THE TOP 5

1 Coming off a convincing 41-28 victory over TCU and its second bye week of the season, Kansas State travels to Lawrence for the 123rd edition of the Dillons Sunflower Showdown on Saturday inside Memorial Stadium. The game kicks off at 11 a.m., and will be shown on TNT with a simulcast on truTV and HBO Max with J.B. Long (play-by-play), Mike Golic Jr. (analyst) and Coy Wire (sidelines) on the call.

2 After starting the season with a 1-3 record, the Wildcats have rebounded the last two games by going 2-1 as their lone loss in that stretch was a one-point defeat at Baylor. Five of K-State's games this season have been decided by one score as the Wildcats are one of only three Power 4 teams to already have five games decided by one possession. Two of their three wins this season have been by two scores.

3 Quarterback Avery Johnson is set to make his 22nd-career start under center having thrown for 1,561 yards and 13 touchdowns with only two interceptions as his 0.9% interception ratio ranks 17th in the nation and second in the Big 12. He has thrown touchdown passes to six different receivers this season, with tight end Garrett Oakley (4) wide receiver Jayce Brown (3) leading the way.

4 Austin Romaine leads the team with 49 tackles, followed by 37 from Des Purnell, who is coming off a career day vs. TCU when he recorded a sack and a pick-6 on consecutive plays, part of a day with two picks and four total passes defended. Cornerback Zashon Rich is tied for the Big 12 lead and is ninth nationally with seven pass breakups, and the Cats rank fourth in the country with seven fumble recoveries.

5 Kicker Luis Rodriguez is 10-for-11 on field goals to open the year, ranking 22nd in the country with a 90.9% conversion rate as his only miss was a blocked 56-yard attempt at the end of the Baylor game. Punter Simon McClannan ranks fifth in the Big 12 with a 43.3-yard average. The Cats rank ninth nationally in kickoff return average, thanks in part to Bryce Noernberg's 99-yard score against Army.

STATISTICAL SPOTLIGHTS

Nation-leading non-offensive scores by K-State since 1999 after two its last time out against TCU.

138

K-State's red zone success rate under head coach Chris Klieman, the highest in the Big 12 since 2019.

90.3

Games it took Avery Johnson to hit 4,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a career, the second-fastest in school history.

26

Career receiving touchdowns by Garrett Oakley, which is the school record for a tight end.

11

Number of Cure brothers playing in Saturday's game – Linkon for the Wildcats and Leyton for the Jayhawks.

2

PLAYER SPOTLIGHT

Linebacker and Topeka native Des Purnell recorded two picks against TCU – including one he returned 25 yards for a score – en route to Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honors.

CREDENTIALS

Media outlets interested in covering Kansas State football on either a season or individual-game basis are requested to submit all applications for credentials through the K-State Athletics Communications football credential application website at www.k-statesports.com/media. K-State is unable to process written requests for football credentials. Please be sure and review the department's credential policies on page 226 of the 2025 K-State Football Media Guide.

Due to inconsistent mail delivery service on tight deadlines, media passes generally will not be mailed. If this is the case, passes may be picked up at a location to be determined by the K-State Athletics Communications Office. Individuals picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification.

Admission to the press level is for working media only. Only those media with official K-State credentials will be admitted. Friends, spouses, children under the age of 16 and non-workers are not welcome in the press area.

Only two field access credentials will be allowed per media outlet for each game.

WEEKLY MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Mondays: Head coach Chris Klieman hosts a weekly news conference in the Steel & Pipe Team Theatre of the Vanier Family Football Complex. Lunch will be served at noon followed by Klieman's press conference at 12:30 p.m. Requested players are available from 1 p.m., to 1:30 p.m. Player requests must be submitted to Ryan Lackey by 3 p.m., on Sundays.

Thursdays: Offensive coordinator Matt Wells and defensive coordinator Joe Klanderman will hold interviews for 10 minutes apiece beginning at 1 p.m. These will take place in the Steel & Pipe Team Theatre at the Vanier Family Football Complex. There is no coordinator availability on bye weeks.

PRESS CONFERENCE VIDEO

Broadcast-quality video and audio files of press conferences on Monday and Thursday will be available for download in the afternoons on those respective days. Please contact Ryan Lackey for download instructions.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

K-State's locker room is closed. Media will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Ryan Lackey at the start of the fourth quarter. During home games, Coach Klieman will address the media in the Steel & Pipe Team Theatre on the third floor of the Vanier Family Football Complex, followed by the requested players. To get to the theater, proceed to the concourse and walk toward the Vanier Family Football Complex. Enter the first set of double doors and take an immediate left into the theater. On the road, these interviews will take place either in the designated visiting interview area or outside the visiting locker room.

RECENT RECAP

- Kansas State is coming off its second bye week of the season with two wins in its last three games, as the Wildcats' only loss during that stretch was a one-point defeat at Baylor.
- Last time out, the Wildcats earned a 41-28 victory over TCU, a game that featured defensive touchdowns by safety Wesley Fair (15-yard fumble return) and linebacker Deshaun Purnell (25-yard interception return).
- Purnell's pick-6 came on the very next play after he had a sack and was part of a two-interception game with four total passes defended en route to Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honors.
- Quarterback Avery Johnson threw three touchdown passes, including two to tight end Garrett Oakley, which gave him 11 in his career to set the school record by a tight end.
- The Wildcats has one of their best offensive performances of the season at Baylor – topping the 500-yard mark – and won the turnover battle, but a late 53-yard Bear field goal and a blocked 56-yard K-State field goal as time expired gave Baylor a 35-34 win.
- Johnson threw for 344 yards at Baylor, and Jayce Brown topped the 100-yard receiving mark in the contest.
- The week prior, Kansas State took advantage of the first of three bye weeks in the 2025 season with a 34-20 win over UCF.

CURE vs. CURE

- K-State and Kansas will see sibling tight ends go head-to-head as Linkon Cure and his brother, Leyton, will face off.
- Linkon is a true freshman for the Wildcats who has played in each of the last four games after missing the first three games due to injury. He came to K-State after being rated the 30th-best overall player in the Class of 2025 by 247Sports.
- Leyton is in his second year at Kansas after spending the first three years of his career at Fort Hays State.
- It is the second-straight game K-State has played in which siblings have faced off. Against TCU, Wildcat defensive end Chiddi got the win over his brother Namdi, a TCU linebacker.

FIVE ONE-SCORE GAMES

- Of Kansas State's last 20 games dating back to Week 2 of the 2024 season, 11 have been decided by just one score.
- Last year, the Wildcats went 4-2 in one-possession games. All four of the victories were fourth-quarter comebacks, which ranked second in the nation to Illinois' five.
- This season, K-State has played five one-possession games but has only come out on the winning side one time. In four of those games, the Wildcats had the ball with a chance to either tie or take the lead late in the fourth quarter.
- The five one-score games this year are tied for the most among Power 4 teams (Iowa State, Ole Miss).

TOWARD THE TOP IN CONSISTENCY

- K-State is one of only 10 Power 4 schools that have won at least nine games in each of the last three seasons, joining Alabama, Clemson, Georgia, LSU, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oregon, Penn State and Tennessee.
- Among those teams, only Kansas State, Alabama, Clemson, Georgia and Oregon have accomplished that feat in addition to winning a conference championship during that time frame.
- The Wildcats are tied for second among current Big 12 teams and 18th among Power 4 teams with 31 total wins since the beginning of 2022.

AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

- K-State has a total of 234 victories since 1996, which ranks 22nd nationally.
- Among active Big 12 teams, the Wildcats rank fourth behind BYU (246), TCU (243) and Utah (238).

A WINNING TRADITION

- Kansas State has totaled 146 Big 12 victories since the conference's formation in 1996, which stands as the most among active Big 12 programs.
- The Cats are also tied for first among active Big 12 members in winning percentage since non-divisional play began in 2011. They sit at 59.2% (77-53) along with Oklahoma State (59.2%; 77-53).
- During that stretch, the Wildcats are 44-21 (67.7%) at home in Big 12 play and 33-32 (50.7%) on the road/neutral.

STATE PRIDE

- Among players that have started at least three games, Kansas State has 10 starters that hail from the Sunflower State.
- On offense, the Kansans are quarterback Avery Johnson (Wichita), offensive linemen Taylor Poirier (Kansas City) and Sam Hecht (Shawnee), tight end Will Anciaux (Wichita) and running back Dylan Edwards (Derby).
- Defensively, the list includes defensive ends Cody Stufflebean (McPherson) and Tobi Osunsanmi (Wichita), defensive tackle Damian Ilalio (Manhattan), linebacker Deshaun Purnell (Topeka) and safety Wesley Fair (Wichita).

A TRACK RECORD OF WINNING

- A proven winner with a championship history, Chris Klieman holds a 123-45 career record, as his 73.2% career winning percentage ranks fourth among current FBS coaches that have completed at least 10 seasons. He is also one of just 16 current Power 4 full-time head coaches with at least 100 career victories.
- Klieman, who is 51-32 since arriving at K-State, has led the Cats to five victories over teams ranked in the top 10 of the AP Top 25, the most of any active Big 12 program since 2019.

CATS TOPS IN NON-OFFENSIVE TDs

• K-State is the nation's best in non-offensive touchdowns over the last 25-plus seasons as it has 138 since 1999, 11 more than the next closest team (Alabama – 127) and 19 more than the next Big 12 program (Utah – 119).

• K-State recorded four non-offensive scores during the 2024 season, its most since also recording four in 2020.

• The Wildcats got on the board in 2025 when Bryce Noernberg's 99-yard kickoff return against Army.

• Then, against TCU, Wesley Fair had a 15-yard fumble return touchdown in the second quarter before Des Purnell recorded a 25-yard interception return. It was the first time since the 2023 Baylor game that the Wildcats had two defensive touchdowns in one contest.

NON-OFFENSIVE TDs SINCE 1999

Rk.	School	Non-Offensive TDs
1.	K-State	138
2.	Alabama	127
3.	Virginia Tech	120
4.	Utah	119
5.	Texas	117

Of the 138 non-offensive scores since 1999, 46 have been punt returns, 43 interception returns, 34 kickoff returns, 13 fumble returns and 2 missed/blocked field goal returns

OFFENSIVE NOTES TOTAL OFFENSE

• K-State has totaled at least 375 yards of offense in 36 of the last 47 games dating back to the beginning of the 2022 season.

• The 36 games with at least 375 yards are tied for eighth among Power 4 programs and ranks second among Big 12 schools (TCU – 39).

• Georgia and USC lead the way with 41, followed by Oregon and TCU with 39, Ole Miss with 38, and Washington and Tennessee with 37.

• During that stretch, K-State holds a 28-8 record when totaling at least 375 yards, while the Wildcats are 3-8 when going under that mark.

RED ZONE SUCCESS

• Kansas State enters the week ranked 16th nationally and third in the Big 12 by converting on 95.2% (20-of-21) of its red zone opportunities.

• That includes a streak of 19-straight red zone scores, which is the second-longest active streak in the Big 12 (Cincinnati, 28).

• Since Chris Klieman's first season at K-State in 2019, the Wildcats have been the best in the Big 12 in terms of converting red-zone opportunities into points.

• The Wildcats rank first in the Big 12 with a 90.3% (289-of-320) success rate in the red zone since 2019, just ahead of Texas Tech (88.0%) and Oklahoma State (87.2%).

• K-State also ranks first in the league in touchdown success rate at 66.9% (214-of-320), ahead of Utah (66.0%) and Kansas (65.7%).

LIMITED SACKS PER GAME

• K-State has been one of the nation's best in terms of limiting sacks since head coach Chris Klieman's first season of 2019.

• The Wildcats are tied for fifth among Power 4 teams and rank second in the Big 12 by allowing only 1.44 sacks per game over the last six-plus seasons, a span of 83 games.

• K-State ninth in the nation by allowing 0.86 sacks per game this season.

T.O.P. TURNAROUND

• Over its first four games of 2025, Kansas State averaged 24:28 in time of possession, ranking 131st out of 134 teams entering its Week 5 game against UCF.

• Over the last three games, K-State is averaging 31:45 in time of possession. The Wildcats now rank 89th nationally in that department – a 42-spot jump in the rankings – with a season average of 29:09 – a 4:41 rise in their average.

4,000/1,000

• Quarterback Avery Johnson became the fifth quarterback in program history to pass for 4,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a career as he went over the 1,000-yard rushing mark against UCF.

• He was the second-fastest player in school history to hit that mark as he did so in his 26th career game, just four games shy of Michael Bishop.

FASTEST CAREER 4,000 PASSING/1,000 RUSHING

Player, Years Played	Games
Michael Bishop, 1997-98	22
Avery Johnson, 2023-25	26
Skylar Thompson, 2017-2021	30
Ell Roberson, 2000-03	36
Collin Klein, 2009-12	45

OVER 300 AGAIN

• Avery Johnson passed for 344 yards at Baylor, a new career high, the 17th-most passing yards in a game in school history and the second time this season he threw for over 300 yards in a game (318 yards vs. North Dakota).

• His 344 passing yards were part of a 416-yard output in total offense, which ranked as the sixth most in school history.

• He is the first K-State quarterback with multiple 300-yard passing games in a season since Skylar Thompson in 2021 against Oklahoma (320 yards) and Texas Tech (306).

• Johnson needs one more 300-yard passing game to tie for second in school history for a season. The record is four held by Josh Freeman in 2007.

AVERY ON THE RUN

• Avery Johnson ranks fifth in school history among quarterbacks with 1,139 career rushing yards, while his 5.06-yard career average on 225 carries ranks eighth in school history among all players and second among quarterbacks (Jesse Ertz, 2014-17 – 5.46).

• When taking away sack yardage, Johnson has rushed for 1,303 yards on 205 true rushing attempts, good for a 6.36-yard clip.

THREE SCORING STRIKES

- Avery Johnson threw three touchdown passes against TCU, the second time this season and sixth in his career he had three passing touchdowns in a game.
- During the game against the Horned Frogs, Johnson moved into third place in school history with 43 career passing touchdowns. He is one shy of tying Josh Freeman (2006-08) for second place and five shy of the record held by Will Howard (2020-23).
- Johnson has 13 passing touchdowns this season to rank sixth in the Big 12, and he is one shy of tying for fifth in school history by a junior.
- A native of Wichita, Kansas, Johnson has a 0.9% interception rate this season to rank 17th in the nation and second among Big 12 signal callers.

BROWN DELIVERS

- Wide receiver Jayce Brown leads the Wildcats this season with 32 receptions for 417 yards and three touchdowns.
- He has 4.57 receptions per game this season to rank fifth in the Big 12, while his 18.8-yard career average ranks sixth nationally among active players.
- Brown tallied at least 100 scrimmage yards in the final two games of 2024 and in four games this year after only one such performance in the first 21 games of his career.

HARD RUNNING BY JACKSON

- Running back Joe Jackson tallied the first 100-yard rushing game of his career against TCU, going for 110 yards on a career-high 27 attempts. It shattered his previous bests of 61 yards on 13 carries the week prior at Baylor.
- It was the most rushing attempts by a Wildcat since current Indianapolis Colt DJ Giddens had 28 rushes against NC State in the 2023 Pop-Tarts Bowl, while it was the most against a Big 12 opponent since Giddens had 31 totes in the 2023 regular-season finale against Iowa State.
- Most of Jackson's damage against the Horned Frogs came in the second half when he tallied 88 yards on 21 carries.

CAREER RECORD FOR OAKLEY

- Tight end Garrett Oakley had two receiving touchdowns against TCU to bring his career total to 11, which is the most in school history by a tight end.
- The previous record of 10 was shared by current Washington Commander Ben Sinnott (2021-23) and Henry Childs (1971-73).
- Each of Oakley's four receiving touchdowns this season have come since Week 5, the most in the nation among tight ends. He enters the week tied for fourth nationally in receiving touchdowns by tight ends.

DEFENSIVE NOTES OPENING DRIVE DEFENSE

- Kansas State has allowed points only once on opponents' first drive of the game or second half, which was a field goal to open the game at Baylor.
- In the 14 total drives to start a half, the K-State defense has forced 11 punts – including six 3-and-outs – a missed field goal and a turnover on downs.
- Of the six 3-and-outs, four have come to start the second half.

LIMITED POINTS PER GAME

- Since the 2021 season (60 games), the Cats are allowing 22.4 points per game, which ranks third among current Big 12 teams and 20th among Power 4 teams (minimum 40 games).
- Additionally, the Cats have allowed 153 offensive touchdowns (2.6 per game) over that time to rank 20th among Power 4 schools.
- The Wildcats have finished each of the previous three seasons allowing less than 24.0 points per game, their longest streak since going 13-straight years from 1991 through 2003.
- Since head coach Chris Klieman's first year of 2019, the Wildcats have held 45 of their 57 Big 12 opponents under their season average at the time it faces the Wildcats (excluding 2025 season opener against Iowa State).

TURNOVER TURNAROUND

- After beginning the 2025 season with a minus-1 turnover margin in the first three games (4 giveaways, 3 takeaways) to rank 86th in the nation and 12th in the Big 12, K-State has turned the tide on turnovers.
- Over the last four games, K-State is plus-7 in turnover margin, thanks to six interceptions and four fumble recoveries by the defense while only losing one fumble and throwing two picks.
- K-State has made a 71-spot improvement in the national rankings from Week 3 to now as the Wildcats are tied for 15th nationally and tied for first in the Big 12 in turnover margin.
- Additionally, K-State enters the week ranked 12th nationally and second in the Big 12 with 13 turnovers gained.

CREATING TURNOVERS

- Since the beginning of 2022, K-State has forced 75 turnovers, which is the most among active Big 12 teams and tied for 11th among Power 4 teams.
- Of the 75 turnovers, 44 have been via interception to tie for second among all active Big 12 programs and 20th among Power 4 teams.

JUMPING ON THE BALL

- K-State has done the most damage this year in the turnover department by falling on fumbles as it ranks fourth nationally and is the best in the Big 12 with seven recoveries.
- The seven fumble recoveries this season are the most through the first seven games of a season since the 2017 team also had seven recoveries in the first seven games. Last year, the Wildcats only had five fumble recoveries in 13 games.
- K-State's seven recoveries this season have come from seven different players in Austin Romaine (Iowa State), Chiddi Obiazor (Iowa State), Tobi Osunsanmi (North Dakota), long snapper Mason Olguin (Arizona), Justice Clemons (UCF), Asa Newsom (Baylor) and Wesley Fair (TCU), the latter of which was returned 15 yards for a touchdown.

ROMAINE LEADING THE WAY

- After leading the Wildcats in tackles last season en route to All-Big 12 Second Team honors, linebacker Austin Romaine is at it again in 2025.
- A product of Hillsboro, Missouri, Romaine has a team-leading 49 tackles, ranking 12th in the Big 12 with 5.4 tackles per game.
- Romaine has at least four tackles in every game this season, including 10 apiece against North Dakota and Army.
- Last season, Romaine led the Wildcats and ranked ninth in the conference with 96 tackles (7.38 per game). He was the first Wildcat with at least 90 tackles in a season since Jayd Kirby had 99 in 2017.

WILDCATS IN THE NFL

With NFL season in full swing, Kansas State currently has 20 players on NFL rosters. Of the 20, there are 11 on offense and nine on defense.

The longest-tenured former Wildcats are Tyler Lockett and Cornelius Lucas as both are entering their 11th season, but both are playing with new teams. Lockett is now with the Tennessee Titans after spending the first 10 seasons of his career with the Seattle Seahawks, while Lucas will suit up for the Cleveland Browns after spending the last five seasons with the Washington Commanders.

Four players from last year's roster are now on NFL teams, including third-round pick Jacob Parrish (Tampa Bay) and fifth-round selections DJ Giddens (Indianapolis) and Marques Sigle (San Francisco).

LYNN DICKEY

#18 K-State 59, #11 Oklahoma 21
October 25, 1969
KSU Stadium

Lynn Dickey captured the nation's attention as the smashed virtually all Big Eight single-game passing records and led Kansas State to a shocking 59-21 victory over Oklahoma.

It was the most points ever scored on a Sooner team. It was K-State's first win over Oklahoma since 1934. And, it was K-State's first-ever win over a ranked opponent.

Dickey passed for 380 yards on 28 completions in 42 attempts – connecting with eight different receivers – before leaving the game with 9:58 left to play. Jerry Lawson was super-sub for injured Mike Montgomery. He gained 77 yards on 11 carries and caught six passes for 37 yards.

OU's Steve Owens gained over 100 yards running for the 15th-straight game, although he was unable to get the total until his final carry.

PURNELL THE PLAYMAKER

• Senior linebacker Des Purnell is coming off an outstanding game against TCU as he was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week after carding five tackles, 2.0 tackles for loss, a sack, two interceptions – including one he returned 25 yards for a touchdown – and two pass breakups.

• His sack and pick-6 came on consecutive plays, the first K-State player since at least 1989 to have both on consecutive plays and the only player in the nation to accomplish the feat this season.

• He is the only Big 12 player with a pick-6 and a sack in the same game this season and one of seven in the country.

• His four total passes defended are tied for third in the country for a single game this season and are tied for the most among linebackers. He was the first Wildcat with four passes defended in a game since safety Russ Yeast against West Virginia in 2021 and the first K-State linebacker to do so since at least 2003.

• His pick-6 against TCU was the third time in his career he found paydirt as he returned a fumble for a touchdown against Baylor in 2023 and returned a blocked punt for a score against South Dakota in 2022. He is one of only two players in school history to have a pick-6, fumble return touchdown and a punt return score in a career (Courtney Herndon, 2006-09).

• A native of Topeka, Kansas, Purnell ranks fifth nationally among active players with two defensive touchdowns, and he is the only active Big 12 player with a fumble return score and a pick-6 in Big 12 games in his career. He also ranks fifth nationally among active players with three career non-offensive touchdowns.

BREAKING UP THE PASS

• Sophomore cornerback Zashon Rich has seven pass breakups in seven games this season to tie for the Big 12 lead and tie for ninth in the country.

• His seven pass breakups are already equal to the top mark by a Wildcat last year. Jacob Parrish had seven pass deflections in 2024 before going on to be selected in the third round of the 2025 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay.

• A native of Minneapolis, Minnesota, Rich added to his repertoire against UCF when he had a career-high 2.0 tackles for loss, including his first-career sack.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES SCORING IN THE THIRD PHASE

• The Wildcats continue to lead the nation in total kickoff- and punt-return touchdowns since 2005 with 63, which is 23 more than the next closest team in Alabama (40) and 29 more than the next closest Big 12 programs, Oklahoma State and TCU (34).

• Of the 63 total returns, a nation-leading 32 are on kickoff returns, and the next closest team is Houston with 21.

KICK/PUNT RETURN TDs SINCE 2005

Rk.	School	PR/KR TDs
1.	K-State	63
2.	Alabama	40
3.	San Diego State	36
4.	Oklahoma State	34
	TCU	34

HIGH AVERAGE ON RETURNS

• Kansas State enters the week ranked ninth nationally and tops in the Big 12 with a 28.17-yard average on kickoff returns, a mark that would rank third in school history.

• The Wildcats are looking to rank in the top-10 in kickoff return average for the first time since 2021 (9th – 27.22). In head coach Chris Klieman's first year of 2019, K-State led the nation with a 29.50-yard average, which was the top mark in school history.

• The high average is boasted by a 99-yard touchdown by Bryce Noernberg against Army, the 12th kickoff return of at least 99 yards in school history.

EIGHT STRAIGHT

• With Garrett Harstad's blocked punt at Arizona, K-State has now blocked a punt in eight-straight seasons, which is the longest streak in the nation.

• San Diego State is next on the list with seven-straight years, while Iowa State, Michigan, Oregon State, Rutgers, South Carolina and Toledo are tied for third with five-consecutive years.

RODRIGUEZ CONNECTS

• Due to injuries at kicker late in the summer, the Wildcats scrambled to find a replacement, and they landed community-college transfer Luis Rodriguez from College of the Canyons.

• After arriving in Manhattan just as preseason practices commenced, all Rodriguez has done over his first seven games is connect on 10-of-11 field goal and all 24 extra-point attempts. His lone miss this season was a blocked 56-yard attempt as time expired at Baylor.

• Rodriguez ranks 22nd nationally and fifth in the Big 12 by connecting on 90.9% of his field goal attempts.

HIGH AVERAGE BY MCCLANNAN

• Sophomore punter Simon McClannan has gotten off to a great start in 2025, ranking fifth in the Big 12 with a 43.3-yard average on 28 punts. His high average is due to eight punts that have traveled at least 50 yards, which is tied for fifth in the Big 12. Last year, McClannan only had six punts of 50 or more yards over 13 games.

• A native of Omaha, Nebraska, McClannan recorded a career-best 50.8-yard average on five punts at Arizona and came back with a 51.0-yard average on four punts against UCF. Following the game against the Knights, he was named the Ray Guy Award Punter of the Week.

• It was the first time in the Big 12 era that Kansas State had a punter average at least 50.0 yards on at least four punts in consecutive games.

• McClannan enters his 23rd-career game with a 42.71-yard average on 75 career punts, which ranks fifth in school history.

DEFENSE ON KICK RETURNS

• K-State has not allowed a kickoff return for a touchdown since the 2013 season, going the last 158 games and 454 returns without allowing its opponent to find paydirt.

• The streak is the longest among the active Big 12 teams, 260 returns better than the next closest team (Arizona State – 194).

• Since K-State allowed its last kickoff-return touchdown, the Wildcats have scored 15 of their own.

COACHING STAFF NOTES BY THE NUMBERS

- 28 – Combined years of coordinator experience
- 26 – Combined years of head coach experience

PRIOR RELATIONSHIPS

- Several K-State coaches had prior working relationships before their time in Manhattan. Defensive coordinator Joe Klanner was a part of Chris Klieman's original staff at North Dakota State and came to Manhattan with Klieman in 2019. When Klieman was the defensive coordinator at NDSU in 2012 and 2013, Steve Stanard was the linebacker coach.
- Additionally, Klieman and running backs coach Brian Anderson were at Western Illinois together from 1994 to 1996.
- Other connections include: assistant head coach/cornerbacks coach Van Malone and defensive ends coach Buddy Wyatt working together at Texas A&M in 2008 and 2009 as well as SMU from 2015 to 2017; Offensive coordinator/quarterbacks/associate head coach Matt Wells and tight ends coach Luke Wells working together at both Utah State (2013-18) and Texas Tech (2019-21).
- Also, Matt Wells and Athletics Director Gene Taylor were at Navy together from 1997 to 2001.

ROSTER NOTES OWNING THE STATE

- K-State casts a wide net in addition to owning its state when it comes to roster composition as a total of 25 states are represented on the 2025 roster, and none more than the state of Kansas as 33 players hail from the Sunflower State.
- The next highest totals come from Texas (14), Missouri (8), Florida (8), Colorado (6), Nebraska (6) and Georgia (5).

LOTS OF LETTERWINNERS

- For the sixth-straight season, Kansas State brings back 44 or more letterwinners as the 2025 squad sees 45 returning letterwinners come back for another year.
- Of the 45 returning letterwinners, 18 are on offense, 25 are on defense and there are two specialists.
- The 45 returning letterwinners are tied for the sixth most by a K-State squad since 2003.

MOST RETURNING LETTERWINNERS SINCE 2003

Rk.	Year	Letterwinners
1.	2021	56
2.	2020	48
T3.	2022, 2009	47
T5.	2024, 2015	46
T6.	2025, 2007	45
T8.	2023, 2017	44

SUPER SENIORS

- K-State has eight players who are using an extra year of eligibility and are seniors again in 2025 as the NCAA froze eligibility clocks during the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic in addition to the community-college ruling for this season.
- Those using a second senior season are cornerback Justice Clemons, transfer safety Gunner Maldonado, transfer wide receiver Caleb Medford, linebacker Beau Palmer, offensive lineman Taylor Poitier, defensive tackle Uso Seumalo, defensive end Cody Stufflebean and tight end Will Swanson.
- Poitier is actually in his seventh season of college football in 2025 due to the pandemic followed by season-ending injuries in both 2021 and 2022.

NEW FACES IN NEW PLACES

- Kansas State welcomes 14 Division I or II transfers with eight on offense and six on defense. The 14 transfers are the most for K-State under head coach Chris Klieman, topping the previous mark of 11 last season.
- Nine of the transfers have multiple years of eligibility remaining, while nine of the 14 came from Power 5 schools.
- The incoming transfers for 2025 include: wide receiver Jerand Bradley (Texas Tech/Boston College), offensive lineman Terrence Enos Jr. (Pittsburgh), offensive lineman George Fitzpatrick (Ohio State), cornerback Amarion Fortenberry (South Alabama), safety Gunner Maldonado (Northwestern/Arizona), running back Antonio Martin Jr. (Georgia Tech/Southeastern Louisiana), wide receiver Caleb Medford (TCU/New Mexico), safety Qua Moss (West Georgia), offensive lineman JB Nelson (Penn State), linebacker Ralph Ortiz (West Florida), linebacker Gabe Powers (Ohio State), cornerback Jayden Rowe (Oklahoma), offensive lineman Amos Talalele (USC) and wide receiver Jaron Tibbs (Purdue).

THESE CATS ARE SMART

- Not only has Kansas State put in hard work on the field, but also in the classroom as the Wildcats have been one of the Big 12's best over the better part of a decade.
- Since 2014, K-State has accumulated a Big 12-leading 347 Academic All-Big 12 selections, which is 34 more than the next closest program (Iowa State).
- The Wildcats have produced at least 24 Academic All-Big 12 performers every year since 2014, including a school record 45 selections in 2023.

SERIES NOTES

- Kansas leads the all-time series, 65-53-5, but Kansas State has won each of the last 16 meetings and 29 of the last 34 dating back to 1991.
- This is the 116th consecutive year of the Sunflower Showdown dating back to 1911, which will tie for the second-longest uninterrupted series in FBS history. It is also the ninth-most play rivalry in FBS history with the 123rd meeting on tap.
- The Wildcats' average margin of victory over the last 16 years is 23.5 points, but the last two meetings have been close with K-State winning, 31-27, in 2023 in Lawrence and 29-27 last year in Manhattan.
- Kansas State has won each of the last eight meetings in Lawrence and 13 of the last 16 dating back to 1994.

Game Notes

• This was the 122nd all-time meeting between K-State and Kansas, the ninth most-played rivalry in FBS history... It was also the 114th-consecutive meeting between the two schools, the third-longest uninterrupted series in the FBS... The Wildcats have now won each of the last 16 meetings and 29 of the last 34 dating back to 1991... Kansas State defeated KU at home for the eighth-consecutive time dating back to 2009... The Jayhawks now hold a 65-53-5 advantage in the series.

• K-State picked up its 16th-consecutive victory over Kansas to improve the longest streak in the series by either team... Among active uninterrupted winning streaks (must have played and won every year), the Wildcats' 16-game streak over KU is tied for first in the FBS.

• Kansas State has started 7-1 overall for the first time since 2014... That year, the Wildcats went on to win nine games... K-State is also 4-1 in Big 12 play for a third-straight season, the first time the Wildcats have won at least four of their first five Big 12 games in three-consecutive seasons since doing so every year from 1995 through 1999.

• Kansas State, which played at home for the first time in 28 days, is now 15-3 in home games since the beginning of the 2022 season, which includes an 11-1 mark in its last 12 games inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium... The 15 home wins over the last two-plus seasons are the most in the Big 12.

• Chris Tennant connected on a 51-yard field goal with 1:42 left in the game, which ended up being the game winner... It tied his career long field goal, a mark he had last year against SEMO.

TENNANT'S LATE FG LIFTS K-STATE PAST KU

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Chris Tennant hit a pair of fourth-quarter field goals, including his game-winning 51-yarder with 1:42 to play, and No. 16 Kansas State made it 16 wins in a row over rival Kansas in a 29-27 victory in the Dillons Sunflower Showdown at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

K-State trailed 27-23 entering the fourth quarter when the Wildcats defense sprang to life and stymied dangerous Jalon Daniels and a Jayhawks offense that kept the home crowd on its toes all night.

Avery Johnson drove the Wildcats 66 yards on seven plays to set up Tennant for a 28-yard field goal with 13:23 left in the fourth quarter before the defense most emphatically clamped down. Linebacker Austin Romaine stripped the ball from Daniels, and defensive end Brendan Mott recovered the ball, setting up Tennant for his career high-tying field goal.

Turns out, K-State, 7-1 overall and 4-1 in the Big 12 Conference, remains money as well after coming from behind for victory for a third time this season.

K-State and Kansas, 2-6 and 1-4, will remember the 122nd edition of the Dillons Sunflower Showdown for a while as well.

Johnson completed 19-of-34 passes for 253 yards and two touchdowns and added 14 carries for 67 yards and one score while DJ Giddens had 18 carries for 102 yards for K-State, which led 16-14 at halftime thanks to recording a safety, which proved to be the margin of victory.

Kansas dropped to 0-5 in games decided by single digits, leading many of those games in the fourth quarter. Daniels went 18-of-31 for 209 yards with one touchdown and one interception and rushed 15 times for 66 yards and one touchdown. He was a constant headache for the Wildcats before Romaine forced him to fumble and Mott recovered the ball with 3 minutes, 44 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.

K-State took over at the Kansas 48-yard line and moved 15 yards in five plays to make it fourth-and-8 at the Kansas 33. Tennant's kick with 1:47 elicited thunderous cheers from the sellout crowd of 52,074.

In the final seconds, after Kansas was unable to manufacture a meaningful drive in the final minute for a chance at a game-winning field goal, TV cameras panned to a K-State fan holding a sign that read, "SWEET 16."

Sixteen straight wins over Kansas. That's 5,838 total days since the Wildcats' last loss in 2008. How sweet it is.

Daniels gave the Jayhawks their first lead of the second half when he capped a three-play, 54-yard drive by rushing 8 yards up the middle for a touchdown and a 27-23 lead with 36 seconds to go in the third quarter.

The Wildcats drove 66 yards in seven plays and came excruciatingly close to taking the lead, but Johnson saw his 11-yard pass slip off the hands of Anciaux in the back of the end zone. Tennant's 28-yard field goal made it 27-26 with 13:23 left in the fourth quarter.

That set up the final fireworks for the Wildcats.

CHRIS KLIEMAN

Head Coach • Seventh Year at K-State
32nd Year in Coaching • 13th Year as a Head Coach
Northern Iowa '90, '92

• A culture of selflessness, discipline, toughness and commitment is the cornerstone of a Chris Klieman-led K-State program, and that is what has led the Wildcats to sustained success and the distinction of being the winningest active program in the Big 12 Conference. In six seasons, Klieman has led the Wildcats to a 51-32 record as he has the second most wins in school history.

• Under Klieman's leadership, K-State has won eight or more games in five of the six seasons, the lone exception being the COVID-19 campaign of 2020. No other coach in school history has more wins or eight-plus win seasons in their first six years. Klieman has led the Cats to five victories over teams ranked in the top 10 of the AP Top 25 – the most of any active Big 12 program since 2019 – while they have eight wins over top-20 teams since 2019 – which is tied for the second most among current Big 12 teams. Additionally, the Wildcats' overall record the last two years (18-8), three years (28-12) and four years (36-17) all lead the Big 12.

• Sustained success is demonstrated by K-State being one of only five Power 4 teams to win at least nine games each of the last three seasons with at least one conference championship in that timeframe, joining Alabama, Clemson, Georgia and Oregon. The Wildcats' three-straight seasons of at least nine wins are the most since an eight-year streak from 1993 through 2000.

• The latest of the stretch of nine-win campaigns came in 2024 as the Wildcats earned a pair of early-season victories over teams ranked No. 20. Those two top-20 wins propelled K-State to a 7-1 start, its best record over the first eight games of a season since 2014. Although the Wildcats finished the regular season with one win in their final four games, they ended on a high note with a thrilling 44-41 victory over Rutgers in the Rate Bowl. That game saw K-State trail by as many as 17 points in the middle of the third quarter and by 13 points early in the fourth before it put together the largest bowl comeback win in school history.

• The Rate Bowl victory capped a school-record tying four comeback victories by Klieman's squad when trailing in the fourth quarter, matching the mark by the 2011 Wildcats. In addition to the bowl win, K-State also overcame a seven-point deficit in week two at Tulane for a 34-27 win; a four-point deficit by scoring on a 50-yard touchdown pass with 2:14 left at Colorado for a 31-28 win; and a one-point deficit with a 51-yard field goal with 1:42 left for a 29-27 win over Kansas, the latter being the Wildcats' 16-straight Dillons Sunflower Showdown victory.

• It only took year four of the Klieman era for a milestone to be reached at K-State as the Wildcats captured the 2022 Big 12 Championship – the fourth league title in school history and first since 2012 – and the Wildcats finished the season with a 10-4 record, the 11th double-digit victory campaign in school history. K-State finished No. 9 in the final College Football Playoff Top 25, the Wildcats' second-highest ranking ever in the CFP era and the highest for the final poll. K-State also ranked No. 14 in the final Associated Press Top 25 and Coaches' Poll, the highest final ranking since 2012.

• The Wildcats' championship campaign was spearheaded by a school-record three victories over teams that were ranked in the top 10 of the AP Top 25, culminating with a 31-28 overtime victory over No. 3 TCU in the Big 12 Championship. In fact, since Klieman took over the reins of the K-State program in 2019, the Wildcats have five wins over teams ranked in the top 10 of the AP Top 25 poll, the most victories by any Big 12 program over that span.

• Under Klieman, 10 Wildcats have been selected in the NFL Draft, including four in 2023 and three in 2024. In fact, Anudike-Uzomah was selected in the first round (No. 31) and Julius Brents was picked in the second round (No. 44) of the 2023 NFL Draft, marking the first time in school history two Wildcats were taken within the first 44 picks of an NFL Draft.

• Prior to arriving at K-State, Klieman capped his five-year stint as head coach at North Dakota State by winning his fourth national championship in 2018. He tied Jim Tressel (Youngstown State) for the most FCS National Championships as a head coach, while he was a part of seven national championships at NDSU, which was the most in FCS history at the time of his departure. Klieman guided the 2018 Bison to a perfect 15-0 record, just the fifth team in FCS history to go undefeated and untied on the way to a national championship.

• Klieman was a three-time All-Gateway Conference defensive back at Northern Iowa and four-year letterwinner from 1986 to 1990. He graduated from UNI in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in health education and a master's degree in physical education in 1992.

• Klieman and his wife, Rhonda, are parents of two sons, Devin and Colby, and one daughter, Haley.

- Starting his 22nd career game under center for the Wildcats at Kansas.
- Currently ranks 3rd in school history in career TD passes, 5th in completion %, 6th in passing efficiency and TD responsibility (60), 7th in completions, attempts, passing yds per game (169.7) and total offense (5,891), 8th rushing yds per carry (5.06) and 9th in passing yards (4,752).
- Also ranks 5th in school history in career rushing yds by a QB, the 7th QB in school history with 1,000 career rushing yds.
- His 60 TDs responsible for are tied for 25th nationally among active players but rank 6th among non-seniors.
- One of 5 QBs in school history with 4,000 career passing yds and 1,000 career rushing yds but the 2nd fastest to accomplish the feat (26 games) behind Michael Bishop (22 games)... Eli Roberson, Collin Klein and Skylar Thompson also hit those marks.
- Has 13 passing TDs this season, needing one to tie for 5th in school history by a junior.
- Has tallied multiple TD passes in 16 of his 21 career starts at QB.
- Set a career high with 344 passing yds at Baylor... It was the 17th most passing yds in a game in school history and the most since Jake Waters had 400 yds at West Virginia in 2014.
- It was his 2nd 300-yd passing game of the season after throwing for 318 yds vs. North Dakota, which was the first 300-yd game of his career.
- He is the first K-State QB with multiple 300-yd passing games since Skylar Thompson in 2021 and needs one more to tie for 2nd in school history for most 300-yd passing games in school history.
- Also had a career-high 29 completions at Baylor, tied for the 7th most in a game in school history.
- When adding in his 72 rushing yds at Baylor, he had 416 total offensive yds to rank as the 6th most in a game in program history.
- Had 3 passing TDs vs. TCU, the 2nd time this season and 6th time in his career he had at least 3 passing TDs... His 6 games with at least 3 passing TDs are the 4th most by a K-State QB in the Big 12 era behind Josh Freeman (8), Michael Bishop (7) and Will Howard (7).
- Connected on 72.0% of his passes vs. UCF, the highest completion percentage of his career (min. 10 att.).
- Put together a pass efficiency rating of 168.4 vs. Iowa State, the second-highest of his career (min. 10 att.), only outdone by the 186.0 mark he produced last year at West Virginia.
- Ranks 5th in the Big 12 in completions per game (20.00), 6th in passing TDs and 7th in total passing yds.
- One of 9 Power 4 QBs – and one of 4 in the Big 12 – to have at least 13 passing TDs and 3 rushing TDs.
- Voted a team captain in both 2024 and 2025.

- ★ Biletnikoff Award watch list
- ★ Shrine Bowl watch list
- Has played in 30 career games with 24 starts, the latter of which leads the offense.
- Ranks 5th in the Big 12 with 4.57 catches/gm.
- Tallied at least 100 scrimmage yds in the final 2 games of 2024 and 4 times in 2025 after only one such performance in his first 21 career games.
- Saw a catch streak of 25-straight games come to an end vs. UCF as he started the game but only played on 2 snaps.
- It was the longest streak by a Wildcat since Phillip Brooks also went 25-straight games over the 2022 and 2023 seasons.
- Opened the second half at Arizona with a 75-yd TD run on the first play from scrimmage, the longest by a Wildcat since Deuce Vaughn vs. Alabama in the 2022 Sugar Bowl (88 yds) and longest by a K-State WR since Malik Knowles on the first play from scrimmage of the 2022 season vs. South Dakota (75 yds).
- Dylan Edwards had a 75-yd TD run the next game vs. UCF, the first time in program history the Wildcats had runs of at least 75 yds in consecutive games.
- Recorded 12 catches vs. North Dakota, tied for seventh in program history for a single game and the most by a Wildcat since Tyler Lockett had 13 the final game of his career, the 2014 Alamo Bowl vs. UCLA.
- Sits 1 receiving TD and 144 receiving yds shy of entering the school's career top-10 list.
- Ranks 6th nationally among active players by averaging 15.8 yds per reception in his career.
- On the watch list for the Biletnikoff Award, K-State's first candidate for the award since Lockett was a semifinalist in 2014.

- Has played in 4 games with 3 starts this season after playing in 12 games with 6 starts in each of the last 2 seasons – 2023 at Colorado and 2024 at K-State.
- Rushed for a season-high 166 yards vs. UCF – including a 75-yd TD run – on a career-high 20 attempts.
- It was the 2nd-most rushing yds of his career behind a 196-yd output in last year's Rate Bowl vs. Rutgers.
- His 75-yd run vs. the Knights was the longest of his career.
- Jayce Brown had a 75-yd run the previous game vs. Arizona, marking the first time in school history the Wildcats had a run of at least 75 yds in consecutive games.
- His 7.4-yd rushing avg last season ranked first among Power 4 RBs in 2024 (min. 70 carries).
- Teamed with DJ Giddens (6.6-yd avg) and Avery Johnson (5.4-yd avg) to make K-State the only Power 4 team in the country with 3 players boasting at least 5.4 yds per rush (min. 70 att.).
- Rushed for a K-State bowl record 196 yds in the 2024 Rate Bowl.
- Earned Rate Bowl Offensive MVP honors in addition to being named to the Associated Press All-Bowl Team.

- Returned punts and kicks in 2024, earning All-Big 12 honors.
- Returned a punt 71 yds for a TD vs. Arizona – earning Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors – as it was the first PR TD by a K-State RB since Darren Sproles in 2003 vs. Kansas.

DES PURNELLLB • 6-0 • 232 • Sr.-3L
Topeka, Kan. • Hayden

- ★ Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week (TCU)
- ★ Shrine Bowl watch list

- Has played in each of the last 47 games with 33 starts, the latter number ranking 2nd on the team.
- Tied for 2nd on the team with 37 tackles.
- Had a banner day vs. TCU, tallying 5 tackles, 2.0 TFLs, a sack, 2 INTs – including one he returned 25 yds for a TD – and 2 pass breakups en route to Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honors.
- The first Wildcat with 2 picks in a game since Jacob Parrish at Texas in 2023 and the first LB with 2 in a game since Elijah Lee vs. TCU in 2015.

• His 4 total passes defended vs. TCU were the most by a Wildcat since safety Russ Yeast had 4 vs. West Virginia in 2021... It is the most by a K-State LB since at least 2003.

- Tied for 3rd nationally in single-game passes defended and is first among LBs.
- Is the only player in the Big 12 this season with a pick-6 and sack in the same game as his came on consecutive plays in the 3rd quarter.
- One of only 7 players nationally this season with a pick-6 and a sack in the same game, but is the only one to do it on consecutive plays.
- The first K-State player since at least 1989 with a sack and in pick-6 on consecutive plays, while he is the sixth Wildcat and first since 2009 (Jeffrey Fitzgerald at TTU) with a sack and a pick-6 in the same game.
- One of only 2 players in school history with a fumble-return TD, a pick-6 and a punt-return TD in a career (Courtney Herndon)... Purnell's fumble return TD was in 2023 vs. Baylor, while his punt return TD came on a blocked punt vs. South Dakota in 2022... Also one of only 6 players in K-State history to have a fumble return TD and a pick-6 in a career.
- Ranks 5th nationally among active players with 2 career defensive TDs, while he is the only active Big 12 player with a fumble return TD and a pick-6 in Big 12 games in a career.
- Ranks 5th nationally among active players – and first in the Big 12 – with 3 non-offensive TDs in his career.
- Set a career high with 10 tackles vs. Army – all solo stops – before topping that mark 6 days later with 11 tackles at Arizona.

- ★ John Mackey Award watch list

- Has played in 30 games with 16 starts over the last 3 seasons.
- Has recorded 4 receiving TDs this season, tied for 4th nationally among TEs and tied for 3rd in school history at the position... All 4 of his TDs have come since Week 5, the most in the nation among TEs during that stretch.
- Averaging 3.27 catches per game this season, ranking 11th nationally and 4th in the Big 12 among TEs.
- Has 11 career receiving TDs, the most in school history by a TE as he broke the mark with a pair of scores vs. TCU.
- His 11 career receiving TDs are one shy of tying for 10th in school history among all players.
- His 2 receiving TDs vs. TCU made him one of only 2 Big 12 TEs to accomplish the feat in a conference game this season.
- The first K-State TE with multiple TD catches in a game since Ben Sinnott at Missouri in 2023.

• Tallied one of only 5 instances in school history that a TE had multiple receiving TDs in a game in the Big 12 era, but one of only 2 to do so in a Big 12 game (Sinnott at Baylor in 2022).

• Ranks 5th in school history in career receptions by a TE, while he is 36 yds away from entering the school's top-5 list by a TE.

Game Notes

• This was the 109th all-time meeting between K-State and Iowa State, each coming in consecutive seasons as this is the eighth-longest active uninterrupted series in FBS history... It was the second time this century that there was a ranked matchup on opening day (2009 – No. 14 Boise State vs. No. 16 Oregon) and the first time two Big 12 teams met in Week 0/1 since Nebraska faced Oklahoma State in 2003.

• Kansas State and Iowa State played to yet another one-score game... It was the 14th one-score game between the two teams dating back to 2008, the most in any series in the country... Each of the last four games in the series have been decided by one score.

• Junior Avery Johnson posted a pass efficiency rating of 168.4, which was the second-highest of his career (min. 10 attempts)... His career best is 186.0 last year at West Virginia... His 273 passing yards were the second most of his career, just behind the 298 yards he put up last year at West Virginia... He has now thrown for multiple touchdowns in four-straight games dating back to last season... K-State is now 6-1 all-time when Johnson passes and rushes for a touchdown.

• Junior defensive end Tobi Osunsanmi finished the game with a career-high 2.0 sacks... His previous best was 1.5 sacks in last year's season opener against UT Martin... It was the most sacks by a Wildcat since Brendan Mott had 2.5 last year at Colorado... As a team, K-State had 4.0 tackles, its most since carding four in last year's Cincinnati game.

K-STATE FALLS TO IOWA STATE IN DUBLIN

DUBLIN, Ireland – They call the Aer Lingus College Football Classic “Much More Than a Game,” and this fifth edition of the classic lived up to that billing, as the 2025 college football season got underway under the lights of Aviva Stadium. In a game that featured two ranked teams and longtime arch-rivals, No. 17 Kansas State and No. 22 Iowa State slugged it out in old-school style in the rain before the Cyclones finally outlasted the Wildcats, 24-21, to get a quick jump on the 2025 season.

The game that was announced 486 days ago and pitted the Wildcats against the Cyclones for the 109th time in the eighth-longest active uninterrupted series in FBS history carried a Big 12 feel with purple filling one side of the stadium and red filling the other.

Both teams reportedly sold 11,000 tickets, but the crowd was much larger, as the teams played before a sellout crowd of 47,221. The K-State marching band, which endured significant travel challenges to make it more than 4,000 miles for kickoff, was in midseason form at an overseas venue that served as a home game for the Wildcats and brimmed with purple furnishing, thousands of purple Powercat flags, and highlight upon highlight upon the videoboard.

In the end, though, Iowa State, 1-0 overall and 1-0 in the Big 12, made more plays to capture its third straight victory over K-State, 0-1 and 0-1 in the Big 12, in a series that dates to 1917.

From beginning to end, this game was excruciatingly close — on brand with previous clashes between these two programs. The teams have played 14 one-score games since 2008, the most in any series in the country. Each of the last four games in the series have been decided by one score. It wasn't until the final possession by Iowa State that this back-and-forth game reached its conclusion.

Johnson rocketed a deep ball to new wide receiver Jerand Bradley for a 65-yard catch-and-run down the Iowa State sideline, as Bradley outran three defenders for his first K-State touchdown. K-State trailed, 24-21, with 6:23 left in the fourth quarter, and still had a chance.

But Iowa State dug in and drained the clock behind a punishing second-half rushing game that gashed the Wildcats. K-State needed a stop. K-State needed the football. But K-State couldn't get the stop it needed for its offense to gain possession. After an Iowa State timeout on fourth-and-3 at the K-State 16-yard line, Iowa State quarterback Rocco Becht completed a pass to running back Carson Hansen and let him take care of the rest, as he rumbled and twisted on a 15-yard catch-and-run to the 1-yard line just before the 2-minute timeout.

From there, the Cyclones downed the ball three times inside the 3-yard line until the game clock expired.

After the teams slugged through the rain in the first half, the conditions proved more favorable over the final two quarters. Johnson completed 21-of-30 passes for 273 yards and two touchdowns, and Becht went 14-of-28 for 183 yards and two touchdowns. Both quarterbacks, who can run, were limited by field conditions. Becht had 12 carries for 18 yards and one touchdown, and Johnson had eight carries for 21 yards and one score.

A promising sign for K-State? It's passing game. Jayce Brown had four catches for 78 yards and one touchdown, Bradley had three catches for 75 yards and one touchdown, tight end Garrett Oakley had five catches for 65 yards, and Jaron Tibbs had four catches for 35 yards.

Game Notes

• This marked the fifth come-from-behind victory since the beginning of 2024 when trailing in the fourth quarter... It was K-State's first game-winning touchdown with under 1:00 left in regulation since Skylar Thompson connected with Isaiah Zuber on the final play in a home game against Iowa State in 2017.

• Kansas State totaled 461 offensive yards on Saturday... It was the 34th time in the last 41 games dating back to the beginning of the 2022 season that the Wildcats have totaled at least 375 yards... K-State is 27-7 when totaling at least 375 offensive yards since 2022.

• Avery Johnson went 28-of-43 through the air for 318 yards and three touchdowns, while he rushed for 43 yards, including a crucial 25-yard run on the game-winning drive... He set career highs in completions (prev: 24 vs. Arizona State in 2024), attempts (40 vs. Arizona State in 2024) and yards (298 vs. West Virginia in 2024), while he tied his career high in touchdown passes (four times)... It was the 46th 300-yard passing game in school history and the first since Will Howard had 327 yards at Texas in 2023.

• Jayce Brown hauled in a career-high 12 receptions for 109 yards and a touchdown... His previous career high in receptions was six last season at Colorado... His 12 receptions were the most by a Wildcat since Tyler Lockett had 13 in the final game of his career, the 2014 Alamo Bowl against UCLA... He now has a catch in each of the last 23 games dating back to the 2023 Texas Tech contests... It was the third 100-yard receiving game in his career, the other two coming last year at Colorado (121 yards) and Iowa State (106 yards).

LATE TD LIFTS K-STATE PAST NORTH DAKOTA

MANHATTAN, Kan. — No. 17 Kansas State found a way.

Avery Johnson engineered an 81-yard drive and threw a 6-yard touchdown pass to running back Joe Jackson with 42 seconds remaining, and the Wildcats held off first-time starting quarterback Jerry Kaminski and North Dakota for a 38-35 nail-biting victory Saturday at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

K-State led 31-21 late in the third quarter before North Dakota scored two touchdowns, including a 20-yard run by Sawyer Seidl that gave the Fighting Hawks a 35-31 edge with 4:19 left in the fourth quarter, leaving the sellout crowd of 51,927 in stunned silence while North Dakota first-year head coach Eric Schmidt applauded his players' effort from the sideline.

But Johnson and the Wildcats avoided disaster in their first-ever meeting against North Dakota and prevented the FCS member from pulling off perhaps its biggest win in history.

The back-and-forth slugfest ended with K-State staging its fifth come-from-behind victory since the beginning of the 2024 season when trailing in the fourth quarter. This one marked the Wildcats' first game-winning touchdown with under 1:00 left in regulation since Skylar Thompson connected with Isaiah Zuber on the final play in a home game against Iowa State in 2017.

Johnson had career highs across the board as a passer, completing 28-of-43 passes for 318 yards and three touchdowns, while he rushed for 43 yards, including a crucial 25-yard run on the game-winning drive.

In the second game of his second season as a full-time starter, Johnson showed something to Klie-man in the game-winning drive.

After K-State's final touchdown, North Dakota took over with 37 seconds to go, and the crowd rose to peak level, and a K-State defense that had its hands full with the Fighting Hawks all game forced Kaminski to throw four straight incompletions, including a deep ball that glanced off the hands of Caden Dennis down the sideline with 5 seconds left, as the Wildcats survived a rollercoaster night.

K-State outgained North Dakota, 461 to 354, in total offense and held the Fighting Hawks to just 5-of-14 on third downs and 1-of-2 on fourth downs. K-State improved to 27-7 when totaling at least 375 offensive yards since 2022.

K-State wide receiver Jayce Brown had a career-high 12 catches for 109 yards and a touchdown, marking the most receptions by a K-State player since Tyler Lockett had 13 in the final game of his career, the 2014 Alamo Bowl. Jerand Bradley had five catches for 46 yards and Jaron Tibbs had three catches for 55 yards and a touchdown.

However, the third quarter saw sophomore running back DeVon Rice rise to the occasion with a pair of touchdowns of nine and 13 yards. Seeing significant action in place of the injured Dylan Edwards, Rice had seven carries for 40 yards and two touchdowns, and Joe Jackson had 11 carries for 55 yards.

Meanwhile, Jackson's lone catch in the game made everybody happy. Jackson caught the game-winning pass from Johnson along the edge to the right side inside the 10-yard line, turned up field and stepped into the end zone, then dropped the ball and flexed in excitement.

K-State got it done in the clutch. K-State found a way.

Game Notes

• This was the third all-time meeting between Kansas State and Army with the Black Knights now holding a 3-0 advantage in the series... K-State is now 3-4 all-time against service academy teams... Kansas State is now 102-21 in regular-season non-conference games since 1990, which includes an 85-10 mark at home... The Wildcats are 25-19-1 all-time against current members of the American.

• Junior Avery Johnson made his 17th-career start at quarterback, going 15-of-25 through the air for 172 yards and a touchdown... He now has 318 career completions to rank 10th in school history as he passed Eli Roberson (307 - 2000-03)... He now has 36 career touchdown passes to tie Michael Bishop (1997-98) for sixth place in school history.

• Junior wide receiver Jayce Brown recorded three receptions for 29 yards... He now has a catch in each of the last 24 games dating back to the 2023 Texas Tech contest... It is the longest streak by a Wildcat since Phillip Brooks had a 25-game streak over the 2022 and 2023 seasons.

• Redshirt freshman Bryce Noernberg returned a third-quarter kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown... It was the K-State's first kickoff-return touchdown since Malik Knowles took one 93 yards for a touchdown against Oklahoma in 2021... It was the longest by a Wildcat since Knowles went 99 yards earlier in the 2021 season at Oklahoma State.

ARMY GRINDS OUT 24-21 VICTORY OVER K-STATE

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Kansas State hoped its lengthy preparation for Army paid dividends. All that quarterback Avery Johnson and the Wildcats offense could do, though, was watch almost the entire second half from the sideline as the Black Knights ran, ran, and ran some more — and scored. It all ended with a forgettable 24-21 loss in front of a sellout crowd at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

K-State took a 13-7 lead into halftime following a balanced first two quarters between the teams. K-State led in total offense, 198 to 140, and in time of possession — 16:15 to 13:45. Then Army started its march. And it simply wouldn't be stopped.

Incredibly, K-State possessed the football for fewer than four minutes in the second half. The Wildcats ran four offensive plays from scrimmage before their final fourth-quarter drive. In actual time, the K-State offense didn't see the field for almost an hour.

Army quarterback Cale Hellums and slotback Noah Short guided drive after drive. They put together drives of 14, 13 and 14 plays that consumed more than seven minutes apiece and produced two touchdowns and a field goal in the second half.

K-State saw its halftime lead dissolve as Army efficiently ran the ball down the field with three- and four-yard gains. And the clock continued to dwindle.

K-State surrendered its lead for good the final time that the noticeably worn-down defense was on the field. Facing second-and-4 at the K-State 14-yard line, Hellums got good blocking from the right side of the line, skated through a hole up the middle with only an arm touching along the way, and celebrated with his teammates in the end zone to take the 24-21 lead, capping a monster 14-play, 56-yard drive and giving the Wildcats just 2:52 left to pull off a comeback.

Johnson completed 15-of-25 passes for 172 yards and one touchdown and one interception. His first pick of the season arrived when a ball deflected off running back Joe Jackson and into the hands of Collin Matteson near midfield with 1:35 left.

The Black Knights ran three plays to run out the final 95 seconds and secure their third win all-time against the Wildcats.

Army outgained K-State, 332 to 247, as the Black Knights put up 237 rushing yards, went 10-for-22 on third downs, and 6-for-7 on fourth downs. Army held the ball twice as long as K-State — 40:44 to 19:16. K-State recorded its lowest time of possession in a game since holding the ball for 18:34 at Louisville in 2008.

Total plays? Army ran 82, K-State ran 43. It marked the fewest plays by K-State in a game since it ran 41 plays against Navy in the 2019 Liberty Bowl.

It marked the third-straight close game to start the season for K-State, which suffered a 24-21 loss to Iowa State in Ireland and needed a game-winning touchdown to escape North Dakota, 38-35.

Game Notes

• This was the ninth all-time meeting between Kansas State and Arizona with UofA now holding a 6-2-1 advantage in the series... K-State has dropped its last three Friday road games, losing at Stanford in 2016 and at Texas in 2021.

• Sophomore Garrett Harstad blocked a punt in the third quarter, which eventually led to a K-State touchdown... It was K-State's first blocked punt since Ty Bowman had one in last year's season opener against UT Martin... The Wildcats have now blocked a punt in each of the last eight years, which currently stands at the longest streak in the nation... San Diego State entered the 2025 season tied with K-State by blocking a punt in each of the last seven years.

• Jayce Brown recorded six receptions for 68 yards, extending his catch streak to 25 games... He recorded a 75-yard touchdown run on the first play of the second half, the Wildcats' longest rush since Deuce Vaughn went 88 yards for a score in the 2022 Sugar Bowl... It was the longest rush by a K-State wide receiver since Malik Knowles went 75 yards for a score on the first play of the 2022 season against South Dakota.

• Simon McClannan averaged 50.8 yards on his five punts on Friday evening, a new career high... His previous best was a 46.5-yard average on four punts last year against Rutgers in the Rate Bowl... It was the first time a K-State punter averaged more than 50 yards per punt on at least four punts since Ty Zentner had a 54.3-yard average against Missouri in 2022.

K-STATE FALLS TO ARIZONA, 23-17

TUCSON, Ariz. – Kansas State never found its groove, Arizona put together a powerful running attack, and K-State suffered a 23-17 loss in its first true road game of the season.

Playing at Arizona Stadium, the site of K-State's first-ever bowl victory in the 1993 Copper Bowl, K-State incurred a rash of troubles in the final game before its first bye week.

K-State experienced difficulties from the start, while Arizona moved the ball. Arizona outgained K-State 412 to 193 and went 8-of-18 on third down behind a solid performance from quarterback Noah Fifita, who completed 16-of-33 passes for 178 yards and rushed 15 times for 48 yards and two touchdowns. Ismail Mahdi had 22 carries for 189 yards on the ground.

Avery Johnson completed 13-of-29 passes for 88 yards and had seven carries for minus-16 yards and one touchdown.

K-State's leading rusher was wide receiver Jayce Brown, whose 75-yard touchdown run out of the Wildcat formation down the right side on the first play from scrimmage in the third quarter gave K-State hope and drew the Wildcats to within 17-10. Brown had one carry for 75 yards and also led K-State with six catches for 68 yards.

Even after its troubles, K-State had a chance to win the game. K-State had fourth-and-7 from its 43-yard line, but Johnson saw his pass across the middle to Brown fall incomplete with 1:00 to go, effectively ending the game and extending the Wildcats' woes.

Arizona led 17-3 at halftime while outgaining K-State 257 to 44 in the first two quarters. K-State's lone score in the first half was a career-long 51-yard field goal by Luis Rodriguez with 7:42 left in the first quarter, which marked the first score by either team.

But Fifita scored touchdowns on runs of 15 and 2 yards, and Michael Salgado-Medina hit a 31-yard field goal, as Arizona had its way in the first two quarters. About the only thing that didn't go right for Arizona came when Salgado-Medina missed a 62-yard field goal to end the first half.

Faced with a halftime deficit, Brown and K-State seemingly sprang to life in the third quarter. On the first play from scrimmage, Brown took the football out of the Wildcat formation and dashed 75 yards down the right side for a touchdown to draw K-State to 17-10 just 13 seconds into the second half.

After K-State held Arizona to a three-and-out for the first time in the game, the K-State special teams came alive. Punter Salgado-Medina dropped a snap, and K-State's Garrett Harstad blocked a punt as K-State took over at the Arizona 13-yard line. It was the eighth-straight season the Wildcats have blocked a punt, the longest streak in the nation.

Johnson threaded the ball down the middle to Brown to the 1, and two plays later Johnson punched the ball into the end zone for a 17-17 tie.

Then Qua Moss leaped in front of Keyan Burnett to intercept a halfback pass from Javin Whatley, and K-State had a chance to take the lead. It marked the first K-State defensive interception this season and the first interception by the Arizona offense this season.

However, K-State went three-and-out and Arizona started its possession at the K-State 46 and drove for a Salgado-Medina 31-yard field goal and a 20-17 lead with 2:40 left in the third quarter.

On Arizona's next drive, Fifita methodically took Arizona down the field on a 7:30 drive before Damian Ilalio and Travis Bates sacked him and forced another Salgado-Medina 41-yard field goal. That gave Arizona a 23-17 lead with 4:25 to go.

K-State was unable to answer. Facing fourth-and-3 at the K-State 32-yard line, with 2:31 left, Johnson saw his pass fly off Brown's hands on a slant route, giving the ball back to Arizona.

Game Notes

• This was the third all-time meeting between Kansas State and UCF with the Wildcats now holding a 3-0 lead... It was the first time the Wildcats had a morning kickoff to almost exactly one year as they defeated Oklahoma State, 42-20, at home on September 27, 2024... The Wildcats have won each of their last four Big 12 home openers, defeating Texas Tech in 2022, UCF in 2023 and Oklahoma State last year prior to this victory.

• Junior quarterback Avery Johnson threw for 168 yards and two touchdowns on 18-of-25 attempts... With his two touchdown passes, Johnson now has 38 in his career as he moved into fifth place in school history, passing Eli Roberson (2000-03)... He now has 5,248 yards of total offense in his career, entering the school's top-10 list... His 72.0% completion mark was a new career high, bettering the 70.0% clip in the season opener against Iowa State (min. 10 attempts).

• Johnson rushed for a season-high 75 yards on Saturday... He now has 1,038 career rushing yards as he became the seventh quarterback in school history to reach the 1,000-yard mark.

• Running back Dylan Edwards rushed for a season-high 166 yards and a touchdown... It was the second-most yards of his career, behind a 196-yard output last year against Rutgers in the Rate Bowl... He had a 75-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, which was a career-long rush... His previous career long was a 65-yard touchdown in last year's Rate Bowl... It was the second-straight game the Wildcats had a 75-yard touchdown run as Jayce Brown had one at Arizona... It was the first time K-State had runs of at least 75 yards in consecutive games in school history.

JOHNSON, EDWARDS LEAD BALANCED ATTACK IN WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Avery Johnson passed for 168 yards and two touchdowns, and he added 75 rushing yards on 12 carries, and standout running back Dylan Edwards had 166 rushing yards and one score, as Kansas State put together its best performance of the season in a much-needed 34-20 win over UCF.

K-State took a 17-7 lead into the half and led 31-10 late in the third quarter after Edwards took a handoff and raced down the right sideline 75 yards for a touchdown, prompting a massive celebration among the crowd of 53,013 and coaches and players on the sideline for a K-State team that came off a bye week looking to rebound after a few tough losses.

Johnson, coupled with Edwards, his childhood best friend and pee-wee football teammate from the Wichita area, stole the show.

UCF suffered its first loss in the second tenure of head coach Scott Frost, who had won 16 straight with the Knights, and who led a squad into Manhattan after an emotional week following the sudden death of offensive line coach Shawn Clark.

K-State outgained UCF 434 to 402. The Wildcats had season highs both with 434 total yards and 266 rushing yards and were a perfect 4-for-4 inside the red zone. The K-State defense held the Knights' offense to 3-for-13 on third downs, and it held a squad that led the FBS in fourth-down conversions without a single fourth-down conversion in the contest.

Tayven Jackson completed 12-of-24 passes for 115 yards and one interception, and Jacurri Brown completed 1-of-2 passes with one touchdown and one interception. Running back Myles Montgomery had 10 carries for 119 yards.

But K-State held UCF to 20 points after the Knights entered averaging 39.7 points per game. The Wildcats had some standout performances on defense, including two interceptions, eight tackles for loss and three sacks.

Johnson completed 18-of-25 passes for 168 yards and two touchdowns, and his 12 rushes for 75 yards were just what the doctor ordered in keeping the Knights defense honest. He was poised, calm, and picked his spots well in the running game.

Wide receiver Jaron Tibbs had eight catches for 72 yards, Garrett Oakley had two catches for 36 yards, and Sterling Lockett and Cure both had their first-career catches in a K-State uniform.

And then there was Edwards. And he was downright dangerous.

Game Notes

• This was the 22nd all-time meeting between Kansas State and Baylor with the Bears evening the series at 11-11... Baylor took a 7-5 advantage in the series in games played in Waco... K-State is now 11-19 in its Big 12 road opener since the league's inception in 1996.

• The Wildcats went 75 yards on their first drive, the first opening-drive touchdown of the season and first since last year's Cincinnati game on November 23... In its first drive of the second half, K-State went 97 yards for a touchdown... It tied for the 12th-longest drive in school history and was the longest since a 97-yard drive at Baylor in 2022.

• Avery Johnson threw for 344 yards and two touchdowns on 29-of-45 aim, while he rushed for 72 yards and another one score... His 29 completions were tied for the seventh most in a game in school history, while his 344 passing yards were the most by a Wildcat since Jake Waters had 400 yards at West Virginia in 2014... He now has 1,110 career rushing yards to rank fifth in school history among quarterbacks... He now has 40 career passing touchdowns to tie for fourth in school history.

• Garrett Oakley tallied seven receptions for 54 yards and a touchdown... His seven receptions were a new career high, bettering the four he had two games ago at Arizona and in last year's regular-season finale at Iowa State... It was the most receptions in a game by a tight end since Ben Sinnott had 10 catches in the 2023 regular-season finale against Iowa State... Oakley now has 54 career receptions to rank fifth in school history by a tight end, passing Kent Dean (1984-87), who had 50.

LATE FIELD GOAL LIFTS BAYLOR PAST K-STATE

WACO, Texas – Kansas State saw Baylor's Caden Jenkins block a 56-yard field goal attempt by Luis Rodriguez with 5 seconds remaining, and the Wildcats suffered another narrow loss with a 35-34 defeat at McLane Stadium.

Avery Johnson completed 29-of-45 passes for 344 yards and two touchdowns and one interception, and he added 10 carries for 72 yards and one score, but his standout performance was overshadowed by a valiant comeback from Baylor, which stormed back from a 31-17 deficit to take the lead on a Connor Hawkins 53-yard field goal with 31 seconds left, ultimately giving the Wildcats their fourth one-score loss in a frustrating season.

Baylor's comeback was keyed by one of the rare mistakes of the game by Johnson, whose pass up the middle to wide receiver Jaron Tibbs was intercepted by Jacob Redding, and his 66-yard return gave the Bears a 32-31 lead with 4:28 left in the fourth quarter.

On the ensuing drive, the Wildcats were unable to get the ball into the end zone inside the 10 and used a Rodriguez 22-yard field goal to take a 34-32 lead with 1:48 left.

The Bears weren't finished. Sawyer Robertson, who entered the game leading the FBS in passer rating, passing yards and touchdown passes, completed 25-of-39 passes for 345 yards with two touchdowns and one interception, and he drove the Bears for Hawkins' decisive 53-yard field goal, which proved to be enough to keep the Wildcats winless on the road.

Although Baylor entered with the 11th-ranked offense in the FBS, the Wildcats outgained the Bears 501-443 in total offensive yards, forced three turnovers, and held the Bears to just 3-of-9 on third downs and 0-1 on fourth downs. K-State also led in time of possession 37:47 to 22:13. Johnson's 344 passing yards were the most by a K-State quarterback since Jake Waters had 400 at West Virginia in 2014.

The game featured standout performances by pass catchers from both teams. K-State wide receiver Jayce Brown had four catches for 106 yards and one touchdown, and Tibbs had six catches for 80 yards. Tight end Garrett Oakley had a career-high seven catches for 54 yards and one touchdown. Baylor tight end Michael Trigg had eight catches for 155 yards.

K-State and Baylor were tied 17-17 at halftime. The Wildcats began their first drive of the second half at its own 3-yard line in what turned out to be arguably the best drive so far in the 2025 season as the Wildcats converted on two third-and-shorts and one fourth-and-short to keep alive a possession that included a Brown 30-yard catch-and-run before Brown caught a 12-yard touchdown back-hip pass on a slant at the goal line for a 24-17 lead. It was the Wildcats' longest drive of the season — 14 plays, 97 yards and it consumed 6:41.

K-State then forced a three-and-out keyed by a 10-yard sack by defensive end Cody Stufflebean. Following a punt, the Wildcats regained possession at the Baylor 44-yard line. Johnson found tight end Will Anciaux, who out-wrestled Baylor's Tevin Williams III for the ball, and that gave the Wildcats the ball at the 5. Dylan Edwards scored on the next play to make it 30-17 with 1:15 left in the third quarter.

Robertson and the Bears tried to answer as the game steered into the fourth quarter. But facing fourth-and-8 from the K-State 15-yard line, Robertson overthrew wide receiver Kole Wilson on fade in double coverage.

But moments later, Robertson came back and hit Trigg with a pair of long passes. First, he completed a 42-yard pass to Trigg to take the Bears to the K-State 40. Then Robertson fired a 29-yard completion that Trigg caught with one hand to the K-State 11. Finally, running back Bryson Washington caught a swing pass at the 10 and broke tackles to get the ball inside the right pylon for a score. Robertson ran into the end zone for a 2-point conversion to cut K-State's lead to 31-25 with 8:50 to go.

K-State had its eyes set on putting the game away with a touchdown. Johnson converted a third-and-11 at the K-State 29 when he found running back Joe Jackson on a 17-yard catch-and-run. Facing third-and-9 at the K-State 48, Johnson hit Tibbs for 11 yards. But the next play, disaster struck. Johnson's pass up the middle to Tibbs was intercepted by Redding, whose pick six gave the Bears a 32-31 lead with 4:28 left.

The K-State offense was ready come back. Johnson fired a right-side stop-and-go deep ball over the defense to Brown, who raced down the field, but was ruled down at the Baylor 28 when his helmet was taken off. Brown was credited with a 48-yard catch.

Caldra Williford, who took off Brown's helmet, was charged with a face-mask penalty, which gave K-State the ball at the Baylor 14. Three Jackson runs got the ball to the 4. But facing third-and-goal at the 4, Johnson's pass fell incomplete, leading to Rodriguez's 22-yard field goal for a 34-32 lead with 1:48 to go.

Then Baylor answered with Hawkins' 53-yarder.

Game Notes

• This was the 19th all-time meeting between Kansas State and TCU with the Wildcats now holding an 11-8 advantage in the series, including a 7-3 mark in games played in Manhattan... K-State has won each of the last three matchups dating back to the 2022 Big 12 Championship, the longest streak by the Wildcats in the series.

• K-State had two defensive scores in the contest as Wesley Fair had a 15-yard fumble return touchdown and Deshaun Purnell had a 25-yard interception return touchdown... It was the first time the Wildcats had a fumble-return touchdown and a pick-6 in the same game since the 2023 Baylor contest... In that game, Purnell had a 15-yard fumble-return touchdown and Keenan Garber had a 45-yard interception-return touchdown.

• Deshaun Purnell recorded a 25-yard interception-return touchdown, which came just one play after he had an 8-yard sack... It was his second-career interception and the first he returned for a touchdown... It was K-State's first pick-6 since Marques Sigle returned a pick 43 yards for a score last year at West Virginia.

• Deshaun Purnell had two interceptions in the contest as he had one in the fourth quarter along with his pick-6 in the third quarter... It was the first time a Wildcat had two interceptions in one game since Jacob Parrish had two at Texas in 2023... It was the first time a Wildcat linebacker had two interceptions in a game since Elijah Lee had two against TCU in 2015.

• Garrett Oakley had two touchdowns, giving him 11 for his career, which is a new school record by a tight end... The previous record of 10 was shared by Ben Sinnott and Henry Childs.

DEFENSE PACES K-STATE IN 41-28 WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Avery Johnson threw three touchdowns, including two to tight end Garrett Oakley to reach a milestone, and an opportunistic Kansas State defense accounted for two touchdowns as well, as the Wildcats blew past TCU 41-28 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Playing without leading rusher Dylan Edwards and sack leader Tobi Osunsonmi, K-State showed it had more than enough talented bodies to get past TCU, which historically has had a tough time against the Wildcats. K-State has now won six of its last seven meetings and hasn't lost to the Horned Frogs in Manhattan since 2017. K-State beat TCU, 41-3, the last time the teams met on October 21, 2023.

This win was plenty big. After a chain of past heartbreaks for a team still busting with potential, the Wildcats cut it loose, scored their most points all season, and recorded a pair of defensive touchdowns in a single game for the first time in two years — a Wesley Fair 15-yard fumble recovery for a 14-7 lead, and a Deshaun Purnell 25-yard interception return to make it 21-7 — en route to handing the Horned Frogs their most unpleasant defeat of the season.

Johnson completed 16-of-26 passes for 198 yards and three touchdowns, and grinded out 29 yards on the ground on 13 rushing attempts. He appeared sensational at times with a 32-yard touchdown pass to Oakley in the second quarter, a 17-yard touchdown pass to Oakley in third quarter, and a 12-yard touchdown pass to 6-foot-6 wide receiver Jerand Bradley in the back of the end zone in the fourth quarter. Oakley's 11 career touchdown catches are the most by a tight end in K-State history.

Meanwhile, there are some who maybe didn't believe what they were seeing — as Fair, and then Purnell darted into the end zone for defensive scores. Purnell had two interceptions, the first time a K-State linebacker had two in a game since Elijah Lee against TCU in 2015.

The awareness of Fair gave the Wildcats a 14-7 lead with 2:02 left in the second quarter — and the Wildcats led the game the rest of the way. TCU's talented quarterback Josh Hoover threw a pass down the line to wide receiver Ed Small — which was ruled by officials as a lateral — and the ball bounced off Small's hands in the right flat. Fair picked up the ball near the TCU sideline and raced 15 yards into the end zone.

Purnell put together arguably the best back-to-back plays by a K-State defender this season as K-State built a 21-7 lead. On first down, Purnell swept in and sacked Hoover at the TCU 15. Then Purnell dropped back into coverage, read the eyes of Hoover, and stepped in front of the pass, caught the ball, and it was clear sailing for a pick-six and a 14-point lead with 10:28 left in the third quarter.

It was K-State's first pick-six since Marques Sigle returned an interception 43 yards for a score at West Virginia last season.

It was the first time K-State had two defensive touchdowns in a game since against Baylor in 2023. K-State now has 138 non-offensive touchdowns since 1999, which leads the FBS during that span.
