2019 UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE
The 2019 University of Houston Football media guide was designed, written and edited by the Houston Athletics Communications Department. Covers created by Houston Athletics Marketing. Printing by University of Houston Printing and Postal Services.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press, radio, television, photography or scouting credentials should be made online at UHCougars.com/Credentials AT LEAST ONE WEEK PRIOR TO THE GAME. Season credential requests should be requested by August 23. Seating in the press box is for working media and scouts only.

All space for the working press, radio and television is allocated by the Houston Athletics Communications Office, which reserves the right to deny credentials to any outlet. Spouses, dates, children, equipment carriers and non-workers are restricted from receiving credentials. Any abuse of a working credential will result in the media agency losing credential privileges.

Freelance and/or non-daily writers may be asked to produce copies of actual publications in which their work has appeared.

Admission to the press box is by credential only.

ACCREDITATION GUIDELINES

- Only full-time, salaried employees intending to provide actual game coverage may receive credentials.
- A requesting media agency must represent a collective, organizational editorial voice, not simply the offerings of a single individual.
- Membership in a writers' association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials.
- Previous year's receipt of Houston Athletics credentials and/or credential requests granted by other Houston sports teams do not guarantee granting of 2018-19 Houston Athletics credentials.
- An online entity, not associated with a traditional media agency, may qualify for one credential, subject to the following conditions:

1. An online entity may receive a credential only if its own full-time staff writes a majority of that site's material.
2. Online entities that focus primarily on University of Houston Athletics and sponsor message boards or chat rooms, may receive credentials provided they adhere to a policy that requires that a posted message or opinion is identified with the actual name and city of the individual posting the message.
3. Any online service that is recognized as an outlet intended primarily for the purpose of delivering news related to the recruitment of student-athletes will not qualify for credentials.
4. Online entities (other than those identified above) registering 50,000 legitimate unique users per month in each of the past 12 months will be given first consideration.

HOUSTON ON THE WEB

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

Collegepressbox.com is the official media web site for The American Athletic Conference. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its 12 member schools throughout the season.

Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

ASSISTANCE

The University of Houston Athletics Communications Office is at your service to assist you with your coverage of Houston Football. Assistant Athletics Director for Communications Jeff Conrad, Director Kyle Rogers, Assistant Director Alex Brown, Assistant Director Ryan Levine and Ted Nance Communications Assistant Katie Sellards will be happy to serve you during the 2018 season.

For information regarding credentials, team and student-athlete information, interviews, statistics, photos, video highlights, press conferences and satellite feeds, please call the Houston Athletics Communications Office at (713) 743-9404.

The Athletics Communications Office is located in the Ted Nance Suite (No. 2008) on the second floor of the Athletics/Alumni Center, located on Cullen Boulevard between Darryl & Lori Schroeder Park and Hofheinz Pavilion. If available, parking will be provided in the front lot of the Athletics/Alumni Center.

INTERVIEWS

Head Coach Dana Holgorsen, assistant coaches and student-athletes are available for interviews throughout the 2019 season. With games taking place on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, please check with the Houston Athletic Communications Office for media availability week to week.

The locker, training and weight rooms along with team meeting rooms and hallways inside the Athletics/Alumni Center are off-limits to reporters unless escorted by a member of the Houston Athletics Communications Office.

The Houston Athletics Communications Office does not release student-athletes' phone numbers.

MEDIA WILL CALL

In most cases, credentials will be mailed. Credentials may be picked up through to the day before a game in the Athletics Communications Office. Credentials not mailed or picked up will be held at media will call, located at Gate 4 on the north side of TDECU Stadium.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only accredited photographers on assignment from recognized media outlets will be issued sideline credentials. No freelance photographers will be admitted to the sidelines.

All photographers must obtain and wear an armband (available in the press box on game days) and a media pass to shoot. NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 25-yard lines (the team areas). Children under 18 years old are not permitted on the sideline.

The University of Houston is, and shall be, the sole owner of any and all copyrights, intellectual property rights and proprietary rights for images, sounds and data arising from or during Houston home athletics contests.

PARKING

Separate parking passes WILL be needed to enter the media portion of the stadium parking garage at TDECU Stadium. Parking is limited and approval of credentials does not constitute approval of parking passes.

PRESS BOX

The TDECU Stadium Pressbox is located on the third floor of the south side of TDECU Stadium and is accessible through elevators located on the south side.

REFRESHMENTS

A pregame meal will be available to the media. Drinks will be available throughout the game.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Quarter, halftime and complete final statistics will be provided. Postgame quotes from head coach Dana Holgorsen, student-athletes and the visiting coach will be distributed via email after the game.

Statistics will be emailed to those media who request such service following the game and will be posted at UHCougars.com. To make an email request, please see a member of the Athletics Communications staff in the press box.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Houston maintains a closed-locker room policy. With approximately five minutes remaining in the game, members of the media will be escorted to the field by a member of the Houston Athletics Communications Staff.

Following a cooling off period, Head Coach Dana Holgorsen and selected Houston student-athletes will be made available to the press.

Each visiting team will set its own postgame interview policy, which will be announced in the fourth quarter.

VIDEO SERVICES

The University of Houston's Athletics Communications Office can provide video highlights to networks and television stations through Houston Athletics Video Production Department.

The Department has editing and studio facilities inside the Athletics/Alumni Center and can reproduce highlights and other materials upon receipt of requester's FTP information. Please make requests at least two days in advance at (713) 743-9420.

Video, including b-roll from games and practice, is available on The American Athletic Conference's FTP site for media. For access, please contact Chuck Sullivan from The American at csullivan@theamerican.org.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Members of the working media are invited to attend a weekly press conference with Head Coach Dana Holgorsen. The press conference is held in the Carl Lewis Auditorioum at the Athletics/Alumni Center. For dates and times on the press conference, email the Houston Athletics Communications Office. Fans and alumni are not allowed entrance.

THE AMERICAN CONFERENCE CALL

Coaches from The American Athletic Conference will participate in a teleconference each Monday.

Media representatives wishing to participate on the teleconference should contact The American Athletic Conference office to obtain the access phone number.

Dana Holgotsen will be available to take questions for approximately seven to 10 minutes on this call, scheduled to be on from 10:50 a.m. - 11 a.m. CT.

THE HOUSTON COUGARS

ABOUT THE 2019 COUGARS

« Twenty-three full or part-time starters return for the 2019 season. The 2018 leaders in rushing, passing, receiving, total offense, field goals, scoring, punting, punt returns, kick returns, all-purpose yards and interceptions return.

« The offense is the side of the ball with the most returns as eight players with double-digit career starts return in 2019: OL Josh Jones (36 career starts), OL Braylon Jones (30), QB D'Eriq King (22), WR Keith Corbin (17), OL Jarrid Williams (17), WR Courtney Lark (13), WR Marquez Stevenson (13) and RB Patrick Carr (11).

« In addition to the returning starters, Houston returns 91.2 percent of its 2018 rushing yards, 99.8 percent of its passing yards, 82.3 percent of its receiving yards and 85.3 percent of its scoring.

« On the defensive side of the ball, Houston will look to replace eight players with double-digit career starts including three NFL Combine invitees but does welcome back seven players with starting experience, three of which have double-digit career starts in LB Leroy Godfrey (19 career starts), S Deontay Anderson (13) and DL Payton Turner (11). Safety Gleson Sprewell, the team's leader in interceptions in 2018, also returns having started nine games in 2018.

« The program welcomed an incoming signing class of 16 which included five who have enrolled for the spring semester in DL Olivier Charles-Pierre, LB Terrance Edgeston, S Jordan Moore, DL Taures Payne and CB Damarion Williams. In January Houston also welcomed to the program QB Logan Holgorsen and S Thabo Mwaniki.

« Five members of the 2018 roster counted forward to the 2019 signing class as Houston has accounted for 21 of 25 allowed spots in the 2019 signing class with the aforementioned 16.

« Since 2013, Houston leads the state of Texas among FBS schools with 53 wins. The Cougars are one win ahead of TCU, four ahead Texas A&M, six ahead of Baylor and 12 games ahead of Texas in that span.

« Houston leads the state of Texas FBS schools with 10 seasons of at least eight wins since 2006. TCU is second in that span with nine.

« Houston enters 2019 second on The American's all-time win list in conference games with 33 conference wins. Since the league's inception, UCF leads with 37 wins, while Temple is third with 31 wins.

« After three years of competition, the 2019 senior class is the 31st-most winningest class in Houston football history with 24 wins since 2016. Ten wins will move the group into the UH top 10, in a tie for seventh, while the class is 14 wins away from the record of 38 established by the 2016 senior class.

« Houston enters 2019 riding a streak of six straight bowl appearances, the 16th-longest active streak in the nation and the longest in The American. The current six-game streak is a program best, topping the previous from 2005-09.

COACHING CHANGES

« Dana Holgorsen was named Houston's 15th head coach on Jan. 2, 2019, after eight seasons in the same position at West Virginia. Holgorsen closed his tenure at WVU as the second-winningest coach in Mountaineer history with an eight-year record of 61-41. His 61 wins trailed only College Football Hall of Famer Don Nehlen for most wins in West Virginia history. He led the Mountaineers to bowl games in seven of his eight seasons including each of the last five.

« Carrier is one of two Houston wide receiver alums from 2008-11 joining the Houston coaching staff as Justin Johnson was named the program's running backs coach in March.

« The offensive staff is rounded out by co-offensive coordinator/offensive line coach Brandon Jones, who spent the last two seasons on the Texas Tech staff, and tight ends coach Shannon Dawson who arrived after three years as offensive coordinator at Southern Miss.

« The defensive side of the staff also includes a pair who spent their last five seasons at Arkansas State in defensive coordinator/linebackers coach Joe Cauthen and defensive line coach Brian Early. On the back end, special teams coordinator/nickels coach Blake Gideon arrives after one season at Georgia State and cornerbacks coach Zac Etheridge does the same after one season at Louisiana.

ON THE OFFENSIVE

« Since 2006, only Oklahoma and Oregon have racked up more yards than Houston, which has 83,477 in that span.

Rank	Team	Total Yards (06-present)
1.	Oklahoma	86,242
2.	Oregon	84,453
3.	HOUSTON	83,477
4.	Texas Tech	82,642

« Houston has scored in 236 straight games dating back to Sept. 30, 2000.

« Houston ended 2018 fifth nationally in scoring offense with an average of 43.9 points per game and seventh in total offense with an average of 512.5 yards per game.

« Houston, Oklahoma and Clemson were the only schools to rank in the top 25 for both passing offense (No. 16 | 295.5) and rushing offense (No. 24 | 217.1) in 2018.

« The offense ranked fifth nationally with 92 plays of at least 20+ yards and 11th with 13 plays of 50+ yards.

« The versatility of the offense was evident as 10 different players had receiving TDs, eight of which return in 2019, and nine different players across three position groups had rushing TDs, of which eight return in 2019.

« Houston opened the season with 40+ points in its first three games of a season for the first time in program history and expanded the streak through its first eight games. The eight-game streak set the Houston record for the longest such streak.

« With 45 points at Rice, 49 at Texas Tech and 49 at Navy, Houston scored 45+ in at least three road games in a season for only the third time in program history (2011, 1989) and the first time since the 2011 team accomplished the feat five times.

« After 18 of Houston's 53 scoring drives in 2017 lasted less than two minutes, the Cougars had 43 scoring drives of less than two minutes in 2018 with 13 lasting less than one minute. Houston had 32 scoring drives of five plays or less.

« Since 2015, Houston has 19 games with 500+ yards of total offense and eight games with 600+ yards. It has scored more than 40 points 22 times and more than 50 points seven times.

THE KING OF THE END ZONE

« With 50 total touchdowns and a two-point conversion in 11 games, D'Eriq King was responsible for 302 points, leading the nation with an average of 27.5 points responsible per game.

« Unfortunately, he was lost for the remainder of the season after a knee injury vs. Tulane.

« With his 50 touchdowns responsible for, King broke The American's previous single-season record of 45 set by UCF's McKenzie Milton in 2017. He was 13 touchdowns away from the NCAA single-season record of 63 set by Hawaii's Colt Brennan in 2006.

« With his 36 passing TDs, which ranked sixth nationally, King was only three away from breaking The American's single-season record set by Memphis' Riley Ferguson in 2017.

« King finished seventh nationally and tops in The American with an average of 332.4 yards of total offense per game while leading The American and ranking 16th nationally with 271.7 passing yards per game.

« The Manvel, Texas, native also ranked seventh nationally and led The American with a passer rating of 167.0.

« King ranked 20th nationally and fourth in The American with 14 rushing touchdowns.

« Named the Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts, King threw for his third 400-yard game of the season against USF with 419 yards and five touchdowns on 28-of-40 passing. He also added his second 100-yard rushing game of the season with 132 yards and two scores on the ground.

« He became only the 13th FBS QB with 400+ yards passing and 100+ yards rushing in a game with the performance.

« He was the first UH QB to throw for at least 300 yards and rush for 100 yards in a game since Kevin Kolb in 2003, and is the only UH quarterback to accomplish the feat twice in a season after doing so again vs. Temple.

« With five passing touchdowns and one rushing score vs. Temple, King had at least two passing scores and a rushing score in 10 straight games. It was the longest such streak by an FBS player in over 20 years.

« He's one of just three quarterbacks in FBS history with at least 35 passing TDs and 13 rushing TDs in a season.

« He's one of just three players in the past decade (Marcus Mariota and Geno Smith) to record at least 25 touchdowns and no more than three turnovers in his team's first six games.

« King is steadily climbing the UH record charts - ranking No. 6 in TD passes in a season, No. 7 in TD passes in a career, No. 6 in rushing TDs in a season, No. 13 in rushing TDs in a career, No. 5 in TDs responsible for in a season and No. 6 in TDs responsible for in a career.

« With King out for the remainder of 2018, Houston turned to true freshman Clayton Tune who completed 59-of-117 passes for 795 yards and eight touchdowns against two interceptions on the year.

LENDING A HAND OR TWO

« Houston returns 82.3 percent of its receiving yards from the 2018 season to go along with 35 of its 45 touchdown receptions.

« Houston is one of six schools nationally, and two in The American, to have a 1,000-yard receiver each of the last four seasons as Demarcus Ayers (2015 | 1,222 yards), Linell Bonner (2016 | 1,118), Steven Dunbar (2017 | 1,070) and Marquez Stevenson (2018 | 1,019) each accomplished the feat.

« Against Navy, UH had three 100-yard receivers in the same game for the eighth time in program history and the first since Nov. 29, 2008, as Stevenson (141), Courtney Lark (106) and Keith Corbin (104) all hit triple digits.

« Corbin was second in The American and 21st nationally with 10 TD receptions while Stevenson was third and 29th with nine.

« Named to The American's First Team, Stevenson has proved to be electrifying with six plays of 50+ yards and 12 plays of at least 30 yards, which ranked sixth and 11th in the nation, respectively.

« He led The American with five games of at least 100 receiving yards and was fifth in the league with 78.4 receiving yards per game and third with 5.8 receptions per game.

« After no TD receptions in his first two seasons, Corbin pulled in 10 in 2018. He had a TD in eight of 12 games.

« Corbin had a career day at Texas Tech, pulling in seven receptions for 103 yards and two touchdowns, both career highs, as he eclipsed the century mark for the first time in his career.

« Lark doubled up his career touchdown receiving total entering the season with two scores against Rice.

« He recorded his first career 100-yard receiving game at Navy with 106 yards, including a career-long 65-yarder.

« The trio is joined by three others with double-digit receptions in 2018, led by converted sophomore quarterback Bryson Smith who finished the year with 30 receptions for 285 yards and four touchdowns. Smith's classmate, Jeremy Singleton had 19 receptions for 285 yards and two touchdowns while senior Terry Mark had 11 receptions for 99 yards and two scores.

« With starting tight end Romello Brooker graduating, Houston will turn to a new face with sophomore Parker Eichenberger leading all returners with two receptions for four yards and two touchdowns in 2018.

BACK TO THE BACKS

« With 91.2 percent of its 2018 rushing yards returning in 2019, it's no surprise that Houston is returning five of its top six backs.

« Senior Patrick Carr leads the way, starting all 10 games UH with a RB and led Houston with 873 yards rushing and five touchdowns on 152 attempts.

« Carr rushed for a career-best 139 yards and two TDs against on Tulane on only 18 attempts, averaging 7.7 yards per carry.

« He was fifth in The American with 11 runs of at least 20 yards.

« Houston's second-leading running back, senior Mulbah Car suffered an injury vs. SMU and missed two games, returning at Memphis. He finished the year with 325 yards and two touchdowns on 66 carries during the season.

« With backfield injuries, junior Chandler Smith, who had 30 carries for 139 yards and two touchdowns saw additional action in 2018.

« Taking advantage of the NCAA's new redshirt rule, redshirt-freshman Kelan Walker led Houston with 105 rushing yards, including a 72-yard TD, against TSU, one of two games he saw action in during the season.

« The backfield saw even more help against Tulane as junior Grant Stuard, who had seen action in the first 10 games at defensive back, moved over and rushed four times for 31 yards. Stuard added an additional four-yard carry at Memphis.

THE LINE ON THE LINE

« For the fourth straight year, a new offensive line coach has stepped in with options across the front as Brandon Jones will oversee a group that has a combined 82 career starts and 156 career games played, although it will look to replace two day-to-day starters in center Will Noble, a four-year starter, and left guard Mason Denley.

« Senior tackle Josh Jones leads the way with 36 career starts, having stepped into the left tackle role in the 2016 opener and never looking back.

« At right guard, senior Braylon Jones has started every game the last two seasons (25) and has 30 career starts in total.

« Senior Jarrid Williams is third on the line in terms of starts, having started 15 career games including all 13 games in 2018 at right tackle.

TURNOVER U

« Since the start of the 2013 season, no program has taken the ball away from opposing offenses more than Houston with 171 turnovers forced in that time with 24 in 2018, 21 in 2017, 18 in 2016, 35 in 2015, 30 in 2014 and 43 in 2013. Houston has an 16-turnover lead on its closest competitor in that stretch - Louisiana Tech.

« Houston has forced a turnover in 17 straight games, ranking third nationally among active streaks.

Active Turnover Streak...

Team	Games
1. UCF	32
2. Indiana	18
3. Houston	17

« UH has forced multiple turnovers in 56 of its last 85 games.

« Houston has been opportunistic with its turnovers, ranking third nationally since 2010 with 45 non-offensive touchdowns including 25 defensive touchdowns over the last six seasons.

« Houston was sixth nationally and second in The American with four defensive touchdowns in 2018, including a touchdown in each of the final three road games of the season.

« Junior safety Gleson Sprewell gave Houston its third straight road game with a defensive touchdown when he picked up an SMU fumble and returned it 24 yards for a score.

« He followed that with a second defensive touchdown on the road, returning a Memphis interception 63 yards for a score.

SPRING AUDITIONS

« The 2019 spring practice period was the first audition for several student-athletes in front of a new coaching staff, as the Houston program looks to replace several long-time starters on the defensive side of the ball. In addition to the replacements, Houston will offer a new defensive look in 2019, moving from a 3-4 to a 4-3.

« In all, Houston lost 11 players who had accounted for 185 career starts while returning seven players who have accounted for 60 career starts.

« Of the seven newcomers who joined the Houston roster for the spring semester, six were on the defensive side of the ball including four junior college transfers.

FOREMEN

« Switching from a three-man front to a four-man front, Houston will essentially be looking for three new starting defensive linemen in 2019 with junior defensive end Payton Turner the lone returning day-to-day starter from 2018, starting the first 11 games of the season before a season-ending injury.

« The top tackler among returning defensive linemen, Turner finished his sophomore campaign with 42 stops including 4.5 tackles for loss while breaking up four passes and blocking one kick.

« Junior Isaiah Chambers will be counted on after suffering a season-ending injury in the fifth game of 2018. Despite only playing in five games, Chambers was second on the Houston team and 14th in The American with 4.5 sacks, part of his 10 tackles and six tackles for loss on the year.

« With three-time All-American Ed Oliver limited with injuries in 2018, senior Aymiel Fleming picked up six starts to end the season, finishing the year with 21 tackles including one for loss and a forced fumble.

« Oliver's injury also allowed for additional playing time for senior Blake Young who saw action in 10 games including action in each of the final eight.

« Despite missing six games, sophomore defensive lineman Willie Smith III saw extended action as a true freshman, totaling nine tackles while manning the middle of the three-man line.

« Smith was one of two true freshmen to see significant time on the line as Logan Hall played in all 13 games, starting the Armed Forces Bowl vs. Army, and finishing the year with 14 tackles including three for a loss.

« Houston has added bodies to the competition in the spring with junior college transfers Taures Payne and Olivier Charles-Pierre.

DEFENSE NOTES

SMASHMOUTH FOOTBALL

« Just as the numbers along the line has changed, the same will be true for the linebackers in 2019 switching from four starting linebackers to three, which comes after losing three of four starting linebackers from the 2018 team including NFL Combine invitee Emeke Egbule and a member of The American's All-Conference First Team in Austin Robinson.

« Houston's lone returning starter from the linebackers room is senior Leroy Godfrey who started all 13 games in 2018 after starting six in 2017. Godfrey finished last season with 42 tackles including 5.5 for loss as well as two pass breakups.

« Sophomore Derek Parish made his mark on the Houston defense, picking 1.5 sacks as part of 21 total tackles on the year.

« Junior David Anenih is Houston's returning leader in terms of tackles for loss, picking up 6.5 TFLs in 2018 including four sacks as he posted 20 total tackles in 12 games of action.

« A second junior linebacker, Elijah Gooden, saw action in all 13 games in 2018, finishing the year with 14 tackles including 1.5 tackles for loss and one sack.

« Two Houston sophomores saw major action in 2018 as true freshmen. Donavan Mutin played in 10 games finishing the year with seven tackles, while Zamar Kirven saw action in nine games with eight tackles.

« Senior Jordan Milburn has seen action in 36 career games, including all 13 in 2018, and has 11 career tackles with over half, six, coming in 2018.

« Junior Jordan Carmouche picked up nine games of action in 2018, finishing with 12 total tackles.

« Sophomore Amaud Willis-Dalton also made his linebacker debut in 2018, playing in five games.

« Houston also added another face to the linebackers room in the spring in junior college transfer Terrance Edgeston.

SAFE ZONE

« It's a tale of two positions in the secondary as Houston returns its starting safeties in juniors Deontay Anderson and Gleson Sprewell after losing its top three corners with a combined 41 career starts in a Houston uniform.

« After stepping into the starting lineup in the fourth game of 2018, Sprewell finished third on the Houston team, and leads all returning tacklers, with 81 total stops.

« After picking off his first pass vs. Tulane, Sprewell doubled it up in the next game, picking off two Memphis passes, one he returned 63 yards for a Houston touchdown, his second defensive touchdown of the year.

« Sprewell had eight stops vs. USF while breaking up two passes and had six PBUs on the year to go along with his three interceptions.

« He followed at SMU with a career-high nine tackles and his first defensive score, returning a fumble 24 yards for a TD.

« Anderson arrived in Houston in 2018 after one season of action at Ole Miss. Ranked the No. 1 safety in the nation by ESPN in the 2016 recruiting class, he earned Freshman All-SEC honors in 2016.

« Anderson finished just behind Sprewell with the fourth-best tackle total in 2018, finishing the year with 72 stops including four tackles for a loss.

« The transfer made his first turnover in a Houston uniform vs. Tulsa, picking off a pass to set up UH's final TD of the night. He also forced a fumble in the game that was recovered by Emeke Egbule.

« At corner, Houston lost Alexander Myres (18 games started at Houston), NFL Combine invitee Isaiah Johnson (12) and Nick Watkins (8 games in lone season at Houston) and will now look to retool the position in 2019.

« One name that will be given an opportunity to make an impact right away will be junior college transfer Damarion Williams who earned NJCAA First Team All-America honors in 2018 at Highland Community College where he led the nation with seven interceptions and 17 pass breakups in 10 games.

« Houston has four corners who have seen action for the program led by senior Ka'Darian Smith (26 career games played), junior Javian Smith (20), sophomore Shaun Lewis (13) and junior D.J. Small (7).

« The group of returners was led in 2018 by Ka'Darian Smith who had six tackles while Lewis and Javian Smith each had four.

« The Cougars also have an additional name in the room in redshirt-freshman Johnathan Phenix.

THE PUNT-AH

« Thirty-year old senior punter Dane Roy is back for his fourth and final season in America as Houston's starting punter.

« At 29, Roy is the third oldest player in FBS football behind Colorado kicker James Stefanou (32) and UCLA punter Wade Lees (31), both natives of Melbourne, Australia.

~~Oldest~~ Wisest Players on FBS Level

Rank	Player	Position	Age
1.	James Stefanou, Colorado	K	32
2.	Wade Lees, UCLA	P	31
3.	Dane Roy, Houston	P	30
4.	Jesse Beal, West Virginia	TE/FB	29

« The Bunyip, Australia, native and former Australian rules football player for Richmond Central led The American in 2017 with 25 punts inside the 20 and with 43.1 percent of his punts inside his opponents 20. Twelve of his 55 punts were inside his opponents' 10-yard line.

« Despite leading the league in punts inside the 20, Roy was fifth in The American with an average of 41.8 yards per punt in 2017.

« Roy was second in The American in punts inside the 20 with 22 in 2018 as he finished the season ninth overall in the league with a punting average of 42.1 yards per punt.

« Prior to arriving in Houston, Roy won the longest kick competition at the AFL grand final in Melbourne, Australia, after booting a torpedo 73 meters, which equates to 79 yards. Roy, who stands 6-7, also has a personal-best hang time of 5.4 seconds.

SPOONMAN

« Junior Dalton Witherspoon took over the starting kicking role in Houston's second game of 2018 vs. Arizona and never looked back, responding with a 35-yard field goal and connecting on all six extra point attempts.

« He had his first career multi-field goal game vs. Tulsa, connecting on kicks from 40 and 33 yards out.

« After totaling two points vs. Army, Witherspoon ranked third among kickers, and sixth among all players, in The American with 93 points.

« Witherspoon was back on the field after setting single-season records for longest field goal (58), most field goals in a season (17) and most points by a kicker (92) at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M in 2016.

« Houston will look for a new kickoff specialist in 2019 as Caden Novikoff graduated after holding the role in 2018, finishing fifth in The American with 29 touchbacks.

RETURNS DEPARTMENT

« Houston had seven different players record a kick return in 2018, all of which return in 2019 led by Marquez Stevenson who had 12 returns for 269 yards on the year and Bryson Smith with six returns for 126 yards.

« Houston as a team ranked fifth in The American with an average of 21.0 yards per return while finishing seventh in kickoff return defense, giving up 20.6 yards per return.

« One year after not having a single player on the roster who a punt return, Houston returns all three punt returners from 2018 led by Smith with 12 returns for 93 yards. Stevenson also had three returns for 22 yards while redshirt-freshman Payton Sawyer had one for 25 yards.

« Houston ended 2018 fourth in The American in punt returns with an average of 9.8 yards per return and second in punt return defense, allowing only 8.4 yards per return.

Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics

Houston Football letterman and former captain Chris Pezman was named Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of Houston in December of 2017.

During the 2018-19 athletic year, Houston Athletics opened the $60-million Fertitta Center, home of men's basketball, women's basketball and volleyball, and won six American Athletic Conference Championships between men's basketball, men's and women's track & field, women's golf and swimming & diving.

The 1992 Houston Football team captain arrived in Houston after spending just under four years as Senior Associate Athletics Director for Facilities, Operations & Event Management, and Capital Projects/Chief Operating Officer at the University of California – Berkeley.

At Cal, Pezman quickly reorganized his departments to gain operational and financial efficiencies and implemented a comprehensive work order system to appropriately maintain $1 billion in physical assets under his purview.

Pezman also oversaw Capital Projects for the Intercollegiate Athletics Department which included the $10 Million Haas Pavilion scoreboard and audio improvements project, $5 Million Underhill field hockey facility, La Loma field hockey practice facility, Maxwell Field/ Stadium parking garage and several substantial pending projects. Additionally, he also served as the primary football administrator.

Prior to joining Cal, Pezman served as Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations at Houston for the 2012 and 2013 seasons, with his primary responsibilities including the organization and management of all business aspects for the football program.

He was instrumental in an increase in football restricted donations and the number of donors involved in the football restricted fund while also serving as a liaison with construction managers for the renovation of the Houston Football locker room, new practice fields and TDECU Stadium construction.

Well known throughout the city of Houston from his decade tenure with NRG Park, Pezman lettered three seasons for the Cougars (90-92) and served as the team's captain during the 1992 campaign. The Laguna Beach, Calif., native finished with 51 tackles over his final three years and was a standout on special teams.

Pezman quickly rose up the ranks during his time with SMG-NRG Park. He began as Assistant Director of Operations and was promoted to Director of Outside Operations in 2003, where he maintained oversight of the Parking and Traffic Control, 24-Hour Security, and the site's grounds. In 2005 he became the Director of Operations, maintaining several of his previous responsibilities while absorbing Changeovers/Set-ups, Housekeeping and Grounds Crew.

Pezman remained involved with his alma mater following his graduation and earned his masters degree from UH in 1995. He first served as a graduate assistant coach (1993-94) while earning his postgraduate degree and then served as an assistant to the director of athletics for two years. Pezman was elevated to Assistant Athletics Director for Operations, where he was involved with facility scheduling, facility oversight and summer camps before taking on his role with NRG Park and SMG Management.

In addition to playing with 1989 Heisman Trophy winner Andre Ware, Pezman helped lead UH to a 10-1 record in 1990 and won the team's Wilson Whitley "Fighting Heart" Award as a captain in 1992.

The two-time Southwest Conference Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll member earned his undergraduate degree in economics and completed course work for his masters in hotel and restaurant management.

Pezman is married to the former Marisol Guillamondegui and the couple has three children: Seth, Sydney and Sarah.

DAVID TAGLIARINO

Deputy Athletics Director

With more than 25 years of experience in the Houston sports market, University of Houston alum David Tagliarino was named deputy athletics director at his alma mater on Jan. 25, 2018.

Tagliarino, UH class of 1993, arrived on Cullen Boulevard after six years as Chief Operating Officer/Senior Vice President for Forever Orange, LLC, where he was responsible for the leadership, oversight, and management of day-to-day operational aspects for the organization's five companies: the Houston Dynamo, the Houston Dash, BBVA Compass Stadium, Houston Sports Park and Dynamo Charities.

While at Forever Orange, Tagliarino was a member of the organization's senior management team and was responsible for designing and instituting necessary business plans, strategies and initiatives across the enterprise in addition to managing more than 400 full-time and part-time employees and a multi-million operating budget.

Tagliarino joined the Houston Dynamo organization as Senior Vice President in February 2012, overseeing the team's communications, marketing and sponsorship services departments before being promoted to his latest role in 2014 when his added responsibilities included overseeing all finance and accounting operation, information technology, human resources, legal, box office operations and facility operations among other key duties.

Prior to his role with Forever Orange, Tagliarino served as the director of sports marketing & sponsorship sales at SMG-NRG Park from 2001-12 when he was responsible for overseeing all new corporate sponsorship business as well as securing, negotiating and managing the company's sports marketing initiatives.

During his time at NRG Park, he assisted in securing and/or managing some of the most-high profile sporting events, including the 2002 and 2005 Big 12 Football Championships, Super Bowl XXXVIII, 2008, 2010 and 2015 NCAA Men's Basketball Regional Tournaments and the 2011 and 2016 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four Tournament events.

Tagliarino began his career in 1992 working as the Houston Rockets' marketing, promotions and special events manager, where he assisted and managed various areas from game operations and special events to marketing and promotions initiatives for the organization.

After the Rockets' first NBA Championship in 1994, Tagliarino joined the expansion hockey franchise, the Houston Aeros. During his five-year tenure with the Aeros, he served as director of community relations and executive director for the Houston Aeros Charities, the organization's non-profit foundation.

Receiving many accolades and awards for his outstanding work in the Houston community and for the International Hockey League, Tagliarino joined the Tampa Bay Lightning's front office to serve in similar roles and responsibilities. His commitment and passion were quickly recognized as the Lightning received national acclaim while finishing runner-up for the "1999 Pro Team" Award, which recognizes sports franchises for their outstanding work within their communities.

THE UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

TIER ONE UNIVERSITY • RANKED ONE OF THE BEST COLLEGES IN U.S.

• Founded in 1927, the University of Houston is the leading public research university in the vibrant international city of Houston. Each year, we educate more than 40,900 students in more than 300 undergraduate and graduate academic programs, on campus and online. UH awards more than 8,000 degrees annually, with more than 200,000 alumni.

• UH is located in Houston, Texas, the nation's fourth-largest city and the energy capital of the world. Our students regularly test their skills through internships with national and international companies based here, and our faculty routinely partner with businesses and government agencies through research.

• Our undergraduates choose from 120 majors and minors. At the graduate level, we offer 139 master's, 54 doctoral, and three professional degree programs. You may study online through our Distance Education program, or take noncredit courses through Continuing Education. Many of our academic programs rank among the nation's best.

• Our faculty and students conduct research through 25 research centers and in every academic department. UH research regularly breaks new ground and opens doors to new ways of understanding the world.

• University of Houston faculty are renowned scholars with real-world experience who work closely with each student. From the Tony Award to the Nobel Peace Prize and back to the classroom, UH faculty makes things happen on campus and around the world.

• With more than 500 student organizations and 16 intercollegiate sports teams, life at UH is active and lively. About 6,000 students live on campus in residence halls, apartments and townhouses.

• UH alumni total 224,000. Of that number, 63 percent live in the Houston area and 75 percent live in the state of Texas.

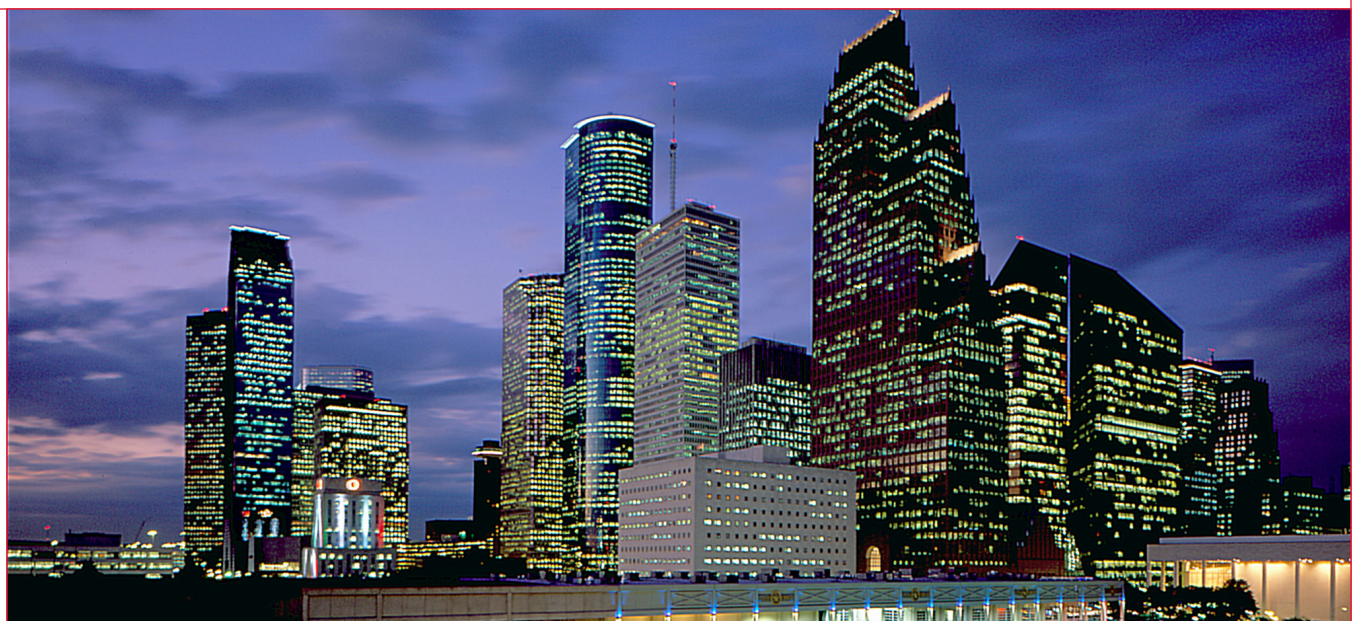

• The University of Houston is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award baccalaureate, master's, professional and doctoral degrees.

• In addition, the University is a member of the Council of Graduate Schools in the United States, the Conference of Southern Graduate Schools, the National Commission on Accrediting, the Association of Texas Colleges and Universities, the American Council on Education, the Association of American State Colleges and Universities, the Association of American Colleges, the Association of Urban Universities, and the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges. UH colleges, programs and professional associations also hold memberships and accreditations by additional agencies.

• When the Carnegie Foundation elevated the University of Houston to Tier One status in 2011, the designation made the university one of only three public Tier One research universities in the state of Texas, along with the University of Texas and Texas A&M.

HOUSTON - OUR CITY

4TH LARGEST CITY IN NATION • VOTED BEST CITY IN AMERICA

• The style-savvy residents of the country's fourth-largest city and third-largest county (Harris) know that there's no place quite like Houston.

• With more than 2.2 million residents, the city attracts visitors and transplants with a wonderful mix of world-class arts, booming business, pro and college sports and award-winning cuisine.

• As the rest of the country discovers what locals have known all along, Houston is finally enjoying the recognition it deserves. Just last year, the city landed on several "best of" lists, including the Travel + Leisure roundup of America's Favorite Cities and the Hotwire.com index of most affordable U.S. vacation destinations.

• See for yourself, here in Houston, where much of daily life happens outdoors, thanks to mild, year-round temperatures. Take time to explore the eclectic, culture-filled neighborhoods, gallery spaces and attractions, which offer diverse flavors that can only be found here.

• Take the food, for example. Countless cutting-edge chefs have made a home in Houston, where diners eat out more than residents of any other city. Here, you'll find James Beard Award winners and internationally renowned chefs serving up innovative cuisine that frequently catches the attention of foodies in Bon Appetit, Food & Wine and Saveur.

• Venture Downtown during your stay and discover a thriving professional arts scene with professional resident companies in ballet, opera, symphony and theater; only four other U.S. cities can say the same. And the nearby Museum District stakes its claim as the country's fourth largest, with 18 cultural powerhouses set within blocks of one another.

• We have our own version of Central Park, too, offering nearly 1,500 acres of green space in the heart of the city. Just inside "the loop," Memorial Park is home to a public golf course, swimming pool, tennis courts, trails and more. Downtown, Discovery Green park is outfitted with WiFi, a farmers market, dog runs, fine dining and ice-skating during the winter—just one more of the 650-plus urban green spaces filling the city.

• Not surprisingly, businesses also recognize the allure of Houston's offerings. Twenty-five companies on the Fortune 500 list call the Energy Capital of the World home. Aeronautic research is unsurpassed at NASA headquarters—the facility responsible for putting the first man on the moon—and Texas Medical Center remains the largest in the world with 47 highly lauded research and treatment institutions.

• Come. Live like a local for a few days and discover why Houston's mix of international appeal and Southern charm have captured the imagination of tastemakers the world over.

AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The American Athletic Conference consists of 13 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Connecticut, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has fashioned an impressive list of accomplishments in the competitive arena, in the classroom and in support of student-athlete welfare. The American is firmly established as a Power 6 conference thanks to its collection of national team and individual championships, football and men's and women's basketball postseason victories, expansive media rights contracts with the leading national outlets, and its commitment to providing the highest levels of support for student-athletes.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams – UConn men's basketball in 2014 and UConn women's basketball in 2014, 2015 and 2016 – in addition to three New Year's Six bowl champions (UCF in 2013 and 2017; Houston in 2015), 12 NCAA individual championships, and a Rhodes Scholar. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, reached the semifinal and final rounds of the NIT, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field championships.

In 2018, The American once again saw a member school claim a spot in a New Year's Six bowl as UCF capped a 12-win season in the PlayStation Fiesta Bowl. It was the the fourth time in six seasons that The American placed its champion in a New Year's bowl. Cincinnati enjoyed an 11-win season that included a win against Virginia Tech in the Military Bowl as seven teams from the conference played in bowl games. UCF was ranked No. 11 in the final Associated Press poll, while Cincinnati was No. 23 in the final coaches' poll.

In addition to the success in football, The American saw UConn reach the NCAA Women's Final Four for the 11th consecutive year, while Houston reached the round of 16 in men's basketball. Houston finished third at the NCAA Men's Outdoor Track and Field Championship, while SMU registered a top-eight finish at the NCAA Men's Golf Championship.

The 2017 football season saw The American enjoy unprecedented success as UCF finished as the only undefeated team in the nation, and the first in the last four college football seasons, capping a 13-0 campaign with a win against Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. UCF ended the year as the No. 1-ranked team in the Colley Matrix and was ranked No. 6 in the final Associated Press poll.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed some of their best seasons in program history as members of the conference. UCF has finished in the national top 10 twice in six seasons as a conference member – in 2013 and 2017. Houston went 13-1 in the 2015 football season, setting a school record for wins, while Navy won a program-record 11 games in its first season in the conference, also in 2015. Memphis, which had not won 10 games in a season since 1938, has registered two 10-win seasons in the last four years (2015, 2017), while Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in school history in 2015. USF finished in the top 25 for the first two times in program history (2016, 2017). Cincinnati registered its third 11-win season in program history in 2018.

Since the conference's reconstitution in 2013-14, teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, men's golf, and men's track and field. Houston's Kahmari Montgomery capped the 2018-19 season with an NCAA individual title in the outdoor 400-meter dash, giving The American at least one national individual champion in five of the league's first six seasons.

Under The American's banner, the UConn women's basketball team won its NCAA-record ninth, 10th and 11th national championships and broke its own NCAA record with a 111-game winning streak that spanned three seasons. Houston's men's track and field team took third place at the 2018 and 2019 NCAA Outdoor Championships. Tulsa placed sixth at the 2016 NCAA Men's Cross Country Championship

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting. More recently, Houston's Ed Oliver won the 2017 Outland Trophy as the nation's best interior lineman, while UCF quarterback McKenzie Milton was the only player in the nation to finish in the top 10 of the Heisman Trophy balloting in both 2017 and 2018. UConn basketball standout Breanna Stewart finished her career in 2016 as the most decorated player in college basketball history as she was chosen as the consensus national player of the year for the third time and became the first player be named four times as the Most Outstanding Player at the Final Four. Reynolds and Stewart were selected as the winners of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athletes, marking only the second time in the 86-year history of the award that multiple winners were chosen.

Additionally, SMU's Avery Acker was chosen as the Division I women's volleyball Academic All-America of the Year in 2015, while Tulsa cross country standout Kirk Smith was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in the fall of 2016.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional sports as well, beginning with the selection of UCF quarterback Blake Bortles by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the No. 3 pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. A number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer.

The American announced a lucrative and comprehensive media rights extension with ESPN in May of 2019, providing the conference with a stronger and more extensive presence on ESPN's primary television networks (ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU). When the extension takes effect in the 2020-21 academic year, a minimum of 40 regular-season football telecasts per season will appear on those primary networks and nearly every conference-controlled game will appear on an ESPN network or on ESPN+.

The first four American Athletic Conference Football Championships were televised by ABC as part of Championship Saturday. The 2019 Football Championship is also slotted for an ABC telecast, while subsequent championship games will appear on either ABC or ESPN through the duration of the 12-year extension.

American Athletic Conference teams have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure. An American representative would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams in the CFP selection committee's final ranking. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in a New Year's Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

Additionally, The American holds primary or secondary partnerships with 12 bowls for the current six-year cycle, ensuring multiple annual matchups against the nation's top conferences and providing desirable postseason destinations to member institutions.

Away from the competitive arena, The American has established itself as a leader in the area of student-athlete wellness, both through the adoption of NCAA autonomous legislation on matters including full cost of attendance and nutrition. The conference, in conjunction with its Student-Athlete Advisory Committee has also launched the Pow6rful Minds campaign to improve awareness and education on mental issues and recognize the scholarly achievements of the conference's student-athletes.

The American Athletic Conference serves its membership from a state-of-the-art office located in Providence, Rhode Island. The location of the conference headquarters – just steps from the city's Amtrak station and 10 minutes from T.F. Green International Airport – gives the conference easy access to its member schools. The conference headquarters also serves as the home of the American Digital Network, which provides live coverage of all 22 conference championships.

DANA HOLGORSEN

Head Coach
Iowa Wesleyan, 1993
First Season as Head Coach

• Dana Holgorsen was named head coach at Houston on Jan. 1, 2019, after eight seasons as head coach at West Virginia.

• Holgorsen closed his tenure at West Virginia as the second-winningest coach in Mountaineer history with an eight-year record of 61-41. His 61 wins trailed only College Football Hall of Famer Don Nehlen for most wins in West Virginia history.

• He led the Mountaineers to bowl games in seven of his eight seasons including each of the last five seasons. His first season at West Virginia ended with a 70-33 rout of Clemson in the Orange Bowl.

• Throughout his career, Holgorsen has had 21 players earn All-America honors, win 10 national awards and 14 national award finalist honors.

• He has displayed his ability to prepare players for the next level as West Virginia had 10 NFL draft picks in first three rounds in the past seven years, second most in Big 12 with at least one Top-15 draft pick in four of the past seven years. In all, he had four NFL Top-15 draft picks during the past seven years, the most in the Big 12, and 20 players drafted in seven years at WVU, tied for second-most in the Big 12 during that span.

• An offensive genius, his passing offenses and total offensive output have ranked in the Top 10 nationally all but four years during the 14-year span since he became offensive coordinator at Texas Tech in 2005.

• He's had eight quarterbacks pass for 4,000 or more yards and 10 throw for 30 or more touchdowns in a season with 20 receivers finishing with 1,000 or more yards in a season, including 11 finish with 90 or more receptions and 16 finish with double figure TD receptions in a season.

• He is the only coach in West Virginia history to have coached a team with at least 450 rushing yards in a game (Oklahoma, 2012) and at least 450 yards passing in a game (six times).

• He had 10 wins over Top 25 opponents in his eight-year tenure at WVU.

• West Virginia has been ranked in both major polls at least one week in seven of his eight years including the entire 2018 season with several weeks inside the top 10.

• In 2018, Holgorsen led a West Virginia team that was ranked every week during the season and finished the regular season with a No. 15/16 ranking in both major polls.

• Under his leadership, quarterback Will Grier finished No. 4 in the Heisman Trophy race and was a finalist for the Maxwell Award, The Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, the Senior CLASS Award and the Manning Award. Grier was ranked in the top 10 nationally in 11 offensive categories and seven categories in the top five.

• In addition to Grier, three players earned All-America honors in David Long Jr., David Sills V and Yodny Cajuste while Dante Stills was named a Freshman All-American.

• Long was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and was a semifinalist for the Butkus Award while Cajuste was named Big 12 Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year.

• West Virginia had a school-record eight players named to the All-Big 12 teams, including five on the first team with 16 players named to the Academic All-Big 12 first and second teams.

• The 2018 offense ranked No. 3 in passing offense, No. 4 in passing efficiency, No. 8 in total offense and fourth-down conversion, No. 9 in scoring offense, No. 12 in completion percentage and passing yards per completion and No. 25 in third-down conversion. The defense ranked No. 11 in tackles for loss, No. 28 in turnover margin, No. 28 in passes intercepted and No. 36 in third-down conversion defense.

• Outside of football, Holgorsen served as the chair of the WVU Medicine Children's capital campaign, raising $60 million to build a new home for pediatric and maternal services.

• In 2017, he led the Mountaineers to a 7-6 record and 5-4 in the Big 12 Conference. WVU participated in its fourth-straight bowl game and sixth in the seven years under Holgorsen's direction as it took on Utah in the Heart of Dallas Bowl.

• In 2016, the AFCA District 4 Regional Coach of the Year and Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year finalist led the Mountaineers to a 10-3 overall mark and 7-2 record in the Big 12.

• His 2016 team achieved the ninth 10-win season in school history, becoming one of six WVU teams to do it in the regular season. Holgorsen is one of three WVU coaches, along with Nehlen and Rich Rodriguez, to post multiple 10-win seasons. The seven Big 12 wins were the most in a season, tying for second place in the standings, WVU's highest finish. In the national rankings, WVU's offense was ranked No. 17 in total offense, No. 20 in first down offense, No. 25 in rushing offense, No. 31 in pass efficiency, No. 37 in passing yards per completion and No. 42 in pass offense. Defensively, WVU was No. 24 in turnovers gained and fumbles recovered, No. 35 in passes intercepted and scoring defense and No. 38 in turnover margin. WVU placed 10 players on the Big 12 All-Academic teams and 16 of his 21 seniors had their degrees when they played in the Russell Athletic Bowl.

• In 2015, Holgorsen guided the Mountaineers to eight wins, the most since becoming a member of the Big 12 Conference, and finished the season with an exciting, 43-42 Cactus Bowl victory over Arizona State. The Cactus Bowl appearance saw the Mountaineers tie or break 19 individual or team, school and Cactus Bowl records and produced 11 NCAA top 10 bowl rankings. Nine players earned All-Big 12 Conference honors, including two being named to All-America teams. There were seven All-Big 12 Academic team selections and 17 players already had their degrees in hand when they played in the bowl game, ranking among the top 10 nationally in number of graduates playing in a bowl game.

• Holgorsen led the Mountaineers to a Liberty Bowl berth in 2014, his third bowl in four seasons at WVU. West Virginia posted a 7-6 overall record and 5-4 in its third year in the Big 12 Conference and finished in a tie for fourth place in Big 12 action.

• In 2013, Holgorsen coached the Mountaineers to victory over No. 11 Oklahoma State, marking his fifth win over a Top 25 team at WVU. He also had six players earn All-Big 12 Conference honors, including the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year.

• In 2012, Holgorsen led WVU into its first year of competition in the Big 12 Conference, guiding West Virginia to a 7-6 overall record and an appearance in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Five Mountaineers earned 25 All-America honors and three were drafted in the top three rounds of the NFL draft. Holgorsen is the only WVU coach to have had a first-round NFL draft choice for two consecutive years (2011 and 2012).

• Holgorsen had a successful first season at WVU in 2011, coaching the Mountaineers to a 10-3 record, the Big East championship and a 70-33 Orange Bowl rout of Clemson. The victory was WVU's third Bowl Championship Series championship in school history and earned Holgorsen the First-Year Coach of the Year award by the Football Writers Association of America.

• Before West Virginia, Holgorsen spent the 2010 season as offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State. He was a finalist for the 2010 Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant, and also named the rivals.com Offensive Coordinator of the Year. The Cowboys led the nation in total offense during the regular season and finished No. 2 in passing offense and No. 3 in total and scoring offense. OSU averaged 520.23 yards per game in total offense, including 345.9 passing yards and 44.23 points per game. Oklahoma State's offense ranked No. 61 nationally in total offense in 2009, the year before Holgorsen arrived, and he took it to the No. 1 spot during the 2010 season. He helped lead the Cowboys to a school-record 10 wins during the regular season and a win in the Valero Alamo Bowl, after preseason predictions had OSU near the bottom of the Big 12 Conference.

• Postseason accolades rolled in for Holgorsen's offensive players as quarterback Brandon Weeden became the first OSU passer to earn first team all-Big 12 honors. He was a finalist for the Manning Award, given to the top quarterback in the nation. Receiver Justin Blackmon won the 2010 Biletnikoff Award, given to the top receiver in the nation, and running back Kendall Hunter was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award, given to the nation's top running back. Weeden, Hunter and Blackmon became only the second trio in NCAA history to pass for at least 3,000 yards, run for more than 1,500 yards and finish with more than 1,500 yards receiving in the same season.

• During his two-year tenure with Houston, his offenses put up explosive numbers, accounting for 563 yards of total offense per game, passing for 433.7 yards per game and totaling more than 42.2 points per game. His offense ranked No. 3 in total offense in 2008 and No. 1 in 2009. His quarterback, Case Keenum, led the nation in total offense in 2008 and 2009, totaling 403.2 yards per game as a sophomore and 416.4 yards his junior season. He also ranked among the Top 10 nationally in pass efficiency both years.

• Before his two-year stint with the Cougars, Holgorsen was a member of the coaching staff at Texas Tech from 2000-07, serving as the inside receivers coach from 2000-04, before being elevated to co-offensive coordinator in 2005 and offensive coordinator in 2006-07. During his time in Lubbock, his offenses increased the amount of yardage from 324.8 yards of total offense to 529.6, an increase of more than 200 yards per game. The Red Raiders were No. 7 nationally prior to Holgorsen becoming offensive coordinator and raised their yardage total to No. 4 in 2005, his first season directing the offense.

• In his two years as offensive coordinator, his squad was nationally ranked No. 8 in 2006 and No. 3 in 2007. In 2007, Texas Tech led the nation in passing (470.31), was No. 2 in total offense (529.62) and was No. 7 in scoring offense (40.9). Quarterback Graham Harrell led the nation in total offense and Biletnikoff Award winner Michael Crabtree led the nation in receptions per game and receiving yards per game. In 2006, the Red Raiders ranked No. 3 nationally in passing offense and No. 6 in total offense. Harrell once again was outstanding, finishing No. 3 nationally in total offense with 344.38 yards per game. Texas Tech led the nation in passing in 2005, was No. 4 in scoring offense (39.4) and No. 6 in total offense (495.83). Quarterback Cody Hodges was No. 2 in the nation with 396.08 yards per game.

• Holgorsen also spent time at Valdosta State (1993-95) as the quarterbacks, receivers and special teams coach, Mississippi College (1996-98) as the quarterbacks, receivers and special teams coach and at Wingate (1999) as the quarterbacks and receivers coach. While at Valdosta State in 1994, Chris Hatcher won the Harlon Hill Trophy, the NCAA Division II Player of the Year award, by the second largest vote margin in the 17-year history of the award. Hatcher won the award after throwing for 4,076 yards and 55 touchdowns, against just 10 interceptions, while completing 367 of 508 passes. Hatcher led Division II in passing efficiency during the regular season and directed VSU to its first Division II post-season appearance.

Coaching Accomplishments

• Marquel Blackwell was named Co-Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks coach at Houston on Jan. 11, 2019, after one season as running backs coach at West Virginia.

• In his lone season at West Virginia, Blackwell helped lead a Mountaineer offense that eclipsed the 500-yard and 40-point marks eight times during the season including 704 yards and 56 points vs. Oklahoma.

• West Virginia had three different running backs register 100-yard rushing games during the 2018 season in Leddie Brown, Kennedy McKoy and Martell Pettaway. Brown became the first WVU true freshman to record multiple 100-yard rushing games since Noel Devine in 2007.

• Blackwell arrived in West Virginia after serving as the running backs coach at Toledo in 2016-17. He was part of a staff that led the Rockets to a 20-7 mark during his tenure, including an 11-3 record in 2017, the 2017 Mid-American Conference championship and two bowl appearances.

• Terry Swanson led the Mid-American Conference with 1,363 rushing yards and was third in the league with 14 touchdowns.

• That same season saw Shakif Symour run for 704 yards and had 12 rushing touchdowns, No. 3 in the MAC and No. 4 among all freshman in FBS. Against Bowling Green, Seymour tied a school record with five rushing touchdowns.

• In 2016, Kareem Hunt led the MAC and was No. 15 nationally with 1,475 yards while rushing for at least 100 yards eight times.

• A third-round NFL Draft selection by the Kansas City Chiefs, Hunt finished with a Toledo-record 4,945 yards, ranking No. 3 in MAC history.

• Under Blackwell's guidance, Toledo ranked fourth in the MAC in rushing offense (195.0 ypg) in 2016. He helped four running backs to gain 200 yards or more rushing during the season. Swanson was second on the team with 600 rushing yards.

• Prior to his time at Toledo, Blackwell coached 20 high school players who earned Division I scholarships, as well as three college players who became first-round NFL draft picks.

• Blackwell's first coaching positions came at Freedom High in New Tampa, Florida, first as the offensive coordinator in 2006, then as the head coach from 2007-08. He returned to USF from 2009-11 as a quality control coach.

• Following a year as the running backs coach at Western Kentucky in 2012, Blackwell returned to USF, as the director of player development in 2013. He returned to the high school ranks in 2014 as the offensive coordinator at Lakewood High, before spending the 2015 season at Florida as a quality control specialist, working with the Gator quarterbacks.

• As a player, Blackwell was USF's starting quarterback for four years (1999-2002) and led the Bulls to a 30-12 mark. He threw for 9,108 yards and 57 touchdowns and had 1,235 rushing yards and 20 touchdowns in his career. He set most of the Bulls' career passing records and is among the tops in rushing yards and touchdowns. The three-year captain led the Bulls to a 9-2 record as a senior before playing in the NFL with the New York Jets.

Coaching Accomplishments

• Brandon Jones was named Co-Offensive Coordinator and Offensive Line coach at Houston on Jan. 11, 2019, after two seasons as offensive line coach at Texas Tech.

• Jones joined the Houston program after overseeing the front unit of a team that ranked No. 12 nationally in total offense and No. 3 nationally in passing offense. Sophomore Jack Anderson earned second-team All-Big 12 honors under Jones' leadership.

• In his first season in Lubbock, Jones mentored a young offensive line that featured a junior, three sophomores and a true freshman in the starting lineup for the majority of the season. Tech still managed to remain one of the nation's top offenses, however, as the Red Raiders ended the year ranked ninth nationally for passing offense, 16th for total offense and 23rd for scoring.

• Anderson developed into one of the top freshmen in the country during his first semester on campus as he earned Freshman All-America honors by both ESPN and USA Today. Anderson, who started all 13 games at right guard, was the first Red Raider to collect Freshman All-America accolades since 2013 and the first offensive lineman to do so since 2012.

• In addition, the running game drastically improved during Jones' first season as Tech averaged 140.9 rushing yards per game, an improvement by nearly 40 yards from the 2016 campaign.

• Jones arrived at Tech after helping build Cal's offensive line into one of the top units in the country in 2016. Jones, who served as run game coordinator and offensive line coach, boosted a unit that ranked 82nd in sacks allowed the year prior to his arrival to 22nd nationally and second in the Pac-12 Conference at the end of the 2016 campaign.

• Cal was one of the top offenses in the country in positive plays during Jones' final season as the Golden Bears ranked 13th in tackles for loss allowed. Cal was also among the top-10 teams nationally in passing offense and total offense during his two seasons.

• Jones was hired at Cal after helping install a wide-open spread offense during his five seasons at East Carolina. The Pirates saw quick results in just Jones' first season as East Carolina ended the year ranked eighth nationally in passing offense, 16th in scoring offense and 25th in total offense.

• The Pirates rewrote the school record book during Jones' tenure, breaking the marks for scoring average (40.2), first downs (346), passing offense (328.1 yards per game) and total offense (533.0 yards per game). He produced seven offensive linemen who earned all-conference honors during his tenure which also featured four bowl appearances.

• Jones spent one season coaching running backs and tight ends at Sam Houston State (2009) before joining the East Carolina staff. The Sam Houston State position was his first full-time role after his two seasons as an offensive assistant with the Red Raiders.

• Texas Tech experienced one of its most successful two-year runs in school history during Jones' two seasons on staff. The Red Raiders combined for 20 wins during that time which featured trips to the Gator Bowl (2007) and the Cotton Bowl (2008) as well as an end-of-season top-25 ranking from the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches' polls.

• Jones began his coaching career after starting 22 games mainly at center for the Red Raiders. He earned honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades as a junior before becoming a Rimington Award (nation's top center) candidate during his senior season.

• The Red Raiders combined to win 17 games over his final two seasons, the final of which was highlighted by Tech's come-from-behind victory over Minnesota in the 2006 Insight Bowl. Tech trailed Minnesota by 31 points in the third quarter before rallying for a 44-41 overtime victory, marking the largest comeback in bowl history.

JOE CAUTHEN

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS | FIRST SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Joe Cauthen was named defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Houston on Jan. 18, 2019, after five seasons as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas State.

• Cauthen has 29 years coaching experience, including 23 at the collegiate level. He not only implemented an aggressive and attacking style in his five seasons at A-State, but also transformed the Red Wolves into one of the most opportunistic defenses in the nation with a focus on creating turnovers.

• Under Cauthen's direction, the Red Wolves have ranked among the top 21 teams in the nation each of the last four seasons in defensive touchdowns with 22 total over that span. The 2015 campaign saw A-State's defense record an FBS-high eight touchdowns, while also leading the country in interceptions with a school FBS-era-record 26. During Cauthen's time at Arkansas State, the Red Wolves totaled 79 interceptions, the seventh-best total nationally in that span.

• His attacking defense has been a menace behind the line as Arkansas State had at least five tackles for loss in 39 of its last 42 games and has ranked in the top 25 nationally in each of the last three seasons in TFLs including 13th in 2018.

• The 2018 season saw Arkansas State as one of the toughest defenses in the air, finishing the season 11th nationally in passing defense, allowing only 177.8 passing yards per game.

• Defensive end Ronheen Bingham was named Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year, and was one of six Arkansas State players to earn postseason honors from the conference.

• Not only did A-State's defense rank 21st in the country in defensive touchdowns in 2017, the Red Wolves' also finished among the top teams in the country in tackles for loss (No. 6), 4th down conversion percentage defense (No. 9), sacks (No. 19), 3rd down conversion percentage defense (No. 21), fumbles recovered (No. 27), turnovers gained (No. 29), passes intercepted (No. 32), 1st downs defense (No. 32), rushing defense (No. 33), team passing efficiency defense (No. 40) and red zone defense (No. 42).

• Arkansas State's defense helped the team reach a bowl game, the Camellia Bowl, for a school-record seventh consecutive season and saw eight players named All-Sun Belt Conference, including linebacker Kyle Wilson, who went on to sign a free agent contract with the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. Defensive end Ja'Von Rolland-Jones finished his career in 2017 as the NCAA's second all-time leader in career sacks, and he was tabbed the league's Conference Player of the Year for the second consecutive season before going on to sign a free agent deal with the Cincinnati Bengals.

• Cauthen's 2016 unit helped A-State collect a second consecutive Sun Belt Conference title while leading the nation in tackles for loss with 9.6 per game. Not far behind, A-State ranked No. 6 in sacks (3.31 per game).

• That kind of production led to A-State placing two defensive ends on the First Team All-Sun Belt Conference squad, including Rolland-Jones. Just the second defensive player to ever earn the league's highest honor, Rolland-Jones broke the school and Sun Belt Conference records for career sacks during the season. Fellow defensive end Chris Odom finished the year with 12.5 sacks and signed a free agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons.

• Rolland-Jones and Odom were among nine defensive players named All-Sun Belt in 2016, helping the Red Wolves rank No. 4 in the nation in fourth down conversion percentage defense (.250), No. 8 in defensive touchdowns (4), No. 19 in scoring defense (21.5), No. 23 in pass efficiency defense (117.25), No. 24 in fumbles recovered (11) and No. 29 in total defense (362.8).

• Cauthen's defensive unit finished the 2015 season ranked second in the country in turnovers gained (34), 11th in fourth-down conversion percentage defense (.333), 19th in third-down conversion defense (.335), 41st in sacks (2.38 pg) and 44th in rushing defense (151.5 ypg). The defense played a vital role in A-State's undefeated run to a Sun Belt Conference championship and appearance in the New Orleans Bowl.

• This was all one year after the Red Wolves ranked No. 14 in the nation in defensive touchdowns (4), No. 15 in passes intercepted (16), No. 17 in team sacks (2.85 per game), No. 21 in turnovers gained (28), No. 27 in third down percentage defense (.359), No. 28 in fumbles recovered (12), No. 36 in fourth down percentage defense (.435) and team tackles for loss (6.6 per game), No. 42 in red zone defense (.795), No. 44 in passing yards allowed (216.0 ypg) and No. 45 in team passing efficiency defense (122.26). Those results helped lead A-State to the GoDaddy Bowl for an unprecedented fourth consecutive year.

• Cauthen's aggressive style has led to a combined 146 sacks that are the program's most over any four-year span since moving to FBS status in 1992. The Red Wolves also posted at least 86 tackles for loss each of the last four seasons, achieving the feat for the first time in school history.

• Cauthen's defense produced six All-Sun Belt Conference performers in 2014, including first team linebacker Qushaun Lee, and seven more in 2015. The Cauthen-coached Lee posted a team-high 110 tackles and career-best four interceptions during his senior season to conclude his career as the Sun Belt Conference's second all-time leader in tackles. Among A-State's 2015 all-league selections were linebackers Xavier Woodson-Luster and Khari Lain, who were the top two leading tacklers on the squad. The Red Wolves' 2016 all-conference picks included linebackers Woodson-Luster and Wilson, who was named to the All-Newcomer Team.

• Prior to A-State, Cauthen most recently spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee. Cauthen served as the Blue Raiders' defensive line coach in 2012 and 2013 after working as the linebackers coach in 2011. He was also the special teams coordinator all three years he spent at MTSU.

• The Blue Raiders put together back-to-back eight win seasons Cauthen's last two years at the school and played in the Armed Forces Bowl in 2013. He tutored a pair of all-conference players during his time as defensive line coach, including Jimmy Staten in 2013 and Omar McLendon in 2012.

• MTSU proved to be an opportunistic defense in 2013 with Cauthen a part of the coaching staff as the Blue Raiders ranked fifth in the nation in turnovers gained with 33, including 15 interceptions and 18 fumble recoveries. MTSU also ranked 17th nationally in red zone defense (.755) and 19th nationally in passing defense (203.4 ypg). His defensive line also helped the team rack up 67 tackles for loss and 27 sacks.

• In his first year guiding the defensive line, Cauthen molded a young group that showed marked improvement from 2011. McLendon earned all-conference honors while Kendall Dangerfield and Staten enjoyed career years.

• Cauthen made his way to Middle Tennessee after spending the previous four seasons at Valdosta State as the Blazers defensive coordinator. In 2010, Cauthen helped lead Valdosta State to a Gulf South Conference Championship after his defense finished ranked 23rd nationally in total defense and 18th in scoring defense. His unit was led by All-American and National Defensive Player of the Year Larry Dean. Dean, who had 122 tackles, became the first player in school history to earn the player of the year award.

• Cauthen molded a solid group in 2009 despite losing seven starters off the 2008 squad and seeing two more suffer season-ending injuries over the course of the first three games. Under his direction, the Blazers still managed to register 68 TFLs, 18 sacks, and force 19 turnovers while giving up just 112.9 yards per game on the ground.

• Cauthen's defense was dominant during the 2008 season as it finished 31st nationally in total defense and 24th in scoring defense. The Blazers allowed opponents just 304.6 yards per game during his second season with the school while surrendering just 18.6 points per outing. On the rushing side, the Blazers only allowed 108.3 yards per game to rank 31st in the nation while opponents found throwing the ball even tougher as they were held to a 104.91 efficiency rating, a number that ranked VSU 20th nationally. In 2007, Cauthen directed a unit that finished 14th in the nation in scoring defense at 17.6 points per game as VSU won its second national title. Cauthen's knowledge of the defensive side of the ball was no more evident than in the 2007 NCAA Championship game, where his scheme held Northwest Missouri State running back Xavier Omon, who had averaged 236 yards a game in three previous playoff contests, to just 63 yards on 27 carries, an average of 2.3 yards per carry.

• Cauthen's aggressive, ball-hawking defensive approach helped VSU lead the nation in passes intercepted with 27 in 2007 while finishing second in turnovers gained with 40. Additionally, Valdosta State was 25th in passing efficiency defense (105.9) and 33rd in rushing defense (120.9 yards per game).

• Cauthen's ability to teach the game of football helped several Blazers earn individual honors during his tenure. He had two players earn three All-America honors, five named all-region, and 13 make all-conference. Cauthen's tutelage also helped Sherard Reynolds earn GSC All-Decade Team honors after the 2009 season, the only VSU defensive player to earn first team honors on that list.

• Cauthen joined the Blazers after eight seasons with Texas A&M-Commerce, during which the Lions consistently ranked among the top defenses in the nation. A&M-Commerce led the Lone Star Conference and was ranked 23rd nationally in total defense in 2006 as the Lions compiled a 5-5 mark. Cauthen's defense surrendered just 258.3 yards per game, including 95.3 on the ground and 163.0 through the air. The Lions allowed just 15.1 points per game, 19th-best nationally, and were 24th in rushing defense.

• The Lions were equally as impressive in 2005 as they again led the Lone Star Conference in total defense (318.9 yards a game), rushing defense (127.4 yards per game) and scoring defense (18.3 points an outing). A&M-Commerce was 47th nationally in total defense and 42nd in rushing defense while finishing 22nd in scoring defense. Additionally, under Cauthen's leadership, Lion linebacker J.D. Hearn led the nation in tackles in 2005 and earned eight national post-season awards.

• During his seven seasons with the Lions, Cauthen coached six All-Americans, four Lone Star Conference linebackers of the year, three defensive lineman of the year, a defensive back of the year and 34 defensive players that earned All-Lone Star Conference at least once during their career.

• Cauthen spent little time in establishing his mark on the Texas A&M-Commerce defense as in just his third year he directed a defense that ranked second in the league in total defense, first against the run, second against the pass and third in scoring defense. Two years later, his 2003 defense was fourth in the 15-team league and 41st nationally in total defense.

• Cauthen joined the Lion staff in 1999 after two seasons at I-AA (now FCS) Stephen F. Austin. He began his tenure with SFA as a restricted earnings coach in 1997 before becoming full-time in 1998. He worked with the defensive line during his two seasons and aided the Lumberjacks to an 11-11 overall record. Cauthen's line was instrumental in Stephen F. Austin finishing the 1997 season ranked 21st in the nation in the final national poll.

• Prior to Stephen F. Austin, Cauthen spent a season as defensive line coach at Trinity Valley Community College in Athens, Texas. He also worked with the special teams unit at TVCC and served as the school's strength and conditioning coach. He began his coaching career at Sherman High School in Sherman, Texas during the 1990 season and worked with the school for five seasons. In addition to teaching biology for the school, Cauthen worked with the freshman team his first year and as an assistant for the varsity squad from 1992 through 1995. Additionally, he served as an assistant for the school's baseball, power lifting and basketball programs. Cauthen's coaching was instrumental in leading both Trinity Valley and Sherman to post-season berths during his time with the schools.

DOUG BELK

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SAFETIES | FIRST SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Doug Belk was named Co-Defensive Coordinator and Safeties coach at Houston on Jan. 11, 2019, after two seasons as cornerbacks coach at West Virginia.

• The 2018 season saw Belk's cornerbacks play a pivotal role in West Virginia ranking second in the Big 12 and No. 20 nationally with 15 interceptions. Cornerback Keith Washington Jr. tied for fifth in the Big 12 with three interceptions on the year.

• In Big 12 play, WVU hauled in 12 interceptions, ranking No. 1 in the conference

• The 2017 defense ranked No. 16 nationally in most defensive three-and-outs per game and No. 24 in best third-down defense.

• Prior to his time at West Virginia, Belk served as the defensive graduate assistant coach at Alabama for two years, working with the defensive backs. He worked directly with Head Coach Nick Saban and defensive coordinators Kirby Smart and Jeremy Pruitt, assisting with all aspects of the defensive secondary as well as with special teams.

• During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide was 40-4, earning three College Football Playoff appearances, winning the 2015 National Championship, finishing as national runner-up in 2016 and winning three Southeastern Conference titles (2014-16).

• The 2016 defense was No. 1 nationally in scoring defense and No. 2 in total defense. The unit also was No. 9 nationally and No. 2 in the SEC in pass efficiency defense, No. 14 in interceptions and No. 24 in passing yards allowed. Belk helped develop cornerback Minkah Fitzpatrick, who earned consensus All-American honors, cornerback Marlon Humphrey, who earned All-America First-Team honors and safety Eddie Jackson, who was an All-SEC First-Team member.

• The 2015 defense was No. 3 nationally in scoring defense and total defense, No. 10 in interceptions and No. 30 in passing yards allowed. Jackson earned All-America honors, while Fitzpatrick and Humphrey were named to freshman All-American teams. Cornerback Cyrus Jones was drafted in the second round by the New York Giants.

• The 2014 defense was No. 6 nationally in scoring defense and No. 12 nationally in total defense. Belk helped develop Landon Collins, who finished his senior season as a unanimous All-American selection and was drafted by the New York Giants in the second round.

• Prior to Alabama, Belk was the defensive secondary coach at Valdosta State in 2012-13. He was a defensive assistant and worked with special teams in 2011. During his tenure, Valdosta State produced a 24-10 record and won the NCAA Division II National Championship in 2012. Belk helped develop two All-Americans, two Academic All-Americans and three All-Gulf South Conference selections. Cornerbacks Dominique Wheeler and Matt Pierce signed free agent contracts in the NFL with Jacksonville Jaguars and Tennessee Titans, respectively.

TYRON CARRIER

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/RECEIVERS | FIRST SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Tyron Carrier was named Assistant Head Coach and Receivers coach at Houston on Jan. 11, 2019 after three seasons as receivers coach at West Virginia.

• In 2018, Carrier was named Football Scoop's Receivers Coach of the Year as he helped lead a Mountaineer offense that eclipsed the 500-yard and 40-point marks eight times during the season including 704 yards and 56 points vs. Oklahoma.

• Carrier's pupils, David Sills V and Gary Jennings Jr. formed one of the nation's most dangerous tandems as the two were part of only five players nationally with at least 13 receiving touchdowns.

• Sills caught a team-high 65 passes for 986 yards and 15 touchdowns, one off from the national lead, while Jennings caught 54 passes for 917 yards and 13 scores in 11 appearances.

• In addition to Sills and Jennings, junior Marcus Simms caught 46 passes for 699 yards and two scores, sophomore TJ Simmons snared 22 receptions for 277 yards and one score, while senior Dominique Maiden caught eight passes for 130 yards and a score.

• West Virginia was only one yard shy of joining Alabama and Hawai'i as the only teams to boast three 700-yard receivers.

• As a team, West Virginia finished fourth nationally in passing (351.3 yards per game), eighth in total offense (512.3) and 10th in scoring (40.3 points per game). The Mountaineers' 153 completions of 10-plus yards were ninth in the nation, and its 36 gains of at least 30 yards were fourth.

• Sills was named a Second Team AP All-American and a First Team All-Big 12 performer, while Jennings was an Honorable Mention All-Big 12 honoree.

• In three seasons as a Mountaineer, all under Carrier's watch, Sills finished seventh in Big 12 history with 35 career touchdown receptions.

• West Virginia boasted two 1,000-yard receivers in 2017 as Gary Jennings Jr. led the unit with 97 catches for 1,096 yards and a touchdown and Ka'Raun White finished with 61 catches for 1,004 yards and 12 touchdowns. David Sills V, named to 10 different All-American teams, tied for the national lead with 18 touchdowns and was a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top receiver. He had 60 catches for 980 yards, while Marcus Simms finished with 35 catches for 663 yards and five touchdowns.

• The Mountaineer offense ranked No. 3 nationally in fourth-down conversion percentage, No. 13 in passing offense, No. 16 in passing efficiency, No. 20 in total offense and No. 25 in first-down offense and passing yards per completion.

• In 2016, Shelton Gibson and Daikiel Shorts Jr. earned All-Big 12 Conference Second Team honors and White was named to the Academic All-Conference team. Gibson was No. 4 nationally in yards per reception and No. 47 in receiving touchdowns and receiving yards. Shorts was No. 7 in the Big 12 in receiving yards, No. 10 in receiving yards per game and No. 12 in receptions per game. White was No. 15 in the league in receiving touchdowns, No. 14 in receptions per game and No. 16 in receiving yards per game.

• The offense ranked No. 17 in total offense, No. 20 in first-down offense, No. 31 in passing efficiency, No. 37 in passing yards per completion and No. 42 in passing offense.

• Prior to West Virginia, Carrier spent one season as a graduate assistant at Baylor where the Bears boasted one of the top receiving corps in the nation, led by Corey Coleman, a unanimous All-America selection and Biletnikoff Award winner.

• A Houston letterwinner, Carrier finished his stellar four-year career tied for the NCAA record with seven kickoff returns for touchdowns. He also set an NCAA record by making two or more receptions in all 53 games of his collegiate career.

• He ranked No. 2 on the NCAA's all-time receptions chart (320) and his 7,490 career all-purpose yards rank No. 6 all-time. He finished with 3,459 yards and 22 TDs on 320 receptions, 330 yards and one touchdown rushing and 3,459 yards and seven touchdowns on kick returns.

• A two-time All-Conference USA selection at wide receiver and kick returner, Carrier earned 2009 All-America honorable mention as a kick returner from Sports Illustrated as a sophomore.

• Also a track star at UH, Carrier competed in the 2008 U.S. Olympic Trials, where he ran a 20.54 200-meters. Carrier was a seven-time state champion in relays and 200m individual champion at Worthing High in Houston, where he starred in football and track.

• Following his collegiate career, Carrier played two seasons for the CFL's Montreal Alouettes. He finished No. 5 in the league in 2013 with 1,117 combined return yards and two touchdowns.

Coaching Accomplishments

• Shannon Dawson was named tight ends coach at Houston on Jan. 11, 2019, after three seasons as offensive coordinator at Southern Miss.

• His final year at Southern Miss saw the Golden Eagles as the No. 3 team nationally in completion percentage, completing 69.2 percent of their passes. Sophomore quarterback Jack Abraham ranked third in the league and 22nd nationally with an average of 260.8 passing yards per game while leading the nation with a completion percentage of 73.1 percent and ranking fourth nationally with 24.8 completions per game. Sophomore receiver Quez Watkins earned first team All-Conference USA honors after finishing second in the league with nine touchdown receptions while true freshman center Trace Clopton earned FWAA Freshman All-America honors.

• Despite missing his starting quarterback for three games and in limited action in two more contests in 2017, the Golden Eagles were still able to amass 424.6 total yards per game, just behind league champion Florida Atlantic and West Division champ North Texas. His efforts also helped former Golden Eagle Ito Smith become just the 10th running back in FBS history to rush for over 4,000 yards and collect at least 1,000 receiving yards.

• In his first season with Golden Eagles, he mentored Nick Mullens in his senior season, who ended his career first in passing yards and touchdowns thrown. Mullens signed a free-agent contract with the San Francisco 49ers heading into this season. Southern Miss also set a school record for total offensive yards in a game with 702 against Rice.

• He also helped build some of the nation's most prolific offenses at West Virginia, where he spent four seasons, including his last three as offensive coordinator. In his last season in Morgantown, WVU ranked 12th in the nation in total offense, averaging 499.8 yards per game, and was ninth nationally in passing offense at 317 yards per contest. The Mountaineers averaged 33.5 points per game and set a school record by scoring at least 30 points in eight consecutive games. WVU also averaged more than 182 rushing yards per game.

• A native of Clinton, La., Dawson played his college football at Wingate (N.C.) University as a quarterback and wide receiver. He began his coaching career as receivers coach at his alma mater in 2002.

• Dawson linked up with former Kentucky head coach Hal Mumme in 2003-04 to help revive a program at Southeastern Louisiana that had been dormant for 17 years. He also coached with Mumme at New Mexico State in 2005.

• Dawson went to Millsaps College as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2006-07. The Majors won the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference championship both years, the first back-to-back titles in school history, and quarterback Juan Joseph was two-time SCAC Offensive Player of the Year. Millsaps played in the NCAA Division III playoffs in 2006.

• Dawson moved to Stephen F. Austin University as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2008-10. With the Lumberjacks averaging only 16 points a game during a winless 2007 season, Dawson helped orchestrate an amazing turnaround in SFA's offensive fortunes. In his first season, the Lumberjacks ranked third in the nation in passing offense, 13th in total offense and 14th in scoring offense.

• SFA won or shared the Southland Conference championship the next two seasons, advancing to the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs both years. In 2009-10, SFA led the nation in passing offense while ranking in the top six nationally in total offense and scoring. Quarterback Jeremy Moses was a two-time All-American, two-time Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year and won the Walter Payton Award as the FCS National Player of the Year. Wide receivers Dominique Edison and Contrevious Parks went on to play in the NFL.

Coaching Accomplishments

• Brian Early was named defensive line coach at Houston on Jan. 18, 2019, after five seasons in the same position at Arkansas State.

• All five seasons at A-State saw the Red Wolves rank among the top 41 teams in the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss, while he also tutored at least two all-conference selections on the defensive line each year. Arkansas State made five straight postseason appearances at the 2015 GoDaddy Bowl, 2015 New Orleans Bowl, 2016 Cure Bowl, 2017 Camellia Bowl and 2018 Arizona Bowl, and the Red Wolves won back-to-back Sun Belt Conference titles in 2015 and 2016 with a combined 15-1 record.

• His lines have been a menace behind the line as Arkansas State had at least five tackles for loss in 39 of its last 42 games and has ranked in the top 25 nationally in each of the last three seasons in TFLs including 13th in 2018.

• The 2018 season saw Arkansas State as one of the toughest defenses in the air, finishing the season 11th nationally in passing defense, allowing only 177.8 passing yards per game.

• 2018 also saw defensive end Ronheen Bingham named the Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year after leading the league with 18.5 tackles for loss and nine sacks, numbers that ranked 15th and 26th, respectively. Bingham was one of four defensive linemen to earn postseason honors from the conference as defensive end William Bradley-King and defensive tackle Forrest Merrill each earned second-team honors while defensive tackle Kevin Thurmon earned honorable mention honors.

• He coached Ja'Von Rolland-Jones all four years of his career, tutoring the defensive end who was twice named the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and concluded his time at A-State as the NCAA's second all-time leader in career sacks (43.5) and ranked eighth in tackles for loss (64.5). Also Arkansas State's and the Sun Belt Conference's all-time leader in sacks, Rolland-Jones signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals following the 2017 season.

• In 2017, Early's defensive line helped A-State rank No. 6 in the nation in tackles for loss (8.3 per game) and No. 19 in sacks (2.92 average) as he was nominated for the Broyles Award. Those numbers came one year after the Red Wolves led the country in tackles for loss (9.6 per game) and ranked No. 6 in sacks (3.31 average) in 2016.

• Including Rolland-Jones as first-team selection, the Red Wolves had four defensive linemen named All-Sun Belt Conference in 2017. Also earning the recognition were Ronheen Bingham (2nd Team, DE), Caleb Caston (Third Team, DE) and Dee Liner (Honorable Mention, DL). In addition to Rolland-Jones signing an NFL free agent contract, Liner also signed with the Kansas City Chiefs.

• The 2016 defensive-line production led to A-State placing two defensive ends on the First Team All-Sun Belt Conference squad, including Rolland-Jones as he became just the second defensive player in league history to be named its Player of the Year. Fellow defensive end Chris Odom finished the year with 12.5 sacks and signed a free agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons.

• Rolland-Jones and Odom made up the only set of teammates in the nation during 2016 to both rank among top 10 players in the nation in total sacks, as well as the top 20 players in tackles for loss. Early also coached interior defensive lineman Waylon Roberson to an Honorable Mention All-Sun Belt Conference season.

• A-State's 2015 campaign saw three of his players earn all-league recognition as well. Rolland-Jones, who ended 2015 ranked second in the nation in sacks per game among active players, earned first-team recognition to lead the group. Senior defensive end Chris Stone was tabbed second team and senior defensive lineman Robert Mondie was a third-team choice. His defensive linemen helped A-State rank first in the nation in defensive touchdowns (8) and interceptions (26) and second in turnovers gained (34).

• Led by Rolland-Jones with a team-high nine sacks, A-State's 2.4 sacks per game was the 41st highest average in the nation. Additionally, the squad's 6.8 tackles for loss ranked 38th.

• His first season working with the A-State defensive line saw the Red Wolves rank No. 17 in the nation in team sacks (2.85 per game) and No. 36 in team tackles for loss (6.6 per game). Early's line was responsible for 22.5 of A-State's 37 sacks that were the most by an A-State team since 2002 and the second most over the last 29 years. The Red Wolves' front four also accounted for a combined 10 forced and recovered fumbles for a defense that ranked 21st in the nation in turnovers gained and 28th in fumble recoveries. The same group piled up 45.5 tackles for loss, which was over half of the team's 86 total that were the most since 2011 and tied the program's third most since gaining FBS status in 1992.

• He coached two All-Sun Belt Conference selections in 2014, including second team pick Rolland-Jones and honorable mention choice Stone. Despite playing in just 10 games before suffering a season-ending injury, Rolland-Jones, named a SCOUT second team Freshman All-American, tallied a team-high eight sacks that were the 11th most in school history for a single season, ranked as the fifth most in the Sun Belt Conference and were the 14th most in the nation. He posted a school-record five sacks against Idaho, which also tied the Sun Belt record and the most in the nation for the 2014 season. The redshirt freshman also collected a team-high 12.0 tackles for loss that were the 10th most in the league.

• Early's position group has been the driving force leading to a combined 146 sacks that are the program's most over any four-year span since moving to FBS status in 1992. The Red Wolves also posted at least 86 tackles for loss each of the last four seasons, achieving the feat for the first time in school history.

• With previous coaching stops at Central Arkansas, Arkansas-Monticello and three Arkansas high schools, Early brought deep ties to the state with him. Prior to A-State, he most recently served as the University of Arkansas Defensive Quality Control Coach in 2013. His journey to Arkansas State also included a stop on the coaching staff at Minnesota State-Mankato.

• Early spent the four years before his time at Arkansas as defensive coordinator at Fayetteville High School, where he helped the Bulldogs to three straight 7A state championship game appearances and back-to-back titles in 2011 and 2012. The 2011 and 2012 Fayetteville teams were ranked in the top 50 nationally by MaxPreps.

• His 2012 Fayetteville defense included Brooks Ellis, a two-time Arkansas High School Defensive Player of the Year, and Alex Brignoni, whose 19 career interceptions ranked first all-time in Arkansas history in the state's largest classification.

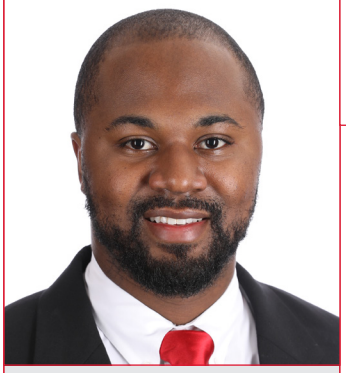

• Early went to Fayetteville High School after coaching defensive line for four years and linebackers for one year while also serving as special teams co-coordinator at Central Arkansas. In his time with UCA, the Bears won two conference championships in two different classifications, taking the Division II Gulf South crown in 2005 and the FBS Southland Conference title in 2008.

• They twice led the conference in scoring defense, and Larry Hart was named the 2008 Southland Conference Defensive Player of the Year. UCA also led the nation in net punting in 2008, and in 2007 All-American Tristan Jackson led the country with an average of 23.6 yards per punt return. Early also coached the two highest-drafted players in UCA history as Hart was a fifth-round pick by Jacksonville in 2010 and Jacob Ford was a sixth round selection by Tennessee in 2007.

• During the 2002 and 2003 seasons, Early was the linebackers coach and co-special teams coordinator at Minnesota State-Mankato. He was the defensive coordinator and strength and conditioning coordinator at West Memphis High School in 2001, helping lead the Blue Devils to the state quarterfinals.

• In 1999 and 2000, he was the linebackers coach and strength and conditioning coordinator at the University of Arkansas at Monticello. There, he coached Danielle Rollins, who led the nation in total tackles in 1999 and in tackles per game in 2000 and was named the Gulf South's Defensive Player of the Year in 2000.

• Early began his coaching career in 1994 as defensive coordinator and strength and conditioning coordinator at Greenland High School. He helped lead the Pirates to back-to-back conference championships in 1997 & 1998. The '98 team was the first to complete an unblemished regular season and recorded the first playoff win in school history.

• Zac Etheridge was named cornerbacks coach at Houston on Jan. 25, 2019, after one season as cornerbacks coach at Louisiana.

• In his lone season at Louisiana, Etheridge helped lead the Ragin Cajuns to a spot in both the Cure Bowl and the Sun Belt Conference Championship.

• A former team captain and defensive back at Auburn on its 2010 national championship team, Etheridge arrived at Louisiana from Western Carolina where he spent two seasons. Etheridge started his stint with the Catamounts coaching the cornerbacks in 2016 before being elevated to a full-time position as an assistant coach with his focus switching to WCU's outside linebackers in 2017.

• Prior to Western Carolina, Etheridge spent two seasons at Georgia Tech as a defensive graduate assistant, working closely with Yellow Jacket secondary.

• Before his move to Atlanta, Etheridge spent one year as a graduate assistant coach at Penn State under head coach Bill O'Brien.

• A 2009 Auburn graduate with a degree in political science, Etheridge was a four-year starter who broke his neck in the first quarter of a 2009 game against Ole Miss. Nine months later, after extensive rehabilitation, Etheridge returned to the starting lineup for Auburn and captained his team along a memorable run to the national title at the end of the 2010 season, finishing second on the team with 69 tackles, intercepting three passes, and returning a fumble 47 yards for a touchdown against Arkansas.

• Etheridge garnered freshman All-America status from numerous publications following the 2007 season, starting 12 of Auburn's 13 games. He led Auburn with 75 tackles in 2008 and was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2009.

• A native of Troy, Ala., Etheridge received the secondannual James Owens Courage Award from Auburn in 2013. The award, named for the school's first African-American football player, was established to honor a player who has shown courage in the face of adversity.

BLAKE GIDEON

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/NICKELS | FIRST SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Blake Gideon was named Special Teams Coordinator and Nickels coach at Houston on Jan. 11, 2019, after one season as cornerbacks coach at Georgia State.

• Gideon joined the Georgia State staff after two seasons as the defensive backs coach and defensive passing game coordinator at Western Carolina. In 2017, Gideon helped coach a Western Carolina defense that ranked No. 15 nationally in passing yards per game allowed and No. 20 in pass efficiency defense.

• In Gideon's two seasons at Western Carolina, he worked with All-American safety Marvin Tillman in 2017 and all-conference defensive backs Fred Payne and Trey Morgan the previous year. In 2016, he also served as interim defensive coordinator for the final three games of the season.

• He then spent 2015 as a defensive graduate assistant at Auburn, where he was elevated to interim defensive backs coach for the Birmingham Bowl vs. Memphis, which featured future first-round draft pick Paxton Lynch at quarterback. The Tigers held Lynch to just 108 yards passing and limited Memphis to 205 total yards.

• Following that season, he began a graduate assistantship at South Carolina in January 2016 before he was able to land a full-time coaching position at Western Carolina in April.

• Gideon began his coaching career as a defensive quality control assistant at Florida in 2014.

• Gideon was a four-year starter at safety and two-time team captain at Texas, where he played under head coach Mack Brown and defensive coordinators Will Muschamp and Manny Diaz.

• He then enjoyed a brief professional career, signing a free agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals following the 2012 NFL Draft. He was signed to the Denver Broncos practice squad in October 2012 and trained with the club until retiring in May 2013.

HOUSTON	45
RICE	27

HOUSTON - Houston quarterback D'Eriq King threw for 320 yards and accounted for four touchdowns, while junior All-American defensive lineman Ed Oliver led all 13 tackles, including 3.5 for a loss, to lead the Cougars in a 45-27 win over Rice inside Rice Stadium.

Trailing 27-17 midway through the third quarter, the Cougars used quick strikes to rally with 28 unanswered points on four of their next five drives. The four scoring drives used a combined total of 16 plays while covering 284 yards and took only 6:01 off the clock.

King completed 17-of-24 passes against the Owls for the second 300-yard game of his career. The native of Manvel, Texas, equaled his career highs in touchdown passes (3) and touchdowns responsible for (4), both set against ECU on Nov. 4, 2017.

Oliver enjoyed the fifth double-digit tackle performance of his career and added a game-high two quarterback hurries in the win.

With the win, the Cougars kept the Bayou Bucket Trophy for the fifth straight time and improved to 31-11 in the all-time series against the Owls. Houston improved to 1-0 on the season, while Rice fell to 1-1.

Sophomore wide receiver Marquez Stevenson hauled in five catches for 107 yards with a 57-yard score to give the Cougars the lead for good late in the third quarter. The Shreveport, La., native also added two rushes for 60 yards and a 36-yard kickoff return.

Junior wide receiver Courtney Lark led all players with two receiving touchdowns, while junior running back Patrick Carr added 74 rushing yards, including a 37-yard touchdown run, on eight carries to pace the Houston rushing game.

ARIZONA	18
HOUSTON	45

HOUSTON - Houston quarterback D'Eriq King threw for a career-high four touchdowns and ran for two more scores as UH enjoyed a 45-16 win over Arizona inside TDECU Stadium.

The Cougars erupted for 21 points in the first 11 minutes and never looked back in taking their second straight win against the Wildcats and third in the series' four-game history.

King completed 17-of-34 passes for 264 yards with scoring tosses to four different receivers, as Houston outgained the Wildcats in total offense 202-82 in the opening 15 minutes. The Cougars went on to build a 38-0 lead late into the third quarter.

Senior tight end Romello Brooker led Houston with 76 receiving yards off two catches, including a career-long 52-yard effort, while senior running back Terence Williams led all players with 65 rushing yards on 12 carries and sophomore wide receiver Marquez Stevenson added 60 rushing yards with two receptions for 40 yards, including a 24-yard touchdown to open the scoring.

Junior All-American defensive tackle Ed Oliver finished the day with five tackles, including three solo stops, with an assisted tackle for a loss of four yards, pass breakup and four quarterback hurries despite being sidelined in the second half as the Cougars built their lead.

Senior defensive back Garrett Davis intercepted Arizona quarterback Khalil Tate twice, including on the Wildcats' initial possession of the game.

HOUSTON	49
TEXAS TECH	63

LUBBOCK, Texas - Houston quarterback D'Eriq King threw for a career-high 431 yards and accounted for a career-best six touchdowns in a 63-49 decision at Texas Tech.

Marquez Stevenson (177) and Keith Corbin (103) each had over 100 yards receiving and two touchdowns.

Houston jumped out to a 21-14 lead in the first quarter, the second straight game in which the Cougars posted that many points in the initial period. King connected with wide receiver Raelon Singleton on an 18-yard strike to tie the game at 7-7 and gave the Cougars a 14-7 lead on a 57-yard touchdown pass to Stevenson.

After the Red Raiders tied the game at 14-14 with 65 seconds remaining in the first period, King and Stevenson connected just 32 second later on a 79-yard touchdown strike.

The two teams went back and forth from there with neither squad building more than seven-point lead.

Senior running back Terence Williams tied the game at 35-35 after a 31-yard touchdown scamper for the first touchdown of his career in a Houston uniform. On its ensuing possession, the Red Raiders grabbed a 42-35 lead on running back Ta'Zhawn Henry's 19-yard score.

After the Texas Tech defense forced a Houston punt, the Red Raiders drove 80 yards and built a 49-35 advantage on Henry's 13-yard touchdown with 7:46 left in the game.

Houston pulled to within a touchdown at 49-42 when King hit Corbin on a 9-yard touchdown with 1:47 left, but Henry's 1-yard touchdown run and a 33-yard touchdown from Texas Tech quarterback Alan Bowman to Antoine Wesley proved to be too much of a deficit.

TEXAS SOUTHERN	14
HOUSTON	70

HOUSTON - Led by another offensive outburst and its most points scored since 2011, Houston cruised to a 70-14 victory over Texas Southern inside TDECU Stadium.

Houston finished with 671 yards of total offense, marking the fourth-consecutive game Houston has racked up more than 550 yards of total offense, the only team in the nation to accomplish such a feat.

Junior quarterback D'Eriq King guided Houston's high-octane offense, which has now scored at least 45 points in all its games this season.

In front of the 29,970 fans, Houston scored on its first drive of the game for the fourth time this season, courtesy of King taking it himself and crossing the goal line to put Houston ahead 7-0. The Cougars added another score on an eighth-yard touchdown reception from Keith Corbin later in the quarter.

Houston scored four touchdowns in the second quarter, as King threw for two and Kevrin Justice and Chandler Smith each ran for one to take a 42-0 lead into the half.

In the third quarter, both teams scored once. Tight end Parker Eichenberger caught a two-yard pass from Clayton Tune, the first score for each at the 12:38 mark.

TSU finally got on the board midway through the quarter with a one-yard touchdown run.

Houston outscored the Tigers, 21-7, in the fourth quarter en route to the 70-14 final.

TULSA	26
HOUSTON	41

HOUSTON - Trailing by nine early in the fourth quarter, Houston quarterback D'Eriq King rushed for a 61-yard touchdown and added a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Cougars to a 41-26 win over Tulsa inside TDECU Stadium.

The Golden Hurricane scored a touchdown on its opening drive and added a field goal for a 10-0 lead five minutes into the game.

The Cougars responded with a seven-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in a 32-yard touchdown pass from King to junior receiver Keith Corbin.

After Tulsa added another field goal, King gave Houston its first lead of the game with a 19-yard touchdown run, his first of two rushing touchdowns, to put the Cougars ahead 14-13 with 8:39 left in the second quarter.

Following a Tulsa 3-and-out, sophomore kicker Dalton Witherspoon connected on a career-long, 40-yard field goal to stretch the lead to 17-13 at the half.

Coming out of the locker room, the Golden Hurricane put together three scoring drive with two field goals and one touchdown in between, while holding Houston scoreless in the third quarter to take a 23-17 lead.

Early the fourth quarter, Tulsa tacked on a field goal to make it 26-17. However, King answered with a 61-yard touchdown run to cut the lead to two points.

After Witherspoon gave Houston back the lead with a 35-yard field goal, the Houston defense forced a fumble and interception on Tulsa's next two drive and turned them into quick scores with touchdown passes from King to senior tight end Romello Brooker and sophomore receiver Marquez Stevenson for the 41-26 final.

HOUSTON	42
ECU	20

GREENVILLE, N.C. - Houston quarterback D'Eriq King led the Cougars to touchdowns on their first two drives, and the Cougars never looked back in taking a 42-20 win at American Athletic Conference rival ECU at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

Those initial points would be all the offense the Houston defense would need. The Cougars forced four ECU turnovers leading to 14 Houston points and limited the Pirates to 41 rushing yards on 31 carries. It was the lowest rushing total by an opponent since Memphis was held to only 30 yards on Oct. 19, 2017.

King finished the night with 209 passing yards on 13-of-23 passing with a pair of touchdowns and added an 8-yard touchdown run despite being taken out early in the fourth quarter after Houston had built a 42-6 advantage.

Junior defensive tackle Ed Oliver led the way for the Cougars with five tackles for losses, including a pair of sacks, a forced fumble and a quarterback pressure, while senior cornerback Isaiah Johnson led Houston with 14 tackles. Senior linebacker Emeke Egbule finished with five tackles and four quarterback pressures and added an interception and 5-yard fumble return for touchdown.

Junior running back Patrick Carr led Houston with 70 rushing yards on 13 carries, while receivers Courtney Lark, Marquez Stevenson and Bryson Smith hauled in three receptions apiece with Lark's 79 receiving yards leading the Cougars.

HOUSTON	49
NAVY	36

ANNAPOLIS, Md. - Houston linebacker Austin Robinson turned in a career-high 21 tackles and junior quarterback D'Eriq King threw for 413 yards and accounted for four touchdowns in a 49-36 win over Navy inside Memorial Stadium.

The victory made Houston bowl eligible for a sixth straight season.

Robinson's 21 tackles, which featured 4.5 for loss and two sacks, tied as the eighth-highest mark in Houston single-game history and was the most since safety Trevon Stewart made 21 tackles against ECU on Nov. 3, 2012.

Senior linebacker Roman Brown added 13 tackles with five solo stops, while senior linebacker Emeke Egbule finished with 11 tackles.

King finished 25-for-38 passing, as sophomore Marquez Stevenson (141) and juniors Keith Corbin (104) and Courtney Lark (106) each recorded 100-yard receiving games with Corbin and Lark hauling in scores. The trio became only the eighth Houston trio in school history to record 100+ receiving yards in one game and the first since L.J. Castile (144), Kierrie Johnson (142) and Tyron Carrier (101) accomplished the feat at Rice on Nov. 29, 2008.

Scoring a field goal and three touchdowns on its first four possessions, Navy grabbed a 24-14. However, those would be the final points the Midshipmen would score for a while as King led the Cougars to touchdowns on five of the next seven possessions.

After giving up 24 points in the opening 30 minutes, the Houston defense stiffened and did not allow the Midshipmen to score again until the final two minutes of the fourth quarter where Navy added a pair of touchdowns for the 49-36 final.

#21/20 USF	36
HOUSTON	57

HOUSTON - Behind a total of 551 all-purpose yards from quarterback D'Eriq King, Houston pulled away late in a 57-36 victory over No. 21/20 USF inside TDECU Stadium.

King accounted for a career-high seven touchdowns and became the first Cougar to have a 300-yard passing, 100-yard rushing game since Kevin Kolb did so against TCU on Oct. 25, 2003.

Houston's 57 points was the most points the program has scored against a nationally-ranked team since a 70-30 victory over No. 25/24 Tulsa on Nov. 15, 2008.

Receivers Marquez Stevenson and Jeremy Singleton each eclipsed 100 yards.

King finished 28-for-40 passing, as redshirt freshman Jeremy Singleton (125) and sophomore Marquez Stevenson (106) each recorded 100-yard receiving games and touchdowns with Stevenson pulling in two. Junior Courtney Lark and senior Raleon Singleton also caught touchdown pass, while junior running back Mulbah Car added a score on the ground.

Defensively, senior linebacker Austin Robinson led the team with nine tackles, also forcing one fumble and recovering another.

In the secondary, senior Isaiah Johnson and sophomore Gleson Sprewell each had eight tackles, while senior Nick Watkins came away with his second interception in as many games.

#17 HOUSTON	31
SMU	45

DALLAS - Ben Hicks threw for 318 yards and four touchdowns, and SMU beat No. 17 Houston 45-31.

The Mustangs never trailed, jumping out to a 17-0 lead after Hicks threw his second TD, a 17-yarder to Tyler Page less than a minute into the second quarter. Houston played its first game as a ranked team under second-year coach Major Applewhite.

After Houston got to 38-31 on quarterback D'Eriq King's 3-yard touchdown run with 9:34 left, the Mustangs went on a time-consuming 13-play drive that ended with Ke'Mon Freeman's second touchdown run, an 8-yarder with 2:43 left. That drive was interrupted for about 90 minutes because of lightning and heavy rain.

Freeman ran 20 times for 107 yards.

The Cougars were held to 365 total yards, 205 below their national-leading 571 average coming into the game. They failed to reach 40 points for the first time this season, ending their nation's longest active streak at eight games.

King did have at least two passing TDs and a rushing score for the ninth straight game, the longest such streak for an FBS player in the last 20 years. But he ran 12 times for only 31 yards and was 11 of 22 passing for 175 yards.

Hicks completed 28 of 43 passes. Justin Guy-Robinson (134 yards) and James Proche (90 yards) both had nine catches.

Houston played its second consecutive game without standout defensive tackle Ed Oliver because of a bruised right knee. The 6-foot-3, 292-pounder, who is expected to be a high NFL draft pick, went through pregame warmups but didn't play.

TEMPLE	59
HOUSTON	49

HOUSTON - Houston dropped its American Athletic Conference contest against Temple by a score of 59-49 inside TDECU Stadium.

Led by junior quarterback D'Eriq King, Houston's high octane offense put up 527 yards of offense, marking the seventh time this season such a task has been accomplished by the Cougars.

On the night, King threw for five touchdowns to go along with his one score on the ground and has accounted for 47 touchdowns this season, which surpasses McKenzie Milton from UCF in 2017 for The American record.

Redshirt freshman receiver Bryson Smith had a breakout game with seven catches for 117 yards and three touchdowns. Seniors Raleon Singleton and Romello Brooker also caught touchdowns, while junior running back Patrick Carr added one on the ground.

Defensively, sophomore defensive back Deontay Anderson led the Cougars with 12 tackles, including 1.5 for loss. Senior linebacker Austin Robinson and junior defensive lineman Blake Young each recorded sacks.

Sophomore linebacker Elijah Gooden forced a fumble on kickoff that junior defensive back Bradley Mbu recovered early in the third quarter.

Temple's Ryquell Armstead ran for 210 yards and six touchdowns on 30 carries, as the Owls scored all eight touchdowns on the ground en route to their sixth win of the season to become bowl eligible.

For a third straight game, Houston was without All-American defensive tackle Ed Oliver.

TULANE	17
HOUSTON	48

HOUSTON - Houston downed Tulane, 48-17, in its final home game of the 2018 season.

Junior running back Patrick Carr recorded career highs with two touchdowns and 139 yards on the ground, and the defense forced four turnovers.

After two scoreless drives for both sides, Carr gave Houston a 7-0 edge with a 21-yard touchdown run. The Green Wave responded quickly with a score, but missed its extra point attempt, and Houston found the end zone again later in the quarter, courtesy of Carr's 3-yard punch-in.

With Houston leading 14-6, the Green Wave converted a 40-yard field goal. Later in the quarter, Houston took a 21-9 advantage behind senior tight end Romello Brooker's 11-yard touchdown reception. On the ensuing drive, the defense forced its third 3-and-out, setting up an 11-play, 75-yard drive capped off by junior quarterback D'Eriq King rushing in his 14th touchdown of the season to make it 28-9.

Set up by a 41-yard interception return from Isaiah Johnson, sophomore kicker Dalton Witherspoon connected on a 29-yard field goal to take a 31-9 lead just before the half.

Coming out of the locker room, Houston's defense forced a turnover on downs to start the third quarter. Taking over on his own 32-yard line, freshman quarterback Clayton Tune marched his offense down field and found redshirt-freshman Jeremy Singleton for a 37-yard touchdown.

After a 27-yard field goal by Witherspoon, Houston led 41-9 after three quarters. Tulane opened up the last 15 minutes of the game with its second score of the night and was successful in its two-point conversion. However, the Cougars found a rebuttal near the midway point in the quarter, as a two-yard touchdown pass from Tune to redshirt-freshman Parker Eichenberger cemented the 48-17 victory for the Cougars.

Nov. 23 • Liberty Bowl (27,790) • Memphis, Tenn.

HOUSTON	31
MEMPHIS	52

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - Houston freshman quarterback Clayton Tune threw for 256 yards and three touchdowns in a 52-31 loss at Memphis inside the Liberty Bowl.

Making his first career start after an injury sidelined starter D'Eriq King, Tune completed 18-of-43 passes with two touchdown passes to Keith Corbin and another score to Terry Mark.

However, Memphis accounted for more than 600 yards of total offense, including 401 rushing with six rushing TDs, and scored 21 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to take the win.

After the Houston defense forced a 3-and-out on Memphis' first possession of the game, Tune led the Cougars on a 9-play, 73-yard drive that was capped by his 33-yard touchdown pass to Mark with 11:37 remaining in the opening period.

The Cougars took a 21-17 lead into the locker room at halftime but trailed 31-24 when Memphis' Tony Pollard plunged into the end zone from six yards out with 2:41 left in the third quarter.

Tune and the Cougars quickly responded. Tune hit Corbin on a slant, and the junior wide receiver outraced the Memphis defenders to the end zone to tie the game at 31-31.

In the fourth quarter, Memphis used two rushing touchdowns from Darrell Henderson and another rushing score from Patrick Taylor for the final margin of victory.

Stevenson led all Houston receivers with six receptions, while senior Raelon Singleton added a team-high 67 receiving yards. Junior running back Patrick Carr added 83 rushing yards on 12 carries.

Junior All-American defensive lineman Ed Oliver returned to the Cougars' starting lineup after suffering a knee injury. He finished the day with three tackles, including two solo stops, with one for a loss of four yards, and a pass breakup.

THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Dec. 22 • Amon G. Carter Stadium (44,738) • Fort Worth, Texas

#22/25 ARMY	70
HOUSTON	14

FORT WORTH - Army quarterback Kelvin Hopkins Jr. ran for 170 yards and an Armed Forces Bowl-record five touchdowns and the No. 22 Black Knights overwhelmed Houston 70-14 to reach 11 wins for the first time in program history.

The Black Knights won their ninth consecutive game since an overtime loss at playoff team Oklahoma exactly three months earlier.

Hopkins had a nifty 77-yard TD run on the last play of the first quarter for a 14-0 lead. The junior quarterback initially ran right before cutting back the other way and alluding one tackler. He sent two other defenders sliding to the ground when he switched directions again back toward the middle of the field.

Houston lost for the fourth time in five games since starting 7-1 and getting into the AP Top 25 poll for a week in late October. The Cougars suffered their most-lopsided loss in their 27 bowl games, and their biggest loss overall since a 66-10 loss at UCLA in 1997.

Along with his 11 rushing attempts before coming out of the game midway through the third quarter when it was 49-7, Hopkins completed the first 1,000-yard passing season for Army since 2007. He was 3-of-3 passing for 70 yards, including a 54-yarder that set up one of his three 1-yard TD plunges. He also had a 2-yard TD run.

Army got 507 of its 592 total yards on the ground in its highest-scoring game this season - and the most points in the program's nine bowl appearances. The Black Knights won a bowl for the third consecutive year, including last year's Armed Force Bowl over San Diego State.

NATIONAL AWARDS

ANDRÉ WARE
1989 • HEISMAN TROPHY

In 1989 University of Houston junior quarterback André Ware was the recipient of the 55th annual Heisman Trophy.

The award, presented by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York, culminated a record-setting season in which Ware set 26 NCAA and 15 Southwest Conference records for passing and total offense.

He became the first Cougar and the fifth player from the Southwest Conference to win the Heisman, and he did it without playing a single game before live national television cameras.

Despite playing just a little more than the first half of most games, Ware completed 365-of-578 pass attempts (.631) for 4,699 yards and 46 touchdowns to lead the Cougars to a 9-2 season record and a No.14 national ranking.

The soft-spoken native of Dickinson, Texas, captured the nation's imagination in his first full season as a starting quarterback, averaging over 427 yards passing per game and at one point attempting 154 straight passes without an interception.

A consensus First-Team All-American, Ware left Houston following his junior season to enter the NFL Draft, where he was a first-round and seventh overall pick by the Detroit Lions. He also played in the Canadian Football League before retiring.

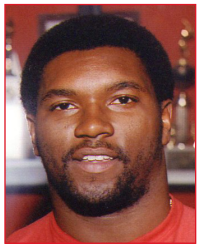

In 1996, Ware returned to UH to earn his bachelor's degree in marketing. Of that accomplishment Ware said, "This ranks right up there with receiving the Heisman Trophy."

Ware was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

Today, he can be heard as an analyst for ESPN college football on Saturdays and for Houston Texans radio broadcasts on Sundays during the NFL season.

WILSON WHITLEY
1976 • LOMBARDI AWARD

After leading the University of Houston to the 1976 Southwest Conference Championship in the Cougars' first season in the league, Wilson Whitley was honored with the Lombardi Award as the nation's most outstanding college lineman.

Though double-teamed and often triple-teamed during the season, the 6-3, 268-pound Whitley routinely dominated the line of scrimmage from his defensive tackle position. He led the team in quarterback sacks, fumbles caused and fumbles recovered, anchoring a defense that held the opposition to 10 or fewer points five times during the regular season.

In a near perfect defensive performance on the road against the University of Texas, Whitley and the Cougar defense held the Longhorns to eight total first downs and 24 net yards rushing en route to a 30-0 victory. Houston went on to defeat previously unbeaten Maryland in the Cotton Bowl to cap a 10-2 season.

Though 1976 was his one and only year of competition in the Southwest Conference, Whitley was named the league's Player of the Decade for the 1970s. The native of Brenham, Texas, was the first and just one of three league players ever to win the Lombardi Award.

In the spring of 1976, Whitley was the eighth overall selection in the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals, with whom he played for six seasons.

After a seven-year professional football career, which also included one season with the Houston Oilers, Whitley served as the National Director of Sports Marketing with Holiday Inn, Inc., until he suffered a fatal heart attack in 1992.

He was inducted into the University's Hall of Honor in 1998, the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 1985, and was a member of the Texas Football Magazine's Silver Anniversary Team as both a high school and collegiate player.

He was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in July 2008.

ED OLIVER
2017 • OUTLAND TROPHY

Emerging as one of the nation's premier players on either side of the ball, Ed Oliver became the Cougars' first recipient of the Outland Trophy in 2017.

Also The American Athletic Conference's Defensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy, Oliver became Houston's third major award winner.

The American's Defensive Player of the Year, Oliver led the nation with a career average of 1.58 tackles for loss per game through his first two seasons, totaling 39.5 tackles for loss in only 25 games.

Playing the nose spot in a three-man front, Oliver totaled 73 tackles in 12 games in 2017 despite missing three quarters of one game and being limited in the next four with a knee injury.

His average of 6.1 tackles per game in 2017 ranked fourth nationally among all defensive linemen. Oliver's 73 total tackles rank second nationally among defensive tackles.

Oliver's 14.5 tackles for loss are fourth among defensive tackles while his average of 1.38 tackles for loss per game led all defensive linemen in The American.

The Houston native led UH in tackles for loss (16.5), sacks (5.5), quarterback hurries (7), forced fumbles (2) and blocked kicks (1). He also had three pass breakups and one fumble recovery on the year.

Oliver recorded two double-digit tackle games in 2017, part of seven games with at least five tackles. He had four games in 2017 with multiple tackles for loss and now has 12 career games with the distinction.

Oliver closed out the regular season in style with a career-high 14 tackles, including 3.5 tackles for loss and two sacks as he led a Houston defense that held Navy to its lowest point total (14), total yards (291) and rushing output (217) of the season in the 24-14 win.

BOWL RECAPS

1952 SALAD BOWL
Houston 26, Dayton 21
Jan. 1, 1952 • Montgomery Stadium • Phoenix

A crowd of 17,000 saw Houston defeat Dayton, 26-21, in the Fifth Annual Salad Bowl in Phoenix, Ariz., the Cougars' first-ever bowl appearance. Houston's Gene Shannon, a 1,000-yard rusher during the regular season, scored all four of the Cougars' touchdowns and was named MVP of the contest.

Shannon rushed for 175 yards on 28 carries, including 129 yards in the first half. Behind the blocking of fellow running backs Randy Owens (who gained 76 yards on the day) and Warren Ramsey (83 yards), and linemen Howard Clapp, Buck Miller and Lloyd Holloway, Shannon gained more yards than the entire Dayton team.

Dayton took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a seven-yard run by Bobby Recker and Paul Spakowski's extra point. Houston responded immediately with a 65-yard, six-play drive, with Shannon scoring on a 15-yard run with 10 seconds left in the first. Owens' extra point try failed, and UH trailed 7-6 after one.

The Flyers added two more scores in the second period, including a touchdown with 44 seconds left in the half on a 36-yard pass from Frank Siggins to Ed Currin to cap a 70-yard drive. Houston countered with one score, on a Shannon 19-yard gallop, and the Cougars trailed 21-13 at the half.

The Houston defense, led by Jack Howton, asserted itself in the second half. Howton intercepted a pair of passes and recovered a fumble as the Cougar defense limited Dayton to just five yards rushing in the stanza.

UH pulled within one point, 21-20, on Shannon's third rushing TD, a one-yard run at 9:40 of the third quarter. His run ended a seven-play, 72-yard drive, and Owens added the kick.

Another Shannon run provided the final points of the game and gave UH its first and only lead of the game. The senior's 10-yard burst with 7:50 remaining in the third period provided the final margin as neither team was able to score in the fourth quarter.

1962 TANGERINE BOWL
Houston 49, Miami (Ohio) 21
Dec. 22, 1962 • Tangerine Bowl • Orlando, Fla.

Under first-year head coach Bill Yeoman, Houston scored five straight touchdowns, including four in the second quarter, to power the Cougars to a 49-21 victory over Miami of Ohio in the 17th Annual Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida.

Senior quarterback Billy Roland led the Cougars offense by completing 11-of-17 passes for 199 yards and three touchdowns to earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award.

After Miami missed a field goal on its first drive, the Redskins took possession on the UH 28-yard line after an interception. UM took advantage of the turnover with a nine-yard touchdown pass to take a 7-0 lead.

After tying the game late in the first quarter on Joe Lopasky's three-yard run and Bill McMillan's extra-point, Houston's Bobby Brezina scored a pair of touchdowns to start the UH onslaught. The Cougars took advantage of an interception by Bill Van Osdel, scoring on two plays from the Miami six. On Houston's next drive, Roland hit Brezina with a 44-yard touchdown bomb to give UH a 21-7 lead.

The UH defense held again, and on the ensuing Miami punt, Lopasky took the ball back 70 yards for a touchdown and a 28-7 UH lead. The Cougars closed out the half with a 60-yard touchdown drive, ending with a four-yard pass from Roland to McMillan with 18 seconds left in the half. Houston took a 35-7 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Miami scored with 4:50 left in the third quarter to close the gap to 35-14 before Lopasky notched his third of four touchdowns on the day on a one-yard run. His score finished a 78-yard, six-play drive, while McMillan's seventh PAT established a new school record.

Each team added a touchdown in the final stanza, Houston scoring on a 14-yard Roland to Lopasky hook-up.

BOWL HISTORY

1969 BLUEBONNET BOWL
#17 Houston 36, #12 Auburn 7
Dec. 31, 1969 • Houston Astrodome • Houston

A match-up between two of the top offensive teams in the country saw the Houston defense carry the day as the Cougars shut down Auburn to win the 1969 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, 36-7, in the Astrodome. The crowd of 55,203 saw Bill Yeoman's Cougars finish the year with their ninth straight victory and a No. 12 ranking in the final Associated Press poll.

Houston halfback Jim Strong gained 184 yards on 32 carries to lead the UH offense and gain MVP honors. Defensively, Glen Lewis and Ronny Peacock were the Cougars' stars on a unit which allowed Auburn only one yard rushing in the game. Lewis recorded eight tackles and blocked a field goal while Peacock was in on four tackles and deflected four passes.

Auburn's Terry Beasly fumbled the opening kickoff and Houston safety Nick Holm recovered to set up the Cougars' first touchdown, a one-yard run by quarterback Gary Mullins just 3:30 into the game. Following an Auburn punt, the Cougars drove 70 yards in 14 plays and Carlos Lopez kicked a 27-yard field goal to give UH a 10-0 lead at the start of the second quarter.

The UH defense stymied Auburn and sophomore quarterback Pat Sullivan again on the Tigers' next possession, forcing a punt. On first-and-10 from its own 16-yard line, Strong galloped 74 yards to the Auburn 10, setting up Houston's second touchdown, which he scored on a one-yard run. Lopez' PAT missed, but Houston led 16-0 with 11:44 remaining in the half.

The teams traded punts until Auburn's Mickey Zofko completed a 36-yard halfback option pass to receiver Connie Frederick for the Tigers' only score. At halftime, Houston led 16-7.

The Tigers would get no closer. Houston scored 20 points on three touchdowns in the second half. Ted Heiskell's one-yard touchdown run came at the end of an eight-play, 71-yard drive. The two-point conversion pass failed, but UH led 22-7.

After a scoreless remainder of the quarter, Houston put the Tigers away on its first drive of the final period. Strong scored his second touchdown of the day, on a 12-yard run. A 20-yard pass from back-up quarterback Rusty Clark to Tommy Mozisek with 35 seconds left provided the final margin.

The two teams combined to break or tie 22 Bluebonnet Bowl records. Houston totaled 516 yards on 83 plays in the game, while Auburn netted just 189 total yards, including 188 passing.

1971 BLUEBONNET BOWL
#8 Colorado 29, #15 Houston 17
Dec. 31, 1971 • Houston Astrodome • Houston

Colorado's 16 second-quarter points lifted the Buffaloes to a 29-17 victory over 15th-ranked Houston before a crowd of 54,720 in the Astrodome. The loss was Houston's first in four bowl games and gave the Cougars a 9-3 final record.

Colorado tailback Charlie Davis led CU by rushing for a bowl-record 202 yards on 37 carries while Houston turned the ball over three times. Cougar tailback Robert Newhouse led the UH attack with 168 yards rushing on 35 carries and scored both Houston touchdowns on the day. Houston defensive lineman Butch Brezina was named the Cougars' Most Outstanding Player with 10 total tackles and two passes broken up.

Davis put the Buffs on top early with a 27-yard touchdown run on Colorado's first possession after a 70-yard, nine-play drive. J.B. Dean added the extra point to give CU a 7-0 lead.

Houston responded with a 79-yard, 15-play drive. Newhouse scored from the two after gaining 42 yards on the drive, and Ricky Terrell kicked the PAT to tie the game at seven. UH linebacker Bill Hamrick intercepted Colorado quarterback Ken Johnson to set up the Cougars' second touchdown, a five-yard Newhouse run with 1:14 left in the first quarter.

Colorado got the ball back and drove 61 yards in 10 plays, with Larry Brunson scoring on a five-yard pass from Johnson to pull CU within one. J.B. Dean's extra point failed and the Cougars clung to a 14-13 lead.

Colorado took the lead for good on its next possession. Johnson's 38-yard run on the quarterback keeper keyed an 80-yard, 15-play drive and Dean hit a 32-yard field goal with 5:03 left in the half to give CU a 16-13 lead.

After Houston fumbled the ball on the kickoff, Colorado went on the attack again. Davis scored on a one-yard run, and Dean added the PAT for a 23-14 lead that would prove to be insurmountable.

Houston drove to the Colorado 14 to open the third period, but tight end Riley Odoms fumbled and the Buffs' Lorne Richardson recovered to stymie the Cougars. The teams traded punts until Houston took advantage of a Davis fumble, Terrell hitting a 29-yard field goal for the only score of the third.

The Cougars would get no closer as Johnson scored for the Buffaloes with 3:48 left in the game to account for the final 12-point margin.

1973 BLUEBONNET BOWL
#14 Houston 47, Tulane 7
Dec. 29, 1973 • Houston Astrodome • Houston

Houston topped off its winningest season ever by overwhelming Tulane, 47-7, in the 15th Annual Bluebonnet Bowl. With its victory over the Green Wave, the Cougars finished the season 11-1, which still ranks as one of the top two years in UH history.

Bill Yeoman's potent Triple Veer offense was at its best again in the Bluebonnet Bowl as a pair of players — Marshall Johnson and Donnie McGraw — gained over 100 yards rushing in the game. In all, the Cougars piled up 655 yards of total offense, including 402 on the ground. Flanker Bryan Willingham collected 105 yards on three catches while quarterback D.C. Nobles completed eight-of-13 passes for 201 yards.

Johnson gave early notice that it would be a long night for Tulane by speeding 75 yards on the Cougars' second offensive play to give UH a 7-0 lead. The Cougars extended that lead to 21-0 in the second period on a pair of Leonard Parker runs.

Tulane got on the scoreboard just before halftime on a 32-yard pass from Buddy Gilbert to Tom Fortner, cutting Houston's margin to 21-7 at the half.

The Cougars tallied four more rushing touchdowns in the second half while the UH defense held Tulane scoreless. Linebacker Deryl McGallion led the Houston defense on the day and was named the Most Outstanding Defensive Player. Houston forced nine Tulane punts and allowed the Green Wave only 10 first downs and 173 total yards on the day. Cougar defenders picked off four Tulane passes.

Quarterback Nobles scored on a keeper with 6:42 left in the third period to extend Houston's lead to 28-7. After a turnover, McGraw scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one-yard run with 5:28 left in the third.

McGraw added a 32-yard touchdown run to start the fourth quarter while backup QB David Husmann ended the scoring with a seven-yard run in the fourth.

A crowd of 44,358 saw UH post its record-setting 11th win and finish the year ranked ninth in the final Associated Press poll.

1974 BLUEBONNET BOWL
#15 Houston 31, #13 NC State 31
Dec. 23, 1974 • Houston Astrodome • Houston

In an offensive shootout at the 16th Annual Bluebonnet Bowl, Houston and North Carolina State combined to score 35 points in the final quarter on the way to a 31-31 tie before a crowd of 35,122 at the Astrodome.

The crowd saw the two teams pile up 876 yards of total offense, including 479 yards on the ground, with 45 first downs. Houston's John Housman gained 134 yards rushing on 21 carries and added a pair of touchdown runs as UH finished the year with an 8-3-1 overall record.

The first quarter was far from an indication of things to come as NC State earned the only points of the period on a 37-yard field goal by John Huff with 6:48 on the clock.

The Cougars evened the score early in the second stanza on Lennard Coplin's 21-yard field goal. Housman gained 38 yards on the drive that stalled at the NC State three.

The Wolfpack took a 10-3 halftime lead, but had been out-gained by UH, 175-123. Houston tied the score at 10 on a one-yard run by Housman at 9:32 of the third quarter. NC State came right back with a scoring drive of its own, with Dave Buckey hooking up with fullback Stan Fritts for the seven-yard touchdown pass to take the lead.

Then, the fireworks began. Houston tied the score on the first play of the fourth quarter on a 10-yard Johnson run, capping a 75-yard drive. Two possessions later, the Cougars took their first lead of the game on a Bluebonnet Bowl record 73-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Bubba McGallion to split end Eddie Foster. Coplin added the extra point and UH led, 24-17.

The Cougars extended their lead to 31-17 after an interception and 41-yard return by free safety Joe Rust gave UH the ball on the NC State 16-yard line. Four plays later, Housman hit paydirt on a five-yard run and UH led by two touchdowns.

NC State came back after a McGallion fumble stopped a UH drive. A couple of Buckey to George Gantt completions set up fullback Tommy London for a 9-yard touchdown run with 3:38 left in the game. The Wolfpack's 2-point conversion attempt failed, and Houston held on to a 31-23 lead.

The ensuing onside kick was recovered by State and after two plays netted 19 yards, Buckey hit tight end Pat Hovance with a 27-yard pass to the one. He scored on a quarterback sneak and Fritts ran for the 2-point conversion to tie the game.

Houston's comeback attempt died when McGallion was sacked and the Cougars punted with 27 seconds remaining. Buckey's last-ditch pass was intercepted by Rust, who fell to the ground as time ran out, ending one of the most exciting bowl games in school history.

BOWL HISTORY

1977 COTTON BOWL
#6 Houston 30, #4 Maryland 21
Jan. 1, 1977 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas

Houston stunned the Southwest Conference by winning the conference title in its first year of competition in the league, earning its first trip to a New Year's Day bowl. Then, the Cougars stunned fifth-ranked and undefeated Maryland, 30-21, in the 41st Annual Cotton Bowl Classic to achieve its highest final national ranking ever.

UH jumped out to a quick 21-0 lead on the Terps, and that lead, as well as a strong defensive showing in the second half, carried the Cougars to victory. Running backs Alois Blackwell and Dyral Thomas each gained over 100 yards with Blackwell's 149 yards on 22 carries leading Houston. His success came against a Maryland defense ranked second in the nation in rushing defense, and he was named the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player. UH cornerback Mark Mohr, who made seven tackles, broke up two passes, blocked a punt and recovered a fumble, was the Defensive MVP.

Houston's first score came on an 11-yard run by Thomas with 6:27 to go in the first quarter. The Cougars drove 80 yards in 11 plays with Blackwell's 23-yard gain highlighting the march.

Mohr blocked Maryland punter Mike Sochko's kick, giving UH possession on the 38. Two plays later, Blackwell broke through a hole and went 33 yards for the touchdown.

Another Maryland mistake, this one a fumble on the kickoff recovered by Mohr, returned the ball to Houston on the Terps 24-yard line. Five straight rushing plays resulted in Blackwell's one-yard run and a 21-0 UH lead. Maryland had surrendered only 22 total points in the first quarter in the first 11 games of the year.

Maryland came back with a six-yard scoring run by quarterback Mark Manges. Both defenses tightened and the teams exchanged punts until Houston began a drive at its own three-yard line with 3:17 left in the half. A pair of runs by Davis and Blackwell netted 29 yards, and on second-and-six from the Maryland 33, split end Don Bass grabbed Davis' pass (one of just two first-half passes) and went the distance. Lennard Coplin's kick failed, but Houston owned a 27-7 halftime lead.

Maryland drove to the Houston four on its first possession of the second half, but on fourth and goal UM wingback Chuck White was stopped short of the goal line by UH's Vincent Greenwood. Thomas fumbled, giving Maryland the ball on the UH 35. This time the Terps converted with an 11-yard completion from Manges to tight end Eric Sievers.

Another UH fumble put Maryland on the Houston 30 three series later, and again the Terps capitalized. Fullback Tim Wilson went over from the one, and the extra point closed the UH lead to 27-21 with 8:46 left in the game.

After a punt by each team, Houston regained the ball on its own seven and embarked on a 14-play, 81-yard drive that would result in a game-clinching field goal by Coplin. The key play came on fourth-and-one on the Maryland 41 with 1:56 left when Thomas went 32 yards for the first down. When the drive stalled at the 12, Coplin hit a 28-yard field goal to seal the win and the No. 4 final ranking.

1979 COTTON BOWL
#10 Notre Dame 35, #9 Houston 34
Jan. 1, 1979 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas

In bone-chilling cold, Notre Dame made one of the greatest comebacks in bowl history, scoring 23 points in the final 7:37 to record a 35-34 win over Houston in the 43rd Annual Cotton Bowl Classic. The game will be forever remembered, not only for the cold and the comeback, but as the "coming out" party for Fighting Irish quarterback Joe Montana, who would go on to become one of the best quarterbacks in NFL history.

The Irish scored the game-winning touchdown with no time left on the clock when Montana tossed an eight-yard pass to split end Kris Haines. Kicker Joe Unis' PAT provided the difference in a heart-wrenching loss for UH.

Houston had scored 34 straight points after Notre Dame took a 12-0 lead in the first quarter. The Irish scored on a three-yard Montana run and a one-yard rush by fullback Pete Buchanan on successive drives in the first to take the lead. Both conversion attempts failed.

After ND's Dave Waymer fumbled a punt, Houston gained the ball on the Notre Dame 12, and two plays later, quarterback Danny Davis threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to split end Willis Adams. The score stood at 12-7 at the end of the first quarter.

A bevy of fumbles, interceptions and near interceptions marked second quarter action with most of the balls bouncing Houston's way. On fourth-and-goal, fullback Randy Love bulled over from the one to cap a six-play, 21-yard drive and give UH a 14-12 lead. Kenny Hatfield intercepted a Montana pass on the next possession and his 25-yard return put the Cougars on the Notre Dame 25. Hatfield was true on the 21-yard field goal.

Another Montana interception led to Hatfield's second three-pointer of the quarter, and a 20-12 UH halftime lead. The field goal, with just three seconds left in the half, came after a 39-yard, seven-play drive highlighted by a 16-yard completion from Davis to Eric Herring. Hatfield hit the cross bar, but his 34-yarder bounced over and was good.

Houston scored on a pair of Davis runs in the third period. His first score, from two yards out, ended a 38-yard, eight-play drive. UH's Bobby Harrison blocked Notre Dame kicker Dick Boushka's punt and the Cougars turned that turnover into seven points on Davis' five-yard touchdown run at 4:40.

The fourth quarter was a battle of field position until Notre Dame blocked UH punter Jay Wyatt's kick and took over on the Houston 11. Three plays resulted in a loss of three yards and on fourth-and-13 from the UH 14, Montana's pass was incomplete. However, UH could not move the ball, and Wyatt's next punt was also blocked. This one was recovered by Irish strong safety Steve Cichy and returned 33 yards for a Notre Dame touchdown. The two point conversion from Montana to Vagas Ferguson was good and Houston's lead stood at 34-20.

Notre Dame's defense held, forcing another Wyatt punt. Montana completed two passes for 47 yards, then used a pass interference call to reach the Houston three. On third down from the two, Montana scampered in for the score. He then hit Haines with the two-point conversion pass to make it a six-point game.

Houston was forced to punt again, but the Irish's next drive ended when Montana fumbled with less than two minutes on the clock and UH's Tommy Ebner recovered. Houston advanced to its 29, and on fourth-and-one, sent running back Emmett King over left tackle to try and run out the clock. King was stopped for no gain, and Notre Dame and Montana had 29 yards to go in 28 seconds.

Montana gained 11 yards around right end on first down, then passed for 10 to Haines. After an incompletion, the Notre Dame QB hit Haines from eight yards out for the tying score. Unis' PAT completed the comeback.

BOWL HISTORY

1980 COTTON BOWL

#8 Houston 17, #7 Nebraska 14

Jan. 1, 1980 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas

Houston quarterback Terry Elston hit Eric Herring with a six-yard touchdown pass with 12 seconds left to give the Cougars a 17-14 victory over seventh-ranked Nebraska in the 1980 Cotton Bowl. The victory lifted UH to an 11-1 record on the year, tying the most wins in school history, and a No. 5 final national ranking.

The Houston defense limited a potent Nebraska offense to just 227 yards on the day, less than half of their season average. The Cornhuskers, featuring Jarvis Redwine and I.M. Hipp, gained just 136 yards on 41 carries and tallied only 13 first downs in the game. Elston led Houston with 87 yards rushing on 22 carries while fullback John Newhouse added 64 yards. Herring caught five passes for 51 yards.

Nebraska jumped out to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a nine-yard scoring run by Redwine. The teams then traded punts until Houston tied the game on Elston's eight-yard run and Kenny Hatfield's extra point at 12:17 of the second quarter. Elston's 27-yard pass to Lonell Phea on third-and-six to the Nebraska 15 proved to be the key play of the drive.

Through the next two quarters, the teams traded punts and turnovers with neither team reaching its opponents' 30. The entire third quarter, in fact, was a series of "three and outs."

Then Houston embarked on a 59-yard, 13-play drive that resulted in a 41-yard Hatfield field goal. Again, Elston hit Phea for a gain of 20 on the drive, which reached the Nebraska 24 before Hatfield's kick. Houston took a 10-7 lead with 8:25 left.

Houston forced another Nebraska punt, but gave the ball back one play later when Newhouse fumbled. From first down on the Houston 31, the Cornhuskers drove to the six, where Quinn hit tight end Jeff Finn with a six-yard touchdown pass. Dean Sukup added the extra point to give NU a 14-10 lead with less than four minutes to play.

Starting on its own 34, the Cougars began a purposeful march downfield. Twice, they converted on third downs until reaching the Nebraska 20 with 59 seconds to play. An Elston to Herring hookup gained 11, but the next three plays netted just five yards, and the Cougars faced fourth-and-goal from the six with 19 seconds left.

Then Elston found Herring cutting across the goal line for the touchdown, and Hatfield added the extra point to give UH a come-from-behind Cotton Bowl victory of its own.

1980 GARDEN STATE BOWL

Houston 35, Navy 0

Dec. 22, 1980 • Giants Stadium • East Rutherford, N.J.

Houston put on one of its most impressive offensive and defensive performances of the season in downing Navy, 35-0, in Garden State Bowl III at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J.

Running back Terald Clark sparked the offense with 163 yards on 26 carries and three touchdowns, while All-America linebacker Leonard Mitchell made key tackles, recovered a fumble and broke up a pass to lead UH defensively. The Cougars gained 405 of their 450 yards on the ground, while limiting Navy to just 200 yards in total offense. Navy had brought the nation's sixth-rated defense and 10th-best rushing defense into the game, but turnovers and special teams blunders cost the Midshipmen.

Houston scored on its first drive, going 31 yards on eight plays after a Navy fumble to take a 7-0 lead. Clark scored on a one-yard run and Jeff Shaffer added the PAT.

A blocked punt by UH's Leo Truss helped lead to Houston's next score, a one-yard effort by quarterback Terry Elston. Clark gained 25 yards on the 43-yard drive as all 10 plays were on the ground. The Cougars took a 14-0 lead after one quarter.

Houston added two more touchdowns in the second period, while Navy kicker Steve Fehr missed a 27-yard field goal, spoiling the Middies' best scoring chance of the day. At 7:51 of the second quarter, Houston's David Barrett scored on a 14-yard run after a 69-yard, seven-play drive.

Navy fumbled the ball on the kickoff and UH's Calvin Eason recovered on the Navy 26. Clark went all 26 yards on the first play behind a block by guard Jeff Faniel, and Elston scored the two-point conversion on a keeper to give UH a 28-0 halftime lead.

The Cougars scored the final points of the contest on their first drive of the second half. After a 71-yard, 13-play march, Clark scored from the two to notch his third touchdown of the day and give UH an insurmountable 35-0 lead.

Clark, a senior, was named the game's Most Outstanding Player.

BOWL HISTORY

1981 SUN BOWL

Oklahoma 40, Houston 14

Dec. 26, 1981 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

Oklahoma scored 30 points in the fourth quarter to break open a close game and hand Houston its worst bowl defeat ever, 40-14, at the 47th Annual Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas.

Oklahoma's Fred Sims gained 181 yards on 15 carries and quarterback Darrell Shepard added 107 yards and two rushing touchdowns to lead the Sooners. UH quarterback Lionel Wilson completed 17-of-28 passes for 216 yards to lead the Cougar offense, but Houston committed four turnovers in the game, including one very costly one.

A fumble on what looked like a sure Houston touchdown proved to be the turning point in the game. Following the fumble, Oklahoma scored on four straight possessions to cement the victory.

Trailing 10-7, UH halfback Robert Durham caught a Wilson pass at the OU 47-yard line and had open territory to the end zone. But Oklahoma defender Elbert Watts knocked the ball loose at the three and it went out of the end zone for a touchback. Oklahoma took over on its 20 and advanced quickly to the Cougar nine on Shepard's 42-yard run. Three plays later, Shepard went one yard up the middle for the touchdown and a 17-7 Oklahoma lead.

From there the wheels began to come off. After a 14-yard Houston punt, Oklahoma's Michael Keeling ended a Sooner drive by kicking his second field goal of the day – this from 49 yards out – to boost the Sooners' lead to 20-7.

The Cougars' next possession ended in a fumble, and Sims soon broke a 30-yard run for a score and a 27-7 Oklahoma lead. Houston answered with its last touchdown of the day, going 74 yards on 13 plays. Donald Jordan scored on a six-yard run and Mike Clendenen added the point after, but UH trailed 27-14 with less than three minutes remaining.

Oklahoma recovered UH's onside kick attempt and Sims ripped off another long run, this one of 48 yards, to set up Ron Mills' two-yard score. Keeling missed the PAT, but it was the only thing that went wrong for OU in the quarter. The Sooners scored their final touchdown on a 28-yard interception return by defensive end John Truitt, ending a nightmare quarter for Houston.

Shepard was named the game's MVP. Houston ended its season, the third straight in which it went to a bowl game, with a 7-4-1 record.

1985 COTTON BOWL

#8 Boston College 45, Houston 28

Jan. 1, 1985 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas

Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie brought his Boston College Eagles to Dallas, but it was the rushing of Flutie's backfield mates that proved the difference in BC's 45-28 victory over Houston in the 49th Annual Cotton Bowl.

Flutie threw for 180 yards and three touchdowns, but completed only 13-of-37 throws on the day and was intercepted twice. Running backs Troy Stradford and Mike Strachan teamed to doom Houston; Stradford gained 196 yards on 20 carries while Strachan added 91 yards on 23 rushes and was named the game's MVP.

The game was a series of scoring runs. Boston College would jump out to an advantage, and Houston would battle back. The pattern continued until the fourth quarter when the Eagles would not let UH answer after it extended a 31-28 lead to the final margin of 45-28.

Boston College jumped out to a 14-0 first quarter advantage on a pair of Flutie touchdown passes. A 63-yard completion to Kelvin Martin started the scoring, and an eight-yard pass from Flutie to Stradford followed a UH fumble. Houston answered immediately when Earl Allen took the ensuing kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown. Mike Clendenen kicked the extra point, and the Cougars trailed 14-7.

An interception by the Eagles led to a 31-yard field goal by BC's Kevin Snow at the end of the first quarter.

Boston College added two touchdowns to extend its lead to 31-7. Flutie hit Gerard Phelan, who caught seven passes in the first half, over the middle for a 13-yard touchdown after driving BC 53 yards in five plays. UH quarterback Gerald Landry was then intercepted on Houston's next play, and once again Boston College capitalized. Strachan scored on a two-yard run after Flutie had picked up 27 yards on a scramble to the two.

Houston came back before the half when Landry hit Larry Shepherd with a 15-yard touchdown pass. Landry's 38-yard completion to tight end Carl Hilton was the biggest play of the UH scoring drive.

The Cougars made it close in the third. After five punts to start the period, Houston mounted a scoring march, thanks to a 26-yard Landry to Hilton completion and a 33-yard run by Raymond Tate to set up Tate's two-yard touchdown jaunt. Then, Audrey McMillian intercepted a Flutie pass at the Boston College 25 and took it back for the touchdown, bringing the Cougars within three at 31-28.

On Houston's next possession, a couple of costly penalties hurt the Cougars and slowed their momentum. Boston College, uncharacteristically, went to its running game, and nine straight rushes resulted in a four-yard Strachan touchdown and a 38-28 BC lead.

Another turnover stopped the Cougars and they were unable to take advantage of Flutie's second interception of the half. Stradford provided the final margin when he scored on an 18-yard run with 1:08 remaining.

Hilton caught five passes for 97 yards for UH, which finished the season with a 7-5 record.

In a battle of Cougars, Washington State scored 24 points in the second quarter and shut down Houston's potent run-and-shoot offense to claim a 24-22 win in the 1988 Aloha Bowl in Honolulu, Hawai'i.

Washington State piled up 216 yards rushing and added 154 through the air while holding UH to 68 rushing yards and 309 yards overall. Tailback Steve Broussard led WSU with 139 yards on the ground, and QB Timm Rosenbach threw for 306.

James Dixon started the game off well for UH by taking the opening kickoff 84 yards to the Washington State 15-yard line. The Cougars advanced to the 10 before Roman Anderson's 27-yard field goal gave UH a 3-0 lead.

Washington State drove to the UH four, but Rosenbach was sacked, and his fumble was recovered by Houston's Keith Jenkins. The teams traded punts until WSU's Vernon Todd intercepted an André Ware pass at his own 45-yard line. Broussard bobbled a handoff and fumbled at the UH five, but WSU flanker Victor Wood recovered and took the ball the remaining five yards for the touchdown.

After forcing a Houston punt, WSU started on an 80-yard drive. Rosenbach hit Wood from 15 yards out with 8:39 left in the half, and Jason Hanson's PAT made it WSU 14, UH 3. Ware's next pass was intercepted and returned to the Houston 15. Hanson's 33-yard field goal extended the Cougars' lead to 17-3.

Houston pulled to within eight on its next possession when Ware hit Jason Phillips for a 44-yard completion and Chuck Weatherspoon scored on a one-yard run for UH's first touchdown of the day. However, Roman Anderson missed what would prove to be a crucial extra point attempt following Weatherspoon's score.

Washington State answered with a 10-play, 75-yard drive before halftime. Rosenbach scored from the one, and WSU led 24-9 at the break.

Houston's Cougars were not able to mount a drive in the third quarter until David Dacus replaced Ware with 6:07 on the clock. He quickly hit Kevin Mason with a 53-yard bomb down the right sideline. After a failed conversion pass, Houston trailed 24-15.

Washington State penetrated to the Houston eight, where Alton Montgomery stepped in front of a Rosenbach pass at the goal line and took it all the way back to the WSU 28 for a 72-yard return. Weatherspoon and Dacus combined to take the Cougars the rest of the way, with Weatherspoon earning the touchdown on a shovel pass from Dacus. After the Anderson PAT, Houston trailed by two with 13:16 left in the game.

Washington State's next drive stalled on the UH 34, where Rosenbach's pass on fourth and three fell incomplete. Houston was unable to sustain a drive and the teams exchanged punts. Houston got the ball back with 5:16 left and drove from its own 20 to the WSU 31. From there, Dacus hit Dixon with a 21-yard pass to the 10. Dixon eluded one tackle, but was hit by linebacker Tuineau Alipate and fumbled. The ball rolled to the five, where it was recovered by WSU's Artie Holmes with 2:44 left. WSU ran out the clock to secure the 24-22 victory.

Houston's return to post-season play in the 38th Annual St. Jude Liberty Bowl marked a remarkable turnaround for the UH program under Kim Helton.

The Cougars headed into Memphis as one of the hottest teams in the country having won their last three games of the season to earn a share of the Conference USA championship.

On this day the rushing attack of the Orangemen proved to be too much for Houston's defense as UH fell to Syracuse 30-17 in front of 49,163 fans at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium and an ESPN national television audience.

Syracuse struck first after the initial kickoff with a four-play, 80-yard touchdown scoring drive. Quarterback Donovan McNabb scored from one yard out to put SU on top 7-0.

Houston returned the favor on its first drive of the game with a four-play, 77-yard scoring drive of its own. Quarterback Chuck Clements hit tailback Antowain Smith twice, including a touchdown reception of 21 yards to even the score at 7-7. A Clements to Scott Regimbald 51-yard pass put the Cougars in scoring position to set up Smith's reception.

With 9:02 left in the second period, the SU rushing attack struck again when fullback Rob Konrad reached the end zone to up the score to 14-7. Later in the quarter Syracuse extended its lead to 16-7 after a snap sailed over the head of Houston punter Ignacio Sauceda as he stood deep in UH territory.

Houston came back before halftime as Smith rushed three times for 63 yards, including a 51-yard jaunt from UH's 46-yard line to SU's 3. He finished the drive with a three-yard touchdown run to pull Houston within two points going into the lockerroom.

The second half was far less eventful as both teams went scoreless in the third quarter. It was not until the clock read 13:52 in the final period that Syracuse's McNabb scored his second touchdown of the day, on a two-yard run, to give the Orangemen a 23-14 lead.

Houston was only able to put three more points on the board as Sebastian Villarreal hit a 23-yard field goal with 10:50 left in the game.

As it turned out, the ground game of Syracuse was just too much for the Cougar defense. Thomas rushed into the endzone from six yards out to put an end to the day's scoring at 30-17.

BOWL HISTORY

2003 SHERATON HAWAI'I BOWL

Hawai'i 54, Houston 48 (3 OT)

Dec. 25, 2003 • Aloha Stadium • Honolulu

In an "Instant Classic" performance, the University of Houston and the University of Hawai'i battled for over four hours and three overtimes before the Warriors concluded Christmas Day with a 54-48 win over the Cougars.

The fact that the game made it to overtime was a testament to the never-say-die attitude of the Cougars. With Hawai'i ahead by seven in the waning moments of regulation, the Cougars eventful season looked to be over as the Warriors lined up for a 29-yard field with just over a minute to play. When the field-goal attempt went wide, the Cougars still had a chance. And, the Red and White did not disappoint.

In what will be described as "Vincent's Run", the Cougars tied the game up on a miraculous play. Facing a third-and-11 from their own 19-yard line with less than 30 seconds left to play, Kevin Kolb found Vincent Marshall on a quick pass that Marshall turned into an 81-yard touchdown as he outraced the Warrior secondary to tie the game.

Both teams scored touchdowns in both the first and second overtimes, setting the stage for the dramatic third overtime. The Warriors took the lead on an eight-yard run by Michael Brewster, but UH's Will Gulley intercepted Hawai'i's two-point attempt.

The Cougars took over on their possession, needing a touchdown to send it to a fourth overtime, but more importantly, could get the two points needed for the victory; however, the Cougars failed to convert on fourth down.

Houston jumped on the board first after taking the opening kickoff and driving down the field to score first. Kolb hooked up with Chad McCullar from 34 yards out to give Houston a quick 7-0 lead. A Dustin Bell field goal on the next possession increased the lead to 10-0.

The Warriors tied the score up by scoring the game's next 10 points on a 19-yard field goal and a 48 yard pass from Timmy Chang, who relieved starter Jason Whieldon, to Clifton Herbert.

The Cougars regained the lead on the first of three rushing touchdowns by Jackie Battle, and then increased their advantage to 20-10 with Bell's second field goal on the afternoon.

Hawai'i took control of the game by scoring 17 unanswered points, including two more scoring tosses by Chang. After an exchange of touchdowns by Houston and Hawai'i, the Warriors took the lead again when Chang hooked up with Jason Ribers from four yards out with less than 10 minutes to play, which set the stage for Marshall's heroics.

Battle was named the MVP for the Cougars after rushing for a career-high 124 yards and three touchdowns.

2005 FORT WORTH BOWL

Kansas 42, Houston 13

Dec. 23, 2005 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth , Texas

Jason Swanson threw for 307 yards and four touchdowns, one more than he had in the regular season, and the Kansas Jayhawks beat Houston 42-13 in the Fort Worth Bowl for their first winning season and first bowl victory in 10 years.

Tailback Jon Cornish turned two shovel passes from Swanson into scores, and also rushed for 101 yards on 16 carries. Brian Murph, who hadn't returned a kick all season, turned a muffed punt into an 85-yard score in the first quarter that put the Jayhawks (7-5) ahead to stay. He also caught a 48-yard TD pass.

Houston (6-6) has lost six straight bowls since winning the 1980 Garden State Bowl.

Swanson started his fifth straight game, going 19-for-29 in his fourth victory and earning MVP honors. The senior was the third starting quarterback used by Kansas this year. He hurt his leg during the preseason, but took over in late October after Adam Barrman and Brian Luke struggled.

Cougars junior quarterback Kevin Kolb started his 36th straight game and became the career total offense leader at the school where David Klingler and André Ware also threw passes. Kolb was 20-of-44 passing for 214 yards with three interceptions, all turned into scores by Kansas.

Kolb had a 1-yard sneak for Houston's only touchdown. The Cougars were held to a season-worst 244 total yards after leading Conference USA with 457 a game during the regular season. Kansas had 538 yards.

Charlton Keith got between Kolb and his intended receiver on a quick-out pass in the fourth quarter. He jumped up and grabbed the pass, then sprinted 14 yards and dived into the end zone.

Theo Barnes had two interceptions for the Jayhawks. The first set up Cornish's 30-yard TD catch in the third quarter, and the second led to Murph's TD catch with 9 minutes left for the final touchdown.

Five minutes into the game, Murph muffed a punt. The ball rolled several yards away from him before he picked it up, circled around several defenders and ran all the way to the left sideline. He then cut back across the field and slipped past a tackler into the open.

Swanson had completions of 31 and 19 yards on the first two plays, but the Jayhawks didn't get another first down on the opening drive. The Cougars then went three-and-out before Justin Laird's 57-yard punt that Murph muffed.

Cornish's first TD was a 13-yard play in the second quarter. Mark Simmons added a 32-yard score in the third when he caught Swanson's pass near the 20, then was free when he twisted inside and the defender slipped.

BOWL HISTORY

2006 AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL
South Carolina 44, Houston 36
Dec. 29, 2006 • Liberty Bowl • Memphis, Tenn.

With 56,103 in attendance, the University of Houston football team took to the field December 29, 2006 at the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. Houston faced off against the South Carolina Gamecocks of the SEC in just the third-ever meeting between the two schools.

After scoring four touchdowns in the first half, Houston was unable to hold off the Gamecocks, falling 44-36, in what CollegeFootballNews.com named the 4th-best bowl game of 2006.

The Cougars took an early lead off a 32-yard pass from Kevin Kolb to Vincent Marshall on their first drive of the game. But, the Gamecocks responded late in the first quarter on their second drive with a 2-yard touchdown run by Cory Boyd.

Down a touchdown in the second quarter, Kolb connected with Mark Hafner on a 4-yard pass to even the game at 14 all. Houston would regain the lead with 2:09 left in the first half when Jackie Battle scored from 42 yards out, running untouched to the end zone.

With the first half winding down, Houston scored again when Marshall broke away for a 77-yard touchdown run. It was the longest catch in the Liberty Bowl since 1997, when Pittsburgh had an 89-yard pass against Southern Miss.

With 55 points scored in the first half, Houston and South Carolina combined for the highest scoring half in Liberty Bowl history.

The third quarter proved to be all about defense. South Carolina scored the only points of the quarter on a 45-yard field goal by Ryan Succop. They took that momentum into the fourth quarter, scoring two touchdowns. The Gamecock's Blake Mitchell connected with Kenny McKinley on both scoring plays.

The Cougars pulled within eight points with just under six minutes left in the game, when Battle scored on a 3-yard run and Anthony Alridge completed the two-point conversion; however, it wouldn't be enough as South Carolina held off Houston for the win.

"We were very excited and anxious about the game, and I think we performed well as a football team. In a couple of instances we had a couple of unforced errors that I will take the fall for. But, just like our team has all season long; we battled hard. Our guys played hard, they fought hard, they believed. That's an inspiration to me as a coach," head coach Art Briles said after the game.

The two teams combined for 1,039 yards of total offense, the most ever in Liberty Bowl history. Houston gained 527 yards and the Gamecocks had 512.

Kolb was named Houston's Outstanding Offensive Player after completing 26-of-39 passes for 386 yards and three touchdowns. With his three tackles, one interception and one pass break up, Willie Gaston was named Houston's Outstanding Defensive Player.

2007 TEXAS BOWL
TCU 20, Houston 13
Dec. 28, 2007 • Reliant Stadium • Houston

The Cougars had a late rally come up short and dropped a 20-13 decision to TCU in the 2007 Texas Bowl at Reliant Stadium.

Houston pulled within seven after a 32-yard field goal from T.J. Lawrence with 1:57 left in the game. TCU (8-5) won its eighth-straight game over Houston, dating back to 1993.

The Cougars got the ball back with 1:32 left after a three-and-out stand by the defense and started from their own two-yard line.

Case Keenum engineered a seven-play 79-yard drive that had the Cougars at the TCU 19-yard line with 14 seconds remaining. UH had three shots at the end zone but came up short on all three.

Donnie Avery made four catches for 60 yards in the march down the field. He finished with 10 catches for 120 yards.

Keenum threw a fade into the end zone that was just over the finger tips of Jeron Harvey and couldn't connect on a jump ball to L.J. Castile. On the game's final play, Keenum was flushed out of the pocket and hit as he threw by TCU's Chase Ortiz and the ball ended up in the dirt, handing the Cougars their eighth-straight bowl defeat.

Keenum finished 23-of-38 for a career best and Texas Bowl record 335 yards and a touchdown. He was sacked five times on the night. He also set bowl records for completions (23), attempts (38) and longest touchdown pass (67 yards).

Rocky Schwartz led all players with a Texas Bowl record 16 tackles including 15 solo stops.

Leading 10-7 at halftime, the Cougars struggled offensively in the third quarter tallying 19 yards and one first down.

TCU tied things up at 10 after Chris Manfredini hit a 29-yard field goal with 4:56 left in the third quarter.

The Horned Frogs added 10 more points in the fourth quarter after a seven-yard run by Justin Watts with 14:28 left and a 36-yard field goal from Manfredini with 7:28 left in the game.

The Cougars opened up the scoring in the game late in the first quarter after Keenum connected with Andre Kohn on a 67-yard touchdown strike. The play capped a two-play drive that took just 57 seconds. It was the longest play from scrimmage in Texas Bowl history.

TCU tied things up with 10:24 left in the half after Andy Dalton called an 11-play 75-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown scamper. Dalton, the Texas Bowl MVP, finished 20-for-30 for 249 yards and an interception. He also added 14 yards rushing and was sacked twice.

Houston took a 10-7 lead on the heels of a 36-yard field goal by Lawrence with 10 seconds left in the first half.

Anthony Alridge was held to a season-low 29 yards rushing and four-yards receiving. Overall, UH was held to 32 yards rushing and no touchdowns.

Brian Bonner and Jason Phillips tallied 10 tackles apiece to lead the TCU defense. Phillips also added two tackles for a loss and a sack.

Chase Turner set three Texas Bowl punting records including the longest punt in bowl history (65 yards), highest gross punting average (50.2) and most punts (6).

2008 BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL

Houston 34, Air Force 28

Dec. 31, 2008 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Freshman running back Bryce Beall rushed for 135 yards and a touchdown and added 92 receiving yards to help lead the University of Houston football team to a 34-28 win over Air Force during the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Beall, who accounted for 229 yards of all-purpose yards, finished the season with 1,247 rushing yards, becoming the first freshman in school history to reach that milestone.

With the win, the Cougars finished the season with an 8-5 record and won their first bowl game since a 35-0 decision over Navy during the 1980 Garden State Bowl in East Rutherford, N.J., on Dec. 22, 1980. The win snapped an eight-game losing skid in bowl games.

Sophomore quarterback Case Keenum threw for 252 yards and a touchdown on 22-of-33 passing but saw his school-record streak of consecutive 300-yard passing games snapped at 13 straight games dating back to last season.

The game started on a positive note for the Cougars when Roisean Haynes forced a fumble on the opening kickoff and junior Brandon Brinkley jumped on the loose ball to set up the offense on the Air Force 25.

Four plays later, Beall plunged into the end zone from one yard out to hand the Cougars an early 7-0 lead.

Air Force wasted little time in knotting the game at 7-7. Taking over on their 23-yard line, the Falcons marched 77 yards in little less than two minutes with six straight rushing plays and tied the game on Jared Tew's 2-yard touchdown run.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Cougars embarked on an eight-play, 65-yard drive that was capped by Keenum's 1-yard sneak into the end zone.

Later in the period, freshman linebacker Marcus McGraw stripped Asher Clark of the ball at the Air Force 24 and senior defensive end Phillip Hunt pounced on the loose ball and returned it to the Air Force 14. However, the Falcon defense stiffened and freshman kicker Jordan Mannisto's nailed a 22-yard field goal with four seconds remaining in the period.

On its ensuing possession, Air Force marched 76 yards in 12 plays and pulled to within a field goal at 17-14 on Tim Jefferson's 5-yard touchdown run at the 9:52 mark of the second quarter.

After a Cougar punt, a missed 28-yard field goal by Air Force and another UH punt, Air Force tied the game at 17-17 when Ryan Harrison booted a 44-yard field with 2:28 left in the first half.

Air Force looked ready to grab its first lead of the game when a Cougar fumble on the ensuing kickoff put the Falcons at the UH 29-yard line with 2:21 remaining. But the UH defense stiffened and pushed AFA back nine yards then Harrison missed from 55 yards out.

The two teams traded scoring possessions in the third quarter. UH took the opening kickoff and marched 69 yards on a seven-play drive that was capped on Keenum's 4-yard touchdown run with 12:28 remaining in the period for a 24-17 lead.

Air Force took over on the next possession on an 18-play drive that consumed 51 yards and took more than eight-and-a-half minutes off the clock. However the Cougar defense limited the Falcons to Harrison's 37-yard field goal with 3:46 left in the period to maintain a 24-20 advantage.

Houston looked to take control of the game, extending their lead, 31-20 on 20-yard field goal attempt by Mannisto and a punt by the Falcons on their next possession.

Five plays later, Keenum's pass to senior tight end Mark Hafner was intercepted and returned 19 yards by Aaron Kirchoff. The Falcons would pull within three after the interception on a 3-yard rushing touchdown by Tim Jefferson.

The Cougars capped the game with a 37-yard field goal from Mannisto with 3:24 left on the clock.

2009 BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL

Air Force 47, rv/#25 Houston 20

Dec. 31, 2009 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Asher Clark and Jared Tew each ran for more than 100 yards with two touchdowns and Air Force's top-ranked pass defense had six interceptions against Case Keenum, leading the Falcons to a 47-20 victory over Houston in the Armed Forces Bowl.

Air Force's plan to limit Keenum and the nation's most explosive offense worked almost flawlessly. The Falcons ran for 402 yards to go with Tim Jefferson's effective passing (10 of 14 for 161 yards), holding the ball for 41 minutes and then coming up with the big defensive plays.

Anthony Wright had three interceptions, and Chris Thomas had two picks to go with his 12 tackles.

Keenum, who leads the nation in yards passing, was 24 of 41 with a season-low 222 yards and a touchdown for the Cougars (10-4). The six picks were a career high. In his other 13 games this season, he had only nine interceptions while throwing for 5,449 yards and 43 touchdowns.

After Air Force went ahead on Clark's 36-yard TD to cap the opening drive of the game, Keenum's first pass attempt deflected off his falling receiver and was intercepted by Wright. That set up Tew's 6-yard TD run for a 14-0 lead.

Tew finished with 26 carries for 173 yards, He had a 71-yard TD with 3:32 left in the game after Keenum tossed his fifth interception.

Clark had 17 carries for 129 yards for the Falcons, who had lost in the Armed Forces Bowl the past two seasons, including 34-28 to Houston a year ago. Air Force had lost three postseason games since winning in the 2000 Silicon Valley Bowl.

Houston's bowl win last year capped coach Kevin Sumlin's debut season and snapped an eight-game postseason losing streak that had spanned 28 years.

After Houston was held without a touchdown before halftime, Tyron Carrier returned the opening kickoff of the second half 79 yards for his fourth TD this season. He took the ball near the left sideline, then ran to the middle of the field before shooting through a gap and running untouched to get the Cougars within 24-13.

Air Force immediately responded with its first kickoff return for a touchdown since 1985. Jonathan Warzeka fielded the ball and stepped back into the end zone before running 100 yards. Five Houston players got their hands on him, but couldn't get him down.

According to STATS LLC, which has such data only since 1996, it was only the sixth game in that span involving FBS teams when there were kickoff returns for touchdowns on consecutive plays. None of them had been in a bowl game.

After the kickoff returns, Keenum threw a 10-yard TD to Patrick Edwards to make it 31-20, but that was all the Cougars got.

That gave Keenum a TD pass in 30 consecutive games , but this was the first time in that streak that he had more picks than scores.

The Cougars entered the Fort Worth Bowl leading the nation in total yards (581) while averaging 44 points. They managed only 331 total yards against the Falcons.

Air Force had allowed only 149 yards passing a game this season, even after giving up 377 in its regular-season finale at BYU.

Clark's 22-yard TD midway through the second quarter, when he took a pitch to the right and ran untouched to the end zone, made it 21-3. The only pass on that 11-play drive was a 13-yard completion by Jefferson, who by then was 5 of 5 for 71 yards, 10 more than Keenum.

When Jefferson slipped down trying to run on third-and-goal from the 2 with 17 seconds and no timeouts left just before halftime, he quickly got the offense off the field and the kicking team got out in time for Erik Soderberg's 27-yard field goal that made it 24-6.

2012 TICKET CITY BOWL

#20/17 Houston 30, #24/23 Penn State 14

Jan. 1, 2012 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas

Case Keenum finished his record-setting career with another performance for the history books.

The sixth-year senior threw for 532 yards and three touchdowns, leading No. 20 Houston to 30-14 victory against No. 24 Penn State in the TicketCity Bowl.

The Cougars (13-1) finished with a school record for victories and made Tony Levine a winner in his debut as Houston coach. Levine took over when Kevin Sumlin left to take the Texas A&M job after the regular season.

Keenum came into the game as the NCAA's career leader in yards passing and touchdowns passes, then set a bowl record with 227 yards passing in the first quarter.

"I'm biased, obviously. I'd put him right at the top," Levine said when asked where Keenum ranks among the best college quarterbacks of all time. "You don't win 13 games by accident and I don't think you don't break the records he broke by accident, either."

Keenum wasn't concerned with his place. He leaves Houston as the school career leader with 37 wins, and that's what he chose to focus on.

"As far as rankings and all that goes, I'm concerned with our team ranking and how we end up," Keenum said. "Thirteen and one, I hope we end up in the top 15 in the country."

"I thought the guys came out and they played hard. It's been a difficult year for them," Penn State interim coach Tom Bradley said. "It just didn't go our way."

The Nittany Lions (9-4) were picked apart by Keenum. Penn State was allowing 162 yards passing per game, but Keenum threw for more than double that by halftime.

The Cougars raced out to a 17-0 lead in the first quarter behind Keenum's record-setting period. According to TicketCity officials, Louisville's Browning Nagle had the old mark with 223 yards against Alabama in the first quarter of the 1991 Fiesta Bowl.

Keenum worked the spread offense to perfection, with five different Cougars catching at least five balls. Patrick Edwards, one of the country's leading receivers, had 228 yards and two scores in the last game of his collegiate career. Justin Johnson had 12 catches for 148 yards.

Keenum is the ninth player in bowl history to pass for at least 500 yards. He thought he could have done better.

"We left a lot out there," Keenum said. "There were a lot of throws I missed."

Houston came into the game determined to end the season on a high note having its BCS Bowl hopes dashed on Dec. 3. The undefeated Cougars fell to Southern Miss in the Conference USA championship game, costing UH a shot at the school's first BCS bid.

"That was the fluke," Levine said of the lone loss, "and not the 12 wins leading up to it."

Penn State quarterback Rob Bolden finished 7 of 26 passing for 137 yards, with three interceptions. Houston wanted Bolden, the backup quarterback all season, to air it out as much as possible.

"We know they were going to try to run the ball," Cougars linebacker Marcus McGraw said. "We just wanted to get them in second and long, third and long, and wanted them to pass the ball knowing they had a second-string quarterback."

2014 BBVA COMPASS BOWL

Vanderbilt 41, Houston 24

Jan. 4, 2014 • Legion Field • Birmingham, Ala.

Houston lost the bowl game but found a new wide receiver to watch.

Markeith Ambles had a touchdown catch as Houston rallied to pull even after trailing by 24 points, but the Cougars couldn't keep pace and Vanderbilt controlled the fourth quarter for a 41-24 victory in the BBVA Compass Bowl.

Ambles, a former top high school recruit who began his career at Southern California, had six catches for 105 yards, including a 6-yard touchdown catch.

Houston coach Tony Levine said he anticipated Ambles' breakout game after the junior had only 11 catches in nine regular-season games. He joined the program late in preseason practice and made his debut the third week of the season.

Houston gained only 22 yards and had one first down in the first half but tied the game with 24 points in the third quarter. Kenneth Farrow had a 6-yard scoring run and John O'Korn threw scoring passes to and Deontay Greenberry and Ambles.

O'Korn completed 16 of 31 passes for 220 yards and two touchdowns with two interceptions. Daniel Spencer had three carries for 69 yards.

Vanderbilt's Patton Robinette threw two 50-yard touchdown passes to Jordan Matthews. Robinette, starting after senior Austyn Carta-Samuels had season-ending surgery to repair a torn ACL in his left knee, also had an 8-yard scoring run as Vanderbilt built a 24-0 lead in the first half.

After Houston's big third quarter, Vanderbilt reclaimed the lead on Brian Kimbrow's 21-yard touchdown run. It was the start of 17 fourth-quarter points for the Commodores.

Vanderbilt closed the season with five straight wins, adding to Franklin's status as a possible candidate for coaching vacancies, including at Penn State and with the NFL Browns and Redskins. The Commodores played in three straight bowl games under Franklin - a first for the program - and completed their first back-to-back nine-win seasons.

Franklin talked after the game about Vanderbilt's returning players. He left the interview room without replying when asked if he would be back.

No Houston defender was near Matthews on his second 50-yard scoring catch in the second quarter. It capped a dominant first half for the Commodores.

Levine said he told his players at halftime they could make up the 24-point deficit quickly.

A lost fumble by Robinette set up Farrow's 6-yard touchdown run to start Houston's third-quarter comeback.

Houston built on the momentum. Spencer's 62-yard run set up O'Korn's 6-yard touchdown pass to Ambles. O'Korn's 58-yard pass to Ambles set up a 30-yard field goal by Kyle Bullard. O'Korn's 67-yard touchdown pass to Greenberry tied the game.

Matthews, a senior who set Southeastern Conference records for career catches and yards receiving, had five catches for 143 yards and two touchdowns and was named the game's MVP.

Robinette completed only one pass to another receiver - for 11 yards to Jonathan Krause. Robinette completed 6 of 17 passes for 154 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Seymour had 14 carries for 46 yards.

Matthews took advantage of a lead block by Krause to make his first touchdown catch.

A forced fumble by linebacker Chase Garnham set up the Commodores' second touchdown. After Houston's O'Korn threw a pass to Greg Ward Jr., a big hit by Garnham forced the fumbled recovered by Andrew Williamson at the Houston 16. Robinette, making his third career start, scored on an 8-yard keeper on fourth down.

2015 LOCKHEED MARTIN ARMED FORCES BOWL

Houston 35, Pittsburgh 34

Jan. 2, 2015 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Houston quarterback Greg Ward had just thrown his third touchdown in a flurried comeback that included two recovered onside kicks in a row to get the Cougars within a point in the Armed Forces Bowl.

Interim coach David Gibbs never had a second thought on what to do with less than a minute left in the game.

"We decided to go for two at the end because we had the momentum," Gibbs said.

Deontay Greenberry, already with two TD catches in that final 3:41, made a leaping catch in the back of the end zone for the two-point conversion and the Cougars beat Pittsburgh 35-34 on Friday with an improbable comeback - the largest in an FBS game this season, and largest ever in a bowl game that didn't go into overtime.

Pitt (6-7) led 31-6 when ACC offensive player of the year James Conner had his second touchdown run with 14 minutes left in the game. The Panthers were still up 34-13 after Chris Blewitt's 29-yard field goal with 6:14 left before Houston's big finish.

Ward had an 8-yard TD pass to Greenberry before the Cougars recovered their first onside kick. That led to a 29-yard catch by Demarcus Ayers on a fourth-and-13 play with 1:58 left, and Houston tried another onside kick.

While the second one didn't go 10 yards on the rain-slickened field, the ball was touched by the same Pitt defender who couldn't handle the first one before Houston running back Kenneth Farrow jumped on it at the Cougars 43. Greenberry started the drive with a 38-yard catch, then on third-and-16 had a 25-yard TD with 59 seconds left.

Ward, the former Cougars receiver, had 237 of his 274 yards passing in the fourth quarter and also ran for 92 yards.

Farrow ran 22 times for 103 yards and two touchdowns for the Cougars, who have split their four appearances in the 12-year history of the Armed Forces Bowl.

Conner's 1-yard TD run a minute into the second quarter capped a 15-play, 92-yard drive, and Pitt led until the final minute of the game. The Cougars had a missed extra point after Farrow's 2-yard TD in the second quarter when Kyle Bullard slipped while kicking.

Voytik threw was 18-of-35 passing for 222 yards and an impressive 16-yard TD catch by tight end J.P. Holtz between two defenders in the front corner of the end zone. But Voytik had six consecutive incompletions on a final desperate drive when only a pass interference penalty got Pitt a first down.

Boyd had nine catches for 112 yards, his 11th career 100-yard receiving game and moving from seventh to fourth on Pitt's career reception mark with 163, two more than Larry Fitzgerald.

2015 CHICK-fil-A PEACH BOWL

#14/16 Houston 38, #9/8 Florida State 24

Dec. 31, 2015 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta

Greg Ward Jr. and the Houston Cougars showed they could thrive in a big-game atmosphere against a big-name opponent.

Ward ran for two touchdowns and threw for another, leading Houston Football past turnover-plagued Florida State 38-24 in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl on New Year's Eve.

Dalvin Cook was held to 33 yards rushing with a touchdown and a lost fumble. That left the Seminoles with five turnovers - half their total of 10 in 12 regular-season games.

Houston scored the most points allowed by Florida State this season.

The No. 9 Seminoles (10-3), who trailed 21-3 at halftime, tried to rally with two fourth-quarter touchdown passes by Sean Maguire.

Ward, the nation's only player to run for 1,000 yards and throw for 2,000 yards this season, threw for 238 yards and ran for 67 yards for No. 14 Houston (13-1).

Houston safety Trevon Stewart and cornerback William Jackson III each had two interceptions. Stewart also recovered a fumble.

Ward, the junior who started at wide receiver early last season before becoming a full-time quarterback, had touchdown runs of 7 and 6 yards. He left the game briefly after taking a hit in the third quarter, and was shaken up again with about 4 minutes remaining.

Ward returned to take the final snaps of the game, raising his arm in celebration before laying on his back, wallowing in the confetti which fell from the Georgia Dome roof. He was named offensive MVP of the game.

Houston backup quarterback Kyle Postma's 29-yard run set up Ryan Jackson's game-clinching 2-yard touchdown run with about 2 minutes left.

Ward completed 25 of 41 passes with one touchdown and one interception.

Houston's only loss this season, to Connecticut, came when Ward was out with an injury. He kept the Florida State defense off-balance by leading the Cougars' fast-tempo, no-huddle attack.

Maguire's 65-yard scoring pass to Travis Rudolph cut Houston's lead to 24-17 early in the fourth quarter. Ward answered with a 17-yard touchdown pass to Chance Allen, who was left uncovered as Florida State sent a defensive back on a blitz. Maguire added a scoring pass to Jesus Wilson later in the final quarter.

Maguire was hurt in the first quarter when hit by Adams. Maguire couldn't put pressure on his left leg as he was supported by trainers before leaving the field on a cart.

When Maguire was out, backup J.J. Cosentino completed only 1 of 4 passes for 5 yards. Maguire returned midway through the second quarter with the ankle wrapped.

Maguire's last interception came with 25 seconds remaining. He completed 22 of 44 passes for 392 yards with two touchdowns and four interceptions.

The Cougars won 13 games for the second time in school history, following the 2011 season.

BOWL HISTORY

2016 LAS VEGAS BOWL

rv/rv San Diego State 34, rv/rv Houston 10

Dec. 17, 2016 • Sam Boyd Stadium • Las Vegas

Donnel Pumphrey broke the NCAA career rushing record Saturday in his college finale, running for 115 yards and a touchdown in San Diego State's 34-10 victory over Houston in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Pumphrey passed former Wisconsin star Ron Dayne's mark of 6,397 yards on a 15-yard run early in the fourth quarter, wrapping up his career with 6,405 yards.

Pumphrey's senior total of 2,133 yards rushing ranks in the top 10 for an FBS player.

Ron Smith returned an interception 54 yards for a touchdown, Curtis Anderson caught a 28-yard touchdown pass from Christian Chapman, Juwan Washington ran for a touchdown, and John Baron kicked two field goals for the Aztecs (11-3). They overcame a 10-0 first-quarter deficit against the Cougars (9-4) for their second consecutive bowl win.

Neither the victory nor Pumphrey's record-setting performance seemed likely after Houston's defense absolutely smothered the Aztecs in the first quarter. Led by freshman Ed Oliver, Houston had seven tackles for loss on San Diego State's first 16 plays. Pumphrey had minus-1 yard rushing on seven carries in the first quarter and the Aztecs didn't have a first down until the first play of the second quarter - on a penalty for running into the kicker.

But Pumphrey started to gash Houston on the perimeter, giving San Diego State the lead for good on a 32-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter, and the defense intercepted four of Houston quarterback Greg Ward Jr.'s passes in the second half.

"When you are leaving your defense out there too long that's what happens," Houston coach Major Applewhite said. "When you give a great back that many at-bats and that many opportunities, one is going to hit at some point and it did."

Ward threw for 229 yards and had a 2-yard touchdown run, tying Bryce Beall's school record of 39 rushing touchdowns.

Houston finished with 254 yards of total offense and just 25 yards rushing.

2017 HAWAI'I BOWL

rv/rv Fresno State 33, Houston 27

Dec. 24, 2017 • Aloha Stadium • Honolulu

Houston Football saw its 2017 season come to an end as Fresno State earned a 33-27 win over the Cougars in the Hawai'i Bowl at Aloha Stadium.

Houston quarterback D'Eriq King finished with 269 passing yards on 23-of-43 passing with one touchdown, while rushing for 38 yards on nine carries.

Steven Dunbar, the Hawai'i Bowl MVP representative for Houston, led the offensive attack with 197 yards receiving on 10 catches. The 197 yards was a career-high and the 10 receptions tied a career-best for the senior in his final game in Scarlet and White.

Linell Bonner finished with 39 yards on seven catches and a touchdown.

Defensively, Alexander Myres had nine tackles and registered a blocked field goal return of 94 yards for a touchdown. D'Juan Hines tallied six tackles, while adding an interception and forced fumble.

Matthew Adams led Houston with 12 tackles, his ninth double-digit tackle game of his career.

Caden Novikoff hit two 31-yard field goals.

Houston Football jumped out to a 7-0 lead on Fresno State with 11:35 to play in the first half sparked by a 48-yard reception by Dunbar from King. The play led to a 1-yard touchdown rush for Ed Oliver, his first career rushing attempt.

The defense opened the game with four straight three-and-out stops on the Bulldogs, highlighted by an interception from Hines, his first career takeaway.

Fresno State found the end zone on an 11-play drive that ended the first quarter and rolled into a score to open the second quarter to make it a 7-7 game.

The Bulldogs grabbed their first lead of the game following a 27-yard field goal to go ahead, 10-7 with 9:45 left in the first half.

King found Dunbar for a 50-yard first down, which set up a 31-yard field goal for Novikoff, making it a 10-10 game with 7:17 left in the second quarter.

Fresno State hit a 38-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to take a 13-10 lead into halftime.

Houston quickly responded to open the third quarter as the Cougars drove the field to set up a 31-yard field goal attempt for Novikoff, who made it a 13-13 game midway through the third.

Fresno State jumped back ahead with 4:21 remaining in the third on a 9-play, 75-yard drive as a 6-yard rushing touchdown ended the drive to make it 20-13.

After a Houston fumble, the Bulldogs attempted a 24-yard field goal, but Jeremy Winchester was credited with the blocked field goal, which was then returned by Myres for 94 yards and the touchdown to make it a 20-20 game with 2:54 left in the third quarter.

The blocked field goal return of 94 yards was the longest in Houston Football history.

Fresno State kicker Jimmy Camacho nailed his third field goal of the day, a 26-yarder, to put the Bulldogs back on top, 23-20 with 13:56 left in the game and then went on to break the Hawai'i Bowl record with his fourth made field goal -- a 33-yarder to give them a 6-point advantage.

The Bulldogs picked off a Houston pass and returned it for 44 yards to make it a 33-20 game.

Houston used a 16-play, 76-yard drive to find the end zone as King's pass to Bonner for two yards made it a 33-27 game with 45 seconds left in the game.

Fresno State quarterback Marcus McMaryion passed for 342 yards on a 33-for-48 effort.

BOWL HISTORY

2018 LOCKHEED MARTIN ARMED FORCES BOWL

#22/25 Army 70, Houston 14

Dec. 22, 2018 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Army quarterback Kelvin Hopkins Jr. ran for 170 yards and an Armed Forces Bowl-record five touchdowns and the No. 22 Black Knights overwhelmed Houston 70-14 to reach 11 wins for the first time in program history.

The Black Knights won their ninth consecutive game since an overtime loss at playoff team Oklahoma exactly three months earlier.

Hopkins had a nifty 77-yard TD run on the last play of the first quarter for a 14-0 lead. The junior quarterback initially ran right before cutting back the other way and alluding one tackler. He sent two other defenders sliding to the ground when he switched directions again back toward the middle of the field.

Houston lost for the fourth time in five games since starting 7-1 and getting into the AP Top 25 poll for a week in late October. The Cougars suffered their most-lopsided loss in their 27 bowl games, and their biggest loss overall since a 66-10 loss at UCLA in 1997.

Along with his 11 rushing attempts before coming out of the game midway through the third quarter when it was 49-7, Hopkins completed the first 1,000-yard passing season for Army since 2007. He was 3-of-3 passing for 70 yards, including a 54-yarder that set up one of his three 1-yard TD plunges. He also had a 2-yard TD run.

Army got 507 of its 592 total yards on the ground in its highest-scoring game this season - and the most points in the program's nine bowl appearances. The Black Knights won a bowl for the third consecutive year, including last year's Armed Force Bowl over San Diego State.
