THE OPENING KICKOFF

- Houston and Texas Tech are meeting for the 35th time in the history of the programs. The Cougars lead the all-time series, which began in 1951, 18-15-1 but have dropped five straight (2010-present). Saturday marks the seventh contest between the teams in the last 15 seasons and first as co-Big 12 Conference members.
- The Cougars and Red Raiders met 20 times as co-members of the Southwest Conference from 1976-95. Houston went 12-7-1 in those matchups including winning nine of the first 10. Houston's last win in the series, coming in non-conference action, came on Sept. 26, 2009, by way of a 29-28 result. Houston's staff that season featured Dana Holgorsen (Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks) and Kliff Kingsbury (Offensive Quality Control). Texas Tech Head Coach Mike Leach was in his 10th and final season with the Red Raiders.
- Houston freshman running back Parker Jenkins burst onto the scene last Saturday against Sam Houston. The 4-star recruit became the first Cougar in program history to have 3 rushing touchdowns in his first start. Jenkins is the only Power 5 freshman with three rushing touchdowns in a single game this season and one of three Big 12 freshmen on the season with a 100+ yard rushing performance.
- Houston starting quarterback Donovan Smith played 23 games for the Red Raiders between 2021-22, including leading Texas Tech to a 33-30 double-overtime victory over the Cougars on Sept. 10, 2022. In that contest, Smith became the lone player in the last two decades with 35+ pass completions, 350+ passing yards, 2+ passing TDs and one rushing score in a game against the Cougars.
- Saturday marks Houston's first game outside the City of Houston since defeating Louisiana, 23-16, in the Independence Bowl on Dec. 23, 2022, in Shreveport, La. Despite falling at Rice, 43-41 in double overtime during Week 2, Houston's 10 road wins since the start of the 2021 season rank tied for first nationally with Cincinnati, Fresno State, Ohio State and UTSA.
- Houston ranks eighth nationally in turnover margin (1.50), 12th in interceptions (6) and 13th in turnovers forced (9). The Cougars are one of 16 teams without a fumble lost on the season. The Cougars' nine turnovers forced and six interceptions are the most for each category since having as many in 2017. Houston forced two turnovers and did not turn over the ball last time out against Sam Houston.
- Houston's offensive line did not allow a sack and permitted just three hurries in 234 opportunities against Sam Houston last Saturday. The Cougars' 84.4 pass block grade per Pro Football Focus was their best of the season. It marked the first time in six games (last Nov. 19, 2022, at ECU) Houston had not permitted a sack. Entering last weekend, UH's 12 sacks allowed ranked 123rd nationally.
- UH's special teams have been just that. The Cougars rank seventh nationally in punt return defense (0.00) and 16th in net punting (43.00). Matthew Golden's 98-yard kickoff return touchdown vs. TCU marked a national-leading fifth consecutive season in which UH has accomplished the feat. Punt returner Malik Fleming ranks 18th nationally at 11.0 yards per return including a 48-yard return vs. UTSA.
- Head Coach Dana Holgorsen has continued to preach "complimentary football." Last Saturday against Sam Houston, UH's offense put up 38 points against a Bearkat defense which had allowed a combined 27 points (at BYU, vs. Air Force) in their first two games. Houston's defense forced two turnovers and allowed just 178 total yards – the second fewest since Holgorsen took the helm in 2019. On special teams, punter Laine Wilkins' two punts pinned the Bearkats inside the 20-yard line while kicker Jack Martin hit a 23-yard field goal to start the scoring.
- Houston entered last Saturday's contest against Sam Houston having scored points on just 64% of redzone opportunities (9 of 14). Against the Bearkats, the Cougars scored on five of their six redzone chances (83.3%).

TEAM NOTES

• The 2023 season is Head Coach Dana Holgorsen's 17th coaching in the Big 12 Conference. Holgorsen has coached four of the league's 14 schools, totaling a combined 74 Big 12 victories as a head coach or assistant coach at West Virginia (2012-18), Oklahoma State (2010) and Texas Tech (2000-07), including a combined 18-9 conference record over his final three seasons with the Mountaineers.

• Houston defensive back Malik Fleming is tied for the national lead with three interceptions in four games. Fleming's six interceptions since the start of the 2022 season ranks tied for ninth nationally. All six of those interceptions have come in the last 11 games.

• Cougar wideout Samuel Brown ranks second in the Big 12 Conference in receiving yards (405), receiving yards per game (101.2) and receptions per game (6.0). Brown's 405 receiving yards are the most for a Cougar through the first four games since 2013 (Deontay Greenberry, 530 yards) and the third highest total in the last 20 years.

• Houston sophomore Matthew Golden is one of 13 players nationally and is the lone Big 12 Conference player and Texas FBS player with a kickoff return touchdown. Golden raced 98 yards for the score against TCU. Golden has hauled in nine touchdown receptions over his last nine games and ranks 16th nationally with four receiving TDs on the season.

• Houston registered 3.0 sacks and 6.0 tackles for loss in its Big 12 opener against TCU. The Horned Frogs entered the matchup as one of seven teams nationally without a sack allowed. The Cougars added 5.0 more tackles for loss against Sam Houston and limited the Bearkats to 52 rushing yards. UH's 86.7 run defensive grade by PFF vs. Sam Houston was its best since Oct. 30, 2021, vs. SMU (89.5).

TIES WITH TECH

• Houston Head Coach Dana Holgorsen was a member of the coaching staff at Texas Tech from 2000-07, serving as the inside receivers coach (2000-04), before being elevated to co-offensive coordinator (2005) and offensive coordinator (2006-07).

INSIDE THE SCHEDULE

• Houston's matchup against Texas Tech is the fifth of seven total games against in-state programs. The Cougars will play 10 games in the state of Texas – their most since 1990. UH's seven on-campus games are its most since 2015. UH leaves the state just twice, its fewest since playing as many out-of-state games in 1994, and will only fly three times (at Texas Tech, at Kansas State and at UCF).

• Based on 2022 win-loss record, UH's schedule ranks tied for the sixth toughest nationally. Cougar opponents went 96-60 (61.5%) a season ago. The schedule is the toughest in the state of Texas and second toughest in the Big 12 [No. 3 West Virginia – 98-59 (62.4%)]. Ten of Houston's 12 opponents reached a bowl, eight were ranked in the AP poll and four reached their conference title game in 2022.

ROSTER MAKEUP

• Houston's roster features 50 newcomers including 23 transfers. Approximately 25% of the Cougars' current roster has experience at a Power 5 program and 70% of its roster received at least one Power 5 offer.

• UH has no shortage of experience on the offensive line. Entering the season, UH o-linemen had played 192 collegiate games and made 145 starts. The 145 starts were the fifth-most nationally and most in the Big 12. The unit had played 9,981 Division I snaps on the line, led by Patrick Paul (2,190), Jack Freeman (1,919), Peyton Dunn (1,293), Tank Jenkins (1,192) and Max Banes (1,155).

A VICTORY WOULD

• Be Houston's first Big 12 Conference win.

• Be Head Coach Dana Holgorsen's 75th Big 12 Conference win as a head coach or assistant coach.

• Snap Houston's five-game losing streak to Texas Tech (2010-present).

• Give Houston its first win in Lubbock since Sept. 13, 1990.

• Be Houston's national-leading 11th road victory since the start of the 2021 season.

• Be UH's 101st win since the start of the 2011 season. The Cougars' trail only TCU (101) among Texas FBS programs entering Saturday.

	UTSA	14
	HOUSTON	17

HOUSTON (AP) – Junior quarterback Donovan Smith threw for 233 yards and two touchdowns, Samuel Brown had 106 yards receiving and Houston held on for a 17-14 win over UTSA on Saturday night in a season opener and the Cougars' first game as a Big 12 Conference member.

Smith, who was 22-of-34 passing, threw touchdown passes of eight yards to Joseph Manjack IV in the first quarter and six yards to Matthew Golden in the third as Houston built a 17-7 lead. The Cougars finished with 334 yards of offense.

Frank Harris was 18 of 36 for 209 yards passing with a touchdown, but he was intercepted three times. Kevorian Barnes rushed for 103 yards and a touchdown for UTSA, which finished with 417 yards.

After UTSA cut the lead to three on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Harris to Joshua Cephus with 5:42 remaining, Houston was able to run out the clock, including a crucial 3-yard gain by Smith to just get the first down with 1:45 remaining.

Houston has beaten UTSA in consecutive season openers after outlasting the Roadrunners, 37-35, in triple overtime last season in San Antonio.

THE TAKEAWAY

UTSA: The Roadrunners, which joined the American Athletic Conference this season, had issues staying on the field going 4 for 13 on third downs. UTSA had an even offense with 209 yards passing and 208 yards rushing.

Houston: The Cougars' defense kept Harris under pressure for most of the night, which contributed to the three interceptions. Two of the interceptions were by Malik Fleming. Houston had issues rushing the ball, finishing with 101 yards on the ground.

LOVE YOU, HOUSTON

The Cougars wore alternate "Love You, Houston" uniforms, which paid homage to the City of Houston. The jerseys are a light blue with Houston in italics on the helmet.

	RICE	43

HOUSTON – After mounting a 28-point comeback to tie the game late in the fourth quarter, the University of Houston Football program was unable to hold off Rice in double overtime, falling 43-41 in the Bayou Bucket in Rice Stadium.

Trailing 28-0 late in the second quarter, the Cougars (1-1) rallied to tie the game at 28-28 on junior quarterback Donovan Smith's 1-yard touchdown run with just 15 seconds remaining in regulation.

After trailing by four scores with 2:43 left in the second quarter, the Cougars rallied for 28 unanswered points to close regulation and force overtime for just the second time in the history of the Bayou Bucket.

Golden started the scoring with a 10-yard reception from Smith to get Houston on the board, 28-7, with 2:42 remaining in the first half. The Cougars' defense kept it a three-score game heading into halftime as Hamilton leaped for an interception in the end zone with nine seconds on the clock.

After a scoreless third quarter, the Cougars rallied in the fourth. Starting a drive with a fumble recovery in the waning seconds of the third, Houston's Smith fought his way in with a 1-yard rush to cut the Cougars' deficit to 28-14 with 14:05 left in the fourth quarter. Sneed followed it up two drives later with a 14-yard rushing touchdown of his own to put Houston down by seven with 3:46 remaining.

The Cougar defense forced a three-and-out for Rice (1-1) on the ensuing possession, giving Houston a chance to tie it with 2:49 remaining in regulation. Smith and the offense rattled off a eight-play, 40-yard drive, capped by a 1-yard scramble by Smith, to tie the game with 15 seconds left.

Houston opened overtime by taking its first lead of the contest as Golden caught his second touchdown of the game on a 2-yard pass from Smith, but Rice forced a second extra period as Daelen Alexander scored on a 3-yard rush to even the score at 35-35.

Alexander scored again for the Owls to start the second OT frame and took it in himself for the two-point conversion to put Rice up 43-35 and put the game back into the Cougars' hands. While Smith rushed for his third TD of the game on Houston's 20T possession, the Cougars failed on their two-point attempt to give Rice the win.

Rice started the scoring on the opening drive as Luke McCaffrey, younger brother of the San Francisco 49ers Luke McCaffrey, caught a 10-yard pass from JT Daniels.

The Owls extended their lead to 21-0 by the end of the first quarter as Alexander ran in for a one-yard touchdown, and McCaffrey found the end zone again on a 32-yard reception. Rice capped its regulation scoring with a 15-yard pass from Daniels to Braylen Walker to put the Owls up, 28-0.

HOUSTON (AP) – TCU quarterback Chandler Morris threw for 314 yards and two touchdowns as the Horned Frogs spoiled Houston's Big 12 Conference debut with a 36-13 victory on Saturday night.

TCU (2-1, 1-0) won its second straight game after a season-opening loss to Colorado.

TCU's offense had a fast-paced opening drive that ended with a 33-yard touchdown pass from Morris to Warren Thompson, just 1:31 into the game. Morris finished 24 of 37, threw one interception and added 53 rushing yards on 12 carries.

Houston's only touchdown came late in the first half on a 98-yard kickoff return by Matthew Golden, cutting TCU's lead to 13-10. TCU immediately answered with a 16-yard touchdown run by Emani Bailey, and the Horned Frogs led 20-13 at halftime.

Bailey ran for 126 yards on 23 carries.

TCU's defense held the Cougars in check. Quarterback Donovan Smith completed 18 of 35 passes for 245 yards, while the Cougars (1-2, 0-1 Big 12) totaled 35 rushing yards on 26 carries.

Houston was trying to bounce back from a double-overtime loss to cross-town rival Rice.

Houston receiver Samuel Brown entered the game leading the Big 12 with 15 receptions and 244 yards through his first two games. Brown had another active game against TCU, making five catches for 99 yards.

Griffin Kell made three of five field-goal attempts for TCU, including a 53-yarder.

THE TAKEAWAY

TCU: After entering Saturday's game ranked 126th in the nation in allowing 343.5 passing yards per game, TCU's secondary showed much improvement against Houston, aided in part by a much more aggressive pass rush up front. TCU had six sacks and eight tackles for loss.

Houston: The Cougars have one more non-conference game against Sam Houston before finishing out the season with eight Big 12 games.

	SAM HOUSTON	7
	HOUSTON	38

HOUSTON – The University of Houston Football team closed its non-conference schedule with a 38-7 win over Sam Houston on Saturday night at TDECU Stadium. The Cougars snapped a two-game losing skid while posting a season-high 538 yards of offense in the contest.

Freshman running back Parker Jenkins became the first Cougar in program history to rush for three touchdowns in his first start – with all coming in the first half. He became the 15th Houston player with 3+ rushing scores in a half. Jenkins also matched the program record for rushing touchdowns by a freshman.

Junior quarterback Donovan Smith narrowly missed out on his first 300-yard passing game as a Cougar, tallying 294 yards while going 31-for-40 with a touchdown. Meanwhile, sophomore quarterback Ui Ale used his second collegiate pass to throw a 58-yard touchdown, Houston's longest offensive play of the year.

Houston opened the game with a 13-play, 69-yard drive that ended with junior Jack Martin splitting the uprights from 23 yards out to put the Cougars up 3-0. Sam Houston responded on its opening drive, briefly taking a 7-3 lead on a 2-yard rush from Trapper Pannell.

The Cougars wasted no time in answering as Jenkins carried in his first touchdown, a 2-yard scramble, that gave Houston a 10-7 lead it would never relinquish. Jenkins would ultimately carry in two more touchdowns in the first half, a 1-yard rush with 7:22 left and another 2-yard score to put Houston up 24-7 at the break.

Houston continued to cruise in the second half. Smith earned his first passing touchdown of the game in the Cougars' first drive of the third quarter, finding sophomore Matthew Golden for a 6-yard touchdown. Ale capped Houston's scoring in the fourth quarter, sending his first collegiate completion to sophomore Stacy Sneed for a 58-yard touchdown, Houston's longest offensive play of the season, cementing the Cougars' 38-7 win.

UP NEXT

Houston will meet Texas Tech at 2:30 p.m., Sept. 30, inside Jones AT&T Stadium in Lubbock, Texas. It will be the Cougars' first Big 12 road game.

That game will air on FS2 and can be heard on 950 AM KPRC.

OFFENSIVE OVERVIEW

Houston had its first true quarterback competition since 2018 with junior transfer Donovan Smith earning the job and looking to capitalize on arguably Head Coach Dana Holgorsen's deepest wide receivers' room at Houston. The Cougars' offensive line returns five letterwinners and three starters from a season ago and welcomes in five newcomers including four with prior Division I experience.

Houston scored 30+ points in 11 games a season ago and has piled up 20,000+ yards of total offense in four seasons under Holgorsen. With Eman Naghavi joining as Running Game Coordinator/Co-Offensive Coordinator and Mike Burchett being elevated to Quarterbacks Coach, UH looks to remain one of the nation's top offenses.

HEAD COACH DANA HOLGORSEN

FIFTH SEASON AT HOUSTON (29-22) | 12TH SEASON OVERALL (90-63)

- Named head coach at Houston on Jan. 1, 2019, after eight seasons at West Virginia.
- Has tutored 23 All-Americans, 11 national award winners and 14 national award finalists. In four NFL Drafts since taking the helm at Houston, 11 Cougar players have been selected including five in the top three rounds.
- Houston has won 20 games over its last two seasons (2021-22) marking the program's third highest total in a two-year span. The run has featured back-to-back bowl victories (2021 Birmingham Bowl; 2022 Independence Bowl) for the first time since 2014-15. With a win in the Independence Bowl on Dec. 23, 2022, Holgorsen became the first Houston Head Coach since Bill Yeoman to register multiple bowl victories.
- Houston went 13-3 over its final 16 American Athletic Conference contests (2021-22). The Cougars won a national-best 10 road contests between 2021-22 including six consecutive matchups from Oct. 1, 2021-Oct. 22, 2022, which ranked as the nation's second longest streak in that timeframe.
- Since Holgorsen's arrival in 2019, Houston is the only program nationally to boast a punt return touchdown and kickoff return touchdown in four consecutive seasons (2019-22).
- Guided Houston to an 8-5 record and Independence Bowl victory in 2022. The Cougars won six of their final eight games while ranking eighth nationally in passing offense (314.0), 10th in punt returns (15.0 per return), 11th in team tackles for loss (7.2 per game), 12th in passing efficiency (158.38) and 16th in scoring offense (36.1).
- As part of his commitment to the future of Houston Football, Holgorsen pledged $1 million towards University of Houston's "Houston Rise" campaign towards the development of the program's state-of-the-art Football Operations Center (FOC).
- Under his leadership in 2021, the Cougars won 12+ games for just the third time in program history. Houston won 11 consecutive games, its longest stretch since 2011, en route to an appearance in The American Football Championship.
- In the 2021 Birmingham Bowl, Houston knocked off Auburn to clinch the program's first bowl victory since 2015.
- Houston was one of six teams nationally to rank in the top 20 in both points per game (35.9) and opponent points per game (20.4).
- For the second time in his coaching career, Holgorsen tutored a Paul Hornung Award winner as consensus All-American Marcus Jones captured the award in 2021.
- Closed his tenure at West Virginia as the second-winningest coach in Mountaineer history with an eight-year record of 61-41. His 61 wins trailed only College Football Hall of Famer Don Nehlen for most wins in West Virginia history.
- Led the Mountaineers to bowl games in seven of his eight seasons including his final five seasons. His first season at West Virginia ended with a 70-33 rout of Clemson in the Orange Bowl.
- West Virginia had 10 NFL draft picks in first three rounds in his final seven years, the second most in Big 12, including at least one Top-15 draft pick in four of his final seven years. In all, he had four NFL Top-15 draft picks during a seven-year stretch, the most in the Big 12, and 20 players drafted in seven years at WVU, tied for second-most in the Big 12 during that span.
- An offensive genius, his passing offenses and total offensive output have ranked in the Top 10 nationally all but four years during the 14-year span since he became offensive coordinator at Texas Tech in 2005.
- He's had eight quarterbacks pass for 4,000 or more yards and 10 throw for 30 or more touchdowns in a season with 20 receivers finishing with 1,000 or more yards in a season, including 11 finish with 90 or more receptions and 16 finish with double figure TD receptions in a season.
- He is the only coach in West Virginia history to have coached a team with at least 450 rushing yards in a game (Oklahoma, 2012) and at least 450 yards passing in a game (six times).
- He had 10 wins over Top 25 opponents in his eight-year tenure at WVU.
- West Virginia was ranked in both major polls at least one week in seven of his eight years including the entire 2018 season with several weeks inside the top 10.
- In 2018, Holgorsen led a West Virginia team that was ranked every week during the season and finished the regular season with a No. 15/16 ranking in both major polls.
- Under his leadership, quarterback Will Grier finished No. 4 in the Heisman Trophy race and was a finalist for the Maxwell Award, The Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, the Senior CLASS Award and the Manning Award. Grier was ranked in the top 10 nationally in 11 offensive categories and seven categories in the top five.
- Outside of football, Holgorsen served as the chair of the WVU Medicine Children's capital campaign, raising $60 million to build a new home for pediatric and maternal services.
- In 2016, the AFCA District 4 Regional Coach of the Year and Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year finalist led the Mountaineers to a 10-3 overall mark and 7-2 record in the Big 12.
- His 2016 team achieved the ninth 10-win season in school history, becoming one of six WVU teams to do it in the regular season. Holgorsen is one of three WVU coaches, along with Nehlen and Rich Rodriguez, to post multiple 10-win seasons.
- In 2012, Holgorsen led WVU into its first year of competition in the Big 12 Conference, guiding West Virginia to a 7-6 overall record and an appearance in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Five Mountaineers earned 25 All-America honors and three were drafted in the top three rounds of the NFL draft.
- Holgorsen had a successful first season at WVU in 2011, coaching the Mountaineers to a 10-3 record, the Big East championship and a 70-33 Orange Bowl rout of Clemson. The victory was WVU's third Bowl Championship Series championship in school history and earned Holgorsen the First-Year Coach of the Year award by the Football Writers Association of America.
- Before West Virginia, Holgorsen spent the 2010 season as offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State. He was a finalist for the 2010 Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant, and also named the Rivals.com Offensive Coordinator of the Year.
- During his two-year tenure with Houston, his offenses put up explosive numbers, accounting for 563 yards of total offense per game, passing for 433.7 yards per game and totaling more than 42.2 points per game. His offense ranked No. 3 in total offense in 2008 and No. 1 in 2009. His quarterback, Case Keenum, led the nation in total offense in 2008 and 2009, totaling 403.2 yards per game as a sophomore and 416.4 yards his junior season. He also ranked among the Top 10 nationally in pass efficiency both years.
- Holgorsen was a member of the coaching staff at Texas Tech from 2000-07, serving as the inside receivers coach from 2000-04, before being elevated to co-offensive coordinator in 2005 and offensive coordinator in 2006-07.
- Holgorsen also spent time at Valdosta State (1993-95) as the quarterbacks, receivers and special teams coach, Mississippi College (1996-98) as the quarterbacks, receivers and special teams coach and at Wingate (1999) as the quarterbacks and receivers coach.
