CAA Football has raised the profile of what was once the Yankee Conference and later the Atlantic 10 Conference since the league came under the CAA banner in 2007. Over the past seven years, the league has established itself as one of the nation's premier FCS power conferences with regard to on-the-field success, television exposure, marketability and the achievements of its student-athletes on the field, in the classroom, in the community and at the next level.

CAA Football sent three teams to the FCS Championship in 2013, with Towson becoming the eighth league school to reach the national title game since 2003. This past fall was also the second in CAA Football's five-year agreement with the NBC Sports Group, in which six nationally televised tilts aired on the NBC Sports Network as part of the league's 42 total televised contests. The CAA and CAA Football was the first collegiate athletic conference to sign a broadcast agreement with the NBC Sports Network, which launched on January 2, 2012.

CAA Football once again proved its prowess in matchups with nonconference foes, maintaining what has become a long tradition of success against non-league FCS opponents. The 2013 season saw the conference's 11 member programs combine for a 27-11 (.711) mark in FCS nonconference play.

The league's strong presence in the national polls remained another constant in 2013. The conference completed the season with three teams ranked in both The Sports Network and FCS Coaches polls, along with four others receiving votes in one or both polls. In total, nine of the league's 11 schools were nationally ranked at one point during the season.

CAA Football saw numerous individual student-athletes earn national recognition in 2013, with 20 players receiving All-America selections. Additionally, recording-setting Towson running back Terrance West was one of three finalists for the prestigious Walter Payton Award.

The league continues to set itself apart at the next level, with two players hearing their names called at the 2014 NFL Draft. West was selected in the third round by the Cleveland Browns, while Maine defensive back Kendall James was chosen by the Minnesota Vikings in round six. The conference has now had multiple players picked in each NFL Draft since 2006.

CAA Football's emphasis on its players' off-the-field achievements was evident in 2013 as well. Maine quarterback Marcus Wasilewski was the recipient of the Chuck Boone Leadership Award, which honors the player who best embodies the highest standards of leadership, integrity, teamwork and sportsmanship in his academic and athletic pursuits. Wasilewski was also selected as CAA Football's Student-Athlete of the Year.

CAA Football will welcome Elon University as the league's newest member in 2014, expanding the conference to 12 teams. The Phoenix join the league after 11 years in the Southern Conference, which included an eight-win season in 2008 and a nine-win campaign in 2009.

The league has enjoyed a tremendous record in the postseason, earning 86 total playoff berths and at least three in every year since 2006. CAA Football's 84 all-time wins in the NCAA playoffs are second-most of any FCS conference, and the league has further established its presence at the national level by placing 10 teams in the national semifinal round over the last seven seasons.

Richmond's 2008 National Championship and Villanova's 2009 title mark the most recent national crowns for the league. In 2004, James Madison claimed the National Championship title with a 31-21 triumph over Montana, becoming the first team since the field expanded to 16 teams in 1986 to reach the championship game after winning three road playoff contests. Delaware rolled past Colgate, 40-0, to capture the National Championship in 2003, becoming the first team to ever post a shutout in the title game. No other conference has had two different teams win national titles in back-to-back years, and CAA Football has done it twice (2003-04 and 2008-09). Massachusetts earned a National Championship in 1998, defeating perennial power Georgia Southern, 55-43.

CAA Football boasts a total of 25 individual national award winners. Old Dominion quarterback Taylor Heinicke (2012), New Hampshire quarterback Ricky Santos (2006), William and Mary quarterback Lang Campbell (2004), Villanova running back Brian Westbrook (2001), Nova wide receiver Brian Finneran (1997) and UNH running back Jerry Azumah (1998) and Towson running back Dave Meggett (1998) have all won the Walter Payton Award under the league banner. James Madison linebacker Derrick Lloyd (2001) and defensive lineman Arthur Moats (2009) each received the Buck Buchanan Award prior to UNH linebacker Matt Evans' honor in 2011. Villanova quarterback John Robertson (2012) and Towson's West (2011) are past recipients of the Jerry Rice Freshman of the Year Award. New Hampshire's Sean McDonnell (2005), James Madison's Mickey Matthews (1999 & 2008), Villanova's Andy Talley (1997) and Boston University's Dan Allen (1993) were Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award winners from the league before Towson head coach Rob Ambrose received the award in 2011. Delaware's K.C. Keeler (2010), Richmond's Mike London (2008), Matthews (2004), Massachusetts' Mark Whipple (1998) and Talley (1997 & 2009) have all garnered the American Football Coaches Association National Coach of the Year honor as well.

The league continues to enjoy great success beyond the collegiate playing field, too. CAA Football has had 106 players drafted by NFL franchises dating back to 1948. A total of 28 players have been selected in the draft over the last 10 years, including 2013 Super Bowl MVP Joe Flacco of Delaware (18th overall to the Baltimore Ravens in 2008). More than 30 players currently join Flacco on active NFL rosters.

With the addition of Elon this year, CAA Football's geographic footprint has only been further deepened up and down the East Coast, with schools located from Maine to North Carolina. This season's members include UAlbany, Elon, Delaware, James Madison, Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Richmond, Stony Brook, Towson, Villanova and William and Mary. While CAA Football officially began March 1, 2007, its roots date back more than 60 years.

On December 3, 1946, the Code of the Yankee Conference went into effect. Established as an all-sports conference for the New England land grant colleges, the six charter members included Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont. Upon the formation of Division I-AA football in 1978, the league disbanded all sports except for football. Delaware and Richmond were admitted to the conference in 1986, Villanova was added in 1988 and James Madison, Northeastern and William and Mary joined the league in 1993. The Atlantic 10 assumed operational control of the conference from 1997-2006, with Hofstra becoming part of the league in 2001 and Towson joining the group in 2004. UAlbany and Stony Brook were welcomed to the league in 2013.

WEEKLY COACHES' MEDIA TELECONFERENCE
The CAA Football coaches will hold a weekly teleconference for the media beginning in August and continuing each Monday through the end of the 2014 season. Each coach will be available for 10 minutes. Media representatives wishing to participate in the teleconference should contact the CAA Football office for the phone number and schedule.

CAA FOOTBALL ON THE WEB...CAASPORTS.COM
The official web site of CAA Football features current information on all facets of the league, including the 12 football playing members. Standings along with team-by-team and composite results are updated after each game. National polls, weekly award winners and team notebooks are updated early each week. The site also contains schedules, television listings, past conference records and much more. Be sure to check out the CAA Media Center for video highlights of action from around the league.

WEEKLY RELEASE, AWARDS, STATISTICS
Media can access Adobe Acrobat PDF files of the complete weekly release, including conference and team-by-team statistics, by logging on to www.CAASports.com. Weekly releases will also be sent via email to a number of accredited media outlets around the league. Media representatives should contact the CAA Football office to be added to the email list. CAA Football names offensive, defensive, rookie and special teams Players of the Week each Monday morning during the season. Winners, announced at the beginning of the weekly teleconference, are chosen from nominations provided by CAA Football sports information directors. The information will also be available from the CAA Football office via release as well as on the league's website.

College Football Hall of Fame Inductees

David "The Admiral" Nelson

Inducted: 1987

Nelson served as the head coach at Maine from 1949-50 before moving on to Delaware from 1951-65. He guided the Black Bears to the Yankee Conference title in 1949 and a 5-1-1 record in 1950. He is credited for creating the Wing T formation while at Maine. Nelson served as Commissioner of the Yankee Conference from 1989-91 and was a member of the NCAA Football Rules Committee from 1957 to his death in 1991.

Harold "Tubby" Raymond

Inducted: 2003

Raymond served as an assistant coach at Maine from 1951-53. He helped Nelson implement the Wing T while in Orono. Raymond moved on to Delaware and was the school's head coach for 36 seasons and won 300 games and three national titles during his career. At the time of his retirement, Raymond had accounted for over half of the total wins accumulated by the Blue Hens in the 110-year history of the program.

Eddie "Robbie" Robinson

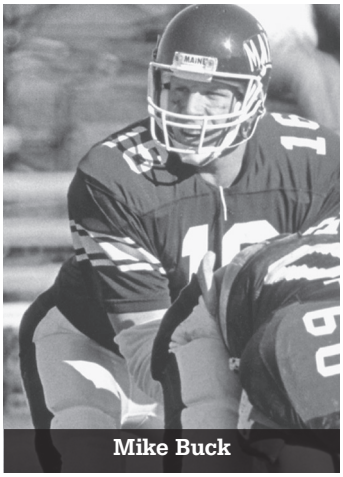

Inducted: 1955

Robinson served as the head coach at Maine during the 1902 season and led the Black Bears to a 6-2 record, including five shutout victories. Robinson also coached at Brown and Nebraska. Overall, he compiled a record of 156-86-13 in his 27 seasons as a head coach. He led the 1915 Brown football team to the Rose Bowl and is one of just four alumni from Brown to be named to the College Football Hall of Fame.
