JAYHAWKS LOOK TO SECURE 7TH WIN AGAINST RED RAIDERS

After securing bowl eligibility with a 37-16 win over Oklahoma State last weekend, the Kansas Jayhawks will look to lock down a winning season this weekend in Lubbock when they take on the Texas Tech Red Raiders. Kansas put up 554 yards of total offense against the Cowboys, including 351 yards on the ground on 46 carries. The Jayhawks forced four Oklahoma State turnovers in the win and held the Cowboys to 111 rushing yards on 35 attempts. Quarterback Jason Bean threw for 203 yards, completing 18 of 23 passes with two touchdowns and no interceptions. He also added 93 rushing yards, including a 73-yard touchdown run. Running back Devin Neal became the first player in school history to rush for 200+ yards (224) and have 100+ receiving yards (110) in the same game against Oklahoma State. Defensively, linebacker Rich Miller and cornerbacks Cobee Bryant and Mello Dotson all had interceptions in the win, while Miller also added a sack. Kansas will now turn its attention to a Texas Tech team that's coming off a 34-24 loss to No. 7 TCU on the road. The Red Raiders are 4-1 at home this season with win over Murray State, Houston, Texas and West Virginia. Texas Tech's only setback at home was to Baylor. Kickoff between the Red Raiders and Jayhawks is set for 6 p.m., on ESPN+ with Courtney Lyle, Ryan Leaf and Tori Petry on the call.

JAYHAWK QUICK HITS

- Kansas is coming off a brilliant performance Saturday against No. 18 Oklahoma State. With the 37-16 win, the Jayhawks snapped a 44-game losing streak to ranked opponents. It was the program's first win over a ranked opponent since 2010 versus Georgia Tech. It was the first win over a ranked team at home since beating Iowa State in 2005.
- Last season, Oklahoma State beat Kansas 55-3, while Iowa State beat the Jayhawks 59-7. This season, Kansas beat Oklahoma State 37-16 and topped Iowa State 14-11. According to STATS, this is the first time since at least 1980 that a team has lost to two opponents by 50+ points one season and beaten them both the next year.
- Against the Cowboys, Kansas totaled 554 yards of total offense, marking its highest output of the season and most yards in a home game since 2017 versus West Virginia. The 351 rushing yards by Kansas was the most since going for 405 against Rutgers in 2018.

- Through nine games, Kansas is averaging 7.24 yards per play, which ranks fourth in the country behind Ohio State, TCU and UCLA. The school record for yards per play in a season is 6.40, set in 1950.
- Running back Devin Neal had 334 all-purpose yards (224 rushing, 110 receiving) against Oklahoma State. The 334 yards are the most by a Jayhawk since Tony Sands rushed for 396 yards against Missouri in 1991.
- Neal is averaging 6.45 yards per rush, which ranks second in the Big 12 and ninth in the country. He has six runs of 30+ yards, which ranks tied for second nationally and has 10 runs of 20+ yards, which is tied for sixth.
- The Jayhawks have seen significant improvement this season in several statistical categories on both sides of the ball. Offensively, Kansas ranks fifth in team passing efficiency after ranking 91st last year. Kansas is eighth nationally in third down conversions. Last season, the Jayhawks ranked 95th. Additionally, the Jayhawks are third in the country in fewest sacks allowed after a respectable showing of 17th last year. Overall, Kansas is 35th in total offense, after ranking 113th last year.
- Defensively, Kansas ranked 118th in team sacks, but are 52nd this year. Additionally, Kansas ranks 15th in interceptions, after ranking 104th last year. In the red zone, Kansas ranked 118th in red zone defense last year, but rank 23rd this year.
- Kansas has scored 46 total touchdowns in nine games this season. That marks the highest output of touchdowns since the Jayhawks scored 42 touchdowns in 12 total games in 2009.
- Quarterback Jason Bean has been stellar since taking over for Jalon Daniels in the second half of the TCU game. Bean has thrown for 986 yards and 11 touchdowns to just three interceptions in 103 attempts. He has also added 212 rushing yards and three touchdowns. Bean has thrown for multiple touchdowns in three games this year after doing it just twice last year in nine games.
- On the other side of the ball, linebacker Rich Miller notched his first career interception against Oklahoma State. He also had six tackles and one sack. He became the first KU defensive player since Marquise Roberts in 2015 to have a sack and an interception in the same game.
- Cornerback Cobee Bryant is tied for first in the Big 12 with three interceptions and is tied for second in passes defended per game at 1.00.

BY THE NUMBERS 6

Kansas reached six wins with its 37-16 victory over No. 18 Oklahoma State, marking Kansas' 13th bowl eligibility all-time, including its first since 2009. With the 37-16 win, the Jayhawks snapped a 44-game losing streak to ranked opponents. It was the program's first win over a ranked opponent since 2010 versus Georgia Tech. It was the first win over a ranked team at home since beating Iowa State in 2005.

With wins over Oklahoma State and Iowa State, who each defeated KU by 50+ in 2021, the Jayhawks are the first team to avenge two 50+ losses the following season since at least 1980.

334

Devin Neal's 334 combined yards (224 rushing, 110 receiving) against Oklahoma State are the most in a single game since 1991, when Jayhawk Sands accounted for 398 yards (396 rush, 2 receiving) against Missouri.

A KU WIN WOULD ...

- Move Kansas to 597-670-58 all-time, including 9-13 under head coach Lance Leipold. Leipold's career record would improve to 155-52.
- Give Kansas seven wins for the first time since 2008, when the Jayhawks finished 8-5 and won the Insight Bowl.
- Give Kansas its third road win of the season at 3-2. It would give Kansas three road wins for the first time since the 2007 season.
- Give Kansas back-to-back wins in consecutive weeks over conference opponents for the first time since 2008 (Colorado, at Iowa State).
- Give Kansas its first win over Texas Tech 2019, including its first win over the Red Raiders in Lubbock since 2001.
- Brings the series record between Kansas and Texas Tech to 21-3, including 10-2 in Lubbock, in favor of Texas Tech.
- Make Kansas 8-11 in games played on November 12 all-time.

DAZZLIN' DANIELS

- It has been simply an electric start to the season for quarterback Jalon Daniels, who has announced his presence nationally in a major way.
- Daniels exited the TCU game at the end of the first half, and has missed the last two contests for the Jayhawks.
- However, through six games, Daniels is completing 66.7 percent of his passes (78-117), and has thrown 11 touchdowns to just one interception on the season. He is also averaging 6.4 yards per carry and ranks second on the team with 341 rushing yards. Daniels is also tied with running back Daniel Hishaw for the team lead with five rushing touchdowns.
- Against Duke, Daniels threw for a career-high 324 yards, topping the 300-yard mark for the first time in his career.
- Daniels has been nearly flawless on third downs this season for the Jayhawks. On third downs this season, the quarterback is 21-for-30 for 254 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions. He has gotten the first down on 19 of his 21 completions.
- Daniels has also been dominant in the opening half of games this season. In the first half of games this season, Daniels is 57-for-81 (70.4%) for 810 yards, eight touchdowns and no interceptions.
- Daniels had a streak of eight-straight games with a touchdown pass snapped against Iowa State, but the junior from Lawndale, Calif., did rush for a two-yard touchdown in the second quarter against ISU. Daniels has accounted for 16 total touchdowns this season, which leads the Big 12.
- In back-to-back weeks, Daniels surpassed his career long completion. Against Houston, Daniels hooked up with Torry Locklin for a 60-yard touchdown pass to establish a new long. But against Duke, he eclipsed that with a 73-yard touchdown pass to Daniel Hishaw.
- With 11 touchdown passes on the season, Daniels is already just three shy of entering the Top 10 for single-season touchdown passes in school history.
- Since taking over as the full-time starter for the Jayhawks against Texas last season, Daniels has thrown 18 touchdown passes to four interceptions over nine games, with eight rushing touchdowns.
- Daniels has also spread the love among his receivers this year, throwing 11 touchdowns to nine different players, including three tight ends and three running backs. The 11 different players with a receiving touchdown are the most in the Big 12.

STATISTIC	2022	2021	2020
Touchdowns Thrown	11	7	1
Passing Yards	1,072	860	647
Completion Percentage	66.7	69.2	50
Interceptions	1	3	4

KEEN BEAN

- With Daniels out, Jason Bean has stepped into the starting quarterback role in more than an effective way.
- Against TCU, Bean threw for 262 yards on 16 of 24 passing and four touchdowns in just one half. The 262 yards marked the second-most Bean has ever thrown for at Kansas. Last year against Duke, Bean threw for 323 yards. The four touchdown passes did establish a new career high for the Texas native.
- Bean then matched that four-touchdown mark again against Oklahoma, throwing for 265 yards and four touchdowns against the Sooners.
- Against Baylor, Bean and the Kansas overcame a slow start to score 20 second-half points against the Bears. Bean finished that game with 232 passing yards, one touchdown and no interceptions. He also rushed for 25 yards and a touchdown.
- The senior then led the Jayhawks to a 37-16 win over Oklahoma State last time out at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium. Bean threw for 203 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for 93 yards and another score.

- The Texas native now has 11 touchdown passes this season. He had six all of last season. He's been intercepted just three times in 103 attempts after throwing six picks last year.
- Last season, in nine games at quarterback, Bean had multiple touchdown passes in a game just twice. He has three such games this season.
- Bean had six pass plays of 20 yards or longer against TCU. His long pass of the game came on his first attempt when he found Tanaka Scott for a 52-yard gain. He also found Mason Fairchild for 20 yards, Lawrence Arnold for 26, Quentin Skinner for 38 and 29 and Luke Grimm for 31.
- For his Kansas career now, Bean has completed 170 of 284 passes for 2,238 yards, 17 touchdowns and nine interceptions.
- The North Texas transfer has 3,545 passing yards in his collegiate career with 34 touchdown passes and 18 interceptions.

3. Drake Maye, North Carolina	Florida A&M, Appalachian St.
4. Jason Bean, Kansas	TCU, Oklahoma

THE SKY'S THE LIMIT

- Kansas has continued to have a strong season offensively in 2022 under the direction of Offensive Coordinator Andy Kotelnicki, whose offense returned nine starters from a season ago.
- After its 37-point performance against Oklahoma State, Kansas now ranks 15th in the country in scoring offense, averaging 37.9 points per game. The Jayhawks averaged 20.8 points per game last season, ranking 111th of 130 teams.
- The 37.9 points per game would be the highest output by the Jayhawks since the 2007 team averaged 42.8 points per game. Over the last 10 seasons, the highest scoring average for the Jayhawks was 23.5 in 2019.
- The Jayhawks are up to 46 touchdowns this season after not having more than 36 in any season over the last 10 years. The balance has been impeccable, with 22 rushing touchdowns and 22 passing touchdowns on the season.
- Kansas has rushed for 1,863 yards in nine games, an average of 207.0 yards per game. That total ranks fifth in the Big 12 and No. 22 nationally. The Jayhawks are averaging 5.8 yards per carry on 320 attempts. Kansas ranked 58th in rushing offense last season. The Jayhawks rushed for 351 yards last time out against Oklahoma State.
- KU has continued to execute at a high-level on third downs this season. The Jayhawks lead the Big 12 in third-down percentage, converting on 55-of-105 (52%) attempts this season. That number also ranks eighth nationally.
- The Kansas offensive line did not allow a sack in the first three games of the season and the Jayhawks enter the 10th game of the season ranked third nationally with just five sacks allowed. KU didn't allow a sack against Oklahoma State in its most recent contest.
- Kansas totaled 430 yards of offense at Oklahoma, good for the sixth time in eight games that KU surpassed the 400-yard mark. The Jayhawks established a new season-high in offense against TCU the week prior, surpassing 500 yards of offense for the third time this season and totaling 540 yards. The 540 yards were the most since KU went for 569 at Texas in 2019, and it was the most yards of total offense in a home game since 2018 against Rutgers.

REAL DEAL DEVIN NEAL

- After a true freshman season that saw Devin Neal rush for 707 yards on 158 carries – an average of 4.5 yards per carry – the Lawrence native is back and having a banner sophomore season.
- Through nine games this season, Neal has rushed for 761 yards on 118 carries, averaging 6.4 yards per carry. He ranks second in the Big 12 and ninth in the nation in yards per carry.
- He’s coming off the best game of his career and one of the finest individual performances in Kansas Football history. Neal rushed for 224 yards on 32 carries against Oklahoma State, while adding six catches for 110 yards against the Cowboys.
- Neal is second in the Big 12 this season, averaging 6.45 yards per carry. Only Kendre Miller from TCU has been better than Neal at 6.59 yards per carry. Neal also ranks sixth in rushing yards at 761, and sixth in rushing yards per game at 84.56. He’s also ninth with seven rushing touchdowns.
- Neal’s 32 carries against Oklahoma State established a new career high.
- Neal posted six games last year where he received 15 or more carries. He posted three 100-yard games and scored the first touchdown of his career in the team’s first road test of the season at Coastal Carolina.
- Neal finished the season with eight rushing touchdowns, marking the most by a Kansas freshman since James Sims in 2010. His career total is up to 10 after the two touchdowns Friday.
- The running back also became the first Kansas player since at least 2000 to have three rushing touchdowns and a receiving touchdown in a game when he did that at Texas in a November win.
- Perhaps the most impressive and encouraging sign for Neal last year was his success against big-time opponents. The freshman rushed for 143 yards and three touchdowns on 24 carries against Texas. Against No. 3 Oklahoma, he went for 100 yards and two touchdowns on 23 carries. He also rushed for 83 yards on 15 carries at Iowa State.

BIG BOYS UP FRONT

- The offensive production this season for Kansas has been fueled by its excellent play on the offensive line, under coach Scott Fuchs.
- The Jayhawks have started the same five in each of the first nine games, going with left tackle Earl Bostick Jr., left guard Dominick Puni, center Mike Novitsky, right guard Michael Ford Jr., and right tackle Bryce Cabeldue.
- The group has surrendered five sacks on the season. Kansas didn’t allow a sack over its first three games of the season and then held Oklahoma State without a sack last time out. The Jayhawks are third in the country in fewest sacks allowed, just two years removed from giving up 47 sacks in nine games during the 2020 season.
- Not only has the pass blocking been stellar, the offensive line has also paved the way for 207.0 rushing yards per game through nine contests this season.
- Puni is a transfer from Central Missouri, who has proven to be a strong addition for the Jayhawks. He has teamed up with Bostick on the left side of the line to protect quarterbacks Jalon Daniels and Jason Bean and pave holes for the running backs.
- Bostick has started 25 straight games and 28 overall for his career. Cabeldue has started 23 straight, while Novitsky is at 21 and Ford is at 20. Puni has started all eight games of his Jayhawk career. Bostick’s 27 career starts are the most by any Kansas offensive player.

HE’S BAAAAAAAACK

- Safety Kenny Logan Jr., has settled in for his fourth season with the Jayhawks and brings as accomplished of a resume as any safety in the Big 12 Conference.
- An All-Big 12 Second-Team pick last season, Logan led the conference with 113 tackles, which also led all safeties nationally. The St. Augustine, Florida native had 79 solo stops, which also led the Big 12 and ranked third nationally among all players.
- For the season, Logan is tied for sixth in the Big 12 with 69 total tackles, including 43 solo stops. He’s averaging 7.67 tackles per game.
- Last time out against Oklahoma State, he led the team with eight tackles. Against Baylor, Logan also had eight tackles and a pass breakup. Logan was one tackle off his career-high at Oklahoma, finishing with 14 stops, seven each of the solo and assist variety. It was the second-consecutive 10+ tackle game for the safety, who totaled 12 against TCU the week prior. Logan has now had nine games in his career with 10+ tackles, including three this season.
- Logan recorded his second interception of the season at Oklahoma, returning it 17 yards. He got first interception of the 2022 season at Houston, picking off Cougar QB Clayton Tune and returning it 26 yards to set up the game-tying score late in the first quarter. Against TCU, Logan forced and recovered a fumble early in the second half, his first recording of either stat this season. He is one of four Jayhawks to record an interception this season and his two pass breakups ranks second on the team.
- With his 14-tackle, 1-tackle-for-loss, 1-interception performance, Logan Jr., became the first player nationally this year to register those totals in one game.
- Logan totaled a team-high 12 tackles (8 solo, 4 assist) against TCU for his eighth career game with 10+ tackles. He also reached double figures against West Virginia, finishing with 10 tackles (3 solo, 7 assist) for his fourth 10+ tackle game in five outings, dating back to last season. Against Iowa State, Logan had four solo tackles and one pass breakup against Iowa State, with the PBU coming in the end zone as he erased a potential score for the Cyclones.
- For the year, Logan is tied for the team lead in tackles with linebacker Rich Miller with 69, while adding two interception, three pass breakups, one quarterback hurry, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

• Last year, Logan proved how valuable and diverse he can be. He was the only player in the country to have at least 113 tackles, six pass breakups and multiple forced fumbles on the season.

MAKING THE GRADE

• Individually, here's a look at the top five graded players by PFF against Oklahoma State on both sides of the ball:

Offense (20 or more snaps):

1. Jason Bean	77.0
2. Luke Grimm	74.9
3. Mike Novitsky	74.2
4. Devin Neal	72.3
5. Jared Casey	71.3

Defense (20 or more snaps)

1. Lorenzo McCaskill	79.3
2. Cobee Bryant	78.8
3. OJ Burroughs	72.0
4. Craig Young	70.8
5. Mello Dotson	70.2

Q, THAT'S WHO

• A former walk-on, who earned a scholarship in the offseason, wide receiver Quentin Skinner has been one of the biggest factors in the passing game for the Jayhawks this season.

• Skinner had one reception at Oklahoma after establishing new career-highs with four catches for 98 yards and a pair of touchdowns the week prior against TCU. Against Baylor, Skinner had four catches for 66 yards and a touchdown.

• For the season, Skinner has 18 catches for 309 yards and four touchdowns. He is tied for second on the team in touchdowns, just one behind tight end Mason Fairchild. His 18 catches rank third and his 309 yards rank third on the team behind Lawrence Arnold and Luke Grimm.

• Skinner is averaging a team-best 17.2 yards per reception with anyone who has five or more catches on the season

• Skinner's 17.2 yards per catch ranks fifth in the Big 12 Conference. Skinner is one of two KU receivers in the top 10 as Lawrence Arnold is 9th at 15.52 yards per catch.

CALL HIM DIRK

• Center Mike Novitsky is back for his second season with the Kansas, but good luck getting him to respond, if you call him "Mike." Nicknamed "Dirk" after the former Dallas Mavericks star, Novitsky, who transferred to Kansas from Buffalo following the 2020 season, was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List for the third straight season this year.

• Novitsky was consistently stellar for Kansas last season. According to PFF, Novitsky played 799 total snaps last year and did not commit a penalty or allow a sack.

• Taking it further, Novitsky has played 2,666 career snaps in college and has not allowed a sack.

• According to PFF, Novitsky graded out at 96% or better in all 12 games in 2021. He was named All-Big 12 Honorable Mention by the league's coaches at the completion of the season.

• Novitsky helped transform the Kansas offensive line into one that drastically improved its pass protection. Kansas allowed 47 sacks in just nine games in 2020, while surrendering just 16 last year in 12 games. Novitsky started all 12 games for the Jayhawks at the center spot.

• Novitsky and Kansas did not allow a sack through the first three games of 2022, making KU one of just four programs in NCAA Division I FBS who made that claim. The Jayhawks still rank third nationally in sacks allowed with five in eight games. Meanwhile, the Jayhawks are averaging 189 rushing yards per game, and KU has scored 20 rushing touchdowns through eight games.

• A native of Victor, N.Y., Novitsky was a standout lacrosse player at Victor High School and had a scholarship offer from Virginia. He opted instead to commit to Coach Lance Leipold at Buffalo, where he redshirted in 2018 and played for current Kansas Offensive Line Coach Scott Fuchs in 2019 and 2020.

A RICH SITUATION

• One year after ranking second on the team in tackles, senior linebacker Rich Miller has returned to the lineup in 2022 and picked up where he left off. Through the first nine games of the 2022 season, Miller leads the Jayhawks and ranks sixth in the Big 12 with 69 tackles, an average of 7.67 per game. Miller has totaled 42 solo tackles and 27 assists through the eight games this season.

• In his most recent game against Oklahoma State, Miller had six tackles, one sack and an interception he returned 37 yards. He became the first KU player since 2015 to have a sack and a pick in the same game.

• In the overtime win at West Virginia in September, Miller had 12 tackles (7 solo, 5 assist) to finish two shy of his career-high of 14, set at Duke in 2021. The WVU game was also the second 10+ tackle game for Miller as a Jayhawk.

• Following that game, Miller added a team-high nine stops in the Jayhawks win at Houston and, most recently, finished with seven tackles against Iowa State. He has had at least four stops in each game this season and he's also totaled 3.0 tackles for loss.

• In his first season as a Jayhawk, Miller was second on the team with 79 tackles and five tackles-for-loss, while adding two sacks and two pass breakups.

• A newcomer to the linebacker position, redshirt-junior Craig Young, is third on the team in tackles with 43 stops (31 solo, 12 assists) this season. Young transferred to Kansas from Ohio State and he's one of several newcomers producing for the Jayhawks at linebacker. Young recorded his third sack as a Jayhawk at Oklahoma and he also has 4.5 tackles for loss, an interception two pass breakups and three quarterback hurries to his credit in his first season in Lawrence. He had ½ a sack last time out against Oklahoma State.

• Other newcomers contributing at linebacker include Central Florida transfer Eriq Gilyard and Louisiana transfer Lorenzo McCaskill. Gilyard has 20 tackles, one tackle for loss and one interception on the season. McCaskill set a new career-high with 11 tackles at Oklahoma, which matched his output from the first six games of the season. He has made 19 solo tackles and 14 assists along with a 0.5 tackle for loss this season. He added a pass breakup, a fumble recovery and a quarterback hurry against Oklahoma State, in addition to five tackles.

LOVIN' LONNIE

• Defensive end Lonnie Phelps transferred to Kansas from Miami (OH) in December and the redshirt-junior from Cincinnati, Ohio has quickly made an impact for the Jayhawks. Following his first game in a KU uniform, Phelps was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week, becoming the first Jayhawk to earn the award since Joe Dineen (Nov. 12, 2018). He was also the first Kansas defensive end to win the award since Dorance Armstrong, Jr. (Nov. 19, 2016).

• Phelps had three sacks, four tackles-for-loss and a team-leading seven tackles in the Jayhawks' season opener against Tennessee Tech. He has since followed that performance with two tackles at West Virginia and five (one solo, four assist) at Houston while also recording 1.0 tackle for loss.

• Phelps picked a sack in three-straight games, against Duke, Iowa State and TCU. For the year, Phelps currently ranks fourth in the Big 12 and No. 42 nationally with 6 sacks.

• Phelps came to Kansas after totaling 13.5 tackles for loss and 9.5 sacks for Miami (OH) in 2021. Those numbers netted him a Second Team All-MAC selection.

ALL THE OPTIONS

- The Jayhawks continue to showcase depth in the running game, with three different players having at least 260 rushing yards and four touchdowns on the season. Quarterback Jalon Daniels and running backs Devin Neal and Daniel Hishaw are all averaging at least 6.0 yards per carry on the season.
- The Jayhawks topped the 200-yard mark in rushing in each of the first four games this season. Since then, KU has netted 112 yards with two rushing touchdowns against Iowa State and 189 yards on 38 carries against TCU. The Jayhawks had 165 yards and two touchdowns on the ground at Oklahoma, before rushing for 56 yards and two touchdowns at Baylor. The four-game streak of 200+ rushing yards was the first by a Jayhawk team since 2012. Kansas now has 20 rushing touchdowns through eight games, which is third in the Big 12 and ranks tied for 20th in the country with Ohio State.
- Sophomore Devin Neal, who surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for his career against Iowa State, is averaging 6.2 yards per carry this season on 86 attempts. For the season, Neal has rushed for 537 yards and six touchdowns on 86 carries. Neal recorded his fourth career 100-yard game in the season opener against Tennessee Tech, rushing for 108 yards on just four carries.
- Redshirt sophomore Daniel Hishaw scored at least one touchdown in each game he played this season. Hishaw is tied with Daniels for the team-lead with five rushing touchdowns while ranking third on the team with 263 yards through five games. Hishaw notched the first receiving touchdown of his career against Duke, catching a 73-yard pass from Jalon Daniels.
- Beyond Neal and Hishaw, the Jayhawks have excellent depth in the running back room. Sevon Morrison, a transfer from Nebraska, has 154 yards and a touchdown on 18 carries, including a season-long 40-yard run on his lone carry against TCU. Ky Thomas, a Topeka High product and a Minnesota transfer, returned to the lineup with 19 yards on six carries against TCU and added 18 yards and his first touchdown as a Jayhawk at Oklahoma. Thomas ran for more than 800 yards last year for the Golden Gophers.
- In addition, running back Torry Locklin caught a 60-yard touchdown pass from Jalon Daniels at Houston.

BETTER THAN FAIR

- Tight end Mason Fairchild has emerged as a serious threat for the Kansas offense this season, especially near the goal line.
- Fairchild has 15 catches for 225 yards and a team-best five touchdowns so far this season.
- He had the best game of his college career against Oklahoma two games ago with six catches for 106 yards and two touchdowns.
- He became the first Kansas tight end since Jimmay Mundine in 2014 to record a 100-yard game.
- Dating back to last season, Fairchild has six touchdown catches in his last nine games. He didn't have any touchdowns in his first 29 career games as a Jayhawk.

TIGHT ENDS WITH 100+ YARDS, 2+ TDS IN SAME GAME THIS SEASON

1.	Mason Fairchild, Kansas	6 receptions, 106 yards, 2 TDs at Oklahoma
2.	Brock Bowers, Georgia	5 catches, 121 yards, 2 TDs at South Carolina
3.	Corey Dyches, Maryland	4 catches, 106 yards, 2 TDs vs. Purdue
4.	Dalton Kincaid, Utah	7 catches, 107 yards, 2 TDs vs. Southern Utah
5.	Michael Mayer, Notre Dame	11 catches, 118 yards, 2 TDs vs. BYU

LAWRENCE THRIVING IN LAWRENCE

- Wide receiver Lawrence Arnold continues to improve as his career at Kansas continues and he had his best game of the season last month at Oklahoma.
- Arnold hauled in five receptions for a career-high 113 yards and two touchdowns in Norman, averaging 22.6 yards per reception, including a career-long 39 yard catch. Arnold then had three catches for 53 yards against Baylor.

- Against Oklahoma State last weekend, Arnold had a pair of highlight reel catches, including an 8-yard touchdown catch from Jason Bean.
- Arnold now leads the team with 419 receiving yards on 27 receptions, which is the second-most on the team. He caught his first touchdown of the season against Duke when Jalon Daniels found him for a 36-yard score in the third quarter to make it 28-13 before adding scoring receptions of 39 and 28 yards at Oklahoma.
- Arnold has had at least three receptions in 7-of-9 games this season and his 84 yards on four catches against Duke marked a career-high until the Oklahoma game.
- Last year, as a redshirt freshman, Arnold had 27 catches for 316 yards and three touchdowns.
- For his career, Arnold has 60 catches for 780 yards and seven scores.

A FIRST FOR SAM

- There were very few 'firsts' left for super-senior defensive lineman Sam Burt to accomplish with the Abilene, Kansas, native now in his sixth season as a Jayhawk. Burt did just that last month against Iowa State, however, as he recorded his first career sack. Against ISU, Burt totaled two tackles, one solo and one assist, while finishing with 1.5 sacks that led to 12 yards of lost ground. He also added one quarterback hurry in the win.
- Burt now has 13 tackles on the year and 1.5 tackles for loss, giving him 45 tackles, 3.0 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks in his 54-game Kansas career.
- On September 28, Burt was named a semifinalist for the 2022 William V. Campbell Trophy, college football's premiere scholar-athlete award. Burt is one of 156 semifinalists for the award, which recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the country for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership.
- Burt is a three-time Academic All-Big 12 First Team member, Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll and Athletic Director's Honor Roll. He has also received recognition as a nominee on the AFCA Allstate Good Works Team and for the Wuerffel Trophy.
- The 54 games Burt has played in are the most by any current Kansas player.

THE GRIMM REAPER

- Wide receiver Luke Grimm is already having one of his best seasons as a Jayhawk just through nine games of the season, despite missing the Baylor contest.
- Grimm leads the team with 33 catches. He's second on the team with 365 receiving yards and tied for third with three touchdowns.
- His 33 catches have already established a new career high, topping his previous best of 22 set last season as a true sophomore.
- For his career, Grimm has 74 catches for 969 yards and eight touchdowns.
- Against Oklahoma State, Grimm established a new career high with seven receptions. He finished with seven catches for 65 yards.
- Against TCU, Grimm had six catches for 73 yards and a touchdown. The six catches tied his then season high, while the 73 yards established a new season high for the Raymore, Missouri native.
- Grimm had one catch for 19 yards his last time out against Oklahoma and has at least one catch in all eight games he has played in this season.
- Grimm caught 22 passes for 349 yards and three touchdowns last season.
- In his true freshman season in 2020, Grimm hauled in 19 passes for 255 yards and a pair of scores.

LAST MEETING

RED RAIDERS TOP JAYHAWKS ON HOMECOMING

Oct. 16, 2021 | David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium | Lawrence, Kan.

LAWRENCE, Kan. – Texas Tech capitalized on a slow start by the Kansas Jayhawks to win 41-14 in a Saturday Homecoming afternoon contest at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium.

With the loss, Kansas fell to 1-5 on the season, and 0-3 in Big 12 play. The Red Raiders improved to 5-2 overall and 2-2 in conference play.

The Red Raiders started out the game driving the ball straight down the field and gained an early 7-0 lead on the Jayhawks when quarterback Henry Colombi scored on a 1-yard rush.

On Texas Tech's second drive, Kansas junior safety Kenny Logan made his impact felt. Logan notched an interception of Colombi on the six yard line and ran it back for 22-yards before being tackled. The pick of Colombi marked his first interception of the season and third of his career after picking up two last season.

Before Logan's pick, the Jayhawks marched down the field under the direction of quarterback Jason Bean, but Kansas missed a 47-yard field goal.

The Jayhawks gave the ball back to the Red Raiders on their second possession when Bean was intercepted. Texas Tech took the ball and went eight plays and 31 yards before tacking on a field goal to make it 10-0 early in the second quarter.

The Red Raiders continued to capitalize on some openings in the Jayhawk defense and were able to add two more touchdowns to their lead, making it 24-0 going into the break.

Texas Tech added two touchdowns in the third quarter and led 38-0 heading into the fourth. The Red Raiders added another field goal midway through the fourth to go up 41-0.

Late in the fourth quarter, the Jayhawks produced their first touchdown of the game with a 14-yard pass from Miles Kendrick to Luke Grimm. It marked Grimm's first touchdown of the season and third of his career. Kansas was able to find the endzone again with ten seconds left, when Kendrick found Lawrence Arnold for Arnold's third touchdown of the season. The score made it 41-14.

Kendrick went 4-for-7 for 48 yards and two touchdowns in relief of Bean. Running back Devin Neal led Kansas with 54 yards on 15 carries. Grimm finished with three catches for 33 yards and a touchdown to lead the receiving corps.

On the defensive side of the ball, junior Rich Miller led the team with seven solo tackles. While Logan Jr. followed with six, and added his interception and a pass breakup. Linebacker Gavin Potter also had six tackles, including one tackle-for-loss.

is a six-time National Champion, a five-time conference coach of the year and the fastest coach in NCAA history to reach 100 career wins, has been named the 41st head coach in Kansas Football history. Director of Athletics Travis Goff announced on April 30, 2021.

Leipold arrived at Kansas after a successful six-year stay at Buffalo, where in his final three seasons, he posted three straight winning seasons for the first time in 20 years. He won 24 games over the final three seasons, which included a seven-game shortened-season schedule in 2020 because of the COVID-19 pandemic, marking the most successful three-year run in Buffalo history.

A proven winner with a strong track record for player development, Leipold served as the head coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater for eight seasons from 2007 to 2014, capturing six NCAA Division III national championships and tallying an astounding record of 109-6.

After taking over a rebuilding Buffalo program that went 7-17 in his first two seasons, Leipold put together a record of 30-16 over his final four seasons, including three bowl appearances and two bowl victories with the Bulls. Leipold is coming off a 2020 season at Buffalo that brought unprecedented success to the program. The Bulls went a perfect 5-0 in the regular season and won the MAC East Division title for the second-straight year. Leipold's squad also beat Marshall in the Camellia Bowl for the program's second ever bowl win and second in as many years.

Buffalo also appeared in the Associated Press Top 25 at No. 24 on December 6, 2020, marking the first-time in school history the Bulls appeared in the national rankings. The team finished the season ranked 25th in both the AP poll and the Amway Coaches Poll. Leipold was named the MAC Coach of the Year for the second time in his career after the record-breaking season.

Showcasing his pristine reputation for player development and a keen eye for recruiting, Buffalo tied a school-record with 12 All-MAC selections in 2020, all of whom were recruited by Leipold. Running back Jaret Patterson led the way, rushing for 1,072 yards in just six games, including a 409-yard performance against Kent State, which is the second-best performance in FBS history.

Patterson was named the winner of the Vern Smith Leadership Award, given to the MVP of the MAC and was also named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year under Leipold's tutelage.

Buffalo also had 12 all-conference players in 2019, a season that culminated in the school's first-ever bowl victory – a 31-9 win over Charlotte in the Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl. The 2019 team featured one of the best defenses in the school's history. Buffalo ranked seventh nationally in total defense, allowing 291.9 yards per game. The Bulls were also fourth nationally against the run, allowing 94.2 yards per game.

In 2018, Buffalo won 10 games in a season for the first time ever in program history. Leipold's team went 7-1 in MAC play and won the East Division title. The Bulls also won 42-13 at Rutgers, marking the school's first-ever win over a Power 5 opponent.

COACHING HISTORY

2021-present	Kansas (Head Coach)
2015-21	Buffalo (Head Coach)
2007-14	Wisconsin Whitewater (Head Coach)
2004-06	Nebraska-Omaha (Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Coordinator)
2001-03	Nebraska (Administrative Assistant/Recruiting)
1991-93	Wisconsin (Graduate Assistant)
1990	Wisconsin-Whitewater (Assistant Coach)
1989	Doane (Assistant Coach)
1988	Wisconsin-Whitewater (Wide Receivers)
1987	Wisconsin-Whitewater (Quarterbacks)

He was named the MAC Coach of the Year and was also a semifinalist for the George Munger College Coach of the Year Award.

In that 2018 season, the Buffalo offense had a record-breaking season. Buffalo scored 484 points, 64 touchdowns and totaled 5,803 yards of total offense, establishing new school records in each category. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year, while Patterson earned MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

In Leipold's third season in 2017, the Bulls gained bowl eligibility for just the third time as an FBS program. The Bulls offense averaged 432 yards per game and led the conference in passing yards per game at 291. Showing an ability for explosive plays, Buffalo produced 20 plays of 45 or more yards on the season.

Leipold became the head coach at Buffalo in December of 2014 after a triumphant career as the head coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater, which saw him earn six National Coach of the Year awards. In his first season there in 2007, the Warhawks went 14-1 and won the Division III national championship. In 2008, the team made it back to the title game and fell to Mount Union.

Wisconsin-Whitewater then went 45-0 over the next three seasons, winning three straight national championships. After a 7-3 campaign in 2012, Whitewater went 30-0 combined in 2013 and 2014 winning two more national titles with Leipold at the helm.

During his time there, Warhawk players totaled 56 All-America honors, with running back Justin Beaver winning the Gagliardi Trophy as the top player in Division III. Brent Allen won the Division III Rimington Award as the top center. Running back Levell Coppage earned D3Football.com Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Cole Klotz won those honors on the defensive side.

Leipold, a native of Jefferson, Wisconsin, began his coaching career at Whitewater in 1987 as a quarterbacks coach. He moved to the University of Wisconsin in 1991, where he served as a graduate assistant for Barry Alvarez for three seasons and helped the Badgers win a Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl appearance in 1993.

He then served as an assistant coach at Division II Nebraska-Omaha from 1994-2000, helping the Mavericks become three-time conference champions. He was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000, before moving on to Nebraska where he worked for Frank Solich for four seasons. He then returned to Nebraska-Omaha for three years as the associate head coach and offensive coordinator, before moving on to Wisconsin-Whitewater in 2007.

Leipold is a 1987 graduate of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he was a standout quarterback.

Leipold and his wife Kelly, have a daughter, Lindsey, and a son, Landon. Lindsey plays volleyball at Lamar University.

LAWRENCE, Kan. – An efficient night, highlighted by junior quarterback Jalon Daniels and sophomore running back Devin Neal, headlined Kansas' 56-10 win against Tennessee Tech to open the 2022 season at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium on Friday evening.

A crowd of 34,902 saw Kansas score touchdowns on four of its first five drives of the game. For the contest, Daniels went 15-for-18 for 189 yards and one touchdown. The junior added one rushing score, while Neal had just four rushes for 108 yards and two touchdowns in the victory.

The Jayhawks (1-0) started fast on offense, scoring touchdowns on each of their first two drives. On the opening drive, Daniels hit redshirt-senior Lawrence Arnold for a 21-yard gain, before Neal scored his first touchdown of the season, when he broke a tackle and scored from 19 yards out.

After a second-straight three-and-out by the Kansas defense, the offense went to work again. This time, Daniels found redshirt-sophomore receiver Quentin Skinner for a 56-yard catch that marked Skinner's first career catch.

One play later, redshirt-sophomore running back Daniel Hishaw, who missed the 2021 season with an injury, took his first carry of the season nine yards for a touchdown to make it 14-0 Jayhawks.

Following two scores on two drives for the offense, the special teams decided to get involved. KU junior defensive end Jereme Robinson blocked a 50-yard field goal attempt by Tennessee Tech's Devin Parker. Jayhawk sophomore cornerback Cobee Bryant then scooped the ball up and returned it 61 yards for a touchdown to make it 21-0, which stood up to be the score at the end of the first quarter.

Tennessee Tech (0-1) got on the scoreboard early in the second quarter when Parker converted on a 28-yard field goal.

The Jayhawks answered back later in the quarter when Daniels scampered in from 11 yards out to cap a six-play, 22-yard drive to make it 28-3. Kansas took over at the 22 after a short punt from Tennessee Tech from the endzone.

After a quick stop by the defense, Kansas scored again right before halftime when Daniels found senior tight end Mason Fairchild for a two-yard touchdown pass to make it 35-3; a lead the Jayhawks took into the locker room at halftime.

Neal put KU up 42-3 when he blew past the Golden Eagles defense on an 80-yard jaunt with 4:21 left in the third quarter. Redshirt-sophomore Sevon Morrison opened the fourth quarter with an 11-yard touchdown run and redshirt-senior Jason Bean closed out the KU scoring with a seven-yard rush in the final quarter.

Kansas will next travel to Big 12 foe West Virginia (0-1) on Saturday, Sept. 10. Kickoff from Milan Puskar Stadium in Morgantown, W.Va., is slated for 5 p.m. (Central) and the game will be televised on Big 12 NOW on ESPN+.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. – Kansas Football claimed a dramatic overtime victory at West Virginia on Saturday evening, overcoming a 14-point first-half deficit to earn a 55-42 victory at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The win is the Jayhawks' first-ever win over the Mountaineers in Morgantown. Kansas trailed by 14 three times in the first half, including 14-0 at the end of the first quarter.

After WVU tied the game with 35 seconds to play, the Jayhawks got the ball first in overtime. Kansas got a fresh set of downs from the 10-yard line following a roughing the passer call on WVU. KU cashed in on its set of downs when Jalon Daniels found Quentin Skinner in the end zone for his first career touchdown reception, a four-yard catch that put KU up 49-42.

KU would close out the game with an interception from Cobee Bryant, who jumped a WVU route for a pick-six, the Jayhawks' second takeaway of the game, to make the final score 55-42.

Kansas moves to 2-0 on the year for the first time since 2011 and picks up a win in the Big 12 opener for the first time since 2009. This is also KU's first win in a Big 12 conference opener on the road since 2008.

The Jayhawks first score came on a nine-play drive that spanned 79 yards and took 5:01 off the clock. It was punctuated by a 10-yard touchdown pass from Daniels to tight end Mason Fairchild on the first play of the second quarter, marking the second straight game Daniels and Fairchild hooked up for a touchdown after a 2-yard score in the opener against Tennessee Tech.

After another touchdown drive from the Mountaineers to go up 21-7, the Kansas offense again responded. This time, Daniels orchestrated an 11-play, 75-yard drive that took 4:49 and ended with a six-yard touchdown rush from Devin Neal, his first of three total touchdowns on the night.

West Virginia answered, scoring a five-yard touchdown pass to make it 28-14 with 3:11 to play until halftime. The Jayhawks perfectly executed its final drive, going 75 yards in 10 plays, taking up 2:42 of game time to score and make it 28-21 with just 29 seconds to play in the half. WVU ran out the clock and went into intermission with that score.

KU got the ball first in the second half and needed just eight plays to go 75 yards, as a 40-yard strike from Daniels to Skinner set up the game-tying touchdown, a three-yard plunge from Daniel Hishaw. The touchdown, Hishaw's second in as many games, knotted the score at 28-28 with 11:32 to play in the third.

Momentum remained with the Jayhawks as KU forced West Virginia to punt on its next drive. Although Kansas was also forced to punt, the Jayhawks' Torrey Locklin recovered a muffed punt from WVU, which put KU in position to take its first lead of the night. The Jayhawks would do just that six plays later, as Neal found the end zone for the third time on the night, a two-yard touchdown run to put KU up 35-28 with 4:00 to play in the third.

West Virginia would get a field goal on its ensuing drive, cutting the Jayhawks lead to 35-31 with 12:58 to play. It would only take KU four plays to extend its lead as the Jayhawks marched 65 yards in 1:56, capped off when Hishaw broke away for a 30-yard touchdown – his second on the night and third of the year. That score would give Kansas its first two-score lead of the day at 42-31 with 10:59 to play.

WVU drove 64 yards in 14 plays on its next drive, but the Jayhawks held the Mountaineers to three points and maintained a full score lead of 42-34 with 4:04 to play.

Kansas would punt the ball back to West Virginia with 2:17 to play and the Mountaineers used a 12-play, 85-yard drive to score a touchdown and tie the game with 35 seconds to play after a successful two-point conversion.

Next up for the Jayhawks is a trip to Houston on Saturday, Sept. 17, to face a future Big 12 Conference foe, the Houston Cougars, in a non-conference matchup. Kickoff of that game is slated for 3:00 p.m. CT on ESPN2 from TDECU Stadium.

HOUSTON, Texas – For the first time since 2009, the Kansas Jayhawks are 3-0 following a 48-30 victory over the Houston Cougars on Saturday, Sept. 17, at TDECU Stadium.

The Jayhawks overcame an early 14-point deficit by scoring touchdowns on six of its next seven drives, with the lone exception being a drive ended only by halftime. Junior quarterback Jalon Daniels led the Jayhawks, throwing for 158 yards and three touchdowns while rushing for a career-high 123 yards and two scores.

Kansas returns home next Saturday, Sept. 24, to host Duke in the final non-conference game on the schedule. Kickoff of that game is slated for 11:00 a.m. CT at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium with a nationally-televvised broadcast on FS1.

Similar to last week, the Jayhawks had to work from behind early in the game after Houston scored on each of its first two drives to lead 14-0 less than eight minutes into the game.

On KU's next possession, Daniels led the Jayhawks 75 yards in nine plays for its first score of the game. Kansas ran the ball on seven-of-nine plays in the drive, capped with a 12-yard scoring run by Daniels that made it 14-7 with 2:43 to play in the first.

The Kansas defense came up with a big play on Houston's next drive, forcing an overthrow from quarterback Clayton Tune that found the arms of senior safety Kenny Logan, Jr., for his first interception of the season. Logan returned the pick into the red zone and the Jayhawks would move it to the 8-yard line following a penalty against Houston. Redshirt-sophomore running back Daniel Hishaw would score on the next play, tying the game at 14-all with 1:06 to play in the quarter.

KU's defense forced a punt on Houston's next possession and the offense was driving again when the game was sent into a lightning delay with 9:21 to play before halftime. On the first play following the delay, which lasted 69 minutes, Kansas scored to take its first lead of the game on a five-yard touchdown strike from Daniels to Luke Grimm, which put KU up 21-14.

The Jayhawks weren't done, however, as it put together its longest drive of the year to add a fourth consecutive touchdown drive in the half. Kansas got the ball at its own 3-yard line and covered 97 yards in seven plays, the final of which being a 60-yard touchdown pass from Daniels to Torrey Locklin, which allowed the Jayhawks to carry a 28-14 lead into intermission.

Houston scored on its opening drive of the second half, but KU answered with a nine-yard touchdown run from Daniels that made it a two-score game at 35-21. Jereme Robinson then forced and recovered a sack fumble, which set up Kansas with another short field. The Jayhawks would cash in five plays later as Daniels took a handoff from Devin Neal and found Jared Casey for an eight-yard touchdown to extend the lead to 42-21. Houston scored on its final drive of the third quarter, but missed the extra point and KU led 42-27 heading to the fourth.

Each of the first three drives in the fourth quarter ended in field goals, with two for the Jayhawks and one for the Cougars. The Jayhawks then stopped Houston on its final drive to finish off the game and secure the victory.

Kansas, now 3-0 following back-to-back road wins for the first time since 2007, will return to action on Saturday, Sept. 24, against Duke at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium in Lawrence.

LAWRENCE, Kan. – Junior quarterback Jalon Daniels accounted for all five touchdowns to lead Kansas to a 35-27 win against Duke Saturday in front of a crowd of 47,233 fans at a sold out David Booth Memorial Stadium. Kansas improved to 4-0 for the first time since the 2009 season.

Daniels passed for four touchdowns and rushed for another, amassing 407 yards of total offense to lead KU. The Lawndale, California, native was 19-for-23 for 324 yards passing and rushed for 83 yards on 11 carries.

For the game, KU posted a season-high 528 yards with 324 yards in the air and 204 on the ground. The Jayhawks improved to 2-0 at home for the first time since the 2013 season. KU also improved to 3-0 in non-conference play for the first time since 2009.

Kansas took the opening drive 74 yards before stalling at the Duke one yard line. The Jayhawks then forced their seventh three-and-out of the season on the next possession.

On its second drive of the game Kansas went up 7-0 on a seven-play, 57-yard drive with Daniels connecting to redshirt-sophomore tight end Trevor Kardell on a six-yard touchdown pass. It was Kardell's first career TD catch and Daniels' eighth TD toss of the 2022 season. Duke would tie the contest at 7-7 on the game's next drive.

Early in the second quarter, Daniels connected on a 73-yard touchdown pass to running back Daniel Hishaw Jr. Hishaw broke three tackles powering his way to the end zone to put the home team up 14-7 with 12:35 before halftime.

Later in the quarter, Luke Grimm's fourth catch of the first half was a 19-yard fade from Daniels in the left corner of the end zone to put KU up 21-10 with 1:04 before half. Earlier in the drive Daniels connected with Grimm on third down for 19 yards to keep the drive going. Duke would answer with a field goal to end the half making it 21-13 in favor of KU at intermission.

Kansas outgained Duke 329-216 in total yards in the first half with Daniels responsible for 262 of those yards going 11-for-12 passing for 200 yards and rushing for 62 yards on seven carries. He threw for two scores in the opening half.

Daniels continued his hot hand in the third quarter. On KU's first drive after half, the junior signal caller connected on his fourth touchdown pass of the contest with a 36-yard strike to redshirt-sophomore Lawrence Arnold. The score gave Kansas a 28-13 lead.

Kansas later answered a Duke touchdown with an eight-play, 75-yard scoring drive capped off with a Daniels three-yard touchdown to make the score 35-20 with 4:42 to play.

Duke would not go away, cutting the score to 35-27 with 2:40 to play. Kansas would later be forced to punt and KU's defense would stop a Duke threat at the KU 31 yard line before ending the game with two kneel downs.

LAWRENCE, Kan. - Behind second-quarter touchdowns from junior quarterback Jalon Daniels and redshirt-sophomore Daniel Hishaw Jr., Kansas defeated Iowa State 14-11 at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium Saturday afternoon.

A sellout homecoming crowd of 47,233, saw Kansas improve to 5-0 for the first time since the 2009 season. The Jayhawks are 2-0 in Big 12 play for the first time since the 2008 season. Iowa State dropped to 3-2 and 0-2 in the Big 12.

Hishaw got Kansas on the scoreboard first with a four-yard touchdown run with 11:30 to play in the first half to make the score 7-0 in favor of the home team. The score capped a seven-play, 79-yard drive that took 3:59 off the clock. Hishaw rushed for 18 yards on the drive, while sophomore running back Devin Neal took a Daniels pitch and raced 30 yards earlier in the drive setting up Hishaw's score, his fifth of the season.

Hishaw finished with 28 yards on eight carries and the score. Neal rushed for 75 yards on 12 carries to lead all rushers. Daniels was 7-of-14 in the air for 90 yards.

Kansas took advantage of a short field when sophomore Cobee Bryant recorded his second interception of the season at the Iowa State 19 yard line with 7:25 before intermission. Four plays later Daniels scored his fifth touchdown of the season with a two-yard rush off the left tackle to put Kansas up 14-0 with 5:25 before halftime.

Iowa State field goal kicker Jace Gilbert missed three field goals for the game including a 37-yarder that went wide left with 32 seconds remaining that would have tied the contest.

For the game, Kansas held Iowa State to 26 yards rushing on 30 carries, marking the lowest rushing yards gained by a Jayhawk opponent since KU held UTEP to four yards in 2009. It was the lowest by a conference foe since Nebraska rushed for 21 yards on Nov. 5, 2005.

The first quarter was a scoreless chess match. Late in the period, Iowa State drove to the Kansas 21, yet Gilbert's 38-yard field goal attempt hit the right upright.

Iowa State responded with a 75-yard touchdown drive and converted a muffed extra point attempt to make the score 14-8 in favor of Kansas with 2:51 left in the second quarter. Both teams posted late drives that ended up scoreless giving KU a 14-8 lead at the half.

Following a Kansas punt on its first drive of the second half, Iowa State drove 62 yards in 12 plays and kicked a 35-yard field goal to make the score 14-11 with 5:27 left in the third quarter and would eventually be the final score.

Kansas will next host TCU (4-0, 1-0 Big 12) in a conference matchup Saturday, Oct. 8, at 11 a.m. (Central). The contest will be televised on FS1.

NORMAN, Okla. – No. 19 Kansas dropped a high-scoring, 52-42, contest at Oklahoma on Saturday at Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium in Norman.

The Jayhawks fall to 5-2 on the year and 2-2 in Big 12 play, while OU improves to 4-3 and picks up its first conference win to move to 1-3.

The scoring started right away with Oklahoma marching 79 yards on 10 plays in its first drive, finishing it with a 1-yard touchdown rush from Jovante Barnes.

Kansas answered right back on its first drive, also reaching the end zone after a long drive. Quarterback Jason Bean found receiver Lawrence Arnold for a 39-yard strike to even the game up at seven.

The two teams traded touchdown drives again on their second possessions of the game. First, Oklahoma went 75 yards on nine plays and scored on a 2-yard rush from Eric Gray to go up 14-7 with 7:13 to play in the first half.

The Jayhawks again answered, this time thanks to running back Devin Neal. Neal scored from 11 yards out with 2:39 in the first quarter to tie the game at 14. Neal's touchdown capped a 65-yard drive for the Jayhawks.

The Sooners then scored three-straight touchdowns over an 11-plus minute span in the second quarter to take a 35-14 lead with 2:40 to play in the first half.

Kansas cut it to a 14-point deficit with 1:36 to play in the half when Bean found tight end Mason Fairchild for an 18-yard touchdown to make it 35-21.

The Sooners marched down to the one-yard line right before half, but a Kenny Logan tackle at the goal line kept Oklahoma out of the end zone to end the half and keep the deficit at 14.

The Jayhawks had the ball to start the second with an opportunity to cut it to a seven-point game. But Oklahoma picked off Bean on the first drive of the second half, and then scored on the ensuing possession to go up 42-21.

Kansas answered back when Bean found Arnold for their second touchdown connection; this one for 28 yards with 5:56 to play in the third. Arnold finished with a career-high 106 yards on five receptions for the game.

Oklahoma again had an answer, however, when quarterback Dillon Gabriel found Brayden Willis for a 26-yard touchdown pass to make it 49-28 with less than three minutes to play in the third.

Early in the fourth, Kansas cut it to 14 again when running back Ky Thomas scored the first touchdown of his Jayhawk career when he scored on a handoff from the 1-yard line. A long scoring drive ensued as OU used 5:15 off the clock and added a field goal to make it 52-35 with 5:18 to play.

Kansas had another quick response planned, this time a seven-play, 75-yard drive that just took 1:47 off the clock. The drive culminated with a 9-yard touchdown pass from Bean to Fairchild, the duo's second scoring connection of the day and third in the past two weeks. Trailing 52-42 with 3:31 to play, Kansas attempted an onside kick, which was recovered by the Sooners, who were then able to run out the clock.

Fairchild totaled career-highs of six receptions, 106 yards and two touchdowns in the game, joining Arnold with more than 100 receiving yards in the game. The last time Kansas had two receivers with surpass the century mark in receiving yards was against Texas Tech in 2019.

WACO, Texas – Kansas scored the first 20 points of the second half, but the Jayhawks were unable to overcome an early deficit and fell to Baylor, 35-23, on Saturday, October 22, at McLane Stadium.

The Jayhawks scored the first 20 points of the second half and outscored the Bears 20-7 after halftime, but a 28-3 halftime deficit proved to be too much to overcome. Baylor scored two touchdowns in each of the first two quarters, but Kansas kept the Bears off the scoreboard for the first 27 minutes of the second half. The Jayhawks got within five at 28-23 in the fourth quarter before Baylor scored with 2:37 to play, making it a two-possession game.

The Jayhawks are now 5-3 on the year and 2-3 in Big 12 Conference play heading into the bye week. Baylor improves to 4-3 (2-2 Big 12) for the year.

After getting a three-and-out on its first defensive series, Baylor didn't waste any time finding the end zone on offense. The Bears went 41 yards on seven plays on their first drive, which was capped by a 17-yard touchdown pass from Blake Shapen to Monaray Baldwin.

The Jayhawks then fumbled on their first play after the touchdown and the Bears took over at the 25-yard line, already leading 7-0. Baylor scored on its second play of the drive to go up 14-0.

Kansas got on the scoreboard on its next drive, however. The Jayhawks drove 62 yards on 12 plays and placekicker Jacob Borcila finished off the drive with a 30-yard field goal to close the gap to 14-3.

However, Baylor scored the next two touchdowns of the half to go up 28-3. The Bears were going in to score again right before the half, but linebacker Craig Young picked off Baylor quarterback Blake Shapen to stop the threat and get the game to halftime.

In the third quarter, the Jayhawks came alive, led by their defense. Defensive end Jereme Robinson sacked Shapen, and forced a fumble, which he recovered. Robinson returned it 49 yards to the Baylor 9-yard line. Three plays later, on third-and-goal from the 2-yard line, Devin Neal scored from two yards out to make it 28-10.

On the next drive, the Kansas defense forced Baylor's first punt of the game after a seven-play, 24-yard drive.

Baylor downed the ball at the 5-yard line, where the Jayhawk offense went to work. Led by quarterback Jason Bean, Kansas drove 95 yards on 11 plays and capped it with a 24-yard touchdown pass to Quentin Skinner. The Jayhawks went for two, but couldn't convert, cutting the lead to 28-16 with 14:33 to play in the fourth quarter.

Baylor drove into the red zone on its next drive, but the Bears were turned away on fourth down as KU took over on downs at its own 7-yard line. Bean led another long drive, this time needing eight plays to cover 93 yards, capping the drive with a four-yard touchdown run of his own. Following the extra point, the Jayhawks trailed 38-23 with 6:29 to play.

Kansas was unable to get a stop on Baylor's next drive, as the Bears drove 69 yards in seven plays to extend the lead to 35-23 on a four-yard touchdown run with 2:37 to play. The Jayhawks couldn't get a first down on the next offensive drive and turned it over on downs, which allowed Baylor to run out the clock.

LAWRENCE, Kan. – The Kansas Jayhawks became bowl eligible for the first time since 2008 with a 37-16 win over No. 18 Oklahoma State on Saturday afternoon at David Booth Memorial Stadium. The win is Kansas' first against a ranked opponent since 2010, breaking a streak of 44-straight losses to ranked teams.

An excited Lawrence crowd of 43,306 saw Kansas improve to 6-3 and 3-3 in the Big 12, making Kansas bowl eligible for a possible 13th appearance in a bowl game in program history. Oklahoma State also dropped to 6-3 and 3-3 in the Big 12. The win over the Cowboys was the first victory by the Jayhawks over a ranked opponent at home since 2005.

Running back Devin Neal rushed for 224 yards and a touchdown on 32 carries, while adding 110 receiving yards on six catches. He became the first player in program history to rush for 200+ yards and have 100+ receiving yards in the same game. He is just the third Power 5 player since 1996 to have at least 220 rushing yards and 110 receiving yards in the same game.

"I'm so happy for the guys that have been through a lot during their time," Head Coach Lance Leipold said. "To see the locker room the way it is celebrating and so happy and for all the times it's been tough...It says a lot about them. I'm happy for the fans and the staff, but for those guys that have worked through it in that group to play so well today, I'm proud."

On Oklahoma State's first drive of the game, the Cowboys pushed the ball down the field 40 yards, however, cornerback Cobee Bryant, who missed the team's most recent game against Baylor with an injury, intercepted a Cowboy pass to give the Jayhawks the ball on the Kansas 27 yard-line.

The Jayhawks didn't waste any time getting into the endzone on their first drive. Led by Quarterback Jason Bean, Kansas went 73 yards on four plays in 1:32 to get on the scoreboard first. Neal ran for 55 yards, including a 31-yard touchdown rush into the right side of the endzone.

"Devin made a lot of plays in the passing and running game," Leipold said. "It was the most physical he ran, as well. We're going to need that."

OSU started their second drive on their own 25 yard line, however, an interception by cornerback Ra'Mello Dotson ended the short drive. Dotson intercepted the ball at the Kansas 32-yard line and returned it 13 yards to put the Jayhawks on their own 45 yard line. The interception was Dotson's second of the season. Nearing the end of the first quarter, the Jayhawks pushed the ball down the field 76 yards on 16 plays with the drive being capped with a 21-yard field goal by kicker Jacob Borcila.

The Jayhawk defense was able to keep Oklahoma State shutout in the first quarter, but the Cowboys were able to get their first score of the game in the second quarter. The Jayhawks, however, responded fast with a 49 second scoring drive. Bean rushed for a career-high 73 yards up the left side of the field for a Kansas touchdown.

Kansas ended a 47-yard OSU drive, with a fumble recovery by Lorenzo McCaskill. Kansas took advantage and responded with an 87-yard scoring drive. Lawrence Arnold caught an 8-yard pass from Bean in the left corner of the endzone over an OSU defender.

Jared Casey caught the first touchdown of the second half on a 2-yard pass in the back of the end zone from Bean. The score capped a fifteen-play, 75-yard drive that took 7:08 off the clock.

Oklahoma State responded with an 11-play, 54-yard drive that concluded with a 35 yard field goal. Kansas followed with a field goal off a 72-yard drive that was capped with a 20-yard kick of its own. The Cowboys were able to capitalize on a 10-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in a touchdown.

The Cowboys remained scoreless for the rest of the game, while Kansas recorded another 3 points off a 31-yard field goal by Borcila. The Jayhawks tallied their third interception from Rich Miller, who returned it 34 yards to ice the game.

Bean finished 18 for 23 for 203 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions. He also rushed for 93 yards and a touchdown on four carries. Receiver Luke Grimm established a new career high with seven catches for 65 yards. Kenny Logan Jr., led the Jayhawks with eight tackles. Jerome Robinson finished with two tackles-for-loss, while Bryant had an interception, two pass breakups and a ½ tackle-for-loss.
