A Look at Maine

Maine looks to continue momentum after the holiday break as they are coming off a week-end sweep and offensive explosion against the American International College Yellow Jackets. Maine was led by Hockey East Rookie of the week and NCAA Star of the Week Freshman Chase Pearsn (Alpharetta, GA.) He combined for 5 goals and an assist in the Black Bears sweep by final scores of 5-3 and 7-2, respectively.

Scouting The Black Bears

The Black Bears are led in scoring by senior captains Blaine Byron (9g,11a) and Cam Brown (3g,17a) who look to continue their quest for 100 points with both being just 13 points away from the century mark. The boys from Alpharetta both had impressive weekends against the Yellow Jackets with Pearson netting 5 goals and an assist while Fossier notched a goal and an assist in his lone game of the weekend. Fellow freshman Pat Shea elevated his game providing another spark for the Black Bears, adding a goal and 3 assists against AIC.

Sophomore goaltender Rob McGovern continues to be the man between the pipes for the Black Bears. Thus far through the 2016-2017 campaign, McGovern has amassed a 6-7-3 record, to go along with his .913 save percentage and 2.87 goals against average.

Scouting The Wildcats

New Hampshire is led by Senior Tyler Kelleher, who not only paces his team, but is 4th in the country in scoring, notching 31 points through his first 17 contests. Senior Captain Matias Cleland has been a force at the blue line as well, and has combined for 1 goal and 18 assists for a total of 19 points. UNH has been a force in league play thus far through the 2016-2017 season, amassing a 5-1-1 record, and is among the tops in the division for both goals for and goals against. Currently the Wildcats have scored 31 goals against Hockey East opponents, good for second in the league, and have only surrendered 17 goals, good for second as well.

The Black Bears will look to solve Junior goaltender Daniel Tirone, who is undefeated against Maine this season. He has compiled an 8-5-2 record on the year coupled with his .917 goals against average. Tirone shut out the Black Bears last year in Manchester en route to a 7-0 Wildcat victory that saw him make 21 saves on 21 shots.

Red Gendron enters his fourth season as head coach of the University of Maine men's ice hockey team. He led the Black Bears to a mark of 8-24-6 in third second season at Maine.

Gendron coached a pair of Second Team All-American selections in Ben Hutton and Devin Shore. The duo also earned Hockey East First Team honors and were each selected All-New England as well. Gendron was hired on May 28, 2013 as head coach of the University of Maine men's ice hockey team. The hiring of Gendron links the success of Maine's past with the promise of the future.

Gendron, who has won two NCAA Hockey National Championships and a NHL Stanley Cup as an assistant coach, was named University of Maine head men's ice hockey coach by UMaine President Paul Ferguson and Director of Athletics Steve Abbott.

Gendron's first college hockey coaching experience was with the Black Bears, where he assisted Coach Shawn Walsh with the 1993 NCAA Division I National Championship team.

In his 34-year coaching career, Gendron has worked with championship teams at all levels.

"I am fully aware of what this program means to our current players, our alumni, the university and to our fans throughout the state, and I am equally aware of the championship-caliber results they demand from their Black Bears," said Gendron. "Thank you to President Ferguson, Director Abbott and the wonderful professionals who served on the committee for granting me the opportunity to lead this storied program."

Before his time as Maine Head Coach, Gendron was associate head coach at Yale University; the Bulldogs earned the 2013 NCAA Division I National Championship.

Prior to Gendron's two seasons at Yale, from 2005-11, he was an assistant coach at the University of Massachusetts, helping the Minutemen reach the 2007 NCAA Tournament.

In the 2004-05 season, Gendron was head coach and general manager of the Indiana Ice of the United States Hockey League.

Gendron spent 11 seasons in professional hockey with the New Jersey Devils organization. From 2002-04, he coached the Albany River Rats of the American Hockey League. From 2000-02, he scouted for the Devils and from 1996-2000, Gendron was an assistant coach of the Albany River Rats, leading the team to two appearances in the AHL conference finals.

From 1994-96, Gendron was assistant coach for the New Jersey Devils, where his responsibilities included on-ice practice and video/statistical analysis. The team won the 1995 Stanley Cup after finishing as Eastern Conference finalist in 1994. During the 1993-94 season, he was a technological specialist for the Devils.

Gendron came to the University of Maine in the fall of 1990, where he was an assistant coach for three seasons. His responsibilities included bench coaching, practice planning, and coaching the forwards and power play on one of the best teams in college hockey history.

For 11 years, Gendron was a head and assistant coach in Vermont and New Hampshire.

Gendron also has international coaching experience. He has guided eight USA Hockey Teams, including the U.S. National Junior Team on three occasions.

At Bellows Free Academy in Vermont, he guided squads to four state championships in the 1980s. Gendron earned three NHL championship rings as a coach and has twice had his name engraved on the Stanley Cup. He was an assistant coach for the New Jersey Devils when they captured the Stanley Cup in 1995, and was an assistant and head coach, respectively, with their AHL team in Albany when the Devils won the Stanley Cup in 2000 and 2003.

Gendron says the experience he and his family had in Maine in the 1990s was life-changing.

"All of the wonderful things that have happened to us since that time would not have been possible if not for the University of Maine, Shawn Walsh, Grant Standbrook, and all of the champion players and coaches who were part of our first Maine experience. The energy and passion within and surrounding this program are inspiring and have not diminished in my absence," Gendron says.

Gendron earned a master's degree in education from UMaine in 1993. USA Hockey uses Gendron's book, "Coaching Hockey Successfully," as the advanced-level manual for its coaching education program.

Gendron is fluent in French and speaks some Russian. He graduated in 1979 from New England College in Henniker, N.H., where he was a three-year hockey captain.

He and his wife, Janet have two daughters, Katelyn and Allison.

LISTEN TO THE BLACK BEARS:

The University of Maine men's ice hockey game will once again be broadcast statewide. The following are the list of radio stations that the Black Bears can be heard on. All University of Maine hockey games are carried live over the air by WVOM 103.9 FM in Bangor, Maine. Games can also be heard on WVQM 101.3 (Augusta), WSYX 1240 AM (Millinocket), WLOB 1310 AM (Portland), WJJB 96.3 (Portland), WRED 1440 AM (Portland) and WVOM 1450 (Rockland). Internet audio can be found through www.GoBlackBears.com. Dan Hannigan returns to handle the play-by-play duties for his 21st season. He has called many memorable moments in Maine hockey history, including the overtime game-winner in the 1999 National Championship game. Joining Hannigan in the booth for most games will be Bangor Daily News beat writer Larry Mahoney. Mahoney has been covering the Black Bears for more than 30 years. Many home games and select road games will also be broadcast by the University of Maine student radio station, WMEB (91.9 FM).
