TEAM NOTES

- Junior Ochai Agbaji started his 76th consecutive game on Saturday, which is the 12th longest on the KU career charts.
- Senior Mitch Lightfoot started his first game since his sophomore season on Saturday, which was against Seton Hall in the first round of the 2018 NCAA Tournament. Saturday's start marked the eighth of his career.
- Saturday's game was just the second game this season that David McCormack did not jump tip. Lightfoot jumped the opening tip for the first time this season.
- Senior Marcus Garrett secured his fourth-straight double-digit scoring effort on Saturday, scoring 20 points on 8-of-12 from the field. Garrett has scored in double figures 14 times this season and 38 times in his career, while it was his third game this season and fifth of his career with 20 or more points.
- Garrett connected on 3-of-5 from beyond the arc, marking his third game this season with three or more made 3-pointers. Garrett also hit three or more from long range against Oklahoma and West Virginia.
- Kansas junior David McCormack scored 22 points and pulled down nine rebounds, marking his 19th game scoring in double figures and 18th game with five or more rebounds this season. Five of McCormack's nine rebounds came on the offensive end.
- Redshirt freshman Dajuan Harris scored a career-high 13 points on Saturday. His previous high of seven points came against TCU (twice).
- Harris connected on 3-of-4 from beyond the arc, his first career game with multiple 3-pointers.
