HISTORY & RECORDS

In 1956 the University of Houston began a dynasty that is unparalleled in all of college sports. Beginning that season, Houston dominated the college golf world, winning 12 of the next 15 NCAA golf championships. The Cougars have won 16 titles in all, and incredibly, finished second four times and third four other times. A Cougar has won the individual championship eight times, which only trails Yale (13). The following is a year-by-year look at the NCAA Championships since 1952.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS HISTORY

In addition to its success in NCAA Championships, Houston has won 19 conference championships in the Missouri Valley Conference, Southwest Conference and Conference USA. The Cougars won five straight Missouri Valley Conference titles between 1956 and 1960. After spending the 1961-72 seasons as an independent, Houston joined the Southwest Conference and won nine league titles. The Cougars joined Conference USA in 1996 and have won five C-USA championships. Overall, the Cougars have claimed 19 conference titles and another 13 runner-up finishes in 47 years of league competition.

Cougar golfers have earned a combined $122,320,557 on professional tours during their careers.

With numerous alumni having played on the PGA Tour, the University of Houston has carried a tradition forged on the collegiate level and moved on to the professional ranks.

From Dave Marr and John Mahaffey in the 1960s and 70s to Fred Couples, Steve Elkington and Bruce Lietzke in the 90s, former UH players have continued to make indelible marks on the landscape of the PGA Tour in the 21st century. Last season, Anders Hansen qualified for the PGA Tour in 2007 and Zoran Zorkic, Jeff Burns and Andy Sanders have played on the Nationwide Tour since the turn of the century.

Cougar Alumni have won at least one championship at all four major tournaments on the PGA Tour, and have claimed a combined total of 22 first or second-place finishes in the Masters Tournament, the British Open, the U.S. Open, and the PGA Championship.

Over the years, decades of success as a collegiate golf program has propelled many University of Houston golfers on to success in the professional ranks on the PGA, European, Nationwide and Champions Tours.

A few of those players have become household names – 1992 Masters Champion Fred Couples is one of the most successful golfers of all time, as evidenced by his ranking on the PGA All-Time Career Earnings List.

Two-time UH All-American Steve Elkington led Houston to its most recent national championship in 1985, but has made his mark on the PGA Tour more recently than that, winning the 1995 PGA Championship and the 1997 Tour Player's Championship to move into an elite group. Elkington missed defending his PGA Championship by just one stroke in 1996. Bill Rogers was a regular on the PGA Tour in the late 70s and early 80s, highlighted by his victory at the 1981 British Open.

Other Cougars have been fixtures on the PGA Tour for years, quietly successful and occasionally more famous. They are familiar names of a pros like Billy Ray Brown, Keith Fergus, Bruce Lietzke, John Mahaffey and Blaine McCallister. All enjoyed tremendous success at UH before moving on to the professional ranks.

The Cougars' all-time leading money winner on the PGA Tour, Fred Couples won the 1992 Masters and finished second at the 1990 PGA Championship.

COUGARS ON THE PGA CAREER EARNINGS LIST

Some of the most famous names on Tour are those you may not even recognize as Cougars. Fuzzy Zoeller, winner of the 1984 U.S. Open and 1979 Masters, and Nick Faldo, who owns six major championships, both played at UH, if rather briefly, before taking their games to the next level.

Meanwhile younger Cougars like Tray Tyner (1987) and Mike Standly (1985-86), winner of the 1993 Freeport McMoran Classic, are making their presences felt.

With a golf history that goes back to the first national championship in 1956, it makes sense that UH exes populate the PGA Champions Tour too. Homero Blancas was an All-American at UH in 1961 and 1962 and had his top year as a pro in 1994. Kermit Zarley, Rocky Thompson, Bruce Lietzke and Rex Baxter are other famous Cougs from the past who earned a living in the pros.
