

DAYTON FLYERS

Head Coach Tamika Williams-Jeter Basketball Timeline

- 1990 - Began playing organized basketball at the age of 10 for the Dayton Lady Hoopstars
- 1997 - Named Ohio Player of the Year while playing for Chaminade-Julienne High School
- 1998 - Repeats as Ohio Player of the Year and named WBCA national high school player of the year. Part of the nation's top recruiting class with Sue Bird, Swin Cash and Asjha Jones.
- 1999 - Big East Rookie of the Year and Sporting News Freshman of the Year as a first-year player at UConn
- 2000 - Member of UConn's national championship team
- 2001-02 - Served as President of UConn Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC)
- 2002 - Part of a second national championship at UConn, finished her career as the NCAA record holder for career FG% (still stands)
- 2002 - Sixth overall WNBA draft pick by the Minnesota Lynx
- 2002 - Began her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ohio State during the WNBA off-season
- 2003 - Set a WNBA single-season record for FG% (still stands)
- 2009 - Retired from the WNBA
- 2008-11 - Assistant coach at the University of Kansas
- 2010 - Coached the national team of India at the Asian Games
- 2011-14 - Worked in private business. Was also an ESPN commentator, a U.S. State Department Sport Ambassador and travelled internationally with NBA Global
- 2014-16 - Assistant coach at the University of Kentucky
- 2016-19 - Assistant coach at Penn State University
- 2019-21 - Assistant coach at Ohio State University
- 2021-22 - Head coach at Wittenberg University
- 2022 - Head coach at the University of Dayton