- UTRGV turned a 5-2-5-6-4 triple play and Freddy Rojas Jr. hit a grand slam to beat Houston 6-5 in 12 innings on the road in their most recent meeting on Feb. 25, 2020.

Texas Southern (2/25-26)

- UTRGV is 20-1 all-time against Texas Southern, having won the last six meetings.
- There is their first meeting at a neutral site, although Schroeder Park is only two miles from Texas Southern's home, MacGregor Park. UTRGV is 5-0 against Texas Southern in Houston.
- These two teams last met Feb. 17-19, 2017, a four-game sweep by UTRGV (11-4, 12-2 (7), 9-0, 5-4 (10)).

George Washington (2/20)

- UTRGV completed the three-game sweep of GW with a 23-3 win.
- This was UTRGV's highest scoring output since scoring 23 runs against Louisiana Tech on March 7, 2010.
- This was UTRGV's largest margin of victory since March 24, 1987 (22-0 vs. Bellevue at Jody Ramsey Stadium) and the largest margin of victory against an NCAA Division I opponent since April 12, 1979 (25-0 vs. North Texas at Jody Ramsey Stadium).
- UTRGV has now scored 33 runs through three games, their most runs through three games since 2010 (program record 41 – 23 vs. UT Brownsville, 5 vs. Prairie View A&M, 13 vs. UT Brownsville).
- This is the first time UTRGV has ever scored 33 runs in its first three games against NCAA Division I competition, regardless of when the games were played.
- In this game, junior Brandon Pimentel hit a pair of three-run home runs, the first of which went out to right field off a right-handed pitcher to make the score 3-0, and the second of which went out to left field off a left-handed pitcher to make the score 8-1.
- Pimentel drove-in a career-high six runs, the most for a player in program history since March 5, 2010, when Vinnie Mejia drove-in six runs against Louisiana Tech. Mejia hit one three-run home run in that game. This is the program's third six-RBI performance since 2008. Jordan Rutenbar drove-in six runs at Northern Colorado without hitting a home run on May 3, 2008.
- In what was his first-career multi-home run game, Pimentel finished with a career-high three hits, going 3-for-4, and a career-high three runs scored.
- Sophomore Jacob Sanchez posted his first-career multi-hit game, going 2-for-2 with his first-career home run, a double, a career-high four RBI, and a career-high two runs scored. The home run was a pinch-hit home run in the seventh.
- Graduate student Freddy Rojas Jr. finished with his second-career three-hit game, going 3-for-4 with a double, two walks and a career-high three runs scored. This is also the second time Rojas has reached five times in a game after doubling twice and walking three times at Dallas Baptist on March 27, 2021.

- Graduate student DeAndre' Shelton finished 2-for-3 with a career-high three walks, a career-high three RBI and one run scored. It was his third-career multi-hit game.
- Sophomore Alex Kelch recorded the first two hits of his career, going 2-for-3 with a double, one walk, two RBI and one run scored.
- Graduate student Brett Cain finished this game 2-for-4 with a double and two runs scored. It was Cain's second-straight multi-hit game after recording one last season.
- Junior Raul Ortega hit his first-career home run, a three-run shot in his first at-bat as a Vaquero while pinch-hitting in the eighth.
- Junior Chris Mondesi made his UTRGV debut as a pinch-hitter in the seventh, hitting a three-run double on the first pitch he saw. He drew a bases-loaded walk in the eighth to finish with four RBI and two runs scored.
- Junior J.C. Ariza earned his first-career win, striking out three in 4.0 innings of one-run ball. He allowed three hits without a walk.
- Junior Diego Escobedo made his UTRGV debut, pitching a scoreless inning of relief.
- This is the second time UTRGV has started 3-0 in Derek Matlock's five seasons at the helm after doing so in 2018.
- 4,553 fans attended the three games, marking the program's best attendance through three games since Feb. 1-2, 2003, when 5,238 fans watch a win over Texas State and a doubleheader sweep of Schriener. The 4,553 fans represent the second largest attendance through three games for UTRGV since moving into UTRGV Baseball Stadium in 2002.

George Washington (2/19)

- UTRGV secured a series victory by beating GW 7-1.
- Graduate student Brett Cain posted his first-career three-hit game, going 3-for-5 with one home run and a career-high three runs scored.
- Junior Brandon Pimentel posted his second-career multi-hit game, going 2-for-5 with an RBI and a run scored.
- Sophomore Angelo Cabral made his UTRGV debut, striking out three in 3.0 scoreless innings.

George Washington (2/18)

- UTRGV opened the season with a 3-0 victory over GW.
- Senior Kevin Stevens and junior Jesus Aldaz combined to pitch a one-hit shutout, marking the third one-hit shutout in a span of four home games dating back to last season. Stevens started two of those games.
- This is the 41st one-hitter in program history.
- This was the third time Stevens has been part of a one-hitter after starting a combined one-hitter against Kansas State on Feb. 14, 2020, and then pitching a complete game one-hit shutout against Northern Colorado on May 14, 2021.
- That Kansas State game was also the season opener, making this the second time in three years that UTRGV has opened the season with a combined one-hit shutout started by Stevens.
- Stevens is one of nine pitchers to be part of multiple one-hitters, one of eight to start multiple one-hitters, and one of four to start or be a part of three one-hitters in program history.

- Stevens retired the first 12 batters he faced, striking out nine. Then, after allowing a leadoff single in the fifth, Stevens struck out the next three while retiring the final six batters he faced. Stevens finished with a career-high 13 strikeouts.
- Aldaz pitched a career-high 3.0 hitless innings, striking out a career-high tying five and walking one while facing the minimum nine batters, for his first-career save.
- This was the first-ever game between UTRGV and GW.
- UTRGV welcomed 2,418 fans, its largest crowd since Feb. 1, 2003, when 3,604 fans watch an 11-3 win vs. Texas State in a game that was also on opening night. The 2,418 fans represent the second largest attendance for a UTRGV game since moving into UTRGV Baseball Stadium in 2002.

Career: West Virginia went to its first NCAA Regional berth in 21 years after earning the first at-large bid in program history by going 36-26 in 2017. In Matlock's five seasons, West Virginia went 160-127 (.557) and made the Big 12 Tournament every year. Matlock recruited and coached five All-Americans and had six pitchers drafted, including three in the top 15 rounds of the MLB Draft. One of those pitchers was 2013 Big 12 Pitcher of the Year and Louisville Slugger All-American Harrison Musgrave, who is currently pitching for the Colorado Rockies after being selected in the eighth round of the 2014 MLB Draft.

Matlock went to West Virginia after five years as the recruiting coordinator and pitching coach at Texas State, a program he helped to four-straight Southland Conference Championships, marking the first conference championships in program history, and two NCAA Regional berths. Overall, Texas State went 219-136 (.617) during Matlock's tenure, twice winning a program record 41 games. He recruited five All-Americans to Texas State and developed three Southland Conference Pitcher of the Year honorees. Matlock also had eight pitchers selected in the MLB Draft.

Matlock's 2012 pitching staff put together a streak of 57.2 consecutive scoreless innings, just 6.1 short of the NCAA record, en route to a program record 3.02 ERA.

One of Matlock's top recruits at Texas State was Arizona Diamondbacks first baseman and four-time All-Star Paul Goldschmidt.

Matlock joined Texas State after three seasons as the volunteer assistant coach at TCU, during which time he worked with the pitchers and catchers. TCU went 80-43 during those two seasons, winning back-to-back conference championships and advancing to the NCAA Regionals. Matlock coached two players who went on to be selected in the top two rounds of the MLB Draft, including Lance Broadway, who was the 15th overall pick and went on to pitch for the Chicago White Sox and New York Mets. Matlock also coached 2016 NL Cy Young Award winner and 2015 All-Star Jake Arrieta, who led the Chicago Cubs to its first World Series Championship in 108 years last season, and St. Louis Cardinals first baseman and three-time All-Star Matt Carpenter.

Matlock gained his first experience in collegiate baseball as manager of the Denton Outlaws of the Texas Collegiate League (TCL) from 2004-07. He finished as the second most successful coach in league history by going 78-63 (.553), winning the 2005 TCL Championship, and earning TCL Coach of the Year honors in 2005 and 2006. He also had the opportunity to coach 2014 AL Cy Young Award winner and 2016 All-Star Corey Kluber, who led the Cleveland Indians to the World Series last season.

Matlock began his coaching career as the assistant coach at Eastern Hills High School in Fort Worth in 1994 before being elevated to head coach in 1996. Matlock took a program that had never had a winning season and had no baseball field or locker room and won back-to-back district championships en route to ranking in the top 10 in the state. Matlock earned District Coach of the Year honors in 1996 and 1997 and Fort Worth Star-Telegram Coach of the Year honors in 1998.

Matlock then became the head coach at Flower Mound High School from 2000-04, starting a brand-new baseball program and ranking in the top five in the nation by his third season. The 2003 squad finished in the top four in the state while the 2004 team finished second.

During his nine seasons as a high school head coach, Matlock went 251-67 (.789).
