ULM NAME USAGE

We are ULM. Please note that there are only two correct versions of our institution's name, the preferred acronym ULM and the full name, the University of Louisiana at Monroe. Any other reference, including Louisiana-Monroe, UL-Monroe, La.-Monroe, LAM, or simply Monroe, are incorrect. Additionally, all women's athletic teams are known simply as Warhawks - not Lady Warhawks or Lady Hawks.

WILLIAMS MAKES WARHAWK HISTORY

Senior Larrie Williams became the 16th player in program history to score 1,000 points in her ULM career after connecting on a two-point basket with 6:14 remaining in the first half against South Alabama Feb. 11. The 6-2 center from Little Rock, Ark. is the first Warhawk since LaJeanna Howard (2004-08) to surpass the 1,000-point plateau, and the fifth player to reach the millennium mark playing for head coach Mona Martin. Williams is tied with Michelle Biley (2002-06) for 15th place on the all-time scoring list with 1,026 points.

PACK THE PLACE PINK AND SENIOR DAY FEB. 23

ULM will host its annual Pack the Place Pink game to promote breast cancer awareness on Feb. 23 when Middle Tennessee travels to Fant-Ewing Coliseum at 5:30 p.m. The Warhawks will also honor seniors Elizabeth Torres, Larrie Williams and Marion Zollicoffer in their final home game at ULM.

SATURDAY'S OPPONENT

Denver enters Saturday's contest with a 17-11 record and currently sits at 9-5 in the Sun Belt Conference West Division. The Pioneers dismantled UL-Lafayette 71-47 on Feb. 15 in their last game played. Kaetlyn Murdoch leads Denver with a 16.4 points per game average and has chipped in 43 blocked shots. Emiko Smith leads the SBC with 185 assists, a 6.6 per game average. Head coach Erik Johnson is 70-51 in his fourth season at Denver.

THE LAST TIME OUT

After Desiree Nelson tied the ballgame with 2.0 seconds left in regulation to send the game to overtime, ULM clawed its way to a 70-67 win over North Texas Wednesday night at the Super Pit.

Sophomore Alexar Tugler led all scorers with a career-high 19 points and added nine rebounds. Senior Larrie Williams finished with 15 points, tying Michelle Biley (2002-06) for 15th-place on the school's all-time scoring list.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

The contest saw an astounding 11 lead changes and 11 ties, the final change swinging in the Warhawks' favor. ULM forced 23 Mean Green miscues, converting 25 points off turnovers.

Senior Elizabeth Torres became the 23rd player in program history to surpass the 900-point career scoring mark. The 5-6 guard now has 901 points as a Warhawk.

WHEN 40 MINUTES IS NOT ENOUGH

ULM went to overtime for just the second time this season at North Texas. The Warhawks lost a heartbreaking 76-70 decision to UMKC during the World Vision Basketball Invitational at Texas Tech Nov. 26.

DOWN TO THE WIRE WITH NORTH TEXAS

Both games against North Texas this season were decided in the final 30 seconds of regulation or overtime. Brittney Hudson's layup at the buzzer stunned ULM inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum Jan. 15, and sophomore Alexar Tugler nailed two crucial jumpers in extra time at the Super Pit with less than a minute to play.

A+ PERFORMANCE FROM ALEXAR

Alexar Tugler enjoyed what was arguably her most complete game of the season at North Texas, draining a career-high 19 points and finishing just one rebound (9) from equally a career-best. The 5-10 guard blocked a shot and raced the length of the court to put home a layup at the start of the second half, then logged the winning points of the game on a deep 2-point field goal in overtime.

Postgame Interviews -- will be conducted at a designated location following an NCAA mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. ULM head coach Mona Martin and selected players will be made available for interviews upon request. Media requests (at home) for both ULM and opposing coaches and players should be made to Tony Jones. Opponent requests will be forwarded to the visiting SID. The Warhawk women's basketball locker room is closed to the media.

Interviews During the Week -- All interview requests must be arranged through Tony Jones in the ULM Media Relations office. Please contact Jones to arrange interviews during the week. Practice is closed, but arrangements can be made in advance if you are planning on shooting B-roll footage. Coach Martin and ULM student-athletes are available for interviews on non-game days following practice or through special arrangements with the ULM Media Relations office.

Ulmwarhawks.com -- All the latest scores, statistics and player information is available by accessing the women's basketball section at ulmwarhawks.com. Game stories, previews, statistics, game notes and advisories will be sent to interested media via email. Live stats and video streaming for ULM fans are also available online at ulmwarhawks.com.

Additional Services -- In an effort to serve members of the media, the ULM Media Relations office will, within reason and to the best of its ability, service all requests. Photographs of student-athletes or coaches will be made available for print or online media outlets unable to shoot a Warhawk basketball game. Photo credits must always read "Photograph courtesy of ulmwarhawks.com."

Radio -- All radio stations wishing to broadcast from Fant-Ewing Coliseum should contact the ULM Media Relations office at least one week prior to the event. Space will be provided for the official radio station of the visiting team; others will be accommodated as space permits. Phone lines must be arranged for all stations in advance.

Game Notes -- Media members can receive Warhawk basketball game notes via email by contacting Tony Jones.

TORRES HITS 900 AS A WARHAWK

Senior Elizabeth Torres shined in the second half at North Texas, scoring 10 of her 12 points to pass Carla Vickers (1980-84) as the 23rd leading scorer in program history. Torres is on pace to appear in the most games of any player to suit up for the Warhawks, needing just three more games played to pass Jesse Carrier (119, 2006-10).

LET THE OFFENSE COME TO YOU

ULM's 23 forced turnovers at North Texas marked the ninth time this season Warhawk opponents have turned the ball over 20 or more times. The Warhawks turned the Mean Green's mistakes into 25 points.

FRESHMEN STAND TALL IN THE FACE OF ADVERSITY

With seniors Marion Zollicoffer, Elizabeth Torres and Larrie Williams, along with sophomore Ashleigh Simmons, all in foul trouble against North Texas, four Warhawk freshmen were asked to play key roles in the second half and overtime periods. Guard Christina Gray hit a game-tying free throw in the extra frame, and also pulled down a key rebound and forced a steal. Center Sharnice Brooks went 2-for-2 from the field in six minutes of action to spark the ULM cause at the start of half number two.

HOW THE STANDINGS ARE SHAPING UP

The win at North Texas helped solidify conference tournament seeding leverage for ULM with three games remaining in the regular season. The Warhawks are now 7-6 in Sun Belt Conference play and hold sole possession of third place in the West Division. ULM closes its season against West number two Denver and East number one Middle Tennessee (Feb. 23) before traveling to UL-Lafayette (6th in the West) on Feb. 25 for the regular season finale.

CONFERENCE TURNAROUND SPURRING ULM FORWARD

ULM's 2-11 non-conference mark has been erased thanks to the team's steady 7-6 treading in Sun Belt Conference games. The Warhawks are outscoring opponents 757-726 in SBC play, while shooting a better percentage from the field (.360-.348) and free-throw line (.681-.662).

HOME STRETCH FOR THE SENIORS

Following Saturday's game, Feb. 23 will be the final home contest for seniors Elizabeth Torres, Larrie Williams and Marion Zollicoffer against Middle Tennessee. With no juniors on this season's squad, the Warhawks are not expected to have a single senior on the roster in 2012-13.

WARHAWK TO WATCH

Sophomore Ashleigh Simmons quietly scored 10 points and added four rebounds and two steals in the win at North Texas. The 6-1 forward has averaged 5.9 points and 3.9 rebounds per game through ULM's 13 conference matchups.

THE 411 ON DENVER

Denver owns a 10-3 series advantage all-time against ULM, winning five of six meetings between the schools in Denver. The Pioneers downed the Warhawks 52-49 Jan. 19 inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum after withstanding a nine-point second half swing in ULM's favor. Freshman Taylor Maricle scored a career-high 11 points on 4-of-6 shooting, including 3-of-5 from beyond the arc. Senior Elizabeth Torres chipped in 10 points and two steals, while fellow senior Larrie Williams added nine points and nine rebounds.

MILESTONE TRACKER

Larrie Williams and Elizabeth Torres both began the season within reach of scoring 1,000 points in their respective careers. Williams reached the 1,000-point mark against South Alabama Feb. 11 and now has 1,026 points as a Warhawk, while Torres has scored 901 points at ULM. Torres became the fifth player in program history to register 400 career assists at FIU (Jan. 7), and is just four assists from moving into second place all-time in career helpers behind All-American guard and longtime ULM associate head coach E.J. Ok.

UP NEXT

ULM hosts Middle Tennessee at 5:30 p.m. Feb. 23. It will be the annual Pack the Place Pink night in support of breast cancer awareness. The Warhawks will also honor departing seniors Elizabeth Torres, Larrie Williams and Marion Zollicoffer during halftime of the 7:30 p.m. men's game for their contributions to ULM basketball.

GAME TWO
ULM 45
Tulane 62
Nov. 14, 2011 - Fogelman Arena
New Orleans, La.

MONROE, La. - A fast start to the second half was not enough to overcome a 10-point halftime deficit as the ULM women's basketball team fell to Stephen F. Austin 68-58 Friday in the 2011-12 season opener inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

The Warhawks outshot the Ladyjacks 38.6 percent (22-57) to 33.8 percent (22-65) for the contest, including a 46.4 to 28.1 percent advantage in the game's final 20 minutes.

ULM (0-1) flew out of the gate to open the second half, embarking on a 10-0 run to tie the game 37-37. Senior Elizabeth Torres made a steal and went coast-to-coast for a pull-up jumper to highlight the run.

Torres finished with a game-high 18 points and added four rebounds. Junior Jasmine Shaw chipped in 14 points and nine rebounds, while Senior Larrie Williams added 11 points and four rebounds.

After ULM took its first advantage of the half 43-42 with 12:36 to play, the Ladyjacks (1-0) countered with an 11-2 streak to take a 53-45 lead, capped by an and-1 from Ashlee Mells at the 9:29 mark.

Stephen F. Austin stretched its lead to 10 on a Brittney Matthew and-1, giving the Ladyjacks their largest advantage of the half 63-53.

Annette Davis led Stephen F. Austin with 10 points, while Matthew and Amina Sawyer added nine points each.

ULM began the game on a 6-2 run, highlighted by layups from Senior Marion Zollicoffer and Williams, and an Elexar Tugler 3-pointer.

Shaw provided a lift off the bench, scoring six points in her first two minutes of action to stretch the ULM lead to 13-6 at 15:04.

The Ladyjacks utilized a 19-7 run out of a media timeout to close the first half and take a 37-27 lead at the break. Shaw paced the Warhawks in the first half with eight points and six rebounds, while Williams chipped in seven points.

NEW ORLEANS - Stiff defense early on kept the game in reach, but a string of key shots from the hosts allowed Tulane to defeat the ULM women's basketball team 62-45 Monday night inside Fogelman Arena.

The Warhawks forced 19 turnovers, nearly reaching the 20-takeaway plateau for the second straight game to open the 2011-12 season. ULM recorded a season-best 43 rebounds (18 offensive) and 13 steals in the contest.

Larrie Williams scored a team-high 13 points and added seven rebounds and three blocks for the Warhawks (0-2), while Ashleigh Simmons chipped in seven points. Jasmine Shaw and Marion Zollicoffer added six points apiece.

Williams put the Warhawks on the board early with a nice turnaround jumper in the post, and then Elizabeth Torres followed suit to make it 8-4 in favor of Tulane. Simmons closed the ULM scoring run with a left-handed layup off the glass to narrow the margin to 10-6 in favor of the Green Wave.

Simmons pulled the Warhawks within four (18-14) with a pair of free throws before Tulane (2-0) closed the half on the frame's largest run, a 6-0 spurt to put the Green Wave up 24-14 at intermission. Williams paced ULM with four points and three rebounds, while Simmons added three points and three boards in the first 20 minutes.

Tulane's run to end the half continued out of the break before an up-and-under from Williams gave the Warhawks their first points of the second frame. A jumper from Simmons and a Shaw coast-to-coast finish off a steal brought the Warhawks within 11 (31-20).

Tulane stopped ULM in its tracks with an 8-2 run, but the Warhawks battled back to an 11-point deficit with a deep 3-pointer from Alexar Tugler and a pair of Shaw free throws. A Williams layup and jumper made the score 44-35 with 6:24 to play, but three Danielle Blagg 3-pointers stalled the Warhawks' momentum for good.

Brett Benzio led Tulane with 14 points (7-of-9 shooting) and 11 rebounds, while Blagg added 11 points.

GAME THREE
Lamar 70
ULM 68
Nov. 18, 2011 - Montagne Center
Beaumont, Texas

BEAUMONT, Texas - A back-and-forth affair saw both teams trail by deficits of eight or more points, but an Elexar Tugler layup at the buzzer spun out of the cylinder, allowing Lamar to escape with a 70-68 win over the ULM women's basketball team Friday night in the Montagne Center.

The Warhawks (0-3) out-rebounded the Lady Cardinals 48-39 and also held the edge in assists (22-14) and blocked shots (4-2).

A technical foul on the Lamar bench led to a made free throw by freshman Jae Shin to draw the Warhawks within two (67-65) with 1:02 left on the clock. On the ensuing possession, senior Marion Zollicoffer threw down an emphatic and-1 layup to give ULM a 68-67 lead. Lamar's Monique Whittaker then drew a crucial foul with 32 seconds to play, connecting on both free throws to give the Lady Cardinals a 69-68 cushion. A missed 3-pointer by sophomore Alexar Tugler forced the Warhawks to foul, and two Lamar made free throws later, Elexar Tugler's layup at the buzzer went begging for the game's final scoring margin.

Zollicoffer finished with a career-high 16 points and added eight rebounds. Fellow senior Larrrie Williams chipped in 12 points and a team-high nine rebounds.

Sophomore Jasmine Shaw got the Warhawks on the board first with a fast break layup to open the game's scoring. Alexar Tugler then buried a deep 3-pointer from the top of the key to put ULM up 5-0.

ULM took a 17-8 advantage at the 12:06 mark on the strength of a 10-0 run. Alexar Tugler and Zollicoffer each connected in the paint, while freshman Christina Gray sunk a jumper and added two free throws during the stretch.

The Warhawks stretched their lead to 13 (29-16) at the 3:20 mark after a nice slash to the hoop by Elexar Tugler and a layup by Williams.

Lamar (3-1) closed the frame on an 11-2 run to send ULM to the break in front 31-27. Alexar Tugler led all scorers with nine points in the first, while Zollicoffer chipped in six. Williams, Gray and Elexar Tugler each added four points apiece.

Both teams traded baskets to open the second half before Elizabeth Torres hit a step-back jumper to push the Warhawks in front 37-33.

Lamar took its first lead of the second half (41-39) at the 14:11 mark on a layup by Kalis Loyd. Back-to-back buckets by freshman Taylor Maricle pulled the Warhawks within one (47-46), followed by a sophomore Ashleigh Simmons finish on the next trip. Loyd then powered through contact for an and-1 to give Lamar a 52-48 advantage.

After ULM battled back to tie the game at 54, Loyd contributed to the next six Lamar points to pull the Lady Cardinals back in front 58-52.

The Warhawks continued to fight, with Williams and Zollicoffer putting baskets home down low. Shin then hit a deep 3-pointer from the left side and drew a charge for Loyd's fifth and disqualifying foul. Shaw finished hard to the rack for a bucket on the next possession to tie the game at 63.

Whittaker led all scorers with 20 points, while Loyd chipped in 17 for Lamar.

GAME FOUR
Grambling State 75
ULM 71
Nov. 22, 2011 - Fredrick C. Hobby Arena
Grambling, La.

GRAMBLING, La. - A spirited second half rally was not enough, as late free throw shooting enabled Grambling State to defeat the ULM women's basketball team 75-71 Tuesday night at Fredrick C. Hobby Arena.

ULM mounted a vigorous comeback with under six minutes to play. Senior Elizabeth Torres made a pretty feed down low to fellow senior Larrrie Williams for a basket, and then drove to the hoop for an off-balance layup to pull the Warhawks within 10 (66-56). A 3-pointer by sophomore Jasmine Shaw narrowed the gap to 68-61. A Shaw and-1 down low left ULM trailing by just two points (69-67) with 2:58 to play.

Grambling State put the game away in the final two minutes when Toneshia Mack rattled home a bucket down low to lengthen the lead back to 73-67. A pair of late Grambling State free throws offset a ULM score to seal the win for the Lady Tigers.

Williams led ULM with 18 points, while Shaw added a career-high 17 points and Torres chipped in 13 points.

The Warhawks (0-4) struck first when Shaw finished a layup off a feed from Torres for a 2-0 lead. Torres then sank a deep 3-pointer to extend the lead to five (5-0).

Alexis Watson got the Lady Tigers on the board with a 3-pointer of her own before Markisha Patterson scored down low to even the score at 5-5.

Grambling State (2-1) took its first lead of the contest on a pair of Dayla Threatt free throws at the 14:08 mark to claim a 7-5 advantage.

Both teams traded baskets to close the opening period, with freshman Sharnice Brooks scoring the first points of her ULM career. Grambling State's Cierra Ceazer finished a layup as time expired in the first half to send the Lady Tigers to the break in front 33-21. Brooks, Shaw and Williams paced the Warhawks with four points at the break, while Torres, senior Marion Zollicoffer and sophomore Alexar Tugler added three points each.

The Lady Tigers emerged from halftime on a 12-5 run to take their largest lead of the game (43-28) before the Warhawks countered with an 8-3 surge to chip into the deficit.

Patterson drove inside for a layup to stretch the Lady Tiger lead back to 51-40. A finish by Savannah Carter on the ensuing possession lengthened the Grambling State advantage to 53-42.

Torres answered with an impressive and-1 drive, closing the gap to nine points (53-44) with 11:33 to play, before Johnson responded with a 3-pointer of her own to push the Lady Tigers back in front 58-46.

Mack led all scorers with 20 points, while Patterson added 15 for Grambling State.

GAME FIVE
Central Arkansas 73
ULM 55
Nov. 25, 2011 - United Spirit Arena
Lubbock, Texas

LUBBOCK, Texas - After closing the lead to nine halfway through the second half, the ULM women's basketball team was not able to thwart razor-sharp shooting by Central Arkansas, falling 73-55 in the opening game of the World Vision Basketball Invitational at United Spirit Arena.

The Sugar Bears shot an astounding 52.4 percent (11-21) from beyond the arc, but were outperformed by the Warhawks in offensive rebounds (14-9), blocked shots (5-2) and steals (10-8).

ULM (0-5) fired out of the blocks to start the second half with sophomore Alexar Tugler taking a steal coast-to-coast to the goal. A runner by sophomore Jasmine Shaw inched the Warhawks back within 11 (44-33). Another Shaw layup made it 47-35 in favor of Central Arkansas with just over 16 minutes to play. Senior Elizabeth Torres then drove hard to the hole on consecutive possessions to bring ULM within single digits (47-39) for the first time in the half.

Torres led the Warhawks with 17 points and three steals, while fellow senior Larrie Williams added 15 points and six rebounds. Desiree' Rogers responded with a tough bucket inside to stretch the Central Arkansas (4-0) lead back to 10 (49-39). Rogers then connected on a shot from beyond the arc to make it a 52-41 advantage.

The Warhawks would not go away, as Williams pulled down an offensive rebound and scored to close the gap to 54-45. Central Arkansas capitalized on a pair of ULM mistakes, adding four points to extend its lead to 13 (58-45).

Central Arkansas continued its blistering shooting from outside, as Micah Rice hit a dagger to make it 63-47. Alexar Tugler and Shaw answered on the next ULM possessions, bringing the Warhawks within 14 (63-49).

Destinee Rogers dropped another field goal from deep to lengthen the Central Arkansas lead (66-49) before Herbert hit the 11th Sugar Bear 3-pointer of the contest to extend the largest lead of the game to 71-49.

The Sugar Bears roared out of the gate with a pair of made 3-pointers from Desiree' Rogers and Rice to take a 6-0 lead. After a pair of Williams free throws, Central Arkansas' Nakeia Guiden hit a turnaround layup in the paint to push the advantage to 8-2.

Central Arkansas stretched the run to 16-2 on the strength of deep 3-pointers from Rice and Destinee Rogers. Megan Herbert hit the team's fifth score from beyond the arc to up the lead to 17 (19-2).

Sophomore Alexar Tugler connected for the first ULM field goal of the game to stall the run, and Marion Zollicoffer finished an and-1 down low to give the Warhawks momentum. A Torres 3-pointer capped a 6-2 run by ULM.

Torres then finished a pair of layups inside to draw the Warhawks within 14 (30-16). A Williams and-1 closed the deficit to 32-19.

The Sugar Bears closed their scoring in the half with a triple from Destinee Rogers. ULM countered with a leaper in the lane from Torres to head to the break down by 13, 40-27. Williams led the Warhawks with 11 points, while Torres chipped in nine points, three rebounds and three steals in the first frame.

Herbert paced all scorers with a game-high 21 points and 13 rebounds. Destinee Rogers added 16 points for the Sugar Bears.

GAME SIX
UMKC 76
ULM 70 (OT)
Nov. 26, 2011 - United Spirit Arena
Lubbock, Texas

LUBBOCK, Texas - The ULM women's basketball took a 14-point lead into halftime, but steady play down the stretch by its opposition led UMKC to a 76-70 overtime win Saturday morning in the second game of the World Vision Basketball Invitational at the United Spirit Arena.

The Warhawks (0-6) held the advantage in assists (15-12), blocked shots (7-2) and bench points (30-14). ULM also added 34 points in the paint and 21 points off turnovers.

UMKC (4-2) took its first lead of the game on a fast break layup by Dayton Hall-Jones with just 2:29 to play in regulation. Senior Elizabeth Torres won a key held ball for ULM with 1:18 on the clock, but the Warhawks were unable to capitalize on the ensuing possession. After a defensive stop, Torres drove hard to the rack to draw a foul with 11.1 left on the clock, and both free throws tied the contest at 63 to force overtime.

Senior Larrie Williams got the Warhawks on the board in the extra frame with a jumper, but UMKC's Kim Neziyana answered with a score of her own. Freshman Jae Shin then got loose on a fast break, finishing a layup to put the Warhawks up by two (67-65).

Eilise O'Connor buried a deep triple to give the Kangaroos a 69-67 lead. Senior Marion Zollicoffer responded with two made free throws at the other end to tie the game at 69-all. Neziyana scored off a nifty feed to reclaim a 71-69 lead.

Sophomore Ashleigh Simmons notched a free throw to close the deficit to 72-70, but Brianna Eldridge put home a layup inside to ensure the Kangaroos win.

Williams led ULM with 17 points and seven rebounds, while Torres added 15 points and tied a career-high with 11 assists. Simmons chipped in a career-best 14 points.

Sophomore Alexar Tugler got the Warhawks on the board with a 3-pointer, and then Torres followed with a layup to give ULM a quick 5-0 lead. Neziyana answered with a two-point bucket on the other end for UMKC's first points of the game, but Williams then scored on consecutive possessions to claim a 9-2 Warhawk lead.

Torres then rattled in a deep 3 from the left corner to give the Warhawks a 14-8 advantage. Sophomore Jasmine Shaw and freshman Sharnice Brooks both added key blocks the next UMKC trip down the floor before sophomore Shantrell Pierson and Williams each finished down low to give ULM its biggest lead of the half (19-8) and an 8-0 run.

UMKC answered with a Neziyana jumper at the 7:30 mark and an and-1 jumper from O'Connor. Shin banked a 3-pointer to halt the mini-run and Torres also nailed a shot from beyond the arc to push the ULM lead to 34-21.

The Warhawks closed the frame with a pair of made free throws by Shaw to take a 43-29 lead into halftime. Simmons led all scorers with 11 points at the break, while Williams added eight points and four rebounds. Torres chipped in eight points and eight assists.

UMKC scored the first five points of the second half on a pair of jumpers from LeAndrea Thomas and Hall-Jones to narrow its deficit to 43-34. Alexar Tugler and Williams added a pair of baskets to stretch the ULM lead to 47-34. Marion Zollicoffer then added a nice layup in the paint to take a 49-35 advantage.

The Kangaroos would not go away easily, reeling off a 7-0 run to close the gap to 49-42. Torres stalled the UMKC momentum with a deep 3-pointer from the left corner to push the lead back to 10 (52-42).

ULM kept the pressure on, as six points from Williams over a two-minute stretch pushed the lead back to 59-50. Neziyana responded with a nice post move down low to narrow the margin to 59-52. O'Connor buried a jumper to close the deficit to five (59-54), and a Neziyana layup made it just a three-point game at 59-56.

O'Connor led UMKC with a game-high 22 points, while Neziyana chipped in 16 points and nine rebounds.

GAME SEVEN
No. 19 Texas Tech 94
ULM 54
Nov. 27, 2011 - United Spirit Arena
Lubbock, Texas

LUBBOCK, Texas - After a high-energy start to begin the game, the ULM women's basketball team was unable to maintain the momentum, falling 94-54 to No. 19 Texas Tech in the final game of the World Vision Basketball Invitational at the United Spirit Arena.

Senior Larrie Williams got the Warhawks on the board first with a jumper from the right block. Texas Tech's Kelsi Baker responded with a 3-point play down low to give the Lady Raiders a 3-2 lead. Christine Hyde then finished off an offensive rebound in the paint to push the Lady Raider advantage to 5-3.

Texas Tech (5-0) embarked on an 11-0 run, keyed by four points from Monique Smalls, to push the lead to 16-3. Sophomore Ashleigh Simmons drove hard to the rack for a foul to halt the run, cashing in both free throws to close the margin to 11 (16-5).

Sophomore Alexar Tugler and Simmons knocked down back-to-back jumpers to give the Warhawks (0-7) a spark, but Jordan Barncastle answered with a shot of her own to push Texas Tech out front by 15 (24-9).

ULM added four quick points in the final seconds of the half to head to the locker room down by 18 (37-19). Simmons led all scorers with 10 points and three rebounds.

Kierra Mallard knocked down a jumper for the first Texas Tech points of the second frame, but ULM answered quickly with a jumper from sophomore Jasmine Shaw. Mallard then put home a layup, and an ensuing steal by Smalls gave the Lady Raiders a 43-21 lead.

An 11-5 run by the Lady Raiders opened up the largest advantage of the contest (52-26).

Sophomore Shantrell Pierson then finished off a nice drive to the hoop for a 3-point play to close the deficit to 53-29. A jumper by Simmons on the ensuing possession made the score 55-31 in favor of Texas Tech.

The Lady Raiders proved to be too strong, Baker added a layup down low at the 11:41 mark to give Texas Tech a 63-35 lead.

Simmons led all scorers with a game and career-high 17 points, while Williams added 12 points and four rebounds. Pierson finished with a career-best seven points and four rebounds. Senior Elizabeth Torres was selected to the World Vision Basketball Invitational All-Tournament team.

Baker paced Texas Tech with 14 points and 10 rebounds, while Ebony Walker added 13 points.

GAME EIGHT
McNeese State 68
ULM 60
Nov. 30, 2011 - Fant-Ewing Coliseum
Monroe, La.

MONROE, La. - After whittling a 15-point second half deficit down to four with under four minutes remaining, the ULM women's basketball team fell just short of completing the comeback, dropping a 68-60 decision to McNeese State Wednesday inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

The Warhawks out-rebounded the Cowgirls 37-34, and also held the edge in assists (14-10), points in the paint (31-18) and bench points (22-2).

McNeese State (6-1) used an early second half 7-2 run to claim a 43-29 lead before jumpers from sophomore Jasmine Shaw and senior Larrie Williams and a 3-pointer from freshman Taylor Maricle closed the deficit to 43-36. A deep jumper from Candace LaCombe extended the McNeese State lead back to 10 (46-36).

Maricle added another 3-pointer and a jumper from the free-throw line to pull ULM back within nine (48-39), but a 12-6 surge gave McNeese State its largest lead of the half at 60-45 with 10:03 remaining in regulation.

The Warhawks (0-8) refused to back down, as an 11-0 offensive run pulled ULM within four (60-56). Four made free throws by McNeese State offset a Marion Zollicoffer layup and pushed the lead back to six (64-58).

Senior Elizabeth Torres led ULM with 17 points and seven assists, while sophomore Ashleigh Simmons added 12 points and tied a career-high with eight rebounds.

Ashlyn Baggett got McNeese State on the board with a 3-pointer from the top of the key for a quick 3-0 lead. Torres answered with a shot of her own from beyond the arc to tie the game at 3-3. Caitlyn Baggett responded with another 3-pointer before LaCombe rattled home a long ball to give the Cowgirls a 9-5 advantage.

The Warhawks responded with a quick 4-0 surge to tie the game at nine on the strength of a Torres fastbreak layup and a Zollicoffer finish in the paint at the 12:40 mark.

McNeese State responded with a 9-2 run that included a 3-pointer and layup from Caitlyn Baggett to claim an 18-11 lead. A deep jumper from Torres and buckets inside by Simmons and Williams closed the deficit to four (20-16).

Torres then found Simmons down low on a nice feed for a layup and proceeded to steal the ensuing inbound play, dishing a second beautiful pass to Simmons to pull the Warhawks within three (25-22). A layup by sophomore Shantrell Pierson and a Williams turnaround jumper capped a 10-1 run and gave ULM a 26-25 lead.

McNeese State closed the half on an 11-0 run to take a 36-26 advantage into the break.

Simmons and Torres paced ULM with eight points each in the opening frame.

Ashlyn Baggett led the Cowgirls with a game-high 23 points, while Caitlyn Baggett chipped in 19 points.

GAME NINE
ULM 78
Nicholls State 68
Dec. 3, 2011 - Fant-Ewing Coliseum
Monroe, La.

MONROE, La. - Senior Larrie Williams tied a career-high with 21 points to power the ULM women's basketball team to a 78-68 non-conference win over Nicholls State Saturday night inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

The Warhawks (1-8) outscored the Colonels 40-26 in the paint and forced 24 turnovers. ULM also registered a season-high 14 steals.

Nicholls State (2-5) used two clutch buckets from Sumar Leslie to draw within four points (54-50) with under eight minutes to play, but an equally clutch 3-ball from sophomore Alexar Tugler and a jumper in the post by Williams put the Warhawks back up 59-50. A three-point-play by Williams extended the advantage to 11 (62-51).

Leslie and Alisha Allen connected on back-to-back field goals to narrow the gap to seven (62-55), but senior Elizabeth Torres answered with a drive to the hoop and sophomore Jasmine Shaw put home an offensive rebound (66-58) to stall the Nicholls State momentum.

Shaw scored a career-high 18 points and pulled down six rebounds, while Torres added 13 points, six rebounds and six assists.

KK Babin got Nicholls State on the board first with a 3-pointer from the top of the key, and Leslie added a layup off a steal to give the Colonels a quick 5-0 advantage. Sophomore Taylor Maricle halted the run with a lay in of her own to close the gap to 5-2. Leslie buried a jumper from beyond the arc to push the lead to 10-2 at the 17:15 mark.

A Shaw layup down the baseline and a 3-pointer by Torres from the right corner brought the Warhawks within five (21-16) before Torres drew an and-1 in the paint to narrow the deficit to 21-19. Allen dropped a deep triple from the top of the key to push Nicholls State back up by five (24-19).

ULM claimed its first lead of the game (25-24) at the 4:21 mark of the first half following a Shaw 3-pointer and a made free throw from Williams. A finish down low from Shaw off a beautiful pass from Torres extended the lead to 27-24.

The Warhawks closed the half with a nice drive to the goal by Torres and a pair of Williams free throws to take a 35-28 lead into the break. Torres and Shaw paced ULM with nine points each, while Williams added seven points and four rebounds.

ULM burst out of the gates in the second frame, as quick field goals from Torres and Williams put the Warhawks on top 40-30. Alexar Tugler drove aggressively down the baseline to kiss one off the glass to extend the Warhawk lead back to nine (48-39) with 11:56 left in the game.

Allen led all scorers with 24 points and five rebounds, while Leslie added 23 points.

GAME TEN
Southern Miss 77
ULM 74
Dec. 10, 2011 - Reed Green Coliseum
Hattiesburg, Miss.

HATTIESBURG, Miss. - A career-high 28 points from senior Larrie Williams was not enough to complete a second half comeback, as the ULM women's basketball team fell to Southern Miss 77-74 Saturday evening inside Reed Green Coliseum.

The Warhawks forced 25 turnovers on 14 steals, and added 34 points in the paint. The 28-point output from Williams was the highest single-game total by a ULM player since Terri Butler scored 31 against Texas-San Antonio in 1997-98.

Southern Miss opened up the largest lead of the game (47-36) with a jumper from Wendy Miller at the 15:14 mark of the second half. The Warhawks clawed back within five points at 49-44 on four free throws from sophomore Ashleigh Simmons and senior Elizabeth Torres.

ULM (1-9) closed the gap to two (58-56) on a layup by sophomore Shantrell Pierson, but the Lady Eagles countered with a 10-2 run to retake a 10-point advantage at 68-58.

Torres finished a coast-to-coast layup and then stole the ensuing inbounds pass, feeding Williams to pull within five points (69-64). A layup by freshman Christina Gray closed the deficit to 71-68 with just 2:15 left on the clock.

Torres scored eight points and added eight assists, while Simmons added seven points and four rebounds. Gray chipped in a career-high six points.

Williams scored the first points of the game on a nice layup inside to put ULM in front 2-0.

Southern Miss responded with a hoop from Niesha Pierce to even the score at 2-2. A deep jumper from Shaw and another lay in from Williams added to a 6-2 Warhawks start.

Southern Miss (3-5) claimed its first lead of the game as part of a 15-4 run (16-10) at the 11:33 mark of the half. The Warhawks responded with a jumper from Ashleigh Simmons to close the deficit to 16-12.

ULM finished the half on a 10-6 run to head to the locker room trailing by just one, 33-32.

Williams led all scorers with 14 points, while Simmons chipped in five points and four rebounds.

The Lady Eagles opened the second frame on a 7-0 run to take its largest lead of the ball game (40-32). Marion Zollicoffer finished an offensive rebound on the next ULM possession to draw the Warhawks within six at 40-34.

Jamierra Faulkner paced Southern Miss with 20 points and nine assists, while Tanecka Carey added 16 points.

GAME ELEVEN
No. 7 Miami (Fla.) 103
ULM 39
Dec. 16, 2011 - BankUnited Center
Coral Gables, Fla.

CORAL GABLES, Fla. - A hot offensive start powered No. 7 Miami over the ULM women's basketball team 103-39 Friday night inside the BankUnited Center.

The Warhawks forced 14 Hurricane turnovers and registered 10 steals. ULM and Miami each blocked six shots apiece.

The Hurricanes opened the game scoring the first seven field goals. Shenise Johnson knocked home a pair of 3-pointers and finished two hoops inside, while Riquana Williams added two baskets of her own. Senior Larrie Williams halted the Hurricanes momentum with a dribble drive down the lane for ULM's first points of the contest.

Miami (9-1) responded with a 10-0 run before senior Marion Zollicoffer finished a layup down low. Williams then added an and-1 down low to key a 5-0 Warhawk advantage.

The Warhawks (1-10) closed the half with three Williams free throws and a 3-pointer from sophomore Elexar Tugler in the left corner. Williams led ULM with nine points and two rebounds, while Elexar Tugler added five points and a steal in the opening frame.

Miami's Morgan Stroman opened the scoring the second half with a triple from the corner. Sophomore Ashleigh Simmons and Williams then scored on consecutive possessions to spark the Warhawks.

Sophomore Alexar Tugler drove to the hoop to finish a steal, and Zollicoffer deposited a lay in the next ULM trip down the floor. Senior Elizabeth Torres dropped a 3-pointer from the top of the key, followed by two Simmons baskets and a Zollicoffer jumper to aid a 6-2 Warhawk run.

Williams led ULM with 11 points, five rebounds and three blocked shots. Simmons chipped in 10 points and three rebounds, while Zollicoffer added eight points and five boards.

Johnson, Williams and Krystal Saunders each scored 16 points to lead the Hurricanes, while Stroman chipped in 14 points and seven rebounds.

GAME TWELVE
Tennessee Tech 68
ULM 64
Dec. 19, 2011 - Fant-Ewing Coliseum
Monroe, La.

MONROE, La. - A career-high 16 points by sophomore Alexar Tugler was not enough to negate a second half rally that propelled Tennessee Tech to a 68-64 win over the ULM women's basketball team Monday night inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

The Golden Eagles (4-7) embarked on a 13-6 surge to close what had been a 16-point deficit to seven with 9:55 left to play (51-44). A layup by Molly Heady and three made shots at the free-throw line brought Tennessee Tech within four (53-49).

A Tacarra Hayes jumper with just over 3:00 to play gave Tennessee Tech its first lead of the second half, 60-59. Sophomore Jasmine Shaw sunk a pair of free throws at the other end to reclaim a one-point lead (61-60) the Warhawks. A Hayes jumper in the lane gave the Golden Eagles the lead back at 62-61.

Senior Larrie Williams led ULM with 18 points on 6-of-13 shooting. Alexar Tugler added five rebounds and two steals to her career-best 16 points.

Senior Marion Zollicoffer scored the first field goal of the game off an inbounds play to give the Warhawks an early 3-1 lead. Briana Jordan countered with a 3-pointer from the top of the key to give the Golden Eagles a 4-3 advantage.

The Warhawks (1-11) closed the half on a 7-2 run to take a 33-28 lead into intermission. Alexar Tugler led all scorers with 14 first half points. Williams chipped in eight points and a blocked shot in the opening frame.

Alexar Tugler capped off a 9-1 Warhawk run by taking a steal coast-to-coast to open a 14-point cushion at the 15:35 mark of the second frame (43-29). Freshman Christina Gray then made a nice steal of her own, finishing a lay in at the other end to give ULM a 45-31 advantage.

Hayes led all scorers with 29 points and two steals, while Jala Harris chipped in 12 points.

GAME THIRTEEN
ULM 84
Northwestern State 68
Dec. 21, 2011 - Prather Coliseum
Natchitoches, La.

NATCHITOCHES, La. - A 25-point performance from senior Larrie Williams and a 47-point second half powered the ULM women's basketball team to an 84-68 win over Northwestern State Wednesday afternoon inside Prather Coliseum.

The Warhawks (2-11) dominated the glass 71-40 over the Lady Demons, holding a 32-19 edge in offensive rebounds. The 71 rebounds were just four from equalling the all-time ULM team record set Feb. 26, 1985 against North Texas. The Warhawks also outscored Northwestern State 42-32 in the paint, and finished 19 second-chance points.

Jordi James got the Lady Demons on the scoreboard first with a 3-pointer from the right corner. Sophomore Alexar Tugler responded, driving baseline for the lay in to bring ULM within one at 3-2. Williams finished an offensive rebound the next trip down the floor to give the Warhawks a 4-3 advantage.

A Tugler 3-pointer and a Williams layup keyed a 7-0 run as ULM opened a 15-9 lead. Northwestern State (3-8) responded with a 10-1 surge highlighted by a Ronikka Drake jumper to reclaim the lead (18-16). Sophomore Ashleigh Simmons answered with a ULM jumper to tie the game at 18-all.

The Lady Demons embarked on a 12-4 run to take the largest lead of the game at 30-22 with just over 4:00 left in the opening half. The Warhawks answered with a frenzied 15-4 run to take a 37-34 lead into the break. Williams led all scorers with 21 points, and added seven rebounds.

Tugler finished a nice feed from senior Elizabeth Torres for the first points of the second half to extend ULM's lead to 39-34. Sophomore Jasmine Shaw drove through the lane the next Warhawk possession to open a seven-point cushion (41-34).

ULM continued to apply the pressure, as a 3-pointer from Torres at the top of the key extended the Warhawk lead to 11 (52-41) with 13:57 to play. Another triple from Torres and a pair of free throws from freshman Sharnice Brooks gave the Warhawks a 16-point advantage at 57-41.

Williams' 25 points led all scorers, and she added 10 rebounds and three blocked shots. Tugler chipped in a career-high 18 points, 10 rebounds and two steals, while Torres added 12 points (4-for-4 from the field), seven assists and two steals.

James paced Northwestern State with 23 points, while Jasmine Upchurch chipped in 20 points and a game-high 16 rebounds.

GAME FOURTEEN
ULM 53
Western Kentucky 49
Dec. 29, 2011 - Fant-Ewing Coliseum
Monroe, La.

MONROE, La. - A furious comeback during the game's final minutes powered the ULM women's basketball team to a thrilling 53-49 victory over Western Kentucky Thursday night inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

The Warhawks (3-11, 1-0) closed the contest on an incredible 19-2 run to overcome a 47-34 score with 6:24 left in regulation. The victory was the first for the Warhawks against the Lady Toppers during the regular season since a 79-72 win February 21, 1983.

Western Kentucky struck quickly to open the second half, as layups from Vanessa Obafemi and Keshia Mosley pushed the Lady Toppers in front 32-19.

The Warhawks refused to back down, as a layup by sophomore Ashleigh Simmons brought ULM within eight (47-39) with under four minutes to play. A deep 3-pointer by sophomore Jasmine Shaw slashed the deficit to 47-42 the next ULM trip down the floor.

Following a Lady Hilltopper miss, senior Elizabeth Torres fed freshman Christina Gray with a beautiful pass down low to pull the Warhawks within one at 47-46. A pair of free throws by senior Larrie Williams gave ULM its first lead of the second half (48-47).

Williams led all scorers with 14 points and added seven rebounds. Shaw chipped in 12 points and one steal.

Western Kentucky (3-10, 1-1) used an early 8-0 run to take the largest lead of the opening frame at the 12:04 mark of the first half, capped by a 3-pointer from Danay Fothergill. The Warhawks answered with a trio of baskets from Williams, sophomore Elexar Tugler and sophomore Shantrell Pierson to close the gap to 15-7.

ULM got within two points (19-17) before the Lady Toppers closed on a 9-2 surge to take a 28-19 lead into halftime. Shaw paced the Warhawks with seven points, while Williams and Torres added four points apiece.

Mosley led the Lady Toppers with 11 points and seven rebounds. Teranie Thomas added nine points and six rebounds.

GAME FIFTEEN
ULM 83
Arkansas State 57
Dec. 31, 2011 - Fant-Ewing Coliseum
Monroe, La.

MONROE, La. - A season-low 12 turnovers and an 11-player balanced scoring attack powered the ULM women's basketball team to an impressive 83-57 Sun Belt Conference triumph over Arkansas State Saturday afternoon inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

The 26-point final was the largest margin of victory in conference play for ULM (4-11, 2-0) since an 82-53 win over UL-Lafayette on Feb. 11, 2009. The Warhawks shot a season-best 52.3 percent (34-65) from the field, and their six made 3-pointers were also team-high. ULM held a 50-24 advantage scoring in the paint and a 30-19 edge in points off turnovers.

The Warhawks erupted out of the gate on a 14-2 run, capped by a layup from senior Larrie Williams. A pair of 3-pointers from Arkansas State's Lunden Roberts cut the lead to 18-10, but ULM responded with a 5-0 surge to stretch the advantage to 13 (23-10).

Arkansas State (5-9, 0-2) answered with a 12-5 run to close the deficit to 28-22 on the strength of a pair of 3-pointers from Roberts and Meghan Lewis.

ULM closed the opening frame with a jumper from sophomore Ashleigh Simmons to take a 38-26 lead into the break. Sophomore Alexar Tugler paced the Warhawks with nine points and two blocked shots at the half, while Williams added eight points, five rebounds and two rejections.

The Warhawks remained energized in the second half, as successful drives to the basket from Tugler and senior Elizabeth Torres pushed the lead to 16 (44-28). Arkansas State battled to within 10 at 44-34 on a score from Quinishia McDowell at the 15:29 mark.

ULM then took control with a 19-8 spurt that provided the hosts a 63-42 cushion. A nice finish down low from Williams and a fast break layup from freshman Jae Shin extended the lead to 67-46.

Williams and Tugler each led ULM with 16 points. Williams added seven rebounds and tied a career-high with four blocks, while Tugler chipped in two blocks and three steals. Torres finished with eight points, six assists and three steals.

Roberts led the Red Wolves with 12 points, and NeNe Hurst added 10 points and a game-high 13 rebounds.

GAME SIXTEEN
FAU 65
ULM 58
Jan. 4, 2012 - FAU Arena
Boca Raton, Fla.

BOCA RATON, Fla. - A game-high 18 points from seniors Larrie Williams and Elizabeth Torres were not enough to thwart timely shooting from Florida Atlantic as the ULM women's basketball team dropped a physical 65-58 Sun Belt Conference decision Wednesday night inside the FAU Arena.

Shenise Miller got FAU on the board after cleaning up an offensive rebound for a quick 2-0 Owls lead. Senior Marion Zollicoffer responded with a finish at the other end for ULM to tie the game at 2-2. Miller then drove to the rim the next Owl possession to give the hosts a 4-2 advantage.

The Warhawks (4-12, 2-1) began chipping away at the FAU lead, as a pair of field goals from Williams and a nice layup from Zollicoffer cut the deficit to just four (18-14). A fast break finish from Torres and a turnaround in the paint from Williams capped a 12-0 run to tie the game at 18-18.

The Owls took a 32-24 lead into the break. Williams and Torres each paced ULM with eight points, while Zollicoffer chipped in four points and four rebounds.

FAU (8-6, 3-0) connected quickly for nine second half points to open a 10-point lead at 41-31. Two layups inside by Williams brought ULM within eight (45-37), but DaLita Scott responded for the Owls to stretch the lead to 47-37.

ULM would not go away, as a drive to the rack by sophomore Ashleigh Simmons, a turnaround by Williams and a deep triple by Torres slashed the FAU lead to three (55-51). A Torres layup kept the Warhawks in range at 58-55.

FAU gained a seven-point cushion with four late free throws to push the lead to 62-55. A late 3-pointer from freshman Taylor Maricle provided ULM with its final points of the night.

Takia Brooks equaled Torres and Williams with 18 points to lead FAU, while April Goins chipped in 14 points, seven rebounds and four assists.

GAME EIGHTEEN

ULM 58
UALR 54

Jan. 12, 2012 - Fant-Ewing Coliseum
Monroe, La.

MIAMI, Fla. - A game-high 36 points from Jerica Coley powered FIU over the ULM women's basketball team 65-55 Saturday night inside the U.S. Century Bank Arena.

The Warhawks out-rebounded the Panthers 41-34, including a 14-10 edge on the offensive glass. ULM also held a 38-26 advantage scoring in the paint.

Coley got the Panthers (11-5, 1-2) on the board with a jumper from the right wing to take a quick 2-0 lead. Sophomore Jasmine Shaw answered with a basket of her own to tie the game at 2-2. Finda Mansare banked in a layup the next FIU possession to give the hosts a 4-2 advantage.

Senior Larrie Williams finished an off-balance layup in the paint as time expired in the first half to send the Warhawks to locker room trailing 29-21. Sophomore Ashleigh Simmons led ULM with six points and four rebounds at the break, while Alexar and Elexar Tugler each chipped in four points.

The Warhawks (4-13, 2-2) showed energy early in the second half, as senior Marion Zollicoffer scored a beautiful feed from senior Elizabeth Torres. Torres then made a tough layup of her own to cut the FIU lead to 35-27. An and-1 from Shaw closed the deficit to 37-30, followed by a turnaround jumper in the post from Williams to further trim the lead to five (37-32).

Torres led the Warhawks with 11 points, six rebounds and four assists. She also surpassed the 400-assist plateau for her career, becoming just the fifth player in program history to accomplish the feat. Simmons added 10 points, six boards and one steal.

ULM battled the lead down to three (41-38) after a Williams layup and a Torres pull-up jumper in traffic sparked a 19-6 Warhawk run. Coley buried a triple from the top of the key to push the Panther advantage back to 44-40, and then connected on two more shots inside to bookend a 9-0 FIU run that vaulted the Panthers back up by 10 (50-40).

The Warhawks flew back with an 8-1 surge of their own, with consecutive fast break buckets from Shaw and Simmons. A third fast break layup from Elexar Tugler closed the gap to just one (51-50).

Coley added six rebounds, three assists, two steals and two blocked shots to her 36-point performance. Mansare chipped in 15 points and eight rebounds.

MONROE, La. - A fast start to begin the game carried the ULM women's basketball team to a 58-54 Sun Belt Conference win over UALR Thursday night inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

The win was the first for ULM over UALR since a 65-56 triumph Jan. 2, 2006 (11 meetings). The Warhawks forced 19 Trojan turnovers, collecting 19 points off UALR miscues. ULM held a game-high 15-point advantage with 14:39 to play in the second half (40-25).

Senior Larrie Williams got ULM (5-13, 3-2) on the board first with a leaner in the lane and two free throws. A layup in the paint from fellow senior Elizabeth Torres stretched the ULM lead to 6-0. A deep 3-pointer from Taylor Gault brought UALR within three at 8-5. Williams answered with a layup to extend the Warhawk lead back to five (10-5).

UALR (7-10, 2-2) roared back with an 11-5 run, taking a 16-15 lead on a layup from Hannah Fohne. A pretty drive to the hoop from Torres was countered by the Trojans Marian Kursh to give the visitors a one-point lead (18-17).

The Warhawks closed the frame on a 9-3 surge to take a 26-21 lead into halftime. Williams led all scorers with 10 points, while sophomore Alexar Tugler chipped in nine points and two steals. ULM cruised out of the break with eight quick points to open the cushion to 34-21. A pair of 3-pointers from Tugler extended the advantage to 40-25.

UALR closed the gap to 51-42 with under six minutes to play, but two baskets from freshman Sharnice Brooks pushed the Warhawks back on top 55-42. The Trojans made a late 12-3 run to close the deficit to its final margin.

Tugler finished with a game-high 16 points and added three assists and two steals. Williams chipped in 15 points, eight rebounds and a blocked shot. She also surpassed the 900-point scoring plateau for her career, becoming the 22nd player in program history to do so.

Kiera Clark led UALR with 13 points and eight rebounds, while Gault added 12 points and three assists.

MONROE, La. - An impressive second half showing was not enough to overcome a 16-point first half deficit as the ULM women's basketball team dropped a 56-54 Sun Belt Conference decision to North Texas Sunday afternoon inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

Warhawk senior Larrie Williams moved into the top 20 on the school's all-time scoring list with a team-best 18 points. Williams has now scored 929 points at ULM and is 71 points from becoming the 16th 1,000-point scorer in program history.

Despite the loss, the Warhawks (5-14, 3-3) closed the game on a 28-13 surge and outscored the Mean Green 40-26 in the second half. ULM forced 20 North Texas turnovers, converting 15 points off giveaways.

Two free throws put the Mean Green (11-8, 4-2) in front by three (54-51) with under 16 seconds to play, but freshman Taylor Maricle buried a triple to stun North Texas and tie the game at 54-41. Following a timeout, North Texas' Brittney Hudson drove the length of the floor to kiss a layup off the glass for the win.

Williams added four rebounds and a blocked shot to her team-high 18 points. Senior Elizabeth Torres chipped in 12 points, six assists and a steal.

Tamara Torru got North Texas on the board first with a layup inside to take a 2-0 advantage. A turnaround in the paint from Williams brought the Warhawks within a possession at 3-2. ULM took its first lead of the game when Torres fed sophomore Alexar Tugler for a left-handed lay in to make it 4-3 in favor of the hosts.

The Mean Green opened up an 11-point advantage with a 10-0 run, capped by a Kasondra Foreman layup with 8:06 left in the first half (19-8), and closed the opening frame with the game's largest lead, 30-14. Williams and Tugler each scored four points for ULM in the first 20 minutes.

ULM whittled the lead down to 32-21 with a nice 7-2 run to open the second period after a fast break layup from Torres. The Mean Green answered with a surge of its own, punctuated by a bucket from Ash' Lynne Evans and two free throws from Torru to go back in front by 17 (43-26).

The Warhawks kept chipping away at the North Texas lead, closing the deficit to six (46-40) with 5:14 remaining in regulation after a Williams layup. ULM kept the momentum rolling with a jumper from sophomore Ashleigh Simmons to draw within four at 46-42. A Tugler lay in kept the Warhawks within four (48-44), capping an impressive 18-5 rally.

Jasmine Godbolt led North Texas with 20 points and seven rebounds, while Torru added 10 points and six rebounds.

MONROE, La. - For the second consecutive game, an efficient second half was not enough to overcome a slow start as the ULM women's basketball team dropped a 52-49 Sun Belt Conference decision to Denver Thursday night inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

The Warhawks outscored the Pioneers 34-25 after halftime and outrebounded the visitors by a slim 44-43 margin. ULM also posted a season-low 11 turnovers.

Kaetlyn Murdoch finished a layup in the key to give the Pioneers an early 2-0 lead. Senior Larrie Williams tipped in a Warhawk miss at the other end to even the score at 2-2. Murdoch nailed a jumper the next Denver trip to reclaim a two-point advantage (4-2).

The Pioneers (12-8, 4-2) took control with a 9-0 surge to claim an 11-2 lead. Freshman Taylor Maricle responded with a pair of 3-pointers to shrink the deficit to six (14-8).

A made jumper by senior Marion Zollicoffer was countered by two Denver buckets, and the visitors took a 27-15 lead into halftime. Maricle led ULM with six points, while Zollicoffer chipped in four points, three rebounds and two blocked shots.

The Warhawks (5-15, 3-4) cut into the Denver lead at the start of the second frame, as a 3-pointer from senior Elizabeth Torres slashed the deficit to nine (32-23). A layup from sophomore Elexar Tugler drew the score to 37-30, and a nifty jumper from Williams capped an 11-5 ULM surge (37-34). Denver responded with two 3-pointers from Morgan Van Riper-Rose to stretch the lead back to 43-34.

Layups from sophomore Jasmine Shaw and Torres again closed the deficit to three (43-40), but a triple from Jordan Johnston gave the Pioneers a six-point cushion at 46-40.

ULM refused to back down, as a Williams jumper brought the Warhawks within two at 48-46. Murdoch countered with a make of her own the next Denver trip to lengthen the lead back to four (50-46).

Maricle paced ULM with a career-high 11 points (3-of-5 from 3-point range), while Torres added 10 points and two steals. Williams finished with nine points and a game-high nine rebounds.

Van Riper-Rose led all scorers with 15 points. Johnston chipped in 13 points and four rebounds.

GAME TWENTY ONE
ULM 49
Troy 46
Jan. 21, 2012 - Sartain Hall
Troy, Ala.

TROY, Ala. - A last-second steal by sophomore Elexar Tugler preserved a 49-46 ULM women's basketball Sun Belt Conference victory at Troy Saturday night inside Sartain Hall. The Warhawks (6-15, 4-4) forced 19 Trojan turnovers, converting 21 of those miscues into points. ULM also held the edge scoring in the paint (20-16) and fast break scoring (10-4).

Troy (1-17, 0-7) exploded out of the locker room in the second half with a 6-0 run to cut a 10-point halftime deficit to 30-26. A putback by senior Marion Zollicoffer off a sophomore Jasmine Shaw miss extended the ULM advantage back to eight (34-26). A jumper from senior Elizabeth Torres lengthened the cushion to 36-26.

The Trojans drew within six points on back-to-back 3-pointers from Jasmine Pitts and Sarah McAppion (46-40). A triple from Brooke Bowie capped an 11-0 run to close the gap to 46-43. An and-1 from Bowie made it a one-point ballgame at 47-46 with under 1:30 to play.

Senior Larrie Williams led ULM with 11 points and nine rebounds, while Shaw added 10 points and two steals.

Zollicoffer finished a nice feed from sophomore Alexar Tugler for the game's first points and a 2-0 lead. Ieva Nagy answered with a bucket for Troy, and McAppion followed to give the Trojans a 4-2 advantage.

ULM took its first lead of the game at 9-7 on a made 3-pointer from the corner by Shaw. A 3-pointer from Alexar Tugler pushed the Warhawk lead to 12-9. A triple from Troy's Bowie tied the score at 12-11.

The Warhawks held the Trojans to two field goals over the final 6:30 of the opening half, closing on a 12-4 run to take a 30-20 advantage into the break. Williams paced all scorers with eight points and added four rebounds. Zollicoffer contributed six points, five rebounds and a blocked shot.

McAppion scored a game-high 12 points for Troy, and Bowie added nine points and five rebounds.

GAME TWENTY TWO
ULM 66
UL-Lafayette 35
Jan. 28, 2012 - Fant-Ewing Coliseum
Monroe, La.

MONROE, La. - A dominant 22-point outing from senior Larrie Williams propelled the ULM women's basketball team to a 66-35 Sun Belt Conference win over rival UL-Lafayette Saturday afternoon inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

The 31-point winning margin was the largest for the Warhawks this season, and ULM is now 18-0 against the Ragin' Cajuns all-time in Fant-Ewing Coliseum (36-5 overall). The Warhawks earned a 34-10 margin on points scored in the paint, and outrebounded UL-Lafayette 49-35.

Williams is one point behind Ranita Bolton for 18th place on the school's all-time scoring list, as she is now just 29 points shy of 1,000 at 971 points. Fellow senior Elizabeth Torres passed Ronda Harrison for 4th place in assists at ULM (420).

Taylor Maricle finished a loose ball underneath the goal for the game's first points and a 2-0 ULM lead. Maricle then drilled a 3-pointer from the top of the key for a 5-0 Warhawk advantage.

After UL-Lafayette (5-16, 0-9) closed the deficit to 5-4, ULM embarked on a 7-0 run highlighted by two sophomore Ashleigh Simmons layups to stretch the lead to 11-4.

ULM (7-15, 5-4) upped the lead to 10 (18-8) on another Maricle jumper from long range. The Ragin' Cajuns quickly closed the lead to just four (18-14) on back-to-back 3-pointers from Megan Whittaker. A jumper from Jean-Marie Allen brought UL-Lafayette within two (18-16) on an 8-0 run.

The Warhawks closed the half on a 12-0 surge to take a 30-16 advantage into halftime. Williams scored six of the frame's final 12 points to pace all scorers with 12 points. Maricle added eight points and two rebounds, while Simmons chipped in six points and six boards.

A pair of buckets from Torres and sophomore Jasmine Shaw to start the second half pushed the ULM run to 16-0 and gave the hosts a 34-16 lead. Finishes down low by Williams and Maricle extended the cushion to 21 (40-19).

Williams was not finished, drilling the second 3-pointer of her Warhawk career from the top of the key to put ULM in front 53-25. An and-1 in the paint extended the advantage to 56-27.

Williams added seven rebounds to her game-high 22 points. Simmons and Maricle each finished with 10 points apiece, while Shaw added eight points and a career-best five steals.

Krystal Motley led UL-Lafayette with eight points, while Whittaker chipped in six points and three rebounds.

Jonesboro, Ark.GAME TWENTY FOURUALR 52
ULM 46Feb. 4, 2012 - Jack Stephens Center
Little Rock, Ark.

JONESBORO, Ark. - Sustained scoring runs from the host team powered Arkansas State to a 76-61 win over the ULM women's basketball team Wednesday night inside the ASU Convocation Center.

Senior Larrie Williams moved past both Ranita Bolton (1987-91) and Jesse Carrier (2006-10) into 17th place on the school's all-time scoring list. Williams is just 15 points shy of becoming the 16th 1,000-point scorer in school history (985). Fellow senior Elizabeth Torres passed Veronica Ridgell for 3rd place all-time in assists (425).

Sophomore Ashleigh Simmons got the Warhawks (7-16, 5-5) on the board first with a layup in the paint. NeNe Hurst followed with a jumper to tie the game at 2-all. Simmons connected on another layup to retake a two-point advantage (4-2).

The Red Wolves (9-14, 3-7) raced out on an 8-0 run to open a 16-7 lead. An and-1 from senior Marion Zollicoffer cut the deficit to six (16-10). Zollicoffer then put back a missed field goal to close the gap to 16-12.

Arkansas State surged with a 13-7 run of its own to take a 29-19 lead. Sophomore Jasmine Shaw responded with a runner to slash the deficit down to eight (29-21). A 3-pointer from Torres brought ULM within five at 29-24.

A blistering 8-2 spurt sent Arkansas State to the half with a 38-26 cushion. Simmons led ULM with eight points and two rebounds, while Zollicoffer chipped in seven points and four rebounds.

Hot shooting out of the break vaulted the Red Wolves in front 46-26, capped by an Andi Watson 3-pointer. ULM came back down the floor with a pair of field goals from Williams. A layup by Torres brought the margin to 48-32.

A 3-pointer from Alexar Tugler and a 3-point play by fellow sophomore Elexar Tugler cut the disadvantage to 49-38. A jumper from Alexar Tugler brought the Warhawks back within single digits (49-40) and capped an 8-0 run. Buckets by Hurst and Quinishia McDowell put Arkansas State on top 53-42.

Williams and Simmons shared the scoring lead for ULM with 14 points. Torres chipped in eight points and five assists.

Jane Morrill paced all scorers with 21 points and added four rebounds. Hurst finished with 17 points and eight rebounds.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - An 11-point second half swing led UALR over the ULM women's basketball team 52-46 Saturday night inside the Jack Stephens Center. ULM held the edge in points scored in the paint (22-16), points off turnovers (14-13) and second chance points (9-6).

Senior Marion Zollicoffer got the Warhawks (7-17, 5-6) on the board with a nifty drive to the hoop for a quick 2-0 lead. Sophomore Jasmine Shaw then banked a layup off the glass for a 4-0 advantage. UALR's Taylor Ford broke the ULM surge with a jumper off the glass to make it 4-2.

The Warhawks held the Trojans scoreless for nearly seven minutes, embarking on an 8-0 run to take a 12-4 lead. A 3-pointer from sophomore Alexar Tugler stretched the cushion to nine (15-6).

UALR (12-11, 7-3) closed the opening frame on an 11-2 run, but the Warhawks took a 26-21 advantage to the locker room. Senior Larrie Williams led all scorers with nine points and added four rebounds, while Shaw chipped in seven points.

ULM scored two baskets early in the second half to up the lead to 30-23. Taylor Gault knocked down a jumper to bring the Trojans within five (30-25).

UALR drew within two (34-32) after a made free throw from Marian Kursh. The Trojans took their first lead of the game at 36-35 on a Gault layup.

Senior Elizabeth Torres paced ULM with 12 points, five rebounds, five assists and two steals. Williams added 11 points, moving into 16th place on the school's all-time scoring list (996 points). She needs four points to join the 1,000-point club as its 16th member.

Gault led all scorers with 19 points for UALR. Kursh added nine points and 11 rebounds.

GAME TWENTY FIVE
ULM 55
South Alabama 52
Feb. 11, 2012 - Fant-Ewing Coliseum
Monroe, La.

MONROE, La. - The ULM women's basketball team erased a seven-point halftime deficit, and senior Larrie Williams reached rare company in school history as the Warhawks defeated South Alabama 55-52 Saturday afternoon inside Fant-Ewing Coliseum.

Williams became the 16th player in program history to score 1,000 career points early in the first half. The 6-2 center now has 1,011 points as a Warhawk.

ULM controlled scoring in the paint 30-20, points off turnovers 22-16, and fast break points 8-2. The Warhawks also forced 18 South Alabama turnovers.

Sophomore Jasmine Shaw made a nice cut to the hoop for a quick 2-0 Warhawk lead. Mansa El responded with a deep triple from the left wing to give South Alabama a 3-2 advantage. El banked home another 3-pointer to stretch the lead to 6-2.

ULM (8-17, 6-6) cut into the lead with a 6-2 surge to close the deficit to two (11-9). South Alabama's (15-10, 8-5) Lauren Walker connected on a jumper to push the cushion to 13-9.

Williams notched her historic bucket on a turnaround in the lane to bring the Warhawks within three at 20-17. The Lady Jaguars took a 31-24 lead into halftime after a made layup from Veronica Cherizol. Shaw paced ULM with nine points, while Williams added seven points, five rebounds and one blocked shot at the break.

The Warhawks used a 9-4 surge out of the locker room to draw within two (35-33), capped by a sophomore Reagan Maricle lay in. Sarda Peterson buried a 3-pointer for South Alabama to push the visitors lead to 38-33.

ULM retook the lead at 40-39 following a tip-in from sophomore Ashleigh Simmons and an inside jumper from Williams. The Lady Jaguars vaulted back in front on a pair of jumpers from El and Walker (45-42).

Sophomore Alexar Tugler made a clean steal off a Mary Nixon drive, taking the ball coast-to-coast for the finish. Senior Elizabeth Torres then drew a fast break and-1 after a steal of her own to give ULM its biggest lead of the game 49-45.

Williams and Shaw each led ULM with 15 points, while Alexar Tugler chipped in 11 points and two steals.

El scored a game-high 20 points to lead South Alabama. Peterson added eight points and two assists.

GAME TWENTY SIX
ULM 70
North Texas 67 (OT)
Feb. 15, 2012 - The Super Pit
Denton, Texas

DENTON, Texas - After Desiree Nelson tied the ballgame with 2.0 seconds left in regulation to send the game to overtime, the ULM women's basketball team clawed its way to a 70-67 win over North Texas Wednesday night at the Super Pit.

The contest saw an astounding 11 lead changes and 11 ties, the final change swinging in the Warhawks' favor. ULM forced 23 Mean Green miscues, converting 25 points off turnovers.

Senior Elizabeth Torres became the 23rd player in program history to surpass the 900-point career scoring mark. The 5-6 guard now has 901 points as a Warhawk.

Laura McCoy drilled a 3-pointer to extend a 7-1 Mean Green (13-13, 6-7) run and give the hosts a 31-26 lead to open the second frame. The Warhawks (9-17, 7-6) fought back quickly with four points to close the gap to one (31-30). Torres added a fastbreak layup to give ULM a 32-31 advantage.

A blocked shot by sophomore Alexar Tugler led to a coast-to-coast basket for ULM and extended its lead to 37-34. Tamara Torru drew contact at the other end on a layup, and McCoy dropped in the rebound off the missed free throw to put the hosts in front 41-39.

Freshman Sharnice Brooks nailed a jumper from the top of the key to bring the Warhawks within three (51-48) before senior Larrie Williams banked a lay in off the glass to draw the score to 51-50. Sophomore Jasmine Shaw bounced in an attempt in the paint to close the ULM run (52-51).

After North Texas jumped in front 57-56, Tugler again drew contact and completed the three-point play to retake a two-point lead (59-57).

Tugler led all scorers with a career-high 19 points and added nine rebounds. Williams finished with 15 points, tying Michelle Biley (2002-06) for 15th-place on the school's all-time scoring list.

Sophomore Ashleigh Simmons flew through the lane from the top of the key for an and-1 to put the Warhawks in front 16-13 midway through the first half. North Texas' Jasmine Godbolt responded with a bucket of her own to draw within one (16-15). Williams finished on an off-balance attempt underneath that put ULM back up by three at 18-15.

North Texas closed the half on a 6-0 run capped by a three-point play from Godbolt, but the Warhawks took a 25-24 lead into the break. Simmons and Williams each led ULM with eight points through one half of play.

Godbolt led North Texas with 16 points and a game-high 13 rebounds, while Torru added 16 point and 10 boards.

ULM Head Coach Mona Martin

17th Season
241-247 Overall Record

No coach in the history of ULM women's basketball has won more games than Mona Martin. Martin is in her 17th season at the helm of the Warhawks with an overall record of 241-247. In her time at ULM, the Warhawks have had eight winning seasons, including two 20-win campaigns.

Martin's overall head coaching record for 16 years at ULM and 17 as a high school coach is 627-408 (.606).

Martin has guided 18 individuals who were named to all-conference teams, including four on the All-Southland Conference first team. Most recently, Lottie Moore was named to the All-Sun Belt Conference third team. Martin was twice named the SLC Coach of the Year, picking up the honor in 1998 and again in 2005.

The Warhawks posted a 16-15 overall record in 2010-11, the team's first winning mark since joining the Sun Belt Conference. In 2008-09, Martin led the Warhawks to a 7-11 Sun Belt record and 15-16 overall record. The Warhawks made history in the opening round of the conference tournament as they knocked off the defending champions, Western Kentucky, for their first ever Sun Belt Tournament victory. There were many highlights from that season, but one that stands out is Martin's 200th victory as the Warhawks head coach.

In their final season in the Southland Conference (2005-06), the Martin-led Warhawks advanced to the O'Reilly Auto Parts/Southland Conference Tournament semifinals. ULM played Stephen F. Austin for the second time to overtime in eight days, coming up one point shy of their second consecutive trip to championship game.

In 2004-05, Martin led ULM to a Southland Conference regular season co-championship and a 20-win season (22-8) for only the seventh time in school history. Martin coached former Warhawks standout Nina Randle to a new ULM and SLC career record in steals on her way toward earning All-Southland Conference first team and SLC All-Tournament honors. Randle went on to play professionally in Switzerland. Michelle Biley, then a junior, also received All-Southland honors, and Aishie Banks, also a junior in 2004-05, was named to the SLC All-

Tournament team.

Having her program in a situation where it can vie for the conference title year-in and year-out is exactly what Martin envisioned when she arrived at ULM in 1995 after compiling a 120-70 (.631) record in six seasons at West Monroe High School.

Martin began her career in 1976 at Natchitoches Central High School, only three months after graduating from Northwestern State with a bachelor's degree in elementary education and physical education. Martin and Central got started together because the school was about to play its inaugural season of girls' basketball and needed a coach.

In 11 years, Martin guided NCHS to a 266-91 record, a winning percentage of .746. All but one of her teams went into the state playoffs, four of them went to the state final four, and three, the 1981, 1986 and 1987 squads, each won state championships.

Her 1986 team went 36-0, won the state title and finished the season ranked No. 8 in the nation. Martin was not only voted the state's top coach but the National Coach of the Year.

The Lady Chiefs never finished lower than second in the district under Martin, winning six district crowns and finishing second five times. She was named district Coach of the Year four times and Louisiana Coach of the Year three times (1982, 1986, 1987). Her last two Natchitoches Central teams were 70-3 and won state titles both years.

In May 1987, Martin entered collegiate coaching when she was named associate head coach at Northwestern State. In her two years, she helped the Lady Demons go 38-20 and make their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

From Northwestern State, Martin moved to West Monroe High School where success followed. In her six years at WMHS, she put the Lady Rebels in the state playoffs every year and won three District 2-5A championships. Her 1994 squad went to the state finals, and Martin won her fourth state Coach of the Year award.

Her coaching career also includes 10 seasons of AAU basketball coaching experience, as co-head coach of the New Orleans-based Domino's team. Her first AAU team advanced to the 1986 national championship game.

Her final squad, just before she was named ULM head coach, finished seventh among 77 teams at the 1995 national championships in Dallas.

After opening with two 5-21 seasons at ULM, she guided her 1997-98 team to a 19-9 record and a second-place conference finish, earning Martin Coach of the Year awards from both the Southland Conference and the Louisiana Sports Writers Association. Her 2000-01 team was 20-9 and again second in the Southland.

Martin is married to Mike, a design engineer at Superlift in West Monroe. Born in New Orleans, Martin grew up in Houston, Texas, and graduated from Waltrip Senior High School. In addition to her bachelor's degree from Northwestern State, she also received a master's of science degree in physical education from the same institution in 1979.
