KANSAS' WIN…
- Made Kansas 9-2 or better for the seventh-straight season beginning in 2014-15.
- Made Kansas 4-1 in games not played in Allen Fieldhouse, including 2-0 in true road games in 2020-21.
- Gave Kansas five-straight wins following a loss, including 2-0 this season, and 98-13 following a loss in the Bill Self era.
- Gave Kansas its seventh-consecutive win against TCU and made the all-time series 21-2 in favor of KU.
- Improved Self to 510-111 while at Kansas, 717-216 all-time and 25-5 against TCU, 18-2 while at KU.
- Kansas extended its Big 12 road win streak to 11 games, dating back to March 5, 2019 in its 68-81 loss at Oklahoma. The 11-game win streak ties for the longest in Big 12 Conference history, tying Kansas' 11-game win streak from 2001-03.
- Made Kansas 2,311-864 all-time.

TEAM NOTES
- Kansas shot 64% (18-of-28) from the field in the first half, including 60% (6-of-10) from beyond the arc, leading to a 49-35 lead at the break. The 49 points scored by Kansas were the most by the Jayhawks in a first half this season.
- Kansas' 93 points were the third most by the Jayhawks this season, behind their 95 points scored against Omaha and 94 points scored against St. Joseph's. Kansas' 93 points were the most points scored against a Big 12 opponent on the road by the Jayhawks since February 25, 2013, when Kansas scored 108 against Iowa State in overtime.
- The Jayhawks shot a season-best 56.4 (35-of-62) from the floor, besting their previous best shooting output of 53.2% (33-of-62) against Gonzaga on November 26.

OPPONENT NOTES
- Kansas win over TCU ends a five-game win streak for the Horned Frogs, while TCU's 56 points marked the second fewest points scored this season.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES
- Redshirt freshman Dajuan Harris Jr. made his first career start on Tuesday, scoring a career-high seven points on 3-of-5 shooting. Harris started in place of Marcus Garrett, who started the previous 41 games for the Jayhawks.
- Harris contributed a career-high seven assists, marking his fifth game with three or more assists in a game. He previously recorded five assists against St. Joseph's.
- Redshirt freshman Jalen Wilson pulled down eight rebounds on Tuesday, marking the ninth game this season he has recorded five or more boards.
- Junior Ochai Agbaji scored 19 points on 7-of-12 from the field, marking the 10th time this season and 32nd time in his career in double-figures.
- Nine of Agbaji's points came from beyond the arc, as he connected on 3-of-6 from three. Agbaji's three 3-pointers mark the sixth time this season and 14th of his career with three or more 3-pointers, while KU is 13-0 when Agbaji hits three or more from beyond the arc.

- Sophomore Tristan Enaruna scored a career-high 12 points on 5-of-8 from the field and 2-of-3 from beyond the arc. The scoring output marked his first double-digit scoring performance of his career.
- Enaruna also grabbed a career-high seven rebounds, topping his previous best of five, which he had done five times.
- Junior David McCormack scored 20 points on 7-of-9 from the field, marking his fifth game in double-figures this season and his 18th of his career. McCormack's outing marked a new season high, topping his previous season high of 17 points against Washburn.
- McCormack's 20 points were the second most of his career and his second career game with 20+ points. His career-high of 28 points came against Kansas City on December 14, 2019.
- McCormack connected on a perfect 6-of-6 from the free throw line on Tuesday, extended his consecutive free throw streak to 20 straight made free throws. McCormack's last miss came against Creighton on December 8, 2020.
