2023 UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE
The 2023 University of Houston Football media guide was designed, written and edited by the Houston Athletics Communications Department.
Covers created by Jordan Burgess/Houston Fooball. Printing by University of Houston Printing and Postal Services.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press, radio, television, photography or scouting credentials should be made online at UHCougars.com/Credentials AT LEAST ONE WEEK PRIOR TO A GAME. Seating in the press box or other designated media areas are for working media and scouts only.

All space for the working press, radio and television is allocated by the Houston Athletics Communications Office, which reserves the right to deny credentials to any outlet. Spouses, dates, children, equipment carriers and non-workers are restricted from receiving credentials. Any abuse of a working credential will result in the media agency losing credential privileges.

Freelance and/or non-daily writers may be asked to produce copies of actual publications in which their work has appeared.

Admission to the press box is by credential only.

ACCREDITATION GUIDELINES

- Only full-time, salaried employees intending to provide actual game coverage may receive credentials.
- A requesting media agency must represent a collective, organizational editorial voice, not simply the offerings of a single individual.
- Membership in a writers' association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials.
- Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling.
- Previous year's receipt of Houston Athletics credentials and/or credential requests granted by other Houston sports teams do not guarantee granting of 2023-24 Houston Athletics credentials.
- Online entities or independent podcasts not associated with a traditional media agency are not guaranteed media access or credentials but are encouraged to utilize resources provided at UHCougars.com to obtain notes, quotes, statistics and other UH Athletics information. An online entity or independent podcast not associated with a traditional media agency may qualify for one credential, subject to the following conditions:

1. Online entity has an established, long standing history of coverage and attendance at UH Athletics events, including games and media availabilities, and has a record of credible coverage through original content while upholding professional behavior towards media outlets and other schools.
2. Online entities that focus primarily on University of Houston Athletics and sponsor message boards or chat rooms, may receive credentials provided they adhere to a policy that requires that a posted message or opinion is identified with the actual name and city of the individual posting the message.
3. Any online service that is recognized as an outlet intended primarily for the purpose of delivering news related to the recruitment of student-athletes will not qualify for credentials.
4. Online entities (other than those identified above) registering 50,000 legitimate unique users per month in each of the past 12 months will be given first consideration.
5. Online entity may receive a credential only if its own full-time staff writes a majority of that site's material.

HOUSTON ON THE WEB

ASSISTANCE

The University of Houston Athletics Communications Office is at your service to assist you with your coverage. A comprehensive list of staff and sport assignments can be found by visiting UHCougars.com/communications.

For information regarding credentials, interviews, statistics, photos, video highlights, press conferences and satellite feeds, please call the Houston Athletics Communications Office at 713-743-8998.

The Athletics Communications Office is located in the Ted Nance Suite (No. 2008) on the second floor of the Athletics/Alumni Center, located on Cullen Boulevard between Darryl & Lori Schroeder Park and Fertitta Center. If available, parking will be provided in the front lot of the Athletics/Alumni Center or in the alley lot between the AAC and Fertitta Center.

INTERVIEWS

Please direct all interview requests for coaches, student-athletes and staff to the Houston Athletics Communications office. Contacting student-athletes or coaches directly through text message, phone calls, social media or other direct avenues is strictly prohibited and could result in loss of credentials.

The locker, training and weight rooms along with team meeting rooms and hallways inside the Athletics/Alumni Center are off-limits to reporters unless escorted by a member of the Houston Athletics Communications Office.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only accredited photographers on assignment from recognized media outlets will be issued sideline credentials. No freelance photographers will be admitted to the sidelines.

The University of Houston is, and shall be, the sole owner of any and all copyrights, intellectual property rights and proprietary rights for images, sounds and data arising from or during Houston home athletics contests.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Stats are available online at UHstats.com. Statistics will be emailed to those media who request such service following the game and will be posted at UHCougars.com.

VIDEO SERVICES

The University of Houston's Athletics Communications Office can provide video highlights to networks and television stations through Houston Athletics Content Solutions Department.

The Department has editing and studio facilities inside the Athletics/Alumni Center and can reproduce highlights and other materials upon receipt of requester's FTP information. Please make requests at least two days in advance at 713-743-9420.

LIVE STREAMING

A live video streaming of any Houston Athletics event, including news conferences, on ANY social media platform is strictly prohibited without prior approval from the Houston Athletics Communications office.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO

Any media entity collecting any sort of "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from University of Houston Athletics game events or press conference/media events may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, web-based or print coverage, or other electronic transmission with a limitation of up to four (4) minutes in length from any single event.

Such media entity may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event without the advance, written permission of University of Houston Athletics. This policy includes all games, matches and events involving any of Houston's athletic programs.

It includes all media events -- press conferences, pre/post-practice interviews and pre/postgame interviews. An exception would be a one-on-one interview arranged through the Houston Athletics Communications office with a Houston coach, student-athlete or administrator.

THE HOUSTON COUGARS

RECAPPING 2022

The University of Houston's final season in the American Athletic Conference was full of theatrics best exemplified by a school-record three overtime contests (including a three-overtime season-opening win at UTSA), six comeback victories, and seven games which came down to the final drive. As an encore to the eventful season, Houston defeated Louisiana, 23-16, in the Independence Bowl on a 12-yard touchdown with 20 seconds remaining. The game-time temperature of 25°F marked the second-coldest game in program history.

After a disappointing start to the season, the Cougars won six of their last eight games. Houston's 7.2 yards per play offensively over its final eight games led the nation. During the stretch, the Cougars ranked third in passing touchdowns (39), fourth in total touchdowns (63) and 10th in points (66).

Houston's depth with put into question throughout the season with several key contributors missing multiple games including linebacker Malik Robinson (11 games), defensive end Derek Parish (9 games), defensive back Alex Hogan (7 games), defensive back Antonio Brooks (6 games), defensive lineman Jamaree Caldwell (4 games) and defensive back Hasaan Hypolite (3 games) among others. Offensively, the Cougars were without wide receiver Joseph Manjack IV (8 games), running back Brandon Campbell (3 games), running back Ta'Zhawn Henry (4 games) and wide receiver Matthew Golden (2 games).

TUNE-DELL DUO OUT ON TOP

A go-ahead 12-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Clayton Tune to wide receiver Nathaniel Dell with 20 seconds remaining in the Independence Bowl capped a three-year showcase between the standout Cougar playmakers.

Dell, who was selected in the third round by the Houston Texans in the 2023 NFL Draft, led the nation with 17 receiving scores and 1,398 receiving yards. His 107.5 receiving yards per game ranked second nationally while his 8.4 receptions per contest ranked fourth.

Tune, a fifth-round NFL Draft selection by the Arizona Cardinals, set the American Athletic Conference record for career touchdowns responsible for at 119. His three touchdown passes set the league's single season record with 42. During his decorated career, Tune led the Cougars to 25 victories including back-to-back bowl victories and one conference championship appearance.

POWER 5 MAKEUP

Houston assumes an underdog role entering its inaugural season in the Big 12 Conference but will be bolstered by a host of key returners including Athlon Sports Preseason All-Big 12 Conference First Team wide receiver Matthew Golden. The Cougars return 31 letterwinners (14 – offense; 15 – defense; 2 – special teams) including three starters each on the offensive and defensive lines.

To make noise in the Big 12, Houston will equally rely on 39 first-year players. Of the 39, 17 possess Division I experience including five student-athletes who have competed in the Big 12 Conference: Quarterback Donovan Smith (Texas Tech), wide receiver Stephon Johnson (Oklahoma State), defensive lineman David Ugwoegbu (Oklahoma), tight end Mike O'Laughlin (West Virginia) and running back Tony Mathis Jr. (West Virginia).

Among Houston's current 92-member roster, 23 student-athletes (25%) have prior experience at the Power 5 level including a combined 211 games played at a Big 12 program between Ugwoegbu (51 games), O'Laughlin (32 games), Mathis Jr. (31 games), Smith (21 games), linebacker Jamal Morris (20 games; Oklahoma), defensive back Alex Hogan (18 games; Texas Tech), defensive back Noah Guzman (16 games; West Virginia), Johnson (10 games), wide receiver Samuel Brown (9 games; West Virginia); offensive lineman Jaylen Garth (2 games; Texas) and offensive lineman Tyler Johnson (1 game; Texas).

Houston fifth-year head coach Dana Holgorsen has no shortage of familiarity with the Big 12 Conference or league transition. Holgorsen led West Virginia into the Big 12 in 2012 and piled up 33 conference victories across seven seasons in the league including helping the Mountaineers to a combined 18-9 conference record over his final three seasons before departing for Houston. The 2023 season will be his 17th coaching in the Big 12 with previous league stops at West Virginia (7 seasons; 2012-18), Oklahoma State (1 season; 2010) and Texas Tech (8 seasons; 2000-07).

In addition to its coaches, several senior Houston staff members head into the 2023 season with prior Big 12 experience at West Virginia including Director of Strength and Performance Darl Bauer, General Manager Ryan Dorchester and Director of Player Personnel Casey Smithson.

NAGHAVI JOINS UH, BURCHETT ELEVATED TO NEW ROLE

The lone new face on Houston's 2023 coaching staff is Houston-area native Eman Naghavi (pronounced ee-MAHN nuh-GAH-vee) who joined the Cougars prior to the start of spring practice. Naghavi serves as Co-Offensive Coordinator/Run Game Coordinator and joined the program after directing Tulane's offensive line as part of the Green Wave's historic 2022 season which included an American Athletic Conference title and Cotton Bowl victory over No. 10 USC. Tulane ranked fifth nationally in fewest offensive penalties, No. 12 in rushing touchdowns and No. 19 in scoring offense. Despite Houston's struggles in the run game (77th nationally; 141.8 yards per game) a season ago, the Cougars placed two offensive linemen on Athlon's Preseason All-Big 12 Conference Team, matching TCU for the second most and trailing only Texas. Junior Patrick Paul picked up second-team honors and senior Jack Freeman was on the fourth team.

Following the departure of Shannon Dawson for Miami (Fla.), the Cougars promoted Mike Burchett from Analyst to Quarterbacks Coach. Burchett spent the previous four seasons as an Offensive Analyst with the Cougars, helping Houston rack up nearly 20,000 yards of total offense. The Cougars' 106 passing touchdown in that timeframe ranks 24th nationally.

CONFERENCE TRANSITION

Historically, the Cougars are accustomed to early success in new leagues. Houston won three of four Southwest Conference Championships when it entered the league including capturing the 1976 title during its first year in the conference. The Cougars also won the Conference USA Championship during their inaugural 1996 season. Houston entered The American in 2013, going 17-7 in league play during its first three seasons including taking home the conference title during Year 3 as part of its magical 2015 season.

RECORD-SETTING EXCITEMENT

The excitement for Houston's inaugural season in the Big 12 Conference has shown itself in record-setting ways this offseason. The Cougars have already set season ticket benchmarks for TDECU Stadium (2014-present), surpassing 26,000 season tickets including 7,500 new season tickets. The Cougars lofty home schedule includes visits from national-runner up TCU (Sept. 16) in the league's first Big 12 contest and the first visit from Texas (Oct. 21) to UH's campus in two-plus decades.

SCHEDULE BREAKDOWN

Among Houston's 12-game schedule, 10 opponents went bowling in 2022. The Cougars will play 10 games in the state of Texas during 2023, their most in the regular season since playing as many in 1990. Houston's seven on-campus home games are its most since 2015.

Houston inaugural Big 12 season will feature visits to TDECU Stadium from in-state rivals TCU and Texas with additional home league matchups against Cincinnati, Oklahoma State and West Virginia.

Houston's Big 12 opener and conference home opener will take place Sept. 16 against national championship runner-up TCU. The matchup will be the 26th all-time between the Cougars and Horned Frogs and first on the campus of the University of Houston since Oct. 25, 2003.

The Cougars and Longhorns face off Oct. 21 for the first time since Sept. 21, 2002. The two teams are meeting for the first time as league foes since Nov. 11, 1995, as co-Southwest Conference members. Houston is looking for its first win against Texas since Nov. 9, 1991, when it defeated Texas for a third-straight time at the Astrodome.

Houston hosts West Virginia in the first meeting between the programs on Thursday, Oct. 12 at TDECU Stadium. Houston and Oklahoma State will meet for the 21st time overall and first since the Cougars upended the No. 5 Cowboys, 45-35, in 2009 on Nov. 18 at TDECU Stadium. Cincinnati and Houston renew its rivalry in a new league when the squads meet for the eighth time in the last 11 years on Nov. 11 at TDECU Stadium.

The Cougars visit Texas Tech (Sept. 30), Kansas State (Oct. 28), Baylor (Nov. 4) and UCF (Nov. 25) in league action. The Wildcats captured the Big 12 Championship with a win against TCU en route to an appearance in the Sugar Bowl as part of their 2022 season.

NFL DRAFT REWIND

Houston made another major imprint on the NFL Draft during 2023 with four total selections – the most for the program since matching the feat in 1997. It marked just the fifth time in the last 40 years Houston had 4+ players selected. The four picks ranked tied for 20th nationally and third among in-state programs, trailing only TCU (8) and Texas (5).

After wide receiver Nathaniel Dell was taken in the third round (69th pick) by the Houston Texans, quarterback Clayton Tune followed with his fifth-round (pick 139) selection by the Arizona Cardinals. Two more Cougars heard their names called in the seventh round as Derek Parish, drafted as a fullback, was taken with the 240th overall pick by the Jacksonville Jaguars and defensive back Gervarrius Owens was picked up by the New York Giants with the 254th pick.

Houston has seen 3+ players selected in the NFL Draft on six occasions since 2016. The mark ranks second among 2023 Big 12 Conference members (Oklahoma, 8) and second among all programs in Texas (Texas A&M, 7).

NOTING THE COUGARS

OFFENSE

Houston will have its first true quarterback competition since 2018 following the NFL Draft selection of standout Clayton Tune. A pair of Division I transfers in Donovan Smith (Texas Tech) and Lucas Coley (Arkansas), the Cougars' second-string quarterback in 2022, are among those competing for the job.

The winner of the job will have several key weapons at his disposal including arguably Head Coach Dana Holgorsen's deepest wide receivers' room at Houston. The Cougars' offensive line returns five letterwinners and three starters from a season ago and welcomes in five newcomers including four with prior Division I experience.

Houston scored 30+ points in 11 different games a season ago and has piled up 20,000+ yards of total offense in four seasons under Holgorsen. With Eman Naghavi joining the Cougars as Running Game Coordinator/Offensive Coordinator and Mike Burchett being elevated to Quarterbacks Coach, the Cougars will look to remain one of the nation's top offenses.

SUMMARY:
Houston's defensive backs unit will feature potentially the biggest shakeup from a season ago with the departures of Gervarrius Owens (NFL Draft), Art Green, Jayce Rogers and Thabo Mwaniki along with the move of Hasaan Hypolite to linebacker. Hogan returns after missing the final seven games with a knee injury. Alexander and Hamilton are among the favorites battling it out for available opportunities at cornerback. The Cougars brought in Haulcy (New Mexico), George (Texas A&M) and Hamilton (Texas Southern) to help fill the voids. Emery started the final six games a season ago and earned the privilege to wear a single-digit number entering 2023. Brooks, who also missed much of 2022 due to injury, had a strong spring while Barbas and Stanford joined the Cougars as mid-year enrollees and participated in spring practice.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Houston has made a name for itself in special teams under fourth-year special teams coordinator Mark Scott. Houston return specialists have been named to The American's all-conference teams each of the last three seasons (2022 - Jayce Rogers; 2020-21 - Marcus Jones). The Cougars lead the nation with 11 return touchdowns (6 kickoff, 5 punt) since the start of the 2019 season. Peyton Sawyer is expected to once again factor in the return game. The Cougars will look to fill the void left in punt return with Nathaniel Dell's NFL Draft selection. Dell was one of seven players during 2022 with a punt return touchdown and receiving touchdown in a game (Nov. 26 vs. Tulsa) a season ago. At placekicker, Houston brings in junior Cooper Hamilton and junior Jack Martin who will compete for the starting role after successful collegiate stints at Eastern New Mexico and Alabama, respectively. Cougar mainstay punter Laine Wilkins looks to add on to his impressive collegiate career in his fourth season with the program. In three seasons with the Cougars, Wilkins has downed 48 punts inside the 20-yard line and boomed 27 punts for 50+ yards. Gavin Gately and Jacob Garza each return at long snapper. The Cougars did not allow a blocked field goal or blocked punt in 2022.

RENU KHATOR

Chancellor, University of Houston System
President, University of Houston

Renu Khator holds the dual titles of chancellor of the University of Houston System and president of the University of Houston. The UH System's first woman chancellor and the first Indian immigrant to head a comprehensive research university in the United States, she assumed her post in January 2008.

As chancellor of the UH System, Khator oversees a four-university organization that serves nearly 74,000 students, has an annual budget that exceeds $1.8 billion, and produces a $6 billion-plus economic impact on the Greater Houston area each year.

As president of the University of Houston, she is the chief executive officer of the largest and oldest of the four UH System universities. As the system's flagship institution, UH enrolls approximately 46,00 students, offers 280 undergraduate and graduate programs and awards more than 10,500 degrees each year.

During her tenure, UH has experienced record-breaking research funding, enrollment and private support. As part of an ongoing $1-billion campus construction program, UH launched its 75-acre UH Technology Bridge, which is now home to several start-up companies, research enterprises and academic programs. UH also opened its 40,000-seat TDECU Stadium, home of the Cougar football team, and increased student residence hall capacity to 8,000. In addition, UH has completed an $80 million expansion and renovation of its Student Center.

In 2015, UH was awarded a Phi Beta Kappa chapter, only 10% of U.S. institutions are members of the prestigious national honor society. In 2011, UH earned Tier One status, with the Carnegie Foundation elevating it to the top category of research universities. Princeton Review has recognized UH for excellence in undergraduate education and named it a "Best Value" university, and the Chronicle for Higher Education has cited UH as an exceptional workplace. UH consistently places among the foremost universities included in the Top American Research Universities (TARU) rankings.

Khator was born in Uttar Pradesh, India, earning a bachelor's degree at the University of Kanpur. She received her master's degree in political science and Ph.D. in political science and public administration from Purdue University. A noted scholar in the field of global environmental policy, she has published numerous books and articles on the subject. Prior to her appointment, she was provost and senior vice president at the University of South Florida, capping a 22-year career at that institution.

She was a member of the Indian Prime Minister's Empowered Expert Committee, charged with selecting India's 20 world-class "Institutes of Eminence," the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's Academic Advisory Council and chair of the American Council on Education (ACE) and the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas. She is a current member of the Association of Governing Boards of Colleges and Universities Council of Presidents, the Council on Foreign Relations, the Texas Medical Center CEO Forum and on the Board of Directors for the Greater Houston Partnership.

She was elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2020. She has been inducted into the Texas Women's Hall of Fame, and has received the Council of Fellows/Fidelity Investments Mentor Award from the American Council on Education (ACE), the Excellence in Leadership Award from the U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, the President of the Year Award from ACIU, the Association of College Unions International, and the President's Award from NASPA, the national association of student affairs administrators. She is featured in the American Council on Education's video "The Joys of the Presidency."

Khator received the Pravasi Bharatiya Samman Award from the president of India, the highest recognition conferred on overseas Indians based on their "significant contributions" to their homeland.

Purdue University awarded her with the Doctor of Social Sciences degree, honoris causa, and Swansea University with the Doctor of Letters, honoris causa.

Khator's husband, Dr. Suresh Khator, is associate dean of the UH Cullen College of Engineering. They have two daughters, both of whom are ophthalmologists, and three grandchildren.

CHRIS PEZMAN

Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics

Chris Pezman, a former Houston Football letterman and former captain returned to his alma mater on Dec. 11, 2017, as the program's 11th athletics director.

His tenure as Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics has seen continued success in the classroom, in competition and in the community. Since his arrival, the Cougars have captured 26 American Athletic Conference titles across nine different sports including staking claim to 4+ titles in each of Pezman's first five academic calendar years on campus.

Backed by Pezman's leadership, in July 2023, Houston began its long-anticipated journey in the Big 12 Conference. On the field, the move comes at a time where the Cougars have reached new heights spotlighted by five consecutive NCAA Men's Basketball Sweet 16 appearances; Football's back-to-back bowl victories and 20 combined wins over two seasons; seven straight American titles in Swimming & Diving; Volleyball's 30-win campaign and magical run to the Sweet 16 and Track and Field's continued dominance on the conference and national stage.

Athletic facilities have also continued to flourish. The Cougars are currently in the midst of a $150 million "Houston Rise" capital campaign, focused on raising $150 million centered to help address essential capital priorities, including the construction of a state-of-the-art facility to house Cougar Football.

Houston opened the Fertitta Center on Dec. 1, 2018, which serves as one of the nation's top basketball facilities in college athletics. Since its opening, Cougar fans have packed the facility to the tune of 59 sellouts including 21 straight through the conclusion of the 2022-23 season. During 2022-23, the Cougars produced 18 home sellouts and operated at 106% capacity.

Other major upgrades or projects have included the Baseball Player Development Center, Volleyball Training Courts and Locker Room, Cougar Softball Stadium Reconstruction, Indoor Banked Track inside Yeoman Fieldhouse and the Dominic and Ellen Ng Academic Center for Excellence.

Academically, 500+ student-athletes have been named to the Dean's List (3.0 GPA or higher) since the start of the 2018-19 school year and 850+ have been recognized on the American Athletic Conference All-Academic Team. Since December 2017, nearly 400 Cougar student-athletes have earned their degrees.

During 2021-22 alone, seven sport programs registered 3.0 GPAs during the fall and another 11 reached the milestone during the spring. Despite COVID limitations, Houston student-athletes rose to the challenge during spring 2020 as all 17 sport programs earned at least a 3.0 GPA, marking a first in Department history.

The 1992 Houston Football team captain arrived in Houston after spending just under four years as Senior Associate Athletics Director for Facilities, Operations & Event Management, and Capital Projects/Chief Operating Officer at the University of California – Berkeley.

At Cal, Pezman quickly reorganized his departments to gain operational and financial efficiencies and implemented a comprehensive work order system to appropriately maintain $1 billion in physical assets under his purview.

Pezman also oversaw Capital Projects for the Intercollegiate Athletics Department which included the $10 Million Haas Pavilion scoreboard and audio improvements project, $5 Million Underhill field hockey facility, La Loma field hockey practice facility, Maxwell Field/Stadium parking garage and several substantial pending projects.

Prior to joining Cal, Pezman served as Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations at Houston for the 2012 and 2013 seasons, with his primary responsibilities including the organization and management of all business aspects for the football program.

Well known throughout the city of Houston from his decade tenure with NRG Park, Pezman lettered three seasons for the Cougars (90-92) and served as the team's captain during the 1992 campaign.

The Laguna Beach, Calif., native remained involved with his alma mater following his graduation and earned his masters degree from UH in 1995. He first served as a graduate assistant coach (1993-94) while earning his postgraduate degree and then served as an assistant to the director of athletics for two years. Pezman was elevated to Assistant Athletics Director for Operations, where he was involved with facility scheduling, facility oversight and summer camps before taking on his role with NRG Park and SMG Management.

The two-time Southwest Conference Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll member earned his undergraduate degree in economics and completed course work for his masters in hotel and restaurant management.

Pezman is married to the former Marisol Guillamondegui and the couple has three children: Seth, Sydney and Sarah.

THE UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

TIER ONE UNIVERSITY • RANKED ONE OF THE BEST COLLEGES IN U.S.

• Founded in 1927, the University of Houston is the largest public research university in the vibrant international city of Houston and the third largest university in Texas. Each year, we educate more than 46,000 students in close to 300 undergraduate and graduate academic programs, on campus and online. UH awards more than 10,500 degrees annually, with more than 200,000 alumni.

• UH is located in Houston, Texas, the nation's fourth-largest city and the energy capital of the world. Our students regularly test their skills through internships with national and international companies based here, and our faculty routinely partner with businesses and government agencies through research.

• Our undergraduates choose from 120 degree programs. At the graduate level, we offer 110 master's, 47 doctoral, and three professional degree programs. You may study online through our Distance Education program, or take noncredit courses through Continuing Education. Many of our academic programs rank among the nation's best.

• Our faculty and students conduct research through over 25 centers and institutes across the University. UH research regularly breaks new ground and opens doors to new ways of understanding the world.

• University of Houston faculty are renowned scholars with real-world experience who work closely with each student. From the Tony Award to the Nobel Peace Prize and back to the classroom, UH faculty makes things happen on campus and around the world.

• With more than 500 student organizations and 16 intercollegiate sports teams, life at UH is active and lively. About 8,000 students live on campus in residence halls, apartments and townhouses.

• UH alumni total 326,704, there are 6,277 employees, a $984 million endowment and a $1.37 billion budget.

• The University of Houston is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award baccalaureate, master's, professional and doctoral degrees.

• In addition, the University is a member of the Council of Graduate Schools in the United States, the Conference of Southern Graduate Schools, the American Council on Education, the Association of American State Colleges and Universities, the Association of American Colleges, the Association of Land-grant Universities and the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges. UH colleges, programs and professional associations also hold memberships and accreditations by additional agencies.

• When the Carnegie Foundation elevated the University of Houston to Tier One status in 2011, the designation made the university one of only three public Tier One research universities in the state of Texas, along with the University of Texas and Texas A&M.

HOUSTON - OUR CITY

FOURTH LARGEST CITY IN NATION • VOTED BEST CITY IN AMERICA

• The style-savvy residents of the country's fourth-largest city and third-largest county (Harris) know that there's no place quite like Houston.

• With more than 2.2 million residents, the city attracts visitors and transplants with a wonderful mix of world-class arts, booming business, pro and college sports and award-winning cuisine.

• As the rest of the country discovers what locals have known all along, Houston is finally enjoying the recognition it deserves. Just last year, the city landed on several "best of" lists, including the Travel + Leisure roundup of America's Favorite Cities and the Hotwire.com index of most affordable U.S. vacation destinations.

• See for yourself, here in Houston, where much of daily life happens outdoors, thanks to mild, year-round temperatures. Take time to explore the eclectic, culture-filled neighborhoods, gallery spaces and attractions, which offer diverse flavors that can only be found here.

• Take the food, for example. Countless cutting-edge chefs have made a home in Houston, where diners eat out more than residents of any other city. Here, you'll find James Beard Award winners and internationally renowned chefs serving up innovative cuisine that frequently catches the attention of foodies in Bon Appetit, Food & Wine and Saveur.

• Venture Downtown during your stay and discover a thriving professional arts scene with professional resident companies in ballet, opera, symphony and theater; only four other U.S. cities can say the same. And the nearby Museum District stakes its claim as the country's fourth largest, with 18 cultural powerhouses set within blocks of one another.

• We have our own version of Central Park, too, offering nearly 1,500 acres of green space in the heart of the city. Just inside "the loop," Memorial Park is home to a public golf course, swimming pool, tennis courts, trails and more. Downtown, Discovery Green park is outfitted with WiFi, a farmers market, dog runs, fine dining and ice-skating during the winter—just one more of the 650-plus urban green spaces filling the city.

• Not surprisingly, businesses also recognize the allure of Houston's offerings. Twenty-five companies on the Fortune 500 list call the Energy Capital of the World home. Aeronautic research is unsurpassed at NASA headquarters—the facility responsible for putting the first man on the moon—and Texas Medical Center remains the largest in the world with 47 highly lauded research and treatment institutions.

• Come. Live like a local for a few days and discover why Houston's mix of international appeal and Southern charm have captured the imagination of tastemakers the world over.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

The Big 12 Conference is comprised of 14 institutions after welcoming BYU, UCF, Cincinnati and Houston on July 1, 2023, joining Baylor, Iowa State, Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, TCU, Texas, Texas Tech and West Virginia.

The league is an NCAA Division I intercollegiate athletics conference that encompasses eight states, three time zones and a combined population of over 79.3 million. Entering its 28th year, the Conference has produced over 800 Academic All-America selections and claimed national championship team titles in 20 of its 23 sponsored sports.

Its student-athletes and teams have combined for 742 individual NCAA titles and 81 team national championships under the Big 12 banner.

The Big 12 enters its 28th year as one of the nation's premier athletic conferences under the direction of Commissioner Brett Yormark. In his brief time at the helm, Yormark has elevated the Conference to new heights, placing an emphasis on marketing, brand building and storytelling that has resonated across the college athletics landscape.

In the first year of his tenure, Yormark executed a media rights deal with ESPN and Fox that will run through 2030-31 while leading a revamp of the Big 12 Football and Basketball Championships that resulted in revenue and digital engagement highs. He has taken an innovative approach to ensure the Conference resides in places it has never been before including creating the first Big 12 Business Advisory Board. Other highlights are executing a partnership with the National Football League to operate a conference-wide Pro Day, teaming up with New York City Parks Department for a summer activation at historic Rucker Park, and bringing celebrity talent such as Fat Joe, Ashanti, Shaq and DJ Khaled into the Big 12 marketing fold. "Big 12 Homecoming" will debut during the 2023 football season at the four new members' campuses with additional conference members featured in future seasons.

The 2022-23 academic year saw the Conference reach new frontiers with TCU becoming the first league school to reach the College Football Playoff National Championship game. Texas captured the NCAA Women's Volleyball title as well as the Women's Outdoor Track & Field national championship. Oklahoma earned its second straight NCAA Women's Gymnastics trophy and was crowned Women's College World Series champions for the third consecutive season. NCAA Championship runner-up finishes were notched by Oklahoma State Men's Cross Country, Texas Women's Swimming & Diving and UT Women's Indoor Track & Field. NCAA individual titles were collected by 23 student-athletes. The Big 12 tied its own record as the only league to place 70 percent of men's basketball teams in the NCAA Championship and 80 percent of football squads in bowl games in the same academic year, also accomplishing the feat in 2017-18.

For more information, visit Big12Sports.com and follow the Conference on Facebook (Facebook.com/Big12), Twitter (@Big12Conference), Instagram (Instagram.com/big12conference/) and YouTube (YouTube.com/Big12Conference).

DANA HOLGORSEN

Head Coach
Iowa Wesleyan, 1993
Fifth Season as Head Coach

• Dana Holgorsen was named head coach at Houston on Jan. 1, 2019, after eight seasons as head coach at West Virginia.

• Throughout his career, Holgorsen has tutored 23 All-Americans, 11 national award winners and 14 national award finalists. In four NFL Drafts since taking the helm at Houston, 11 Cougar players have been selected including five in the top three rounds.

• With Holgorsen at the helm, Houston has won 20 games over its last two seasons (2021-22) marking the program's third highest total in a two-year span. The run has featured back-to-back bowl victories (2021 Birmingham Bowl; 2022 Independence Bowl) for the first time since 2014-15. With a win in the Independence Bowl on Dec. 23, 2022, Holgorsen became the first Houston Head Coach since Bill Yeoman to register multiple bowl victories.

• Houston, which joins the Big 12 Conference in 2023, went 13-3 over its final 16 American Athletic Conference contests (2021-22). The Cougars won a national-best 10 road contests between 2021-22 including six consecutive matchups from Oct. 1, 2021-Oct. 22, 2022, which ranked as the nation's second longest streak in that timeframe.

• Since Holgorsen's arrival in 2019, Houston is the only program nationally to boast a punt return touchdown and kickoff return touchdown in four consecutive seasons (2019-22).

• Holgorsen guided Houston to an 8-5 record and Independence Bowl victory in 2022. The Cougars won six of their final eight games while ranking eighth nationally in passing offense (314.0), 10th in punt returns (15.0 per return), 11th in team tackles for loss (7.2 per game), 12th in passing efficiency (158.38) and 16th in scoring offense (36.1).

• As part of his commitment to the future of Houston Football, Holgorsen pledged $1 million towards University of Houston's "Houston Rise" campaign towards the development of the program's state-of-the-art Football Operations Center (FOC).

• Under his leadership in 2021, the Cougars won 12-plus games for just the third time in program history. Houston won 11 consecutive games, its longest stretch since 2011, en route to an appearance in The American Football Championship.

• In the 2021 Birmingham Bowl, Houston knocked off Auburn to clinch the program's first bowl victory since 2015.

• Houston was one of six teams nationally to rank in the top 20 in both points per game (35.9) and opponent points per game (20.4).

• For the second time in his coaching career, Holgorsen tutored a Paul Hornung Award winner as consensus All-American Marcus Jones captured the award in 2021.

• Holgorsen closed his tenure at West Virginia as the second-winningest coach in Mountaineer history with an eight-year record of 61-41. His 61 wins trailed only College Football Hall of Famer Don Nehlen for most wins in West Virginia history.

• He led the Mountaineers to bowl games in seven of his eight seasons including each of the last five seasons. His first season at West Virginia ended with a 70-33 rout of Clemson in the Orange Bowl.

• He has displayed his ability to prepare players for the next level as West Virginia had 10 NFL draft picks in first three rounds in his final seven years, the second most in Big 12, including at least one Top-15 draft pick in four of his final seven years. In all, he had four NFL Top-15 draft picks during a seven-year stretch, the most in the Big 12, and 20 players drafted in seven years at WVU, tied for second-most in the Big 12 during that span.

• An offensive genius, his passing offenses and total offensive output have ranked in the Top 10 nationally all but four years during the 14-year span since he became offensive coordinator at Texas Tech in 2005.

• He's had eight quarterbacks pass for 4,000 or more yards and 10 throw for 30 or more touchdowns in a season with 20 receivers finishing with 1,000 or more yards in a season, including 11 finish with 90 or more receptions and 16 finish with double figure TD receptions in a season.

• He is the only coach in West Virginia history to have coached a team with at least 450 rushing yards in a game (Oklahoma, 2012) and at least 450 yards passing in a game (six times).

• He had 10 wins over Top 25 opponents in his eight-year tenure at WVU.

• West Virginia was ranked in both major polls at least one week in seven of his eight years including the entire 2018 season with several weeks inside the top 10.

• In 2018, Holgorsen led a West Virginia team that was ranked every week during the season and finished the regular season with a No. 15/16 ranking in both major polls.

• Under his leadership, quarterback Will Grier finished No. 4 in the Heisman Trophy race and was a finalist for the Maxwell Award, The Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, the Senior CLASS Award and the Manning Award. Grier was ranked in the top 10 nationally in 11 offensive categories and seven categories in the top five.

• In addition to Grier, three players earned All-America honors in David Long Jr., David Sills V and Yodny Cajuste while Dante Stills was named a Freshman All-American.

• Long was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and was a semifinalist for the Butkus Award while Cajuste was named Big 12 Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year.

• West Virginia had a school-record eight players named to the All-Big 12 teams, including five on the first team with 16 players named to the Academic All-Big 12 first and second teams.

• The 2018 offense ranked No. 3 in passing offense, No. 4 in passing efficiency, No. 8 in total offense and fourth-down conversion, No. 9 in scoring offense, No. 12 in completion percentage and passing yards per completion and No. 25 in third-down conversion. The defense ranked No. 11 in tackles for loss, No. 28 in turnover margin, No. 28 in passes intercepted and No. 36 in third-down conversion defense.

• Outside of football, Holgorsen served as the chair of the WVU Medicine Children's capital campaign, raising $60 million to build a new home for pediatric and maternal services.

• In 2017, he led the Mountaineers to a 7-6 record and 5-4 in the Big 12 Conference. WVU participated in its fourth-straight bowl game and sixth in the seven years under Holgorsen's direction as it took on Utah in the Heart of Dallas Bowl.

• In 2016, the AFCA District 4 Regional Coach of the Year and Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year finalist led the Mountaineers to a 10-3 overall mark and 7-2 record in the Big 12.

• His 2016 team achieved the ninth 10-win season in school history, becoming one of six WVU teams to do it in the regular season. Holgorsen is one of three WVU coaches, along with Nehlen and Rich Rodriguez, to post multiple 10-win seasons. The seven Big 12 wins were the most in a season, tying for second place in the standings, WVU's highest finish. In the national rankings, WVU's offense was ranked No. 17 in total offense, No. 20 in first down offense, No. 25 in rushing offense, No. 31 in pass efficiency, No. 37 in passing yards per completion and No. 42 in pass offense. Defensively, WVU was No. 24 in turnovers gained and fumbles recovered, No. 35 in passes intercepted and scoring defense and No. 38 in turnover margin. WVU placed 10 players on the Big 12 All-Academic teams and 16 of his 21 seniors had their degrees when they played in the Russell Athletic Bowl.

• In 2015, Holgorsen guided the Mountaineers to eight wins, the most since becoming a member of the Big 12 Conference, and finished the season with an exciting, 43-42 Cactus Bowl victory over Arizona State. The Cactus Bowl appearance saw the Mountaineers tie or break 19 individual or team, school and Cactus Bowl records and produced 11 NCAA top 10 bowl rankings. Nine players earned All-Big 12 Conference honors, including two being named to All-America teams. There were seven All-Big 12 Academic team selections and 17 players already had their degrees in hand when they played in the bowl game, ranking among the top 10 nationally in number of graduates playing in a bowl game.

• Holgorsen led the Mountaineers to a Liberty Bowl berth in 2014, his third bowl in four seasons at WVU. West Virginia posted a 7-6 overall record and 5-4 in its third year in the Big 12 Conference and finished in a tie for fourth place in Big 12 action.

• In 2013, Holgorsen coached the Mountaineers to victory over No. 11 Oklahoma State, marking his fifth win over a Top 25 team at WVU. He also had six players earn All-Big 12 Conference honors, including the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year.

• In 2012, Holgorsen led WVU into its first year of competition in the Big 12 Conference, guiding West Virginia to a 7-6 overall record and an appearance in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Five Mountaineers earned 25 All-America honors and three were drafted in the top three rounds of the NFL draft. Holgorsen is the only WVU coach to have had a first-round NFL draft choice for two consecutive years (2011 and 2012).

• Holgorsen had a successful first season at WVU in 2011, coaching the Mountaineers to a 10-3 record, the Big East championship and a 70-33 Orange Bowl rout of Clemson. The victory was WVU's third Bowl Championship Series championship in school history and earned Holgorsen the First-Year Coach of the Year award by the Football Writers Association of America.

• Before West Virginia, Holgorsen spent the 2010 season as offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State. He was a finalist for the 2010 Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant, and also named the rivals.com Offensive Coordinator of the Year. The Cowboys led the nation in total offense during the regular season and finished No. 2 in passing offense and No. 3 in total and scoring offense. OSU averaged 520.23 yards per game in total offense, including 345.9 passing yards and 44.23 points per game. Oklahoma State's offense ranked No. 61 nationally in total offense in 2009, the year before Holgorsen arrived, and he took it to the No. 1 spot during the 2010 season. He helped lead the Cowboys to a school-record 10 wins during the regular season and a win in the Valero Alamo Bowl, after preseason predictions had OSU near the bottom of the Big 12 Conference.

• Postseason accolades rolled in for Holgorsen's offensive players as quarterback Brandon Weeden became the first OSU passer to earn first team all-Big 12 honors. He was a finalist for the Manning Award, given to the top quarterback in the nation. Receiver Justin Blackmon won the 2010 Biletnikoff Award, given to the top receiver in the nation, and running back Kendall Hunter was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award, given to the nation's top running back. Weeden, Hunter and Blackmon became only the second trio in NCAA history to pass for at least 3,000 yards, run for more than 1,500 yards and finish with more than 1,500 yards receiving in the same season.

• During his two-year tenure with Houston, his offenses put up explosive numbers, accounting for 563 yards of total offense per game, passing for 433.7 yards per game and totaling more than 42.2 points per game. His offense ranked No. 3 in total offense in 2008 and No. 1 in 2009. His quarterback, Case Keenum, led the nation in total offense in 2008 and 2009, totaling 403.2 yards per game as a sophomore and 416.4 yards his junior season. He also ranked among the Top 10 nationally in pass efficiency both years.

• In his two years as offensive coordinator, his squad was nationally ranked No. 8 in 2006 and No. 3 in 2007. In 2007, Texas Tech led the nation in passing (470.31), was No. 2 in total offense (529.62) and was No. 7 in scoring offense (40.9). Quarterback Graham Harrell led the nation in total offense and Biletnikoff Award winner Michael Crabtree led the nation in receptions per game and receiving yards per game. In 2006, the Red Raiders ranked No. 3 nationally in passing offense and No. 6 in total offense. Harrell once again was outstanding, finishing No. 3 nationally in total offense with 344.38 yards per game. Texas Tech led the nation in passing in 2005, was No. 4 in scoring offense (39.4) and No. 6 in total offense (495.83). Quarterback Cody Hodges was No. 2 in the nation with 396.08 yards per game.

• Holgorsen also spent time at Valdosta State (1993-95) as the quarterbacks, receivers and special teams coach, Mississippi College (1996-98) as the quarterbacks, receivers and special teams coach and at Wingate (1999) as the quarterbacks and receivers coach. While at Valdosta State in 1994, Chris Hatcher won the Harlon Hill Trophy, the NCAA Division II Player of the Year award, by the second largest vote margin in the 17-year history of the award. Hatcher won the award after throwing for 4,076 yards and 55 touchdowns, against just 10 interceptions, while completing 367 of 508 passes. Hatcher led Division II in passing efficiency during the regular season and directed VSU to its first Division II post-season appearance.

DOUG BELK

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | FIFTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• The 2023 season will be the fifth for Doug Belk at Houston after being promoted to defensive coordinator on Jan. 19, 2021, and associate head coach in January 2020.

• In four seasons as a defensive or co-defensive coordinator at Houston, Belk has mentored 13 All-American Athletic Conference honorees including five first-team selections with four coming over the final two seasons.

• Five players from Belk's "Third Ward" defenses have been selected in the NFL Draft over the last two years including defensive lineman Payton Turner who was taken in the first round (28th overall pick – 2021) by the New Orleans Saints and defensive end Logan Hall who was chosen in the second round by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

• Six Cougars mentored by Belk have appeared on NFL rosters and five have appeared in a game over the past two seasons including Hall (Buccaneers), Marcus Jones (Patriots), Damarion Williams (Ravens), David Anenih (Titans/Steelers), Turner (Saints) and Grant Stuard (Buccaneers/Colts).

• In 2022, Houston's defense ranked 11th nationally with 7.2 tackles per game. Defensive lineman D'Anthony Jones led the nation in forced fumbles and Jayce Rogers finished second in the conference in interceptions. The Cougars blanked Louisiana in the second half of the Independence Bowl on Dec. 23 to earn the program's second straight bowl win.

• Four Houston defenders earned all-conference honors during 2022 including D'Anthony Jones as a first-team honoree. Senior defensive backs Art Green and Gervarrius Owens earned second-team recognition and fellow senior defensive back earned return specialist honors.

• In 2021, during his first season as defensive coordinator, Belk oversaw a unit that ranked 19th in points allowed per game (20.4) and sixth in total yards allowed (302.2).

• Belk led one of the best pass defenses in the nation, allowing only 194 yards per game through the air, ranking 18th in the nation. Houston's 55.2 completion % allowed ranked eighth nationally.

• Belk's defensive line was dubbed "Sack Ave" as the Cougars racked up 45.0 sacks, good for fifth nationally. For his efforts, Belk was recognized as a semifinalist for the Broyles Award.

• Belk joined Houston as the Co-Defensive Coordinator and Safeties coach at Houston on Jan. 11, 2019 after two seasons as cornerbacks coach at West Virginia.

• The 2018 season saw Belk's cornerbacks play a pivotal role in West Virginia ranking second in the Big 12 and No. 20 nationally with 15 interceptions. Cornerback Keith Washington Jr. tied for fifth in the Big 12 with three interceptions on the year.

• In Big 12 play, WVU hauled in 12 interceptions, ranking No. 1 in the conference

• The 2017 defense ranked No. 16 nationally in most defensive three-and-outs per game and No. 24 in best third-down defense.

• Prior to his time at West Virginia, Belk served as the defensive graduate assistant coach at Alabama for two years, working with the defensive backs. He worked directly with Head Coach Nick Saban and defensive coordinators Kirby Smart and Jeremy Pruitt, assisting with all aspects of the defensive secondary as well as with special teams.

• During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide was 40-4, earning three College Football Playoff appearances, winning the 2015 National Championship, finishing as national runner-up in 2016 and winning three Southeastern Conference titles (2014-16).

• The 2016 defense was No. 1 nationally in scoring defense and No. 2 in total defense. The unit also was No. 9 nationally and No. 2 in the SEC in pass efficiency defense, No. 14 in interceptions and No. 24 in passing yards allowed. Belk helped develop cornerback Minkah Fitzpatrick, who earned consensus All-American honors, cornerback Marlon Humphrey, who earned All-America First-Team honors and safety Eddie Jackson, who was an All-SEC First-Team member.

• The 2015 defense was No. 3 nationally in scoring defense and total defense, No. 10 in interceptions and No. 30 in passing yards allowed. Jackson earned All-America honors, while Fitzpatrick and Humphrey were named to freshman All-American teams. Cornerback Cyrus Jones was drafted in the second round by the New York Giants.

• The 2014 defense was No. 6 nationally in scoring defense and No. 12 nationally in total defense. Belk helped develop Landon Collins, who finished his senior season as a unanimous All-American selection and was drafted by the New York Giants in the second round.

• Prior to Alabama, Belk was the defensive secondary coach at Valdosta State in 2012-13. He was a defensive assistant and worked with special teams in 2011. During his tenure, Valdosta State produced a 24-10 record and won the NCAA Division II National Championship in 2012. Belk helped develop two All-Americans, two Academic All-Americans and three All-Gulf South Conference selections. Cornerbacks Dominique Wheeler and Matt Pierce signed free agent contracts in the NFL with Jacksonville Jaguars and Tennessee Titans, respectively.

MIKE JINKS

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/RUNNING BACKS/ LIAISON TO THE THSCA | SECOND SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Coaching veteran Mike Jinks joined the Houston Football staff as the program's new running backs coach on Feb. 3, 2022. The 2023 season will be his second with the program.

• In 2022, three different Houston running backs recorded 100-yard rushing performances including Stacy Sneed who accomplished the feat twice in the Cougars' final six regular season games. On Nov. 12 against Temple, Sneed gained 143 yards, the most for a Houston player since 2017 (177, Duke Catalon vs. SMU).

• Sneed, Ta'Zhawn Henry and Brandon Campbell each rushed for 300+ yards on the season. Sneed's 6.5 rushing yards per attempt ranked 21st nationally among running backs. Campbell ranked sixth nationally in run block (73.8) and Sneed checked in at 10th (71.2) per PFF. Sneed's 3.48 average yards after contact led all freshman running backs in Texas (min. 70 attempts) and all American Athletic Conference freshman backs. His 83.3 PFF run grade ranked third among Texas freshman backs.

• Henry played an integral role in helping Houston capture a seventh straight Bayou Bucket with a win against Rice. Against the Cougars' cross-town rival, Henry ran for 112 yards while recording his 20th career rushing touchdown.

• Jinks, who owns 25-plus years of coaching experience including 20 in the state of Texas, came to Houston after spending the previous three seasons as USC's running backs coach. In 2019, USC's running backs combined rushed for nearly 1,600 yards with 16 touchdowns.

• Jinks previously served as head coach at Bowling Green, doing so from 2016-18. In his first two seasons, he produced 13 players who were named to various All-Mid-American Conference teams and 23 who made various Academic All-MAC teams (including an Academic All-American first teamer).

• He spent three seasons (2013-15) as running backs coach at Texas Tech, adding the associate head coach title in 2015. In 2014, running back DeAndre Washington became the first Red Raider to rush for 1,000 yards since 1998 (1,103).

• In 2015, Texas Tech was second in the country in total offense (579.5) and scoring offense (a school-record 45.1) while running for 191.3 yards per outing with 34 rushing touchdowns.

• Prior to Texas Tech, Jinks was the head coach at Steele High in Cibolo (Texas) for seven years (2006-12). He went 76-18 at Cibolo, including being a National Coach of the Year finalist while winning the 2010 Class 5A Division II State Championship. Steele was 43-4 in his final 3 seasons. The Knights advanced to the state finals again in 2011 and to the semifinals in 2012. He coached the West Team in the U.S. Army All-American Bowl in January 2013.

• He was the head coach at Burbank High in San Antonio in 2005.

• Before that, Jinks was an assistant coach at five different high schools. He began his coaching career as the quarterbacks coach at Ellison High in Killeen (Texas) in 1996 and 1997. In 1998, he became the quarterbacks coach at his alma mater, Judson High, in Converse (Texas). Following that, he served as offensive coordinator at Crockett High in Austin (Texas) in 1999, Galena Park (Texas) High for two seasons (2000-01) and Robert E. Lee High in San Antonio (Texas) for three years (2002-04).

• Jinks played quarterback at Judson High and then at Angelo State (1990-93), where he started for two seasons. He earned his bachelor's degree in Kinesiology from Angelo State in 1994.

Coaching Accomplishments

• University of Houston Head Football Coach Dana Holgorsen announced on Feb. 17, 2020, the addition of Corby Meekins as the Cougars' tight ends/inside receiver coach. The 2023 season will be his fourth with the Cougars. Prior to the 2022 season, Meekins was promoted to Assistant Head Coach and Liaison to the GHFCA.

• Under Meekins' guidance, senior tight end Christian Trahan was once again a key part of the Cougars' offense during 2022, contributing 23 receptions for 237 yards and three scores. Trahan was graded as The American's fourth-highest run-blocking tight end (75.4) according to PFF. His 79.3 reception % ranked third in the league (min. 25 targets).

• In his second season as Cougars' tight ends coach during 2021, Meekins helped Trahan to a career year. Trahan logged career highs in both receptions (37) and receiving yards (398).

• Meekins spent the 2015 and 2016 seasons at Houston as tight ends/fullbacks coach and most recently was an assistant at Texas for the last three seasons (2017-19). He will be responsible for Houston's tight ends and the Y-receiver position.

• A long-time high school coach in the state of Texas, Meekins coached Ed Oliver at Westfield High School, securing the commitment of Houston's first-ever five-star recruit. As an assistant with the Cougars, Meekins tutored Tyler McCloskey and Hayden Daniels into versatile tight ends, while helping Houston to the 2015 American Athletic Conference Championship and a victory in the 2015 Peach Bowl.

• Meekins spent three seasons (2017-19) at Texas, helping the Longhorns to the 2018 Big 12 Championship Game and three bowl appearances. He served as the wide receivers coach for his final two seasons, while coaching tight ends in 2017.

• 2018 was a standout season for Texas wide receivers. Lil'Jordan Humphrey had 86 catches for 1,176 yards and nine touchdowns, Collin Johnson had 68 catches for 985 yards and seven TDs, while Devin Duvernay had 41 receptions for 546 yards and four touchdowns. Humphrey and Johnson became one of the most prolific pass-catching duos in Texas history, as their 2,161 combined yards ranked second for a single season.

• In his first season on the collegiate level, Meekins molded former fullback Tyler McCloskey and former receiver Hayden Daniels into solid blocking and receiving threats. After totaling two receptions for 16 yards in his first two seasons at UH, McCloskey had 14 receptions for 157 yards and one touchdown while Daniels pulled in four receptions for 59 yards.

• Meekins joined Houston after 15 years at Westfield High School in Houston, including 11 years as head coach where he accumulated a record of 114-27.

• Meekins turned the Westfield program into a perennial contender, winning seven district championships and advancing to the playoffs 10 times, including one state championship trip, three trips to the semifinals and six quarterfinals trips.

• The 2014 season saw Meekins' Westfield program finish the year 13-2 with a trip to the Class 6A Division II semifinals. He was named the Touchdown Club of Houston's Co-Coach of the Year and an assistant coach for the White Team at the 2015 Under Armour All-America Game.

• Meekins was a finalist for the 2005 Adams U.S.A. "National Coach of the Year" award after leading Westfield to the Class 5A Division I state championship game in 2004 and being named the Touchdown Club of Houston Coach of the Year.

• Meekins served on the Executive Board of Directors for the Greater Houston Football Coaches Association from 2009-15 after serving as the Association's president in 2009. Prior to his presidency, Meekins was a member of the group's Board of Directors from 2006-08.

• Meekins also served on the Texas High School Coaches Association Board of Directors from 2009-12.

EMAN NAGHAVI

RUNNING GAME COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE | FIRST SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Houston-area native and 12-year college football coaching veteran Eman Naghavi joined University of Houston Football as its Co-Offensive Coordinator/Run Game Coordinator on Jan. 28, 2023. The 2023 season will be his first at Houston.

• Naghavi (pronounced ee-MAHN nuh-GAH-vee) played an integral role in Tulane's 12-2 season during 2022 that included an American Athletic Conference championship and Cotton Bowl victory over No. 10 USC. The Green Wave's offensive ranked fifth nationally in fewest offensive penalties, No. 12 in rushing touchdowns and No. 19 in scoring offense.

• In the Cotton Bowl, the Green Wave rushed for 305 yards on 34 rushes for four touchdowns alongside an average of 9.0 yards per carry. Three Tulane offensive linemen earned all-conference recognition including two first-team honorees.

• The Katy, Texas, native is a former team captain and 2003 state champion at Katy High School. He went on to become an All-American offensive lineman at McNeese State and has worked under coaches Mack Brown, Charlie Strong, Shawn Elliot, Matt Viator and most recently, Willie Fritz.

• Naghavi spent the 2021 season at Georgia State, helping the Panthers to their most successful season in school history, highlighted by a program-best eight victories and first-ever win over a Top 25 opponent while developing two All-Sun Belt Conference offensive linemen. Georgia State finished 6-2 in conference play and capped its season with a Camellia Bowl victory.

• During a three-year period at ULM, the Warhawks finished in the top three in the Sun Belt for yards per play in three consecutive seasons. In 2017, ULM ranked No. 25 nationally in scoring offense.

• Naghavi spent two seasons as offensive line coach at his alma mater, McNeese State. In 2015, he tutored three all-conference linemen, including one All-American, while 2016, he also served as recruiting coordinator.

• The stint was the second at McNeese after coaching the Cowboys' offensive tackles and tight ends in 2011-12. In both of those seasons, McNeese ranked second in the Southland Conference in rushing offense, and he helped mentor four all-conference linemen.

• He spent two seasons as an offensive line assistant at Texas under Brown (2013) and Strong (2014). During his tenure with the Longhorns, Naghavi helped develop All-Big 12 Conference linemen Trey Hopkins (first team) and Donald Hawkins (second team) in 2013 while also working with the tight ends.

• Naghavi was a three-time all-conference offensive lineman at McNeese from 2005-08, where he helped lead the Cowboys to an undefeated regular season and Southland Conference title in 2007. He named a 2008 FCS All-American by the Associated Press and the Sports Network. In addition, he earned all-Louisiana honors in 2008 and was a two-time SLC All-Academic selection (2007-08).

• During his four years on the offensive line, McNeese led the league in rushing offense twice (2007-08), total offense twice (2007-08) and scoring offense three times (2006-08).

• Naghavi earned his bachelor's in business administration in 2008 and master's in exercise physiology in 2012, both from McNeese State. He and his wife, Julie, have three daughters: Ryan, Austin and Mason.

MIKE BURCHETT

QUARTERBACKS | FIRST SEASON (FIFTH OVERALL AT HOUSTON)

Coaching Accomplishments

• Mike Burchett was promoted to Quarterbacks Coach on Feb. 27, 2023, after spending the previous four seasons as Houston's Offensive Analyst under Head Coach Dana Holgorsen. He joined the Cougars on Jan. 11, 2019, following one season as Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks Coach at Fordham.

• In his four seasons as Offensive Analyst, Houston racked up nearly 20,000 yards of total offense. The Cougars' 106 passing touchdowns in that timeframe ranked 24th nationally. Over the past three seasons (2020-22), the Cougars appeared in three bowl games including registering back-to-back bowl wins for the first time since 2014-15. Since 2020, led by First-Team All-Conference quarterback Clayton Tune, the Cougars combined for 87 touchdown passes (13th nationally) alongside a 65.3 completion percentage (19th nationally) and 10,008 passing yards (21st nationally).

• In 2022, the Cougars ranked eighth nationally in passing offense (314.0). Houston wide receiver Nathaniel Dell led the nation in receiving touchdowns (17) and receiving yards (1,398) while Matthew Golden set a Houston true freshman record with seven receiving touchdowns.

• Burchett had an immediate impact in his first year on Rose Hill as the Fordham passing game ranked first in the Patriot League while freshman quarterback Tim DeMorat set a school freshman record with eleven touchdown passes, completing 148 passes for 1,633 yards, both second best all-time among Fordham freshmen.

• Burchett arrived at Fordham after spending three years at West Virginia University, the last year as the Offensive Analyst where he was responsible for advanced scouting, preliminary game planning and offensive self-scout. He also assisted in developing weekly game plans, specifically the pass game plan and scripted the defensive scout team based on the offensive game plan.

• In his first two years in Morgantown, Burchett served as an Offensive Graduate Assistant where he was responsible for coaching the quarterbacks under the supervision of head coach Dana Holgorsen. He also conducted all position meetings and daily drills with the Mountaineer quarterbacks and assisted in developing weekly pass game plans. Burchett's in-game duties included assisting with play calling and communicating with the head coach and quarterbacks.

• Prior to his stint at West Virginia, Burchett was an Offensive Graduate Assistant at his alma mater, the University of Kentucky, in 2014 where he assisted the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in providing detailed breakdowns of opponent's coverage tendencies, first down tendencies and opening drive tendencies. He also compiled opponent scouting reports, composed daily quarterback cut-ups for position meetings and coached the scout team, defensive secondary and linebackers.

• A 2014 graduate of Kentucky with a degree in mathematical economics, Burchett was a preferred walk-on for the Wildcats in 2010 and 2011, being a part of the 2011 team that appeared in the BBVA Compass Bowl. He transferred to West Virginia in 2011 where he served as the backup to Geno Smith for two years as the Mountaineers won the 2011 Big East Championship and the 2012 Orange Bowl.

• Burchett returned to Kentucky in 2013 where he served as a student assistant while finishing his undergraduate degree. He also earned a master's degree in corporate and organizational communication from West Virginia in 2016.

BRIAN EARLY

DEFENSIVE LINE | FIFTH SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Brian Early was named defensive line coach at Houston on Jan. 18, 2019, after five seasons in the same position at Arkansas State. The 2023 season will be his fifth at Houston.

• Early has mentored five all-conference selections in four seasons with the Cougars including 2022 First-Team All-Conference honoree D'Anthony Jones who led the nation with eight combined forced fumbles from 2021-22 and paced The American with 14.0 sacks since the start of the 2021 season. In 2022, Jones boasted the nation's top pass rush grade among edge defenders (93.1) and second-best overall grade among the group (91.4) according to PFF.

• Over the past two seasons (2021-22), the Cougars have produced 192 tackles for loss which ranks 11th nationally and first in the state of Texas. Houston's 74 sacks in that timeframe ranks 14th nationally and first in Texas.

• Houston is the only program in the country to rank inside PFF's Top 5 for pash rush grade in each of the last three seasons. During 2022, Houston boasted the nation's top mark (92.6). The Cougars were second in the country (91.7) in 2021 and tied for fourth (90.3) in 2020.

• During 2022, the Cougars led the nation with two edge rushers ranked inside the Top 10 for pass rush with Jones topping the country (93.1) and Atlias Bell finishing tied for 10th (90.7). Teammate Jamaree Caldwell ranked 23rd among interior defenders with an 83.2 grade by PFF.

• Houston finished the 2022 season ranked 11th nationally with 7.2 tackles for loss per game while doing so for a majority of the season without Derek Parish (torn bicep) who became the only Houston player since 2000 to record at least 8.5 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks through the school's first four games.

• In his third season as defensive line coach, Early oversaw one of the most feared units in the nation. The 2021 unit earned the name "Sack Ave" for its ability to get after the opposing quarterback. The Cougars recorded 45 sacks, ranking fifth nationally.

• Early has tutored two top-two round NFL Draft picks with defensive end Logan Hall being selected with the first pick of the second round in 2022 and defensive lineman Payton Turner being selected with the 28th overall pick in the first round in 2021.

• Early also helped the Cougars be stout against the run. UH ranked 10th among all FBS teams in rush yards allowed per game (107.1) and yards allowed per rush (3.38).

• Early had two players named to the American Athletic Conference First team with Logan Hall and David Anenih earning the honors. Derek Parish also earned second-team honors under Early.

• All five seasons at A-State saw the Red Wolves rank among the top 41 teams in the nation in both sacks and tackles for loss, while he also tutored at least two all-conference selections on the defensive line each year. Arkansas State made five straight postseason appearances at the 2015 GoDaddy Bowl, 2015 New Orleans Bowl, 2016 Cure Bowl, 2017 Camellia Bowl and 2018 Arizona Bowl, and the Red Wolves won back-to-back Sun Belt Conference titles in 2015 and 2016 with a combined 15-1 record.

• Arkansas State had at least five tackles for loss in 39 of its last 42 games and has ranked in the top 25 nationally in each of the last three seasons in TFLs including 13th in 2018.

• The 2018 season saw Arkansas State as one of the toughest defenses in the air, finishing the season 11th nationally in passing defense, allowing only 177.8 passing yards per game.

• 2018 also saw defensive end Ronheen Bingham named the Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year after leading the league with 18.5 tackles for loss and nine sacks, numbers that ranked 15th and 26th, respectively. Bingham was one of four defensive linemen to earn postseason honors from the conference as defensive end William Bradley-King and defensive tackle Forrest Merrill each earned second-team honors while defensive tackle Kevin Thurmon earned honorable mention honors.

• He coached Ja'Von Rolland-Jones all four years of his career, tutoring the defensive end who was twice named the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and concluded his time at A-State as the NCAA's second all-time leader in career sacks (43.5) and ranked eighth in tackles for loss (64.5). Also Arkansas State's and the Sun Belt Conference's all-time leader in sacks, Rolland-Jones signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals following the 2017 season.

• In 2017, Early's defensive line helped A-State rank No. 6 in the nation in tackles for loss (8.3 per game) and No. 19 in sacks (2.92 average) as he was nominated for the Broyles Award. Those numbers came one year after the Red Wolves led the country in tackles for loss (9.6 per game) and ranked No. 6 in sacks (3.31 average) in 2016.

• Including Rolland-Jones as first-team selection, the Red Wolves had four defensive linemen named All-Sun Belt Conference in 2017. Also earning the recognition were Ronheen Bingham (2nd Team, DE), Caleb Caston (Third Team, DE) and Dee Liner (Honorable Mention, DL). In addition to Rolland-Jones signing an NFL free agent contract, Liner also signed with the Kansas City Chiefs.

• The 2016 defensive-line production led to A-State placing two defensive ends on the First Team All-Sun Belt Conference squad, including Rolland-Jones as he became just the second defensive player in league history to be named its Player of the Year. Fellow defensive end Chris Odom finished the year with 12.5 sacks and signed a free agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons.

• Rolland-Jones and Odom made up the only set of teammates in the nation during 2016 to both rank among top 10 players in the nation in total sacks, as well as the top 20 players in tackles for loss. Early also coached interior defensive lineman Waylon Roberson to an Honorable Mention All-Sun Belt Conference season.

• A-State's 2015 campaign saw three of his players earn all-league recognition as well. Rolland-Jones, who ended 2015 ranked second in the nation in sacks per game among active players, earned first-team recognition to lead the group. His defensive linemen helped A-State rank first in the nation in defensive touchdowns (8) and interceptions (26) and second in turnovers gained (34).

• His first season working with the A-State defensive line saw the Red Wolves rank No. 17 in the nation in team sacks (2.85 per game) and No. 36 in team tackles for loss (6.6 per game). Early's line was responsible for 22.5 of A-State's 37 sacks that were the most by an A-State team since 2002 and the second most over the last 29 years.

• He coached two All-Sun Belt Conference selections in 2014, including second team pick Rolland-Jones and honorable mention choice Stone. Despite playing in just 10 games before suffering a season-ending injury, Rolland-Jones, named a SCOUT second team Freshman All-American, tallied a team-high eight sacks that were the 11th most in school history for a single season, ranked as the fifth most in the Sun Belt Conference and were the 14th most in the nation.

• Early's position group were the driving force leading to a combined 146 sacks that are the program's most over any four-year span since moving to FBS status in 1992. The Red Wolves also posted at least 86 tackles for loss each of the last four seasons, achieving the feat for the first time in school history.

• With previous coaching stops at Central Arkansas, Arkansas-Monticello and three Arkansas high schools, Early brought deep ties to the state with him. Prior to A-State, he most recently served as the University of Arkansas Defensive Quality Control Coach in 2013. His journey to Arkansas State also included a stop on the coaching staff at Minnesota State-Mankato.

• Early spent the four years before his time at Arkansas as defensive coordinator at Fayetteville High School, where he helped the Bulldogs to three straight 7A state championship game appearances and back-to-back titles in 2011 and 2012.

• Early went to Fayetteville High School after coaching defensive line for four years and linebackers for one year while also serving as special teams co-coordinator at Central Arkansas.

• They twice led the conference in scoring defense, and Larry Hart was named the 2008 Southland Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

• During the 2002 and 2003 seasons, Early was the linebackers coach and co-special teams coordinator at Minnesota State-Mankato. He was the defensive coordinator and strength and conditioning coordinator at West Memphis High School in 2001, helping lead the Blue Devils to the state quarterfinals.

• In 1999 and 2000, he was the linebackers coach and strength and conditioning coordinator at the University of Arkansas at Monticello.

• Early began his coaching career in 1994 as defensive coordinator and strength and conditioning coordinator at Greenland High School. He helped lead the Pirates to back-to-back conference championships in 1997 & 1998. The '98 team was the first to complete an unblemished regular season and recorded the first playoff win in school history.

ARCHIE MCDANIEL

LINEBACKERS | THIRD SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• Houston Football head coach Dana Holgorsen announced on Feb. 2, 2021, the addition of Archie McDaniel as the program's linebackers coach. The 2023 season will be his third with the Cougars.

• Under McDaniel's guidance, senior linebacker Donavan Mutin led the Cougars with 85 tackles during the 2022 season. The Spring, Texas, native capped his career with 252 tackles. Mutin's 245 tackles since the start of the 2019 season rank seventh among all American Athletic Conference linebackers.

• Linebackers Mannie Nunnery and Jamal Morris also turned in strong sophomore campaigns during 2022. Nunnery's 74.2 overall defensive grade by PFF ranked second among American Athletic Conference underclassmen linebackers. He also paced the league's underclassmen with a 78.2 coverage grade. Morris was key for the Cougars down the stretch, totaling 10 tackles against SMU on Nov. 5 and eight tackles in Houston's Independence Bowl victory against Louisiana.

• In his first year as the program's linebackers coach, McDaniel helped the linebacker duo of Mutin and Deontay Anderson combine for 140 tackles.

• Under McDaniel's tutelage, Mutin's three forced fumbles ranked fourth in the American Athletic Conference. Mutin also earned Second Team American All-Conference Team honors.

• McDaniel joined the Cougars' coaching staff after spending two seasons at Texas State, coaching a pair of All-Sun Belt Conference linebackers during the 2019 season.

• He coached 2019 All-Sun Belt First-Team selection Bryan London II, who ranked second in the conference with 118 tackles in 2019. Under McDaniel's tutelage, linebacker Nik Daniels was also selected as an All-Sun Belt Third Team performer during 2019.

• Prior to Texas State, McDaniel spent the 2018 season at New Mexico as the Lobos' outside linebackers coach. McDaniel returned to New Mexico after serving three years as linebackers coach at SMU (2015-17). The Mustangs were one of college football's ten-most improved defenses in 2016, ranking seventh nationally in interceptions while forcing 26 turnovers.

• McDaniel also spent three seasons at New Mexico (2012-14), working as the defensive line coach (2012-13) before moving to linebackers (2014). He served as an assistant coach at Tulsa from 2010-11, working with the Golden Hurricane's tight-ends/H-backs in 2010 before taking over as defensive line coach in 2011.

• As a linebacker at Texas A&M, McDaniel was a three-year starter and team captain as a senior for the Aggies. He helped Texas A&M to a berth in the 2005 Cotton Bowl and recorded 213 tackles, five sacks and two interceptions during his three-year career (2003-05).

• McDaniel also serves as the president of the Minority Coaches Advancement Association, an organization founded in 2020 that holds events and meetings to help train and prepare minority coaches for head coaching positions in college football.

• McDaniel has a daughter, Aubree and a son, Christian.

DAVID ROWE

SECONDARY | THIRD SEASON

Coaching Accomplishments

• The 2023 season will be the third with Houston and second as secondary coach for David Rowe after coaching cornerbacks in 2021.

• In two seasons with the Cougars, Rowe has tutored three All-American Athletic Conference selections including seniors Art Green and Gervarrius Owens who earned second-team honors in 2022. Owens graded out as The American's top safety (82.5) and top cover safety (87.6) according to PFF after registering eight pass breakups and 74 total tackles during 2022.

• Since Rowe's arrival in 2021, the Cougars are tied for The American lead with three pick six's. In 2022, Alex Hogan, who missed seven games with a knee injury, logged 10 passes defended in his first six games -- those most through UH's first six games of a season since William Jackson III had 12 in 2015.

• Defensive back Jayce Rogers, who was named all-conference honorable mention as a return specialist, finished second in the league with three interceptions.

• In 2021, the Cougars finished 18th in passing yards allowed per game, surrendering just 194 yards per contest. The Cougars also finished eighth nationally, limiting opponents to a 55.2 completion %.

• Senior cornerback Marcus Jones recorded five interceptions which led the American Athletic Conference in addition to finishing third nationally. Jones was named second-team all-conference.

• Rowe spent his previous two seasons at Central Michigan as the secondary coach. Under his tutelage Rowe developed safety Willie Reid, who led the MAC with three interceptions during the 2020 season.

• Reid earned First Team All-MAC honors, while fellow safety Devonni Reed was named to All-MAC second team last year. The Chippewas ranked second in the MAC with eight interceptions in 2020.

• In 2019, Rowe oversaw a secondary that picked up 12 interceptions as CMU made a remarkable turnaround, finishing 8-6 overall after posting a 1-11 record in 2018. The Chippewas won the 2019 MAC West Division title, made its first MAC Championship game appearance in 10 seasons and played in the 2019 New Mexico Bowl.

• Before arriving at CMU, Rowe served as the defensive backs coach at Valdosta State, helping the Blazers to a 14-0 record, the NCAA Division II National Championship, and the Gulf South Conference title in 2018. Rowe's group ranked eighth in Division II in interceptions and ninth in red zone defense that season.

• Rowe joined the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2013 as a part of the Bill Walsh Minority Internship program. The four-month internship led to a defensive coaching assistant position with the Buccaneers.

• He has also spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Western Michigan (2014-15) and as the defensive coordinator at Rockledge (Fla.) High School from 2015-17.

• Rowe was a three-year starter in the secondary for Rutgers from 2008-11. He earned a bachelor's degree with a major in communications in 2012.

• Rowe is married to Corissa Rowe. He is the brother of James Rowe who spent the 2022 season as the Chicago Bears' defensive backs coach.

MARK SCOTT

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR | FOURTH SEASON (FIFTH OVERALL AT HOUSTON)

Coaching Accomplishments

• Mark Scott was named Special Teams Coordinator at the University of Houston in January 2020. The 2023 season will be his fourth as Special Teams Coordinator and fifth overall with the Cougars.

• Under Scott, the Cougars had one of the most explosive and reliable special teams units in the nation. Houston return specialists have been named to The American's all-conference teams each of the last three seasons (2022 - Jayce Rogers; 2020-21 - Marcus Jones). Since 2019, five Cougar special teams members have been named all-conference.

• Houston is the only school in the country to have recorded a kickoff return touchdown and punt return touchdown each of the the last four seasons (2019-22). The Cougars lead the nation with 11 return touchdowns (6 kickoff, 5 punt) since the start of the 2019 season.

• Since the start of the 2021 season, the Cougars have held opponents to 6.2 yards per punt return, a mark that ranks 11th nationally and first in Texas. On punt return, the Cougars ranked 10th nationally during 2022, averaging 15.0 yards per return.

• Meanwhile, the Cougars have registered 187 kicking points since the start of the 2021 season which leads The American. Houston converted 97 of 100 extra points during the stretch, a mark that is tied for the seventh most nationally.

• In 2021, Jones returned two kick returns for touchdowns, ranking second nationally, and returned a national-best two punts for touchdowns.

• Scott helped guide Jones to consensus All-America status including being named Associated Press First-Team All American as the nation's best return man. During his rookie season with the New England Patriots in 2022, Jones ranked third in the NFL in kickoff return grade by PFF (80.2) and second in punt return grade (78.3).

• Houston led the nation with six blocked kicks including a national-best four blocked punts. The Cougars did not allow a blocked punt on the season and ranked third in The American with just one blocked kick allowed.

• Place kicker Dalton Witherspoon, who spent three seasons alongside Scott, capped his decorated career with 345 points -- a mark that ranks third in school history. The point total was the ninth-most nationally between 2018-21. His 192 extra-points converted during the timeframe ranked fourth nationally and third in school history. His 51 made field goals checked in at No. 22 nationally and third in school history.

• Scott spent the 2019 season as Houston's special teams analyst, after seven seasons at West Virginia, his final two seasons working with the Mountaineers' linebackers and special teams units.

• In Scott's six seasons at West Virginia, two players under his leadership earned All-America honors in David Long (2017 & 2018) and Isaiah Bruce (2013) while five earned All-Conference honors in Long (2017), Al-Rasheed Benton (2017), Marcus Simms (2017), Daryl Worley (2015) and Will Clarke (2013).

• In 2018, Long was named the Big 12's Defensive Player of the Year and earned All-America honors for a second straight season after leading the Big 12 with 19 tackles for loss.

• The 2017 defense ranked No. 16 nationally in most defensive three-and-outs per game and No. 24 in best third-down defense. Long was named All-American Second Team by Pro Football Focus (PFF) and was an All-Big 12 Conference First Team honoree by ESPN.com. He finished with 16.5 tackles for loss, ranking No. 4 on WVU's single-season tackle for loss list.

• Benton averaged six solo tackles per game, ranking No. 10 nationally and 8.5 total tackles per game, ranking No. 50 nationally. He also had 13.5 tackles for loss, ranking No. 17 on the WVU's single-season tackle for loss list.

• The special teams finished No. 16 in kickoff returns, spearheaded by Simms, who was No. 13 nationally in kickoff returns, No. 27 in all-purpose yards and No. 36 in punt returns.

• In 2016, the defense ranked No. 24 nationally in fumbles recovered (11) and turnovers gained (25) and No. 35 in pass interceptions (14) and scoring defense (24.0). In Big 12 games, WVU's defense was No. 1 in scoring defense, total defense and fewest opponent first downs, No. 2 in rushing defense land No. 3 in third-down defense.

• In 2015, the defense ranked No. 2 nationally in interceptions, No. 5 in turnovers per game, No. 8 in most opponent three downs-and-outs, No. 11 in opponent third-down defense and No. 15 in turnover margin. The special teams ranked No. 11 in kickoff returns and No. 22 in net punting and punt return defense.

• Worley earned All-Big 12 First Team honors and was drafted in the third-round of the NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

• In 2012-14, Scott was the on-field graduate assistant coach working with the defense for two-and-a-half years, working with the outside linebackers, the defensive line and the cornerbacks.

• Scott spent a year as an assistant coach at Trine University (Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association), an NCAA Division III school in Angola, Indiana. While at Trine, he was the special teams coordinator and outside linebacker coach for the 2011 season, helping the team to a 7-3 record.

• He also spent three years (2008-10) as a quality control defensive assistant coach at the University of Indianapolis, a school which competes at the NCAA Division II level. He also worked with special teams prior to the 2008 season.

• At Indy, Scott worked with the outside linebackers for two seasons and the defensive secondary for the 2010 season. His defense was No. 1 in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, while finishing No. 10 nationally in passing defense and No. 16 in total defense in 2009 and No. 12 in passing defense in 2010.

• During his collegiate playing career, Scott was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at outside linebacker at Hillsdale. He amassed more than 200 career tackles and was named All-GLIAC Honorable Mention in 2006.

• Scott and his wife, Kelsey, have a son, Theodore.

DAIKIEL SHORTS, JR.

WIDE RECEIVERS | THIRD SEASON (FIFTH OVERALL AT HOUSTON)

Coaching Accomplishments

• The 2023 season will be the third for Daikiel Shorts Jr. as wide receivers coach at Houston after moving into a full-time coaching role in June 2021.

• Since the start of the 2021 season, Houston ranks seventh nationally in receiving touchdowns (72), eighth in receptions (644) and 10th in receiving yards (7,882). Houston's 19 games of 250+ receiving yards in that timeframe also ranks 10th nationally.

• The 2022 season served as another breakout year for Houston's wideouts. Junior wide receiver Nathaniel Dell led the nation in receiving yards (1,398) and receiving touchdowns (17) while ranking fourth in receptions per game (8.4) en route to being named an All-American by a host of publications. In his two seasons with Shorts (2021-22), Dell combined to pace the country in receiving yards (2,727), receiving scores (29) and receptions (199). The 2022 First-Team All-Conference selection paced the nation with a receiving touchdown in 11 games.

• Alongside Shorts' guidance, several first-year wideouts shined in 2022 including Matthew Golden who set Houston's true freshman record with seven receiving touchdowns. Golden finished tied for first nationally among true freshmen with four receiving touchdowns of 20+ yards and second among true freshman in total receiving scores (7).

• Nine Cougars combined to catch 40 touchdowns during the 2022 season including four from first-year transfer Samuel Brown who contributed 471 receiving yards over the final seven games of the regular season including 116 at Memphis, helping lead Houston to a 19-point fourth quarter comeback.

• Shorts concluded his first season as wide receivers coach in 2021. In his inaugural campaign, Dell exploded for over 1,300 yards en route to being named First-Team American Athletic Conference.

• Under Shorts' tutelage, Dell ranked in the top 15 nationally for receptions (90), receiving yards (1,329) and receiving touchdowns (12). As a team, the Cougars ranked 23rd nationally in passing offense (271.6).

• Shorts was named the Director for Player Development at Houston on Jan. 11, 2019, after one season as a program assistant at West Virginia.

• During his time at WVU as a player, Shorts led the Mountaineers in receiving in three of his four years and was named a team captain in 2016. He also earned the 2016 Iron Mountaineer Award, the same season he earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors after leading the Mountaineers with 63 receptions for 894 yards and five touchdowns.

• Shorts led WVU in receiving in 2015 with 45 receptions for 528 yards and five touchdowns and in 2013 with 45 receptions for 495 yards and two touchdowns. He added 24 receptions for 346 yards and two touchdowns in 2014.

• He closed his career ranked fifth on the WVU career chart with 177 receptions and sixth with 2,263 receiving yards. He owns the program's freshman receptions record with 45 in his first year with the program.

#24/25 HOUSTON	37
UTSA	35

SAN ANTONIO – Dana Holgorsen would prefer Clayton Tune not run the ball out of concern for his health. The Houston coach knew he could not stop his senior quarterback from doing so, though. And neither could UTSA.

Tune leaped over a defender to score on a 13-yard run and the 24th-ranked Cougars escaped with 37-35 victory over UTSA in three overtimes on Sept. 3.

Per NCAA rules for a third overtime, Tune's winning run was a 2-point conversion. The Roadrunners were unable to match the score as their final pass floated out of bounds.

Tune was 22 of 32 for 206 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 51 yards and a TD.

Houston rallied from a 14-point deficit in the second half at the Alamodome to snap UTSA's 10-game home winning streak.

Houston dominated the final quarter, maintaining possession for 10 minutes, 30 seconds in driving 77 yards on 18 plays. The drive ended with Bubba Baxa kicking a 35-yard field goal with 26 seconds remaining for a 24-21 lead.

Tune ran for three first-down conversions in the final drive of regulation, including two during which he scrambled out of the pocket after not finding an open receiver.

UTSA matched the feat in far less time, driving 55 yards in 23 seconds for a 37-yard field goal by Jared Sackett to force overtime.

After Tune scored on a 1-yard run and threw for the 2-point conversion in the second overtime, Roadrunners quarterback Frank Harris matched the output by running in the conversion after tossing a touchdown pass to De'Corian Clark.

TEXAS TECH	33

Smith ran 9 yards for a touchdown in the second overtime, lifting Texas Tech to a 33-30 victory over No. 25 Houston on Sept. 10.

A back-and-forth finish ended with the Red Raiders (2-0) beating a ranked nonconference opponent in the regular season for the first time since 1989, a span of 14 games.

It was the last meeting between the former Southwest Conference rivals before they become league foes again when the Cougars move from the American Athletic to the Big 12 next year.

After Houston's Bubba Baxa opened the second OT with a 20-yard field goal, Smith broke into the open field and ran untouched to the end zone, sending Texas Tech students and fans streaming onto the field.

Baxa kicked a go-ahead 35-yard field goal with 37 seconds remaining in regulation after Gervarrius Owens returned Smith's third interception to the Texas Tech 21 in the final two minutes.

Smith answered with a 27-yard scramble on the next play, sparking a drive to a tying 47-yard field goal from Trey Wolff with three seconds to go. Wolff replaced Gino Garcia, who missed from 45 earlier in the fourth quarter.

The Cougars (1-1) erased a 17-3 halftime deficit, getting even early in the fourth quarter when Jayce Rogers stepped in front of a pass from Smith and returned it 54 yards for a TD. Still, Houston's 12-game regular-season winning streak ended.

Houston had 11 penalties for 121 yards, including two personal fouls on the same possession that twice let the Red Raiders keep the ball when the Cougars would have taken possession in the first half.

Houston also trailed by two touchdowns in the second half of another overtime game in last week's opener, rallying from 21-7 down entering the fourth quarter for a 37-35 double-overtime victory over UTSA.

Both teams scored touchdowns in the first overtime after backing themselves up. Smith converted on fourth-and-20 with a 21-yard completion to Jerand Bradley. The Red Raiders forced the second OT on Tahj Brooks' 4-yard scoring run.

Tune faced second-and-21 to open overtime before a 19-yard completion to Nathaniel Dell, who had seven catches for 120 yards and a 35-yard punt return. Three plays later, he threw a 15-yard TD pass to Matthew Golden.

KANSAS	48
HOUSTON	30

HOUSTON – Jalon Daniels threw for 158 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 123 yards and two scores as Kansas improved to 3-0 for the first time since 2009 with a 48-30 win over Houston on Sept. 17.

Daniels finished 14 of 23 and threw touchdown passes of 5, 60 and 8 yards. He had touchdown runs of 12 and 9 yards.

"I thought Jalon was excellent today," Kansas coach Lance Leipold said. "He made some big plays, scrambling, keeping drives alive, saw some things, didn't hesitate. Statistically, he probably didn't get off to a great start, but I think again, a very solid day."

He found 11 different receivers and threw touchdown passes to Torry Locklin, Jared Casey and Luke Grimm.

"We have a lot of people who are able to make plays with the ball in their hands in our offense," Daniels said. "I feel like (offensive coordinator Andy Kotelnicki) realizes that, so I feel like he does a great job of being able to put guys in situations to be able to get the ball."

Kansas finished with 438 yards, including 280 rushing yards. The Jayhawks won back-to-back road games for the first time since 2007.

After Houston opened up a 14-0 lead midway through the first quarter, Kansas answered with 28 straight points on a 12-yard touchdown run by Daniels, an 8-yard touchdown run by Daniel Hishaw Jr. and touchdown passes of 5 yards and 60 yards by Daniels to open up a 14-point lead with a minute left in the first half.

Clayton Tune was 22 of 31 for 260 yards, a touchdown and an interception. He also rushed for 63 yards and a touchdown. Houston (1-2) finished with 446 total yards.

Brandon Campbell had 48 rushing yards and a score, and Ta'Zhawn Henry finished with 56 rushing yards and a touchdown and five catches for 107 yards and a score for Houston. Nathaniel Dell caught six passes for 76 yards.

HOUSTON	34

HOUSTON – Nelson Ceaser returned a fumble for an 11-yard score with 3:34 left in the fourth quarter and Thabo Mwaniki intercepted a tipped pass on the next possession as Houston beat Rice 34-27 on Sept. 24 to retain the Bayou Bucket for a record seventh consecutive time.

Houston pinned Rice at its 6-yard line with 24 seconds left. The Owls made two catches to get to their 40 before clocking it at eight seconds. TJ McMahon launched it, Bradley Rozner came down with the ball in traffic at the Houston 9 and the officials ruled there was one second left.

Rice had no timeouts remaining but Houston took one to set up its defense. McMahon was pressured into a rushed pass and it was batted down in the end zone.

Nathaniel Dell sparked the Houston (2-2) offense with seven catches for 134 yards, including a 40-yard touchdown. Clayton Tune was 19-of-26 passing for 249 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Ta'Zhawn Henry added 17 carries for 112 yards and one touchdown.

McMahon passed for 334 yards with one touchdown and one interception for Rice (2-2). Rozner had 123 yards receiving and Luke McCaffrey caught seven passes for 121 yards, including a 52-yard TD.

TULANE	27
HOUSTON	24

HOUSTON – Houston Football's fourth quarter rally came up short as Tulane drove the field late to force overtime, eventually taking down the Cougars 27-24 on Sept. 30 in the American Athletic Conference opener from TDECU Stadium.

An early defensive showdown turned into an offensive shootout late as Houston (2-3, 0-1 The American) scored 14 unanswered points in the fourth quarter before Tulane (4-1, 1-0 The American) drove 75 yards in 11 plays, tying the contest on a 3-yard touchdown reception and extra point.

Quarterback Clayton Tune passed for 208 yards on 22 of 33 passing alongside two touchdowns. Alongside his 56 rushing yards, Tune surpassed the 10,000-yard career total yards mark (10,023), becoming the fourth player in program history to accomplish the feat, joining Case Keenum (20,114 yards), Kevin Kolb (13,715 yards) and Greg Ward Jr. (11,080 yards).

Wide receiver Nathaniel Dell hauled in eight receptions for two touchdowns and 73 yards. Dell's two receiving touchdowns were the 19th and 20th since the start of the 2020 season which ranks tied for fifth nationally in that span.

After forcing a Green Wave three-and-out on the following drive, the Cougars drove 80 yards down the field on 10 plays capped off by a Tune 14-yard touchdown pass to Dell in the right corner of the end zone to give Houston its first lead of the game at 21-14 with 3:04 remaining.

In overtime, Houston regained the lead with a 36-yard field goal by kicker Bubba Baxa, but a 10-yard touchdown pass from Horton to Tyjae Spears on the following drive sealed the win for Tulane.

HOUSTON	33
MEMPHIS	32

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – University of Houston senior quarterback Clayton Tune threw a pair of touchdown passes inside the final two minutes as Houston scored 26 fourth-quarter points to stun Memphis 33-32 on Oct. 7 inside Simmons Bank Liberty Stadium.

Tune tossed a 13-yard touchdown pass to senior wide receiver KeSean Carter that capped a 12-play, 75-yard drive to pull Houston to 32-26 with 1:17 to play. Houston took possession following the ensuing onside kick on senior tight end Christian Trahan's recovery. Tune and Carter connected again six plays later for the game-winner on a 2-yard touchdown with 18 seconds to play.

It tied as the fifth biggest comeback in school history. It also was the second come-from-behind win over 19+ points in the fourth quarter against the Tigers in school history (The Cougars trailed 34-14 with 14:52 left in the fourth quarter on Nov. 14, 2015, before taking a 35-34 win).

Houston (3-3 • 1-1 American) has won two straight against Memphis (4-2 • 2-1 American) since ending a five-game losing streak to the Tigers in a 31-13 home win last season.

Tune finished 36-of-57 passing for 366 yards with three touchdowns. Redshirt freshman wide receiver Samuel Brown had nine receptions for 116 yards, and junior wide receiver Nathaniel Dell made 10 catches for 81 yards and a score. Carter finished with four receptions for 36 yards and a pair of scores.

Memphis looked to be headed toward an easy victory when Seth Henigan threw a lateral to Gabriel Rogers near the sideline. Rogers then avoided three defenders and ran back toward the logo and lofted a pass to Asa Martin in the end zone for a 41-yard touchdown that stretched the Memphis lead to 26-7 with 14:50 remaining.

Senior defensive back Jayce Rogers returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown midway through the fourth quarter for Houston, but Chris Howard made his fourth field goal, a 39-yarder, to push the Tigers' lead to 32-19 with 4:04 to play.

HOUSTON	38

ANNAPOLIS, Md. – University of Houston senior quarterback Clayton Tune led the Cougar offense with five touchdown passes, including two each to receivers Nathaniel Dell and Samuel Brown, to lift the Cougars a 38-20 win over American Athletic Conference rival Navy inside Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium on Oct. 22.

After sitting out last weekend with their bye, the Cougars scored touchdowns on their first two and three of their first four possessions for a 21-7 lead and never looked back in the victory.

With the win, Houston won its second straight game and for the third time in the last four contests to improve to 4-3 overall and 2-1 in American play. Navy fell to 2-5 overall and 2-3 in American action.

Receiving the opening kickoff, Tune connected with Dell on a 6-yard touchdown strike less than three minutes into the game on the Cougars' opening possession.

After a Jayce Rogers interception and return stopped Navy's first possession and put the ball on the Navy 35, Tune led a 7-play drive that was capped by an 11-yard touchdown pass to Dell with 5:29 left in the opening period.

Brown hauled in 7- and 4-yard touchdown catches late in the second half, and senior kicker Kyle Ramsey drilled a 24-yard field goal midway through the third quarter to cap the Cougar scoring.

Redshirt freshman running back Stacy Sneed added a game-high 100 rushing yards on 20 carries to lead the ground attack.

Senior linebacker Donavan Mutin lead all student-athletes with 13 tackles, including five solos stops.

HOUSTON – Clayton Tune passed for 380 yards and four touchdowns, Stacy Sneed rushed for two scores and Houston beat South Florida 42-27 on Oct. 29.

Tune went over 10,000 career yards after finding Peyton Sawyer in the corner of the end zone to take a 28-14 lead with 55 seconds left before halftime. Tune's fourth touchdown came on a 28-yard flea-flicker to KeSean Carter early in the fourth quarter.

Tune was 31-of-37 passing for Houston (5-3, 3-1 American Athletic Conference). Nathaniel Dell caught nine passes for 112 yards and two touchdowns, and Carter added 102 yards receiving and one touchdown.

Dell was left wide open for a 52-yard score early in the second quarter.

Brian Battie rushed for 106 yards, on 12 carries, and two touchdowns for South Florida (1-7, 0-4). Katravis Marsh passed for 275 yards and Xavier Weaver had 84 yards receiving.

HOUSTON	63
SMU	77

DALLAS – University of Houston senior quarterback Clayton Tune became the first player in school history to throw for 500+ yards and rush for 100+ in a game, but it would not be enough in a wild 77-63 loss to American Athletic Conference SMU in Gerald J. Ford Stadium on Saturday, Nov. 5.

Tune threw for a career-high 527 yards on 36-of-53 passing with seven touchdowns and added a team-high 111 rushing yards on 12 carries, including a 55-yard touchdown run for the Cougars' first points of the game.

Wide receiver Nathaniel Dell hauled in 13 catches for 180 yards with a pair of touchdowns, while KeSean Carter added eight receptions for 136 yards and a touchdown. Freshman Matthew Golden added five catches for 105 yards and a score.

That group became only the ninth trio in school history to each record 100+ receiving yards in a game and the first since Marquez Stevenson (141), Courtney Lark (106) and Keith Corbin (104) accomplished the feat at Navy on Oct. 20, 2018.

The two teams combined for more than 1,300 yards of total offense with Houston holding a 710-642 lead. The 140 combined points were the most in an FBS regulation game in the AP poll era (since 1936).

With the loss, Houston fell to 5-4 overall and 3-2 in American Athletic Conference play. SMU improved to 5-4 overall and 3-2 in league play.

TEMPLE	36
HOUSTON	43

HOUSTON – University of Houston senior quarterback Clayton Tune hit freshman wide receiver Matthew Golden 44 yards downfield with 42 seconds remaining to escape for a go-ahead touchdown, leading the Cougars to 43-36 win over Temple to earn bowl eligibility on Saturday, Nov. 12 at TDECU Stadium.

Houston (6-4 overall, 4-2 American) once again found itself in an offensive shootout as both teams combined for over 1,000 total yards of offense, but the Cougars emerged victorious behind Tune's 318 total yards and four touchdowns.

With the win, Houston moved to 12-2 in its last 14 American Athletic Conference matchups dating back to the start of the 2021 season, marking the Cougars' best 14-game stretch in league play since replicating the feat from Sept. 2, 2006 - Nov. 4, 2007.

Running back Stacy Sneed scored the first of his two touchdowns later that drive. Sneed would go on to exceed the 100-yard mark for the second time in the previous four games, also setting a new career high with 143 rushing yards. The 143 rushing yards were the most for a Cougar since Duke Catalon ran for 177 yards at SMU on Oct. 7, 2017.

Houston scored 14 unanswered points to start the second half to take a 28-19 lead. Following another Temple score, Tune found junior receiver Nathaniel Dell for a 10-yard score to extend Houston's lead 35-26.

Dell on the day had 12 receptions for 98 yards and a score. The 98 yards vaulted him over the 1,000-yard mark for the season, making him just the third player in Houston history to have multiple 1,000-yard receiving seasons (Patrick Edwards 2009-11; Tyron Carrier 2008-09).

With the win, Houston clinched its 15th bowl appearance in the last 18 seasons.

EAST CAROLINA	3

GREENVILLE, N.C. – Clayton Tune completed 32 of 44 passes for 435 yards and four touchdowns — two to Matthew Golden — and Houston scored the first 28 points as the Cougars beat East Carolina 42-3 on Saturday, Nov. 19, at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium.

Nathaniel Dell caught nine passes for 176 yards and his 12-yard touchdown reception opened the scoring less than 5 minutes into the game. Tune hit Christian Trahan for a 9-yard TD in the second quarter and Brandon Campbell's 5-yard touchdown run — which capped a nine-play, 92-yard drive — gave Houston (6-4, 4-2 American Athletic Conference) a 21-0 halftime lead.

Golden, who finished with eight receptions for 127 yards, caught two 26-yard touchdown throws from Tune in the third quarter. Later, a 14-play, 73-yard drive that took nearly 8 minutes off the clock culminated when Ta'Zhawn Henry scored on a 3-yard run that made it 42-3 with 6:11 to play.

Keaton Mitchell had 129 yards rushing on 14 carries for East Carolina (6-4, 3-3).

TULSA	37
HOUSTON	30

HOUSTON – University of Houston senior quarterback Clayton Tune threw for 386 yards and two touchdowns, and junior wide receiver Nathaniel Dell hauled in nine receptions for 161 yards and a touchdown and a punt return score of his own, but it would not be enough as Tulsa took a 37-30 win inside TDECU Stadium on Nov. 26.

Tulsa wide receiver JuanCarlos Santana hauled in a 25-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Braylon Braxton with 8:13 left in the final quarter to break a tie and give the Golden Hurricane the lead for good.

After Tulsa kicker's 38-yard field goal Zack Long gave the Golden Hurricane a 37-27 lead with 2:51 left, the Cougars moved to within 37-30 on Kyle Ramsey's 23-yard field goal with 52 seconds remaining.

However, the Golden Hurricanes fell on the ensuing onsides kick and knelt twice to end the game.

With the loss, the Cougars ended the regular season with a 7-5 overall record and 5-3 mark in American Athletic Conference play. Tulsa finished its season with a 5-7 mark and 3-5 record in league play.

Saturday's game started well for the Cougars when Dell hauled in a 49-yard punt after Tulsa's initial possession and weaved his way through the Tulsa special teams for a 68-yard touchdown. Houston built a 14-3 lead after the first quarter before Tulsa rallied to tie the game at 17-17 by halftime.

In the second half, the Cougars managed only a pair of field goals from Ramsey.

GAME RECAPS

Dec. 23, 2022 • Independence Bowl • Shreveport, La.

	LOUISIANA	16

SHREVEPORT, La. – University of Houston senior quarterback Clayton Tune connected with junior wideout Nathaniel Dell for a 12-yard touchdown with 20 seconds remaining, and Houston rallied from a 13-point deficit to beat Louisiana 23-16 inside Independence Stadium in the Radium Technologies Independence Bowl on Friday afternoon.

The TD pass was Tune's third of the game and 40th of the season, tying him with Western Kentucky's Austin Reed for the most in the nation. Before the winning throw, he completed a 41-yard pass to KeSean Carter on third-and-30 to move Houston into Ragin' Cajuns territory.

The Cougars (8-5) never led until that late touchdown as Tune heated up amid unseasonably cold temperatures in northwest Louisiana. It was 25 degrees at kickoff, with a wind chill of 12 degrees.

Louisiana (6-7) led 13-0 midway through the second quarter and 16-6 at halftime.

Tune, who finished 19 of 28 for 216 yards and was named the Independence Bowl Offensive MVP, led Houston on a 13-play, 70-yard drive to open the second half and hit Dell for a 2-yard touchdown that made it 16-13. Senior defensive back Art Green was named the game's Defensive MVP after recording nine tackles.

Clinging to a 3-point lead, Louisiana stuffed Houston on fourth-and-short at the Ragin' Cajuns 5-yard line midway through the third quarter, but the Cougars eventually tied the game on Kyle Ramsey's 19-yard field early in the fourth.

Louisiana located three hours south of Shreveport, took the opening kick and orchestrated a 15-play, 75-yard drive that ended when tight end Johnny Lumpkin made a dazzling touchdown catch in the corner of the end zone.

The Cajuns got three field goals in the first half from by Kenneth Almendares (42, 42, and 22 yards). Chandler Fields finished 17 of 25 passing for 169 yards and a touchdown.

Tune's first TD toss was a 33-yarder to Carter in the second quarter. Carter finished with 104 yards on three catches, and Dell had six receptions for 44 yards and the two TDs.

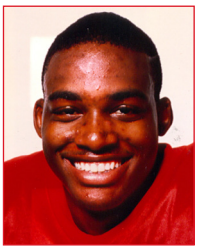
NATIONAL AWARDS

ANDRÉ WARE
1989 • HEISMAN TROPHY
1989 • DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD



In 1989 University of Houston junior quarterback André Ware was the recipient of the 55th annual Heisman Trophy.

The award, presented by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York, culminated a record-setting season in which Ware set 26 NCAA and 15 Southwest Conference records for passing and total offense.

He became the first Cougar and the fifth player from the Southwest Conference to win the Heisman, and he did it without playing a single game before live national television cameras.

Despite playing just a little more than the first half of most games, Ware completed 365-of-578 pass attempts (.631) for 4,699 yards and 46 touchdowns to lead the Cougars to a 9-2 season record and a No.14 national ranking.

The soft-spoken native of Dickinson, Texas, captured the nation's imagination in his first full season as a starting quarterback, averaging over 427 yards passing per game and at one point attempting 154 straight passes without an interception.

A consensus First-Team All-American, Ware left Houston following his junior season to enter the NFL Draft, where he was a first-round and seventh overall pick by the Detroit Lions. He also played in the Canadian Football League before retiring.

In 1996, Ware returned to UH to earn his bachelor's degree in marketing. Of that accomplishment Ware said, "This ranks right up there with receiving the Heisman Trophy."

Ware was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

Today, he can be heard as an analyst for ESPN college football on Saturdays and for Houston Texans radio broadcasts on Sundays during the NFL season.

MARCUS JONES
2021 • PAUL HORNUNG AWARD

Marcus Jones became the first Cougar to receive the Paul Hornung Award as the nation's most versatile player in major college football following the 2021 season.

As a senior in 2021, Jones boasted 48 tackles with five interceptions, 13 pass breakups, one forced fumble and one tackle for a loss.

He ranked second nationally with five interceptions and stood sixth in the country with 1.4 passes defended per game.

Jones was the only player in the nation with multiple punt and multiple kick return touchdowns in 2021. He was fourth in the nation in punt return average (14.4) and averaged a staggering 34.0 yards per kickoff return.

On offense, the Enterprise, Ala., native lined up at wide receiver in wins over Navy and crosstown rival Rice, catching 10 passes for 109 yards and a score while rushing the ball twice.

Jones enjoyed a career-night in the Cougars' 44-37 win over No. 19/16 SMU, returning a kickoff 100 yards for the winning score with 17 seconds left, as well as six tackles with one for a loss and an interception.

Against Navy, Jones returned a punt 73 yards for a touchdown and caught a 47-yard touchdown pass.

In a 31-23 home win in overtime over East Carolina, he returned a kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown for the longest play at the time in TDECU Stadium history.

In The American Championship at No. 3/4 Cincinnati, Jones returned one punt for 14 yards and four kickoffs for 92 yards while forcing a fumble and breaking up a pass.

ED OLIVER
2017 • OUTLAND TROPHY

Emerging as one of the nation's premier players on either side of the ball, Ed Oliver became the Cougars' first recipient of the Outland Trophy in 2017.

Also The American Athletic Conference's Defensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy, Oliver became Houston's third major award winner.

The American's Defensive Player of the Year, Oliver led the nation with a career average of 1.58 tackles for loss per game through his first two seasons, totaling 39.5 tackles for loss in only 25 games.

Playing the nose spot in a three-man front, Oliver totaled 73 tackles in 12 games in 2017 despite missing three quarters of one game and being limited in the next four with a knee injury.

His average of 6.1 tackles per game in 2017 ranked fourth nationally among all defensive linemen. Oliver's 73 total tackles rank second nationally among defensive tackles.

Oliver's 14.5 tackles for loss are fourth among defensive tackles while his average of 1.38 tackles for loss per game led all defensive linemen in The American.

The Houston native led UH in tackles for loss (16.5), sacks (5.5), quarterback hurries (7), forced fumbles (2) and blocked kicks (1). He also had three pass breakups and one fumble recovery on the year.

Oliver recorded two double-digit tackle games in 2017, part of seven games with at least five tackles. He had four games in 2017 with multiple tackles for loss and now has 12 career games with the distinction.

Oliver closed out the regular season in style with a career-high 14 tackles, including 3.5 tackles for loss and two sacks as he led a Houston defense that held Navy to its lowest point total (14), total yards (291) and rushing output (217) of the season in the 24-14 win.

2015 • EARL CAMPBELL TYLER ROSE AWARD

Quarterback Greg Ward Jr. became the first Cougar to receive the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award for his outstanding performance during the 2015 season.

Ward became the first Houston quarterback to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, finishing the year with 1,108 rushing yards and 21 touchdowns to go with 2,828 passing yards and 17 touchdowns.

He ranked ninth nationally in completion percentage, competing 232-of-345 passes, while throwing only six interceptions, seventh best nationally among quarterbacks with at least 300 attempts.

The single-season quarterback rushing record was one of 14 Houston or The American Athletic Conference records that Ward broke in 2015 while tying three others including the Houston single-season rushing touchdowns record with his 21 scores.

Ward ranked in the top 25 in five of the NCAA's final recognized stat categories: completion percentage (ninth), points responsible for (12th), points responsible for per game (15th), rushing TDs (fifth) and scoring (25th). He finished seventh nationally in scoring among non-kickers with 126 points.

Ward was a three-time American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Week, four-time American Athletic Conference weekly Honor Roll member, a Manning Award finalist, The American Championship Most Valuable Player and the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl Offensive Most Valuable Player.

Over his final two seasons, Ward posted a 19-2 record as the Cougars' starting quarterback and stood in fifth place school history with 19 wins with victories in each of his last 15 starts.

The Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award, announced in 2012 by the Tyler Chamber and SPORTyler, recognizes the top offensive player in Division 1 football who also exhibits the enduring characteristics that define Earl Campbell: integrity, performance, teamwork, sportsmanship, drive, community, and tenacity; specifically tenacity to persist and determination to overcome adversity and injury in pursuit of reaching goals.

With the completion of his collegiate career, Ward entered the professional ranks and has competed with the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles as a wide receiver for each of the last three years entering the 2022 season.

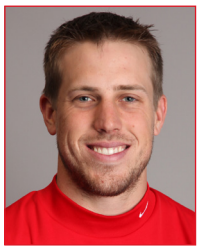
CASE KEENUM
2011, 2009 • SAMMY BAUGH AWARD
2009 • COLLEGE FOOTBALL PERFORMANCE NATIONAL QUARTERBACK AWARD



Case Keenum will forever live in the hears of all Cougar fans as well as the NCAA records books after an outstanding collegiate career.

The Abilene, Texas, native became only the second quarterback to win the Sammy Baugh Award twice (2011, 2009) and also received the 2009 College Football Perforamnce National Quarterback Award.

Keenum won the Sammy Baugh Trophy for the final time in inspiriational fashion. Early in the 2010 season, he overcame a serious knee injury early, which forced him to miss the final nine games of that season. However, he received a medical redshirt and returned to record one of the greatest seasons in college football history one year later.

Throwing for 5,631 yards with a school-record 58 touchdowns, Keenum guided the Cougars to a victory over No. 24/23 Penn State in the TicketCity Bowl and Top-20 rankings in both final national polls and was named to numerous All-America teams.

In 2009, Keenum led the Cougars to a 10-4 overall record with berths in the Conference USA Championship Game and the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

He also was named the league's Most Valuable Player and earned All-America honors for the first time in his career.

By the time his amazing collegiate career was finished, Keenum had set FBS career records in total offense (19,217), passing yards (18,312), touchdown passes (155), touchdowns responsible for (173) and completions (1,460).

Following his UH playing days, he began his professional career in the NFL and enters the 2022 season with the Buffalo Bills.

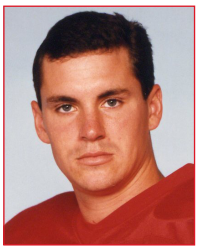
DAVID KLINGLER
1990 • SAMMY BAUGH AWARD



Following Andre Ware's award-winning career at the University of Houston, some football fans wondered if the Cougars would ever see another quarterback like that.

It took David Klingler little time to answer those questions.

After patiently waiting as a reserve for his first two collegiate seasons, Klingler took over the reins of the Houston offense as a junior during the 1990 season and immediately began rewriting the Cougar and NCAA records book.

In his first game as the Cougars' starter, the Houston native threw for 426 yards and five touchdowns in the season-opening win over UNLV.

That season, he threw for 5,140 yards and an NCAA record 54 touchdowns in only 11 games, the latter standing for nearly two decades. His season average of 4.9 touchdowns per game remains an NCAA FBS record today.

Klingler set NCAA- and Houston single-game records, which continue to stand today, with 11 touchdown passes in a win over Eastern Washington on Nov. 17, 1990, during the Cougars' home finale inside the Houston Astrodome.

In the final game that season, Klingler threw for an NCAA FBS-record 716 yards in a 62-45 win over Arizona State in Tokyo. That mark would not be topped by a collegiate quarterback until 2014.

Klingler guided the Cougars to a 10-1 overall record and 7-1 mark in the Southwest Conference and a No. 10 ranking in the final Associated Press poll.

For his impressive efforts, Klingler received the 1990 Sammy Baugh Award, presented annually to the nation's top collegiate passer, and became the first recipient in Houston history.

Following his collegiate career, Klingler was taken with the No. 6 overall pick by the Cincinnati Bengals and later played for the Oakland Raiders.

Today, he serves as associate professor of Bible exposition at Dallas Theological Seminary.

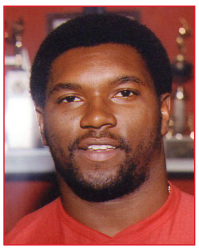
NATIONAL AWARDS

WILSON WHITLEY
1976 • LOMBARDI AWARD



After leading the University of Houston to the 1976 Southwest Conference championship in the Cougars' first season in the league, Wilson Whitley was honored with the Lombardi Award as the nation's most outstanding college lineman.

Though double- and often triple-teamed during the season, the 6-foot-3, 280-pound Whitley routinely dominated the line of scrimmage from the defensive tackle position. He led the Cougars in sacks, fumbles forced and fumbles recovered, anchoring a defense that held opponents to 10 or fewer points five times during the regular season.

In a near-perfect defensive performance on the road at Texas, Whitley and the Cougars held the Longhorns to eight total first tdowns and 24 rushing yards en route to a 3-0 win. Houston went on to defeat previously unbeated Maryland in the Cotton Bowl to cap a 10-2 season.

Though 1976 was his one and only year in the Southwest Conference, Whitley was named the league's Player of the Decade for the 1970s. The Brenham, Texas, native was the first and just one of three league players ever to win the Lombardi Award.

In the spring of 1976, Whitley was the eighth overall selection in the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals, with whom he played for six seasons.

After a seven-year professional football career, which also included one season with the Houston Oilers, Whitley served as the National Director of Sports Marketing with Holiday Inn, Inc., until he suffered a fatal heart attack in 1992.

He was inducted into the University's Hall of Honor in 1998, the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 1985, and was a member of the Texas Football Magazine's Silver Anniversary Team as both a high school and collegiate player.

He was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in July 2008.

BOWL RECAPS

1952 SALAD BOWL

Houston 26, Dayton 21

Jan. 1, 1952 • Montgomery Stadium • Phoenix

A crowd of 17,000 saw Houston defeat Dayton, 26-21, in the Fifth Annual Salad Bowl in Phoenix, Ariz., the Cougars' first-ever bowl appearance. Houston's Gene Shannon, a 1,000-yard rusher during the regular season, scored all four of the Cougars' touchdowns and was named MVP of the contest.

Shannon rushed for 175 yards on 28 carries, including 129 yards in the first half. Behind the blocking of fellow running backs Randy Owens (who gained 76 yards on the day) and Warren Ramsey (83 yards), and linemen Howard Clapp, Buck Miller and Lloyd Holloway, Shannon gained more yards than the entire Dayton team.

Dayton took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a seven-yard run by Bobby Recker and Paul Spakowski's extra point. Houston responded immediately with a 65-yard, six-play drive, with Shannon scoring on a 15-yard run with 10 seconds left in the first. Owens' extra point try failed, and UH trailed 7-6 after one.

The Flyers added two more scores in the second period, including a touchdown with 44 seconds left in the half on a 36-yard pass from Frank Siggins to Ed Currin to cap a 70-yard drive. Houston countered with one score, on a Shannon 19-yard gallop, and the Cougars trailed 21-13 at the half.

The Houston defense, led by Jack Howton, asserted itself in the second half. Howton intercepted a pair of passes and recovered a fumble as the Cougar defense limited Dayton to just five yards rushing in the stanza.

UH pulled within one point, 21-20, on Shannon's third rushing TD, a one-yard run at 9:40 of the third quarter. His run ended a seven-play, 72-yard drive, and Owens added the kick.

Another Shannon run provided the final points of the game and gave UH its first and only lead of the game. The senior's 10-yard burst with 7:50 remaining in the third period provided the final margin as neither team was able to score in the fourth quarter.

1962 TANGERINE BOWL

Houston 49, Miami (Ohio) 21

Dec. 22, 1962 • Tangerine Bowl • Orlando, Fla.

Under first-year head coach Bill Yeoman, Houston scored five straight touchdowns, including four in the second quarter, to power the Cougars to a 49-21 victory over Miami of Ohio in the 17th Annual Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida.

Senior quarterback Billy Roland led the Cougars offense by completing 11-of-17 passes for 199 yards and three touchdowns to earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award.

After Miami missed a field goal on its first drive, the Redskins took possession on the UH 28-yard line after an interception. UM took advantage of the turnover with a nine-yard touchdown pass to take a 7-0 lead.

After tying the game late in the first quarter on Joe Lopasky's three-yard run and Bill McMillan's extra-point, Houston's Bobby Brezina scored a pair of touchdowns to start the UH onslaught. The Cougars took advantage of an interception by Bill Van Osdel, scoring on two plays from the Miami six. On Houston's next drive, Roland hit Brezina with a 44-yard touchdown bomb to give UH a 21-7 lead.

The UH defense held again, and on the ensuing Miami punt, Lopasky took the ball back 70 yards for a touchdown and a 28-7 UH lead. The Cougars closed out the half with a 60-yard touchdown drive, ending with a four-yard pass from Roland to McMillan with 18 seconds left in the half. Houston took a 35-7 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Miami scored with 4:50 left in the third quarter to close the gap to 35-14 before Lopasky notched his third of four touchdowns on the day on a one-yard run. His score finished a 78-yard, six-play drive, while McMillan's seventh PAT established a new school record.

Each team added a touchdown in the final stanza, Houston scoring on a 14-yard Roland to Lopasky hook-up.

BOWL HISTORY

1969 BLUEBONNET BOWL

#17 Houston 36, #12 Auburn 7

Dec. 31, 1969 • Houston Astrodome • Houston

A match-up between two of the top offensive teams in the country saw the Houston defense carry the day as the Cougars shut down Auburn to win the 1969 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, 36-7, in the Astrodome. The crowd of 55,203 saw Bill Yeoman's Cougars finish the year with their ninth straight victory and a No. 12 ranking in the final Associated Press poll.

Houston halfback Jim Strong gained 184 yards on 32 carries to lead the UH offense and gain MVP honors. Defensively, Glen Lewis and Ronny Peacock were the Cougars' stars on a unit which allowed Auburn only one yard rushing in the game. Lewis recorded eight tackles and blocked a field goal while Peacock was in on four tackles and deflected four passes.

Auburn's Terry Beasly fumbled the opening kickoff and Houston safety Nick Holm recovered to set up the Cougars' first touchdown, a one-yard run by quarterback Gary Mullins just 3:30 into the game. Following an Auburn punt, the Cougars drove 70 yards in 14 plays and Carlos Lopez kicked a 27-yard field goal to give UH a 10-0 lead at the start of the second quarter.

The UH defense stymied Auburn and sophomore quarterback Pat Sullivan again on the Tigers' next possession, forcing a punt. On first-and-10 from its own 16-yard line, Strong galloped 74 yards to the Auburn 10, setting up Houston's second touchdown, which he scored on a one-yard run. Lopez' PAT missed, but Houston led 16-0 with 11:44 remaining in the half.

The teams traded punts until Auburn's Mickey Zofko completed a 36-yard halfback option pass to receiver Connie Frederick for the Tigers' only score. At halftime, Houston led 16-7.

The Tigers would get no closer. Houston scored 20 points on three touchdowns in the second half. Ted Heiskell's one-yard touchdown run came at the end of an eight-play, 71-yard drive. The two-point conversion pass failed, but UH led 22-7.

After a scoreless remainder of the quarter, Houston put the Tigers away on its first drive of the final period. Strong scored his second touchdown of the day, on a 12-yard run. A 20-yard pass from back-up quarterback Rusty Clark to Tommy Mozisek with 35 seconds left provided the final margin.

The two teams combined to break or tie 22 Bluebonnet Bowl records. Houston totaled 516 yards on 83 plays in the game, while Auburn netted just 189 total yards, including 188 passing.

1971 BLUEBONNET BOWL

#8 Colorado 29, #15 Houston 17

Dec. 31, 1971 • Houston Astrodome • Houston

Colorado's 16 second-quarter points lifted the Buffaloes to a 29-17 victory over 15th-ranked Houston before a crowd of 54,720 in the Astrodome. The loss was Houston's first in four bowl games and gave the Cougars a 9-3 final record.

Colorado tailback Charlie Davis led CU by rushing for a bowl-record 202 yards on 37 carries while Houston turned the ball over three times. Cougar tailback Robert Newhouse led the UH attack with 168 yards rushing on 35 carries and scored both Houston touchdowns on the day. Houston defensive lineman Butch Brezina was named the Cougars' Most Outstanding Player with 10 total tackles and two passes broken up.

Davis put the Buffs on top early with a 27-yard touchdown run on Colorado's first possession after a 70-yard, nine-play drive. J.B. Dean added the extra point to give CU a 7-0 lead.

Houston responded with a 79-yard, 15-play drive. Newhouse scored from the two after gaining 42 yards on the drive, and Ricky Terrell kicked the PAT to tie the game at seven. UH linebacker Bill Hamrick intercepted Colorado quarterback Ken Johnson to set up the Cougars' second touchdown, a five-yard Newhouse run with 1:14 left in the first quarter.

Colorado got the ball back and drove 61 yards in 10 plays, with Larry Brunson scoring on a five-yard pass from Johnson to pull CU within one. J.B. Dean's extra point failed and the Cougars clung to a 14-13 lead.

Colorado took the lead for good on its next possession. Johnson's 38-yard run on the quarterback keeper keyed an 80-yard, 15-play drive and Dean hit a 32-yard field goal with 5:03 left in the half to give CU a 16-13 lead.

After Houston fumbled the ball on the kickoff, Colorado went on the attack again. Davis scored on a one-yard run, and Dean added the PAT for a 23-14 lead that would prove to be insurmountable.

Houston drove to the Colorado 14 to open the third period, but tight end Riley Odoms fumbled and the Buffs' Lorne Richardson recovered to stymie the Cougars. The teams traded punts until Houston took advantage of a Davis fumble, Terrell hitting a 29-yard field goal for the only score of the third.

The Cougars would get no closer as Johnson scored for the Buffaloes with 3:48 left in the game to account for the final 12-point margin.

BOWL HISTORY

1973 BLUEBONNET BOWL

#14 Houston 47, Tulane 7

Dec. 29, 1973 • Houston Astrodome • Houston

Houston topped off its winningest season ever by overwhelming Tulane, 47-7, in the 15th Annual Bluebonnet Bowl. With its victory over the Green Wave, the Cougars finished the season 11-1, which still ranks as one of the top two years in UH history.

Bill Yeoman's potent Triple Veer offense was at its best again in the Bluebonnet Bowl as a pair of players — Marshall Johnson and Donnie McGraw — gained over 100 yards rushing in the game. In all, the Cougars piled up 655 yards of total offense, including 402 on the ground. Flanker Bryan Willingham collected 105 yards on three catches while quarterback D.C. Nobles completed eight-of-13 passes for 201 yards.

Johnson gave early notice that it would be a long night for Tulane by speeding 75 yards on the Cougars' second offensive play to give UH a 7-0 lead. The Cougars extended that lead to 21-0 in the second period on a pair of Leonard Parker runs.

Tulane got on the scoreboard just before halftime on a 32-yard pass from Buddy Gilbert to Tom Fortner, cutting Houston's margin to 21-7 at the half.

The Cougars tallied four more rushing touchdowns in the second half while the UH defense held Tulane scoreless. Linebacker Deryl McGallion led the Houston defense on the day and was named the Most Outstanding Defensive Player. Houston forced nine Tulane punts and allowed the Green Wave only 10 first downs and 173 total yards on the day. Cougar defenders picked off four Tulane passes.

Quarterback Nobles scored on a keeper with 6:42 left in the third period to extend Houston's lead to 28-7. After a turnover, McGraw scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one-yard run with 5:28 left in the third.

McGraw added a 32-yard touchdown run to start the fourth quarter while backup QB David Husmann ended the scoring with a seven-yard run in the fourth.

A crowd of 44,358 saw UH post its record-setting 11th win and finish the year ranked ninth in the final Associated Press poll.

1974 BLUEBONNET BOWL

#15 Houston 31, #13 NC State 31

Dec. 23, 1974 • Houston Astrodome • Houston

In an offensive shootout at the 16th Annual Bluebonnet Bowl, Houston and North Carolina State combined to score 35 points in the final quarter on the way to a 31-31 tie before a crowd of 35,122 at the Astrodome.

The crowd saw the two teams pile up 876 yards of total offense, including 479 yards on the ground, with 45 first downs. Houston's John Housman gained 134 yards rushing on 21 carries and added a pair of touchdown runs as UH finished the year with an 8-3-1 overall record.

The first quarter was far from an indication of things to come as NC State earned the only points of the period on a 37-yard field goal by John Huff with 6:48 on the clock.

The Cougars evened the score early in the second stanza on Lennard Coplin's 21-yard field goal. Housman gained 38 yards on the drive that stalled at the NC State three.

The Wolfpack took a 10-3 halftime lead, but had been out-gained by UH, 175-123. Houston tied the score at 10 on a one-yard run by Housman at 9:32 of the third quarter. NC State came right back with a scoring drive of its own, with Dave Buckey hooking up with fullback Stan Fritts for the seven-yard touchdown pass to take the lead.

Then, the fireworks began. Houston tied the score on the first play of the fourth quarter on a 10-yard Johnson run, capping a 75-yard drive. Two possessions later, the Cougars took their first lead of the game on a Bluebonnet Bowl record 73-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Bubba McGallion to split end Eddie Foster. Coplin added the extra point and UH led, 24-17.

The Cougars extended their lead to 31-17 after an interception and 41-yard return by free safety Joe Rust gave UH the ball on the NC State 16-yard line. Four plays later, Housman hit paydirt on a five-yard run and UH led by two touchdowns.

NC State came back after a McGallion fumble stopped a UH drive. A couple of Buckey to George Gantt completions set up fullback Tommy London for a 9-yard touchdown run with 3:38 left in the game. The Wolfpack's 2-point conversion attempt failed, and Houston held on to a 31-23 lead.

The ensuing onside kick was recovered by State and after two plays netted 19 yards, Buckey hit tight end Pat Hovance with a 27-yard pass to the one. He scored on a quarterback sneak and Fritts ran for the 2-point conversion to tie the game.

Houston's comeback attempt died when McGallion was sacked and the Cougars punted with 27 seconds remaining. Buckey's last-ditch pass was intercepted by Rust, who fell to the ground as time ran out, ending one of the most exciting bowl games in school history.

1977 COTTON BOWL

#6 Houston 30, #4 Maryland 21

Jan. 1, 1977 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas

Houston stunned the Southwest Conference by winning the conference title in its first year of competition in the league, earning its first trip to a New Year's Day bowl. Then, the Cougars stunned fifth-ranked and undefeated Maryland, 30-21, in the 41st Annual Cotton Bowl Classic to achieve its highest final national ranking ever.

UH jumped out to a quick 21-0 lead on the Terps, and that lead, as well as a strong defensive showing in the second half, carried the Cougars to victory. Running backs Alois Blackwell and Dyral Thomas each gained over 100 yards with Blackwell's 149 yards on 22 carries leading Houston. His success came against a Maryland defense ranked second in the nation in rushing defense, and he was named the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player. UH cornerback Mark Mohr, who made seven tackles, broke up two passes, blocked a punt and recovered a fumble, was the Defensive MVP.

Houston's first score came on an 11-yard run by Thomas with 6:27 to go in the first quarter. The Cougars drove 80 yards in 11 plays with Blackwell's 23-yard gain highlighting the march.

Mohr blocked Maryland punter Mike Sochko's kick, giving UH possession on the 38. Two plays later, Blackwell broke through a hole and went 33 yards for the touchdown.

Another Maryland mistake, this one a fumble on the kickoff recovered by Mohr, returned the ball to Houston on the Terps 24-yard line. Five straight rushing plays resulted in Blackwell's one-yard run and a 21-0 UH lead. Maryland had surrendered only 22 total points in the first quarter in the first 11 games of the year.

Maryland came back with a six-yard scoring run by quarterback Mark Manges. Both defenses tightened and the teams exchanged punts until Houston began a drive at its own three-yard line with 3:17 left in the half. A pair of runs by Davis and Blackwell netted 29 yards, and on second-and-six from the Maryland 33, split end Don Bass grabbed Davis' pass (one of just two first-half passes) and went the distance. Lennard Coplin's kick failed, but Houston owned a 27-7 halftime lead.

Maryland drove to the Houston four on its first possession of the second half, but on fourth and goal UM wingback Chuck White was stopped short of the goal line by UH's Vincent Greenwood. Thomas fumbled, giving Maryland the ball on the UH 35. This time the Terps converted with an 11-yard completion from Manges to tight end Eric Sievers.

Another UH fumble put Maryland on the Houston 30 three series later, and again the Terps capitalized. Fullback Tim Wilson went over from the one, and the extra point closed the UH lead to 27-21 with 8:46 left in the game.

After a punt by each team, Houston regained the ball on its own seven and embarked on a 14-play, 81-yard drive that would result in a game-clinching field goal by Coplin. The key play came on fourth-and-one on the Maryland 41 with 1:56 left when Thomas went 32 yards for the first down. When the drive stalled at the 12, Coplin hit a 28-yard field goal to seal the win and the No. 4 final ranking.

1979 COTTON BOWL

#10 Notre Dame 35, #9 Houston 34

Jan. 1, 1979 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas

In bone-chilling cold, Notre Dame made one of the greatest comebacks in bowl history, scoring 23 points in the final 7:37 to record a 35-34 win over Houston in the 43rd Annual Cotton Bowl Classic. The game will be forever remembered, not only for the cold and the comeback, but as the "coming out" party for Fighting Irish quarterback Joe Montana, who would go on to become one of the best quarterbacks in NFL history.

The Irish scored the game-winning touchdown with no time left on the clock when Montana tossed an eight-yard pass to split end Kris Haines. Kicker Joe Unis' PAT provided the difference in a heart-wrenching loss for UH.

Houston had scored 34 straight points after Notre Dame took a 12-0 lead in the first quarter. The Irish scored on a three-yard Montana run and a one-yard rush by fullback Pete Buchanan on successive drives in the first to take the lead. Both conversion attempts failed.

After ND's Dave Waymer fumbled a punt, Houston gained the ball on the Notre Dame 12, and two plays later, quarterback Danny Davis threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to split end Willis Adams. The score stood at 12-7 at the end of the first quarter.

A bevy of fumbles, interceptions and near interceptions marked second quarter action with most of the balls bouncing Houston's way. On fourth-and-goal, fullback Randy Love bulled over from the one to cap a six-play, 21-yard drive and give UH a 14-12 lead. Kenny Hatfield intercepted a Montana pass on the next possession and his 25-yard return put the Cougars on the Notre Dame 25. Hatfield was true on the 21-yard field goal.

Another Montana interception led to Hatfield's second three-pointer of the quarter, and a 20-12 UH halftime lead. The field goal, with just three seconds left in the half, came after a 39-yard, seven-play drive highlighted by a 16-yard completion from Davis to Eric Herring. Hatfield hit the cross bar, but his 34-yarder bounced over and was good.

Houston scored on a pair of Davis runs in the third period. His first score, from two yards out, ended a 38-yard, eight-play drive. UH's Bobby Harrison blocked Notre Dame kicker Dick Boushka's punt and the Cougars turned that turnover into seven points on Davis' five-yard touchdown run at 4:40.

The fourth quarter was a battle of field position until Notre Dame blocked UH punter Jay Wyatt's kick and took over on the Houston 11. Three plays resulted in a loss of three yards and on fourth-and-13 from the UH 14, Montana's pass was incomplete. However, UH could not move the ball, and Wyatt's next punt was also blocked. This one was recovered by Irish strong safety Steve Cichy and returned 33 yards for a Notre Dame touchdown. The two point conversion from Montana to Vagas Ferguson was good and Houston's lead stood at 34-20.

Notre Dame's defense held, forcing another Wyatt punt. Montana completed two passes for 47 yards, then used a pass interference call to reach the Houston three. On third down from the two, Montana scampered in for the score. He then hit Haines with the two-point conversion pass to make it a six-point game.

Houston was forced to punt again, but the Irish's next drive ended when Montana fumbled with less than two minutes on the clock and UH's Tommy Ebner recovered. Houston advanced to its 29, and on fourth-and-one, sent running back Emmett King over left tackle to try and run out the clock. King was stopped for no gain, and Notre Dame and Montana had 29 yards to go in 28 seconds.

Montana gained 11 yards around right end on first down, then passed for 10 to Haines. After an incompletion, the Notre Dame QB hit Haines from eight yards out for the tying score. Unis' PAT completed the comeback.

BOWL HISTORY

1980 COTTON BOWL

#8 Houston 17, #7 Nebraska 14

Jan. 1, 1980 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas

Houston quarterback Terry Elston hit Eric Herring with a six-yard touchdown pass with 12 seconds left to give the Cougars a 17-14 victory over seventh-ranked Nebraska in the 1980 Cotton Bowl. The victory lifted UH to an 11-1 record on the year, tying the most wins in school history, and a No. 5 final national ranking.

The Houston defense limited a potent Nebraska offense to just 227 yards on the day, less than half of their season average. The Cornhuskers, featuring Jarvis Redwine and I.M. Hipp, gained just 136 yards on 41 carries and tallied only 13 first downs in the game. Elston led Houston with 87 yards rushing on 22 carries while fullback John Newhouse added 64 yards. Herring caught five passes for 51 yards.

Nebraska jumped out to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a nine-yard scoring run by Redwine. The teams then traded punts until Houston tied the game on Elston's eight-yard run and Kenny Hatfield's extra point at 12:17 of the second quarter. Elston's 27-yard pass to Lonell Phea on third-and-six to the Nebraska 15 proved to be the key play of the drive.

Through the next two quarters, the teams traded punts and turnovers with neither team reaching its opponents' 30. The entire third quarter, in fact, was a series of "three and outs."

Then Houston embarked on a 59-yard, 13-play drive that resulted in a 41-yard Hatfield field goal. Again, Elston hit Phea for a gain of 20 on the drive, which reached the Nebraska 24 before Hatfield's kick. Houston took a 10-7 lead with 8:25 left.

Houston forced another Nebraska punt, but gave the ball back one play later when Newhouse fumbled. From first down on the Houston 31, the Cornhuskers drove to the six, where Quinn hit tight end Jeff Finn with a six-yard touchdown pass. Dean Sukup added the extra point to give NU a 14-10 lead with less than four minutes to play.

Starting on its own 34, the Cougars began a purposeful march downfield. Twice, they converted on third downs until reaching the Nebraska 20 with 59 seconds to play. An Elston to Herring hookup gained 11, but the next three plays netted just five yards, and the Cougars faced fourth-and-goal from the six with 19 seconds left.

Then Elston found Herring cutting across the goal line for the touchdown, and Hatfield added the extra point to give UH a come-from-behind Cotton Bowl victory of its own.

1980 GARDEN STATE BOWL

Houston 35, Navy 0

Houston put on one of its most impressive offensive and defensive performances of the season in downing Navy, 35-0, in Garden State Bowl III at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J.

Running back Terald Clark sparked the offense with 163 yards on 26 carries and three touchdowns, while All-America linebacker Leonard Mitchell made key tackles, recovered a fumble and broke up a pass to lead UH defensively. The Cougars gained 405 of their 450 yards on the ground, while limiting Navy to just 200 yards in total offense. Navy had brought the nation's sixth-rated defense and 10th-best rushing defense into the game, but turnovers and special teams blunders cost the Midshipmen.

Houston scored on its first drive, going 31 yards on eight plays after a Navy fumble to take a 7-0 lead. Clark scored on a one-yard run and Jeff Shaffer added the PAT.

A blocked punt by UH's Leo Truss helped lead to Houston's next score, a one-yard effort by quarterback Terry Elston. Clark gained 25 yards on the 43-yard drive as all 10 plays were on the ground. The Cougars took a 14-0 lead after one quarter.

Houston added two more touchdowns in the second period, while Navy kicker Steve Fehr missed a 27-yard field goal, spoiling the Middies' best scoring chance of the day. At 7:51 of the second quarter, Houston's David Barrett scored on a 14-yard run after a 69-yard, seven-play drive.

Navy fumbled the ball on the kickoff and UH's Calvin Eason recovered on the Navy 26. Clark went all 26 yards on the first play behind a block by guard Jeff Faniel, and Elston scored the two-point conversion on a keeper to give UH a 28-0 halftime lead.

The Cougars scored the final points of the contest on their first drive of the second half. After a 71-yard, 13-play march, Clark scored from the two to notch his third touchdown of the day and give UH an insurmountable 35-0 lead.

BOWL HISTORY

1981 SUN BOWL

Oklahoma 40, Houston 14

Dec. 26, 1981 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

Oklahoma scored 30 points in the fourth quarter to break open a close game and hand Houston its worst bowl defeat ever, 40-14, at the 47th Annual Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas.

Oklahoma's Fred Sims gained 181 yards on 15 carries and quarterback Darrell Shepard added 107 yards and two rushing touchdowns to lead the Sooners. UH quarterback Lionel Wilson completed 17-of-28 passes for 216 yards to lead the Cougar offense, but Houston committed four turnovers in the game, including one very costly one.

A fumble on what looked like a sure Houston touchdown proved to be the turning point in the game. Following the fumble, Oklahoma scored on four straight possessions to cement the victory.

Trailing 10-7, UH halfback Robert Durham caught a Wilson pass at the OU 47-yard line and had open territory to the end zone. But Oklahoma defender Elbert Watts knocked the ball loose at the three and it went out of the end zone for a touchback. Oklahoma took over on its 20 and advanced quickly to the Cougar nine on Shepard's 42-yard run. Three plays later, Shepard went one yard up the middle for the touchdown and a 17-7 Oklahoma lead.

From there the wheels began to come off. After a 14-yard Houston punt, Oklahoma's Michael Keeling ended a Sooner drive by kicking his second field goal of the day – this from 49 yards out – to boost the Sooners' lead to 20-7.

The Cougars' next possession ended in a fumble, and Sims soon broke a 30-yard run for a score and a 27-7 Oklahoma lead. Houston answered with its last touchdown of the day, going 74 yards on 13 plays. Donald Jordan scored on a six-yard run and Mike Clendenen added the point after, but UH trailed 27-14 with less than three minutes remaining.

Oklahoma recovered UH's onside kick attempt and Sims ripped off another long run, this one of 48 yards, to set up Ron Mills' two-yard score. Keeling missed the PAT, but it was the only thing that went wrong for OU in the quarter. The Sooners scored their final touchdown on a 28-yard interception return by defensive end John Truitt, ending a nightmare quarter for Houston.

Shepard was named the game's MVP. Houston ended its season, the third straight in which it went to a bowl game, with a 7-4-1 record.

1985 COTTON BOWL

#8 Boston College 45, Houston 28

Jan. 1, 1985 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas

Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie brought his Boston College Eagles to Dallas, but it was the rushing of Flutie's backfield mates that proved the difference in BC's 45-28 victory over Houston in the 49th Annual Cotton Bowl.

Flutie threw for 180 yards and three touchdowns, but completed only 13-of-37 throws on the day and was intercepted twice. Running backs Troy Stradford and Mike Strachan teamed to doom Houston; Stradford gained 196 yards on 20 carries while Strachan added 91 yards on 23 rushes and was named the game's MVP.

The game was a series of scoring runs. Boston College would jump out to an advantage, and Houston would battle back. The pattern continued until the fourth quarter when the Eagles would not let UH answer after it extended a 31-28 lead to the final margin of 45-28.

Boston College jumped out to a 14-0 first quarter advantage on a pair of Flutie touchdown passes. A 63-yard completion to Kelvin Martin started the scoring, and an eight-yard pass from Flutie to Stradford followed a UH fumble. Houston answered immediately when Earl Allen took the ensuing kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown. Mike Clendenen kicked the extra point, and the Cougars trailed 14-7.

An interception by the Eagles led to a 31-yard field goal by BC's Kevin Snow at the end of the first quarter.

Boston College added two touchdowns to extend its lead to 31-7. Flutie hit Gerard Phelan, who caught seven passes in the first half, over the middle for a 13-yard touchdown after driving BC 53 yards in five plays. UH quarterback Gerald Landry was then intercepted on Houston's next play, and once again Boston College capitalized. Strachan scored on a two-yard run after Flutie had picked up 27 yards on a scramble to the two.

Houston came back before the half when Landry hit Larry Shepherd with a 15-yard touchdown pass. Landry's 38-yard completion to tight end Carl Hilton was the biggest play of the UH scoring drive.

The Cougars made it close in the third. After five punts to start the period, Houston mounted a scoring march, thanks to a 26-yard Landry to Hilton completion and a 33-yard run by Raymond Tate to set up Tate's two-yard touchdown jaunt. Then, Audrey McMillian intercepted a Flutie pass at the Boston College 25 and took it back for the touchdown, bringing the Cougars within three at 31-28.

On Houston's next possession, a couple of costly penalties hurt the Cougars and slowed their momentum. Boston College, uncharacteristically, went to its running game, and nine straight rushes resulted in a four-yard Strachan touchdown and a 38-28 BC lead.

Another turnover stopped the Cougars and they were unable to take advantage of Flutie's second interception of the half. Stradford provided the final margin when he scored on an 18-yard run with 1:08 remaining.

Hilton caught five passes for 97 yards for UH, which finished the season with a 7-5 record.

BOWL HISTORY

1988 ALOHA BOWL

#18 Washington State 24, #14 Houston 22
Dec. 25, 1988 • Aloha Bowl • Honolulu

In a battle of Cougars, Washington State scored 24 points in the second quarter and shut down Houston's potent run-and-shoot offense to claim a 24-22 win in the 1988 Aloha Bowl in Honolulu, Hawai'i.

Washington State piled up 216 yards rushing and added 154 through the air while holding UH to 68 rushing yards and 309 yards overall. Tailback Steve Broussard led WSU with 139 yards on the ground, and QB Timm Rosenbach threw for 306.

James Dixon started the game off well for UH by taking the opening kickoff 84 yards to the Washington State 15-yard line. The Cougars advanced to the 10 before Roman Anderson's 27-yard field goal gave UH a 3-0 lead.

Washington State drove to the UH four, but Rosenbach was sacked, and his fumble was recovered by Houston's Keith Jenkins. The teams traded punts until WSU's Vernon Todd intercepted an André Ware pass at his own 45-yard line. Broussard bobbled a handoff and fumbled at the UH five, but WSU flanker Victor Wood recovered and took the ball the remaining five yards for the touchdown.

After forcing a Houston punt, WSU started on an 80-yard drive. Rosenbach hit Wood from 15 yards out with 8:39 left in the half, and Jason Hanson's PAT made it WSU 14, UH 3. Ware's next pass was intercepted and returned to the Houston 15. Hanson's 33-yard field goal extended the Cougars' lead to 17-3.

Houston pulled to within eight on its next possession when Ware hit Jason Phillips for a 44-yard completion and Chuck Weatherspoon scored on a one-yard run for UH's first touchdown of the day. However, Roman Anderson missed what would prove to be a crucial extra point attempt following Weatherspoon's score.

Washington State answered with a 10-play, 75-yard drive before halftime. Rosenbach scored from the one, and WSU led 24-9 at the break.

Houston's Cougars were not able to mount a drive in the third quarter until David Dacus replaced Ware with 6:07 on the clock. He quickly hit Kevin Mason with a 53-yard bomb down the right sideline. After a failed conversion pass, Houston trailed 24-15.

Washington State penetrated to the Houston eight, where Alton Montgomery stepped in front of a Rosenbach pass at the goal line and took it all the way back to the WSU 28 for a 72-yard return. Weatherspoon and Dacus combined to take the Cougars the rest of the way, with Weatherspoon earning the touchdown on a shovel pass from Dacus. After the Anderson PAT, Houston trailed by two with 13:16 left in the game.

Washington State's next drive stalled on the UH 34, where Rosenbach's pass on fourth and three fell incomplete. Houston was unable to sustain a drive and the teams exchanged punts. Houston got the ball back with 5:16 left and drove from its own 20 to the WSU 31. From there, Dacus hit Dixon with a 21-yard pass to the 10. Dixon eluded one tackle, but was hit by linebacker Tuineau Alipate and fumbled. The ball rolled to the five, where it was recovered by WSU's Artie Holmes with 2:44 left. WSU ran out the clock to secure the 24-22 victory.

1996 LIBERTY BOWL

#23 Syracuse 30, Houston 17
Dec. 26, 1996 • Liberty Bowl • Memphis, Tenn.

Houston's return to post-season play in the 38th Annual St. Jude Liberty Bowl marked a remarkable turnaround for the UH program under Kim Helton.

The Cougars headed into Memphis as one of the hottest teams in the country having won their last three games of the season to earn a share of the Conference USA championship.

On this day the rushing attack of the Orangemen proved to be too much for Houston's defense as UH fell to Syracuse 30-17 in front of 49,163 fans at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium and an ESPN national television audience.

Syracuse struck first after the initial kickoff with a four-play, 80-yard touchdown scoring drive. Quarterback Donovan McNabb scored from one yard out to put SU on top 7-0.

Houston returned the favor on its first drive of the game with a four-play, 77-yard scoring drive of its own. Quarterback Chuck Clements hit tailback Antowain Smith twice, including a touchdown reception of 21 yards to even the score at 7-7. A Clements to Scott Regimbald 51-yard pass put the Cougars in scoring position to set up Smith's reception.

With 9:02 left in the second period, the SU rushing attack struck again when fullback Rob Konrad reached the end zone to up the score to 14-7. Later in the quarter Syracuse extended its lead to 16-7 after a snap sailed over the head of Houston punter Ignacio Sauceda as he stood deep in UH territory.

Houston came back before halftime as Smith rushed three times for 63 yards, including a 51-yard jaunt from UH's 46-yard line to SU's 3. He finished the drive with a three-yard touchdown run to pull Houston within two points going into the lockerroom.

The second half was far less eventful as both teams went scoreless in the third quarter. It was not until the clock read 13:52 in the final period that Syracuse's McNabb scored his second touchdown of the day, on a two-yard run, to give the Orangemen a 23-14 lead.

Houston was only able to put three more points on the board as Sebastian Villarreal hit a 23-yard field goal with 10:50 left in the game.

As it turned out, the ground game of Syracuse was just too much for the Cougar defense. Thomas rushed into the endzone from six yards out to put an end to the day's scoring at 30-17.

BOWL HISTORY

2003 SHERATON HAWAI'I BOWL

Hawai'i 54, Houston 48 (3 OT)

Dec. 25, 2003 • Aloha Stadium • Honolulu

In an "Instant Classic" performance, the University of Houston and the University of Hawai'i battled for over four hours and three overtimes before the Warriors concluded Christmas Day with a 54-48 win over the Cougars.

The fact that the game made it to overtime was a testament to the never-say-die attitude of the Cougars. With Hawai'i ahead by seven in the waning moments of regulation, the Cougars eventful season looked to be over as the Warriors lined up for a 29-yard field with just over a minute to play. When the field-goal attempt went wide, the Cougars still had a chance. And, the Red and White did not disappoint.

In what will be described as "Vincent's Run", the Cougars tied the game up on a miraculous play. Facing a third-and-11 from their own 19-yard line with less than 30 seconds left to play, Kevin Kolb found Vincent Marshall on a quick pass that Marshall turned into an 81-yard touchdown as he outraced the Warrior secondary to tie the game.

Both teams scored touchdowns in both the first and second overtimes, setting the stage for the dramatic third overtime. The Warriors took the lead on an eight-yard run by Michael Brewster, but UH's Will Gulley intercepted Hawai'i's two-point attempt.

The Cougars took over on their possession, needing a touchdown to send it to a fourth overtime, but more importantly, could get the two points needed for the victory; however, the Cougars failed to convert on fourth down.

Houston jumped on the board first after taking the opening kickoff and driving down the field to score first. Kolb hooked up with Chad McCullar from 34 yards out to give Houston a quick 7-0 lead. A Dustin Bell field goal on the next possession increased the lead to 10-0.

The Warriors tied the score up by scoring the game's next 10 points on a 19-yard field goal and a 48 yard pass from Timmy Chang, who relieved starter Jason Whieldon, to Clifton Herbert.

The Cougars regained the lead on the first of three rushing touchdowns by Jackie Battle, and then increased their advantage to 20-10 with Bell's second field goal on the afternoon.

Hawai'i took control of the game by scoring 17 unanswered points, including two more scoring tosses by Chang. After an exchange of touchdowns by Houston and Hawai'i, the Warriors took the lead again when Chang hooked up with Jason Ribers from four yards out with less than 10 minutes to play, which set the stage for Marshall's heroics.

Battle was named the MVP for the Cougars after rushing for a career-high 124 yards and three touchdowns.

2005 FORT WORTH BOWL

Kansas 42, Houston 13

Dec. 23, 2005 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth , Texas

Jason Swanson threw for 307 yards and four touchdowns, one more than he had in the regular season, and the Kansas Jayhawks beat Houston 42-13 in the Fort Worth Bowl for their first winning season and first bowl victory in 10 years.

Tailback Jon Cornish turned two shovel passes from Swanson into scores, and also rushed for 101 yards on 16 carries. Brian Murph, who hadn't returned a kick all season, turned a muffed punt into an 85-yard score in the first quarter that put the Jayhawks (7-5) ahead to stay. He also caught a 48-yard TD pass.

Houston (6-6) has lost six straight bowls since winning the 1980 Garden State Bowl.

Swanson started his fifth straight game, going 19-for-29 in his fourth victory and earning MVP honors. The senior was the third starting quarterback used by Kansas this year. He hurt his leg during the preseason, but took over in late October after Adam Barrman and Brian Luke struggled.

Cougars junior quarterback Kevin Kolb started his 36th straight game and became the career total offense leader at the school where David Klingler and André Ware also threw passes. Kolb was 20-of-44 passing for 214 yards with three interceptions, all turned into scores by Kansas.

Kolb had a 1-yard sneak for Houston's only touchdown. The Cougars were held to a season-worst 244 total yards after leading Conference USA with 457 a game during the regular season. Kansas had 538 yards.

Charlton Keith got between Kolb and his intended receiver on a quick-out pass in the fourth quarter. He jumped up and grabbed the pass, then sprinted 14 yards and dived into the end zone.

Theo Barnes had two interceptions for the Jayhawks. The first set up Cornish's 30-yard TD catch in the third quarter, and the second led to Murph's TD catch with 9 minutes left for the final touchdown.

Five minutes into the game, Murph muffed a punt. The ball rolled several yards away from him before he picked it up, circled around several defenders and ran all the way to the left sideline. He then cut back across the field and slipped past a tackler into the open.

Swanson had completions of 31 and 19 yards on the first two plays, but the Jayhawks didn't get another first down on the opening drive. The Cougars then went three-and-out before Justin Laird's 57-yard punt that Murph muffed.

Cornish's first TD was a 13-yard play in the second quarter. Mark Simmons added a 32-yard score in the third when he caught Swanson's pass near the 20, then was free when he twisted inside and the defender slipped.

2006 AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL

South Carolina 44, Houston 36

Dec. 29, 2006 • Liberty Bowl • Memphis, Tenn.

With 56,103 in attendance, the University of Houston football team took to the field December 29, 2006 at the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. Houston faced off against the South Carolina Gamecocks of the SEC in just the third-ever meeting between the two schools.

After scoring four touchdowns in the first half, Houston was unable to hold off the Gamecocks, falling 44-36, in what CollegeFootballNews.com named the 4th-best bowl game of 2006.

The Cougars took an early lead off a 32-yard pass from Kevin Kolb to Vincent Marshall on their first drive of the game. But, the Gamecocks responded late in the first quarter on their second drive with a 2-yard touchdown run by Cory Boyd.

Down a touchdown in the second quarter, Kolb connected with Mark Hafner on a 4-yard pass to even the game at 14 all. Houston would regain the lead with 2:09 left in the first half when Jackie Battle scored from 42 yards out, running untouched to the end zone.

With the first half winding down, Houston scored again when Marshall broke away for a 77-yard touchdown run. It was the longest catch in the Liberty Bowl since 1997, when Pittsburgh had an 89-yard pass against Southern Miss.

With 55 points scored in the first half, Houston and South Carolina combined for the highest scoring half in Liberty Bowl history.

The third quarter proved to be all about defense. South Carolina scored the only points of the quarter on a 45-yard field goal by Ryan Succop. They took that momentum into the fourth quarter, scoring two touchdowns. The Gamecock's Blake Mitchell connected with Kenny McKinley on both scoring plays.

The Cougars pulled within eight points with just under six minutes left in the game, when Battle scored on a 3-yard run and Anthony Alridge completed the two-point conversion; however, it wouldn't be enough as South Carolina held off Houston for the win.

"We were very excited and anxious about the game, and I think we performed well as a football team. In a couple of instances we had a couple of unforced errors that I will take the fall for. But, just like our team has all season long; we battled hard. Our guys played hard, they fought hard, they believed. That's an inspiration to me as a coach," head coach Art Briles said after the game.

The two teams combined for 1,039 yards of total offense, the most ever in Liberty Bowl history. Houston gained 527 yards and the Gamecocks had 512.

Kolb was named Houston's Outstanding Offensive Player after completing 26-of-39 passes for 386 yards and three touchdowns. With his three tackles, one interception and one pass break up, Willie Gaston was named Houston's Outstanding Defensive Player.

2007 TEXAS BOWL

TCU 20, Houston 13

Dec. 28, 2007 • Reliant Stadium • Houston

The Cougars had a late rally come up short and dropped a 20-13 decision to TCU in the 2007 Texas Bowl at Reliant Stadium.

Houston pulled within seven after a 32-yard field goal from T.J. Lawrence with 1:57 left in the game. TCU (8-5) won its eighth-straight game over Houston, dating back to 1993.

The Cougars got the ball back with 1:32 left after a three-and-out stand by the defense and started from their own two-yard line.

Case Keenum engineered a seven-play 79-yard drive that had the Cougars at the TCU 19-yard line with 14 seconds remaining. UH had three shots at the end zone but came up short on all three.

Donnie Avery made four catches for 60 yards in the march down the field. He finished with 10 catches for 120 yards.

Keenum threw a fade into the end zone that was just over the finger tips of Jeron Harvey and couldn't connect on a jump ball to L.J. Castile. On the game's final play, Keenum was flushed out of the pocket and hit as he threw by TCU's Chase Ortiz and the ball ended up in the dirt, handing the Cougars their eighth-straight bowl defeat.

Keenum finished 23-of-38 for a career best and Texas Bowl record 335 yards and a touchdown. He was sacked five times on the night. He also set bowl records for completions (23), attempts (38) and longest touchdown pass (67 yards).

Rocky Schwartz led all players with a Texas Bowl record 16 tackles including 15 solo stops.

Leading 10-7 at halftime, the Cougars struggled offensively in the third quarter tallying 19 yards and one first down.

TCU tied things up at 10 after Chris Manfredini hit a 29-yard field goal with 4:56 left in the third quarter.

The Horned Frogs added 10 more points in the fourth quarter after a seven-yard run by Justin Watts with 14:28 left and a 36-yard field goal from Manfredini with 7:28 left in the game.

The Cougars opened up the scoring in the game late in the first quarter after Keenum connected with Andre Kohn on a 67-yard touchdown strike. The play capped a two-play drive that took just 57 seconds. It was the longest play from scrimmage in Texas Bowl history.

TCU tied things up with 10:24 left in the half after Andy Dalton called an 11-play 75-yard drive with a three-yard touchdown scamper. Dalton, the Texas Bowl MVP, finished 20-for-30 for 249 yards and an interception. He also added 14 yards rushing and was sacked twice.

Houston took a 10-7 lead on the heels of a 36-yard field goal by Lawrence with 10 seconds left in the first half.

Anthony Alridge was held to a season-low 29 yards rushing and four-yards receiving. Overall, UH was held to 32 yards rushing and no touchdowns.

Brian Bonner and Jason Phillips tallied 10 tackles apiece to lead the TCU defense. Phillips also added two tackles for a loss and a sack.

Chase Turner set three Texas Bowl punting records including the longest punt in bowl history (65 yards), highest gross punting average (50.2) and most punts (6).

2008 BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL

Houston 34, Air Force 28

Freshman running back Bryce Beall rushed for 135 yards and a touchdown and added 92 receiving yards to help lead the University of Houston football team to a 34-28 win over Air Force during the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Beall, who accounted for 229 yards of all-purpose yards, finished the season with 1,247 rushing yards, becoming the first freshman in school history to reach that milestone.

With the win, the Cougars finished the season with an 8-5 record and won their first bowl game since a 35-0 decision over Navy during the 1980 Garden State Bowl in East Rutherford, N.J., on Dec. 22, 1980. The win snapped an eight-game losing skid in bowl games.

Sophomore quarterback Case Keenum threw for 252 yards and a touchdown on 22-of-33 passing but saw his school-record streak of consecutive 300-yard passing games snapped at 13 straight games dating back to last season.

The game started on a positive note for the Cougars when Roisean Haynes forced a fumble on the opening kickoff and junior Brandon Brinkley jumped on the loose ball to set up the offense on the Air Force 25.

Four plays later, Beall plunged into the end zone from one yard out to hand the Cougars an early 7-0 lead.

Air Force wasted little time in knotting the game at 7-7. Taking over on their 23-yard line, the Falcons marched 77 yards in little less than two minutes with six straight rushing plays and tied the game on Jared Tew's 2-yard touchdown run.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Cougars embarked on an eight-play, 65-yard drive that was capped by Keenum's 1-yard sneak into the end zone.

Later in the period, freshman linebacker Marcus McGraw stripped Asher Clark of the ball at the Air Force 24 and senior defensive end Phillip Hunt pounced on the loose ball and returned it to the Air Force 14. However, the Falcon defense stiffened and freshman kicker Jordan Mannisto's nailed a 22-yard field goal with four seconds remaining in the period.

On its ensuing possession, Air Force marched 76 yards in 12 plays and pulled to within a field goal at 17-14 on Tim Jefferson's 5-yard touchdown run at the 9:52 mark of the second quarter.

After a Cougar punt, a missed 28-yard field goal by Air Force and another UH punt, Air Force tied the game at 17-17 when Ryan Harrison booted a 44-yard field with 2:28 left in the first half.

Air Force looked ready to grab its first lead of the game when a Cougar fumble on the ensuing kickoff put the Falcons at the UH 29-yard line with 2:21 remaining. But the UH defense stiffened and pushed AFA back nine yards then Harrison missed from 55 yards out.

The two teams traded scoring possessions in the third quarter. UH took the opening kickoff and marched 69 yards on a seven-play drive that was capped on Keenum's 4-yard touchdown run with 12:28 remaining in the period for a 24-17 lead.

Air Force took over on the next possession on an 18-play drive that consumed 51 yards and took more than eight-and-a-half minutes off the clock. However the Cougar defense limited the Falcons to Harrison's 37-yard field goal with 3:46 left in the period to maintain a 24-20 advantage.

Houston looked to take control of the game, extending their lead, 31-20 on 20-yard field goal attempt by Mannisto and a punt by the Falcons on their next possession.

Five plays later, Keenum's pass to senior tight end Mark Hafner was intercepted and returned 19 yards by Aaron Kirchoff. The Falcons would pull within three after the interception on a 3-yard rushing touchdown by Tim Jefferson.

2009 BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL

Air Force 47, rv/#25 Houston 20

Dec. 31, 2009 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Asher Clark and Jared Tew each ran for more than 100 yards with two touchdowns and Air Force's top-ranked pass defense had six interceptions against Case Keenum, leading the Falcons to a 47-20 victory over Houston in the Armed Forces Bowl.

Air Force's plan to limit Keenum and the nation's most explosive offense worked almost flawlessly. The Falcons ran for 402 yards to go with Tim Jefferson's effective passing (10 of 14 for 161 yards), holding the ball for 41 minutes and then coming up with the big defensive plays.

Keenum, who leads the nation in yards passing, was 24 of 41 with a season-low 222 yards and a touchdown for the Cougars (10-4). The six picks were a career high. In his other 13 games this season, he had only nine interceptions while throwing for 5,449 yards and 43 touchdowns.

After Air Force went ahead on Clark's 36-yard TD to cap the opening drive of the game, Keenum's first pass attempt deflected off his falling receiver and was intercepted by Wright. That set up Tew's 6-yard TD run for a 14-0 lead.

Tew finished with 26 carries for 173 yards, He had a 71-yard TD with 3:32 left in the game after Keenum tossed his fifth interception.

Clark had 17 carries for 129 yards for the Falcons, who had lost in the Armed Forces Bowl the past two seasons, including 34-28 to Houston a year ago. Air Force had lost three postseason games since winning in the 2000 Silicon Valley Bowl.

Houston's bowl win last year capped coach Kevin Sumlin's debut season and snapped an eight-game postseason losing streak that had spanned 28 years.

After Houston was held without a touchdown before halftime, Tyron Carrier returned the opening kickoff of the second half 79 yards for his fourth TD this season. He took the ball near the left sideline, then ran to the middle of the field before shooting through a gap and running untouched to get the Cougars within 24-13.

Air Force immediately responded with its first kickoff return for a touchdown since 1985. Jonathan Warzeka fielded the ball and stepped back into the end zone before running 100 yards. Five Houston players got their hands on him, but couldn't get him down.

According to STATS LLC, which has such data only since 1996, it was only the sixth game in that span involving FBS teams when there were kickoff returns for touchdowns on consecutive plays. None of them had been in a bowl game.

After the kickoff returns, Keenum threw a 10-yard TD to Patrick Edwards to make it 31-20, but that was all the Cougars got.

That gave Keenum a TD pass in 30 consecutive games , but this was the first time in that streak that he had more picks than scores.

The Cougars entered the Fort Worth Bowl leading the nation in total yards (581) while averaging 44 points. They managed only 331 total yards against the Falcons.

Air Force had allowed only 149 yards passing a game this season, even after giving up 377 in its regular-season finale at BYU.

Clark's 22-yard TD midway through the second quarter, when he took a pitch to the right and ran untouched to the end zone, made it 21-3. The only pass on that 11-play drive was a 13-yard completion by Jefferson, who by then was 5 of 5 for 71 yards, 10 more than Keenum.

When Jefferson slipped down trying to run on third-and-goal from the 2 with 17 seconds and no timeouts left just before halftime, he quickly got the offense off the field and the kicking team got out in time for Erik Soderberg's 27-yard field goal that made it 24-6.

2012 TICKET CITY BOWL

#20/17 Houston 30, #24/23 Penn State 14

Jan. 1, 2012 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas

Case Keenum finished his record-setting career with another performance for the history books.

The sixth-year senior threw for 532 yards and three touchdowns, leading No. 20 Houston to 30-14 victory against No. 24 Penn State in the TicketCity Bowl.

The Cougars (13-1) finished with a school record for victories and made Tony Levine a winner in his debut as Houston coach. Levine took over when Kevin Sumlin left to take the Texas A&M job after the regular season.

Keenum came into the game as the NCAA's career leader in yards passing and touchdowns passes, then set a bowl record with 227 yards passing in the first quarter.

"I'm biased, obviously. I'd put him right at the top," Levine said when asked where Keenum ranks among the best college quarterbacks of all time. "You don't win 13 games by accident and I don't think you don't break the records he broke by accident, either."

Keenum wasn't concerned with his place. He leaves Houston as the school career leader with 37 wins, and that's what he chose to focus on.

"As far as rankings and all that goes, I'm concerned with our team ranking and how we end up," Keenum said. "Thirteen and one, I hope we end up in the top 15 in the country."

"I thought the guys came out and they played hard. It's been a difficult year for them," Penn State interim coach Tom Bradley said. "It just didn't go our way."

The Nittany Lions (9-4) were picked apart by Keenum. Penn State was allowing 162 yards passing per game, but Keenum threw for more than double that by halftime.

The Cougars raced out to a 17-0 lead in the first quarter behind Keenum's record-setting period. According to TicketCity officials, Louisville's Browning Nagle had the old mark with 223 yards against Alabama in the first quarter of the 1991 Fiesta Bowl.

Keenum worked the spread offense to perfection, with five different Cougars catching at least five balls. Patrick Edwards, one of the country's leading receivers, had 228 yards and two scores in the last game of his collegiate career. Justin Johnson had 12 catches for 148 yards.

Keenum is the ninth player in bowl history to pass for at least 500 yards. He thought he could have done better.

"We left a lot out there," Keenum said. "There were a lot of throws I missed."

Houston came into the game determined to end the season on a high note having its BCS Bowl hopes dashed on Dec. 3. The undefeated Cougars fell to Southern Miss in the Conference USA championship game, costing UH a shot at the school's first BCS bid.

"That was the fluke," Levine said of the lone loss, "and not the 12 wins leading up to it."

Penn State quarterback Rob Bolden finished 7 of 26 passing for 137 yards, with three interceptions. Houston wanted Bolden, the backup quarterback all season, to air it out as much as possible.

"We know they were going to try to run the ball," Cougars linebacker Marcus McGraw said. "We just wanted to get them in second and long, third and long, and wanted them to pass the ball knowing they had a second-string quarterback."

2014 BBVA COMPASS BOWL

Vanderbilt 41, Houston 24

Jan. 4, 2014 • Legion Field • Birmingham, Ala.

Markeith Ambles had a touchdown catch as Houston rallied to pull even after trailing by 24 points, but the Cougars couldn't keep pace and Vanderbilt controlled the fourth quarter for a 41-24 victory in the BBVA Compass Bowl.

Ambles, a former top high school recruit who began his career at Southern California, had six catches for 105 yards, including a 6-yard touchdown catch.

Houston coach Tony Levine said he anticipated Ambles' breakout game after the junior had only 11 catches in nine regular-season games. He joined the program late in preseason practice and made his debut the third week of the season.

Houston gained only 22 yards and had one first down in the first half but tied the game with 24 points in the third quarter. Kenneth Farrow had a 6-yard scoring run and John O'Korn threw scoring passes to and Deontay Greenberry and Ambles.

O'Korn completed 16 of 31 passes for 220 yards and two touchdowns with two interceptions. Daniel Spencer had three carries for 69 yards.

Vanderbilt's Patton Robinette threw two 50-yard touchdown passes to Jordan Matthews. Robinette, starting after senior Austyn Carta-Samuels had season-ending surgery to repair a torn ACL in his left knee, also had an 8-yard scoring run as Vanderbilt built a 24-0 lead in the first half.

After Houston's big third quarter, Vanderbilt reclaimed the lead on Brian Kimbrow's 21-yard touchdown run. It was the start of 17 fourth-quarter points for the Commodores.

Vanderbilt closed the season with five straight wins, adding to Franklin's status as a possible candidate for coaching vacancies, including at Penn State and with the NFL Browns and Redskins. The Commodores played in three straight bowl games under Franklin - a first for the program - and completed their first back-to-back nine-win seasons.

Franklin talked after the game about Vanderbilt's returning players. He left the interview room without replying when asked if he would be back.

No Houston defender was near Matthews on his second 50-yard scoring catch in the second quarter. It capped a dominant first half for the Commodores.

Levine said he told his players at halftime they could make up the 24-point deficit quickly.

A lost fumble by Robinette set up Farrow's 6-yard touchdown run to start Houston's third-quarter comeback.

Houston built on the momentum. Spencer's 62-yard run set up O'Korn's 6-yard touchdown pass to Ambles. O'Korn's 58-yard pass to Ambles set up a 30-yard field goal by Kyle Bullard. O'Korn's 67-yard touchdown pass to Greenberry tied the game.

Matthews, a senior who set Southeastern Conference records for career catches and yards receiving, had five catches for 143 yards and two touchdowns and was named the game's MVP.

Robinette completed only one pass to another receiver - for 11 yards to Jonathan Krause. Robinette completed 6 of 17 passes for 154 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. Seymour had 14 carries for 46 yards.

Matthews took advantage of a lead block by Krause to make his first touchdown catch.

A forced fumble by linebacker Chase Garnham set up the Commodores' second touchdown. After Houston's O'Korn threw a pass to Greg Ward Jr., a big hit by Garnham forced the fumbled recovered by Andrew Williamson at the Houston 16. Robinette, making his third career start, scored on an 8-yard keeper on fourth down.

2015 LOCKHEED MARTIN ARMED FORCES BOWL

Houston 35, Pittsburgh 34

Jan. 2, 2015 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Houston quarterback Greg Ward had just thrown his third touchdown in a flurried comeback that included two recovered onside kicks in a row to get the Cougars within a point in the Armed Forces Bowl.

"We decided to go for two at the end because we had the momentum," Gibbs said.

Deontay Greenberry, already with two TD catches in that final 3:41, made a leaping catch in the back of the end zone for the two-point conversion and the Cougars beat Pittsburgh 35-34 on Friday with an improbable comeback - the largest in an FBS game this season, and largest ever in a bowl game that didn't go into overtime.

Pitt (6-7) led 31-6 when ACC offensive player of the year James Conner had his second touchdown run with 14 minutes left in the game. The Panthers were still up 34-13 after Chris Blewitt's 29-yard field goal with 6:14 left before Houston's big finish.

Ward had an 8-yard TD pass to Greenberry before the Cougars recovered their first onside kick. That led to a 29-yard catch by Demarcus Ayers on a fourth-and-13 play with 1:58 left, and Houston tried another onside kick.

While the second one didn't go 10 yards on the rain-slickened field, the ball was touched by the same Pitt defender who couldn't handle the first one before Houston running back Kenneth Farrow jumped on it at the Cougars 43. Greenberry started the drive with a 38-yard catch, then on third-and-16 had a 25-yard TD with 59 seconds left.

Ward, the former Cougars receiver, had 237 of his 274 yards passing in the fourth quarter and also ran for 92 yards.

Farrow ran 22 times for 103 yards and two touchdowns for the Cougars, who have split their four appearances in the 12-year history of the Armed Forces Bowl.

Conner's 1-yard TD run a minute into the second quarter capped a 15-play, 92-yard drive, and Pitt led until the final minute of the game. The Cougars had a missed extra point after Farrow's 2-yard TD in the second quarter when Kyle Bullard slipped while kicking.

Voytik threw was 18-of-35 passing for 222 yards and an impressive 16-yard TD catch by tight end J.P. Holtz between two defenders in the front corner of the end zone. But Voytik had six consecutive incompletions on a final desperate drive when only a pass interference penalty got Pitt a first down.

Boyd had nine catches for 112 yards, his 11th career 100-yard receiving game and moving from seventh to fourth on Pitt's career reception mark with 163, two more than Larry Fitzgerald.

2015 CHICK-fil-A PEACH BOWL

#14/16 Houston 38, #9/8 Florida State 24

Dec. 31, 2015 • Georgia Dome • Atlanta

Ward ran for two touchdowns and threw for another, leading Houston Football past turnover-plagued Florida State 38-24 in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl on New Year's Eve.

Dalvin Cook was held to 33 yards rushing with a touchdown and a lost fumble. That left the Seminoles with five turnovers - half their total of 10 in 12 regular-season games.

Houston scored the most points allowed by Florida State this season.

The No. 9 Seminoles (10-3), who trailed 21-3 at halftime, tried to rally with two fourth-quarter touchdown passes by Sean Maguire.

Ward, the nation's only player to run for 1,000 yards and throw for 2,000 yards this season, threw for 238 yards and ran for 67 yards for No. 14 Houston (13-1).

Houston safety Trevon Stewart and cornerback William Jackson III each had two interceptions. Stewart also recovered a fumble.

Ward, the junior who started at wide receiver early last season before becoming a full-time quarterback, had touchdown runs of 7 and 6 yards. He left the game briefly after taking a hit in the third quarter, and was shaken up again with about 4 minutes remaining.

Ward returned to take the final snaps of the game, raising his arm in celebration before laying on his back, wallowing in the confetti which fell from the Georgia Dome roof. He was named offensive MVP of the game.

Houston's only loss this season, to Connecticut, came when Ward was out with an injury. He kept the Florida State defense off-balance by leading the Cougars' fast-tempo, no-huddle attack.

Maguire's 65-yard scoring pass to Travis Rudolph cut Houston's lead to 24-17 early in the fourth quarter. Ward answered with a 17-yard touchdown pass to Chance Allen, who was left uncovered as Florida State sent a defensive back on a blitz. Maguire added a scoring pass to Jesus Wilson later in the final quarter.

Maguire was hurt in the first quarter when hit by Adams. Maguire couldn't put pressure on his left leg as he was supported by trainers before leaving the field on a cart.

When Maguire was out, backup J.J. Cosentino completed only 1 of 4 passes for 5 yards. Maguire returned midway through the second quarter with the ankle wrapped.

Maguire's last interception came with 25 seconds remaining. He completed 22 of 44 passes for 392 yards with two touchdowns and four interceptions.

The Cougars won 13 games for the second time in school history, following the 2011 season.

BOWL HISTORY

2016 LAS VEGAS BOWL

rv/rv San Diego State 34, rv/rv Houston 10

Dec. 17, 2016 • Sam Boyd Stadium • Las Vegas

Donnel Pumphrey broke the NCAA career rushing record Saturday in his college finale, running for 115 yards and a touchdown in San Diego State's 34-10 victory over Houston in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Pumphrey passed former Wisconsin star Ron Dayne's mark of 6,397 yards on a 15-yard run early in the fourth quarter, wrapping up his career with 6,405 yards.

Pumphrey's senior total of 2,133 yards rushing ranks in the top 10 for an FBS player.

Ron Smith returned an interception 54 yards for a touchdown, Curtis Anderson caught a 28-yard touchdown pass from Christian Chapman, Juwan Washington ran for a touchdown, and John Baron kicked two field goals for the Aztecs (11-3). They overcame a 10-0 first-quarter deficit against the Cougars (9-4) for their second consecutive bowl win.

Neither the victory nor Pumphrey's record-setting performance seemed likely after Houston's defense absolutely smothered the Aztecs in the first quarter. Led by freshman Ed Oliver, Houston had seven tackles for loss on San Diego State's first 16 plays. Pumphrey had minus-1 yard rushing on seven carries in the first quarter and the Aztecs didn't have a first down until the first play of the second quarter - on a penalty for running into the kicker.

But Pumphrey started to gash Houston on the perimeter, giving San Diego State the lead for good on a 32-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter, and the defense intercepted four of Houston quarterback Greg Ward Jr.'s passes in the second half.

"When you are leaving your defense out there too long that's what happens," Houston coach Major Applewhite said. "When you give a great back that many at-bats and that many opportunities, one is going to hit at some point and it did."

Ward threw for 229 yards and had a 2-yard touchdown run, tying Bryce Beall's school record of 39 rushing touchdowns.

Houston finished with 254 yards of total offense and just 25 yards rushing.

2017 HAWAI'I BOWL

rv/rv Fresno State 33, Houston 27

Dec. 24, 2017 • Aloha Stadium • Honolulu

Houston Football saw its 2017 season come to an end as Fresno State earned a 33-27 win over the Cougars in the Hawai'i Bowl at Aloha Stadium.

Houston quarterback D'Eriq King finished with 269 passing yards on 23-of-43 passing with one touchdown, while rushing for 38 yards on nine carries.

Steven Dunbar, the Hawai'i Bowl MVP representative for Houston, led the offensive attack with 197 yards receiving on 10 catches. The 197 yards was a career-high and the 10 receptions tied a career-best for the senior in his final game in Scarlet and White.

Linell Bonner finished with 39 yards on seven catches and a touchdown.

Defensively, Alexander Myres had nine tackles and registered a blocked field goal return of 94 yards for a touchdown. D'Juan Hines tallied six tackles, while adding an interception and forced fumble.

Houston Football jumped out to a 7-0 lead on Fresno State with 11:35 to play in the first half sparked by a 48-yard reception by Dunbar from King. The play led to a 1-yard touchdown rush for Ed Oliver, his first career rushing attempt.

The defense opened the game with four straight three-and-out stops on the Bulldogs, highlighted by an interception from Hines, his first career takeaway.

Fresno State found the end zone on an 11-play drive that ended the first quarter and rolled into a score to open the second quarter to make it a 7-7 game.

The Bulldogs grabbed their first lead of the game following a 27-yard field goal to go ahead, 10-7 with 9:45 left in the first half.

King found Dunbar for a 50-yard first down, which set up a 31-yard field goal for Novikoff, making it a 10-10 game with 7:17 left in the second quarter.

Fresno State hit a 38-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to take a 13-10 lead into halftime.

Houston quickly responded to open the third quarter as the Cougars drove the field to set up a 31-yard field goal attempt for Novikoff, who made it a 13-13 game midway through the third.

Fresno State jumped back ahead with 4:21 remaining in the third on a 9-play, 75-yard drive as a 6-yard rushing touchdown ended the drive to make it 20-13.

After a Houston fumble, the Bulldogs attempted a 24-yard field goal, but Jeremy Winchester was credited with the blocked field goal, which was then returned by Myres for 94 yards and the touchdown to make it a 20-20 game with 2:54 left in the third quarter.

The blocked field goal return of 94 yards was the longest in Houston Football history.

Fresno State kicker Jimmy Camacho nailed his third field goal of the day, a 26-yarder, to put the Bulldogs back on top, 23-20 with 13:56 left in the game and then went on to break the Hawai'i Bowl record with his fourth made field goal -- a 33-yarder to give them a 6-point advantage.

The Bulldogs picked off a Houston pass and returned it for 44 yards to make it a 33-20 game.

Houston used a 16-play, 76-yard drive to find the end zone as King's pass to Bonner for two yards made it a 33-27 game with 45 seconds left in the game.

2018 LOCKHEED MARTIN ARMED FORCES BOWL

#22/25 Army 70, Houston 14

Dec. 22, 2018 • Amon G. Carter Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

Army quarterback Kelvin Hopkins Jr. ran for 170 yards and an Armed Forces Bowl-record five touchdowns and the No. 22 Black Knights overwhelmed Houston 70-14 to reach 11 wins for the first time in program history.

The Black Knights won their ninth consecutive game since an overtime loss at playoff team Oklahoma exactly three months earlier.

Hopkins had a nifty 77-yard TD run on the last play of the first quarter for a 14-0 lead. The junior quarterback initially ran right before cutting back the other way and alluding one tackler. He sent two other defenders sliding to the ground when he switched directions again back toward the middle of the field.

Houston lost for the fourth time in five games since starting 7-1 and getting into the AP Top 25 poll for a week in late October. The Cougars suffered their most-lopsided loss in their 27 bowl games, and their biggest loss overall since a 66-10 loss at UCLA in 1997.

Along with his 11 rushing attempts before coming out of the game midway through the third quarter when it was 49-7, Hopkins completed the first 1,000-yard passing season for Army since 2007. He was 3-of-3 passing for 70 yards, including a 54-yarder that set up one of his three 1-yard TD plunges. He also had a 2-yard TD run.

Army got 507 of its 592 total yards on the ground in its highest-scoring game this season - and the most points in the program's nine bowl appearances. The Black Knights won a bowl for the third consecutive year, including last year's Armed Force Bowl over San Diego State.

2020 NEW MEXICO BOWL

Hawai'i 28, Houston 14

Dec. 24, 2020 • Toyota Stadium • Frisco, Texas

Sophomore wide receiver Nathaniel Dell posted six catches for 112 yards and a touchdown, but it would not be enough as Hawai'i took advantage of a quick start to claim a 28-14 win in the New Mexico Bowl inside Toyota Stadium.

Hawai'i took advantage of two Houston turnovers to score 14 points in the first quarter and built a 21-0 lead at the halftime break.

However, the Cougars mounted a comeback in the second half and moved to within a touchdown in the third quarter.

After compiling only 87 yards in the entire first half, Houston took the second-half kickoff and embarked on a 17-play, 75-yard drive that was capped when junior quarterback hit Dell on a 7-yard touchdown strike for a 21-7 Hawai'i lead with 7:39 left.

Forcing a 3-and-out on Hawai'i's next possession, the Cougars made it a one-score game at 21-14 when Tune connected with junior tight end Christian Trahan on a 26-yard touchdown with 3:45 remaining.

Unfortunately, that would be as close as Houston would get the rest of the way. On the ensuing kickoff, Hawai'i's Calvin Turner outraced the Cougar defenders to the end zone on a 92-yard touchdown return.

Tune finished with 216 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 20-of-38 passing but was picked off three times. Trahan posted five catches for 88 yards and a score, while senior running back Mulbah Car led the Houston ground attack with 47 rushing yards on 15 carries.

Hawai'i quarterback Chevan Cordeiro led the Rainbow Warriors with 136 passing yards and three touchdowns.

On the defensive side, Houston defensive back Hasaan Hypolite led the Cougars with 10 tackles, including five solo stops, and added a pass breakup. Senior safety Deontay Anderson logged nine tackles and one sack as the Cougars limited Hawai'i to just 35 total yards.

2021 TICKETSMARTER BIRMINGHAM BOWL

#21/21 Houston 17, Auburn 13

Dec. 28, 2021 • Protective Stadium • Fort Worth, Texas

from Associated Press

Quarterback Clayton Tune and the Cougars punctuated an impressive season with a win in Southeastern Conference country.

Wide receiver Jake Herslow caught a 26-yard, go-ahead touchdown pass from Tune with 3:27 left to help lift No. 21 Houston to a 17-13 victory over Auburn in the TicketSmarter Birmingham Bowl in front of a mostly orange-and-blue crowd at Protective Stadium.

The Cougars marched 80 yards in eight plays to cap the third season in program history with at least 12 wins. They snapped a four-game bowl losing streak and won 12 of their final 13 games, the only loss after the opener coming to No. 4 Cincinnati in the American Athletic Conference championship game.

Head Coach Dana Holgorsen said this win was similar to "some other ones that we've had this year."

"Just a bunch of guys that fight hard and win," Holgorsen said. "Basically, winning this game solidified this 2021 football team at the University of Houston as a great football team."

The Tigers went in the opposite direction at the end of coach Bryan Harsin's first season. They ended with five straight losses for the first time in 71 years and dropped their third bowl game in a row.

Game MVP Tune completed 26 of 40 passes for 283 yards and two touchdowns with an interception while also rushing for 43 yards. Wide receiver Nathaniel Dell caught 10 passes for 150 yards, while running back Alton McCaskill ran for 66 yards and caught a touchdown pass.

"That's kind of been our offense this whole season, is when we've needed to make plays we do," Tune said. "There was no panic."

And Herslow, who walked on after playing for Old Dominion from 2017-19, delivered the biggest catch. He's a player Horgorsen called "one of the best stories in college football."

Auburn, which fired offensive coordinator Mike Bobo after the regular season, had one more chance but couldn't get a first down. Tank Bigsby ran for 8 yards on first down and then T.J. Finley threw three straight incompletions on short passes.

Houston ran out the clock.

Finley completed 19 of 34 passes for 227 yards and a touchdown in his third start since replacing injured Bo Nix. Bigsby had 88 rushing yards and 68 receiving yards.

The Cougars had moved across midfield for the go-ahead score after Auburn's second targeting ejection, this time against Jaylin Simpson.

Tune set it up with a 20-yard pass to tight end Christian Trahan.

The Tigers rallied from a 10-0 deficit to take the lead late in the third quarter on Kobe Hudson's 12-yard touchdown catch from Finley on third and goal.

Auburn had several promising drives stall.

2022 RADIANCE TECHNOLOGIES INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Houston 23, Louisiana 16

Dec. 23, 2022 • Independence Stadium • Shreveport, La.

from Associated Press

University of Houston senior quarterback Clayton Tune connected with junior wideout Nathaniel Dell for a 12-yard touchdown with 20 seconds remaining, and Houston rallied from a 13-point deficit to beat Louisiana 23-16 inside Independence Stadium in the Radium Technologies Independence Bowl.

The TD pass was Tune's third of the game and 40th of the season, tying him with Western Kentucky's Austin Reed for the most in the nation. Before the winning throw, he completed a 41-yard pass to KeSean Carter on third-and-30 to move Houston into Ragin' Cajuns territory.

The Cougars never led until that late touchdown as Tune heated up amid unseasonably cold temperatures in northwest Louisiana. It was 25 degrees at kickoff, with a wind chill of 12 degrees.

Louisiana led 13-0 midway through the second quarter and 16-6 at halftime.

Tune, who finished 19 of 28 for 216 yards and was named the Independence Bowl Offensive MVP, led Houston on a 13-play, 70-yard drive to open the second half and hit Dell for a 2-yard touchdown that made it 16-13. Senior defensive back Art Green was named the game's Defensive MVP after recording nine tackles.

Clinging to a 3-point lead, Louisiana stuffed Houston on fourth-and-short at the Ragin' Cajuns 5-yard line midway through the third quarter, but the Cougars eventually tied the game on Kyle Ramsey's 19-yard field early in the fourth.

Louisiana located three hours south of Shreveport, took the opening kick and orchestrated a 15-play, 75-yard drive that ended when tight end Johnny Lumpkin made a dazzling touchdown catch in the corner of the end zone.

The Cajuns got three field goals in the first half from by Kenneth Almendares (42, 42, and 22 yards). Chandler Fields finished 17 of 25 passing for 169 yards and a touchdown.

Tune's first TD toss was a 33-yarder to Carter in the second quarter. Carter finished with 104 yards on three catches, and Dell had six receptions for 44 yards and the two TDs.
