KANSAS WELCOMES WAGNER TO DAVID BOOTH KANSAS MEMORIAL STADIUM

The Kansas Jayhawks enter week one of the 2025 college football season with a season-opening 31-7 win over Fresno State under their belt as they host the Wagner Seahawks at David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium on Friday, Aug. 29 at 6:30 p.m. Kansas earned its fifth-straight season-opening win, marking the first time since 2005-09 that Kansas has won five-straight season openers. Head coach Lance Leipold also became the first Kansas coach since AR Kennedy (1904-10) to win his first five season openers as head coach, as Kansas improved to 74-53-7 in season openers all-time.

Kansas was led by redshirt senior quarterback Jalon Daniels in the win, who completed a career-high completion percentage of 90% (18-of-20) for 176 yards and 3 touchdowns to go along with 8 rushes for 47 yards. Daniels' three touchdown passes gave him 48 career passing touchdowns for his career and marked the most for a Kansas quarterback in a season-opener since 2017. Daniels completed receptions to 10 different receivers in the season opener, including 6 completions to redshirt junior Cam Pickett, who scored twice. After allowing an opening drive touchdown to Fresno State, the Kansas defense buckled up and held Fresno State scoreless over its final nine possessions, allowing only 141 yards of total offense following the first possession. Kansas' defense held Fresno State to just 39 rushing yards total, which was the fewest rushing yards allowed since holding BYU to 9 rushing yards on Sept. 23, 2023, while it was the 12th time since 2000 holding an opponent under 40 rushing yards.

The 2025 season marks the first season played at the new David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium, as the Jayhawks held the grand opening in the season-opening 31-7 win over Fresno State on Aug. 23. The overhaul to David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium marks the completion of the $448 million Phase 1 of the University of Kansas' Gateway District, which features a new west and north side of David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium, a conference center on the north end of the stadium (to open October 2025) and significant changes to Anderson Family Football Complex. Phase two of the University of Kansas Gateway District will then focus on the east portion of the stadium as well as the entertainment, dining, retail and other potential aspects of the Gateway District. The changes to David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium are the first rebuild since the stadium was originally constructed in 1921.

JAYHAWK QUICK HITS

- Kansas and Wagner meet for the first time in program history on Friday evening. With two games on Kansas' 2025 schedule slated for Friday, the Jayhawks will have played on Friday for the fifth-straight season, where the Jayhawks are 4-2 on Friday's since 2021.
- Kansas senior quarterback Jalon Daniels had a strong start to the 2025 season vs. Fresno State, completing 18-of-20 (90%) for 176 yards and 3 touchdowns. His 90% completion percentage was a career-high, while he completed passes to 10 different Jayhawk receivers. Of those receivers, redshirt junior Cam Pickett was on the receiving end of six receptions for 77 yards and 2 touchdowns. Daniels, a Walter Camp Award Preseason Watch List candidate, has thrown for 6,927 career passing yards on 554-of-894 passing and 48 touchdowns, along with 1,088 career rushing yards on 311 attempts and 19 touchdowns. Daniels and Leipold, now in their fifth year together, are the longest-tenured quarterback/head coach duo in all of power-four football.
- After Kansas' defense allowed a 7-play, 75-yard drive opening drive touchdown for Fresno State, the Jayhawk defense held Fresno State scoreless over their final nine possessions, allowing only 141 yards of total offense following the first possession. Kansas' defense held Fresno State to just 39 rushing yards total, which was the fewest rushing yards allowed since holding BYU to 9 rushing yards on Sept. 23, 2023, while it was the 12th time since 2000 holding an opponent under 40 rushing yards.
- Prior to the start of the season, head coach Lance Leipold announced Kansas' season captains, including quarterback Jalon Daniels, center Bryce Foster and defensive end Justice Finkley. The Jayhawk will have a fourth captain rotate by game.

GAME NOTES

KANSAS OPENS NEW DAVID BOOTH KANSAS MEMORIAL STADIUM

• The 2025 season marks the first season played in the new David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium and the completion of Phase 1 of the University of Kansas' Gateway District, which has undergone transformational $448 million upgrades to the Anderson Family Football Complex, southwest, west and north sides of the stadium. The upgrades include a 55,000-gross-square-foot conference center space in the north endzone and a major renovation of the Anderson Family Football Complex, which serves as the hub of Kansas football.

• Among the changes fans saw on gameday include a restricted seating bowl with improved sightlines and increased fan proximity to the field, along with expanded concourse circulation, upgraded accessibility, diverse new premium seating options and an overall more comfortable gameday experience.

• Fans also enjoyed new food and beverages that feature a strong local flavor that will connect Jayhawk fans to some of their local and national brands. Among the local additions to the stadium for the upcoming season are Johnny's Tavern, Tiki Taco, Bigg's BBQ, Princeton Popcorn, Uplift Coffee and famous Kansas City brewery, Boulevard. Reputable national partners such as Chick-fil-A, Serendipity Ice Cream, Anheuser-Busch, Modelo, Surfside, Jim Beam and Pepsi are also available. In addition, a new strategic partnership with Jack Stack BBQ will offer food options in the Jayhawk Landing south endzone space, premium seating and their famous sauces will be served throughout the stadium.

• The initial vision of the University of Kansas Gateway District was first announced on Oct. 7, 2022, when Kansas hosted ESPN College Gameday to campus for football for the first time in program history. In under a year, The University of Kansas unveiled its plans behind the Gateway District with renderings and a timeline for the project on Aug. 15, 2023. Following the completion of the 2023 season, demolition of the stadium began as Kansas played its 2024 season in the Kansas City Metro at Children's Mercy Park, home of Sporting KC, in Kansas City, Kansas and GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, home of the Kansas City Chiefs, in Kansas City, Missouri.

• With Phase 1 now complete, future phases of the Gateway District will introduce new academic and hospitality facilities, student housing, retail, and a 20,000-square-foot plaza designed for community events and outdoor programming. These components will extend the district's impact and help position KU as a national leader in integrated campus development.

BOOTH GIVES BACK WITH UNPRECEDENTED GIFT

• On Wednesday, August 13, 2025, the University of Kansas announced an unprecedented gift from alumnus David G. Booth of Austin, Texas. The extraordinary gift, amounting to approximately $300 million, is the largest in Kansas Athletics and University of Kansas history, and is among the largest single gifts in the history of college athletics.

• Booth, a graduate of both Lawrence High School and KU, is an investing legend and founder of Dimensional Fund Advisors — a global investment firm that manages $853 billion in assets as of June 30, 2025. Booth's visionary gift includes a $75 million challenge to other donors that launches the next phase of progress on the Gateway District and David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium. The remainder of his commitment will generate a stream of income that will strengthen Kansas Athletics across generations.

• It's not just the scale of the gift that is remarkable, but what it will accomplish. Booth's commitment will propel the Gateway District's next phase, which adds to private and civic investment for a new hotel, additional retail and restaurant spaces, student housing, improved parking and an outdoor event plaza. The remainder of Booth's gift will allow Kansas Athletics to be strategic, innovative and maintain a leadership position in college athletics. With the advent of revenue sharing and the continued changes in NCAA and conference dynamics, his generosity will help enable KU to take the next step in cementing itself as a national leader in college athletics.

• Booth's landmark gift is the most recent in his long legacy of support at KU, helping transform athletics and its impact for the university. Booth provided a foundational gift of $50 million in 2017 to kick off renovations at the stadium, which was named for him in 2018. In 2010, he donated James Naismith's original rules of basketball to the university, a top attraction housed at the DeBruce Center, next to the Booth Family Hall of Athletics, which he and his family provided $5 million for in 2004, followed by $4 million for subsequent improvements. His philanthropy is legendary and extends across areas, including the arts and academics. In 2008, he provided a gift valued at $300 million to the University of Chicago School of Business, where he earned his MBA. The school was named the University of Chicago Booth School of Business in his honor.

• The Lawrence High graduate attended KU, earning both a Bachelor of Arts in Economics in 1968 and a Master of Science in Business in 1969 before earning his Master of Business Administration from the University of Chicago in 1971.

SEASON-OPENER SUCCESS

• The Jayhawks opened the New David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium in style with a 31-7 win over Fresno State on Aug. 23, 2025, improving Kansas to 74-53-7 in season openers all-time.

• The win over Fresno State gave Kansas a 1-0 advantage in the all-time series history between the two teams. The Jayhawks improved to 1-0 for the fifth-straight year (2025 vs. Fresno State, 2024 vs. Lindenwood, 2023 vs. Missouri State, 2022 vs. Tennessee Tech, 2021 vs. South Dakota), marking the first time the Jayhawks have won five-straight season openers since 2005-09.

• The Jayhawks are 17-4 in season openers dating back to the 2004 season.

• The win over Fresno State marked Kansas' earliest win in program history, as it was Kansas' first game played in week 0. Kansas also improved to 7-4 in the month of August, all-time.

• With the win over Fresno State, head coach Lance Leipold became the first Kansas coach since AR Kennedy (1904-10) to win his first five season openers as head coach. Leipold improved to 18-2 in season openers all-time including 10-2 at the Division I level.

KANSAS UNDER HEAD COACH LANCE LEIPOLD

• Head Coach Lance Leipold is in his fifth season at the helm for the Kansas Jayhawks, leading the Jayhawks to back-to-back bowl appearances in 2022 and 2023, something that KU has only accomplished twice in school history (2022-23, 2007-08).

• Leipold holds a 23-28 record in his four seasons at KU. Over his career, Leipold boasts a 169-67 record, including six national championships and he was the fastest coach in NCAA history to reach 100 career wins.

• In 2023, Leipold led KU to its first nine-win season since 2007, including the Jayhawks' first winning season since 2008. The nine-win season marked the seventh in program history and Kansas' seventh bowl win all-time.

• Leipold became the fourth KU head coach to make two or more bowl appearances over their KU career, joining Mark Mangino (3-1), Glen Mason (2-0) and Don Fambrough (2-0).

• The Jayhawks are 9-9 in Big 12 Conference games under head coach Lance Leipold since the start of the 2023 season. Prior to Lance Leipold's arrival, Kansas was 8-98 in Big 12 contests from 2009-2020. Kansas finished with a 5-4 record in Big 12 Conference play in 2023, which was the most Big 12 Conference wins in a single season for KU since the 2007 season.

• Under Leipold, Kansas has recorded five wins against Top-25 opponents (2024 vs. No. 16 Colorado; 2024 vs. No. 7 BYU; 2024 vs. No. 17 Iowa State; 2023 vs. No. 6 Oklahoma; 2022 vs. No. 18 Oklahoma State). Leipold matches Bud Moore (1975-78) for the most wins against top-25 opponents over their KU careers. From 2010-2021, Kansas was 0-44 against Top-25

Kansas Football plays in its inaugural season, playing in three games captained by Howard Peairs.

1920

Phog Allen, in his only season as football head coach, rallies his team from a 20-0 halftime deficit to a 20-20 tie vs. Nebraska. The following Monday, students and faculty gather to celebrate the comeback and more than $200,000 is pledged over a three-day period to build a concrete stadium.

MAY 10, 1921

The university observed "Stadium Day" and more than 4,000 students showed up to help demolish the old stadium, McCook Field.

OCT. 3, 1921

In the first game in Kansas Memorial Stadium, KU defeated Kansas State, 21-7 in front of 5,160 fans on Oct. 3, 1921. When the stadium was completed, the east and west stands had a capacity of 22,000.

NOV. 11, 1922

On Nov. 11, just prior to the KU-Nebraska game, Kansas Memorial Stadium was formally dedicated.

1927

Phog Allen's dream of a horseshoe-type stadium turns into reality as the north bowl is completed and the stadium capacity is increased to 35,000.

1965

The east and west stands are expanded, ultimately raising capacity to 51,500. A new press box was added to the west side of the stadium.

1978

A $1.8 million renovation of Kansas Memorial Stadium includes improvements to repair concrete, replacing the original wooden seats, adding new dressing rooms and additions to the press box.

1999

The two-year, $26 million, renovation project which included extensive infrastructure repairs, new concourse with improved concession stands and restrooms, new home locker room, and a new press box with 36 suites. In addition, the 1999 season marked the debut of a new video board in the south end zone.

2014

The historic track surrounding the field at Kansas Memorial Stadium was removed with the completion of Rock Chalk Park and replaced with FieldTurf.

2021

Kansas Football celebrates 100 years of Memorial Stadium.

OCT. 7, 2022

Plans for the Gateway District were announced while hosting ESPN College Gameday in 2022.

AUG. 15, 2023

Kansas unveils the vision behind the Gateway District, releases renderings and sets timeline for project.

DEC. 2023

Following the 2023 season, demolition of the stadium begins.

2024

Kansas plays the 2024 season at Children's Mercy Park and GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City.

AUG. 13, 2025

Kansas announces transformational $300 million gift from David Booth, with $75 million to Phase 2 of the Gateway District, which includes development of new retail, dining, parking, residential facilities and a hotel.

AUG. 23, 2025

Kansas opens the 2025 season in the new David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium on August 23 vs. Fresno State.

opponents with its last win coming against No. 15 Georgia Tech on Sept. 11, 2010.

• During the 2024 season, Kansas won three-straight games against ranked opponents, becoming the first school in FBS history with a sub .500 record to defeat three-straight ranked opponents. Kansas’ three wins over ranked opponents were the most by a Jayhawk team since 1995. It’s only the second time in school history the Jayhawks have accomplished such a feat.

• Since 2021, Kansas has five Big 12 road wins under Leipold (at Texas, 2021; at West Virginia, 2022; at Iowa State, 2023; at Cincinnati, 2023; at BYU, 2024). In the 12 years prior to Leipold arriving at KU, the Jayhawks were 1-54 in Big 12 Conference road games from 2008-2020.

• The Jayhawks have been strong at home under Leipold, finishing with a 4-2 record at home in 2024 and 5-2 at home in 2023. Kansas’ 5-2 record at home in 2023 was the most home wins since 2008, while the Jayhawks are now 14-6 at home since the start of the 2022 season. In the seven years prior to Leipold’s arrival (2013-2020), Kansas was 13-37 at home.

• Since the start of the 2022 season, Kansas has appeared in the AP Top-25 nine times, including two appearances in 2024. Kansas’ appearance in 2022 was the first for the Jayhawks since 2009.

• Kansas began the 2024 season ranked No. 22, marking its first preseason ranking since 2009. It marked the first time since 2008 that Kansas was ranked in both the AP Preseason Poll and USA Today Preseason Coach’s Poll.

• Kansas sold out its season opener vs. Fresno State, marking its first season-opening sellout since 2009. Kansas has now recorded a sellout in each of its last four seasons with 10 sellouts overall.

CALL THEM CAPTAINS

• Kansas football head coach Lance Leipold announced Kansas’ season captains ahead of the season, including quarterback Jalon Daniels, center Bryce Foster and defensive end Justice Finkley.

• The Jayhawks will also elect a rotating captain by game. In the season-opener vs. Fresno State, redshirt senior defensive tackle DJ Withers served as Kansas’ fourth captain.

• Daniels was voted captain by his peers for the fourth-straight season (2025, 2024, 2023, 2022) becoming Kansas’ first four-time captain in program history.

• Finkley and Foster are first-time captains after Finkley transferred to Kansas following four seasons at Texas.

• Kansas’ team captains are determined by team vote.

JD6

• Kansas quarterback Jalon Daniels, nicknamed JD6, is among the top returning quarterbacks in all of power-four football as he enters his sixth season as the Jayhawks’ quarterback.

• In the season-opener vs. Fresno State, Daniels looked right at home at the new David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium, completing a career-high completion percentage of 90% (18-of-20) for 176 yards and 3 touchdowns. Daniels finished the first half completing 13-of-15 passing for 145 yards and 2 touchdowns, which were both to Cam Pickett.

• Daniels’ three passing touchdowns were the most for a Kansas quarterback in a season opener since Peyton Bender had four passing touchdowns on Sept. 2, 2017 vs. SEMO.

• Against Fresno State, Jalon Daniels became the fourth Big 12 player all-time to have a single game with at least three passing touchdowns, 45 rushing yards and a 90.0 completion percentage. The other three are Jalen Hurts (October 19, 2019), Robert Griffin III (September 17, 2011) and Seneca Wallace (September 29, 2001).

• Kansas had 10 different receivers record a reception from Daniels in the game, led by Pickett with six receptions for 77 yards and two touchdowns. The only other players with more than one reception were Emmanuel Henderson Jr. (3 rec, 24 yds) and Deshaun Hanika (2 rec, 17 yds).

• Over his career, Daniels has thrown for 6,927 career passing yards on 554-of-894 passing and 48 touchdowns, along with 1,088 career rushing yards on 311 attempts and 19 touchdowns.

• Daniels, a native of Lawndale, California, is one of Kansas football’s most productive quarterbacks in school history, ranking second in Kansas football history in career passing yards (6,927), career completions (554), and career passing touchdowns (48).

• During the 2024 season, of which Daniels started all 12 games, he completed 171-of-300 passing for a career-high 2,454 passing yards and 14 touchdowns. Daniels led Kansas to four wins in the final six games in 2024, throwing for 1,109 yards on 72-of-116 (62.1%) passing and 7 touchdowns over that span.

• Daniels currently ranks third in KU career passing percentage at 62% (554-of-894) trailing Todd Reesing’s 63.3% (932-of-1,461) set from 2006-09 and Mark Williams’ 62.5% set from 2006-09.

• Daniels’ abilities don’t end with his arm. He has proven to be a threat in the Kansas running game as well, rushing for 447 yards on 93 attempts and 6 touchdowns in 2024. Daniels is Kansas’ top returning rusher from a season ago.

• Over his career, Daniels has reached the endzone on the ground 19 times on 311 career carries, totaling 1,088 career rushing yards.

• In addition to his success throwing and running the ball, Daniels showed off his punting ability in a pivotal moment of the Kansas vs. BYU game in 2024. Daniels pulled off a pooch punt, which deflected off a BYU returner and was recovered by Kansas’ Quentin Skinner at the 3-yard line. The next play, Kansas scored on a 3-yard Devin Neal carry, which proved to be the deciding score in the game. Over his career, Daniels has punted four times for 151 yards (35.3 avg.). His most recent punt, prior to BYU, came in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl vs. Arkansas on Dec. 28, 2022.

• During the 2023 season, Daniels was 56-of-75 for 705 yards and five touchdowns in three games, before being sidelined for the remainder of the season due to injury.

• In 2022, Daniels threw for 2,014 yards on 152-of-230 (66.1%) passing and 18 touchdowns in nine games played.

• In the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in 2022, Daniels passed for a school record 544 passing yards, becoming the first Jayhawk in school history with 500+ passing yards in a game. Daniels also threw for five touchdowns against Arkansas, tying for the second most in a single game in school history. Following the 2022 season, Daniels led all of college football in total QBR at 90.0, which ranks 22nd since ESPN began tracking the statistic.

• Daniels enters his fifth season with head coach Lance Leipold and Jim Zebrowski as his quarterbacks coach, which is the longest tenured quarterback/head coach/QB coach trio in all of power-four football. Daniels is also the only quarterback in FBS with a start in each of the last six seasons under the same program.

• Daniels enters the 2025 season with a number of preseason accolades, including Walter Camp Award Preseason Watch List, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award Watch List and Shrine Bowl 1000 Preseason Watch List. Daniels was the 2024 Big 12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year, marking the first in Kansas football history.

ONE-TWO PUNCH

- Kansas’ 2025 rushing attack features seniors Daniel Hishaw Jr., and Leshon Williams, a duo that has big shoes to fill after Kansas’ all-time leading rusher, Devin Neal, was se-lected in the 2025 NFL Draft.
 - Both Hishaw and Williams were named to the Doak Walker Award Preseason Watch List, which is awarded to the nation’s top-running back. Hishaw has been named to the preseason watch list in each of the last three seasons, while Williams was previously named to the list in 2024 and 2023.
 - In the season-opener vs. Fresno State, Hishaw led the Jayhawks in rushing on 13 attempts for 69 yards, while Williams carried six times for 57 yards and a touchdown.
 - Facing a 4th-and-1 in the second quarter of the season-opener, Williams broke off a 21-yard rushing touchdown, his first-career touchdown as a Jayhawk and the fourth of his career. It was Williams’ first touchdown since Oct. 14, 2023 at Wisconsin, where he rushed 25 times for 174 yards and a touchdown.
 - Hishaw, a native of Moore, Oklahoma, is an experienced back for the Jayhawks, in his sixth season in Crimson and Blue. Hishaw has rushed for 1,562 yards on 295 attempts (5.3 avg/attempt) and 18 touchdowns. Hishaw’s 18 career rushing touchdowns are tied for 14th in program history with Gale Sayers and Maurice Douglas.
 - In 2024, Hishaw played in eight games, rushing 65 times for 376 yards and three touch-downs.
 - Hishaw had a career year in 2023, following two injuries in 2020 and 2022, rushing for a career-high 626 yards on 121 attempts and eight touchdowns. Hishaw led the Jayhawks in rushing on the Oct. 8, 2022, loss to TCU, carrying 13 times for 85 yards and a touch-down. The performance was Hishaw’s first time leading in rushing this season and the first since Nov. 7, 2020, when he led Kansas with 73 yards at Oklahoma.
 - Williams, from Chicago, Illinois, arrives to Kansas after four seasons at Iowa, where he was the Hawkeye’s leading rusher in 2023, rushing 170 times for 821 yards and 1 touch-down. Williams was named All-Big Ten honorable mention following the 2023 season.
 - Williams has rushed 324 times for 1,380 yards and 4 touchdowns over his career at lo-wa, while catching 28 passes for 188 yards and 1 touchdown.
 - Kansas’ rushing attack under Leipold and assistant head coach/RB’s Jonathan Wallace has been a strength of the Kansas offense. In 2024, Kansas’ offense rushed for 2,537 yards, marking its second-straight season with at least 2,500 rushing yards. It marked the first time since 1993-94 (2,719 in 1994; 2,567 in 1993) that Kansas has rushed for 2,500+ yards in consecutive seasons. Kansas’ rushing attack averaged 211.4 rushing yards per game in 2024, the most in a season since 2011 (211.7). Kansas’ rushing offense finished the season ranked second in the Big 12 and 13th nationally.
- OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER
- Kansas is in its first year with Jim Zebrowski as its offensive coordinator, though, the chemistry between Zebrowski and Leipold goes back over a decade, with Zebrowski on Kansas’ staff since 2021, as a quarterbacks coach at Buffalo from 2017-20 and as Wisconsin-Whitewater’s offensive coordinator from 2007-09.
 - Zebrowski also served as Kansas’ playcaller during the 2023 Guaranteed Rate Bowl vs. UNLV, where the Kansas offense went for 591 yards and seven touchdowns.
 - The Kansas offense averaged 420.2 yards of offense per game in 2024, marking its third-straight season with 400+ yards of offense per game. In the 12 seasons prior (2010-2021), Kansas did not average 400+ yards of offense in a single season. The last time Kansas had three-straight seasons with 400+ yards per game was 2007-09.

- Kansas’ offense compiled 5,042 yards in 2024, marking its third-straight season with at least 5,000 yards of offense. Kansas has had 5,000+ yards of offense in seven seasons since 1945, while the Jayhawks have only had three-straight 5,000+ yard seasons one other time in program history (2007-09).
 - Kansas’ offense converted 50.7% (75-of-147) on third downs in 2024, marking its highest third down conversion percentage since at least 1996. Kansas’ 50.7% conversion percentage ranked atop the Big 12 Conference and third nationally. In each of the past three seasons, Kansas has ranked in the top-10 nationally in third down conversion percentage, leading the Big 12 Conference twice (2024, 2022).
 - Since 2022, Kansas has converted 49.9% (225-of-451) on third downs, which ranks second nationally behind only LSU’s 50.5% (244-of-483).
 - Kansas scored 89.4% (42-of-47) in the red zone in 2024, which was the highest conversion percentage since 2017 (93.8%). The Jayhawks finished the season ranked No. 3 in the Big 12.
 - Since head coach Lance Leipold took over in 2021, Kansas has gone over the 500+ yard mark in a single game 15 times.

- MOB - MEN OF BOOTH
- Nicknamed as “MOB” (Men of Booth) Kansas’ offensive line brings in some new pieces and experience in 2025, led by preseason All-Big 12 selection Bryce Foster.
 - The Kansas offensive line brings 97 career starts across the offensive line, led by redshirt senior Bryce Foster, who has 41 career starts between Kansas and Texas A&M. Offensive guard Kobe Baynes has started 17 career games at Kansas, while Enrique Cruz Jr., brings 28 career starts between Syracuse (27) and Kansas (1).
 - Kansas’ offensive line starting lineup featured Calvin Clements at left tackle, Amir Herring at left guard, Foster at center, Baynes at right tackle and Cruz at right tackle.
 - In the season-opener vs. Fresno State, Kansas’ offensive line only allowed one sack to the Bulldogs, while paving the way for 207 rushing yards.
 - Under Leipold and offensive line coach Daryl Agpalsa, Kansas’ offense allowed just .83 sacks per game (10 total) in 2024, which were the fewest allowed in the Big 12 and fourth fewest nationally. Kansas’ 10 sacks allowed are the fewest by a Jayhawk team since at least 1996.
 - Since the start of the 2022 season, Kansas has allowed just 39 sacks, which are the fewest among Big 12 programs and are the third fewest nationally, behind only Oregon (23) and Army (32). Prior to Leipold’s arrival, Kansas allowed the most sacks in the country in 2020 with 47.
 - Kansas’ offensive line also allowed just 47 tackles for loss (3.92 per game) in 2024, ranking 13th nationally and second in the Big 12 Conference.
 - Foster, a two-sport athlete between football and track & field at Kansas, was named Second Team All-Big 12 following the 2024 season after starting all 12 games at center. Following the football season, Foster competed for the Kansas Track & Field program in shot put, advancing to the 2025 NCAA Outdoor Championships in Eugene, Oregon and earning Second Team All-America honors. Foster became the first Jayhawk since Isaac Byrd to earn All-America honors and All-Big 12 honors in two

The 2025 season marks the first year of the reimagined David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium, which has undergone a $448 million upgrade as part of Phase 1 of the University of Kansas’ Gateway District.

Against Fresno State, Jalon Daniels became the fourth Big 12 player all-time to have a single game with at least three passing touchdowns, 45 rushing yards and a 90.0 completion percentage. The other three are Jalen Hurts (October 19, 2019), Robert Griffin III (September 17, 2011) and Seneca Wallace (September 29, 2001).

Since 2022, Kansas has defeated five ranked opponents, which is the most over a three-year span since 1974-77, when Kansas also defeated five ranked opponents.

Kansas allowed just 7 points in the season-opener vs. Fresno State, which came on the Bulldogs’ first possession. The Kansas defense did not allow a score the final 9 Fresno State drives, marking the fewest points allowed in a season-opener against a FBS opponent in a win since 2007, when Kansas defeated Central Michigan, 52-7 at home.

10

Kansas had 10 different receivers record a reception from Jalon Daniels vs. Fresno State, led by Pickett with six receptions for 77 yards and two touchdowns. The only other players with more than one reception were Emmanuel Henderson Jr. (3 rec, 24 yds) and Deshawn Hanika (2 rec, 17 yds).

Kansas’ defense held Fresno State to just 39 rushing yards total, which was the fewest rushing yards allowed since holding BYU to 9 rushing yards on Sept. 23, 2023, while it was the 12th time since 2000 holding an opponent under 40 rushing yards.

During the spring of 2025, the Kansas football team set a program record with a 3.46 GPA, marking the third-straight semester with a team-average 3.20 GPA or above. The Jayhawks have also set program records in team GPA in two consecutive semesters.

ROCK CHALK RECEIVERS

• Kansas’ wide receiver room has undergone a transformation with the Jayhawks’ four top receivers from a season ago graduating. However, the Jayhawks bring back a talented group in redshirt sophomore Keaton Kubecka and redshirt senior Doug Emilien, along with transfers Emmanuel Henderson Jr. (Alabama), Cam Pickett (Ball State), Levi Wentz (Albany) and Bryson Canty (Columbia), among others.

• In their first game of the season, the Kansas passing game spread the love with 10 receivers recording a catch, the most since 11 different receivers recorded a catch at Houston in 2023.

• Led by redshirt junior Cam Pickett, who caught six passes for 77 yards and two touchdowns, Kansas’ offense passed for 176 yards and three receiving touchdowns – two by Pickett and one by redshirt sophomore Keaton Kubecka.

• The pair of touchdowns for Pickett marked his first-career multi-touchdown receiving game and the first time since 2023 that a Jayhawk had 2 or more receiving touchdowns in a game.

• In the third quarter of the season-opener vs. Fresno State, quarterback Jalon Daniels connected with Keaton Kubecka for a 12-yard touchdown. The catch marked Kubecka’s first of his career and first career touchdown.

• In addition to Pickett and Kubecka’s touchdowns, Kansas found success going to senior Emmanuel Henderson (3 rec, 24 yards) and DeShawn Hanika (2 rec, 17 yards).

• Pickett is in his redshirt junior season at Kansas following three seasons at Ball State, where he earned Third Team All-MAC honors in 2024. Pickett had four touchdowns on 49 receptions and 528 yards as Ball State’s second leading receiver. Pickett played his prep career at Brooks College Prep (Ill.), where he was a three-star recruit and totaled over 4,000 career all-purpose yards. As a senior, he totaled 24 touchdowns with four on special teams.

• Kubecka is in his third season at Kansas, playing in four games in 2023 before missing the 2024 season due to injury. Kubecka was a 247Sports and Rivals 3-star recruit had a strong senior year at Westlake high school in Austin, Texas with 53 catches for 828 yards and nine touchdowns in 15 games played. Kubecka helped the team to a 14-1 record as a senior and a spot in the 6A state championship game.

• Henderson played in 33 games over three years at Alabama, with five career catches for 96 yards. In 2024, Henderson caught four passes for 82 yards with a 19.2-yard average. Henderson also helped the Crimson Tide on special teams with five kick returns for 107 yards in 2024. At Geneva County high school (Ala.), he was rated one of the top athletes and running backs in the nation as a five-star recruit. He rushed for 1,447 yards and 20 touchdowns as a Junior and 1,996 yards and 32 touchdowns as a sophomore.

• Emilien, from Fort Lauderdale, Florida, is in his fourth season as a Jayhawk after beginning his career at Minnesota. Emilien has played in 40 career games with 11 receptions for 102 yards and two touchdowns. Emilien caught his first career touchdown in the 2022 Liberty Bowl vs. Arkansas with 1:05 remaining in the fourth quarter.

• Wentz played in 24 career games between Albany and Old Dominion, playing in 12 games at Albany in 2024 with 40 receptions for 621 yards and 1 touchdown. Wentz transferred to Albany after two seasons at Old Dominion, playing in four games with one catch for 42 yards.

DEFENSE STANDS STRONG

• Despite allowing a touchdown on their opening possession, the Kansas defense stood strong following Fresno State’s only score of Saturday’s season-opener. The Kansas defense did not allow a score the final 9 Fresno State drives.

• Kansas gave up a 7-play, 75-yard drive to open the first defensive possession for Kansas. The Jayhawks would hold Fresno State to just 141 yards and nine first downs the remainder of the game.

• Kansas’ defense allowed a total of 56 yards in the second half on Saturday.

• The Jayhawks held Fresno State to just 7 points on Saturday, marking the fewest points allowed in a season-opener against a FBS opponent in a win since 2007, when Kansas defeated Central Michigan, 52-7 at home.

• Led by first-year defensive coordinator D.K. McDonald, the Kansas defense forced Fresno State to turn the ball over three times, including two interceptions and one fumble. Kansas’ three takeaways by the Kansas defense were the most in a season opener since 2016 vs. Rhode Island (3).

• Kansas’ defense held Fresno State to just 39 rushing yards total, which was the fewest rushing yards allowed since holding BYU to 9 rushing yards on Sept. 23, 2023, while it was the 12th time since 2000 holding an opponent under 40 rushing yards.

• Kansas’ defense was led by 8 tackles from redshirt junior Trey Lathan, sacks from Bangally Kamara, Leroy Harris III, Logan Brantley and Devin Dye and interceptions from Dye and Lyrik Rawls in the win over Fresno State.

DEFENSIVE LINE DEPTH

• Kansas’ defensive line enters the 2025 season as one of the most experienced units with 49 career starts and over 290 career games played.

• In the season-opener vs. Fresno State, Kansas’ defensive front helped stuff the Fresno State rushing attack, holding the Bulldogs to 39 rushing yards total.

• Kansas accounted for 10.0 tackles-for-loss, including 2.0 from Bangally Kamara, 1.5 from Austin Alexander, 1.0 from Leroy Harris III and 1.0 from Kenean Caldwell. It was Kansas’ most tackles-for-loss in game since recording 12.0 tackles-for-loss vs. Houston in 2024.

• Leroy Harris III recorded his first-career sack in the win over Fresno State on Aug. 23, which resulted in a 12-yard los.

• In 2024, the Jayhawks recorded 28 sacks, which were the most in a season since the 2016 season. Kansas finished the season ranked third in the Big 12 Conference in sacks per game (2.33). Kansas also recorded 5.8 tackles-for-loss per game in 2024, the most since totaling 7.4 tackles-for-loss per game in 2017.

• Redshirt senior defensive end Dean Miller returns as Kansas’ sack leader after compiling 6.0 sacks as a redshirt junior in 2024. Miller’s 6.0 sacks were tied for the sixth-most in the Big 12 Conference, coupled with a career high 10.0 tackles-for-loss.

• Opposite of Miller, senior Justice Finkley brings experience to his first season at KU after playing three seasons at Texas. Finkley appeared in 32 career games as a Longhorn, totaling 26 tackles, 4.0 tackles-for-loss and 2.5 sacks. Prior to the 2025 season, Finkley was named one of Kansas’ team captains.

- The Jayhawks also added depth at the defensive end position, with transfers Leroy Harris III (Chattanooga) and Alex Bray (Illinois). Harris played all 12 games as a true freshman at Chattanooga with 11 tackles on the season. Harris added three fumble recoveries for 130 return yards, including a 75-yard scoop and score at Western Carolina. Bray arrives to Kansas after playing 21 games over two seasons at Illinois, totaling 20 tackles in 2024.
- At defensive tackle, Kansas brings back an experienced unit led by redshirt seniors Tommy Dunn Jr. and DJ Withers, who have combined for 30 starts over their careers. In addition to Dunn and Withers, the Jayhawks have weapons in redshirt sophomore Blake Herold and redshirt senior Kenean Caldwell, among others.
- Dunn played in 11 games in 2024 with seven starts, compiling 16 tackles, 4 tackles-for-loss, 1.5 sacks and a forced fumble. Dunn has played in 36 career games as a Jayhawk, totaling 38 tackles, 7.0 tackles-for-loss and 2.0 sacks.
- Withers, from Little Rock, Arkansas, appeared in all 12 games in 2024, starting seven. He recorded a career-high 21 tackles and 4.0 tackles-for-loss and 3.0 sacks, all of which were career-highs. Against Houston on Oct. 19, 2024, Withers recorded his first and second career sacks.
- Herold had a breakout campaign in 2024, playing in all 12 games with 20 tackles (13 solo, 7 assisted), 3.0 tackles-for-loss and a sack at West Virginia. Herold enters the 2025 season as a redshirt sophomore, after playing as a two-way standout at Shenandoah high school (Iowa). As a wide receiver, he holds the single season record for receptions (60) and receiving yards (72), while defensively posting 73 tackles, 14.5 tackles-for-loss and three sacks in 2021.

LINING UP AT LINEBACKER

- Kansas’ linebacking unit stepped up in a big way in Kansas’ win over Fresno State on Aug. 23 as redshirt junior Trey Lathan led the team with 8 tackles and redshirt senior Bangally Kamara recorded 2.0 tackles-for-loss, 1.0 sack and a forced fumble.
- Kamara’s sack was the first for him in a Kansas uniform, the sixth of his career and first since Nov. 16, 2023 vs. Boston College, while playing at Pitt.
- On Kamara’s sack on Saturday, he forced his second career forced fumble, which was recovered by redshirt senior Kenean Caldwell.
- Bangally Kamara arrived to Kansas following one season at South Carolina and four years at Pittsburgh, appearing in 53 career games and registering 133 career tackles, 15.0 career tackles-for-loss and 6.0 sacks, along with 1 career interception.
- Lathan arrives in Lawrence following three seasons at West Virginia, where he played in 22 career games. Lathan had a standout season in 2024, totaling 79 tackles (40 solo, 39 assisted), 9.0 tackles-for-loss and 2.0 sacks. Lathan also forced 1 fumble in 2023 and 2024. Lathan recorded a career-high 10 tackles when playing against Kansas in 2024.
- Joe Sipp was a First Team All-MAC Selection at Bowling Green in 2024, starting all 13 games and registering 79 tackles, 11.5 tackles-for-loss and 7.0 sacks on the season. Sipp was a three-year starter at Bowling Green with 38 career appearances and 26 career starts.
- Jayson Gilliom returns to Kansas for his sixth season as a Jayhawk, playing in 36 games over his career. Gilliom started his career at safety and transitioned to linebacker prior to the 2024 season, where he started two games, appearing in 10.

SECONDARY STEPS UP

- Despite starting an entirely new secondary in 2025, Kansas’ defensive backfield stepped up in the season-opening win on Saturday vs. Fresno State, limiting Fresno State to just 179 passing yards while coming away with two interceptions.
- In the second quarter of the season opener, redshirt senior Devin Dye recorded his fourth-career interception a second as a Jayhawk on a pass from Bulldogs’ quarterback EJ Warner. The interception marked Dye’s first since Oct. 5, 2024 at Arizona State.
- Kansas forced its second interception of the day in the third quarter when redshirt senior safety Lyrik

Rawls intercepted a deflected pass, giving Rawls his first-career interception at KU and first since Oct. 19, 2024 at BYU.

- Kansas has now had at least one interception in the season-opener in each of the last four seasons.
- The Jayhawk secondary featured starters Jalen Todd (cornerback), Austin Alexander (cornerback), Lyrik Rawls (safety), Mason Ellis (safety) and Taylor Davis (safety) in the season-opener.
- From Detroit, Michigan, Todd played in 11 games as a true freshman in 2024, totaling nine tackles and two pass breakups. Todd came up with a pivotal pass breakup in the fourth quarter in Kansas’ 37-21 over No. 16 Colorado on Nov. 23, 2024. Todd played high school football at Southfield high school (Mich.) with current Kansas quarterback Isaiah Marshall, where they led Southfield to its first state championship in program history.
- Alexander did not see game action as a true freshman at Kansas in 2024 due to injury. Alexander was a four-star prospect by Rivals and ESPN out of Marian Catholic high school (Ill.), where he had 70 tackles, 3.0 tackles-for-loss and two 2 interceptions as a senior.
- DJ Graham II played one season at Utah State in 2024 after playing in 40 games with 21 starts at Oklahoma from 2020-23. Graham has 114 tackles (72 solo), including 3.5 tackles-for-loss, 7 pass breakups, four interceptions and four forced fumbles over his career. Graham was named Honorable Mention All-Mountain West in 2024 and Honorable Mention All-Big 12 Freshman Defensive Back of the Year in 2020.
- Gibbs comes to Kansas after playing in 10 games, starting 6, at Georgia Tech in 2024, recording 22 tackles, 4.0 tackles-for-loss, 1.0 sacks, 2 forced fumbles and 1 pass breakup. Prior to Georgia Tech, Gibbs was a standout for Rhode Island, playing in 14 games over two seasons, including 52 tackles, 3 interceptions and 3 pass breakups in 2023. Gibbs was named NCAA Division I FBS freshman All-America in 2023.
- At safety, redshirt senior Lyrik Rawls played in 29 career games over four seasons at Oklahoma State, starting 3 games. Rawls has 72 career tackles to his credit, including 3.0 tackles-for-loss, 1.0 sacks and 2 interceptions. In 2024, Rawls played in all 12 games with 23 tackles and his first-career interception at BYU.
- Taylor Davis saw his first game action in 2024 as part of the Kansas defense, playing in nine games and starting four at safety. He recorded 33 tackles, 1.0 tackles-for-loss and 1 pass breakup. Davis stepped in midway through the season due to injury and earned a role in Kansas’ secondary, setting a career-high 8 tackles in Kansas’ 17-13 win over No. 7 BYU on Nov. 16, 2024.
- Devin and Jalen Dye, sons of former MLB star Jermaine Dye, have found a home in Kansas’ secondary, starting 15 career games between the two of them. Devin and Jalen began their careers at Palomar College (Calif.) before Devin transferred to Utah State and was named Honorable Mention All-Mountain West in 2023, while Jalen transferred to Kansas in 2023.
- Mason Ellis, a native of Mulvane, Kansas, enters his redshirt junior season with the Jayhawks, appearing in 15 career games. Ellis saw some time in the secondary in 2024, playing in four games and totaling seven tackles but was limited due to injury.

FINN WITH THE PIN

- Kansas’ special teams will feature new additions of Laith Marjan (South Alabama) and Finn Lappin (McNeese State), among others in 2025.
- In the season-opener vs. Fresno State, Lappin punted three times for 161 yards (53.7 avg.) and two punts placed within the 20-yard line. Lappin also booted a punt of 61 yards, which was the longest punt by the Jayhawks since Kyle Thompson on Oct. 17, 2024 at West Virginia (62 yards).
- Lappin arrived to Kansas from McNeese State, where he punted 61 times for 2,811 yards (46.0 avg.), with a long of 68 yards coming against Southern on Aug. 31, 2024. Lappin put 19 of those punts within the 20 yard-line, with 21 punts traveling over 50 yards.
- In the kicking game, Marjan had a solid debut for the Jayhawks, connecting on 1-of-1 field goals from 47 yards to go along with 4-of-4 from extra point.

• Kansas' special teams blocked two kicks in 2024; the last time that Kansas had more blocked kicks in a season was three in 2014.

OFF-FIELD SUCCESS

- Entering the 2025 season, 26 Jayhawks have already obtained their degree including, Kobe Baynes (Communication Studies), Leyton Cure (Liberal Arts and Sciences), Jalon Daniels (Sports Management), Doug Emilien (Liberal Arts and Sciences), Nolan Gorczyca (Geography), Daniel Hishaw Jr. (Liberal Arts and Sciences), Mack Moeller (Business Administration), Grayden Addison (Finance), Kenean Caldwell (Communications Studies), Emory Duggar (Sports Management), Tommy Dunn Jr. (Marketing), Devin Dye (Liberal Arts and Sciences), Jalen Dye (Liberal Arts and Sciences), Jayson Gilliom (Sports Management), Gage Keys (Liberal Arts and Sciences), Landon Nelson (Management and Leadership), Cole Petrus (Management and Leadership), DJ Withers (Marketing), Bryson Canty (Columbia, Psychology), Deshawn Hanika (Iowa State, Communications), Levi Wentz (Albany, Sociology), Leshon Williams (Iowa, Sport and Recreation Management), DJ Graham (Utah State, Integrated Studies), Bangally Kamara (South Carolina, Service Management), Laith Marjan (South Alabama, Professional Development) and Lyrik Rawls (Oklahoma State, Marketing).
- During the spring of 2025, the Kansas football team set a program record with a 3.46 GPA, marking the third-straight semester with a team-average 3.20 GPA or above. The Jayhawks have also set program records in team GPA in two consecutive semesters.
- Kansas was represented by 22 individuals on the 2025 National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society, the most among all FBS programs. In addition, Kansas had 37 individuals named to Academic All-Big 12 teams in 2024.
- Kansas redshirt senior Jalon Daniels is one of 15 Academic All-Americans all-time at Kansas. Five of Kansas' Academic All-Americans all-time have come within the last three seasons.
- Not only are the Jayhawks succeeding in the classroom, Kansas is putting in work in the community as well. During the 2025 offseason program the Jayhawks contributed 519 hours of community service, marking a new program record.
- As part of Kansas' culture program led by Director of Strength and Conditioning Matt Gildersleeve, every player on the roster contributes to the community service program with over 400 hours of community service contributed over each of the last three offseasons. Community service events include Mass Street Cleanup, Humane Society visits, read-a-thons, community engagement events and more.

WATCH LIST WORTHY

- Entering the 2025 college football season, 13 Jayhawks have been named to watch lists, including:

ROSTER REFRESH

- Kansas' roster will look different in 2025, with 37 seniors graduating from a season ago. Through the transfer portal and high school recruitment, the Jayhawks' roster features 46 newcomers, including 29 additions through the transfer portal and 17 true freshmen.
- Kansas returns six starters, including quarterback Jalon Daniels, center Bryce Foster, guard Kobe Baynes, defensive tackle DJ Withers, defensive tackle Tommy Dunn Jr., and defensive end Dean Miller. The Jayhawks also return 29 letterwinners from a season ago.
- Among the transfer portal additions, Kansas added: defensive end Alex Bray (Illinois), wide receiver Bryson Canty (Columbia), offensive lineman Enrique Cruz Jr. (Syracuse), wide receiver Jayden Doss (Nebraska), defensive end Justice Finkley (Texas), cornerback Syeed Gibbs (Georgia Tech), cornerback DJ Graham II (Utah State), tight end Boden Groen (Rice), offensive lineman DeAndre Harper (Northwest Missouri State), defensive end Leroy Harris III (Chattanooga), wide receiver Emmanuel Henderson Jr. (Alabama), cornerback Jahliil Hurley (Alabama), punter Efen Jasso (Prarie View A&M), linebacker Bangally Kamra (South Carolina), defensive tackle Gage Keys (Auburn), punter Finn Lappin (McNeese State), linebacker Trey Lathan (West Virginia), kicker Laith Marjan (South Alabama), offensive lineman Tyler Mercer (North Texas), wide receiver Cam Pickett (Ball State), safety Lyrik Rawls (Oklahoma State), defensive end Caleb Redd (Kentucky), safety Laquan Robinson (Auburn), linebacker Joe Sipp Jr. (Bowling Green), offensive lineman Jack Tanner (Tulsa), offensive lineman Tavake Tuikolovatu (UCLA), wide receiver Levi Wentz (Albany), running back Leshon Williams (Iowa) and offensive lineman Antonio Wilson (Coffeyville Community College).
- In addition to the players brought in, the Jayhawks have done an exceptional job of retaining players, as Kansas had the fewest players leave to the transfer portal in all of power-four football over the last two portal cycles.

KANSAS VS. WAGNER CONNECTIONS

- Kansas opened the season with a team from the west coast and will now welcome a team from the east coast, the Wagner Seahawks to David Booth Kansas Memorial Stadium.
- Located in Staten Island, New York, the Kansas Jayhawks and the Wagner Seahawks will square off on the gridiron for the first time in program history. The two schools are located approximately 1,243 miles apart.
- Kansas head coach Lance Leipold coached in the state of New York at Buffalo from 2015-20, where he led the Bulls to their first bowl win in program history in 2018 and the program's first postseason ranking.
- Kansas analyst Stephen Matos served as the offensive coordinator at Wagner from 2023-24. Matos rejoined the Kansas coaching staff in 2025.

A KANSAS WIN WOULD ...

- Move Kansas to 613-686-58 all-time, including 24-28 in the Lance Leipold era. Leipold's career record would improve to 170-67 overall.
- Give Kansas the series advantage over Wagner in the first meeting between the two teams.
- Make Kansas 2-0 for the third time in the last three seasons. Prior to Leipold's arrival in 2021, Kansas had not started a season 2-0 since 2011.
- Make Kansas 8-4 in games played in August all-time.
- Make Kansas 15-6 at home since the start of the 2022 season and 16-11 overall under head coach Lance Leipold.
- Make Kansas 11-5 in non-conference games under head coach Lance Leipold.

Saturday, Sept. 6 | Columbia, Mo.
Faurot Field

Kansas and Missouri reignite a longtime rivalry on Saturday, Sept. 6 when the Kansas Jayhawks travel to Columbia, Mo. to take on the Missouri Tigers. Kickoff is slated for 2:30 p.m. CT on ESPN2.

The Kansas vs. Missouri rivalry has been played 120 times dating back to 1891, in what is tied for the 10th-most played rivalry in college football. The two teams last met in 2011, while the 2025 matchup will be the first played on a college campus since 2006. Missouri holds a slim series advantage at 56-55-9 all-time.

Kansas and Missouri are slated to play each other again in 2026 in Lawrence, Kan., with another home-and-home scheduled for the 2031 and 2032 seasons.

Lance Leipold, a six-time National Champion, a five-time conference coach of the year and the fastest coach in NCAA history to reach 100 career wins, was named the 41st head coach in Kansas Football history on April 30, 2021.

Leipold's track record as a program builder showed itself early in his time in Lawrence, leading the Jayhawks to back-to-back bowl games in 2022 and 2023, a feat that has only been done in Lawrence once in program history. Leipold has guided Kansas to its first-ever program win in Austin, Texas in 2021, followed by Kansas' first-ever win over West Virginia in Morgantown in 2022 and a win over #6 Oklahoma in 2023. In just his second year at the helm, Leipold helped Kansas to secure its first bowl eligibility with a win over No. 18 Oklahoma State on November 5, 2022, giving Kansas its first bowl berth since 2008. Kansas' ranked win was the first since 2010, snapping a 44-game losing streak to AP ranked opponents, while it was Kansas's first ranked win against a conference opponent at home since 2005.

Leipold has engineered Kansas to one of the greatest stories in college football, guiding Kansas to its first national rankings in 675 weeks, hosting ESPN's College Gameday for the first time in program history on October 8, 2022, hosting FOX Big Noon Kickoff for the first time on Oct. 28, 2023, and earning Kansas' first-ever ranking in the College Football Playoff Ranking on Oct. 31, 2023.

In 2024, Leipold led the Jayhawks to its first preseason ranking in both the AP Preseason Poll and USA Today Coach's Poll since 2008. Kansas played all six of its home games in the Kansas City Metro during the 2024 season while work continued on the University of Kansas Gateway District, as the Jayhawks notched three-straight wins over ranked opponents (No. 16 Iowa State, No. 7 BYU and No. 17 Colorado), marking the first time in program history with three-straight wins over ranked opponents.

Leipold arrived at Kansas after a successful six-year stay at Buffalo, where in his final three seasons, he posted three straight winning seasons for the first time in 20 years. He won 24 games over the final three seasons, which included a seven-game shortened-season schedule in 2020 because of the COVID-19 pandemic, marking the most successful three-year run in Buffalo history.

A proven winner with a strong track record for player development, Leipold served as the head coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater for eight seasons from 2007 to 2014, capturing six NCAA Division III national championships and tallying an astounding record of 109-6.

After taking over a rebuilding Buffalo program that went 7-17 in his first two seasons, Leipold put together a record of 30-16 over his final four seasons, including three bowl appearances and two bowl victories with the Bulls.

Leipold had a 2020 season at Buffalo that brought unprecedented success to the program. The Bulls went a perfect 5-0 in the regular season and won the MAC East Division title for the second-straight year. Leipold's squad also beat Marshall in the Camellia Bowl for the program's second ever bowl win and second in as many years.

Buffalo also appeared in the Associated Press Top 25 at No. 24 on December 6, 2020, marking the first-time in school history the Bulls appeared in the national rankings. The team finished the season ranked 25th in both the AP poll and the Amway Coaches Poll. Leipold was named the MAC Coach of the Year for the second time in his career after the record-breaking season.

Showcasing his pristine reputation for player development and a keen eye for recruiting, Buffalo tied a school-record with 12 All-MAC selections in 2020, all of whom were recruited by Leipold. Running back Jaret Patterson led the way, rushing for 1,072 yards in just six games, including a 409-yard performance against Kent State, which is the second-best performance in FBS history.

Patterson was named the winner of the Vern Smith Leadership Award, given to the MVP of the MAC and was also named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year under Leipold's tutelage.

Buffalo also had 12 all-conference players in 2019, a season that culminated in the school's first-ever bowl victory – a 31-9 win over Charlotte in the Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl. The 2019 team featured one of the best defenses in the school's history. Buffalo ranked seventh nationally in total defense, allowing 291.9 yards per game. The Bulls were also fourth nationally against the run, allowing 94.2 yards per game.

In 2018, Buffalo won 10 games in a season for the first time ever in program history. Leipold's team went 7-1 in MAC play and won the East Division title. The Bulls also won 42-13 at Rutgers, marking the school's first-ever win over a Power 5 opponent. He was named the MAC Coach of the Year and was also a semifinalist for the George Munger College Coach of the Year Award.

In that 2018 season, the Buffalo offense had a record-breaking season. Buffalo scored 484 points, 64 touchdowns and totaled 5,803 yards of total offense, establishing new school records in each category. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year, while Patterson earned MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

In Leipold's third season in 2017, the Bulls gained bowl eligibility for just the third time as an FBS program. The Bulls offense averaged 432 yards per game and led the conference in passing yards per game at 291. Showing an ability for explosive plays, Buffalo produced 20 plays of 45 or more yards on the season.

Leipold became the head coach at Buffalo in December of 2014 after a triumphant career as the head coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater, which saw him earn six National Coach of the Year awards. In his first season there in 2007, the Warhawks went 14-1 and won the Division III national championship. In 2008, the team made it back to the title game and fell to Mount Union.

Wisconsin-Whitewater then went 45-0 over the next three seasons, winning three straight national championships. After a 7-3 campaign in 2012, Whitewater went 30-0 combined in 2013 and 2014 winning two more national titles with Leipold at the helm.

During his time there, Warhawk players totaled 56 All-America honors, with running back Justin Beaver winning the Gagliardi Trophy as the top player in Division III. Brent Allen won the Division III Rimington Award as the top center. Running back Levell Coppage earned D3Football.com Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Cole Klotz won those honors on the defensive side.

Leipold, a native of Jefferson, Wisconsin, began his coaching career at Whitewater in 1987 as a quarterbacks coach. He moved to the University of Wisconsin in 1991, where he served as a graduate assistant for Barry Alvarez for three seasons and helped the Badgers win a Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl appearance in 1993.

He then served as an assistant coach at Division II Nebraska-Omaha from 1994-2000, helping the Mavericks become three-time conference champions. He was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000, before moving on to Nebraska where he worked for Frank Solich for four seasons. He then returned to Nebraska-Omaha for three years as the associate head coach and offensive coordinator, before moving on to Wisconsin-Whitewater in 2007.

Leipold is a 1987 graduate of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he was a standout quarterback.

Leipold and his wife Kelly, have a daughter, Lindsey, and a son, Landon. Landon is a recent graduate of Free State high school and will play collegiately at the University of Nebraska-Kearney, while Lindsey is a former collegiate volleyball player at Stetson University.

Get to Know Harry ...

At what age did you start playing football and how did you get into football?
I started playing at 4 years old. My mom introduced me to football and from there I fell in love with it. From flag, to tackle, to now, football has been my #1 passion.

Who was your favorite player growing up and who do you model your game after?
I feel I model my game after Saquon Barkley. The top-end speed to his physicality is something I really focus on utilizing in my game.

Get to Know Keaton ...

What is the significance behind your jersey number?
My brother wore #3 his whole life so I'm representing him by wearing it.

At what age did you start playing football and how did you get into football?
I started playing when I was 4 and got into it because my whole family played.

Who is your biggest role model?
My biggest role models are my brothers. They didn't make it to college football so I want to live their dreams through me.

Who was your favorite player growing up and who do you model your game after?
Ladanian Tomlinson is my favorite player of all time.

Get to Know Jayson ...

At what age did you start playing football and how did you get into football?

I started playing football at the age of three. I was interested in it after seeing Ray Lewis Highlights on TV.

Who is your biggest role model?

My mom and dad are my biggest role models. They are not only great parents but great people. They sacrificed so much for me. I strive to be great parents like them one day.

How would you describe your game to someone who hasn't seen you play?

I would describe my game as versatile and able to play multiple positions at a high level. I would also say that my game is aggressive and tough.

- What is the significance behind your jersey number?

I grew up wearing 44 so 14 was a good in-between for a quarterback.
- At what age did you start playing football and how did you get into football?

I started playing football in kindergarten so I think since I was 4 or 5.

Who is your biggest role model?

My biggest role model is my older brother who is also a college athlete. I grew up trying to be just like him.

Who was your favorite player growing up and who do you model your game after?

My favorite player growing up was Marcus Mariota because of his ability to make plays through the air and ground. I model my game after Josh Allen because of the way he plays fearless and is willing to put his body on the line.

Get to Know Kenean ...

At what age did you start playing football and how did you get into football?
I started playing football at the age of five. I got into football by watching YouTube videos of my dad and uncle in high school.

Who was your favorite player growing up and who do you model your game after?
I like to model my game after Glenn Dorsey.

Tell us about your hometown/where you're from?
I'm from Oak Grove, Louisiana, where football is the main sport.

What is one thing that someone wouldn't know about you?
I love to trail ride.
