The University of Illinois Springfield women's basketball team will go for the season sweep over McKendree this weekend. The two teams will play in Lebanon, Ill. on Saturday afternoon.

Earlier this season, UIS played one of its best games of the year in an 81-51 victory over the Bearcats. Liz Uhl scored 19 points, and the Prairie Stars defense forced 20 turnover and held McKendree to just 36 percent shooting.

UIS enters the rematch with an 8-6 overall record and a 3-5 GLVC mark. The Prairie Stars fell to nationally-ranked Southern Indiana on Thursday by an 88-80 score.

McKendree is currently 2-12 overall and 1-6 in the GLVC. The Bearcats fell to Quincy on Thursday night by a narrow 51-48 margin.

Prairie Stars Notes

- UIS had one of its best offensive performances of the season on Thursday. The Prairie Stars shot a season-best 54.4 percent from the field. That was the team's best shooting percentage since a 2014 contest against Robert Morris-Peoria.

- The Prairie Stars also had one of their best nights from three-point range against Southern Indiana. The seven made three-pointers were the third-most this season, and its .538 percentage was the second-highest.

- UIS made a season-high 31 field goals versus the Screaming Eagles. That was the most since an early season contest in the 2018-19 campaign.

- The Prairie Stars defense had 10 steals against Southern Indiana, the third time this year with double-figure steal totals. UIS is forcing 19.3 turnovers a game over the last four contests.

- The Prairie Stars have led or been tied at halftime in each of the last seven games.

- UIS is going for its first season sweep over McKendree since the 2016-17 school year.

- Malea Jackson had a career-high 27 points against Southern Indiana. She now has back-to-back 20-point games, and is averaging 17.7 points per game over the last six contests.

- Ellie Mitchell shattered her previous career high in assists with nine on Thursday night. That is the most by a UIS individual since the final game of the 2018-19 season.

- Lauren Ladowski has back-to-back games with 20 points, and has scored at least 20 in three out of the last four. Since Dec. 4, she is averaging 17.4 points per contest.

- Since moving into the starting lineup, Ally Gietzel is averaging 9.5 points and 7.5 rebounds a game.

- Olivia Travis had her second double-figure scoring game of the year with 10 against the Screaming Eagles. She shot 80 percent from the field in that contest, making four-of-five shots.

- Lauren Ladowski is now just 73 points away from breaking the school's all-time scoring record.
