DAYTON FLYERS IN THE SHOW

Craig Stammen, RHP, San Diego Padres

Seasons with time spent in MLB: 10

Drafted in the 12th Round of the 2005 MLB Amateur Draft

In 2020: Stammen went 4-2 during the regular season of the shortened 2020 season. He finished the year with a 5.63 ERA but his biggest accomplishment came in the postseason. During the 2020 NL Wild Card series, Stammen became the first UD Flyer to start a postseason game when he threw 1.2 scoreless innings in a Game 3 start for the Padres against the St. Louis Cardinals.

While at UD: Stammen went 9-6 with a team-best 2.80 ERA during a stellar junior season in 2005 and earned Atlantic 10 All Conference honors before being drafted in 12th Round of that summer's MLB Draft, which was the highest a Flyer had ever been drafted at the time (Cameron Hobson would later be drafted in the 11th round of the 2011 MLB Draft). Stammen's nine-win campaign that year is tied for second all-time in Flyer history for wins in a single season.
