WARHAWKS WIN FIRST SUN BELT TOURNAMENT TITLE

Fifth-seeded ULM defeated second-seeded Arkansas State 4-2 Sunday to earn its first ever Sun Belt Tournament title. The Warhawks scored three runs in the eighth inning and held on as senior Will Browning earned the save. Browning finished the tournament with a 2-0 record and a save to garner Tournament MVP honors. In addition, senior Caleb Clowers and junior Judd Edwards were named to the all-tournament team.

The Warhawks defeated fourth-seeded South Alabama 7-4 in 10 innings and top-seeded Florida Atlantic 9-7 in 13 innings to win Pool A and advance to the championship game.

SY NAMED SUN BELT PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Senior Shortstop Jeremy Sy capped off a strong regular season by being named Sun Belt Player of the Year prior to family night at the Sun Belt Tournament. Sy was especially good during the Sun Belt season, batting .388 with three home runs, 11 doubles, three triples and 17 RBI during the 30-game conference schedule. Overall, Sy leads the Warhawks with a .329 average to go a long with four home runs, 35 RBI and 51 runs scored. He was also patient at the plate, recording a team-high 38 walks.

Junior left-handed pitcher Randy Zeigler and senior first baseman Joey Rapp were named second team All-Sun Belt for the Warhawks.

ANOTHER GAME, CLOWERS STILL ON BASE

Senior Caleb Clowers batted .421 with a double and three RBI in four games at the Sun Belt Tournament to earn all-tournament honors. Clowers has now hit safely in a career-best 27 straight games and reached base in his last 31 starts. The last ULM game in which the Warhawk second baseman was not on base was April 1 in the series finale at FIU.

During his current hit streak, Clowers has raised his average over 80 points (from .221 to .303). Clowers needs to hit safely in four straight games to tie Willie Core for ULM's best ever hit streak (31).

BROWNING IN RELIEF

Senior right-hander Wil Browning has been clutch for the Warhawks down the stretch this season. The Kosciusko, Miss., native moved into second place on the single-season relief appearances list this past weekend, appearing in his 29th game against Arkansas State.

Browning has the second lowest earned-run average on the team (3.36) and he leads the team with eight victories and six saves.

ZEIGLER NAMED SUN BELT POW FOR THIRD TIME

ULM junior Randy Zeigler has been named the Sun Belt Conference Pitcher of the Week, the league office announced Monday (May 21). It was the third time Zeigler has received the honor this season after being tabbed as the conference's top pitcher during the weeks of March 5 and 12.

The 6-1 left-hander threw his conference-high third, and second consecutive, complete game of the season in last Thursday's 8-2 win at UL-Lafayette. Zeigler allowed two runs on five hits, walking three and striking out nine Ragin' Cajun hitters. His 132 pitches marked the eighth time in 15 starts that Zeigler has thrown 125 or more pitches during a single outing in 2012.

A native of Shreveport, Zeigler led the Sun Belt Conference with 97.2 innings pitched and a .220 batting average against during the regular season. His 97 strikeouts were one behind UALR's Chance Cleveland for the league lead.

ALEXANDER ENJOYS MAGICAL WEEKEND

Junior outfielder Brandon Alexander put together the most complete weekend by a ULM player this season at UL-Lafayette (May 17-19), batting a sizzling .778 (7-for-9) with four RBIs and four runs scored. The junior center fielder reached base at a .769 clip during the three-game set.

Alexander went 3-for-4 with a three-run single in Thursday's 8-2 win over the Ragin' Cajuns. He then reached base in all three of his plate appearances after entering as a pinch hitter in the seventh inning of ULM's 2-1 Friday win.

The native of St. Louis, Mo. logged another 3-for-4 night Saturday, scoring a ULM season-high four runs.

WARHAWK FIELD ATTENDANCE REACHES 40 K

ULM has enjoyed the highest two-year average attendance and total attendance figures in the 30-year history of Warhawk Field.

The Warhawks set an attendance record after 35,832 fans took in a ULM baseball game last season, an average of 1,194 fans per contest. The program is currently in the top 40 nationally in average (1,604) and total attendance (new record 41,727) in 2012.

THE PROS ARE ALREADY WATCHING

Three ULM players have previously been chosen in the MLB First-Year Player Draft. Newcomers Brandon Alexander (29th Round, 2009-Baltimore Orioles) and Alex Hermeling (43rd Round, 2011-Los Angeles Dodgers), and 2011 All-Sun Belt first teamer Joey Rapp (41st Round, 2009-Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim; 28th Round, 2010-Washington Nationals) were drafted by Major League Baseball clubs but elected not to sign.

Head Coach Jeff Schexnaider

Charged with restoring a proud baseball tradition at ULM, head coach Jeff Schexnaider has accepted the challenge and answered the call through his first five seasons at the helm of the Warhawk program.

Schexnaider, the 2008 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, guided the Warhawks to a Sun Belt regular season conference championship in just his second season. He followed that success by leading the Warhawks to the 2009 Sun Belt Tournament Championship Game. ULM's march to the title game featured an elimination game against third-seed and host Troy and two elimination games against regular season co-champion Western Kentucky.

Those two accomplishments are elevated by the fact that the Sun Belt consistently ranks among the top seven conferences in the NCAA based on RPI. Schexnaider has amassed a 167-175 record in his five plus seasons on the Bayou.

During his five seasons as ULM's skipper, the Warhawks have posted the three highest home run totals in school history. In fact, ULM combined for more home runs in 2008 and 2009 (178) than it did in the four seasons (2003-06 - 153 home runs) before Schexnaider took over the club.

The Warhawks put together their most successful back-to-back seasons since the 2000 and 2001 campaigns with a combined 66 victories in 2008 and 2009. Over the past three seasons the Warhawks have knocked off four ranked teams - all on the road - including a victory over No. 5 Arkansas in 2009. ULM became the first team to defeat Ole Miss on opening day since 1981 when it defeated the No. 17 Rebels 6-5 to open the 2010 season. ULM defeated a pair of teams that advanced to the 2009 College World Series - Arkansas and Southern Miss - and came within two extra-inning losses of sweeping their series against both schools.

The offensive and defensive transformation under Schexnaider has been remarkable to say the least. ULM has posted the top two team batting averages, the top two hits totals, two of the top three runs scored totals, two of the top three doubles totals, the top two RBI totals, two of the top four fielding percentage totals and the top two double plays turned totals in school history.

Under his guidance Ben Soignier became one of the best players in ULM history and one of the best players in the NCAA. Soignier, who is ULM's only three-time All-American, holds the ULM career records for at-bats, hits, doubles and total bases, while ranking second in runs scored, third in home runs, third in RBIs, fourth in stolen bases and 10th in saves.

ULM has had a player earn All-America honors in each of the last three seasons under Schexnaider's guidance. Judd Edwards joined the list of elite players in Warhawk history in 2010 when Ping!Baseball tabbed him to their Freshman All-America squad.

Two Warhawks have been selected in the Major League Baseball First Year Player's Draft in three of Schexnaider's four seasons as head coach.

The 2009 Warhawks featured a trio of All-Sun Belt selections and Boomer Blanchard was named Sun Belt Conference Newcomer of the Year. Blanchard tallied the second most hits in a single-season in ULM history in addition to scoring the third most runs and accumulating the seventh most total bases.

ULM finished 18th in the country in double plays turned (64), 27th in runs scored (485), 29th in home runs (85), 33rd in slugging percentage (.519), 34th in hits (685) and 38th in batting average (.325).

In 2008, the Schexnaider led Warhawks set school records in hits (697), doubles (139), home runs (93), RBIs (465), total bases (1,141) and double plays turned (76).
