PHILL HANSEL

The "Father of Cougar Swimming and Diving"

From 1975-1996, he was the most influential man for the University of Houston swimming and diving team. He guided the Cougars to more than 70 dual meet victories and ten Top 20 finishes at the AIAW and NCAA Championships.

Last year, all of that hard work paid off, as Phill Hansel was inducted into the Hall of Honor on Nov. 14, 2008.

A 1949 graduate and swim team captain at Purdue University, Hansel began coaching at Multnomah Athletic Club in Portland, Ore. immediately after graduation.

In 1957, Hansel was named the first head swimming coach for the University of Houston and given the task of assembling a team. With a school of nearly 30,000 students, Hansel knew there must be some undergraduates who knew how to swim. He put an advertisement in the Daily Cougar, and had a few who were eager to learn but had little experience.

In 1958, Hansel recruited some talented athletes, but he found out in December that the program would be dropped because of a lack of an indoor swimming facility.

He continued to stay in the Houston area, coaching Cougar swimmers at the YMCA. In 1959, he took some of the swimmers, competing as the University of Houston swim club, to the AAU National Championships, where they finished second in the nation. This was the highest any school had ever finished in the US National Championships.

Leading the Cougars that year was 18-time national champion, Carin Cone. Under Hansel's direction, Cone was the first UH athlete to appear on Sports Illustrated on April 18, 1960.

In 1971, Houston reinstated the swimming program. Hansel once again became the men's coach. He added the women's team to his duties in 1975. Before the revival of the program, Hansel coached the Shamrock Hilton club from 1958-68 and the Houston Swim club.

Hansel would go on to guide the Houston women's team to ten-consecutive Top 20 finishes (1976-86).

Under his guidance, Diane Johannigman (1978-81), Beverly Rose (1983-85), Anne Jardin (1977-81), Nicola Figgins (1983-86), Ingrid Lawrence (1981-84), Cory Schia (1977-80), Katy Archer (1982-84) and Oliva Clark (1991-95) received a combined 120 All-America honors.

Johannigman, who set an American record in the 100-yard butterfly, was the first NCAA swimming national champion in UH history.

Hansel was also a three-time recipient of the SWC Swimming and Diving Coach of the Year award (1976, 1983, 1986).

In 1986, Hansel became a columnist for Swimming World Magazine. Despite no formal training, Hansel became a celebrity, receiving an abundance of fan mail.

Outside of the university, Hansel also served on the staff of the first annual US Pan-Pacific team that set four world records in one day in Tokyo, Japan.

He also managed the US Swimming Team in 1992 that won 27 medals, 11 of which were gold in the Barcelona Olympic Games. The team broke three World records, two Olympic records and three American records.

In addition to his coaching duties, Hansel served on the US Olympic Swimming Committee in 1992. There he, along with 10 other coaches from around the country, watched 40 of America's best swimmers, including world-record holders and past Olympians.

Hansel coached Singapore's Olympic Team in 1984 in Los Angeles, and was the assistant coach for Singapore's Olympic Team in 1988 in Seoul, South Korea.

In 1996, Hansel finished out the season with over 39 years of coaching experience and was recognized as one of the most successful collegiate swim coaches in the nation.

In his honor, the University of Houston will play host to the Phill Hansel Duals Weekend on Oct. 9-10.

Last season, during the Phill Hansel Duals Weekend, Hansel was inducted into the University of Houston's Hall of Honor.

• Teamed with Vera Ilyina to win the gold medal in 3-meter synchronized diving at the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia.

• Established herself as possibly the greatest female student-athlete in the storied history of Cougar athletics.

• Set a school record in 2003 by winning her fourth and fifth NCAA individual national championships.

• Won 64 of the 66 collegiate diving events in which she entered as a Cougar with the only losses coming during the finals of the NCAA Championship.

• Received the C-USA Women's Swimming and Diving Scholar-Athlete Award in 2004.

• Never lost on the 3-meter springboard, winning all 32 events during her distinguished career.

• Collected back-to-back Conference USA championships on both the 1-meter and 3-meter springboards in 2002 and 2003.

• Won the C-USA platform diving championship in 2002, the only platform event in which she competed at UH.

• Honored as the Conference USA Diver of the Week 11 times in two seasons, including seven times during the 2002-03 season alone.

• Won a silver medal during the 3-meter synchronized diving competition at the European Championships in Berlin in August 2002 and captured a gold medal in the 3-meter event.

• Won a silver medal in synchronized diving at the 2001 FINA World Championships in Japan.

• Competed at the 2001 Goodwill Games in Brisbane, Australia.
