SETTING THE SCENE: ACROSS ENEMY LINES

The 25th-ranked Mizzou football team (1-0, 0-0 SEC) is set go on the road for the first time this season, making it mark the 122nd bout between the two programs on the gridiron. The game will mark the 49th edition of the rivalry in Lawrence with the first matchup being played in 1912. Prior to reigniting the rivalry last season, the rivalry had been played 120 times over 122 years, in what was the second-longest running rivalry in all of college football at the time, trailing only the Wisconsin vs. Minnesota series. The two teams had met consecutively for 92 seasons beginning in 1919. Overall, Mizzou holds a 58-54-9 advantage in the series.

BORDER WAR: SERIES HISTORY

The StorageMart Border Showdown will be back on KU's campus for the first time since 2005, as Saturday's meeting will mark the 122nd bout between the two programs on the gridiron. The game will mark the 49th edition of the rivalry in Lawrence with the first matchup being played in 1912. Prior to reigniting the rivalry last season, the rivalry had been played 120 times over 122 years, in what was the second-longest running rivalry in all of college football at the time, trailing only the Wisconsin vs. Minnesota series. The two teams had met consecutively for 92 seasons beginning in 1919. Overall, Mizzou holds a 58-54-9 advantage in the series.

HISTORY OF THE WAR DRUM

Starting in 1935, the winner of the game was awarded the "Indian War Drum." 1935 was Don Faurot's first year as Missouri's football coach, and some MU alumni in Kansas City wanted to add some juice to the series. So, they got together with some KU alumni in the area, and they purchased an Indian drum from a Kansas City pawn shop that became the trophy. KC-area alums from both schools signed the drumheads. Ironically, no one claimed the drum in 1935, since the game ended in a 0-0 tie. During World War II, the tradition was forgotten but was revived again in 1947. By the mid '80s the drum had fallen into disrepair, and assistant AD Joe Castiglione procured a new drum, made by the Taos Indians of New Mexico, which was painted with a Missouri logo on one head and the Jayhawk logo on the other. The original drum is now in the College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta. In the early 2000s, Kansas desired to exchange the drum for a traditional marching band bass drum. Drum number-two is in the possession of Mizzou football.

THE COACHES

Already No. 4 on Mizzou's all-time wins list, Eli Drinkwitz is in his seventh season as Mizzou's head coach and enters the week with a 47-29 mark (59-30 overall). The Alma, Arkansas, native has led the Tigers to bowl eligibility in each of his first six seasons in Columbia, making him the only MU head coach in program history to achieve that feat. Prior to taking the Mizzou job, Drinkwitz was 12-1 in his lone season as head coach at Appalachian State (2019). Drinkwitz boasts the best home winning percentage (min. four seasons) in program history at .791 and is 34-9 on Faurot Field during his tenure. Since the start of 2023, Drinkwitz and the Tigers have gone 30-10 (.750) - 12th-best nationally over that stretch.

Kansas head coach Lance Leipold is beginning his sixth season with the Jayhawks, posting a 28-35 record overall in Lawrence. Leipold arrived at Kansas after a successful six-year stay at Buffalo, where in his final three seasons, he posted three straight winning seasons for the first time in 20 years. He won 24 games over the final three seasons, which included a seven-game shortened season schedule in 2020 because of the COVID-19 pandemic, marking the most successful three-year run in Buffalo history. A proven winner with a strong track record for player development, Leipold served as the head coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater for eight seasons from 2007 to 2014, capturing six NCAA Division III national championships and tallying a record of 109-6.

FIRST AND TEN: STORYLINES

- The Tigers are 30-10 since the start of 2023 (.750) - tied for 12th-best nationally over that stretch.
- Mizzou entered the season ranked 25th in each of the major polls (AP, Coaches) to mark the second time in the past three seasons appearing in both preseason top 25 polls.
- The Tigers face one of the nation's toughest schedules for the 2026 season, featuring five opponents ranked inside the preseason AP Top 10: No. 3 Georgia, No. 5 Texas, No. 8 Texas A&M, No. 9 Ole Miss and No. 10 Oklahoma.
- MU is 15-1 over its last 16 night games, dating back to the 2023 season opener over South Dakota (8/31/23). The Tigers own an active 14-game winning streak in regular season night games dating back to the 2023 season opener vs. South Dakota.
- Head coach Eli Drinkwitz moved past Warren Powers (1978-84) and took over fourth place on Mizzou's all-time wins list with the 47th victory of his MU career in the season opener vs. UAPB.
- The Tigers are 21-5 overall under head coach Eli Drinkwitz in non-con action, and 19-2 in regular-season non-con action.
- Mizzou is aiming for its fifth-straight win in the Border War series. A win would mark seven wins out of the last eight matchups dating back to 2006.

ELI DRINKWITZ

SEVENTH YEAR • ARKANSAS TECH '04

Eli Drinkwitz was named the University of Missouri's 33rd head football coach on December 10, 2019. In six seasons at the helm, he has compiled a 46–29 (.613) record, earned 2023 Southeastern Conference (SEC) Coach of the Year honors and established himself as one of the most successful starts to a head coaching tenure in program history.

With more than 20 years of coaching experience, Drinkwitz has coached in 13 bowl games, including the 2011 BCS National Championship Game, and has guided 61 student-athletes to all-conference honors. Across his career as a head coach and coordinator, he has helped develop nine All-Americans, 33 NFL Draft selections, eight 1,000-yard rushers, five 3,000-yard passers and five 1,000-yard receivers. During four seasons (2015, 2017, 2018 and 2023), his offenses produced a player in all three categories. Of those 33 NFL Draft picks, 10 of them have been selected in the top-three rounds, including a trio of first-rounders (Garrett Bradbury; NC State - 2019, Darius Robinson; Mizzou - 2024, Armand Membou; Mizzou - 2025).

The 2023 Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year and Bear Bryant Award finalist, Drinkwitz has guided the Tigers to bowl berths in each of his first six seasons in Columbia, becoming the only Coach in school history to accomplish that feat.

Under his leadership, the Tigers have finished ranked in the national top 25 in two of the last three seasons and compiled a 29–10 overall record during that span, including 15–9 in SEC play. Drinkwitz led Mizzou to back-to-back 10-plus win seasons in 2023 (11–2) and 2024 (10–3), marking just the third time in program history and making him one of only two Mizzou head coaches with multiple 10-win seasons. The Tigers also earned postseason bowl victories in consecutive seasons for just the fourth time in school history, highlighted by wins over Ohio State in the 2023 Cotton Bowl and Iowa in the 2024 Music City Bowl.

Player development has been a hallmark of Drinkwitz's tenure. He has mentored 22 players to 24 all-conference honors at Mizzou, including 13 first team All-SEC selections, and coached 23 Tigers who were drafted into the NFL. Recent drafts included first-round selections Darius Robinson (2024) and Armand Membou (2025), along with second-round picks Nick Bolton (2021), standout wide receiver Luther Burden III (2025) and a pair of second-round picks from Mizzou's stout 2025 defense in Zion Young (2026) and Josiah Trotter (2026).

The 2025 Mizzou squad featured one of the best defenses in the nation and a potent rushing attack on offense led by transfer running back Ahmad Hardy. Mizzou's defense ranked eighth nationally in total defense (277.3 YPG), 11th in pass yards allowed (173.5 YPG), 13th in rush defense (103.8 YPG) and 17th in scoring defense (18.9 PPG). Hardy, ran wild for the Tigers, earning consensus first team All-America honors, SEC Newcomer of the Year, unanimous first team All-SEC and finished second nationally – first among Power 4 rushers – in rushing yards with 1,649. He also became the third running back of the Drinkwitz's era to be named a finalist for the Doak Walker Award, which is given to the nation's best running back.

The 2024 Tigers put together a 10-3 season that saw MU finish the season at No. 22 in the Associated Press poll. The double-digit wins campaign was the second straight for the program. Mizzou went 5-3 in SEC games (11-5 in SEC games over the last two seasons). The Tigers defeated Iowa 27-24 to win the Music City Bowl to cap the season.

Mizzou's track record of player development success was on full display at the 2025 NFL Draft, with three Tigers selected. Armand Membou became MU's latest first-round selection, going No. 7 overall to the New York Jets, Membou was the 22nd Mizzou player to be drafted in the first round. Luther Burden III heard his name called the next night, going in the second round (39th overall) to the Chicago Bears. Marcus Bryant was taken in the seventh round by the New England Patriots.

The 2023 Tigers put together an 11-2 season that saw MU move into the Top 10 of all three national polls. The double-digit wins campaign was the first since 2014. Mizzou went 6-2 in SEC games, won both the Mayor's Cup over South Carolina and Battle Line Rivalry over Arkansas and qualified for its first New Year's Six bowl and defeated Ohio State in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl.

The 2022 season showcased a much-improved defense, ranked fourth in the Southeastern Conference and 34th nationally by allowing just 340.8 yards per game, 93.8 less than in 2021. Freshman phenom Luther Burden III took no time making his mark at the college level. The St. Louis native became the first true freshman since 2008 to record two receiving touchdowns, two rushing touchdowns, and a punt-return touchdown in the same season. Burden III's eight scores from scrimmage were second amongst SEC true freshmen (Ole Miss' Quinshon Judkins) and led true freshmen receivers nationally.

The 2021 season saw Tyler Badie set the school's single-season record for rushing yards (1,604). His 14 touchdowns in 12 games are ninth on Mizzou's single-season and top-10 list. He was a CoSIDA Academic All-American, the SEC Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year (Mizzou's first-ever), first-team All-SEC and was named to multiple All-America teams.

In 2020, the Tigers overcame an 0-2 start to win five of their last eight games despite playing with less than 60 scholarship players for over half of those contests. Finished the year with a 5-5 record against a SEC-only schedule. The Tigers' five SEC wins were their second-most ever behind a pair of 7-1 marks during back-to-back SEC East crowns in 2013 and 2014.

He arrived in Columbia after leading Appalachian State to a 12-1 record and a No. 20 ranking in the final AP poll and a Sun Belt Conference Championship.

Drinkwitz graduated magna cum laude and was the student body president at Arkansas Tech (bachelor's, education) before beginning his coaching career at the prep level in his hometown of Alma, Ark., in 2005. He and his wife, Lindsey (Sivils), have four daughters: Addison, Emerson, Ella and Parker Lynn.
