

ULM WARHAWK FOOTBALL

POST-GAME NOTES: ULM 63, TULANE 10 (FINAL)

TEAM/GAME NOTES

- ULM Captains: QB Kolton Browning (Offense), Isaiah Newsome (Defense), Roland Veal (Special Teams)
- ULM won the opening coin toss and elected to receive the football first.
- The 63-10 victory over Tulane was the first for the Warhawks... Tulane owned a 2-0 lead in the all-time series (W, 52-9 at Malone Stadium on October 5, 2002; W, 24-10 in New Orleans on September 20, 2008)... The ULM victory also ended Tulane's 14-game winstreak over teams from the state of Louisiana (excluding LSU).
- Dating back to the final game of 2011 (at FAU, December 3), ULM has scored first in five consecutive games... All five scores have been touchdowns.
- The 35 points scored by ULM in the first half are the most in a half since the club scored 35 in the first half against Middle Tennessee (November 12, 2011; W, 42-14).
- The 63 points scored by ULM are the most during the FBS-era (beginning in 1994; Previous High: ULM scored 62 points vs. Weber State on October 1, 1994).
- ULM's 63 points Saturday are the most in the Sun Belt this season (Previous High: Arkansas State def. Alcorn State, 56-0, September 22, 2012).
- Official Attendance: 18,063

OFFENSE NOTES

- Jyruss Edwards' seven-yard TD run with 12:54 to play in the first quarter was the third rushing TD of the season for the junior... In the third quarter (12:09), Edwards registered his second rushing TD of the day (three yard run)... Edwards now has 19 career rushing TDs and is tied for fifth in program history (Joe Profit, 1967-70).
