 2014 NCAA Tournament.

NATIONAL TEAM EXPERIENCE

Five Flyers have experience playing for their respective national teams.

- Sophomore Saicha Grant-Allen most recently was a member of Canada's Senior B Women's Basketball National Team that claimed the 36th Annual William Jones Cup in Taipei, Taiwan, during the summer of 2014.
- Sophomore Andrijana Cvitkovic played for the Croatian U18 National Team during the summer of 2012.

Add to that the 22 A-10 All-Conference performers under his belt while at the helm of the Flyers, Jabir has undoubtedly led the University of Dayton to its most successful stint in modern program history.

The two-time Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year has transformed the program, taking the Flyers from 3-25 in his first season to their highest national ranking at No. 11 in both the AP and USA Today Coaches Polls in 2013. In the last five seasons UD has occurred a 120-38 overall record (.760 winning percentage) and posted a 60-12 record (.833 winning percentage) in Atlantic 10 games. Jabir also led the Flyers to having the leading scoring offense in the A-10. Dayton was also number one in defensive rebounding and shots blocked in the A-10 in the 2013-14 season.

A heart-breaking loss to Florida in the first round of the NCAA tournament cannot take away from all the success Jabir led the Flyers to in the 2013-14 season. Jabir posted a 23-8 with a winning percentage of .742. This was the fifth year Jabir earned a .700 winning percentage or higher while at Dayton.

After losing seven seniors from the squad that won the 2012 Atlantic 10 Tournament title, the bar was set high for a young 2012-13 team, but they rose to the challenge. They set the school-record for greatest number of wins in a season (28) since becoming a Division I program in 1986. Jabir was named a finalist for the 2013 Naismith National Coach of the Year after posting a career-high winning percentage (.903) with the sixth youngest team in the nation. The Flyers averaged 2,739 fans per home game - the best in the A-10 and among the Top 40 in the nation.

Jabir came to UD after spending one season as an assistant at Colorado. In his last season at CU, the Buffaloes (24-8) advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament and were ranked as high as 23rd in the ESPN/Coaches' Poll and 24th in the Associated Press Poll. Jabir was primarily responsible for the development of CU's post players, including the Buffaloes' first-ever First Team All-Big 12 selection.

The Brooklyn, N.Y., native began his coaching career as an assistant at Nazareth College (1984-85) and at Buffalo State (1985-86). Jabir was instrumental in leading the Bengals to a 23-3 slate, the SUNYAC title, a 22-game winning streak, an NCAA regional tournament appearance and a national ranking (No. 3) during the 1985-86 season.

After one season as an assistant, Jabir became the head coach at Buffalo State during the 1986-87 season at the age of 24. He led that team to a 14-11 record and guided the Bengals to the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) championship and an appearance in the Division III Tournament.

Jabir went to Siena College from Buffalo State, where he served as the head coach of the Saints for three seasons (1987-90) and compiled a 50-29 record. Jabir's teams posted three consecutive winning seasons. In his first season, Jabir was responsible for the development of Siena's first-ever Freshman All-American.

After his stint at Siena, Jabir spent six years at Marquette University becoming one of the most successful coaches in the history of the program, elevating the Golden Eagles into the national spotlight.

After posting a 7-20 record during his inaugural year (1990-91) at Marquette, Jabir guided his team to four consecutive winning seasons, two 20-plus winning seasons and three post-season appearances, including back-to-back bids to the NCAA Tournament. In 1994-95, Marquette won the Great Midwest Conference Tournament, the first tournament championship in school history. This followed the 1993-94 campaign in which Jabir compiled a program-best 22-7 overall record and its first trip to the NCAA Tournament. Jabir was a two-time Reebok/Great Midwest Conference Coach of the Year while at Marquette.

Jabir was at the helm of Providence College for six seasons, 1996-02, following his time at Siena. During his last three years with the program, the Friars' record improved with each season.

He is a 1984 graduate of Nazareth College in Rochester, N.Y., where he received a degree in English. He also earned his Masters degree in Student Personnel Administration from Buffalo State in 1986.

Jabir has three children, Lauren, Shane and Jackson.

Hard-working. Compassionate. Dedicated. These are just a few words that come to mind when talking about Jim Jabir. On April 8, 2003, the University of Dayton introduced Jabir as the women's basketball team's eighth head coach and first male head coach in the history of the program.

Since taking over as Dayton's head coach in 2003, Jim Jabir is the all-time wins leader in program history. He has earned a mark of 228-138 (12th season) at UD and is 448-361 in his 28-year head coaching career. With five consecutive NCAA appearances (2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014), two Women's National Invitational Tournament appearances, back-to-back Atlantic 10 Final appearances, the program's first A-10 Tournament Championship in 2012, followed by the program's first A-10 Regular Season Title in 2013 after posting a perfect 14-0 record in conference play. In 2014, Jabir led the Flyers to another A-10 regular season championship and to the first round in the NCAA tournament.
